G. W. Quick of King City, Mo., is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Harry Levinson, 471 King Hill avenue. Mrs. E. T. Davis, 118 East Missouri avenue, left yesterday for Diagonal, Iowa, to visit her parents.

John S. Graves and niece, Miss Edna Graves of Olney, Ill., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Graves, 215 East Missouri avenue. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Anderson of Bloomington, Ill., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kohler at the Transit House, have gone to Bethany, Mo., on a visit.

The degree team of Valley Council, No. 791 K. & L. of S., will give a card party and dance tomorrow evening in English hall, King Hill and Colorado avenues. Refreshments will be served and prizes given. Music will be furnished by the council band.

An elaborate program was given last night by the Brotherhood of the Francis Street Methodist church. A large crowd attended. The principal address of the evening was that of M. A. Reed, who gave a patriotic address on "The Flag, Its History and Meaning."

Major Clayton last night set the councilman to guessing as to what his object is, when he submitted a message to the city council, which, after condemning the whole controversy over the electric light plant, he named Walter C. Stewart to the position of superintendent.

BOUGHT PATROL TEAM.

Horses for Suburb's Hairy-Up Wagon Are Well Matched.

The patrol team for the South End police station has been purchased, subject to the acceptance of the board of police commissioners. The horses are dark grays and are well matched, costing in the neighborhood of $500.

The team was hitched yesterday morning in the mule and horse barns and inspected by Col. John Donovan, Councilman J. P. Roberts, Police Commissioner Judge W. K. James, W. E. Warrick and H. C. Watts of the South St. Joseph Business Men's club, which purchased the team, and Sergeant Geo. Weber. It was the unanimous opinion of the men that the team was one of the prettiest in the city and will be worth twice as much when fully trained.

BEGIN INTERIOR DECORATION.

Paper Hangers at Work on Robidoux Will Be Turned Over July 12.

The work of decorating the new Hotel Robidoux was started yesterday morning, the seventh, eighth and ninth floors being completed, with the exception of the decorations. Everything is also in readiness for the paper hangers, who will begin their work shortly. C. R. Vaughn, vice-president of the Seiden-Breck Construction company, which has the contract for the erection of the hotel, stated yesterday that he would be ready to lay carpets next week, and that he would turn over the building on specified date, July 12, and that the opening of the hotel would then be put up to the lessees.

The work on the tile floors, plain plaster and steam fitting has been finished, and it is thought the elevators will be completed and be running not later than June 27. The material for the ice chests in the basement and first floor, will arrive this week and be put up immediately. All of the top floors down to the third will be completed by June 20.

FOUR ARE SENTENCED.

One Draws Parole, Others Will Go to "Pen."

Eleven years in the state penitentiary were distributed among four prisoners yesterday morning by Criminal Judge J. B. Cateel, when they pleaded to the charges upon which they were held.

Charles McCarthy got five years for robbery; Roy McMaine, two for larceny from a dwelling house; James Kincaid, two for grand larceny; and Walter A. Gray, two for selling mortgaged property. Gray was paroled.

THE TEXAS ONION CROP.

San Antonio Express: Almost three quarters of a million dollars will be the gross receipts from the Texas onion crop this year. Thus far 1500 cars have been marketed and another 200 cars will practically wind up the crop in the state. Had it not been for an excess of rainfall, which materially damaged recent shipments, it is expected the earnings would easily have reached $1,000,000. These onions have been handled through the Southern Texas Truck Growers Association.

Ray Campbell, sales agent for the association, said that shipments reaching the market in bad condition could be attributed to the rains solely, because of the fact that shipments from the points where there is nothing more than normal rainfall were going into destination in excellent condition and bringing good prices.

While the vegetable has not been bringing as much in the market as last year, this condition is offset in the greater number of shipments being made since the movement began this year. On the whole the onion growers have realized handsomely from their efforts and only a few of them will not derive more than the outlay of their investments.

South Texas has also produced other truck in great quantities, as is shown by the record of cabbage and cucumber shipments. Of cabbage, 450 cars have been shipped, and the coast country raised the greater part of this. The cucumber tonnage aggregated about 125 cars, which also makes another record for the state.

