ICE WATER — Ice water straight from the tap was possible here this week. This shows Muleshoe's water tower after it overflowed and froze, damaging at least one roof in the area.

Ray's 'Ritin'

By RAY MARTIN

Out at Goathead Estates Igloo it's been cold — and low! I know it's an igloo we live in because all the windows were covered with ice on the inside. Now I know exactly how an Eskimo feels when his wife says, "honey, look outside and see if it's still snowing." He's got to get up and GO outside to tell; he can't find out by just looking through the icy windows. Well Goathead Estates was the same way this past week. There was more ice on the inside than there is in a dozen drugstore sodas.

But the bad weather wouldn't have been so bad if it hadn't been for the character who is always present every time the mercury drops a few degrees. He's that highly original character who sings out cheerfully, "Is it cold enough for you?" He's the same fellow who greets you in 110-degree August weather with, "Is it hot enough for you?" He has only those two lines, but you gotta admit that he's got them down pat!

But we fared pretty well out at our Igloo. Didn't have any trouble with water freezing up as did some folk. You see the water pipes at Goathead Estates are in the attic where they kept good and warm. Missus and I considered the idea of putting a couple of Kennedy-type rockers up there and going up in the attic to sit where we could keep warm, but the scuttlehole was too small to get the rockers through the opening.

Our bliege and brown town car didn't do too well. She has a tendency to go into a deep sleep every time the weather chills, and there were mornings when it was difficult to walk her from one of those sleeps. And when we did get her started, we had to run through a quarter of a tank of gas just to charge the battery back up to where it was before the starting process was attempted.

But in cold weather a man and his wife have a chance to get re-acquainted, despite television which does its best to horn in on everything going on around a home these days. In fact, in these days when a television is turned off, it gets downright ghostly quiet, if you know what I mean. So you just gotta talk to keep it from getting too spooky.

Speaking of television, isn't it remarkable what you can learn from one? Why, I never would have known that some people have skins too "delicate" for water if it hadn't been for the commercial put on by the soap company that takes care of the bathing problems of people who have that sort of skin.

As I was saying, long cold (See RAY'S, page 7)

County Attorney To Resign

Lovelady To Quit Feb. 1

Poll Tax Lagging

With only 736 paid-up poll tax counted so far for 1963, organizations here were putting on last-minute campaigns to boost the total as the deadline neared.

Sales of poll taxes will stop January 31. Both the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the senior chamber have been staging campaigns to boost poll tax payments.

The Jaycees hope to set up booths around Muleshoe to catch last-minute payments of poll taxes. Details of the drive have not been worked out, but the booths may be in operation during the final two weeks.

County officials said that only 736 persons have paid poll taxes so far as compared with 2,042 who paid poll taxes during 1962. Of course, it was pointed out, 1962 was a "major" election year and this always boosts payment of poll taxes.

This year, although not a "major" election year, will have two or three elections, including a city election here in Muleshoe, and school board elections. Poll tax receipts are necessary for (See POLL TAX, page 7)

Mercury Dips To Minus 10

Winter hurled the book at West Texas during the weekend, skidding the thermometer here to 7 below zero, according to R. J. Klump, official weather man and bringing all farm operations to a virtual standstill.

Despite the intensely cold weather, little actual damage was done by the storm which blew in Thursday night and continued through most of the weekend.

County Accidents Killed 3 During '62, Report Shows

Crashes on Bailey county highways took three lives and injured 29 persons during 1962, Sgt. D. S. Lawson, patrol supervisor of this area, said in his yearly summary. He said "rural traffic" accidents from January through December of last year totaled 63 crashes and resulted in an estimated property damage of $61,395.

December was a fairly safe month on Bailey county roads, Lawson said, when only six accidents were investigated by the patrol with a property damage of $4,005.

In the 29-county area which makes up district 5-A, Lubbock county led with 36 deaths during 1962, and Wise county was second with 22 deaths. Palo Pinto had 20 deaths on highways, and Palo Pinto county 76. Hockley county had only three deaths, and Floyd county four. Lawson's records show five persons died in accidents in Lamb county during 1962.

The peak low was reached Saturday night.

County Agent J. K. Adams said crops had been damaged little if at all by the weather, and the greatest loss he said was in cattle's weight. He explained that frozen watering tanks prevented some cattle from getting a sufficient supply of water, resulting in a loss of weight.

He said wheat apparently had not been damaged since it was not in a stage where cold weather could cause harm to the plants. He said a severe freeze later in the spring after "boots" have formed might cause much greater damage.

Adams said the cold weather had forced most ranchers to take their cattle off wheat pasture, and thus some ranchers may be forced to provide grain or hay for their stock.

Lack of moisture here accompanied the cold weather. While other sections in this area had snowfalls ranging up to 2 inches at Lubbock, Bailey county received only spotted snow.

The hard freeze will halt breaking of land for spring planting for several days yet, it was predicted.

Despite the hard freeze, few fires were reported, and accidents were mostly of the fender-bender type.

Muleshoe fire chief Earl Ladd said he was agreeably surprised by the low number of calls received. "I believe the people wisely used caution in this rough weather period, and thus prevented many fires which might have occurred from overheated stoves and the like. I think folks are to be congratulated for their behavior."

8 Bales Given, More CROP Cotton Asked

Bailey county farmers have contributed approximately eight bales, including remnants, to CROP, but an intensive two-weeks' drive will be made for as many more bales before the campaign ends January 31.

This was decided at a meeting of the CROP committee at Chamber of Commerce headquarters Tuesday afternoon. County Chairman, the Rev. J. Frank Peery, told the committee that $120 in cash has been contributed, and that the total poundage of cotton given would run to around eight bales. The goal had been for 15 bales.

It was decided to stage the whirlwind drive for additional cotton. The cotton is to go to Hong Kong to be made into clothes and bedding for Chinese refugees. The cotton must be shipped before April. Mr. Peery explained.

The cotton will be dedicated in ceremonies at the compass at 3:30 Sunday afternoon, February 3, it was announced.

Here to explain the disposition of the cotton after it has been turned over to CROP was Norman Sundwall, state director of CROP, Austin. He congratulated Bailey county folk on the good work done so far for CROP. Last season, Bailey county gave only one bale of cotton and $262 in cash to the relief agency.

In addition to cash collected for the cotton program, Muleshoe's Trick Or Treat for Crop yielded $23 last fall.

Farmers were advised that the entire cotton donation can be counted off income taxes, including cost of planting and harvesting. Mr. Peery said the organization is particularly eager to have clothes and bedding for Chinese refugees. Persons who wish to donate cotton were asked to call Horace Edwards, who represents the ginners, or Mr. Peery at the First Methodist Church.

Letters are going out from the Chamber of Commerce to ginners, urging participation in the program.

Chamber Stages Banquet, Impels 12-Point Program of Work for '63

Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce set the pace for its big 1963 at its annual banquet last Thursday night, installed new officers and blasted off on an ambitious 12-point program of work.

Heading the 1963 Chamber and leading its promising program will be Bobby Airhart, a young Muleshoe banker, who will serve as president of the Chamber this year.

Airhart took over the top job last Thursday from Frank Ellis, who served the organization well last year. Bill Wimberly is the new vice-president, and Harmon Elliott the treasurer. James Jennings was last year's vice-president, and Harold Allison served as treasurer in 1962.

Last Thursday's banquet was attended by 250 persons when Roy Whitt served as master of ceremonies.

Bird Count: 200,000 Here

Despite a lack of trees and large bodies of water, nearly 200,000 birds are living this winter in the vicinity of Muleshoe.

Figures of bird population were released this week by McI Evans, manager of the Muleshoe National Wildlife Refuge, following the annual count made by Evans and his assistants. He said 18 man hours were spent in making the survey, and a total of 89 miles was traveled to make the count.

Principally the survey was made around Monument Lake, Ashley lake, Baileyboro lake and (See COUNT, page 7) long has been recognized as deplorable.

The chamber also will work this year again toward "the end that a new park and community building be secured."

The group will cooperate with (See BANQUET, page 7)

Salvation Army Still $200 Shy of Goal

Bailey County's Salvation Army campaign is still some $200 short of its $1,500 goal for 1963. Senn D. Slemmons, county chairman, said Thursday as the drive nears an end.

To date, $1,319 has been turned in to the Salvation Army drive treasurer, Elizabeth Thomson.

However, eight solicitors here have not made their reports, and doubtless several still have money to report to Mrs. Thomson, Slemmons said. All solicitors were urged to turn in their funds as soon as possible so the drive can be concluded.

A final appeal also was made to persons outside Muleshoe who were sent to folk in the Muleshoe area, asking that contributions be made to the drive. Many have not returned their self-addressed, stamped envelopes sent out from the Salvation Army headquarters here.

"Many persons probably were waiting until they received money from their 1962 crops before making their mail contributions," Slemmons said. "Now many who have not contributed to date probably would like to send in their contributions."

The fund drive kicked off December 4. Gilbert Muddell, Amarillo, West Texas field representative, explained the purpose of the drive.

Muddell said only one solicitation will be made, and weekly solicitation will be stopped under the new plan to create a Ser-

New Phone Book Due Next Week

The most widely used book in Muleshoe will be delivered next week.

It's the new telephone directory, complete with more names, more Yellow Pages and more information, according to R. E. Saunders of Littlefield, district manager for General Telephone Company of the Southwest.

Approximately 4,000 directories will be distributed throughout the area.

Saunders said that the new classified section of the directory has been expanded to give better identification to the different types and classes of business.

As in present directories, the new book will list subscribers in Muleshoe, Springlake, Bovina, Earth, Friona, Hub, Farmer, Tharp, Lariat, Lazbuddie and Needmore.

Kados to Play For Party Here

With Kados of Clovis furnishing the music, Muleshoe youth will hold a Saturday night party at the American Legion building, it was announced Thursday.

A new member of the Kados band is Dave Everett, Muleshoe, who will play the organ.

Sherry Smith, secretary of the youth group, said fees will be $1 for non-members and 75 cents for members. Youths' 1962 membership cards will be honored.

Bula Farmer, Chester Selliff, Gets Conservationist Award Here

Chester B. Selliff, long-time resident of the Bula Community of the Blackwater Valley Soil Conservation district, was selected as outstanding conservation farmer for 1962, and was honored at last week's Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce banquet.

The selection was made by the board of supervisors of the Blackwater Valley Soil conservation district.

Sherman Inman, chairman of the board, made the presentation.

Selliff lives two miles west of Bula on FM 54, and presently owns approximately 442 acres of land. He has been a soil conservation district co-operator since 1951 and carries on a well-diversified farming program — necessary in that he has more sloping land on one of the farms which is seeded to weeping lovegrass.

The lovegrass is utilized by livestock, Dale Fishgrab, Work Unit conservationist with SCS, says.

The cattle are further supplemented by Sudan grass that is grown on more hazardous farm hampered by the slow, Fishgrab explained.

