Thompson Says Texas May Have To Cut Oil Runs

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 3 (AP).—With winter approaching and Texas crude of gasoline-yielding qualities going into storage in various areas, it is "entirely possible" that Texas oil production will have to be cut, Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson said today.

Thompson declared the Commission must consider the over-all production figure, despite recent evidence of firm market demand in excess of allowables in certain fields. He added that trade reports Monday indicating a Texas output of 200,000 barrels in excess of bureau of mines recommendations should be tempered by the fact that only one shutdown day was included in the week reported whereas three closing days are in order this week.

Thompson's statement was made in connection with completion of Commission analyses of Texas crude oils, a three-month job. Testing more than 500 samples, engineers found a gravity range of 15 to 50 degrees. A.P.I., a gasoline content of from one to 75 per cent and octane numbers of straight run gasoline from 20 to 80 per cent.

They were released this morning after it was learned that the mother of one of the boys was operated on yesterday and was not expected to live.

Chamberlain Resigns From War Cabinet

Minister Reshuffles Cabinet To Give Labor More Prominent Role

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Ailing Neville Chamberlain, former Prime Minister under whom Britain entered the war against Germany, dropped out of the government today, and Prime Minister Churchill reshuffled his cabinet to give labor a more prominent role.

The man whose tightly-rolled umbrella came to symbolize his pre-war policy of appeasement toward totalitarian rulers, resigned both from his post as Lord President of the Council, which he had held since his cabinet fell last May after the ill-fated campaign against the Germans in Norway, and from the inner war cabinet.

Chamberlain also resigned his leadership of the conservative party, which he retained when he gave way to Churchill as Prime Minister last May.

The authoritative Press Association said, "It is a foregone conclusion" that Churchill would succeed him as party leader.

In quitting the political arena to return to private life, the 71-year-old Chamberlain expressed his "unshaken confidence" that under Churchill's leadership, Britain "with her allies and associates will succeed in overcoming the forces of barbarism which have reduced a great part of Europe to a condition little better than slavery."

In reply, Churchill expressed admiration for Chamberlain's aid and said, "you did all you could for victory."

Changes in Churchill's government, announced simultaneously, increased the size of the inner war cabinet from six to eight members.

North Pecos Deep Test Encounters High Simpson Top

By Frank Gardner

Topping the Simpson, middle Ordovician, high structurally, Taubert, McKee & Siemoneit No. 1 Mrs. Virginia W. Crockett, in northern Pecos County today commanded chief interest in West Texas developments.

The well encountered the Simpson top at 4,755 feet, datum of minus 2,363. According to most correlations, this places the Simpson top in No. 1 Crockett 27 feet higher than it was found in Tex-Mex Petroleum Corporation and Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1-A J. H. McKee, abandoned well a mile and a quarter to the north. No. 1-A McKee precipitated an intensive leasing and royalty play three years ago when it found the Simpson abnormally high and heated oil and gas from Simpson sand at 5,271-50 feet. However, it found Ellenburger, lower Ordovician, barren and failed to produce commercially when plugged back and tested again in the Simpson horizon.

Showing oil at well this morning was drilling ahead at 4,817 feet in Simpson lime. It is located 660 feet out of the southwest corner of the Crockett tract in section 4 1/2, block 3, H. & T. C. survey.

Whisenant Thins Slightly

Showing 10 feet of thinning between anhydrite and Yates sand over Livermore (formerly Sloan & Zook Company and T. N. Sloan) No. 1 Waples Platter Company, producer a mile and a quarter to the southeast, Forest Development Corporation No. 1 A. C. Whisenant reported Yates at 3,339 feet, datum of plus 235. The marker is correlated as 12 feet higher than in the Livermore well; No. 1 Whisenant had been only two feet higher on anhydrite, topped at 2,560. This morning it was drilling ahead below 3,400 feet on anhydrite and sand. The test is in southeastern Yoakum County.

Amor G. Carter No. 4-D A. L. Wasson, "tight" well and possible discoverer of a deep pay underlying the Wasson field of Yoakum and Galves counties, is reported drilling below 7,670 feet. Late, correct information from the mystery operation stated that it was acidized with a total of 4,500 gallons, in four stages, while bottomed at 6,610 feet in lime. Two and one-half inch tubing was set at total depth and packer was set at 6,274 feet. Following treatment, the well swabbed 40 to 60 barrels of green oil daily for about a week, then began flowing.

At Least It Has A Name—But Why?

Wallace Says U. S. Has Power To Build Greater America

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 3 (AP).—No matter what happens to the world after the European war, Henry A. Wallace says, the United States "has the machinery, the personnel and the skill to build a greater America."

This country could become an example to the world—a "practical example of Democracy at work," the Democratic Vice Presidential candidate said here last night in his closing campaign address to voters of the northwest's wheat and power belt.

After the war, he predicted, "the countries of Europe and Asia will not have gold; we shall not want to take their paper promises and there will be no violent objections to our accepting their goods."

"We may give them wheat for awhile, if they are friendly, but in the end we must suit our actions to the new world-economic conditions."

"America could become an example to the world—a practical example of Democracy at work."

He praised the efforts of President Roosevelt to speed rearmament and described a "united Europe and Asia under Hitler" as a "real threat" to the United States.

Plenty Of Skilled Men For Defense Jobs

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 (AP).—That thousands of skilled workers were available for national defense jobs was indicated today by a survey by the United States employment service.

Total registration by states included: Texas 9,487.

Intervention By the United States Will Bring Assault By Combined Forces Of Germany-Italy-Japan

Mussolini's Newspaper Says Japan Anticipates Being Forced By British Hostility To Attack Far Eastern Naval Base At Singapore

Premier Benito Mussolini's newspaper said today that Japan is preparing for a possible attack on Britain's vital Far East naval base at Singapore and warned the United States that intervention would bring an assault by the combined forces of Germany, Italy and Japan.

These forces were listed as 20,000,000 soldiers, 2,000,000 tons of warships and between 25,000 and 30,000 warplanes.

The newspaper, Il Popolo d'Italia, said Japan was getting ready "in anticipation of being forced by British hostility or the intervention of new allies of England to attack and throw down the pillar of Singapore."

