DEMPSEY, CHAVEZ RUN NECK AND NECK FOR SENATE PLACE

Incumbent Takes Slight Lead as Votes From Northern Spanish-American Counties Report; Miles Makes It Runaway in Race for Governor

By The Associated Press.
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 16.—United States Senator Dennis Chavez, trailing in Saturday's bitterly-waged Democratic primary senatorial race, forged into the lead over Rep. John J. Dempsey today on the basis of late returns from northern Spanish-American counties.

Amended unofficial returns from all but about 100 of the 914 voting precincts overcame the slender lead held by Dempsey since counting started Saturday night, and put the senator out in front by a handful of ballots from a total Democratic count of about 85,000 votes to this point.

The count: 787 voting divisions, Chavez 42,371, Dempsey 41,926.

With 137 voting divisions yet to report, most of them Chavez strongholds, prospects for a final Chavez victory somewhere within 2,000 votes was being forecast in political camps. This, however, was only political conjecture and yet to be borne out by returns.

Otherwise, major party battles went largely according to expectation. Miles in Runaway.
Gov. John E. Miles made a runaway race against Mayor Clyde Tingling of Albuquerque, who bid for another term in the capitol after serving two terms from 1934 to 1938. Their Democratic gubernatorial race went to Miles two-to-one on nearly complete returns.

A slam-bang race developed in the nine-candidate contest for Democratic nomination to Congress, with former Attorney General Frank Patton holding a slender margin at the three-quarter pole over Clinton P. Anderson, Albuquerque insurance man and former Federal Coronado Cuervo territorial commissioner.

Mitchell GOP Winner.
In the Republican senatorial contest, Ranchar Albert K. Mitchell was virtually assured the nomination over former Gov. Richard C. Dillon, Townsend-endorsed candidate, by three-to-one.

Similarly, Maurice Miera of Santa Fe was making an early race of it over Seth Alston Lovington banker for the gubernatorial nomination.

The Republican three-man Congressional contest was an off-again, on-again battle between Major Herman Crile of Roswell and young Waldo Rogers, Albuquerque attorney, with Crile hanging to a tenuous advantage.

On the basis of nearly complete returns, it appeared probable a Democratic vote of more than 100,000 would be achieved, while the Republican turnout was not expected to exceed much over 35,000.

Dawson County in Limelight as Test In Northwestern Part Cements Pipe

By Frank Gardner.
Dawson County, current hot spot in West Texas, today saw a prospective producer in the northwestern part setting casing and an apparent wildcat failure in the southeastern end of the county shut down for orders, probably preliminary to abandonment.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 A. Sandiego Heirs, northwestern Dawson test indicating opening of a new area or three-mile east by south extension of the Cedar Lake pool in Gaines, has cemented 5 1/2-inch pipe at 4,900 feet with 200 sacks. Electrical survey showed first porosity from 4,925-30 feet, with more porosity from 4,955 to 5,065 feet, total depth. Bottom of the hole as measured by rotary is 5,065 feet; survey cable placed it at 5,057 feet. No water was present, according to the survey, and temperature curve showed strong possibility of gas and oil in the porous zones. Best porosity was logged in the bottom 15 feet.

No. 1 Sandiego is 2,200 feet from the south ans west lines of section 110, block M. E. L. & R. R. survey.

The Sloan & Zook Company No. 1 J. L. Spert, southeastern Dawson wildcat north of Ackerly, is shut down for orders at 4,072 feet in lime and will be abandoned. It was reported to core from 4,054-72 feet reported 18 feet of porous lime carrying sulphur water. Location is 330 feet out of the southeast corner of section 22, block 34, township 4 north, T. & P. survey.

Gas Hit in Eddy Test.
George T. Abell of Midland and Neil H. Willis of Carlsbad No. 1 Hale, Eddy County, New Mexico, wildcat 330 feet from the south, 1,650 from the west line of section 15-20s-30e, encountered 6,000,000 cubic feet of gas in brown lime from 1,540-60 feet. Seven-inch casing was gas, with 50 sacks, and plug will be drilled Thursday. The test is bottomed in lime at 1,565 feet. It topped brown lime at 1,507 feet, approximately 380 feet higher than Stanolind Oil and Gas Company No. 1 Zorichak, failure a mile west and a quarter-mile south, and about 320 feet higher than Culbertson and Irwin, Inc. of Midland No. 1 Welch, dry hole a mile and a quarter to the southwest.

In northwestern Lea County, Great Western Producers, Inc. No. 1-D State drilled plug from 7-inch pipe set at 3,948, four feet off bottom, and is bailing mud preparatory to deepening. For the time being operators will not run perforate casing opposite red sand zone from 3,025-35 which carried oil and water.

North Basin Pipe Here
Four carloads of pipe, due to be used in laying the Texas-New Mexico line from Midland to the Slaughter pool in southwestern Hockley County, farthest north producing area in West Texas, are reported on railroad siding east of Midland. The pipe will be treated as protection against corrosion. The carrier will be a gravity line throughout and will tie into one of Gulf's Midland to Crane lines here en route to the Texas-New Mexico Pipe Line Company's terminus at Crane. Survey has been completed, and right-of-way has been bought.

Total length of the carrier will be 103 miles. There will be 18 1/2 miles of 10-inch line at the Midland end and 20 miles of 10-inch at the north end, with the intermediate line 8 5/8-inch size.

"Battle of America" In Progress, Willkie Declares in Talk

COFFEYVILLE, Kas., Sept. 16 (AP).—Asserting that the "Battle of America" is in progress, Wendell L. Willkie contended today that President Roosevelt's re-election would bring totalitarian government to the United States before the third term ended.

The Republican presidential nominee, speaking in the city where he taught high school history in 1913-14, accused the administration of materially assisting Hitler "in his aggressive plans."