Selliff also is a believer that (See AWARD, page 7)

County Attorney III, Court Term Delayed

County court, which was to have continued through this week with 18 cases on the docket, was when County Attorney Karl Lovelady reported to the court that he was ill.

Only one case in the 18-person docket had been tried.

At Tuesday's session, a county court jury found Neal Ray Arnold, Muleshoe, guilty of driving while intoxicated.

Punishment was set at three days in jail, plus a $250 fine and court costs.

The county court term was originally scheduled by County Judge Glen Williams for January 7, but Lovelady asked that the term be delayed until January 15 because not all witnesses were present, he told the court.

The delay was granted and court opened on schedule Tuesday.

Jaycees Study Anniversary

Muleshoe Junior Chamber of Commerce already has launched a program to promote Muleshoe's 50th anniversary celebration this summer, it was announced Thursday.

That group of young business men is planning a number of special events in connection with the celebration, which probably will be staged in conjunction with the city's annual Fourth of July celebration. The anniversary celebration will broaden the program this year greatly.

Among the things under discussion by the Jaycees are such things as:

A contest to name Miss Muleshoe.

A beard-growing contest. A carnival.

Sale of souvenir muleshoes. Although the entire 50th anniversary program is still in the first stages of planning, work already is under way. Bill Wimberly, chairman of the senior chamber's anniversary committee, met with the Jaycees this week to discuss the program.

COTTON FOR CROP—Bailey County has contributed approximately eight bales of cotton to CROP for shipment to Hong Kong for clothes and blankets for Chinese Refugees. An additional six bales is sought. Muleshoe Library Board Plans For Better Library For Public Use Muleshoe Library Board met Monday afternoon to activate basic plans and discuss additional ideas for a bigger and better library for the Muleshoe area. Members of the board attending the meeting were Mrs. Horace Blackburn, Mrs. Alf Stovall, Mrs. Kenneth Precure, Mrs. Ernest D. Martin, Mrs. John Charles Gilbreath, Mrs. Ralph Douglas, Mrs. Gilbert Lamb, Lester Howard, Tom Hunke, and the librarian, Mrs. E. W. Wright.

A rental book shelf of best sellers is being added. Books on this shelf may be checked out for one week only and the rental price has been set for 35 cents with fines on overdue rentals set at 25 cents per day. This shelf will enable the public to have access to a selection of good books at a low cost.

Summer reading courses are being planned for children and many interesting book reviews are planned for public meetings and club programs.

Library cards are $1 per year for adults and children may purchase a card for three months for 25 cents. Fines on overdue books checked out on cards are being raised from 3 cents to 5 cents effective Feb. 1. All persons with overdue books are urged to return them.

Muleshoe Study Club has been sponsoring book purchasing for some time and a spokesman for the club said they were delighted to have Epsilon Sigma Alpha join them in sponsoring the purchases last summer. However, the clubs discontinued book purchases in order to make a survey for library needs and try to formulate the best plan of action to make the needed improvements. The survey was conducted by the Chamber of Commerce in the Muleshoe Independent School District which revealed that a good library was much desired.

Now with a more expansive plan in mind, it is hoped that this will become a community-wide project.

The board is requesting that each organization in the area point one or more of their members to serve on the library committee. Some of the organizations have already done this and their representatives are active at this time. Bobby Airhart, represents the Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. Lester Howard, Mrs. D. O. Burelson, and Mrs. R. O. Grey, the Farm Bureau Womens committee; Neil Dillman, Superintendent of Schools; Lester Howard, Needmore community, Mrs. W. B. Kittrell, Longview community; Mrs. Cecil Cole, Goodland community. A number of the board members represent Muleshoe Study Club and Epsilon Sigma Alpha. Mrs. Gilbert Lamb and Lester Howard were named co-chairmen of the board, Mrs. Ralph Douglas, secretary; Mrs. Alf Stovall, chairman of book purchases; Mrs. T. R. White, treasurer and Tom Hunke, chairman of Memorials.

The board is enlisting the aid of Dr. Dorman Winfrey, District Director of Texas State Library, Austin, and a Texas Tech library director, to advise and assist with plans toward the effort to have a good library for the Muleshoe vicinity.

Meetings are scheduled for the third Monday of each month and are to be held at 4:30 p.m. in the Library at the Courthouse.

Mrs. Blaylock Hosts Club

Los Planes Study Club met Tuesday evening in the Odell Logan home with Lou Ann Blaylock as hostess and Nancy Stovall as co-hostess.

There were 20 members along with one new member, Jackie Maxey and Chris Ford as a guest.

The program was given by Laura Hickey, Home Service Advisor for Southwestern Public Service, Clovis, N.M. She prepared and gave recipes for three casserole dishes which were later served.

The nominating committee submitted and the club elected the following officers to serve during the year. Sondra Mason, president; Janelle Turner, vice-president; Frances Chambliss, treasurer; Pat Prather, recording secretary; Sammye Sumrow, corresponding secretary; and Johannah Green, parliamentarian.

Fires are unknown in the forests of the Amazon region because the wood does not burn easily.

The demand for public school teachers for the next five years will approximate 47,000 in Texas, an average of 9,400 per year.

Speech Recording Stirs Interest At ESA Chapter

"Wake the Town and Tell the People", a live recording of a speech made in Philadelphia by Dr. Kenneth McFarland, was presented by Mrs. Charles G. Lewis at the January 9 meeting of Epsilon Sigma Alpha international.

The stirring talk, by America's number one public speaker, carried out the theme of the organization's study program "Whoso Neglects Learning In His Youth, Loses The Past And Is Dead For The Future" (Euripides).

Hostesses were Mrs. H. A. Douglass and Mrs. Elvon DeVaney, and the meeting was in Mrs. Douglass' home, 1808 West Avenue D.

Mrs. Kenneth Precure presided over the business meeting following the program. Business discussed included plans for representatives of the local group to attend the district meeting in Plains on January 20. Mrs. DeVaney will be nominee for the local group in the Beauty Queen Contest.

Support of the organization will go toward work for the county library; fund-raising projects were discussed. Committees were appointed to report at the next meeting.

The next meeting January 22, of the group will be a social with Mrs. John Gilbreath and Mrs. Jim McPherson, hostesses.

Fly-Up Ceremony Set For Brownies

Troop 42 of the Brownie Scouts will have a Fly-Up ceremony at 8 p.m. on Friday, January 17 at the Scout Hut.

Thirteen scouts will be leaving the Brownie organization to become Girl Scouts at this ceremony.

Those are as follows: Vicki Julian, Debbie Bruns, Ann Newson, Jana Beth Logan, Sharon Davis, Glenda James, Cathy McCormick, Marie Servantez, Lupe Servantez, Eanda Sutton, Judy Dodd, Jan Lemons and Mary Ruth Riddle.

Mary Sutton, leader of the troop and Roxanna Patton, assistant leader, will supervise the event.

The Scouts will serve refreshments following the program.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT BURGER

Grusendorf-Burger Vows Solemnized In Tempe Southern Baptist Church

Marriage vows were solemnized for Penny Grusendorf and Robert Burger at 7 p.m. on December 27 in Southern Baptist Church, Tempe, Ariz.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Grusendorf, 2 E. Geneva Drive, Tempe, Ariz., former residents of the Lazbuddie community. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burger, 523 West 15th Street, Tempe.

The bride was attired in a floor length gown of silk organza trimmed with scalloped insets of chantilly lace highlighted with seed pearls and sequins. The fitted bodice was designed with a portrait neckline and dipped to a point at the waistline and featured long sleeves that came to pedal points over the hands. Her fingertip veil was attached to a circular crown of seed pearls and she carried a cascade of feathered mums centered with a white orchid.

Maid of honor was Miss Carol Payton, Tempe, and bridesmaids were Miss Loretta Bales, Phoenix; Miss Janet Thompson, Tempe; and Miss Ann Overall, Tucson. Miss Barbara Burger, Tempe, was flower girl.

Jim Heywood, Tempe, served as best man and ushers were Tom Heywood, Gary Grusendorf, and Gary Miller, Tempe.

The couple are both students at Arizona State University. Mrs. Burger is a 1961 graduate of Lazbuddie high school and compiled the Lazbuddie news for the Muleshoe Journal for two years.

Burger has signed to play professional ball with the Detroit Tigers. He will be in Spring training, then both will attend the University in the fall.

After a short wedding trip to Flagstaff and Grand Canyon, they will be at home at 2205 South Mill Ave. in Tempe.

Progressive Club Officers Assume Duties At Meeting

Noreen Thomas was hostess for the January 10 meeting of the Progressive Home Club with seven members and one visitor attending.

Newly elected officers assumed their duties during this meeting with Zida Mae Black presiding.

Lola Bryant gave the treasurer's statement for the year 1962 before turning the duties over to the incoming treasurer, Lucille Harper.

Vera Engleking presented an eulogy which she had written for the club. A discussion on national government and legislation was conducted and a note of thanks was read from Carol Earhart, the club's adopted girl at Whiteface, expressing her appreciation for gifts sent her for Christmas.

Lois Norwood drew the hostess gift.

Lola Bryant, in charge of the program, read a poem entitled, "Just Forget It". A display of art work and other hobbies were shown by Mrs. Bryant and Mrs. Thomas.

Zida Mae Black will be hostess for the next club meeting on Thursday January 24.

MISS CAROLYN HOLMES

Braggs Home From Convention

Mr. and Mrs. George Bragg have returned from Phoenix, Ariz. where they attended the 12th annual Anhydrous Ammonia Convention.

Approximately 600 delegates and their wives attended with 38 States represented in addition to Mexico, Venezuela, Canada and Austria.

Texas was represented with 79 delegates which was the second highest number attending from any state.

An interesting agricultural tour was held along with a beautiful tour for the women. Mrs. Bragg won an attache case at one of the daily drawings which brought much laughter and applause when the town of Muleshoe was called out.

The Braggs report that they made many friends from the Northern States due to their inquires and kidding about Muleshoe.

The convention is to be held in New Orleans next year.

Shower Honors Carolyn Holmes

Carolyn Holmes was the honoree at a pre-nuptial shower Tuesday night in the home of Mauie Speck. She is the bride-elect of Harold Maxwell.

The serving table was draped with a white linen cut work cloth and centered with a crystal globe vase holding white chrysantheums with a miniature bride and groom standing on the flanged base. The cake was in the shape of an open Bible and was decorated with blue and white rosebuds and streamers. Crystal and silver appointments completed the table decorations.

The honoree was assisted in opening gifts for display by her mother, Mrs. J. W. Holmes and the mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. V. E. Maxwell.

Jeanne Coffman, Patricia Evans, Virginia Bowers and Joan Nicewarner assisted with the serving hospitalities.

Hostesses were Wynnie Dunn, Thora Baker, Dorothy Bowers, Pat Walker, Inez Nicewarner, Jewell Strong, Oleta Childs, Mauie Speck, Juanita Pruitt, and Lou Hale.

