Duo at state track meet leads off MHS award week

JOURNAL STAFF REPORT

For Muleshoe High School students Stacy Locker and Kyle Atwood, the past few days have been about as good as it gets.

On Saturday, the pair were in Austin to run in the state Class AAA track meet. Both placed — Atwood second in both the 800-meter and 1,600-meter runs and Locker fifth in the 800 meters.

They came home and both joined about 180 other Muleshoe students Monday night in receiving academic awards in the high school auditorium.

In Austin, Atwood — a sophomore — finished less than a second off the winning pace in the boys' 800 meters. His time was 1:55.14 compared to a first-place 1:54.24 posted by Manuel Esparza of Crane.

His 4:27.65 in the 1,600 meters came in behind Tyler Stanfield of Crockett at 4:25.24.

Locker's time in the girls' 800 meters was 2:22.74 as compared to a winning 2:17.60 by Denisha Goldsmith of New Boston.

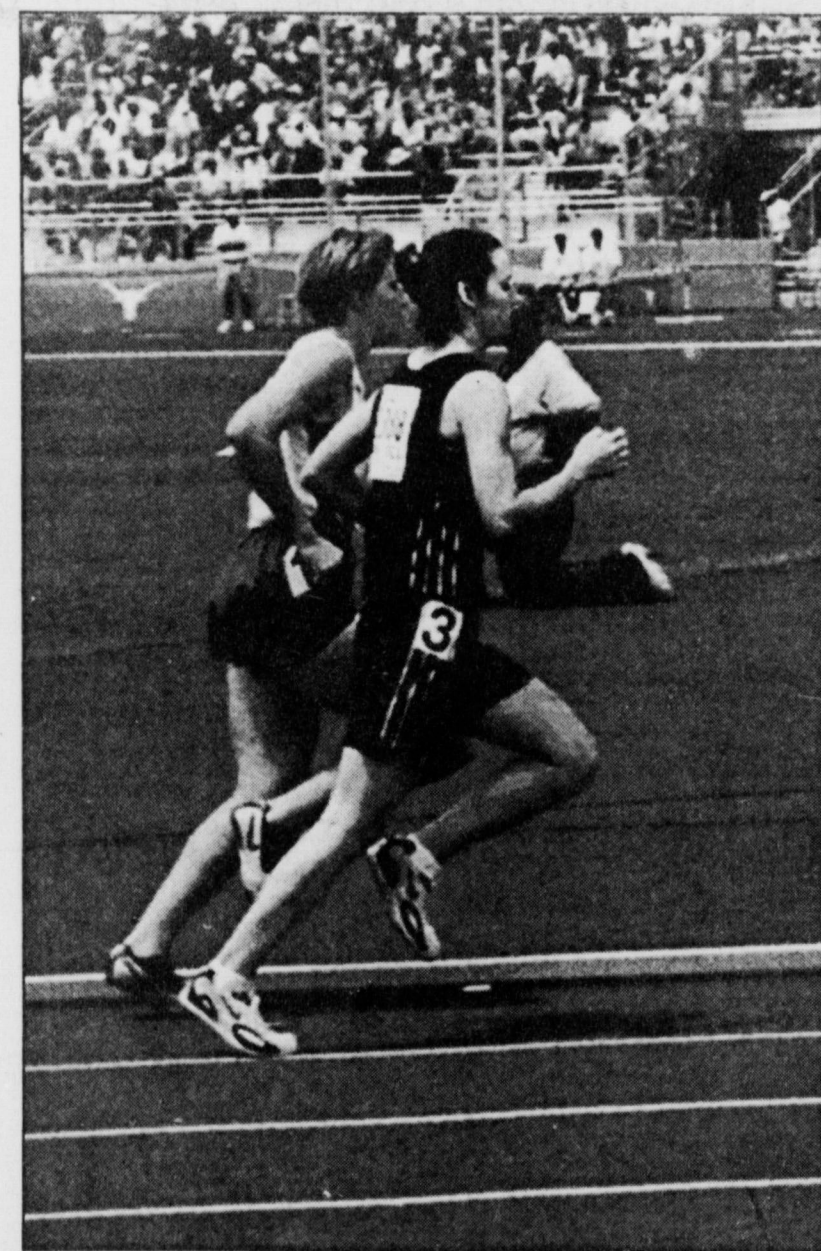

Monday's awards program was capped by the introduction of the valedictorian and salutatorian of the Class of 2000 — Leonard Joyner and Kamal Bhakta, respectively.

