

DAILY MARKETS

Official Receipts, 95 Cars, 2571 Cattle; 58 Cars, 3806 Hogs; 11 Cars, 1952 Sheep.

MARKET HAS SLOW START

But Steer Prices Hold Generally Steady at Last Week's Closing Level.

NO CHOICE BEEVES OFFERED

Cow Market Opened Slow, Developing Fair Activity Later at Steady Prices—Bulls Fully Stated—Calves Firm—Stockers and Feeders Steady to a Point Off—Hogs Mostly a Nickel Down—Sheep and Lambs Steady, Best Lambs $6.10.

Receipts from January 1, 1911. The following table shows the receipts from January 1, 1911, and receipts for the corresponding time in 1910:

Table with columns for 1911, 1910, Dec, and Inc. Rows include Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, and Horses.

Table with columns for Live Stock in Sight. Rows include Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, and Horses.

RECEIPTS BY CARS

Table with columns for Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, and Horses.

CATTLE

Steers Open Slow—General Receipts Fairly Liberal. The storm of late last week did not serve to check the movement of cattle, hogs and sheep and the five leading markets reported almost as much stock as a week ago and considerably more than a year ago.

STOCKERS AND FEEDERS

Active was the chief characteristic of the trade in the stocker and feeder division today. Yard traders cleaned up practically everything they had on hand at the close last week.

DRESSED BEEF AND SHIPPING STEERS

Table with columns for 1911, 1910, Dec, and Inc. Rows include 1911, 1910, Dec, and Inc.

COWS, BULLS, AND MIXED

Opening day of the week turned out a pretty good sized crop of the stock, more than half the fun of killing stock being credited to this division.

of business was done during the early part of the session.

The market failed to show material movement in spite of packers' efforts to enforce a break.

Bulls, stags, etc., met a fairly reliable demand today at prices well in line with last week's closing bids.

Prices on veals were generally unchanged as compared with last Friday. Receipts were moderate and outlet good at the steady rates.

HEIFERS

Table with columns for 1911, 1910, Dec, and Inc. Rows include 1911, 1910, Dec, and Inc.

COWS

Table with columns for 1911, 1910, Dec, and Inc. Rows include 1911, 1910, Dec, and Inc.

AS A WOOL STATE

MISSOURI Making Rapid Progress in Mutton and Wool Production. CLOSE TO LARGE PRODUCERS More than Thirty-Five Million Pounds Marketed From State Last Year. AHEAD OF BORDER STATES

Beats Illinois, Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa in Amount and Value of Wool Produced—State Sheared 860,000 Sheep Last Year—Value of Product to Farmers Was $1,324,100.

REMARKABLE DEVELOPMENT

Rio Grande Valley in Texas Has Made Wonderful Progress. San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 16.—The transformation of the lower Rio Grande valley has been the most remarkable development in the great Southwest. Five years ago the greater part of this valley, extending from Brownsville up the border river for almost 70 miles could have been purchased for one to three dollars an acre and the purchasers would have been compelled to be on his guard and see to it that the seller did not make a deed to him for three or four times as much as he had bought, thus avoiding the heavy tax on the land.

JEFFERSON CITY, Jan. 16

Year after year Missouri makes gains in the amount of wool it places on the market, although this is not a regular sheep raising and wool producing state. During 1910 6,250,000 pounds of wool, washed and unwashed, were sold by the farmers and stock raisers to the 114 counties and the same brought $1,435,779 in the scoured state. This clip, which filled 391 freight cars, allowing 20,000 pounds to the car, represents the fleece of 369,096 sheep. As the total heads in Missouri for the year ending August 1, 1910, were 1,031,350, it left 171,254 head which were not shorn on the farm, probably being sent to market in 1911.

STATISTICAL INFORMATION

For wool Missouri ranks ahead of all states which touch its borders and around it, namely Illinois, Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa. The 6,250,000 pounds credited to the state for 1910, when scoured were reduced to 4,674,835 pounds, but its value advanced from 22 cents a pound to 45 cents. For this whole fleece, in the wash and unwashed state, the farmers received $1,254,409, but the men who did the scouring were paid $1,435,779 for the crop. This process of renovating and improving the wool added $111,370 to its value. In addition the wool and chemicals which were washed and scoured out of the clip, if all were "recovered," had a good worth as by-products.