Vows are to be read tonight in the Trinity Baptist Church.

Art Association To Sponsor One Man Exhibit Here

The Muleshoe Art Association has announced that they will sponsor Dr. Emilio Caballero in a one-man art show on Sunday, January 27, according to Mrs. Jack Lenderson, area representative.

Scheduled to be held at the Southwestern Public Service building, the art show will feature the well-known head of the art department of West Texas State College, Canyon. Dr. Caballero holds his master of arts from that college, and his doctor's degree from Columbia University, New York City.

At a recent meeting of the local art group, Mrs. Charles L. Lenu was elected president for the coming year. Other officers are Mrs. Bernard Phelps, vice-president; Mrs. Pat Bobo, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Lenderson, area representative for the Texas Fine Arts Association and South Plains Art Guild.

The guild also plans to open a continuous art exhibition, changing pictures once a month, at this month. Paintings will be by various guild members.

There are 30 active members in the guild, which meets the second Monday of each month at the Richland Hills cafeteria. They plan to continue art lessons under Dr. Caballero this spring. Any persons interested in art are welcomed by the guild.

Rehearsal Event Honors Wedding Party In Sudan

A rehearsal supper honoring members of the wedding party for Ralph Bellamy and Mae Price, Sudan, was given Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Gus Bellamy.

Those attending were the honor couple, Mr. and Mrs. Benny Arnold, and Curtis, Wanda Powell, Mrs. Harley Fields and Christi, Radney Fisher, Ronald Bellamy, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ingram, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Gatewood, Bobby Smith, Wix Gaston, and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Price.

Mrs. Jack Scuster, Muleshoe, assisted Mrs. Bellamy with the hospitalities.

Mrs. Copus Boyd Is Principal Speaker At Woman's Society Here

Mrs. Copus Boyd, Tulsa, President of the Plainview District Woman's Society of Christian Service brought the main address of the day when the Sub-District meeting of the Woman's Society was held Tuesday in the First Methodist Church here. Mrs. Boyd's subject, "The Church in the World" was developed in an effective manner, showing the progress of the church through the years — quoting one of the outstanding leaders of the Methodist Church who said, we should "Get the message out of the Bible into our hearts." She told of the opportunity the church has given to women to serve, and challenged them as members of the WSCS and the Wesleyan Service Guilds to be witnesses for God and to find their places in the Church Ecumenical. She said, "What of the unreached" and admonished the women to "Go forth and proclaim our church in the world."

The welcome was brought by Mrs. Robert Hooten, Muleshoe, Sub-District president, and she also gave a "New Year's Recipe" to be used by all women of the societies represented.

Mrs. J. S. Smith of Sudan brought the meditation for the morning service. Hymns were led by Mrs. J. Frank Peery and the accompanist for the day was Mrs. Neal Dillman, both of Muleshoe.

Mrs. Jim Cleavinger, Dimmitt, presented a skit on "Promotion." She was assisted by Mrs. E. B. Wright, Mrs. Wilbur Gaede, Mrs. Owen Norfleet, Mrs. Frances Farr, Mrs. Johnny Prater, Mrs. W. B. Swim, Mrs. Ray Daniel, Mrs. Floyd Stanford and Mrs. Roy Haberer.

Mrs. Johnnie Rundel, Oklahoma Lane, gave a "New Year's Wish for My Church" and Miss Sharon Milen, Y. L. Church brought the special music for the meeting.

The women of the Y. L. Church were hostesses for the day and served refreshments at noon. Mrs. T. G. Craft, Y. L., was in charge of registration.

Mrs. Hooten presided over the business session during the afternoon and was assisted by Mrs. Owen Norfleet, secretary-treasurer, Olton.

The President's panel discussion was conducted with Mrs. Ray Daniel, Muleshoe, as the moderator. Others on the panel were: Mrs. Billie Sudderth, Bovina, Mrs. Jim Cleavinger, Dimmitt, Mrs. Norman Sulzar, Earth, Mrs. Dean Bishop, Plainview, recently of Muleshoe, represented Muleshoe society, Mrs. Sam Billingsley, Oklahoma Lane, Mrs. Owen Norfleet, Olton, Mrs. James Wedel, Progress, Mrs. Loyd Quesenberry, Y. L. and Mrs. E. C. Minaryard, Sudan.

The closing meditation was given by Mrs. Albert Davis, Progress, and the meeting was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Hooten.

Seventy persons were in attendance, including Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Shewbert, Plainview. Dr. Shewbert, is the District Superintendent of the Plainview District of the Methodist Church. Other district officers of the WSCS who were in attendance included: Mrs. J. L. Hinson, Vice - president, Springlake, Mrs. Dean Bishop, Spiritual Life, Plainview, Mrs. O. W. Harkleroad, Youth Work, Hale Center; Mrs. Charles Cade, Literature and Publications, Hale Center; Mrs. W. B. Swim, Christian Social Relations, Plainview; Mrs. Ed Brasler, Missionary Education, Tullia, Mrs. W. A. Mill-sap, Recording Secretary, Plainview.

REA Officers Attend Meet

Five members of the Board of Directors of the Bailey County Electric Cooperative Association are attending the 21st annual meeting of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association at Las Vegas, Nev.

They are among more than 8,000 officials and members of rural electric systems for 46 states.

Attending from the local system are E. W. Locker, president; Carl Barnert, vice-president; Ross J. Brock, Jr., secretary-treasurer; Chester Setliff, Jessie Clayton, and D. E. Lancaster, manager. Mrs. Carl Barnert and Mrs. Jessie Clayton are also attending the meeting.

The meeting is built around the theme "Rural Electrification — Important to America's Strength". Topics ranging from resource development and rural areas development to the cooperatives' contribution to the nation's foreign aid program will be discussed at the four-day meeting.

Vice-president Lyndon B. Johnson will head the list of speakers. Others include Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman, the new administrator of the Agency for International Development, David Bell, Congressman Harold T. Johnson of California, Congressman Catherine May of Washington, Assistant Secretary of the Interior Kenneth Holm, assistant Secretary of Agriculture John A. Baker, REA Administrator Norman Clapp, NRECA General Manager Clyde T. Ellis, and Richard Reuter, director of Food for Peace.

Other leaders from power, consumer groups and the Federal agencies will participate in 16 panel discussions on subjects ranging from the U.S. consumers' stake in electric power development to rural areas development. One of the panels, which will include participants from the State Department, will explore means by which electric cooperatives can contribute to the development of Latin American nations. NRECA has recently signed an agreement with the Agency for International Development to provide assistance in establishing electric cooperatives and rural development projects in Latin America and other areas of the free world.

simple, basic facts of Americanism and the free enterprise system in every subject and phase of their school activities.

When these students graduate, they have such a solid background in understanding our American heritage that they can evaluate any other form of government and socialism in its true light, Mrs. McKillip said.

After experiencing cold weather that set new temperature lows in Atlanta, and many long hours of meetings and discussions, Mrs. De Vaney and Mrs. McKillip boarded the plane for home with many memories and experiences behind them.

They reported on the trip to the monthly meeting of the Bailey County Farm Bureau Board of Directors which was held at Paul's Cafe on Thursday, January 4.

Impressions of The Soviet Union Is Topic of Parent-Teacher Guest

The Reverend J. Frank Peery, presented a talk and slide showing of his European impressions of the Soviet Union Monday afternoon at the Richland Hills PTA meeting.

Two deep impressions of the USSR were made on Mr. Peery. He said that the education of the some 9,000 state-controlled newspapers, magazines, posters and of course, the four-stage state schooling of the children. The projection of Lenin, not Khrushchev communism's superiority for the world; and the new twenty-year plan with goals for 1980, educated all everywhere in the Communist world, he saw.

The second point was their conception of peace, also projected through Lenin's image, and spoken of as "the non-shooting phase of war" that communism wages on the world. The 15 republics which compose the Soviet Union, not just Russia itself, are pictured as united in their effort for world peace. They are civic and community-minded now, even family-conscious; however, the contrast is made to Czarist times, and pictured in propaganda as to even better for all in the future. Flags of USSR were not found in Russia, he said, but many flags of internal peace "MNP" and Lenin, not the hammer and sickle, were available.

Timely pictures of Berlin and the Wall were shown. Mr. Peery commented that he found Poland to be a stronger friend behind the Iron Curtain of all the states.

Mrs. Bernard Phelps introduced the speaker, commenting that bringing out that the program of the year was good citizenship through participation. "We know our individual rights, but often neglect our responsibilities," she said.

COLLINS RETURN FROM TEXAS VALLEY TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collins have returned from a valley vacation in Texas.

They spent quite some time in Corpus Christi and McAllen and saw many vegetable crops being gathered ahead of the cold wave.

A $4,200 minimum and a maximum of $7,000 will be required to attract young people into the Texas teaching profession. — Hale-Aikin county committees.

Mae Price and Ralph Bellamy Wed In Sudan First Baptist Church

Before an archway of greenery flanked with candelabra bearing tapers, and baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladiolas, wedding vows were solemnized Friday evening, January 11 in the Sudan First Baptist Church for Mae Elizabeth Price and Donald Ralph Bellamy.

The Rev. Wayne Perry of Ropesville performed the double ring rites. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Price; Mrs. Gus Bellamy and the late Gus Bellamy, Sudan.

Escorted to the altar by her father the bride wore a floor length gown of delustered satin and lace featuring a fitted bodice with Sabrina neckline and long sleeves. The paneled skirt of her dress extended into a chapel train. Her veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and lace. She carried white rosebuds and a white satin Bible.

Benny Arnold, brother-in-law of the bride, was accompanied in wedding solos by Radney Fisher organist.

Attendants were Miss Wanda Powell, Mrs. Benny Arnold and Mrs. Harley Fields. Mrs. Arnold and Mrs. Fields are sisters of the bride.

They wore frocks of emerald green delustered satin with crystalline over skirts. Each carried a white rose. Christy Field, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Ronald Bellamy served his brother as best man and groomsmen were Roy Engram and Jimmy Hunter of Lubbock. Ushers were Wix Gaston and Ronnie Gatewood. Curtis Arnold, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Bobby Smith and Gaston lighted the candles.

At the ensuing reception held in the church parlor the table was laid with a white cutwork cloth over green featuring decorations of candelabra bearing tapers and white rosebuds.

Mrs. Joe Don Parrott and Mrs. Ronnie Gatewood performed the serving hospitalities. Also assisting were Mrs. Bill Turner and Mrs. Charles Rich.

For her wedding trip the bride chose a black and brown wool tweed suit with black and brown accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Bellamy are both graduates of Sudan high school and the bride attended Texas Tech. She is employed by Southwestern Bell Telephone and her husband is associated with Hesters Office Machines in Lubbock

Muleshoe Delegates Return From Annual Farm Bureau Convention

Two Muleshoe women, Mrs. Morris McKillip and Mrs. Elvon DeVaney, attended the annual Farm Bureau Convention in Atlanta, Ga. as official representatives of the Woman's Committee for Texas and Bailey County. They were sponsored by the Bailey County Farm Bureau, the first county to organize a Woman's Farm Bureau Committee in Texas.