Other honor graduates (those with at least a 3.8 grade-point average over the past four years on the Advanced with Honors Graduation Plan) are James Barrett, Bobbie Benham, Rosario Flores, Blake Gartin, Chris Gatewood, Lela Hancock, Ryan Hodge, April Kelley, Rhett Kerby, Stacy Locker, Mitch Mason, Eric Posadas, Tyson Purdy, Leisha Wallace and Brandy Whitt.

A similar list gained the President's Award for Educational Excellence, presented by former school board President Cindy Purdy, for maintaining at least a 3.5 grade-point average and scoring at the 85th percentile on a college entrance exam. Those recipients were Randy Bohler, Amber Futch, Joyner, Bhakta, Barrett, Gartin, Gatewood, Hancock, Kerby, Locker, Mason, Posadas and Purdy.

With school about over, Muleshoe students continue to excel. Scenes from the Class AAA state track meet in Austin on Saturday include (top photo) Kyle Atwood all alone and in fine form at one point during his second-place effort in the 1,600-meter run. The score board (middle photo) reflects his finish near the top. He also captured second in the boys' 800 meters. And at left, Stacy Locker (fifth in the 800 meters) and an unidentified opponent pace each other as they concentrate on their race. The two runners returned to Muleshoe and participated with about 180 other MHS students in Monday's high school awards show, in which Superintendent David Hutton presented the valedictorian of the Class of 2000, Leonard Joyner (photo at right) and salutatorian Kamal Bhakta.

Muleville board officers pass baton to new group

JOURNAL STAFF REPORT

This year's officers in Muleville, the business community at DeShazo Elementary School, have passed their command to next year's group.

Muleshoe Mayor Victor Leal swore in the new board of directors at Monday night's annual board meeting; he told the outgoing officers that he has been on many boards and "we could have learned a lot from you about how to run a meeting."

Outgoing board president Kate Leopard kept the meeting moving briskly.

Other members leaving the board

(all fifth-graders) include Brittni Carter, Chelsi Hawkins, Calli Hancock and Shayla Hall.

DeShazo Principal Barbara Finney recognized the board members whose service was ending.

New officers (who will be fifth-graders) are Kelsey Tipps, president; Garrett Riley, vice president; and Colby Carpenter, secretary.

Other fifth-grade board members for next year include Tanner Bales and Holly Hunt.

Fourth-grade board members will be Vanessa Gómez, Janae Pyle, Mario Rodríguez, Wesley Wood and Blake O'Hare (a new member).

New third-grade board members will include Tiffany Standard, Callie Ann Sterling, Mari Andrade, Steven Richards and Cole Hawkins.

Muleville operates businesses at the school including a bank, the School Box (which sells school supplies) and the Mulebarn (which sells food at lunchtime).

Hawkins recognized Eric Washington and DJ Robertson as this year's School Box co-managers, and Carter presented each with a gift for his service.

The co-managers' duties included arriving at school by 7:30 a.m. to open the store, then act as cashiers, balance the deposits daily and fill out the deposit slips, just as would be done in managing an adult business.

Riley recognized the sponsors of the School Box and thanked them for their help. Hall did the same for sponsors of the Muleville Bank, and then Hancock did the same for sponsors of the Mulebarn.

Tipps thanked the mayor for installing the new board and then thanked the crowd — which overflowed the school board's meeting room — for attending the meeting and supporting Muleville throughout the year. Then she invited them to a reception honoring the outgoing board members.

Professional homeless people can become celebrities of sorts

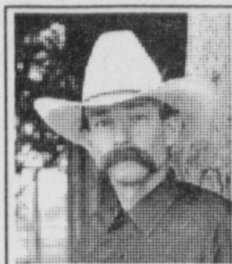

I passed a professional homeless person again today.

She's staked out a corner at an intersection off the freeway that I take to the airport on a regular basis.

She's a celebrity of sorts. I've seen at least two feature stories including her during the past year. She lives with a couple other homeless folks outside the city. They sleep in a car.

According to the story, they are ex-alcoholics. But she's at her spot almost every morning before daylight, on her corner by the stop sign. She has a cardboard sign that asks for a handout because she's out of work and needs help and "God Bless."

Let me tell ya, she's not out of work. She's on duty on her corner regular as in insulin shot. She probably puts in more hours than the average consultant.