He voiced a denial "that Franklin Roosevelt—whatever his intentions—is the defender of Democracy," and said:

"First, I charge that his influence has weakened, rather than strengthened, Democracy throughout the world.

"And secondly, I charge that here in America he has strained our Democratic institutions to the breaking point.

"If, because of some fine speeches about humanity, you return this administration to office, you will be serving under an American totalitarian government before the long third term is finished."

Expressing the belief "Franklin Roosevelt has lost faith in the American people," Willkie continued:

"When I read of blood and destruction in Europe I am frightened to think that our only shelter is not airplanes and tanks—but a man who in seven years of peace could not get factories producing our peacetime needs."

The candidate reiterated statements made to Illinois audiences Saturday that Mr. Roosevelt, "by his own meddling in international politics, encouraged the European conflagration."

Military Objectives Bombed by British

LONDON, Sept. 16 (AP)—Military objectives in Berlin again were bombed by the Royal Air Force last night during widespread raids on enemy territory covering the German, French, Dutch and Belgian coasts, the air ministry reported tonight.

British bombers scored a direct hit on a German warship at Terschelling, off the Dutch coast, the ministry said.

Probe Continued as Work Is Resumed in The Hercules Plant

KENVIL N. J., Sept. 16 (AP).—Dynamite production was resumed today at the explosion-torn Hercules Powder Company plant while unemployed men gathered at the gate to seek the jobs of the 47 dead.

A Dies committee investigator who searched employees' lockers at the plant for possible links to subversive groups meanwhile took his findings to Washington.

Robert B. Baker, special investigator for the House committee on un-American activities, was making his check of lockers spared by Thursday's mysterious blasts and of the plant, controlled by Sheriff Denton J. Quick, led by deputized police chiefs in a raid on the German American Bund's Camp Nordland ten miles from here.

Quick, who said he sought to check the Hercules payroll against a list of the bureau believed to frequent the Bund camp, reported seizure of subversive literature and a rifle equipped with telescopic sights.

Allowables on Oil Fields Are Changed By RR Commission

AUSTIN, Sept. 16 (AP)—Orders changing rules and allowables of several oil fields were made public by the Railroad Commission today.

The north Thompson field in Fort Bend County, the Ganado field in Jackson County and the Emperor pool in Winkler were exempted from shutdowns in September, October and November.

The Renwar Oil Corporation's Frank No. 6 well in the Saxe field of Reeves County also was exempted because of high water production. Allowable of the well was increased from 46 barrels a day to 205.

Ten acre spacing and allocation of production based 50 per cent on acreage and 50 per cent on well allowable featured rules adopted for Kinder field in Clay County.

Rules for the east Bryson field in Jack County were amended to make allocation on a basis of 50 per cent acreage and 50 per cent well allowable instead of marginal plus potential.

Registration To Be Started On October 16

All Men Between the Ages 21 and 35 Will Be Eligible to Serve

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16 (AP).—President Roosevelt signed into law today the nation's first peace time draft bill and immediately issued a proclamation requiring the registration October 16 of 16,500,000 men 21 through 35 years old.

The president signed the historic measure at 2:08 p. m., in a central standard time, in the long rectangular White House cabinet room in the presence of Chairman Sheppard (D-Tex) and May (D-Ky) of the Senate and House military committees and of Secretary of War Stimson and General George C. Marshall, army chief of staff.

In a statement issued at the time of the signing the president said that "America has adopted selective service in time of peace, and, in doing so, has broadened and enriched our basic concept of citizenship."

"Besides the clear Democratic ideals of equal rights, equal privileges and equal opportunities," the president said, "we have set forth the underlying other duties, obligations and responsibilities of equal service."

"In thus providing for national defense, we have not carved a new and uncharted trail in the history of our Democratic institutions. On the contrary, we have merely reasserted an old and accepted principle of Democratic government."

The first contingent of 75,000 to be called up under the measure will go into uniform about a month after all the 16,500,000 are registered. Subsequent quotas will be called in blocks of 100,000 or 125,000 to a total of 400,000 about January 1, and 900,000 in the spring of 1941.

Historic in its significance, the Nation's first peacetime conscription was enacted finally Saturday, after extended and often bitter debate in Congress, as part of President Roosevelt's announced goal of "total defense."

Salaries Hiked.
The men drafted will receive initially 12 months of training. They will be liable for service anywhere in the Western Hemisphere, in United States possessions outside the hemisphere and in the Philippine Islands. They will get the regular army pay, which the measure raises from $21 to $30 a month.

In addition to the main manpower provisions, the draft law also gives the government new and great powers over industry in the interest of keeping a armament production abreast of need.

Government First.
In effect, the law provides that the government may take over and operate, with payment of just compensation, the factory of any manufacturer who rejects government orders or declines to give them priority.

Such a manufacturer also would face possible maximum penalties of five years imprisonment and $10,000 fine.

Because of the death of Speaker Bankhead the House Appropriations Committee called off a meeting at which members were to have considered a bill appropriating $1,733,000,000 and authorizing $207,000,000 in contracts largely to pay the cost of the new conscription army and the National Guard. The Guard went into a year's active service today.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16 (AP).—It was reported today that all married men living with their wives could expect exemption from conscription during at least, the first draft of 400,000 compulsory military service trainees.

Under selective service regulations the president will put in force officials said, such men will be presumed to have dependents, regardless of the financial situation of their wives.

The regulations will be subject to change at any time, however.

Since the great majority of married men actually are the sole support of their wives and since no difficulty is anticipated in filling the first draft quota out of a registration of 16,500,000, it is planned to dispense initially with the extensive investigations that would be required to determine whether or not a wife was self-supporting.

Fourth Raid of Day Started as Residents Quit Shelters During Lunch Hour; 11 Hurt at Dover

By The Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 16.—Persistent German pilots kept this much-bombed British capital under almost continual air raid alarms today, causing the sirens to shriek three times before noon and battling London's defenders high over city streets in a fourth raid which was still in progress after two and a half hours.