One hundred thirty-eight Texas delegates attended the delegation breakfast for which Mrs. DeVaney was hostess. The breakfast was in honor of her father-in-law, C. H. DeVaney, the newly elected president of the Texas Farm Bureau.

Mrs. McKillip reports that she attended the State Women's Chairman and President's Banquet with J. H. West, past president of the Texas Farm Bureau. Charles H. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, gave a brief address and then the state women's chairman from each of the 44 states represented gave a one minute talk on the activities in their state.

In the Texas report, Mrs. McKillip talked briefly on activities in the migrant labor field, particularly on the Migrant Labor Conference report that was given at the Bailey County Farm Bureau annual meeting in March of this year.

"Some of the reports," Mrs. McKillip said, "included talks by the New Jersey State Chairman on Migrant Labor; the Colorado where they will make their home.

Among out-of-town relatives attending the event were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Price of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Horace Holt of Muleshoe; Mrs. Benny Harmon, Amherst; Mr. and Mrs. Harlon Davis, Muleshoe.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Muleshoe Journal Editors:
By means of the Press, Radio and TV people have learned about a 90-day work stoppage on the New York City and Cleveland newspapers.

Could it be that the daily press has lost its place in the American way of life and that the weekly newspaper could replace the morning paper or will the radio and TV supply this ease even to our breakfast table?

Is there a possibility both sides foresee a new trend now that we hear of newspapers, radio and TV under the same ownership and find a challenge of peacefully working out their problems just too much? Or are the taxes too much for both sides so play on the goodwill of the people and maybe the public will declare themselves; or will the argument in New York City be a reminder of the times that religious thinking has lost its place among us and churchmen have a new age to recast their thinking so as to lead others to the greatest author of truth, Christ.

News reporting is but one way to bring people to the Man of Truth—Christ. May printers find a happy way for themselves via the good example of peace.

Wayland Books Famed Speakers For Conference

PLAINVIEW — The International Relations Conference at Wayland Baptist College will have as two of its speakers His Excellency Julius M. Udochi, Ambassador of Nigeria, and Bradshaw Mintener Jr., Special Assistant with the Peace Corps, both of Washington, D. C., according to an announcement by Dr. Eugene W. Jones, chairman of the Division of Social Sciences.

The third annual conference, sponsored by the Wayland International Relations Club, will be Feb. 21-23 and will have as its theme "International Peace: Africa". Other speakers are expected to accept invitations to take part in the conference. While the sessions that include general discussions, a chapel program and a press conference are planned for Wayland students and faculty, invitations to other colleges draw an interesting group from out of town.

Mintener, Special Assistant to the Director of the College and University Division of the Office of Public Affairs, will speak on "African Diary: The Story of the Peace Corps at Work".

In 1962 Mintener helped to build a school with the Operation Crossroads Africa project in the Ivory Coast and took part in that West African's country's Independence Day celebration. He was on contract with the Agency for International Development at Indiana University for the French African Mobil Cinema Unit Program in 1961 and recently received his master's degree in African Studies and audio-visual communications at the University of Indiana. While at the University he received the annual award for the outstanding contribution to student government for his work as chairman

HONORED BY SCOUTS — C. Owen Jones, Muleshoe, was one of the four men given Scouting's top honor at the South Plains Council annual recognition dinner at Lubbock Tuesday night. Jones Honored By Area Scouts

C. Owen Jones, Muleshoe, was one of four area men to receive the top award, the Silver Beaver award, at the annual South Plains Council, Boy Scouts of America, 37th annual council recognition dinner in Lubbock Tuesday night.

Others who were singled out for this top Scouting award, were James Halsey, Lubbock; Cliff Cummings, Lubbock; and O. C. Rankin, Whiteface.

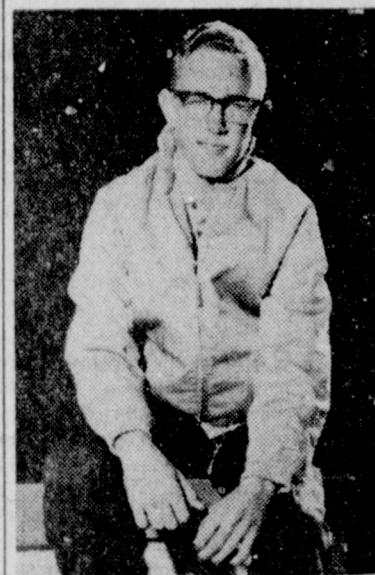

Jones' citation read: "For nearly 12 years this Scouter has given unselfishly of his time and talents to help boys to have the Scouting program. During this time, he has served in a great many positions in Scouting. He has served on a troop committee, Pack committee, district committee, training committee, finance committee, and district commissioner.

"In his city he has served as city fire marshal, president of the Lions club, city planning committee, president of the band boosters, and many others.

"In his church he has served in many positions, and has always done his best to carry out the task.

"This Scouter is well known over his district for his outstanding work in Scouting. He is never too busy to help boys. Very few men have worked longer and harder in Scouting than he has. His contributions have been many.

"The South Plains Council proudly presents the Silver Beaver Award to: C. Owen Jones, Muleshoe."

Area Farmers Buy Top Hogs

Three area farmers have returned from the famous Poland-China Spotlight Sale and Southwestern Type Conference at Woodward, Okla., and they have brought with them some of the top individual hogs offered at the sale.

Farmers who made the trip included Scoggin Bros., West Camp; Eugene Black and sons, Lazbuddie, and Dwight Burkhead, Muleshoe.

Scoggins bought the champion bred gilt, offered by Orr & Sons, Tipton, Ind., due to litter in February. The gilt is bred to the famous Black Advance.

Scoggin also bought the third place young boar of the show, Foremost Style from the Wendell Lefstedt farms at Alcester, S. D.

Burkhead bought Famous Queen from Joe Burger farms at Hartsborne, Okla. Eugene Black and Sons bought two gilts, one from Gregstefen farms at Crofton, Neb., and the other from Ed Helgens, Monticello, Iowa.

Gammon is Renamed To High Plains Board

John Gammon, Lazbuddie, has been reelected to the board of the High Plains Undergrnd Water Conservation district, it was announced this week following an area-wide election last week.

He represents Bailey, Castro and Parmar counties and was unopposed for the post. Other board members elected were Russell Bean, Lubbock, and Earl Holt, Hereford.

Bailey county voters named J. W. Witherspoon as county committeeman. He defeated Douglas Bales, D. O. Burlesmith and Melvin Hale.

Cakes, Candles, Commemorations Light March of Dimes 25th Year

Throughout the nation this month, candles will be lit on birthday cakes to symbolize the 25th anniversary of the March of Dimes.

The cakes will range from real ones of conventional size to monster, multi-tiered models as much as 12 feet in height and 10 feet in diameter—the approximate dimensions of the one to be erected in New York City's famed Times Square. Guests at anniversary events around the country, where cakes will be of more modest proportions, will be invited to decorate them with coins for the March of Dimes.

Many "parties" commemorating a quarter of a century of disease fighting will be held at special treatment centers for birth defects, arthritis and polio which March of Dimes contributions are financing today in more than 40 cities across the U.S. Other gatherings will be held in county chapter offices of The National Foundation—March of Dimes, in the homes of volunteers and elsewhere.

In many instances, guests at these campaign "kickoffs" will include governors or their wives, mayors and outstanding authorities in health fields. Other guests will be Americans of all ages who received March of Dimes aid during and after polio epidemics and outbreaks. Also present will be children and adolescents with birth defects or arthritis who have been treated at these March of Dimes centers.

To raise the millions required every year for patient aid and research in birth defects, arthritis and polio, each March of Dimes campaign is carefully planned many months ahead. There are millions of contribution envelopes and coin collectors to be distributed around the nation; hundreds of thousands of posters to be erected in every hamlet, town and city; two million volunteers to be organized for the Mothers' March (the climax to the campaign at the end of January), and March of Dimes films to exhibit to explain the work of the voluntary health organization.

Arrangements must be completed for the visit in January of the National March of Dimes

Jimmy Boggess, 5, of Coy, Ark., the 1963 National March of Dimes Child, blows out candles on birthday cake symbolizing first 25 years of aid to the crippled by the health organization.

Child—who this year is Jimmy Boggess, 5, Coy, Ark.—with President Kennedy at the White House and with various Senators and Congressmen and other dignitaries as well as with personalities of the stage, screen and television.

Special events for the March of Dimes are staged in all the big cities, many lesser ones and in some small towns. These include March of Dimes bowling tournaments, with "roll-offs" to select a national man or woman champion, fashion shows, auctions, telegrams, Coffee Days, Tag Days and street sales, neighborhood bread sales, air-lifts and a long list of sports activities.

The theme of this 25th Anniversary March of Dimes, which is "Give for the Life of a Child," will be stressed in all these special events, and the story told of the first 25 years of the organization. Highlights of that story are:

Patients aided, 338,000; expended for the medical care program, $385,500,000; for scientific research, $73,600,000; and for professional education, $38,000,000.

Basil O'Connor, president of The National Foundation—March of Dimes, referred in a recent speech to the 25th anniversary of the health agency.

"Most certainly we take pride in our past 25 years, and we rejoice. But deep down we really think of that quarter of a century as only the springboard for our future."

associate president, announced plans for the organization's annual directors' and allied industry meeting. Directors in the association represent every cotton producing area in the state.

The agenda for the three-day session in the Echo Hotel will include talks on quality of cotton bagging, cotton legislation, accident prevention, microaire evaluation programs, research and plans for the Ginnners' Association conventions for the next two years.

Any crop that can be made into hay can also be made into silage.

Classing Office Cuts Operations

The 1962-63 season is drawing to a close, stated W. K. Palmer, Officer-in-charge of the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office. Palmer reported a number of classers were being released and the Lubbock office went on a single shift from 8-5 last Monday.

The Lubbock office pushed its season total to 1,655,000 samples with 177,000 samples classed for the week ending January 11. This office had a carry-over of 50,000 samples.

The Brownfield office exceeded its 1961-62 season total by 13,000 samples this past week. The 15,500 samples classed for the week brought the total for that office to 253,000 samples. A carry-over of 1,500 samples was reported.

The Lamesa office is over 100,000 samples behind last season, but is still receiving about 2,000 samples per day. For the week 26,000 samples were classed bringing the total for that office to 193,500 samples.

The white grades continued to have good percentages for this time of the year. The percentages were 17 percent for Strict Low Middling, 1 percent for Low Middling Plus, 9 percent for Strict Good Ordinary Plus and lower.