Onions, however, are apparently the king vegetable, and while watermelons will run a close second in the way of shipments, these will not bring the great revenue of the Bermuda. The record price for the year for a carload of onions is almost $1,000, early in the season, and shipped out of the district south of San Antonio. Deducting freight, the net revenue to the farmer for the car was almost $900.

Practically the same conditions prevail in the sales of watermelons as in the handling of onions. The price of the melon is lower than during the corresponding period of last year. This is attributed largely to the cool weather that has been prevailing in the north and east, and then money matters outside of the state have had a detrimental effect.

However, notwithstanding various conditions that have militated against the shipments of truck, the products from Texas have taken first rank in the eastern markets with the result that the demand a year hence, it is expected, will be far greater. Early shipments from this state and their quality have, say the railroad men and shippers, given the state a prestige of priceless value.

CLANS GATHERING

THE SUNDAY CALM OF CHICAGO BROKEN BY ARRIVAL OF CONVENTION DELEGATES.

Chicago, June 15.—With flags flying bands playing and crowds surging, the usual Sunday calm of Chicago gave way Sunday to the many noisy demonstrations which usher in a national convention. State delegations and marching clubs slow in arriving passed into the city throughout the day and there was incessant din of brass bands, marching men and exploding enthusiasm. The broad lake front along which the headquarters of candidates and state delegations are located, was besieged by the incoming forces which choked the hotel lobbies, overflowed into the streets and mingled with the groups of curious onlookers on the broad plaza fronting Lake Michigan. It was an ideal summer day, with bright skies and a cool breeze from the lake which gave better promise of good convention weather than Saturday. But despite the thrush of strangers there was an undercurrent of feeling that the multitude was not as great and the enthusiasm not as feverish as in times past. It was observed that some of the arriving state delegations were stripped to a strict business basis of delegates and alternates, without the usual quota of strong hung shouters. This brought the cancellation of hotel rooms in roodly number until some of the large hotels threatened legal proceedings for this unexpected diminution of revenue. But to the veterans of convention battles, the decrease of lung power among the arrivals promised the more orderly and business-like convention that had often been wished during the tumultuous proceedings of the past.

USED AS FATE'S PLAYTHING.

Real Hard Luck That Was Visited on New York Man.

He had been down on his luck for some time, and a few days ago had exhausted his money, with the exception of a solitary nickel. In a newspaper office where he went to look over the "Help Wanted" list he saw an advertisement to the effect that a man living near One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, Harlem, wanted to purchase a shaggy dog.

The Brooklyn unfortunate has a dog which certainly comes under the designation of shaggy, having a trace of the St. Bernard in his make-up. The man had owned the dog for years, but he had reached his limit, and in the "ad" he saw an opportunity to be grasped. "I guess it's up to you, old pal," he said to the dog. "You must go or your boss don't eat. Come on."

Man and dog started for One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street. With wonderful prevision he decided to save the nickel for a return trip if necessary and walked from his home to Harlem. It was a long and tiresome trip. The dog was panting, and the man had to stop every now and then for rest, but finally he reached the place designated. The man rang the bell and inquired for the advertiser. Dogs are not allowed in the house, so the Brooklynite had to wait in the hall, his heart beating hopefully and the faithful dog looking up at him, as if wondering what was going to happen. It may have been five minutes, but it seemed an hour to the anxious man before the advertiser stepped out of the elevator. The suspense was soon over.

"You're Mr. So and So, who advertised for a shaggy dog?" "Yes." "Well, here's the dog." "Tain't shaggy enough." And the advertiser turned away. Imagine the feelings of that poor Brooklynite. His last hope gone and miles from home, with one nickel in his pocket.—N. Y. Morning Telegraph.

Best to Avoid Native Dishes.

A writer in Die Woche warns tourists against the temptations of the bill of fare and comments the old German adage. "What the peasant knows not he will not eat." "Special or national dishes," he says, "should be avoided because, in order to appreciate them, one must be accustomed to them. We always form an idea as to what these dishes should taste like, and our first experience with them is always disappointing. If you must eat these national products of the kitchen, order them in the best hotels or at the first-class restaurants, for there they are idealized by careful preparation and superior ingredients.