By "new allies," the newspaper obviously referred to the United States—specially in the light of recent reports that United States warships might be stationed at Singapore.

Prime Minister Winston Churchill shuffled his war cabinet today to give labor a bigger role after ex-premier Neville Chamberlain, 71-year-old "appeasement" man of Munich, resigned from the government.

King George VI accepted the resignation, which served to strengthen Churchill's already popular and powerful regime pledged to "fight to the end" against Adolf Hitler.

In ill health Chamberlain, in failing health after an abdominal operation in July, sent Churchill a message expressing "unshaken confidence" that his leadership would carry Britain to victory over "the forces of barbarism which have reduced a great part of Europe to a condition little better than slavery."

Authorized Nazi quarters in Berlin, commenting on the shuffle, said curtly:

"It shows something's rotten in England."

Prime Minister Churchill, under pressure, had to sacrifice someone to show that he's active—and old man Chamberlain came in handy.

Chamberlain's poor health undoubtedly prompted his resignation, but he had been under fire by Britons anxious to rid the war cabinet of the last trace of the "appeasement policy" with which Chamberlain vainly sought to placate Hitler and Mussolini and preserve "peace in our time."

He had survived several crises through the early months of the war, but the Nordic debacle and the withdrawal of British troops from Norway forced his resignation last May 10th day Hitler's legions invaded the low countries to strike at France.

Reinforce Powers With retirement of the peace-seeking "umbrella" man, Prime Minister Churchill was expected to take over Chamberlain's leadership of the cabinet conservative party, reinforcing his present practically dictatorial powers.

Amid this political development, the war in the air continued relentlessly, with Britain's aerial counter-offensive striking far and wide. Fifteen persons were killed and 300 injured.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 (AP).—A $1,482,000,000 military appropriations bill, last major defense measure pending before Congress, was passed today by the Senate.

Approximately 85 per cent of the army's appropriation would go toward feeding, clothing, equipping, paying and training 1,024,441 National Guardsmen and conscripts to be called into the service to supplement the army's 375,000 regulars.

Farm Prosperity—Made To Order

There's something a little nerve-racking about this thing they call the Farm Problem. Primarily the objective of the farmer is pretty much the same as that of the man in the factory. Both want a fair return for their labor. But there is one difference: In addition to being a working man, the farmer is a business man in his own right, providing his own capital, shouldering his own overhead, seeking his own markets. And in that difference lies the Farm Problem.

When the depression came, the Federal government decided that since both business, through the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and the working man, through work-relief agencies, were being given governmental assistance, the farmer, as a combination of both, was entitled to some help. So Uncle Sam stepped in to see what could be done.

Well, here's what the situation looks like today: Of all the major crops in the United States, only two—soy beans and oats—are unsupported by Federal loans. Soy bean farmers, however, are clamoring for governmental loans. And it may be only a question of time before oat-raisers decide that they better see about this pot-of-gold business.

The purpose of these loans? To keep prices up. Ordinarily, by the time a farmer harvests his crop, he is pretty nearly broke. He's got to unload and to take what he can get to carry him through the winter and to pay off mortgages and interest.

But if Uncle Sam steps in and lets him have some money on account, based on the current market price of whatever he's raising, the farmer can store his produce until the market price rises.

It looks good, but there's one other side of the picture. The defense commission recently reported that one-third of the Nation is under-nourished. And according to Bruce Catton, Washington columnist, the farmer's domestic market would be worth a billion dollars more than it is today if every person were able to buy as much food as a family with an income of $100 a month normally buys.

Which means that every time farm prices go up, under the current setup, the folks in the lower one-third can afford to buy just so much less of the food products they need. Which in turn means that surpluses increase, and prices must continue to be kept up by artificial means.

Where will it all end up? How long can American economy go on in this vicious circle? At best, it's a guess, and yours is as good as anyone else's.

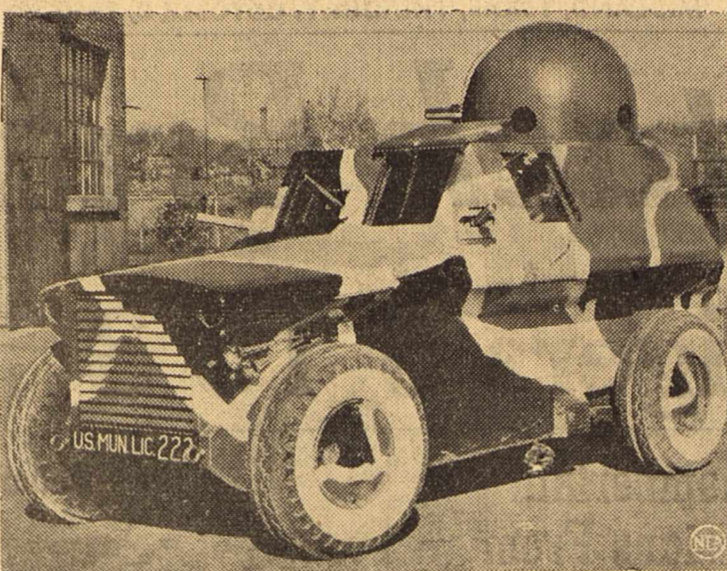

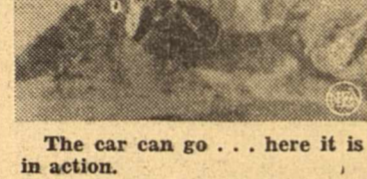

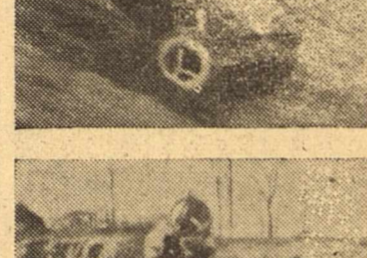

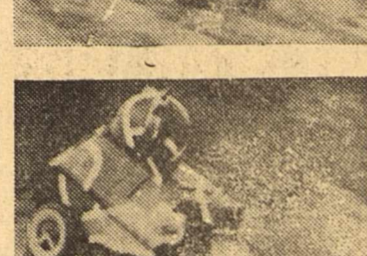

Pan Americanism By Air

It's a good bet that just about everyone in North and South America is glad to see something being done about bringing the continents closer together. We mean the new Pan American schedules.