Salvos of long-range artillery shells plunged into the streets of Dover, the "invasion corner," injuring 11 persons. The Germans opened fire in reply to a British bombardment.

Dull explosions were heard on various sides as the Germans made sporadic attacks during the fourth raid which began at 2:10 p. m. (7:10 a. m. CST). Machine-gun fire, the racing of motors and moderate anti-aircraft activity sounded on all sides.

Time Bombs Dropped
Mixed with the sounds of aerial warfare was the occasional burst of time bombs dropped in previous raids.

Two of these exploded in south-east London in a little over an hour. One demolished some small houses and broke a gas main. The other tore away the rear of a Catholic school.

German planes still were reported over London as the raid continued in its fourth hour although for some time comparative quiet had reigned in the center of the city.

A authoritative quarters said they believed Adolf Hitler's plans for an invasion had been seriously impeded by the cumulative effect of intense nightly bombings of barge concentrations, ships, docks, oil supplies, and other transport facilities at all his jumping-off places on the continental coast.

Big Guns Used
Eleven persons were injured in the shelling of Dover.

The big German shells fell in Dover streets crowded with shoppers as correspondents in the "invasion corner" of Brocton continued to report movements of many German troop carriers, of all shapes and sizes, close along the French and Belgian coasts under cover of night and mists.

It was understood that the German guns were replying to a bombardment of the French coast by British long range guns which fired about two dozen shells across the Channel.

For the first time in weeks, heavy rainfall partly shrouded the activities at Hitler's bases across the Channel.

During the first alarm in London a large formation of bombers was encountered inland by British fighters, who turned it back.

The morning thrusts followed a nine and a half hour night attack and a series of Sunday mass raids in which the British claimed their greatest air victory of any single day of the war—135 German planes shot down on British soil.

Interspersed in the long night attack was a half-hour "silent" raid in which large numbers of time bombs or duds were dropped on London without exploding.

British Lose 25 Ships
The government acknowledged that many buildings in London had been damaged during the dusk-to-dawn raid.

The British said they lost only 25 of their own fighters, and declared pilots of 12 of these were safe.

During the night attack, the Germans changed their tactics and resorted to the use of small formations which hammered at London's defenses at regular intervals.

What Shall It Profit a Nation?

The French saved Paris. In saving it, they lost something else—and time alone shall tell which was the more valuable.

The British have chosen the other course. They may sacrifice in flame and ashes the greatest city in the world, but they may have something else, too, that is very precious: self-respect, honor, something that for lack of a better term might be called a national soul.

The words of St. Mark were not written perhaps for quite these circumstances, but they come forcibly to mind as the bombs shriek down, the walls crumble, and the dust and smoke roll across the city on the Thames.

"For whosoever will save his life shall lose it... For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?"

The words were written, perhaps, of another kind of sacrifice than that which the ordinary people of Britain are making today. Perhaps soul is not quite the right word. But should the British win through after an ordeal of this kind, they may have lost London, but they may also have saved something more valuable to their future—their integrity as a people.

Milton's statue crashes down into the street from St. Giles' Cripplegate. But suppose the statue still stood, and the freedom for which Milton himself struggled were blotted out?

The very tombs of Chaucer and Gower may be splintered to shards, but suppose the tongue they molded were to be prohibited in their own city?

The little church beside the peaceful Avon where Shakespeare sleeps may tumble into ruin, but suppose his words were to survive only as a Teutonic translation of a figure at last by conquest "unser Shakespeare"?

The old monuments of London fall, the outcropping of Roman walls crumble at last after 2000 years, the Tower of William the Conqueror may topple, the Londons of Johnson and Dickens and Thackeray, of Limehouse and Soho and Whitehall may become lost.

The British are staking everything on the future rather than on the past. They have chosen to make bomb-fodder of the monuments of the past, hoping and believing that those very ruins will be recognized by the future as a monument to their courage and their integrity.

Even if the British lose London, they stake all on the hope of finding something infinitely more precious.

OUR COUNTRY

Seventh of 24 articles on "Our Country," written exclusively for NEA Service and The Reporter-Telegram by the nation's most famous authors. By Philip Wylie, Author of "The Murderer Invisible," "The Big Ones Get Away," etc.

A NATION is no different from an individual. Its nature is a composite of human natures, whether its policies is expressed by one man or by all. People associated in states cannot long maintain either sub-human or superhuman appearances. It is a restless effort to make a world, mankind has often tried to invent and impose upon himself a "government" superior to himself. Such boot-strap lifting has ended inevitably in failure because of the nature of us all.

Philip Wylie

He must constantly struggle toward that purpose. He must be free to make his own choices. Such freedom can come only from an intrepid inspection of all motives, lofty and base, cerebral and animal. Those are the elemental conditions for one man and thus for many. They form the basis of our Constitution.

MANY nations have now gone mad for the same reasons that drive individuals crazy; frustration, defeat, avarice, vengeance, delusions of grandeur, and so on. Fascism and Communism are not "revolutions." They are escapes—the same "escapes" which rob individuals of their reason by not taking into consideration all the actualities of human living. Fascism is an attempt to compel economic order from a minority down. Communism, to compel it from the masses up. But man does not live by economics alone.

The duped radicals among our youths and the pension-salivating morons among our old people naively imagine that man can be legislated into being someone else. So do many other reckless nitwits. But every attempt to outlaw a frailty of the human species, or to administer a synthetic virtue into it, has run through immemorial phases of enthusiasm, dictatorial "enforcement," and debacle. We remain neither black nor white, left nor right, but an evolving breed that is at once both altruistic and competitive.