The writer gives special warning against the dishes with queer names which are served in Austria and advises tourists to ask what these preparations are before ordering and eating them. As an example he quotes "Hungarian partridge," which may be found on nearly all bills of fare. This is really a dish made of pork "leanings," namely, ears, tails, muzzles, etc., and as little like the name as the Englishman's cheese preparation is like a Welsh rabbit.

Thrifty Tenors.

Italian tenors seldom retire from the stage nowadays with shallow pockets. There is generally a picturesque villa somewhere down in the boot-shaped country to which they can withdraw between seasons to hold communion with themselves and count their money and later on to enjoy their sunset days. Bonci, Caruso, Zonatelto—not one of them within sight of the "farewell" age—already own ideal residences in Bologna, Florence and Verona, respectively. Bassi, too, has an imposing Florence retreat. Masini, a tenor of note throughout Europe, one of sunny Italy's elder sons, has decided at last to bring his public career to an end with a series of special appearances at the Italian opera in St. Petersburg, and he, too, now full of years and riches, has a handsome villa at Vomero, Naples, in readiness.

Urge Tea for Soldiers.

Tea is being strongly recommended by the German military authorities as a beverage for troops on long marches in place of the coffee which has hitherto been the sole refreshment supplied. Special tea-making machines are being constructed for the troops. Tea consumption in Germany is very slight compared with other nations, the Germans ranking fourth in 1903 with a consumption of less than two ounces per head of population, as compared with the British six pounds per head, the Russian 15 ounces, and the Dutch 1 1/4 pounds. The French consumption is very small, and remains at less than one ounce per head.

Vanderbilt Wins Grand Prix.

Paris, June 15.—Thousands of Americans Sunday saw W. K. Vanderbilt's bay colt Northeast, with J. Childs up, capture the Grand Prix de Paris, the blue ribbon event of the French turf, which this year was worth about $72,000.

GAINED HER POINT

WIFE'S DEMONSTRATION OF HUSBAND'S NERVOUSNESS.

Reverend Gentleman Compelled to Admit That He Did Fidget with His Handkerchief While Conducting the Services.

"My dear, you must not fidget so with your handkerchief when you're in the pulpit," said the minister's wife, as she walked home by his side after the morning service. "Fidget!" exclaimed the gentleman. "Why, I seldom use my handkerchief. What do you mean?" "I don't mean using it," replied the wife, laughing. "I hope you will do that whenever it is necessary; but I mean pulling it out of one pocket and stuffing it into another, only to take it out and thrust it under the hymn book. It's a nervous habit, and it's perfectly distracting to watch you."

The clergyman looked kindly incredulous as he said: "I think you must be mistaken, my dear. I might have changed it about a good deal this morning. I believe I did, but I'm certain that it isn't a habit. To prove it, I'll leave my handkerchief with you this evening." It was agreed.

At the close of the invocation the minister's hand was seen withdrawing itself stealthily from his coat-tail pocket, and after he had said: "Let us continue our worship by singing three stanzas"—there was a long pause while he fumbled in the other coat-tail before he added—"of the three hundred and forty-third hymn."

By keeping his mind on his hands instead of on the hymn, he managed to get through the singing with only one slip; but there were several awkward pauses during the responsive reading, when the minister's wife watched his hands roam from breast pocket to pulpit cushion and back to his coat-tail again.

During the anthem the minister seemed less absent-minded, but his wife was uneasy when it came time for the prayer and discreetly covered her eyes. Then he grew more and more distracted, and kept the audience waiting with hymn books in hand while he made another search for the missing bit of linen before giving out the number of the hymn.

Finally it was time for the sermon. "I invite your attention this evening," he began, and then stopped. This time his hand was in his breast pocket. "You will find my text," he began again, "in the eighth chapter of Romans."

The little lady in the pew had gained her point, but really it was ceasing to be a joke. He could never get through his sermon at this rate. Hastily she beckoned to an usher and sent him into the pulpit with the minister's handkerchief. He clutched it with ill-concealed relief, and shot a guilty glance at his smiling wife. Then he drew a long breath, and, as one set free, went on with his admirable sermon.—Youth's Companion.