INDIANA CUR KILLS FURRED ANIMALS

Valued at $675. Columbus, Ind., Jan. 16.—There was a tempest in a tea kettle at the home of Mrs. Mary Cobb, mother of City, when a shovelled-out, 6 inches long, got too warm and demanded a way out. Mrs. Cobb filled the tea kettle for the water in a mystery to her. She did not notice the fish until she heard a commotion in the kettle. The water had begun to boil and the fish was decidedly uncomfortable. Consequently it flopped and was hastily released.

A BUSY COON DOG

Indiana Cur Kills Furred Animals Valued at $675. Morocco, Ind., Jan. 16.—L. N. Barker of the northern part of this county, owns a coon dog, commonly known as "yaller cur," which in the last four winters has caught furred animals to the value of $675. The dog bears the marks of numerous encounters with raccoons. Its face and body are scarred with scars and only the stubs of its ears remain.

DOG FISHES OUT OF SEASON

Brings His Wisconsin Master Many Fins Large Trout. Merrilun Junction, Wis., Jan. 16.—Charles Sherwood of Albion is looking for expert information as to how far an owner's responsibility extends over a dog that persistently violates the game laws of the state. Sherwood has a collie with a penchant for trout fishing. He has culled the dog for it, but each time it only returns with a larger fish.

THOUSAND-TON ORE MILL

Idaho Springs, Colo.—One of the important projects contemplated for the year 1911 is the building of a 1000-ton United States Mining, Milling and Smelting Company, a recent Colorado corporation capitalized for $2,000,000, at the mouth of the Newhouse tunnel for the treatment of the great bodies of ore in that famous tunnel, the purpose being to build the mill in three separate units, with the latest improvement in mill construction. The ore is to be treated as best possible, each unit to be constructed and adapted to the different ores taken from the Newhouse and Central tunnels.

GOLD AND COPPER STRIKE

Phoenix, Ariz.—News has been received of a very important strike of gold and copper ore on upper Cave Creek, a little west of Cram Mountain, near Harlingen, where there are now 2500 acres planted in cane, said to be yielding at the rate of forty-five tons per acre.

ITEMS IN BRIEF

DEL HATTON OF NAPONEE, NEB., LANDED AT THE LOCAL MARKET THIS MORNING WITH ONE LOAD OF STOCK.

L. C. Griffen, one of the largest feeders in the state of Nebraska, contributed four cars of cattle to the local receipts today.

Junita Grain Co., of Junita, Neb., well known at all the river markets, had one load of hogs on the market this morning.

Hofflinger Bros., prominent stockmen of Beatrice, Neb., regular patrons of the South St. Joseph market, had a load of hogs on sale today.

Wm. Robbins of Smithfield, Neb., contributed two cars of cattle to the day's supply.

R. J. Carroll had in a ten-car consignment of cattle from below the quarantine line in Oklahoma.

L. A. Glebe, the old-time shipper from Blue Hill, Neb., marketed a car of cattle and a load of hogs.

A. Fennimore, an extensive shipper who does business around Perry, Ia., sent in a car of cattle today.

R. F. Dovel of Howe, Neb., had in a shipment of stock today.

Hise & Sale, big shippers of Gentry, Mo., forwarded in a car of cattle.

Ellis Hahn of New Hampton, Mo., disposed of a car of cattle today.

W. R. Lineville, banker and extensive shipper of Skidmore, Mo., had two cars of cattle on the market today.

H. C. Cutler, who has been shipping live stock to this market for many years, was noted today with a shipment of hogs from Red Cloud, Neb.

L. B. Duff was in from Horton, Kan., with a consignment of two loads of live mutton.

Top hogs on the St. Joseph market Saturday sold at $7.35 against $7.25 at Kansas City, alias Kawville. P. W. Decker of Skidmore, Mo., had in a load of hogs from Beatrice, Neb., for which he brought the extreme top figure. They averaged 229 pounds.

Wise Feeders Use Excello Feeds. Comparatively little cattle feeding is being done in the country north-west of Mound City, Mo., and the supply of hogs is short. According to H. B. Shunk, according to E. Shunk, who was in from that point late last week with a load of hogs of his own, "I can't say that the hogs in the immediate neighborhood but around here there is no doubt that a shortage of both cattle and hogs exists," said Mr. Shunk.

Hilger's Cafe, "The Stag," 307 S. 6th St. Beats them all. T. J. McCreary of Highland, Kan., big sheep raiser and shipper, sent in two cars of sheep for today's market.

A. L. Lewis of Franklin, Neb., accompanied a one-car shipment of hogs to the local market today. He brought the extreme top figure. They averaged 229 pounds.