In these terrible weeks we dimly see why most of mankind is so dissatisfied. His new forward step—the machine—has given him so much so quickly and with such a tangle of logical distribution that it has made him variously smug, spell-bound, submerged, and desperate. Some men have decided machinery is a god and invented Communism for its "universal" worship. The Nazis have icized science into devil-worship and set out to destroy with it. They have no better plan for individuals than total subjugation to their tools. In America people have continued to keep man's character old couple, Sue Mary found a pleasant glow of comfort creeping through her. Somehow it didn't seem quite so necessary to save these people from themselves. To be sure, conditions could be improved, but they seemed rather capable of handling their affairs themselves. "Joe—maybe you do know me pretty well. I'm glad I went," she said. Joe turned and looked down at her. "I thought you were asleep," he said. "Anyway, I'm glad you went, too. Help to balance you." "Maybe I did need to be balanced a little." "Too much Youth Progress," he said gently. "It couldn't hurt you, though. You're too bright to swallow that hookum."

First Contingent Of Guardsmen File Into Lineups Today

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16 (AP)—To the accompaniment of the inevitable "You're-in-the-Army-Now," some 60,000 citizen-soldiers trooped into their home armories today in the first Federal mobilization of the National Guard since World War days. Their commanders were ordered to concentrate the Guardsmen in previously-announced training centers "as soon as practicable." National Guard Bureau officials anticipated the men would be in camps within 10 days.

Before leaving home armories, however, the 60,000 must undergo medical examinations, fill out required papers and pack. President Roosevelt ordered this initial contingent to be inducted into the Regular Army today under the recently-enacted law empowering him to mobilize the full force of citizen-soldiers, totaling about 242,000 officers and men, for a year's training.

Additional Guard units are to be ordered out later. Units involved in today's mobilization are from New York, New Jersey, North Carolina, Tennessee, South Carolina, Georgia, Oklahoma, Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, Washington, Idaho, Oregon, Montana, Wyoming, New Hampshire, Delaware, Illinois, Missouri, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Maine, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Virginia and Arkansas.

FEMININE FANCIES

We note that a meeting of those interested in extension classes from Texas Tech has been called at the Crystal Ballroom Tuesday night.

We sincerely hope there will be a large attendance at the meeting, for to have one or a group of extension classes taught here this winter is just one more educational and cultural advantage for the town.

If we weren't trying to do half a dozen other things in our spare time, we'd enjoy a course.

Add thrills for most any woman: Setting her dinner-table with brand-new dishes or silverware; discovering that her friends and neighbors approve of her new hairdo; finding that she can wear a style that is dashing when she had always thought she must wear conservative fashions; planning to re-paper, repaint, or refinish anything about the house.

Best Field, Ranch Crops in Years Being Harvested Over the State at Present Time

By L. C. Sloan Associated Press Staff Writer

Texans are harvesting from wide-diversified areas generally the best field and ranch crops in years.

Trench silos were filled with bumper yields of feedstuffs, a survey indicated today. Corn crops were reported in many places the greatest on record.

Grasslands were the lushest in decades. Prices for ranch products were termed satisfactorily. Timely rains which assured good yields in northwest and west-central Texas set the cotton estimate for the state above that of last year.

Conditions were spotted elsewhere, some sections picking a crop better than in 1939 and other reporting a light yield due to weevil damage and a poor growing season.

For instance, Tarrant county expected a cotton crop above average while prospects in Dallas county were poor. An increase in cotton yields was predicted in Bell, Falls, Milam, Williamson and McClelland counties.

Harris county was picking its best cotton crop in its history, but in Jefferson county the yield was only 60 per cent of normal.

The farmers were selling their cotton at 9 cents, but most were taking the government loan of 9.61 cents, middling basis.

Fall fruits and vegetables added their abundance to summer's plenty. The peanut belt was harvesting a crop above the average while pecan prospects were excellent. Peanuts were bringing 80 cents a bushel at Denison.

The only clouds on the ranch horizon were a scarcity of choice cattle and calves to sell on brisk markets and a drop in the prices of common grass cattle.

Prices for the latter have ranged recently from a low of $5 a hundred to a high of $11 for yearlings at fall when wheat was "dusted in." The old "dust bowl" area was in the best condition in years after rains helped feed crops and seasoned the ground for planting. Prospects for an early sown wheat crop were good in the South Plains.

A cotton crop about the same as last year was being ginned in the four Lower Rio Grande Valley counties of Starr, Cameron, Wilcox and Hidalgo. Stalks were being destroyed to prevent future possible boll worm infestation.

Rains recently relieved a drought situation in the Valley, especially benefiting grapefruit and orange orchards in which harvesting will begin within a few weeks.

Cabbages were being sent out. Flax planting will begin next month. Several of these slipped at the finish.

Political Leaders Move to Amarillo To Welcome Willkie

AMARILLO, Sept. 16 (AP)—Political leaders began arriving today for tomorrow's visit of Wendell Willkie, the only scheduled appearance of the GOP candidate in Texas on his swing around the country. Among those who checked in before noon was Mike Hogg of Houston, leader of the Texas no-third term movement, who will introduce the candidate at Ellwood Park tomorrow morning.

Newspapermen from all over the Southwest also were converging on Amarillo. Indications are that a crowd well over 50,000 will greet the Republican standard bearer when he and Mrs. Willkie ride down Polk Street from the railroad station to the park.

No official intimation of what Willkie will stress in his speech here has been given, but hints from the special train are to the effect that he will take up the third term issue here.

The train will arrive on the Rock Island at 10:30 a. m., and depart at noon on the Santa Fe for Clovis and Albuquerque, N. M. The parade will be headed by the official band for the event, the 75-piece Amarillo high school organization. Twelve visiting bands from over the Plains territory will be stationed along the route of the procession.

Mayor Ross D. Rogers will greet the crowd at the park. Charles Keffer, local Willkie Democratic leader, will introduce Hogg who will then present the candidate.

The speech will be broadcast, beginning at 11 a. m., by the Lone Star Chain and Texas Quality Network.