Mystery of the Watermelon.

Here is a mystery, according to Mr. Bryan. He says: "I am not much of a farmer as some people claim, but I have observed the watermelon seed. It has the power of drawing from the ground and through itself 200,000 times its weight; and when you can tell me how it takes this material and out of its color forms an outside surface beyond the imitation of art, and then forms in it a white rind and within that again a side of red heart, thickly inlaid with black seeds, each one of which in turn is capable of drawing through itself 200,000 times its weight—when you can explain to me the mystery of a watermelon, you can ask me to explain the mystery of God."

SATURDAY'S BUSINESS

Local Receipts Double the Figures of Last Week, Prices Higher.

More than the usual Saturday number of cattle were on hand in the local yards today, but they were practically all cattle that arrived to late to be counted in receipts of Friday. While the weather was extremely bad and buyers were not favorable to going out on a final day of the week, when orders were not urgent, the low cattle on offer found outlet at around steady prices.

The week has not furnished a reliable criterion as to supply conditions in the country. Naturally the country situation, unusually wet weather in large sections and ruling high prices of feeds would drive more cattle to market than have been coming.

The market has been a good one all week and steer prices have been working to a higher level. No fancy heaves have been offered here during the week although several lots on choice order have been offered and sold well at $7.25.

There was not enough business transacted any cows and heifers today to bring about in change any the week's market as reviewed in Friday's Journal, which report read:

A spreading out in the range of prices has been a prominent feature in the cow and heifer trade this week. A good active demand has prevailed for good to choice offerings and prices have advanced unevenly 10c to 20c over the finish of last week.

On the other hand medium and common grades declined 10c to 15c during the same period. Trade in the better classes had ruled active every day under strong competition, while the inferior grassy offerings have not sold with much freedom at any time.

A few strictly prime cows sold up to $6.50, but the big end of the good to choice kinds sold at $4.50 to $5.25, with fair to pretty decent butchers at $3.75 to $4.40, and canners and cutters largely at $2.50 to $3.40.

Choice heifers have been scarce; fair to good kinds selling at $5.25 to $6.00 making up the bulk. A few mixed lots on order sold up to $6.40.

Best bulls are weak to a dime lower, while other kinds are offered off 10c to 15c for the week.

Calf market closed strong with a week ago. Choice vealers are quotable up to $5.75.

Business in stockers and feeders has been of restricted volume this week owing to light receipts. Speculators have been bidding for increased receipts for the past three weeks but the strong prices prevailing have not brought out anything like liberal supplies of cattle fit for this branch of the trade.

Light receipts have been bought up readily from day to day and current prices are strong to a shade higher than a week ago. Country demand has not shown any great activity during the week but this has been largely due to the unfavorable weather conditions.

At the week's close there is a fair showing of decent quality stock cattle on hand in the speculator division and these will be carried over to next week.

There has been little change in the week heifer market and prices are about steady with a week ago.

HEIFERS. Finish of Week's Trade Shows Further Advance in Prices.

The final market of the week showed further advance in prices for live hogs that puts final quotations 30c to 35c higher than the low time of this week and 30c to 35c higher than the finish of last week.

at around 5c to 10 cents over prices current on the previous day and it was on this basis that the bulk of supply was closed.

extremely heavy rain of the morning was a delaying factor in the market as trains were slow in getting stock to the yards.

Total receipts for the week at this market are 40,500, against 45,115 last week, 48,086 a month ago, 54,959 a year ago, 56,995 two years ago, 60,423 three years ago and 61,468 four years ago.

Aggregate receipts at five markets for the week 306,900, against 276,000 last week, 418,400 a month ago, 509,500 a year ago, 414,100 two years ago, 533,300 three years ago and 500,700 four years ago.

Prices ranged from $5.55 to $7.00, with bulk selling at $5.57 to $6.75. The bulk yesterday sold at $5.50 to $6.50, a week ago at $5.25 to $6.35, a month ago at $5.27 to $6.35, a year ago at $5.85 to $6.90, two years ago at $4.40 to $6.50, three years ago at $5.30 to $6.82, four years ago at $4.90 to $6.75.