Champion Feed cheapest and best. R. C. Mosler, one of the regular dealers who ship to this market, was here today looking after the sale of one car of cattle.

TRANSIT HOUSE CATER TO STOCKMEN

R. S. Denton, an extensive feeder and shipper, 710 1/2 N. 10th, sent in a car of butcher stuff today.

Best meals, best rooms. Transit House. Among the regular patrons of the local market noticed here today from Nebraska were the following: H. B. Reynolds, of Bloomington; Chad, B. Smith, Culbertson; O. S. Westberg, Stanford; Ben Aldret, Friend; H. H. Brand, Smithfield; W. Hopkins, Smithfield; Jan. Wilkins, Smithfield; H. W. Brand, Smithfield; A. Trangen & Co., Funk; S. Genko, Funk; Elmer Brown, Funk; Pulver & Son, Kearsaw; C. C. Oaker, Kearsaw, and Johnson Bros., Loomis.

PIMBLEY PAINT AND GLASS CO.

NO SNOW WEST

Report That Precipitation Was Light Except in Small Territory. It is not very often that the banana and orange belt of Missouri gets a chance to receive the snow of winter. But there were several loads of live pork brought in from surrounding country in sleds this morning. It appears that the heavy snow that fell Thursday and Friday did not extend over a wide expanse of country. A gentleman in this morning from a trip to western Kansas and Nebraska said that there was little snow along the line of the Burlington road west of Falls City.

NOT MANY HOGS

Some Tendency On Part of Farmers to Increase Production. "We have to do considerable traveling over the country to pick up a load of hogs," said John Seberg of Upland, Nebraska, who was in today with a car of hogs. "I think there is some tendency on the part of the farmers to increase the production of hogs, but building the supply up to normal is going to be a slow process. Corn and hogs are now selling at prices that should induce more feeding but farmers have got to get the right before they can do any feeding. There is not much snow west of Lincoln."

CATTLE AND HOGS LIKE CHAMPION FEED

WEATHER FORECAST. For Missouri: Snow or rain tonight or Tuesday, warmer tonight, Kansas: Cloudy tonight and Tuesday, warmer in east portion tonight, colder in west portion. Nebraska: Threatening tonight with snow in east portion, colder in western and central portions, warmer east. Iowa: Unsettled with snow tonight and Tuesday, warmer tonight, colder Tuesday in west portion.

FOOD PRICES TO TUMBLE.
 "Food prices are to take a tumble." This is the way it is being piped up to the ultimate consumer at present. The man who pays the bills has heard this before and he is right now a Missourian to the manor born. You must demonstrate to him. The stuff may be in cold storage in sufficient quantities to force prices down, but the consumer must be shown that the butter, eggs, poultry, etc., are going to be let out of refrigeration in sufficient volume to cheapen the cost to him.

DIDN'T YOU SWELL UP ONCE?
 The Live Stock World says "St. Joe is feeling chesty" over the coming in of an eastern buyer for cattle. Say, Mr. World, wasn't you a little bit of a one-horse thing once, yourself? Didn't swell up and get chesty about rapid growth when you didn't have more than 2000 circulation, did you? Things have got to have a start before they can begin to grow, haven't they? There always were some things about the Live Stock World that reminded the editorial pencil gusher of The Journal of a kindergarten kid.

THE SWIFT STATEMENT.
 "The annual financial statement of Swift & Company, the big packing concern, which was presented to the board of directors at its annual meeting, Jan. 5, has been published and will be of interest to local people, since the concern has one of its largest plants in this city. The statement is an unusually good one, showing Swift & Company to be one of the really big concerns of the country and to be in splendid financial condition. The total resources of the corporation are $125,725,395.74. The total liabilities of the corporation, outside its capital stock, surplus and reserve, are $37,184,959.88. To cover this entire sum the corporation has cash and quick assets to say nothing of almost $50,000,000 in real estate, $13,000,000 in stocks and bonds and supplies on hand amounting to almost $34,000,000.

The capital stock of Swift & Company is $60,000,000, every cent of which has been paid up in cash, the concern never having declared a stock dividend. The corporation has earned and distributed an annual cash dividend for twenty-six consecutive years, its per cent of profit being dependent largely upon the wonderful volume of business done each year. Last year the distributive sales of the corporation amounted to more than $250,000,000. A low per cent of profit on so large a volume of business would enable the corporation to pay a good dividend on its capital stock of $60,000,000. The statement published was prepared by Arthur Young & Co., chartered accountants, who examined the books and accounts of the corporation.