Selected Stocks Show Slight Gains

By Victor Eubank NEW YORK, Sept. 16 (AP)—While buyers were careful not to over-reach themselves in today's stock market, they raised bids sufficiently to put up selected steels, rails, motors and specialties fractions to more than a point.

Dealings lagged and the turnover of about 275,000 shares was one of the lowest for the month to date.

Part of the day's strengthening tendencies was attributed to claims of the British that they had engaged in successful air battles with the Nazis over the week-end.

On the home front the brightening business outlook served to further prop speculative spirits. Especially heartening was a jump of 1 full point in this week's steel mill operations to 92.9 per cent of capacity.

Among prominent share movers were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Santa Fe, Great Northern, N. Y. Central, Pennsylvania, Chrysler, General Motors, Sears Roebuck, United Merchants and Manufacturers, American Smelting, Kennecott, Westinghouse, Du Pont, Dow Chemical, General Electric, Eastman Kodak, Allied Chemical and Union Carbide. Several of these slipped at the finish.

ANOTHER DRY HOLE?

In the constant search for new oil reserves in Texas, even the dry holes benefit the communities in which they are drilled.

They mean employment and wages for Texas labor, lease money for Texas farmers and ranchers and many other expenditures which benefit all lines of business.

2,300 dry holes were drilled in Texas last year at a cost of nearly 60 million dollars.

Since oil was discovered in Texas, 52,000 dry holes have been drilled in all sections of the State at an expense of more than one billion dollars.

This billion dollar research has already resulted in the discovery in Texas of over half of all the known petroleum reserves of the Nation. The creation of this wealth will benefit Texas citizens for generations to come.

10, Possibly More, New Faces Slated For Senate in 1941

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16 (AP).—The Senate will have 10 and possibly 12 new faces next year as a result of primary set-backs and voluntary retirements to date. The total may be increased if any incumbents are beaten in November.

Nominees already have been chosen for all but 4 of the 36 Senate seats to be filled in this year's elections. So far four Democrats and one Republican have been defeated in primary races and two Democrats and two Republicans did not run for renomination.

The fate of a fifth Democrat—Senator Chavez—hung in the balance today as New Mexico tabulated the final votes cast in Saturday's primary. Chavez, who is filling out the term of the late Bronson Cutting, a Republican, was trailing Rep. Dempsey, with more than three-fourths of the state reporting.

Two other Senate seats have question marks beside them. Senator (D.W.Va.) is running for governor of his state. If he wins, he will resign from the Senate before his term expires. The Farmer-Labor seat left vacant by the death of Senator Lundeen of Minnesota probably will be filled by appointment.

The four Democrats retired by primary votes are Holt, W. Va.; Burke, Neb.; King, Utah, and Ashurst, Ariz. The lone Republican is Frazier, N. Dak.

Those quitting voluntarily are two Democrats, Donahey, Ohio, and Schweigenbach, Wash. (to go on the Federal bench), and two Republicans, Hale, Maine (successor, Rep. Brewster, Republican, already elected), and Gibson, Vt.

Twenty-two senators have been renominated—15 of them Democrats, six Republicans, and one Farmer-Laborite, Shipstead, the latter running as a Republican.

All High Grid Teams In Action This Week

By Harold V. Ratliff Associated Press Staff

Sixty-two games this week bring all but a handful of Texas schoolboy football teams into action.

Scattering skirmishes last week opened the campaign for 30 of the Class AA schools.

The scheduled is studded with important games, one of them being a conference affair. Orange plays Comroe in the start of a free-for-all championship battle in district 14.

Feature games this week will be Masonic Home (Fort Worth) at Wichita Falls, Lubbock at North Side (Fort Worth), Corsicana at Sunset (Dallas), Robstown at Temple, Beaumont at Longview and Paris at Adamson (Dallas).

The Paris-Adamson tilt starts the week's "star" for Chesterfield. Heading the list of sports celebrities are Gene Sarazen, great golf champion, and Sid Luckman, All-America football hero.

Three pretty aviatrixes from the newly organized Women Flyers of America and a cheerful World's Series baseball advertisement complete the schedule.

National magazines, billboards, cut-outs and the famous Chesterfield radio network programs, featuring Glenn Miller's Moonlight Serenade on CBS and Fred Waring's Pardon My Square on NBC, support the newspaper advertising.

Mexico Observes Independence Day as Revolution Talk Heard

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 16 (AP).—Mexicans celebrated the 130th anniversary of their independence today with assurance from President Lazaro Cardenas that Pan-American solidarity would keep the Western Hemisphere secure against all threats of conquest from abroad.

"Whoever has dreamed of colonial restoration or territorial conquest does not reckon with the solidarity of the American peoples," Cardenas declared in a speech at Dolores Hidalgo last night.

"There are neither hates nor ambitions strong enough to cause the American peoples to betray each other."

A carnival spirit prevailed throughout the nation as gaily-dressed throngs crowded decorated streets for the second day of the anniversary celebration.

Persistent reports that followers of Juan Andreu Almazan, defeated presidential candidate, might take the opportunity to demonstrate in support of his claim to the presidency and a statement by Cardenas that "some people" were trying to cause a rebellion in Mexico were sobering influences.

(General Manuel Avila Camacho, administration candidate, has been proclaimed president-elect, but Almazan—now in the United States—has refused to recognize his election.)

Several groups moved about the presidential plaza in Mexico City last night shouting "Viva Almazan" but the crowd paid no attention.

At Dolores Hidalgo, where the Mexican rallying cry for independence from Spain was first sounded by Dolores Hidalgo in 1810, President Cardenas gave the historic "Shout of Independence," traditional highlight of the annual celebration.

Radio loudspeakers carried his address to Mexico City and other communities of Mexico.

"Some people are trying to cause a rebellion in Mexico and entice the Mexican people away from the ways of peace," he declared, in words apparently aimed at Almazan and his followers.