A 48-hour service is to be inaugurated between Miami and Rio de Janeiro. Shortly after the first of the year, a number of other new flights will be placed in operation, with planes going to Puerto Rico, the Bahamas, Central and South America.

With schedules now in operation, this will all add up to a total of 137 departures for Latin America a week. Pan American conferences are fine. And so too is the increasing popularity of air travel between the two continents.

Speaking Of Blitzkrieg . . . New U. S. Combat Car Fights At 100 M. P. H.

The Tucker combat car . . . cannon in turret, three machine guns in car.

By NEA Service.

A new type anti-aircraft combat car equipped with three machine guns and a cannon and capable of more than 100 miles an hour is industrial skill's latest contribution to the nation's arms.

Built of 50 caliber bullet-proof armor plate and glass, and rolling along on bullet-proof tires, the car climbs grades of 50 per cent inclination, plows through mud, sand and broken ground. It has a cruising range of 225 miles at 70 miles an hour. And it's as easy to drive as an auto.

The car is designed as an arm of defense against low-flying aircraft on ground-strafing missions. Its armament, speed, maneuverability and bullet-proof construction make it always ready for instant use. It was designed by Preston Tucker at Tucker Manufacturing Company, Ypsilanti, Mich. Test models have been completed and plans are being made for mass construction.

Construction utilizes the most modern steel processes—arc welding—which actually makes the car bullet proof. Welding does away with bolts and rivets which become worse than projectiles when driven into a tank by heavy gunfire.

The body of the combat car, which is camouflaged, is made up of 10 arc-welded sections. Radiator angles are so constructed that bullet penetration is almost impossible. All welding is done with electrodes. The car has a 200-horsepower motor, seven-speed transmission.

This Could Be Your Story

BY MARGUERITE GAHAGAN

COPYRIGHT, 1940, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERAY: Sue Mary returns to the office, finds Vera and young Clark. Vera telephones Nick, tells him the plot had worked, that they'll get the papers to frame Clark tomorrow. Joe is hurt in a fight at the factory. He is unconscious. Sue Mary is terrified by the sudden sweep of events.

VERA LOSES A GLOVE

Chapter XXII
IT was impossible, there in the routine work-a-day office, to forget the terror of the night before. Sue Mary mechanically typed and filed and took dictation. She listened to Babs Fleming burst forth in confidential, whispered details of her trousseau shopping and tried desperately to force an answering smile and a faint show of interested enthusiasm in Babs' wedding plans.

"Gosh, Sue Mary, I'm so excited. Only a month—but it seems ages to wait. Jim's so sweet. He's so interested in everything we're getting for the house. He was over last night and we got every-thing out and looked it over again: for the umpteenth time, I guess."

"Sometimes I think it will be worth out before we really get settled. I mean things like linens and china and silver. Gosh—I'm so in love."

Her blue eyes were dreamy and she went off into one of her periodic day dreams, while Sue Mary felt fear coalesce her own heart. She should be able to dream such dreams herself instead of sitting here now with icy terror gripping her.

She had already called the hospital three times and each call had brought her no new information. Joe was still in a coma. There was still little encouragement to give, except that he was holding his own and doing as well as could be expected.

"Only I have my doubts if he knew where he was or whom he was with," Kitty answered furiously. "Just what are you trying to do?"

"My dear, you simply wouldn't understand," Vera told her quietly. "And I haven't the time or the inclination to draw any diagrams for you. If you must know, however, Ross dropped in here for some papers on our way to dinner."

Sue Mary wondered later just what might have happened at that point if Miss Grant hadn't come into the office.

"It's a good thing you went out to take that stuff from Mr. Clark last night," she told Sue Mary. "He's collapsed again. Under doctor's care."
"I wonder how long this terrible business is going on: war, hysteria, rush production, nerves cracking." She looked tired and, for the first time, lacking in poise. Even her career-woman front seemed to have crumbled, revealing the helpless feminine underneath.

It was a few moments before the clear import of her statement hit Sue Mary. All through those long hours when she had tossed in her bed last night, and while she had subconsciously gone on with her work during the morning, she had tried to consider what steps to take about Vera and her plans to get the papers young Ross Clark had on the airport site deal.

And in the back of her mind, she knew now, was the final hope that she would go to old Ross Clark and tell him what she knew. He was a business executive, competent, capable to face any emergency, but for all that, human and kind. Somehow she had felt he could handle the situation—a situation which now more than ever before left her baffled and helpless.

But now he was ill, inaccessible, incapable of advising her or of preventing what would surely happen. It wasn't his son that mattered, she told herself over and over, staring unseeing at the papers before her on the desk. It was the fact that he would be the weapon that Nick and the YP could hold over Governor Miller, bring about his defeat for re-election and the success of a man whose policies would be so opposed to all that was American.

Sue knew the whole burden now rested on herself. She felt so incompetent, so young, so unsure. To go to anyone in the office itself would mean the truth would inevitably leak out, and she could not bear to think of hurting old Ross Clark by showing his son up before the whole city.

And, she wondered frantically, wouldn't the whole thing sound pre-

OUR COUNTRY

Twenty-second of 24 articles on "Our Country," written exclusively for NEA Service and The Reporter-Telegram by the nation's most famous authors.

By Edna Ferber
Author of "Mother Knows Best," "Show Boat," "Cimarron," etc.

EVERYBODY wants to belong. From birth our first instinct is to join with someone or something that will sustain and reassure us. While we're infants we want to belong to our parents and our home. To these we cling for physical and economic and mental support. Then we branch out in a search for further assurance. We join a school, a gang, a club, a guild, a religious sect, a business group, a profession, a union. And we work for them.