COWS, BULLS AND MIXED. The market for cows opened active and displayed good life as long as the supply lasted. Best demand, as usual, was for the good dry-lact styles and such kinds were scarce.

Most of the desirable cows sold strong to 10c higher in a range of $4.65 to $7.50. Grassy offerings in the $3.50 to $4.50 class did not show material improvement in prices, but the supply was soon bought up on a steady firm basis compared with last week's unchanged. Canners and cutters were quiet sale at 22c to 24c. A strong outside inquiry for fat heifers and mixed stock was noted, the sharp advance resulting from the active competition between packer and order buyers.

Medium heifers were active and unevenly higher. Bulls sold strong at last week's closing prices. Calves were active sale at steady to strong prices.

ment of railroad trains there would be a period of liberal marketing, especially from the large sections that have been so heavily flooded recently.

Hogs were fairly good in quality today, although the proportion of unfinished light weights was quite large, a condition that arises from country not being favorable to finishing hogs at present prices of corn.

Prices ranged from $5.50 to $7.00, with the bulk selling at $5.57 to $6.75. The bulk Saturday sold at $5.57 to $6.75, a week ago at $5.25 to $6.35, a month ago at $5.27 to $6.35, a year ago at $5.85 to $6.90, two years ago at $4.40 to $6.50, three years ago at $5.30 to $6.82, four years ago at $4.90 to $6.75.

QUITTING SMOKING AT 83. Missouri Man Had Been Steady Pipe Puffer for Seventy-Two Years.

St. Louis—Leonard Hancock of Alton says he has felt better in the last ten days than he ever felt during the past 72 years of his life, and it is all due to the fact that he has quit smoking.

Hancock has smoked and cut grass over since he was a boy ten years old in Franklin Village, N. H. Now he works daily on the lawns of Alton homes, although he is nearly 83 years old.

If he had started out in a straight line with his mowing and cutting he would have cut a swath several times around the world and would have cut and corded all the wood he encountered.

The wrath of tobacco smoke he would have given forth might have been mistaken by Martian astronomers as another ring around the earth.

"I decided a week ago that smoking was plumb foolish," the old man told a reporter, "and the longer I go without that old pipe of mine the more I find it is true. It used to cost me a nickel every Monday morning for a new box of matches, too. I save that now." Then he reflected.

A RUMOR DENIED

ATTORNEY GENERAL BONAPARTE NOT TO LEAVE THE PRESIDENT'S CABINET.

A WHITE HOUSE STATEMENT

Stories of Serious Differences Between Mr. Roosevelt and His Attorney General Set at Rest.

Washington, June 15.—The president and Attorney General Bonaparte intend to go out of office on the 4th of March, and Mr. Bonaparte has just as little idea as the president of going out sooner.

This statement was made at the White House Sunday in reply to rumors that there existed a serious difference between the president and his attorney general that would probably lead to Mr. Bonaparte's leaving the cabinet very soon after the presidential election.

The special differences cited in this connection related to the removal of District Attorney Ruick and United States Marshal Rounds of Idaho, which, it was declared, was opposed by Mr. Bonaparte and insisted upon by the president and in relation to alleged differences over bringing a suit against the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad company.

At the White House Sunday it was declared that the removal of Ruick and Rounds was determined on six months ago, but it was deemed best to wait until certain suits, on which they were engaged were concluded and then to have Assistant Attorney General Cooley go to Idaho and while on the ground recommend who should be their successors.

Mr. Cooley's recommendations have been received and after the attorney general calls at the White House Monday, the appointments will doubtless be agreed upon. It is positively asserted that there has never been the slightest difference of any kind between the president and the attorney general in regard to this matter, both agreeing that the charges against Ruick and Rounds justified their removal.

Havana, June 15.—In the town of Alacranes, province of Matanzas, Victor Navarro, a negro lad arrested on the charge of complicity in the kidnapping of Luisa Valdes, a white child, who recently disappeared from her home, has confessed that the girl was the victim of a band of brujos, or negro wizards.