"An examination of the international situation will cause them to reconsider their position and subordinate their interests to those of the country."

The office of the Federal attorney general disclosed that all persons held for investigation on charges of "political agitation" had been released so that they might participate in the independence celebration.

The action reportedly was taken on direct orders from Cardenas and numerous Almazanista leaders were understood to have been among those freed.

INTERPRETING THE WAR

By DEWITT MACKENZIE Associated Press Staff Writer

The outstanding development of the week-end has been the increased strength of the British resistance and counter-attack to the Nazi air assault against London as Hitler has driven his pack furiously for a kill.

The English claimed a record bag of 185 planes yesterday (a figure disputed by Berlin) as against 25 Royal Air Force machines lost. Again this morning the British were reported to have started the day aggressively by turning back another heavy Nazi attack.

Ominous but unexplained was the bombardment of the important English east coast port of Dover this morning by Nazi long range naval guns from the French shore. This naturally gave rise to speculation as to whether it was the red flare signalling the imminence of a German attempt at invasion. Only one thing was wholly apparent, however—that Hitler was extending himself in his effort to make in the British defense a crack big enough to permit of his grand coup.

If and when Hitler makes his attack, it will be a lightning stroke. In this connection it is interesting to note the German contention that the British have been weakening their defenses in other parts of England in order to strengthen the defense of London. This statement accompanied the admission that the Nazi airforce was encountering fierce and heroic resistance.

It is possible the British have diverted defensive forces to the protection of the capital. It is equally possible the German claim is father to the wish. To my mind it is sure that part of the Nazi strategy will be to try to entice the Britons into weakening their defenses at some spot or spots against which the invaders will strike. This might account in part for the manner in which Hitler has concentrated his attack on London.

While all this was going on, there was another significant development in connection with Mussolini's thrust into Egypt. This was the appeal of youthful King Farouk of Egypt to Moslems throughout the world to pray that Egypt may have peace.

In that appeal may lie a terrible menace to the Fascist chieftain. Should he cause a Mohammedan Holy war against Italy he would have unleashed a whirlwind. That is an important point to watch.

In undertaking a conquest of Egypt Mussolini has picked one of the toughest jobs ever laid out by military history, but even that is less difficult than the fundamental task he must perform to win the battle of the Mediterranean. He must find some way to smash the domination of that inland sea by the British navy.

Il Duce is threatened with strangulation by naval blockade in just the same manner as is his running mate, Hitler.

There are only two ways in which the grip of the British navy can be broken—(1) by direct action and (2) by the crushing of England in the battle of Britain.

Thus it seems to me that in the long run we get back to the idea that pretty much everything hinges on the German drive against England itself.

Feller Captures Twenty-Fifth Win to Put Indians on Top Again

By Judson Bailey Associated Press Sports Writer

As quick as you can say Robert William Andrew Feller the Cleveland Indians have ascended again to the American League's throne room.

After trailing along in second place since last Tuesday the Indians took advantage of lapses on the part of their rivals yesterday and vaulted back on top, a full game in front of the Detroit Tigers.

Feller led the way to a double-decker decision over the Philadelphia Athletics. He gave up only two hits, struck out seven and for the second time in his major league career allowed no walks in scoring a 5-0 shutout. It looked like he might get another no-hitter until Dick Siebert singled in the eighth.

It was Feller's 25th win against nine losses.

In the nightcap, the A's got rough with Al Smith, but George Caster, after pitching no-hit ball for four frames, blew wide open and the Tribe triumphed 8-5 with four runs in the fifth and three more off Cobby Dean in the seventh.

The man-eating Tigers were tamed 6-1 by Dutch Leonard of the Washington Senators, who gave only six hits and one run—a homer by Rudy York.

39,000 Chicago fans and the veteran right-hander clamped down on the Red Soxers with three-hit pitching. John Rigney allowed only five in the nightcap.

In the National League the Cincinnati Reds stretched their first place margin to nine games by conquering the Brooklyn Dodgers 13-3. The second game of a doubleheader ended in a 1-1 tie when darkness halted play after 11 innings and will be tried over today.

The Pittsburgh Pirates knocked the New York Giants into sixth place with a double victory 10-3 and 4-3.

The St. Louis Cardinals held third place, defeating the Phillies 7-0 and 3-1.

The Boston Bees and Chicago Cubs divided a doubleheader, Manny Salvo winning the first 7-3 and Dizzy Dean coming back with a careful nine-hit job to take the second game 7-4.

Landon Will Talk For Wendell Willkie KANSAS CITY, Sept. 16 (AP).—To save his voice for a major address at Coffeyville, Kas., Wendell L. Willkie turned over to Alf M. Landon today most of the speechmaking on his campaign tour through Missouri and eastern Kansas.

The Republican presidential nominee, who became so hoarse Saturday he had to forego several talks, was improving under the treatment of a throat specialist.

A "FOUR-ALARM" FOR THE BLUE-GRAY TRUCKS

A KANSAS CITY bridge burst into flames one morning last spring. It twisted and writhed under the terrific heat... then stout steel spans splashed into the Kansas River.

"Voice bridges" went out of service, too. For attached to the bridge were two large telephone cables, containing wires to 1,700 telephones. It was a four-alarm for the telephone repair crews—the men in the blue-gray trucks. While flames still soared near by, the reconstruction work began.

In a fire department rowboat they got a line across the river. Emergency telephones were rigged up at strategic locations.

Then came a driving rain to make the task even harder. All night they worked against great odds. By midnight 60 telephones were working. By breakfast time three-fourths of the silenced telephones could speak. That afternoon telephone service was back to normal.

Lettermen to Open at All Posts When ACC Meets NTSTC Here

ABILENE, Sept. 16 (Special).—Though neither Bugs Morris nor Tonto Coleman, the Abilene Christian mentors, has committed himself as to the personnel of the Wildcats' starting lineup for the 11th lifter of the schedule, with North Texas State at Midland Saturday night, every position is expected to be manned by a letterman.