How we work for them. We Americans are the greatest joiners in the world. Perhaps it's our newness and our feeling of insecurity that makes this so. But it is true. And now we work for our own group. We pay dues, we pay special assessments, we plan benefits, build places of meeting, try to gain new members, vote, appoint or elect officers, criticize, praise, talk shop. We belong. Lawyers, doctors, writers, artisans, engineers, teachers, students, laborers, designers, merchants—how we love to belong!

But that biggest club of all, that vast and inclusive union to which every one of us belongs—that one we have lately got into the habit of treating with neglect, or contempt, or disrespect or mere carelessness. The strongest and most sustaining organization in the world, to which we here in America have been privileged to affiliate ourselves, has been allowed, by the great majority of us, to get along as best it could without our help.

That club, union, guild, home, refuge is known as the United States of America. Its dues are called taxes, its officers are called president, senator, congressman, governor, mayor, and many more titles.

posterior, impossible in the telling, anyhow. Who would believe her? The story sounded like a movie plot.

What if she were wrong? Or what if Nick and Vera were smart enough to prepare for just such an emergency?

Surely they must have anticipated the possibility of being discovered. In that case, Sue Mary, after warning of the plot, would be left looking like an hysterical, jealous, stupid fool.

Its passwords are freedom and liberty and equality, and the organization lives up to its slogan, though its individual members frequently do not.

Its members keep pushing fellow-members in the fact. They want to belong, but they don't want to work at it. So, then, little by little, with magnificent help from Hitler and Stalin, we have built a fine machine of destruction. We have bred a gang whose object is to destroy our guild, our union. One section of the country has been stirred up against another; religion has been set against religion, class against class, national origin against national origin.

The very worst thing that could possibly happen to Hitler would be to see a United States of America. A United States of America. There are certain things I've seen and seen in the past five or 10 years, and I'm sick of seeing them. I'm resentful of seeing labor set against labor, two camps defying each other through their power-hungry leaders. Why doesn't labor, as one man, stand up on its legs and say what it wants and what it wants, and then function again as the thing it truly is—the most vital muscle in the whole body of America—the heart that pumps the life blood through the United States.

The vast majority of us hate the plan on which the German government is conducted, we despise the conduct of the Italian dictator and his crew. We have here in the United States, according to recent and reliable figures between 15 and 20 millions of Germans and about 5 millions of Italians. They and their children aren't here because they found Germany and Italy too perfect. They came because they wanted more freedom or more money or more peace than they could get in their own country. And with very few exceptions they want to belong. With deep sincerity they want to belong. But there is this strange new Hitler-spawned tendency to call them foreigners!

What are we all but foreigners? What is a foreigner in America? Albert Einstein? Paul Robeson? Thomas Mann? Jascha Heifetz? Carl Schurz? Lindbergh? Or are the foreigners exemplified in those countless millions who, over the past century, have built the railroads that scarp across the country, the skyscrapers that are the original architectural form produced by us here? The reservoirs that furnish our water supply, the mammoth dams that make the building of the Egyptian Pyramids seem child's play done with blocks, the great steel ingots turned out white-hot in the steel mills, all, all done by the toiling hands of refugees.

For they were refugees, though they may not have come to America in war time. They came here for refuge from oppression or poverty, or persecution or militarism, or some form of frustration. They came, and they want to belong, and they have a right to belong. Some are strong in talent and intellect; some are strong in muscle. We need them as much as they need us. More! They want to join the club and pay their dues and vote. And if we don't welcome them to these privileges that they'll turn to another club that will. Its name may be Nazism or Communism. But the fault will be ours.

They knew what they were talking about—those old boys—when they coined a lot of phrases. They weren't hollow phrases. They rang true. United We Stand. Divided We Fall. In Union There Is Strength. One and Indivisible. As the United States of America we can surmount these next 10 years that are looming so terrifyingly ahead. As the Divided States of America we never can.

We are listening for that Voice—a Voice to lead us out of the wilderness of doubt and uncertainty and apprehension. We need only realize that the Voice is within each one of us if we have the courage and the spirit to speak.

The saving of democracy calls for an entirely new pattern of government, writes Stewart Edward White in the next article of this series on "Our Country."

Pump Quits And Farmer Finds Hog In Well

FREDERICK, Md., Oct. 3 (AP)—The pump quit on C. Lease Bussard's farm, and Bussard climbed into the well to make repairs. Thirty feet down on a ledge he found the trouble—noisy, mad and hungry.

A 200-pound hog had crashed through the well flooring, disabling the pump. Farmhands hauled the hog out in a sling.

More Than 100 Candidates, Including Two Governors, Four Congressmen, Are Candidates For Seats In Congress

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 (AP)—More than a hundred candidates, including two governors, three former governors, and four congressmen, have been selected to run for the 35 Senate seats to be filled in the November 5 elections.

Utah's run-off Republican primary on Tuesday, won by Philo T. Farnsworth, Jr., completed the slate of major party Senatorial nominees who will be on the ballot in 34 states.

Vermont picks two Senators this year. For a short, unexpired term, Maine elected its new Senator, Ralph O. Brewster, a Republican, Sept. 9, making 36 Senators being elected for terms beginning next January.

For the 35 places being voted on next month, the Democrats have named 34 candidates. Senator Hiram Johnson, veteran California Republican, won the other Democratic nomination, as well as the Republican and Progressive.

Byrd Has No Opponent
Republicans have chosen 33 Senate candidates, leaving uncontested the seats of Senators Byrd (D-Va.) and Andrews (D-Fla.).

The Communist party has placed Senatorial candidates on the ballot in Connecticut, Massachusetts, Missouri, Texas and Virginia. It was ruled off the ballot in several states.

Socialists so far have candidates for seven Senate posts; Socialists-

Labor and Prohibition parties four each; Farmer-Labor, Independent, Progressive (LaFollette), Labor, Socialist-Workers, Constitutional Independent, Square Deal, and Industrial Government one each.

Candidates wearing more than one party label, besides Senator Johnson, are Senators Maloney (D-Conn.), also Union party, and Mead (D-NY), also American-Labor.

27 Incumbents Win
Twenty-seven incumbent Senators, including 19 Democrats, 6 Republicans, 1 Progressive and 1 Farmer-Labor (Shipstead, Minn., as a Republican), have won re-nomination.