As individual holders the different stockholders in the Swift corporation have large investments in the stocks and bonds of other corporations. In no sense related to the packing business, such as railways, financial institutions, and industrial concerns, some of which are located in this community. They are a financial strength to any city in which they are located.

The above from the St. Joseph Gazette is literally true, but it might have gone on and stated with equal truthfulness that no industrial institution in this country has made such rapid growth in an equal period of years as has the Swift company since 1892. Anything longer than three years ago this company was doing business on a capitalization of $15,000,000. At the annual meeting of the company three years ago the capital stock was increased to $60,000,000 and at the meeting referred in the above article another increase of $15,000,000 was authorized, making the present capitalization $75,000,000.

IN WOMAN'S REALM

SALADS.
 Combination Salad—First, layer of green lettuce in small pieces; second, peeled and sliced tomatoes; third, boiled and cold potatoes sliced thin; fourth, about a cupful boiled cold green string beans, whole; fifth, one small cucumber sliced very thin; sixth, one onion chopped fine, seventh, green Bell pepper, one large one chopped fine; eighth, one or two hard-boiled cold eggs, chopped and sprinkled over all; ninth, sprinkle with salt and pepper, tenth, one-half cupful mild vinegar and lemon juice, half and half, poured over it; eleventh, two tablespoons good salad or olive oil; twelfth, top with mayonnaise dressing. Build up in pyramid shape and trim with green and black olives and plantains. Keep cold till served on platter.

Heart Salad.—Use my own carved hearts. Slice thin, with small heart-shaped cutter, cut the red heart hearts. Pare a cucumber with a scappling knife, then slice thin with an ordinary knife. Arrange red heart hearts in center of plate on lettuce leaves; place thin slices of cucumber around as a border. Each slice of cucumber will have a scalloped edge and with care in paring the cucumber can also be made heart shape.

Chicken Rice.—Soak a half cup of rice in some water for a half hour, drain and tie up in thin white cloth with plenty of room to swell. Put this bag in with your boiled chicken or broiled beef and you have a most delicious dish. Let boil about one hour slowly.

CAKE.
 Sunshine Cake—Six fresh eggs, one cupful flour, pinch of salt, one and one-fourth cups sugar (granulated), one-half teaspoon cream tartar, one-half teaspoon almond or vanilla extract. To make: First separate your eggs, putting the yolks in smaller bowl and the whites in your mixing bowl; beat the yolks with a revolving beater until light and add salt to the whites; whip with a wire until frothy, then add the cream tartar, whip until stiff and dry. Meanwhile have the sugar with about three tablespoons of water boiling slowly until it hairs from the spoon, as it does when making the boiled frosting; pour this on the beaten whites and beat well; when partly cool add the yolks and beat until well mixed; now add the flour, almond and the cream tartar, measured with measuring cup after being sifted the three times; place around the edge of bowl and fold in lightly towards the center, using the egg whip for mixing it in; do not beat; keep the mixture light and foamy; pour in a medium sized angel cake pan, ungreased; start to bake in cool oven, turning the heat burner quite low until the cake has risen to the top of the pan, then increase the heat slightly to finish baking. Will raise in from twenty-five to thirty minutes and will bake in fifteen to twenty; when done the cake will shrink slightly from the sides of the pan; take from the oven and invert until cake is cool; remove from pan and ice with a boiled white frosting; best results come with the use of cake flour. You will notice that boiling the sugar before pouring on the whites a new idea which secures its fine texture. This recipe makes a large, light cake, suitable for children's birthday cake when nicely decorated as it really is a golden angel food when properly made.

Lemon Walnut Cake.—One cup granulated sugar, two tablespoons butter, two eggs, one teaspoon vanilla extract, two cups flour, two teaspoons baking powder, one cup milk, one-half pound English walnuts. Cream the butter and sugar until as light as whipped cream, then add the eggs, well beaten separately, then add vanilla, and beat together hard. Now sift flour and baking powder together

"I think ye're wrong about those plucky checks, Mr. Dooley," said Hinnesey.
 "Do ye now, and why?"
 "Well, ye see, the plummy man is giving these checks for advertising purposes."
 "Sure he's giving ye the check for advertising purposes, but is he losing money on a plummy for advertising purposes, too? No, Hinnesey, he's giving ye what Hogan gives his Jack when he balks."
 "And that's that, Mr. Dooley!"
 "Well, ye see, when the Jack balks on a hivey load, Hogan ties a bit of excelsior painted green on the hind ay a pole, and lets it hang in front of the Jack's nose. Then the poor deceived Jack pulls like a good one thinking he's going to get a reward of rich, juicy grass."