Gene Sosebee of Anson and Pat Wyatt, Rochester, both of whom did substitute duty last season, are in line for the end berths. That is, if late scrimmage sessions are indicative of the starting lineup. Tyson Cox, three-year veteran, will man the left tackle job and either Tiny Pycatt of Clyde or Howard Lumbly, Eden, is expected to start on the opposite side. Pycatt is suffering from a slight wrist injury, but should be in trim by game time.

Garvin Beauchamp, 1939 regular, and Dane Lovelace, who lettered as a reserve last year, will open at the guards. Lovelace is being pushed by Arrel Roberts, all-stater from North Side at Fort Worth, but should get the starting call because of his experience under fire.

Red Stromquist, all-conference end for the past two seasons, has been transferred to center and will get the starting call at the pivot post. The manner in which he has acquainted himself with his new job has been most heartening to the Wildcat coaches.

Chubby James, quarter, Durrell Sanders and Johnny Owen, halves, and Thurman Jones, full, likely will be the starting backfield four-some. Buster Dixon, sophomore find of last season, should work into the lineup early but is expected to be on the sidelines at the outset.

The Wildcats will be seeking to avenge a one touchdown loss of last season. Six starters of '39 are due to open against the Wildcats. Too, the Denton club is bolstered by the addition of highly touted transfers.

The opening game no doubt is one of the toughest on the ACC slate.

Sports Roundup

NEW YORK, Sept. 16 (AP)—Week's wash: Don McNeill can hardly wait till he catches up with the radio announcer who called him an "Oakie." . . . When Clemson and Auburn meet at Auburn November 9, it will be Auburn's second home football game since 1936 . . . Salt Lake City is trying to get Jack Dempsey to pull up stakes here and settle down in the old home town. They can't do that to us! . . . Alice Marble's favorite yarn is of the days when she was the tow-headed mascot of the San Francisco ball club—used to go out in centerfield and shag flies . . . Dizzy Dean's many friends will want to tune in tomorrow night when he gives the inside dope on his comeback on the "We the People" program.

Believe-It-Or-Not
Some weeks back we told of a baseball team which staged an uproarious 18-run inning in which one player came to bat three times and got three hits and another went up three times and drew three walks. . . . We never thought we'd read of anything to beat the likes of that, but here it is. . . . Texas league records show that in August 1929, Waco defeated Beaumont, 20 to 7. . . . Waco scored 18 runs in the eighth inning. . . . Gene Rye, Waco's centerfielder. . . . was up three times in the eighth. . . . Basketball League For District 3-AA Okayed by Leaders

BIG SPRING, Sept. 16.—District 3-AA of Texas interscholastic league members exchanged eligibility lists of their respective football teams at a meeting here Saturday of the circuit's executive committee, composed of superintendents, principals and coaches of each member school. No rulings were made on problems of eligibility.

A double round robin basketball schedule between members of the football district was voted. V. Z. Rogers, superintendent at Lamesa, made the motion for the program and was appointed to make tentative plans for the schedule.

A proposal to make definite regulations concerning the time limits on a football quarter was dropped.

It was decided to let the coaches of each team decide the length of the period when their schools meet.

The committee agreed to hold one invitation track meet for the district at Big Spring. Some system to regulate the method of admitting scouts to football games was discussed but no certain plan was agreed upon.

It was pointed out that there have been several occasions when coaches who have been sent to observe teams have had difficulty in being recognized as bonafide scouts. W. C. Blankenship, superintendent of Big Spring schools, was reelected chairman of the committee. Ross Covey, superintendent at Sweetwater, and L. E. Dudley of Abilene, were elected first and second vice chairmen, respectively. C. H. Kenley of San Angelo was renamed as secretary. In the absence of Blankenship and Covey, Kenley was acting chairman of the meeting.

The PAYOFF

By Jess Rodgers

Although the Midland Bulldogs are in district 3-AA and the Wink Wildcats in district 7-A, and the outcome of the game here Friday night will make no difference as far as championship hopes of either club are concerned, fans can rest assured that the game will be one of the best of the year here.

During the past few seasons the game has come to be THE game of the year for both clubs. A victory for either means a successful season. The traditional Thanksgiving Day games between Midland and Odessa, Wink and Pecos do not overshadow the annual Midland-Wink game as far as rivalry is concerned.

The Wildcats have held the upper hand throughout most of the past decade, winning six of the last eight games played between the two clubs. The Bulldogs have managed to win their two games in the last five played.

The Bulldogs won their first game from the Wildcats in several seasons back in 1936 when Dave Wafford, now on the TCU squad, splashed all over a muddy field to pace the home boys to a win in a bitterly contested battle.

In 1937 the Wildcats got revenge by hanging up an easy 45-0 rout of the Bulldogs early in the season.

The 1938 battle goes down in the memory of this department as the greatest game ever witnessed—but ring none. The Bulldogs dropped a 21-45 decision to a thrill-a-minute battle that left spectators weak with nervous exhaustion when the game was over.

The heavier, more experienced Wildcats got off to a 19-point lead in the first quarter, only to see the Bulldogs pick up 13 points during the second period. A couple of long "hope" passes thrown by J. R. Callahan of Wink and completed on sensational catches by end Beekman Ezell, gave the Wildcats a lead in the third quarter that the Bulldogs could never overcome.

Two or three fist fights broke out between members of the two teams as soon as the game was over. They were not to be blamed on any enmity the boys felt towards each other but on the fact that members of both squads were so keyed up that they could not relax once the game was over.

More than a few civilian battles were held after the game. It has become such a serious affair that supporters of the two teams cannot "take it" when their favorite loses.

The Bulldog coaches will have to do very little urging to have the boys in the right mental state for the game Friday night. The boys realize as well as the coaches what the game means. Fans can rest assured that the Bulldogs will make their supreme effort of the year to win this one.