BAXTER BLACK

ON THE EDGE OF COMMON SENSE

Did I mention she has a dog? She always has a dog with her. On cool winter mornings, his head is peeking out from under the nondescript blanket the woman is wrapped in.

I used to think the dog was a ploy for sympathy. It would be a good one. Authors, movie producers, animal-rights groups and charities of all kinds have shamelessly used animals as a sympathy device.

But hers is not an easy life. Anybody who puts in 8 to 5, six days a week, knows that some mornings the drudgery can weigh you down.

However, it makes it more bearable for most of us knowing we've got supper, the Barcalounger, 64 channels and a clean warm bed waiting after you get off work. I'm not sure what she has waiting for her when she gets off work. I guess I don't want to think about it.

After giving her a couple bucks the first few times I passed, I began to resent her.

"Go git a job. Show a little self-respect. Take some initiative," I thought.

But I have come to the conclusion that there are people in society who just don't fit in. Where would she ever get a job? I wouldn't hire her. Maybe she's emotionally unstable, mentally dysfunctional, anti-social.

Whatever she is, though, she isn't lazy.

Oh sure, maybe she goes back to her hobo camp after a hard day's begging and gripes about the cheap-skates in their new BMWs with the windows rolled up.

"One guy asked if I could change a five. Can you believe it! Ah, well, another day. Think I'll have a diet pop and prop my feet up in front of the fire. Come here, ol' dog."

Of late, I no longer think the dog is a ploy. He's probably her best friend — something, I suspect, she doesn't have in abundance. For her, like a lot of us, her dog lends some kindness and comfort in an often unsympathetic world.

The dog, in return, gets her love and protection.

Yup, she may be homeless, but her dog isn't.

TOPS NEWS

Twenty-one members of Tops No. 34 attended the May 11 meeting at the Church of Christ on American Boulevard.

The meeting was called to order by leader Laverne James, who also led the prayer and pledge.

Both TOPS songs were led by Noemí Sánchez and Alma Robertson.

Secretary Janie Hughes read the previous week's minutes, which were approved.

Lucille Harp, who is in charge of the get-well card ministry, prepared cards for members to sign and send to Ozell Cherry and Jerral Otwell.

Best loser was Paula Cantrell, with James and Sánchez tied for the first-runner up position. Jewel Peeler was second runner-up.

These results were given by weight recorders, Alene Bryant and Betty Jo Davis, after the weigh-in.

James led a discussion of an article written by Richard Simmons about what to do and what not to do in a grocery store.

Here are some of Simmons' own rules.

• "If you don't buy it, you won't eat it."

• "By all means, go to the grocery store by yourself — if at all possible."

• "Save money and calories on junk food by not buying it."

The fourth rule is to shop with a list — and stick with it — and the fifth rule is very important: Don't shop for groceries while hungry.

Simmons ends the list with a warning that anyone who begins to feel they're losing control in the grocery store should head for another part of the store quickly.

The next TOPS meeting will be at 5:30 p.m. May 18 at the same site. Visitors are welcome.

For this year's contest, the Muleshoe Journal is looking for a PHOTOGRAPH that best depicts why your dad should be our Father of the Year. It doesn't matter what year or under what circumstances the photo was taken. We want to see pictures of your dad doing the things that make him a great father...playing with the kids, helping with homework, sleeping in his favorite chair, cooking dinner...etc. All entries will be judged by an unbiased group of persons based on content and originality. A one sentence caption that captures the idea of your photo would be a great addition!

ENTER YOUR ROOKIE OR EXPERIENCED DAD TODAY!

Deadline to enter this year's contest is Tuesday, June 13, 2000 at 5 pm. Drop your entry photo off at the Muleshoe Journal office, 304 W. 2nd St. or mail your photos to us at P.O. FLOODPLAINS AND WETLANDS NOTICE OF EXPLANATION

DATE: May 18, 2000
The City of Muleshoe Texas intends to undertake a water line improvement project for residents in portion of eastern and western sections of the city as a CDBG project under the Texas Community Development Program for non-entitlement cities and counties. The project is located in the 100-year floodplain. The proposed water improvements cannot be undertaken in any other location as relocation costs would exceed available program resources. Failure to provide the improve water system improvements would result in the continued unsafe and unhealthy living conditions for the 328 families. It is the City's judgement that the improvements to the existing structures outweigh consideration for Executive Order 11988/11990. Please extend or send written comments to Rick Hanna, City Manager, City Hall, 215 S.