He said that he and one of the wizards named Marin, who also has been arrested, entered the house and abducted the girl who was murdered for the purpose of using the blood of her heart to cure an old negro of consumption.

The emperor's master of ceremonies, Baron Von De Knebeck, called at the hotel Saturday where Dr. Hill was stopping and informed him that an audience with the emperor had been granted for Sunday in the Old Palace his majesty coming in from Potsdam for the purpose. Three court carriages called for Dr. Hill and, accompanied by his staff, he proceeded to the palace. BLIND TOM IS DEAD.

End Comes to Famous Negro Pianist in Hoboken, N. J.

New York, June 15.—"Blind Tom," famous negro musician, marvel of three generations of play-goers, died Saturday in Hoboken, N. J., where he had been living for years in retirement and subsisting on charity.

Thomas Wiggins is the name given in his burial certificate, but the surname was one which the famous pianist adopted. He was born a slave near Columbus, Ga., about 1850. In early childhood Tom, who was born entirely blind, and more than half idiotic, showed himself remarkably imitative, frequently stealing into the house of his master to reproduce on the piano forte music he had heard played by others. In 1861 he became so proficient on the instrument that he was taken to New York and exhibited as a phenomenon and later was widely heard in the United States and Europe.

Robbed in St. Paul Depot.

St. Paul, June 15.—H. C. Taylor, a capitalist of Seattle, Wash., was robbed of $10,000 in cash at the Union station in this city Sunday morning.

Mr. Taylor, with his wife and daughter, was en route to Seattle from Europe. As the party was about to alight from a sleeping car on a Chicago & Northwestern train from Chicago Mr. Taylor was jostled by two men in the narrow passage at the end of the car, one of whom reached inside Taylor's coat and secured a wallet containing the money and securities. Mr. Taylor immediately shouted an alarm but the men escaped.

WARNER HONORED

MISSOURI SENATOR TO BE MADE CHAIRMAN OF TAFT NOTIFICATION COMMITTEE.

OTHER SELECTIONS MADE

Ex-Gov. Hill of Maine to Head Committee on Permanent Organization and Senator Fulton, Credentials.

Chicago, June 15.—It was announced at the Taft headquarters here Sunday that United States Senator William Warner of Missouri, will be chosen chairman of the notification committee to make notification to the presidential nominee of his selection by the convention; that former Gov. John F. Hill of Maine will be preferred to head the convention committee on permanent organization; and that United States Senator Charles W. Fulton of Oregon was being most favorably considered for the chairmanship of the credentials committee. The selection depend of course upon the success of the plans of Taft forces to organize the convention and are regarded as indicating the confidence felt in that quarter that their strength predominates.

The selection of Senator Warner to head the notification committee is regarded as of more than passing political importance. The senator is past commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, a veteran who saw service throughout the Civil war and represents a doubtful state. Senator Warner is a close personal friend and admirer of the secretary of war, and should the convention fulfill the ambition of that official, the address apprising him of that fact would undoubtedly contain expressions intended to clear the atmosphere of any suggestion of clouds which may have been in the horizon since the secretary's Memorial day address at Grant's tomb in New York.

Ordinarily this appointment would go to the permanent chairman of the convention, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts is slated for this honor, but because of a contemplated visit to Europe will be unable to accommodate himself to the demands of the notification committee.

The intended compliment to Gov. Hill emphasizes the appreciation felt toward what is regarded as an original Taft state. Mr. Hill's work during the contest hearings by the national committee was most efficient and earnest and his bearing and personality is said to have won for him many friends. His ability to head the important committee on permanent organization is conceded.

The credentials committee chairmanship is a matter requiring and receiving most careful consideration. Senator Fulton's availability is recognized from many points of view. He is not only entirely familiar with each of the contested cases, before the national committee, but he heads a delegation which comes to the convention without a single contest. Besides this, his appointment would be extending to the northwest one of the delicate compliments of the convention.

The Flood at Jefferson City.