For the light spotted grades Middling Light Spotted accounted for 11 percent, Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 39 percent and Low Middling Light Spotted 19 percent. The spotted grades were showing higher percentages with 2 percent Middling Spotted, 4 percent Strict Low Middling Spotted and 2 percent Low Middling Spotted. Three percent of the cotton was Tinged in grade. Seven percent of the samples being classed was reduced because of foreign matter.

The average staple length for the week was 29.9 thirty-seconds of an inch. This was down from the previous week when the average was 29.9 thirty-seconds of an inch. The percentages for the various staple lengths were: 7-8" 1 percent, 29-32" 25 percent, 15-16" 66 percent, 31-32" 7 percent and 1 inch and longer 1 percent.

The micronaire readings continued a downward trend. Seventy percent milled 3.4 or below with 34 percent in the range of 3.0-3.4. Thirty percent milled 3.5 or better. For the week 15 percent of the cotton was classed as wastage.

On the Lubbock market, 63,000 bales were reported purchased by the Cotton Exchange for the week ending January 11, according to H. A. Poteet, Secretary of the Exchange. This was well below the 106,500 bales reported for the same week last year.

Fernando Magellan, Portuguese navigator, discovered the Philippines on March 16, 1521.

Clayton Named to Committees

Bill Clayton of Springlake, newly-elected State Representative from the 91st District, landed in a bowl of cherries when House committee assignments were announced Friday.

Clayton drew one of the heaviest and most important committee assignments of any of the 66 freshman legislators.

He was one of the four freshmen to be chosen for the important appropriation committee, headed by fellow West Texan, Bill Heatley of Paducah.

In addition, he was named to the committees on the Municipal and Private Corporations, Public Lands and Buildings and Labor.

The new representative made his first appearance on the floor of the House and first address to its 150 members Wednesday when he sponsored Charles Duvall, Jr., of Littlefield, for the elective office of assistant reading clerk, which resulted in Duvall's election.

On opening day, Clayton helped elect Byron Tunnell to the Speakership of the House. Tunnell won over his token opposition by 141-9.

Health Letter Offers Points for Baby Sitter

One of the chief contributors to modern American society is the institution known as baby sitting. One noted authority estimated 35 percent of the buying power attributed to teenagers probably comes from baby sitting salaries.

It wasn't too long ago, that unless mother and father had a handy grandma around, they stayed home or took the children with them. Just as freedom has come to other oppressed groups — grandparents no longer get stuck endlessly, because more often than not, they are also out enjoying themselves.

As a result baby sitting has grown into what amounts to a major industry — practiced, all too often, by inexperienced and sometimes unqualified young people.

Whether the youngsters are six months old or 10 years old, parents leaving them want to know the sitter is someone they can trust.

It must be someone the parents know is responsible and sufficiently mature, one who will like the child and get along with him. This calls for a study of the sitter's references if he or she is not already well known to the family.

To be in charge of one or more children and the home they live in is a serious business. Careful arrangements need to be made between the parents and the baby sitter.

Both the parents and baby sitter have obligations in preparing and carrying out the agreement.

Parents should make the request well in advance. A thorough briefing should be made to the sitter — preferably written — explaining where the parents will be including phone numbers, and the expected time of return.

The sitter should meet the child while he is awake, especially on the first visit. The layout of the home should be explained and emergency numbers listed.

The sitter should be directed for expected visitors or deliveries otherwise the doors and windows should remain locked. Finally the parents should have the correct change available to avoid confusion and provide safe transportation home.

The sitter's responsibilities are similar. She should keep awake — even if parents allow napping, follow parents' views on TV, phone, snacks, and visitors, and make periodic checks quietly on sleeping children.

Full information on food, habits, rituals and nicknames should be obtained. Sitters should understand basic first aid and learn to suspect illness in a child. Safety should be a sitter's first consideration.

WALK AROUND IT. SEE THE DIFFERENCES.

Start at the rear of this Fleetside pickup. Grab the tailgate and pull hard. No give. Two wedge latches keep it tight. Now unfasten them and let down the gate. Jump up and down on it. Does it sag? Notice how the chains are wrapped in rubber so they won't rattle or mar paint.

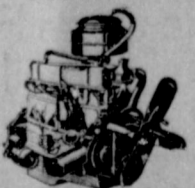

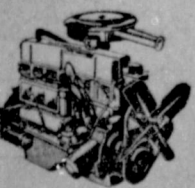

Now look at the lower side panels. Two walls. You might dent the rust. It's select wood, not metal. The floor will never rust. It's select wood, not metal.

Now please sit in the cab a minute. Comfortable? It also is double walled and the roof is insulated. Let's start 'er up and look for a washboard road. Chevrolet's coil-spring suspensions fight road shock better than other types, good for the truck, load and the driver.

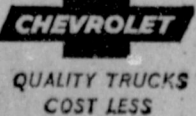

There are other things. But you can see why this is a truck that does a job without a lot of pampering. It's built right. Which is why it's usually worth more at trade-in. When would you like us to deliver it?

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, Texas — Governor John Connally has picked seven men to fill key appointments in his administration. Oldest of the seven is Crawford Martin of Hillsboro, who will be Secretary of State. And he is only a year older than the 44-year-old governor.

Youngest appointee, 27-year-old Larry Temple of Austin, will be an administrative assistant. Teamed with Temple are 32-year-old Bill Fowler of Dallas, 38-year-old Frank Miskell of Austin, and 34-year-old Scott P. Sayers of Fort Worth.

Howard Rose, 32-year-old Midland attorney, will be Connally's executive assistant.

Bill Cobb, 38, will be budget director. He's an Austinite.

Two of the appointees are carry-overs from the Daniel administration, to some degree. Martin served as state senator from Hillsboro for 14 years — through 1962. Cobb was chief examiner for the Legislative Budget Board from 1951 until 1962, when he became assistant executive director of the Texas Industrial Commission.

Fowler, Miskell and Sayers worked on Connally's staff while he was campaigning for governor.

BOARD REPLACEMENTS ANNOUNCED

Governor Price Daniel made numerous gubernatorial appointments at term's end. He has stated he will make no more appointments unless death creates a vacancy.

He named Milton Potts of Livingston, manager of the Sam Houston Electric Cooperative for the past 22 years, to the Texas Water Development Board, and he reappointed Marvin Shurtet of Petersburg to that board.

Daniel also appointed: Dan Melton, Lufkin insurance man, to the Neches River Conservation District board; Fred Mercer of Silverton and Arville Setliff of Turkey to the Upper Red River Flood Control board. Jack Douthit of Sterling City, Dale Leddy of San Angelo and L. T. Youngblood of Bronte were reappointed to the Upper Colorado River Authority; J. W. Mullins of Coleman and Isaac S. Pate of Voss were named to the Central Colorado River Authority, and O. L. Cheaney of Santa Anna reappointed.

Mrs. James P. Hart of Austin (wife of the former chancellor of the University of Texas), W.R. Beaumier of Lufkin, and Vann M. Kennedy of Corpus Christi were named to the Texas State Historical Survey Committee.

TURMAN SEEKS POST

James A. Turman, who ran for lieutenant-governor last year and lost, wants to return to his favorite field — education.

The 35-year-old Speaker of the House quickly advanced in the field of education before he became a legislator eight years ago. He earned a doctorate in education, then became assistant professor of education and assistant to the president at Texas Women's University.

He has asked the Texas Commission on Higher Education to consider him a candidate for its post of executive director.

SCHOOL FUND STILL GROWING

The Permanent School Fund, that provided more than $21,000,000 of non-tax money for use in public schools in 1962, now consists of investments totaling more than $477,000,000.

Furthermore, it should continue to grow, since the current rate of return on corporate securities, treasury bonds and municipal bonds has increased from 3.38 per cent to 3.51 per cent.

In the past 25 years, the Fund has earned more than $162,000,000 in interest through investments made by the State Board of Education.

WEATHER WOES CUT PRODUCTION

Weather played havoc with almost every major crop in the state in 1962 and caused crop production to hit its lowest point since 1957.

U. S. Department of Agriculture reports that the 1962 crop index fell nine per cent below the 1961 level to 127.0. All-time high of 145.0 was set in 1939, and the 1961 level was second highest.

Crops hardest hit were: wheat, down to 43,700,000 bushels or 49 per cent below 1961; citrus, down to about six per cent of 1961 production; sorghum, down 12 per cent; cotton, down 106,000 bales — to 4,680,000 bales.

Production of corn, peanuts, soybeans and rice was down. However, yield per acre was up over the previous year.

Weather's costly whims cut the total value of 1962 crops to $1,400-

Bailey County 4-H Boy Wins 3rd In State Grain Sorghum Contest

Bruce Little, Bailey County 4-H club boy, won third place in the 1962 Texas Hybrid Grain Sorghum program for irrigated land, it was announced this week by J. K. Adams, county agent.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Little.

Bruce's yield was 7,369.5 pounds per acre. Planting was done April 26 at the rate of 7 pounds per acre in 40-inch rows. Variety was Texas 660. The plot was irrigated five times, and 123 pounds of nitrogen was used as side dressing.

He was bested only by a Deaf Smith youth, Paul English, Rt. 1, Hereford, who took the area and state championship with a yield of 8,521.2 pounds per acre. His production also was made under irrigation.

Paul's Texas 660 was planted May 28 after a pre-plant irrigation and application of 164-46-0 fertilizer, using 10 pounds of seed per acre in 29-inch rows.

Top dryland yield was made by Marvin Mathijetz, a Lee county 4-H boy, whose yield was 6,879.3 pounds per acre.

Farmers Union Launches Drive

A drive for members in Farmer and Bailey counties was launched here today by Farmers Union with a coffee at Paul's cafe, Leon Smith, Jr., Farmer county president said.

The meeting here is a part of a 17-county West Texas membership drive to meet goals set by the state executive committee, NUF State president Jay Naman, announced.

The series started Monday evening with a dinner at Underwood's cafeteria in Lubbock. Tuesday's meetings were held at Levelland, Pep and Dimmitt. Meetings were held at Earth and Hale Center Wednesday, and Thursday's meetings, in addition to the one here, were at Plains this morning and at Panhandle tonight.

Friday meetings include Silverton, Lockney and Dickens.

In setting the whirlwind membership drive for West Texas Naman said:

"There is an apparent restlessness among the farmers of Texas and an awareness that they must join a general farm organization that believes in wise Federal farm programs and the importance of a positive vote in the 1963 Wheat Referendum.

"Our county organizations in West Texas will take advantage of this by executing the most intensified and widespread campaign for membership ever held in order to give farmers an opportunity to join and work for an organization that seeks parity of income prices. The alternatives to a strong representation by farmers in their national government, can be none other than the loss of the price gains accomplished during 1961 and 1962; and the failure of the wheat referendum will doubtlessly result in no program and $1. wheat.

Naman went on to say, "I am confident that we will see the West Texas membership in Farmers Union double as a result of this membership drive."