Four sitting Democrats—Burke, Neb.; Holt, W. Va.; King, Utah, and Ashurst, Ariz.—and one Republican—Frazier, N. D.—were defeated for re-nomination. Three others—Donahue (D-Ohio); Schwollenbach (D-Wash.); and Gibson (R-Vt.)—are not running next month. Hale, a Maine Republican, also retired voluntarily.

The governors trying for the Senate are Roy L. Cochran (D-Neb.) and George D. Aiken (R-Vt.). Former governors are Harry W. Nice (R-Md.); Elmer A. Benson (R-Minn.); and William Langer (R-ND).

Representatives Bruce Barton (R-NY); Abe Murdock (D-Utah); Monrad C. Wallgreen (D-Wash.); and William Lemke, North Dakota Republican running as an Independent, also are Senatorial nominees.

Navy Takes Steps To Strengthen Its Atlantic Forces

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 (AP)—The navy gave emphasis to its two-ocean policy today with preparations for putting its Atlantic forces on a more formidable footing, and the announcement that the Commander-in-Chief of the main fleet was coming here from Hawaii for conferences "on the general situation in the Pacific."

Secretary of Navy Knox contributed to the interest in the coming visit of Admiral James O. Richardson when he told a press conference yesterday he thought a suggestion for a naval good will cruise to Australia and New Zealand was a "good idea," although there had been no decision.

More Than 125 Vessels
Plans for establishment of "a newly organized force" in the Atlantic were disclosed late yesterday by the navy department. The squadron, to be known as "the patrol force, United States fleet," will consist of more than 125 vessels and the necessary complement of aircraft.

There was no indication in navy circles whether creation of the new force had any connection with the recently negotiated mutual assistance pact between Berlin, Rome and Tokyo. An Atlantic squadron has been in existence two years, but the new organization is designed to strengthen it and unify its command.

Secretary Knox also said his department would not "let any grass grow under our feet" in development of the Atlantic bases acquired from Britain last month. Plans for improving the first of the eight bases already were under way, he reported.

Claim Babies Born In Fall Have Better Bones

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Oct. 3 (AP)—Scientific evidence that babies born in October and November have better bones on the average than those born in other months was announced today at Pennsylvania State College.

The study was made by the division of home nutrition, by Dr. Pauline Beery Mack, Portia Bricker Harvey and Alice Jones Beakley.

It is not magic in the fall weather, but diet and sunshine which account for the better bones. The expectant mothers' diet is more varied in summer than any other season. Sunshine in summer makes up for lack of vitamin D, a mother-

Three Families Have Large Share Holdings

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 (AP)—The DuPont, Mellon and Rockefeller families, a securities commission study asserts, have share holdings valued at nearly $1,400,000,000 which are "so placed as to give them considerable influence if not control" over 15 of the 200 largest non-financial corporations in the nation.

Foreign investors also have a considerable stake in the same 200 corporations, it was stated in the report which was released yesterday by Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.), chairman of the monopoly committee.

Indict James Noe For Tax Evasion

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 3 (AP)—James A. Noe, Democratic National Committeeman, former interim governor and political ally of the late Huey P. Long and the present Governor Sam H. Jones, was indicted here today by a federal grand jury on charges of income tax evasion.

Named with Noe was Seymour Weiss, hotel man already under federal conviction and numerous indictments, and the Win or Lose Oil Company which Long, Noe and Weiss established at the zenith of Long's political power in Louisiana and which reaped extensive profits in oil production.

The Texas Predatory Animal Control Association reports taking 14,191 coyotes, 2,086 bobcats and 18 mountain lions in the fiscal year ending June 30. This represented a decrease of 1,622 coyotes, 171 bobcats and four lions under the preceding year.

INTERPRETING THE WAR

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

Berlin and Tokyo continue to make gestures of amity toward Russia in an effort to bring the Muscovites into line with the expansionist ambitions of the new triple alliance (Germany, Italy and Japan), or at least to keep the Bolsheviks from torpedoing the plans of the trio.

At this writing Japan—backed by Germany—seems to be fishing for a non-aggression pact with Russia, similar to the one existing between Germany and the Soviet. Nippon already has on hand all the trouble it wants.

Germany and Japan had sworn great oaths against Communism, but they're not letting that interfere with business.

Moscow has smiled in response, but it's one of those straight-lipped smiles—like that of the Master Gumbler playing his cards close to his chest.

Stalin Is Silent
Since the formation of the triple alliance, Communist Chief Stalin has maintained a silence which a mystery-story writer might designate as "inscrutable." The world agrees that Russia's attitude is of vast importance to the outcome of the war and the future of Europe. I believe we can pin that attitude down in general terms.

Little straws often show where the big winds are coming from—and Moscow has just tossed a tiny straw into the air. This is an official announcement listing Stalin's handbook, "A Brief History of the Communist Party," as among the world's best sellers.

The Communist party organ Pravda in commenting on this says that "thanks to the wise policy of Lenin and Stalin and guided by the trusty compass of the Marxist-Leninist theory, the front of Socialism has expanded." Pravda refers specifically to the recent creation of the Soviet Republics of Latvia, Estonia, Lithuania, Bessarabia and Karelia.

Press Is Controlled
The Russian press is government controlled and items like that have a definite purpose. To the reading public of the Soviet it is a reaffirmation of the policy for the spread of Communism to other countries. It says as plainly as can be that recent developments haven't swerved Stalin from his course.

To my mind Stalin's attitude regarding cooperation with the alliance will be covered by two fundamental requirements: Defense of the Soviet Union against aggression and the propagation of Communism in other lands.

It's quite possible that we may see further cooperation between the Axis and the Axis. And it won't be surprising if ultimately Stalin aligns himself with Britain in order to break the strength of the triple alliance which has become a menace to him. But whatever he does it will be directed toward the policy I indicated.

Synthetic Clothing From Coal Is Made By German Chemists

By Ernest G. Fischer
BERLIN—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—From coal, magic mineral in the hands of German chemists, has come synthetic clothing.