 LEADING IMPORTERS AND BREEDERS OF THE WEST.
 Now is the time to buy draft stallions, while there are plenty to select from.
 Our best imported stallions sell at $2,000 to $2,500. Others as low as $1,000. The difference in these prices does not represent profit to us as there is less margin made on some of our high priced horses than on the cheaper ones. The good ones cost money, whether in Europe or America, but we are satisfied with a reasonable profit and our reputation for square dealing has resulted in an enormous business which allows us to purchase our imported and raise our home bred horses very reasonable and thereby sell them cheaper than the average dealer. You ought, to see our home bred colts and we are pricing them very low just now. Come and see us.

ABSENT-MINDED CLERGYMAN

Forgot Having His Key and Climbed to the Street in His Canonical Robes.

Some years ago a minor canon of Norwich (the Rev. Oxtas Lindley) met with an amusing experience. On a certain day he was to preach in the cathedral. He was aware of his own infirmity of absent-mindedness, and therefore gave the key of his study in the close to his landlady, with instructions to lock him in and to let him out just in time for service.

She did not wish to take responsibility, and finally gave him back the key, but he remained under the impression that she took it as he desired.

He read his sermon over until the bells began to ring. Then he put on his surplice and waited. Of course, no landlady came to release him. He grew uneasy as he saw the congregation assemble. Then the great bell began to toll for the assembly of the dead and chapter. Still no one came to let him out.

At last, in despair, Mr. Lindley threw open a window, and by the help of a water-but and spout he climbed, in his full canonical robes, into the street. Fortunately for his dignity, it was so late that almost everyone was in the cathedral and few saw him, but

THE SURPRISE IN THE BOX

Two Discoveries by Brother Claude in a Single Afternoon—Summer Hat Not Bass Drum.

"I have seen some strange things in our city street," said Brother Claude, "but never until today had I seen anybody carrying a bass drum in a box, and yet here this very afternoon and in my own block I met just that, a boy carrying a bass drum enclosed in a monstrous pasteboard box.

"Why should anybody want to put a bass drum in a box? What was there about this particular bass drum that required such tender care? Why should anybody put a bass drum in a box? Really it was most extraordinary, but a greater surprise awaited me.

"When I got home at night I saw that identical bass drum in the same box in the room of my sister Belinda.

"And why, I said to her, 'why do you want a bass drum? You play the harp and the zither, the mandolin, the guitar and the piano; why, under the blessed canopy, Belinda, why do you take up the bass drum?'
"Whereat Belinda was duly bewildered, and
"Wha—, wh—at, Claude,' she said, 'is the matter with you?'
"Whereupon I inquired at the big

CRONKEY'S WHISKY CACHES

Sportsman Who Hides Jugs of Liquor Throughout the Woods in Case of Emergency.

"Going up in the Adirondacks after trout, eh?" said the sportsman. "Well, if you strike the Beaver River country look up my friend Dave Cronkey. Dave is not only an excellent guide, but he possesses a magic wand that can locate a drink of whisky for you whenever you want it. And this in spite of the fact that he never touches a drop himself. I was up there last fall after deer, and the first day out I had a chill. We were away over near Witch-hopple lake, ten miles from anywhere. 'I'd give a good bit for a drink of whisky,' I said. 'I guess I can fix you,' said Dave, and, walking to a hollow log about a dozen rods away, he produced a bottle. I took a good swig, and he put the bottle back. The next day he repeated this performance over on Branch mountain, and the third day he uncovered a bottle in a pile of dead leaves along Red Horse creek. You see, the people who come up from the city to shoot and fish generally bring along a supply, and what is left over when they go home they leave with Dave. He hides it at various points throughout the woods back drum right there in the box before her, and at that her smile came back, and then much silvery laughter. "Why, that, Brother Claude," she said, "is my new summer hat."

Aged Explorer.
Sir Clements Markham is regarded as the grand old man of British geography and exploring enterprise. His official connection with the Royal Geographical society has lasted for nearly half a century, and when he retired from the presidency in 1905, he had held that post continuously for twelve years. His interest in the society and in geographical science generally has not abated, in spite of the claims which historical and antiquarian research have upon his time. On the eve of his eightieth birthday he gave the clearest proof of his dauntless energy by giving a remarkably interesting and suggestive lecture on the "Land of the Incas" at a recent meeting.