The Los Angeles Angels had a 46-35 road record in 1962 as against a 24-55 mark in 1961.

the city council in seeking adoption of a city zoning ordinance, and will have as one of their chief objectives the obtaining of a vegetable cannery in Muleshoe "to take care of the fantastic production possible in this area." The Chamber includes in its 1963 program also a "United Fund" type of organization to eliminate multiple fund campaigns. It also will seek greater participation in elections, and will continue its agriculture business program, the farm dinner project and the annual Fourth of July program.

One of the chief goals for 1963 also, as outlined at the banquet, will be formation "of an industrial development corporation to develop the industrial potential of our area."

The Chamber also has dedicated itself to "keep the public better informed and to give the public better understanding of the functions of elected bodies."

The board also has approved an intensive "C" membership drive, seeking especially to secure more farm members.

The Chamber will concentrate on several "well-planned retail promotions," and will seek to guard against questionable sales schemes. "For the protection of all people in the area."

Directors for 1963, who were introduced at the banquet, include Alhart, Harold Allison, Roger Albertson, Spencer Beavers, Dr. W. F. Birdsong, Elliott, Frank Ellis, James Jennings, Dr. Charles Lewis, Truman Lindsey, M. E. Simmons, John Smith and Wimberly.

McMillon, in his address, told the chamber he hoped "you folk have problems, because the organization that has no problems is a dead organization." And he added: "For this reason I hope you have problems."

He said he hoped, too, that "as individuals and as an organization you make right decisions — not just decisions for expediency, decisions that solve the problem quickly but not permanently."

McMillon outlined a six-point program for the organization, individuals and for youth.

"I hope you will have a broad vision, he said, "that essential to success and I hope this vision will include these things:

1. A program, personal and collectively, to prevent physical deterioration of mankind. . . a program which will aid the retired people because the problem of the aged is becoming greater every year. . . a program which will promote your schools, not just to send Johnnie through college, but to teach Johnnie a trade if he doesn't go to college. . . A program of loyalty—to country, leaders, church, God, school and to yourself. . . .

"A program should include competition because competition leads to excellence. Leaders are developed that way, and leaders are essential in a democracy. . . .

"Finally," he concluded, "I would urge you to profit by the 'profit system.' It's a good system."

"How much," he asked, are you worth — not in dollars and cents, but in value to yourself? Well, I can tell you this: You are worth only what you give away of yourself to your families, your town and your country. . . . And remember, always, to take God with you."

Invocation was said by the Rev. J. Frank Peery, and vocal entertainment was provided by Paul Durham of the school music staff. Dinner music was played by Susan Birdsong at the organ.

Usherettes were Davy Jean Anderson, Rhonda Wagon, Shirley Richards and Karen Jones.

Ray's--

evening at home at least let a family get re-acquainted even if there are only two at home as is the case out at Goathead Estates, our winter home.

We got bored with TV the first night the blizzard blew in, and by the second night we had exhausted all our reading material which left only speech. We could have played two-person bridge, I guess, if we had had the slightest idea how to play bridge, two or four-personed. But that's a game we have never bothered to memorize the formulas to — the 4,000 formulas which control bidding after which the game is over unless somebody goes.

When they took all elements of chance out of bridge and made it more scientific than a moon orbit, we lost interest in it.

So, the missus and yours truly settled down to a bit of conversation along about that third night that the thermometer nosedived down into its bulb. "Let's see, now, why don't we talk?" suggested the missus after the TV hero had slaughtered all the bad and near-bad men and the final and 14th commercial for that half-hour had spied itself out.

"Weather," I suggested. "They say you can always find something interesting in the weather."

"It's cold," the missus shivered. "So that ended that topic. I sat there trying to remember what we used to talk about way back there in those early days of our marriage — 20 years before TV invaded the living room."

There must have been something. After all we didn't just sit there and look at each other, interesting as that occupation might have been back in those youthful days.

We tried finances, but there wasn't much either of us could say along that line since we have so little of the same.

"Some folks do right well discussing their ailments," I suggested. So we talked about our sinus for a few minutes and that ended that topic. I walked over in desperation and turned on TV but the lass who has just gobbled up her washing machine with the sudsy soap was at it again, so I snapped it off and went back to the divan.

Along about 10:30 the missus said, "Well, this has certainly been a most delightful and informative discussion. I'm going to bed."

I ask you, what DID we talk about back in those days before soaps made it possible for us to have television, thus replacing conversation? Is there anybody old enough to remember?

Sandpit Lake outside the refuge. Lakes surveyed on the refuge included Paul's Lake, Goose Lake and White Lake.

Although most of the birds were water fowl, several were found not usually seen in this area, Evans said. Among these were a bald eagle and two golden eagles.

Broken down, the tally went like this:
Geese from Canada, 1000; Mallards, 32,200; Gadwall, 125; American Widgeon ducks, 21,450; Pintail ducks, 59,150; green-winged teal, 17,125; black winged teal, 550; shoveler ducks, 15; redhead 30; canvasback 10; goldeneye 130; bufflehead five, ruddy ducks, 400; common merganser, 25; and old squaw, one. Coots totaled 910, and lesser sandhill crane 60,000.

Evans explained that the common merganser are ocean birds and are rarely seen in this area.

terraces are beneficial to his operation. This is brought out by the terrace system already installed on dryland portions of his farm.

Crops include cotton, grain sorghum, Sudan and small grains. This gives him the opportunity of being able to rotate his crops, Fishgrab explains, and this benefits soil improvement and productivity. He also uses his small grains as cover crops for soil protection from erosion and a supplement to his grazing program.

Setliff also has two irrigated farms. One of these farms is surface irrigated, and the other watered with a sprinkler system. He is conservative with his irrigation water, and practices applying water only when it is needed and at a rate that is non-erosive and causes no run-off.

He is continually striving to improve his irrigation system in order to achieve maximum efficiency of the systems, Fishgrab said.

Setliff is a respected farmer in his community and has gone far to further soil conservation. This fact is proved by his neighbors whom he has influenced into applying conservation practices on their farms, it was explained.

Setliff, who is unmarried, lives with his mother on the farm.

day. First cases slated for trial were for four persons charged with driving while intoxicated.

Wednesday Judge Williams dismissed the jury when Lovelady reported that he was ill. No date has been set for the rescheduling of the 17 persons still facing trial.

Twenty-four persons had been summoned for possible jury duty. On the jury which heard Arnold's case were E. D. Julian, Baileyboro; Charles Mayhugh, Route 2, Muleshoe; W. O. Stacey, Route 2, Muleshoe; Mrs. Rayford Masten, Route 1, Morton; Mrs. Earl Darsey, Muleshoe, and I. L. Kitchens, Route 5, Muleshoe.

was returned September 28 when the grand jury was again called into session. It was on this last indictment that Lovelady was to have faced trial late last year.

Although four indictments have been handed down against Lovelady, only two are listed as felonies. In addition to the charge of theft and extortion, he also was charged by the grand jury with giving a Muleshoe grocery store a worthless $50 check. Two other indictments returned in the August session of the grand jury involve checks of less than $50 and thus are county court misdemeanor cases.

Lovelady is reported to have told courthouse officials that he intends to remain in Muleshoe in private practice of law.

ing the year. Total for the 29-county area was 177 deaths, 2,768 accidents, and property damage totaling $2,028,707 for the year. In many cases, more than one person was fatally injured in a single accident, since there were 120 fatal accidents, killing 177 persons.

When the final '62 reports are tabulated in March of 1963, it is estimated the death count will be approximately four percent above the 2,314 killing in 1961, the department said. "This increase should be a challenge for every individual to put forth his best efforts to prevent accidents during the new year," Lawson summed up.

good work," he summed up. Here in Muleshoe, greatest apparent damage came when mechanism operating the City's automatic pump station froze and failed to cut off engines pumping water into the city water towers. Both tanks overflowed, but only the one downtown caused serious damage by the mechanical failure.

Overflowing freezing water from that tower resulted in a cave-in at the E. R. Hart company building back of the water tower. A large hole in the roof resulted when the water piled up on top of the building and froze.

City Manager Albert Field said no estimate had been received as yet of the damage done to the building, but that the matter would be discussed at tonight's meeting of the city council. The freezing water also did some damage at the Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Company which also was within range of the over-flowing tower. A strong north wind whipped the water onto the top of downtown buildings in that area.

The extremely cold weather, together with the hazards of falling ice from the downtown water tower, halted work on the annex to the city fire station, being constructed. Foundation for the $3,250 annex had been run when cold weather forced a shutdown.

Although the second water tower in the city park also froze when the pumping equipment failed, damage there was minor since there are no buildings in the area. In addition to causing ice on downtown buildings when the tower overflowed, streets in the area also were flooded, causing a minor driving hazard in some area, especially in front of the post office.

The city was busy at mid-week replacing water meters which had frozen up during the below-zero temperatures. Field said he

The Nuclear Ship Savannah

Today's merchant ships are a far cry from the ships of yesterday. The modernity of the N. S. (for nuclear ship) Savannah—the first nuclear-powered cargo-passenger ship—is typified by this photo of a section of the vessel's main passenger lounge. The spacious, comfortable lounge is used for formal receptions for visiting dignitaries, passenger recreation and as a movie auditorium.

The Savannah's nuclear reactor has a tremendous capability. The vessel can travel 14 times around the globe without refueling. Named for the S. S. Savannah, the first vessel to cross the Atlantic using steam, the nuclear Savannah carries a 3 1/2 year nuclear fuel supply of 17,000 pounds of enriched uranium oxide. Approximately 90,000 tons of fuel oil would be needed to produce an equivalent amount of energy in a conventionally-powered vessel. The Savannah is on a port-to-port schedule that will take the vessel to major seaports throughout the United States.

Developed jointly by the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission and the Maritime Administration of the U. S. Department of Commerce, the Savannah is operated by States Marine Lines as general agent for the Maritime Administration.

The N. S. Savannah is a floating govt-will messenger for the United States. The ship is demonstrating to nations around the world that nuclear power can be harnessed for peaceful, productive purposes.

Whooping Cranes Shot by Mistake For Sandhills Species, Solon Says

West Texas hunters may have been shooting scarce whooping cranes, thinking they were the common garden variety of sandhill cranes, and that hunters last fall undoubtedly bagged some of the whoopers by error.

Reuss noted that the Interior Department Tuesday "rather dolefully" announced that the world's sole flock of whooping cranes was down from last spring's 38 to 32 birds, with no youngsters sighted.

Reuss said he had pointed out to the department that sandhill and young whoopers in flight can hardly be distinguished, even by experts. He asked the department on Dec. 15 to end the open season on sandhills, but has yet received no reply.

In Washington, Reuss issued a statement charging the Interior Department with the decline.

He said the department goofed in allowing an open season, in Texas and New Mexico, on a closely-related species, the sandhill crane, and that hunters last fall undoubtedly bagged some of the whoopers by error.