In addition to brushing his teeth and running his truck on coal products, the German laborer now can wear work clothes made of coal and lime.

And he can go fishing with a net or line of the same material!

One factory for the manufacture of such fiber has been established, it was revealed by the German dye trust—or I. G. Farben.

Processes and machines are being perfected in this plant with a view to mass production.

Popularly referred to as "peluran fiber," the new material is listed by the dye trust as PCCc fiber.

Advantages claimed for it are that it does not require cleaning and sterilization preliminary to manufacture, that it is acid and heat resistant, that it does not absorb water and that it surpasses natural silk in elasticity.

Two Leaders In Murder Ring Are Sentenced

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3 (AP)—Two self-confessed leaders in Philadelphia's murder-for-insurance ring were under sentence today but a third won a temporary respite with a plea for a new attorney.

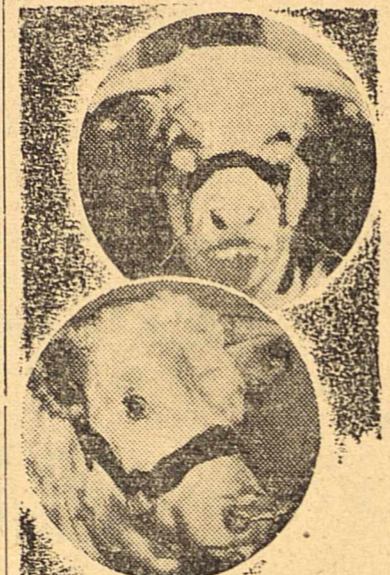

Death in the electric chair was decreed for Dapper Herman Petrillo, 46-year-old former spaghetti salesman who admitted making love to married women and engineering their husbands' deaths.

Once sentenced to die for the murder of Ferdinand Alfonsi, a WPA worker, Petrillo won a new trial but was convicted of killing crippled Rafael Caruso.

The same two-judge court condemned to life imprisonment Mrs. Charles Favato, 45-year-old rooming house keeper who confessed poisoning three men including her common law husband and his son.

Dr. Horace Perlman who admitted poisoning a patient, Mrs. Jennie Pino, won a postponement of sentencing when he told the court he had discharged his attorney, Edward A. Kelly.

National Leaguers Are Outclassed In First Game Of World Series And Experts Wonder Why They're Wrong

By Gayle Talbot
CINCINNATI, Oct. 3 (AP)—It looked again like the National League had over-matched itself as the Cincinnati Reds reeled under the impact of an opening 7 to 2 defeat by the Detroit Tigers and fought desperately to come back.

Again it looked like boys had been sent out to tackle grown men. Today's game at Crosley Field was only the second of the big series that decides the championship, yet the experts, a majority of whom picked Cincinnati to win, were shaking their heads and wondering what could have brought them to make such a cockeyed choice.

The one hope of the Reds to avert a rout probably as disastrous as that they suffered a year ago at the mauling bats of the New York Yankees rested today in the stout right arm and cool pitching head of Bucky Walters.

Reds Looked Bad
If Walters could stop the Tigers and square the series before the two clubs switch to Detroit for the next three battles starting tomorrow, there might be a chance for the locals. But the Reds looked bad in every way yesterday as the Tigers blasted Paul Derringer from the hill with a five-run assault in the second inning and then went on to win as they pleased.

It was obvious that Manager Bill McKechnie's boys had nothing resembling a batting punch as Bo Bo Newsom puffed dust around the pitching mound and mowed them down. And it was equally plain the Reds were tightened up to the snapping point in the field.

Walter's opponent today was the Tiger's towering Schoolboy Rowe, who made a sensational comeback the past season after a trip back to the minors with a lame arm. Rested and primed for what figured to be his one big effort of the series, Rowe promised to be fully as effective as Newsom was yesterday.

Refuses To Give Up
McKechnie refused to give up, naturally, but Bill must be beginning to wonder if he's lived a proper life. Yesterday's was the ninth straight world series defeat suffered by clubs under his management. The Yankees trounced his 1928 Reds four straight and served his dials the same bitter dish last autumn. And now the Tigers have taken up where the Yankees left off.

The Reds still were sadly crippled, with catcher Ernie Lombardi and second baseman Louie Frey on the bench, and it looked doubtful that either would get into the play-off at all. But there was no real reason to believe that their absence seriously influenced yesterday's one-sided result.

Eddie Joost, Frey's replacement, made two of the Reds' eight blows off Newsom and didn't bungle a chance afield. Veteran Jimmy Wilson caught well enough, too, though his batting naturally was weaker than might reasonably have been expected of Lombardi.

Lamesa Golden Tornado Will Tackle Odessa

The Stanton High School Buffaloes will move off their home pasture next week to look at the grass over in McCamey's back yard. A decade, if not more, has elapsed since the football clubs have come in contact with each other. The Stanton Aggregation is now on top in conference competition, have defeated the Seminole Indians, in a 6-0 game, on penetrations, on the Bison home field last Friday. They also boast a 21-0 win over the Ropesville Eagles on last September 20.

The McCamey ball club is due to be one of the ruggedest that the Stanton B class team is to tangle with this season. Two wins hang from the belts of the oilfield school boys.

Stanton Buffaloes Travel To McCamey

LAMESA, Oct. 3.—The 1940 Lamesa Golden Tornado stronghold launches its initial try of the season in District 3-AA competition on the home grounds of Odessa's strong gridsters Friday night, Oct. 4. Many Lamesa fans plan to be in Odessa backing the team.

Newark Wins First Game From Louisville

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 3 (AP)—The American Association champs aren't faring so well against power hitters.

The Louisville Colonels got a closeup of the batting strength of Newark, International League play-off champions, last night in the first game of the junior world's series and bowed to the Bears, 10-3.

Newark bombarded the offerings of three Colonel flingers for 15 hits and 28 bases.

END CAMPAIGN
NEW YORK, Oct. 3 (AP)—A money-raising campaign of the United States committee for the care of European children has been called off because of Britain's decision not to send away any more children.