Jefferson City, June 15.—Practically all the residents of Cedar City, a small town across the Missouri river from here, were driven from their homes Sunday by the continued rise of the river and several persons living in Jefferson City were compelled to join those who fled from the water Saturday. The Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad, which runs on the Callaway side of the river, has abandoned its train service between Booneville and St. Louis, running all its trains by way of Sedalia.

Jefferson County Goes Wet.

De Soto, Mo., June 15.—This Jefferson county, outside of this city, voted wet Saturday by about 3,000 majority. The vote was heavy, the heaviest being in Rock and Merimac townships, adjoining St. Louis county. These townships, largely inhabited by Germans, went almost unanimously for saloons. De Soto, which votes next Tuesday, is still claimed by the dries, who continue parades by women and children.

The Kansas City Flood.

Kansas City, June 15.—The Kaw river is falling but the Missouri at Kansas City continues to rise slowly. The stage Sunday night was 30 feet with a further rise of possibly one foot indicated during Monday from water now in sight. This additional rise at Kansas City will cause a further rise at and below St. Louis and a stage of about 24 feet is now indicated for St. Louis by Thursday or Friday of this week.

Louisiana Leaves Break.

Marksville, La., June 15.—Red river levees broke in two places below Monday Sunday. The worst break is about 800 feet wide with the water flowing through at depths ranging from 16 to 20 feet. The Monca breaks are within about 30 miles of the Mississippi river into which the Red river empties.

Saengerfest at Indianapolis.

WAS A SATISFACTORY TEST

MONITOR FLORIDA WITHSTANDS A WHITEHEAD TORPEDO.

Secretaries Metcalf and Taft Express Satisfaction Over Result of Last Experiment.

Washington, June 15.—That the test made on the monitor Florida in Hampton Roads Saturday with a Whitehead torpedo was highly satisfactory and will repay the government a hundred fold was the opinion expressed Sunday night by Secretaries Metcalf and Taft who witnessed the test. The secretary of the navy, accompanied by Mr. Taft and Postmaster General Meyer, together with a number of army and navy officers, arrived here from Norfolk Sunday morning aboard the Mayflower.

"The charge of gun cotton was greater in the torpedo used than in the ordinary Whitehead," said Mr. Metcalf, "and yet the damage done was confined to the bulkhead selected for the experiment. The vital parts of the vessel and the armor plate elsewhere was not affected. The naval constructor has previously estimated the cost of the experiment at approximately $40,000, and I do not think it will exceed that amount; but the information obtained as a result of the test will repay the government a hundred fold. While we have always had the best construction in our ships and have had numerous tests with armor plate, we have lacked the knowledge that comes from experience gained under conditions of actual warfare."

In speaking of his impressions of the test, Secretary Taft said: "It was the general belief that the torpedo would sink a battleship, but Saturday's test shows that such is not the case. The torpedo penetrated the half-inch outer shell and the door of a second compartment. Of course a mine would have a more serious effect." Mr. Taft was greatly impressed with the new military mast on the Florida which has been tested recently with a 12-inch gun.

A Missouri Heiress Missing.

Neosho, Mo., June 15.—W. B. Phillips, sheriff of Newton county, and his deputies have exhausted every effort to find Miss Grace Davidson, whose absence on the eve of her sister's preliminary trial Monday morning for the murder of Roy Ramsour, is puzzling friends of the heiress. When Sheriff Phillips announced his inability to serve a subpoena upon the 23-year-old girl, who discarded the sutor slain a week ago Saturday by her 18-year-old sister, Bessie, familiarly called "Johnny," it was learned that Grace left her home last Tuesday after dark and has not been heard from since. The sheriff's deputies have searched southwest Missouri for two days, but in vain.

Dolliver's Boom Growing.

Chicago, June 15.—"Taft of Ohio, Dolliver of Iowa." There were many politicians in Chicago Sunday night predicting that these names will constitute the next Republican national ticket, and some believe that the Iowa man is as sure of the second prize as the Ohio man the first. The situation does not justify as strong a characterization, but the Dolliver boom is manifesting such positive vitality and has grown so rapidly during the last 24 hours as to justify giving Mr. Dolliver the center of the stage in placing the characters who are taking part in the vice presidential drama, now being staged.