Our First Nuclear Ship

This is a photo of the 22,000-ton N. S. (for nuclear ship) Savannah, the world's first nuclear powered cargo-passenger ship. The Savannah is on a port-by-port schedule that will take the ship to major seaports throughout the United States.

The N. S. Savannah is named for the S. S. Savannah, the first vessel using steam to cross the Atlantic some 144 years ago. It took the original Savannah nearly a month to travel from Savannah, Ga., to Liverpool, England on this historic voyage back in 1819.

The nuclear Savannah is able to operate on longer runs at higher sustained speeds and is able to carry larger cargoes than conventional steamships today. Reason? Its reactors require much less space than conventional oil-burning equipment and fuel tanks.

The nuclear vessel was developed jointly by the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission and the Maritime Administration of the U. S. Department of Commerce. States Marine Lines of New York operates the ship as general agent for the Maritime Administration. States Marine has supplied the ship's crew, including deck officers and highly trained reactor engineers.

The N. S. Savannah is intended to demonstrate to the world (1) the intent of the United States to employ the power of the atom for peaceful productive purposes and (2) the feasibility of using nuclear energy to power merchant ships.

The Savannah is a 595 1/2-foot long single propeller ship. She has six full decks and is designed to carry 60 passengers and 10,000 tons of dry cargo.

The vessel will be open to the public at the various ports of call.

INSTRUMENT SCHOOL
Instrument training school began Tuesday night at Muleshoe Flying Service with ten pilots attending the opening session.

The school, being taught under the direction of Morgan Locker, includes all points of flying instrument and is taught from the FFA approved Sanderson Visual Aid method of detailed films and recordings of instruction on each maneuver.

All students who were unable to attend the class may call at the airport during the day for the make-up period on the lesson, Locker announced.

HUNT IN MEXICO
Four Clovis, N.M. businessmen returned last Tuesday from a rewarding hunting trip in the wilds of Old Mexico.

Leaving Muleshoe on Saturday morning, James Foster, Lewis Yarbrough, Elton Green and Buck Tucker, flew to the border town of Brownsville. There, they contacted Vince and Kent Stevenson Hunting Service with whom reservation and hunting arrangement had been made for the Mexico trek. They were flown to Matamoros, Mexico by Stevenson air service and began their three day hunt some 70 miles south.

Wild game and fowl was plentiful in the area and they bagged their limit of quail for each day. Wild hog and deer are also good hunting in that locale.

Foster, a commercial pilot and owner of Foster Gun Shop in Clovis, piloted the Comanche 250 on the flight to and from Brownsville.

DALLAS FLIGHT
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dameron and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Daniel flew to Dallas for a weekend of business and pleasure, leaving Saturday and returning on Monday.

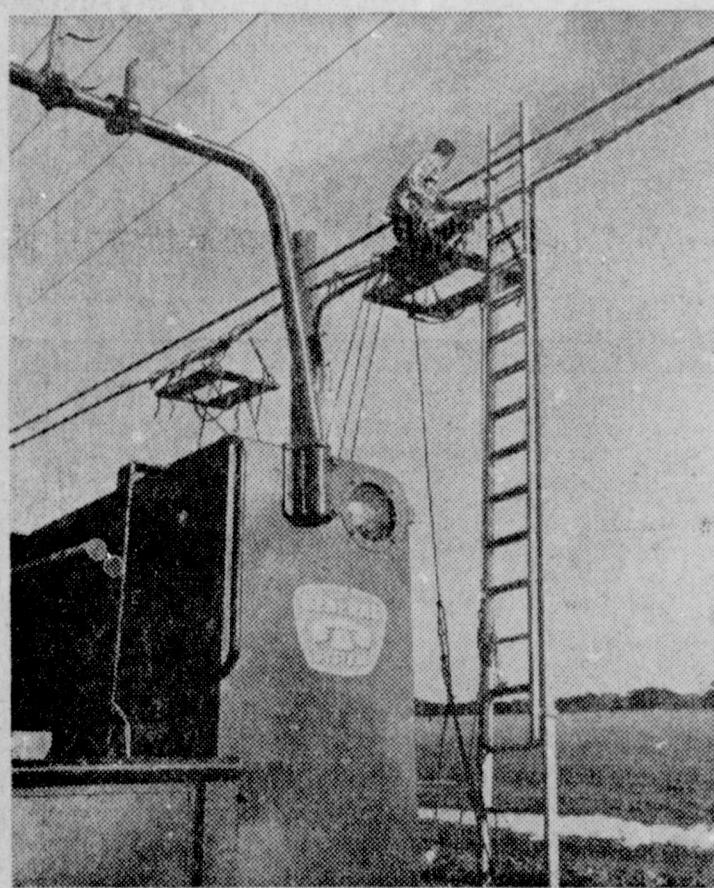

Daniel piloted the Cherokee on the flight to Dallas and Dameron was pilot in command on the return flight.

BIZ IS GOOD — Main Street was crowded this week. This scene shows just a few of the many shoppers in Cobb's department and area shoppers jammed clearance sales store Wednesday morning.

Buy Car Stickers Early, Says Chief

AUSTIN — Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today urged Texas automobile owners to "do their shopping early" this year to reduce the last minute rush for inspection stickers.

All vehicles coming under the provisions of the Texas Vehicle Inspection Act must secure the 1963 inspection sticker by April 15. After that date, vehicles not displaying the new inspection sticker will be operating in violation of the law and the operators of those vehicles will be subject to arrest, Garrison said.

He reported that approximately one half of the inspection period has expired and about one-fourth of the vehicles in the state have been inspected. Unless the number of inspections is increased appreciably soon, he added, long waiting lines will be forming at inspection stations as the April 15 deadline approaches.

"There are approximately 5,000 authorized inspection stations in the State and they are ready and capable of handling the inspection of all vehicles without delay if the owners of uninspected vehicles do not wait until the last few days before the deadline," Garrison said.

NOD TO EXTREMISM
 WASHINGTON (AP) — A Methodist authority on left and right-wing groups in religion, the Rev. Dr. Ralph Lord Roy of New York, told a meeting here that "extremism is not always immoral or unwise."

It "depends on where we stand when we use it," he said. He recalled that American "extremists and radicals" have included Patrick Henry, Samuel Adams, Thomas Jefferson, and that Jesus was an extremist himself in attacking the religious leaders of his day.

 Real progress is being made this week on the paving of Main Street in Muleshoe. Wednesday there were 45 men and 12 teams and wagons employed.

Work of cutting the grade on one block was practically completed Wednesday and another block was entered by men with plows, picks and spades. Considerable dirt is being hauled away to establish the proper drainage. Forms for one block are being put in place to receive the curbs and gutters, while sand and gravel for the work is already here and construction will begin the latter part of the week.

 The Girl Scouts did a fine job of cleaning the City park last Saturday. Meeting at the court house early in the morning, bringing with them hoes, rakes, shovels and their lunches they all went, enmasse to the park for work.

Connie Gupton and A. J. Gardner had previously staked off the grounds which the girls cleared off and hauled away the accumulation of rubbish.

For their labor, the girls were paid with R.F.C. money with which they are buying trees for the park.

Participating in the clean-up were Lorene and Weta Mae Danner, Margaret Ann Cook, Wanda Farrell, Naomi Harper, Juanita and Frances Coker, Billy Arnold, Florence Stone, Norma Elrod, Mildred Burkhead, Betty Ruth Moeller, Holly Ann Bucy, Ethel Raney, Virginia McCoy, and Irma Willis. Mrs. Good Harden and Mrs. J. C. Weaver were supervisors of the work.

 Old deed indicates fishing in Double Mountain Fork near Muleshoe might have been good in years gone past, however no water is found there now, according to an old deed brought to the attention of County Clerk J. B. Burnshead last Monday.

The deed was an ancient manuscript, yellow and faded, worn into by repeated foldings, and was presented to the county clerk by the heirs of an estate involving 71,705 acres of land in Parmer and Bailey County. It was originally filed in record on May 25, 1905, when the county was still unorganized and this territory was still attached to Castro County.

It is a known geological fact that in the distant bygone years the Blackwater River, running past Muleshoe and known by early Spaniards as the Agua Nigra River, flowed on top of the ground; but has long ago sunken.

High School Youth's Essay Appears In Book Featuring Young Writers

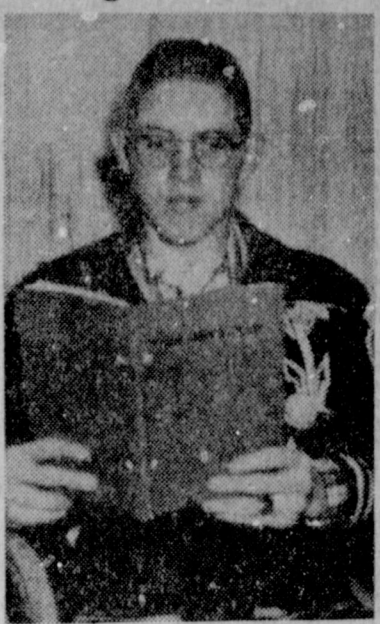

A Muleshoe high school student has had one of his essays, "Experience in Horror," published in the newest edition of "Young America Speaks," a book of essays by high school pupils.

The announcement was made by Rollie McNutt, a teacher in Muleshoe High School.

The essay follows:
 "Driving one evening, I tried thrusting from my mind that feeling that some apparition was present. Unable to comprehend the vastness of the horror, I knew I must expect it before I became neurotic. A sense of doom continuously haunted my mind. I found no refuge from the torment or that was driving me insane. Stillness suddenly captivated me; the horror subsided to gain strength for a renewed attack.

"Desiring escape, I increased my speed, racing forward as if something extraordinary hastened my destruction.

"Bounding an angular corner ahead loomed a river. Fighting to control the car, I fell into Death's clutches. The car sailed through the air and struck the water with a resounding splash. Unable to breathe, I struggled vainly to escape. The coldness of death crept over me. I collapsed in my car in which I was dreadfully haunted, and which became my everlasting tomb."

Well Measuring Project Starts

The High Plains Underground Water Conservation District, in cooperation with the Texas Water Commission, has commenced measuring water levels in observation wells throughout the Water District.

Annual measurements are made each January when interference from pumping wells is at a minimum.

During the past year, additional observation wells have been selected at strategic points so that in the near future there will be at least one observation well for every 2½ to 3 miles.

The water levels in wells show the extent to which water supplies are depleted by drought or by heavy pumping for irrigation, industrial and municipal uses, and also the extent to which they are replenished in seasons of abundant rainfall or melting snow.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Cut Taxes, Stimulate Business? Ok, Philosopher's Willing to Do His Bit

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm joins the tax discussion this week, his letter reveals.

Dear editor:
In nearly every newspaper or magazine I've gotten my hands on lately there has been a bunch of articles on the prospects for a tax cut this year.
According to the experts, a tax cut will stimulate business, increase capital and initiative, and produce more rather than less revenue for the government in the long run. I don't know how this will work, but if the government believes it can get more money out of me by taking less, I'm willing to enter into the experiment.