Flu Hits Three Midland Players; Dampens Prospects

Stock in the Midland Bulldogs, Inc. hit a low this morning when it was discovered that Kelley, Bignam, and Eidson were on the sick list. Bud Taylor said the boys had a "walking case of flu." It was problematical whether the boys would see service in the San Angelo game tomorrow night, and the chances for capable replacements for all three of the boys were very slim indeed.

The Bulldogs continued their workout behind closed gates yesterday, working on new plays designed to meet the changing tactics of San Angelo's Bobcats.

Quarterback Wendell Williams is counted upon heavily to bear the brunt of the forward attack and as yet he has not found a line that could keep him bottled up during the entire game. Williams' style of play is faintly reminiscent of "Big Dave" Wofford and in scrimmage practice, it is not an unusual sight to see him carrying two or three would-be tacklers a few yards before he is downed. Just how far he can carry a Bobcat remains to be seen. This department is inclined to believe he will be quite a thorn to San Angelo.

Alaska Running Out Of Smokes

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Oct. 3 (AP)—Alaska is running out of smokes. Two government investigators returned from an inspection trip to the valley of ten thousand smokes to report there are only five smokes left.

The investigators, Frank T. Been, superintendent of McKinley Park, and Victor E. Culhane, National Park service wildlife superintendent, also discovered that a beautiful lake, similar to Crater Lake, Ore., had been formed in the crater of Mount Katmai, on the Alaskan peninsula.

It was Mount Katmai that started all the fuss June 6, 1912, when it erupted and showered an ash blanket a foot deep over on Kodiak Island, 100 miles away. The eruption set loose not only 10,000 smokes, but countless jets of steam from vents in the valley floor ranging from tiny cracks to craters 150 feet in diameter.

One Is Very Happy and One Rather Sad

Amarillo And Longview High Teams Look Good

Associated Press Staff Writer Amarillo's big, rugged Golden Sandies and Longview's veteran Lobos were heralded today as the top teams of Texas schoolboy football. Some experts predicted they would meet in the finals in December.

But there is some unfinished business for both and much more will be known about them after tomorrow night.

Amarillo's foe is Captol Hill of Oklahoma City, a real test for any team. Longview plays Port Arthur, the eleven selected as most likely to succeed in riotous district 14.

Seven games throw undefeated and untied teams together. In addition to Port Arthur and Longview they are:

Woodrow Wilson (Dallas) vs Hillsboro, Conroe vs South Park (Beaumont), San Jacinto (Houston) vs Corpus Christi, and Jeff Davis (Houston) vs San Houston (Houston).

Buck Newsom's Dad Dies After Son Wins

CINCINNATI, Oct. 3 (AP)—Henry Q. B. Newsom, 68, of Hartsville, S. C., father of Louis "Buck" Newsom, died in his hotel room today less than 12 hours after watching his son pitch the Detroit Tigers to their first world series victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

Newsom said death was the result of a heart ailment from which his father had suffered for several months.

"It was only the second time he had seen the pitch," the son said, adding "I didn't think he'd make it from home."

Japanese Army Has New Chief Of Staff

TOKYO, Oct. 3 (AP)—General Gen Sugiyama, minister of war when hostilities with China began three years ago, was appointed chief of the Japanese army general staff today to succeed 75-year-old Prince Kotochito Kanin.

Sports Roundup

By Eddie Brietz
CINCINNATI, Oct. 3 (AP)—Talk that Bucky Harris might shift from Washington to succeed Oscar Vitt at Cleveland had the gossip buzzing today. . . . Some said if Harris does get the Cleveland job, his successor at Washington will be either Buddy Myer, Ossie Bluege or Rogers Hornsby. . . . Things are so hot Hornsby has asked at least two guys we could name to intercede on his behalf with Clarke Griffith.

In turning back the Reds yesterday, old Bo Bo Newsom, the pride of Hartsville, S. C., threw 46 fewer pitches than Derringer, Moore and Riddle, the Cincinnati hurlers.

The official figures show old Bo Bo chucked that apple exactly 102 times. Derringer let loose 31 times; Moore, 104 and Riddle, 13.

Series Notes
The Tigers had nothing but praise for the work of Bill Klem, "the old arbitrator," behind the plate, which is pretty nice considering Bill comes from the other side of the fence. . . . The Reds gave Jimmy Wilson a handsomely engraved watch for stepping in and catching the last eight games in the pennant drive, after Ernie Lombardi was hurt.

Jimmy Michuda, Marquette's speedy sophomore end, is a brother of Lillian Cornell, the movie and radio star. . . . Jack Dempsey averages 500 autographs per day at his Broadway spot.

Detroit Theme
(From Gilbert and Sullivan)
Yes, I like to see a Tiger
From the Congo or the Niger,
Especially when it's lashing of its tail.

Early Gains in Stock Market Are Wiped Out

NEW YORK, Oct. 3 (AP)—The stock market ran into a little profit taking trouble today and, except for sustained firmness of steels and scattered industrial favorites, early gains of fractions to a point or so were wiped out in many cases at the close.
 Further rising tendencies were displayed in virtually all departments in the forenoon transfers were around 900,000 shares.

most speculative circles.

20 wounded at Haarlem, in German-occupied Holland, in a pre-dawn attack described as the worst since the German blitzkrieg last May.

Dutch sources said the raiders, presumably British, dropped 15 bombs in the city and also fired 120 acres of woodland in the adjacent countryside.

Attack Krupp Works

While London's bomb-shaken millions underwent their 26th consecutive night assault, the air ministry reported RAF raiders heavily attacked the great Krupp armament works at Essen and hurled explosives at targets in 14 other German or German-occupied cities—Hamburg, Stettin, Bottrop, Cologne, Hamm, Wilhelmshaven, Amsterdam, Rotterdam, Antwerp, Flushing, Ostend, Calais, Cherbourg and Ushant.

The air ministry made no mention of an attack on Berlin, but Hitler's high command reported RAF

Willkie Says U. S. Not Prepared And Not Getting Ready

By Theodore F. Koop

ABOARD WILLKIE TRAIN EN ROUTE TO PITTSBURGH, Oct. 3 (AP)—Wendell L. Willkie extended his presidential campaign into Ohio and Pennsylvania industrial cities today after accusing the Roosevelt administration of playing "politics with preparedness."