The fans can also be sure that the Wildcats will be trying just as hard as the Bulldogs. The two clubs know only one way to play each other—with the hardest football they are capable of.

The Wildcats were overwhelming favorites to copy last year's game, a fact that led to their downfall. They were overconfident and some of the boys not in the best of shape. When they had their ace ball carrier, Callahan, hurt early in the fray they seemed to lose something they never recovered. The 27-12 win scored by the Bulldogs was rightly classified as an upset. Not only will the Wildcats be out for revenge this week but they will be attempting to show district 3-AA officials they made a mistake by not granting admittance to the district of Wink last year or this year.

Coach Lacey Turner has only six lettermen on the Wildcat squad this season but the quality of his new boys is shown by their rout of the Jal, N. M., team Saturday night. The Jal team was generally recognized as the best team in New Mexico in 1939 and returned a veteran team to the wars this year.

The Wildcats have another reason—and a good one—for wanting to defeat Midland. Their assistant coach—Bryan Henderson—was given his release from the same job here a few years ago and has never denied that a win over Midland was the choice gift of the year for him from his teams.

That boy Wilford Lester who gained plaudits from this department for his fine game Friday night is out first cousin. By the middle of the game we were calling him nephew. At the end of the game we were calling him uncle. Another game like he played against Ysleta and we will be calling him papa.

Odds and ends—Reports say that Jay Francis is playing a lot of football for the Texas Tech freshmen. . . . We can't help but feel that Jay made a mistake by not going to a larger school but he should know his own mind. . . . But he may have trouble exercising his own mind since he got married a few days ago. . . . Pete Cawthon of Texas Tech is head coach on our mud list but he landed a couple of the best backs in the state when he got Jay and J. R. Callahan. . . . Another Midland boy likely to go somewhere is Paul Klatt, now enrolled at Texas Mines. . . . With Woody Adams and Dave Wafford in TCU, Gordon English in Tulane, Marion Taylor in Kilkor Junior and 'Floppy' Clements in Arlington, Midland should be getting a lot of football headlines this fall. . . . If present plans work out, this department hopes to have out an annual on district 3-AA within a couple of weeks that should really be worth reading. . . . Although it will contain rosters if all clubs in the leagues, it will not conflict with the programs sold by all schools since numbers and starting line-ups of the schools will not be available. . . . The annuals will sell for less than half the cost of printing. . . . We would like to hear from football fans regarding prospects of chartering a special train for the game in El Paso one week from Friday. . . . Because of a shortage of cash in the high school athletic department, it will be impossible for school officials to pay the way for the band and pep squad. Is as many as 300 persons agree on the trip the tickets should be cheap enough so that fans and civic clubs could pay transportation for band and pep squad. A tip to the football team: A victory over Wink this week would build up a lot of interest and make chances of the special train a lot brighter.

Jenkins, Montgomery Wagering Even on The Eve of Battle

By Sid Feder

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16. (AP)—Lew Jenkins, recognized in some sections as world's lightweight champion, and Bob Montgomery, a local negro boy who wouldn't mind having the crown himself, tangle at Shibe Park tonight for perhaps ten rounds in a non-title fight that has the betting men mumbling in their soup.

With "home-town boy" regard backing up young Bob's record for 28 victories in 29 professional starts, the wagering on this shindig is as close as a motorcycle cop tailing you at 50. The betting commissioners are making it 5 to 6 and take your choice between the Sweetwater swatter from Texas and the local negro.

On his knockout victory over Lou Ambers, by which he won New York and California recognition as 135-pound head man last spring, the ex-cavalry horseshoer figures to win—but it was no proposition on which to break open your kid's bank to bet. Since flattening Ambers, Jenkins was himself given a going over by Henry Armstrong. He broke training for this fight to make a quick trip to Texas to see his ill mother, and, on the way back, was injured in an automobile accident.

Krist Hurls Buffs To 2-1 Win Over The Exporters

HOUSTON, Sept. 16. (AP)—The Houston Buffs, fortified by one victory, tangle again here tonight with the tough Beaumont Exporters in the second game of the Texas League four-out-of-seven championship series.

As fans toasted right fielder Long Tom Winslet for a ninth inning triple which scored centerfielder Johnny Wrostek to win 2-1 for the Buffs yesterday in the opener, Manager Eddie Dyer of Houston prepared to shoot the capable young right-hander Hank Nowak at the Exporters.

Facing him will be Beaumont's Less Mueller, who produced a two-hitter against San Antonio in the opening round of the playoff, and whose season's record showed 18 wins against 11 losses.

Nowak, during the regular season which ended with Houston on top of the league, won 13 and lost six.

The crowd of 8,100 paid customers at the initial tilt found a game thrilling from start to the finish wallop.

Howard Krist, who hurled for the Buffs, had a tough time in opening innings, but was right in the clutches when breaks favored Beaumont. The Exporters had 11 stranded on the bags.

Included among the supplies of the Byrd Antarctic Expedition are four 100-pound bags of popcorn.

THE RECORD... Facts That Concern You No. 22 of a series ... BUT WHY COURT-MARTIAL THE WHOLE REGIMENT? There are bound to be one or two bad soldiers in every regiment. But why court-martial the whole regiment? The same applies to beer retailing. Out of hundreds of thousands of wholesome, law-abiding beer retailers, there is bound to be a small minority who disobey the law or permit anti-social conditions. To protect your right to drink good beer, the Brewing Industry wants even this small minority of undesirable retailers eliminated entirely. Beer is a refreshing, appetizing beverage — the beverage of moderation. We want every beer retail establishment to be as wholesome as beer itself. To that end, we have instituted a "clean-up or close-up" program — now in operation in some states and being extended to others. We'd like to tell you about it in an interesting free booklet. Write: — United Brewers Industrial Foundation, 19 East 40th Street, New York, N. Y.