As I understand it, the present income tax system is riddled with loop holes and a drive may be made by Congress to close them up. My position is that I'm in favor of either closing them or having them pointed out. I'm opposed to all loop holes I don't know anything about and can't take advantage of.
However, I have given the tax cut idea some thought and I'm afraid the experts are victims of a blind-spot. They're spending all their time on Federal tax cuts, which everybody is in favor of, but when the rate goes down on the Federal level, what's going to keep it from going up on the state and local level? This advanced idea that a government can get more revenue by taxing less may not have trickled down to the lower levels yet.

It may take years for Congress to unsmother the present income tax regulations, but in the meantime I have a handy solution to tide us over. Just give everybody a ten per cent cut in his taxes, from top to bottom. I guarantee I will take my ten per cent and stimulate business with it.

I know a lot of people who say all we'd be doing is piling up a debt for our grandchildren, but what makes you think our grandchildren won't be smart enough to have grandchildren of their own?
Yours faithfully,
J. A.

UNDERSTUDYING THREE

WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER FROM SENATOR JOHN TOWER

Committee Banking and Currency Labor and Public Welfare

Senator John G. Tower (R. Texas) today, in his report to Texans, commented on the initial measures he expects to be considered in the first session of the 88th Congress. The text of his report follows:

We won't know what the keynote of this session of Congress will be until we receive the President's State of the Union message which will occur next Monday. Of course, we can anticipate some of the things that the President will propose. His proposals will be the basis for our legislative efforts during the first session of the 88th Congress.
Prior to the consideration of actual legislative matters, one thing which will come up in the Senate, with extended debate and parliamentary maneuvering is the so-called Rule 22. You have heard a great deal about the filibuster and about the fact that Senate rules allow a number of Senators to hold the Floor for a very lengthy period of time.

You probably know that it is rather difficult, under Rule 22, to cut off debate. In order to close debate, a petition has to be entered by some sixteen members of the Senate. After two days have elapsed, the petition to close the debate must be voted on and it must be adopted by two-thirds of those present and voting, or the debate continues.

There are many members of the Senate who feel that Rule 22 should be relaxed — that a simple majority of the Senate should be able to cut off debate at any time. I disagree with this position. I believe that Rule 22, as it is presently constituted, is a good rule.

It is advisable to allow unlimited debate in the Senate because, as someone has stated, it protects the minority against what might be the "Emotional tyranny" of the majority. So, it is a device for protecting minority rights and, while the unlimited debate rule has, on some occasions, slowed down or prevented the passage of good legislation, I think, on the whole, it has prevented the passage of bad legislation — legislation which might have been enacted in a fit of emotion or might have been hurriedly considered. For these reasons, I shall support the continuation of Rule 22, as it now stands.

Yarbrough In Washington

This is my first weekly report to you in this fateful year of 1963.

Today, as the 88th Session of Congress begins to blaze a new trail into the future, I want to share with you an experience I had last fall as a United States Congressional delegate to the 64-nation Inter-Parliamentary Union meeting in Brasilia, Brazil.

Brasilia is the wonderful new capital city of Brazil, 600 miles inland from the great port of Rio de Janeiro, high upon the mesa, 300 feet above sea level like Lubbock or Amarillo, in a grassy range country with scattered trees. No single house stood at Brasilia six years ago. The city is a new architectural marvel in a bold new land.

In this Inter-Parliamentary Union, founded in 1889, we were in a world conference of parliamentary officials, the oldest international organization dedicated to peace and democracy in this world.

This past year, as we were going into session in Brazil, President Kennedy announced the quarantine of Cuba. The Communist bloc of nations immediately introduced a resolution at Brasilia denouncing the American action as an illegal blockade. The resolution was debated and so was a second Communist resolution the next day, sniping at the United States.

Latin American countries rallied swiftly to the support of the United States, more swiftly than at any other time in recent history. They could have waited until Russia said whether it was going to back down. But they didn't; they announced their support before Russia announced that it would turn back its ships.

Even before Russia admitted that it had missiles in Cuba, and before Russia decided to pick up its missiles in Cuba and take them home.
By taking this firm stand, the United States won a diplomatic victory that history may well record as one of the greatest. I'm proud to have been a part of the official representation of the United States at the Inter-Parliamentary Union in Brasilia. There were six members of the Senate and six members of the House serving as the official representatives of the Congress in the conference.

EDITORIAL Business Is Hit

"STOP ADVERTISING! — The full economic effect of the strike which closed down nine newspapers in New York on Dec. 8 are not yet known.

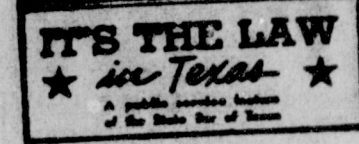

"According to preliminary reports, retailers are fearful of a $2 million daily loss due to lack of newspaper advertising.

"Gov. Rockefeller says, "The continued absence of the daily papers is having an increasingly serious effect on employment in service and retail establishments generally, hotels and restaurants, the theaters, indeed much of the industry and commerce of the city and state."

"In Minneapolis, earlier this year, there were no newspapers for 117 days. It was devastating to the local economy.

"In dollars and cents, the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis reckoned that the absence of advertising in the two daily newspapers caused a loss of $58 million to the community's economy — of this amount, $35 million was lost in retail sales, and $23 million in service expenditures.

"It provides a dramatic illustration of the economic role of advertising." — El Paso Times

OWNER'S POLICY vs. MORTGAGE POLICY

Three out of four families who buy houses in the $11,000 to $15,000 price range jeopardize their investment because they do not protect their cash and ownership with commensurate title insurance.

These financial risks result from insufficient knowledge of the difference between an 'owner's policy' and a 'mortgage policy,' and lack of information about title insurance.

The main point is that the usual title insurance taken out by the purchaser of a home in the up-to-$15,000 bracket serves only to protect the bank or lending institution. It is often compulsory for the buyer to purchase this insurance, known as the 'mortgage policy,' since some mortgages insist upon this particular safeguard as one of the loan conditions. The 'mortgage policy,' however, protects the home owner's equity. This is so even after the mortgage is fully paid.

A course remains open for the purchaser who wants to cover himself for the entire price of the home. He should, at the time of application for the required 'mortgage policy,' check with his attorney about simultaneously obtaining an 'owner's policy.' The 'owner's policy,' in me that the defeat of the Communist bloc in Brasilia was the worst defeat administered to the Communists in the Inter-Parliamentary Union since World War II.

But, fellow Texans, the real defeat was dealt to Fidel Castro, the Communist puppet in Cuba who was ignored not only by the United States but also by his fair-weather friend, the Soviet Union, in all the negotiations over the blockade. The negotiations were not between President Kennedy and Nikita Khrushchev. Castro was ignored. Gone is his image as a leader on the side of the people.

But America's image was restored and improved throughout the world. Until today, the United States again stands as a nation with a strong, responsible voice of leadership and of freedom.

Now that our country has shown that we are not to be pushed around, we in Congress can go forward in this new session with the great domestic problems that beset our country, just as we go forward on the international front in the eyes of the world.

contrast to the 'mortgage policy,' protects the home buyer as long as he owns the property. In many instances, it also protects an owner even after he sells, if he has a warranted title.

Owners of higher-priced homes usually take out both title policies. Thus, they purchase peace of mind on their substantial equity instead of trying to "save" a few dollars, a false economy which may later invite trouble.

Title insurance took on greater significance after World War II. It is a requisite today by many banks and lending institutions for those applying for mortgage loans, and is for the lender's protection. A defective title, it was shown, may cost the 'owner' not only the price of the home but considerably greater sums if the new owner 'inherits' previously undisclosed liens, back taxes, or defects of title that do not appear on the records.

The purchaser of the $11,000-$15,000 home often withholds taking the 'owner's policy,' which protects his equity continually, 'in order to save a few dollars.' An element of risk enters, however, if flaws are subsequently found. The owner without title insurance would not be reimbursed to the extent of the defect. To compound his difficulties, the owner would be burdened with the cost of correcting the title defect and legal costs.

To illustrate the difference in an 'owner's policy' and the 'mortgage policy,' the following case was cited: Mr. Smith buys a home for $15,000. He places $2,000 down and takes a $13,000 mortgage loan. Pursuing the course of many home buyers, his only title insurance purchase in a 'mortgage policy' for $13,000, which the mortgageor demands and which protects only the lending institution. Each year Mr. Smith's equity increases as his mortgage decreases. Nevertheless, knowingly or not, Mr. Smith is not carrying any title insurance which protects Mr. Smith.

If a faulty or fraudulent title should be discovered, or if previously-unknown liens against the property were to be established during the life of the mortgage, or after it was paid, Mr. Smith would have no protection.

Crowd Attends Circuit Meet

Harry A. Fetzik, district supervisor for Jehovah's Witnesses, told 731 assembled Sunday in Lubbock's Fair Park Coliseum that "a great crowd of people will survive this world's end."

"The Bible's Answer to Our Problem of Survival," Fetzik said, "God will 'bring to ruin those ruining the earth,' and then His will is to be done on earth as it is in heaven."

Martin C. Harbeck, circuit supervisor, in his closing talk, "Christian Conduct in a Divided Household," said, "The Christian minister will preach in his divided home not so much by word of mouth but by his Christian conduct."

Boyd Lowery, presiding minister of the congregation at Muleshoe said, "The theme of the assembly, 'Spread the Word of Life,' was exemplified by talks, demonstrations and illustrations from the platform, and then the Witnesses put the things learned into practice from store-to-store and house-to-house, even though Lubbock had subzero weather."

The purpose of the 16-congregation meet was to analyze the approximately 700 reporting ministers' activity, and lay plans to eliminate existing weakness so that their activity will be brought up to national and district levels.

By MRS. JACK LANE

THREE WAY — Miss Bonnie
 Batteas, bride-elect of Kenneth Donald, was honored with a prenuptial shower in the home of Mrs. Doyle Davis Saturday afternoon, January 12. The bride-elect's chosen colors of white and royal blue were carried out in the decorations.

The serving table was centered with an arrangement of white gladioli over a white linen cloth.
 Hostesses assisting Mrs. Davis were: Mrs. Jack Furgeson, Mrs.
 Earl Bowers, Mrs. Baker Johnson, Mrs. Ed Latimer, Mrs. Edwin Neutzler, Mrs. Adolph Witt-ner, Mrs. James Holley, Mrs.

 L. W. Chapman, Mrs. Conrad
 Harris and Mrs. Gene Kenley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hunt are the proud parents of a baby boy,
 Richard Paul, on January 13.
 He weighed 6 pounds, 4 ounces.
 Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs.
 O. R. Weaver, Lovington, N.M., and Mrs. Bennett who is staying in the Hunt home for awhile.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Key, New York, have been visiting relatives in the Three Way community.