While cheering men and women who filled the 28,000 seats of Cleveland's public auditorium waved a multitude of small American flags, Willkie declared last night, planes "were driven from the original raid course by anti-aircraft fire" as they approached the German capital.

Berlin's 4,000,000 had their slumbers interrupted by a 72-minute alarm, and the capital's northwest industrial outskirts rumbled to the stammering din of anti-aircraft guns.

A German high command communique said Nazi warplanes had pounded railways, docks and shipping in widespread night attacks on Britain.

"I say that we are now exposed to the aggressors because of the political theories and political ambitions of a few men. We are not prepared and we are not getting prepared."

Offers Program

The Republican presidential nominee described the defense job as "appalling in magnitude" and offered this program in event of his election:

Aid to Great Britain "even if it means the sacrifice of some speed in building up our own air fleet;"

Cooperation on American preparedness with that of Canada;

Selection of the "most experienced and the ablest men" for defense posts, using the army and navy's plans, and limiting the newcomers authority to the term of the emergency;

Revision of the tax system and other steps "to remove every possible obstacle that stands in the way of new investment;"

Economic cooperation with Latin America "giving these neighbors every incentive to rid themselves of the German fifth column."

IN THE ARMY NOW

Orbie G. Harris and James T. Harris of Midland have enlisted in the United States Army and have been assigned to the 53rd Infantry at Ford Ord, Calif.

Ector Wildcat Shutdown

Forest Development Corporation No. 1 Bradley et al, in central Ector County seven miles southeast of the Harper pool, this morning was shut down at 4,210 feet in hard lime while crew worked on water well and mixed mud. No shows have yet been logged by the test, which topped lime at 3,795, 307 feet higher than a dry hole a mile and a quarter to the east.

Forest No. 1-H Paul Moss, indicating possible mile and a half south extension of the South Cowden pool in Ector, is drilling plug from 5 1/2-inch pipe cemented at 3,976 feet. Total depth is 4,300 feet in lime, and sufficient shows were logged from 4,075 to bottom to warrant setting casing and testing.

Indian Territory Illuminating Oil Company No. 2-F J. L. Johnson, in the Johnson pool of Ector, set daily potential of 994.88 barrels of 25-6 gravity crude and gas-oil ratio of 65-1 after shooting with 200 quarts in pay horizon from 4,035 to 4,150 feet, the total depth.

More Registration Data Received By County Clerk

Further instructions were received by the county clerk today for use in the registration of conscription age men. The instructions were sent in the form of a booklet and clear up many questions that were in doubt as to the method of procedure in the registration.

Fifty names are on the list of volunteer workers and Mrs. Noble has issued a call for at least fifty more. Many organizations are offering the services of all or part of their personnel. If the list grows to fifty, each worker would be required to work only one half a day.

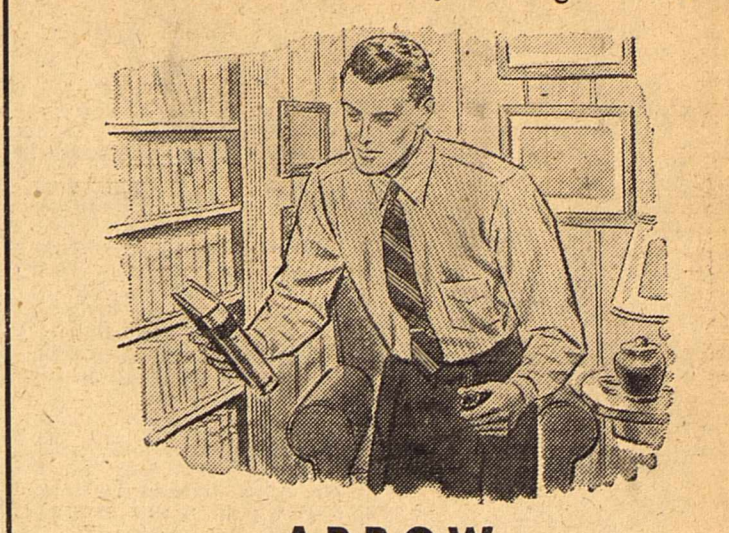

Anyone who wishes to volunteer his or her services is urged to communicate with the county clerk in the county court house.

Hot Check Artist To Face Federal Charges

Officers were holding the "hot check artist," who was arrested Saturday, for a U. S. Marshal who will take him to either El Paso or Pecos. He will face charges of interstate transportation of a stolen automobile.

The man gave his name as Sledge to officers here and before he was apprehended, he had cashed about $200.00 worth of worthless checks. No charges could be filed for "hot checking" because in each instance he dated the checks two days in advance.

but observers who had predicted a sweeping realignment were surprised both by the limited scope of the alterations and the choice of new appointees.

The most important changes included transfer of Laborite Herbert Morrison from the Supply Ministry to the combined job of Secretary for the Home Department and Ministry of Home Security, and naming of Labor Minister Ernest Bevin and Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Kingsley Wood to the important Inner Cabinet.

Anderson to War Cabinet

Sir John Anderson, who was Minister of Home Security, took Chamberlain's place in the War Cabinet and as Lord President of the Council.

Prior to the announcement, political circles had expected that War Secretary Anthony Eden would be elevated to the post of Foreign Secretary, which he held before splitting with Chamberlain over appeasement in 1938, and also had forecast changes involving Minister of Information Alfred Duff Cooper and Minister of Aircraft production Lord Beaverbrook.

Instead, Eden, Halifax, Duff Cooper and Beaverbrook were left in their respective offices.

Other government appointments: Viscount Cranborne, heretofore Paymaster General, became Secretary of State for Dominion affairs, succeeding Viscount Caldecote. Viscount Cranborne formerly was Undersecretary of State for Foreign Affairs, but resigned along with Eden in 1938.

Viscount Caldecote—Lord Chief Justice, replacing Lord Hewart whose resignation is to be effective Oct. 12 and who is to be made a Viscount.

Sir Andrew Duncan—Minister of Supply succeeding Morrison.
