Konoye Voices Veiled Threat Against U. S.

Demands Respect For Japanese Position In Pacific Ocean

By The Associated Press
TOKYO, Oct. 4 (AP)—Premier Prince Konoye invited the United States today to cooperate with the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo axis and declared on the other hand that any United States challenge to axis division of world leadership would bring a "fight to finish."

The issue of peace or war in the Pacific, Konoye said in an interview published by Domei, Japanese news agency, is up to the United States and hers is the responsibility for any adjustment of relations with Japan.

"At present there is no concrete idea to take the initiative in negotiating with the United States," he said. "However, whether the Pacific will become the scene of war or peace solely depends on whether Japan and the United States respect and understand each other's position."

In an interview at Kyoto with the Japanese press the Premier urged the United States to reconsider her previous position and "positively cooperate with axis construction of a new world order."

"Nevertheless should the United States deliberately refuse to understand the turn intentions of Japan, Germany and Italy and consider the triple alliance hostile to herself and challenge the axis nations, the axis would be ready to accept such a challenge and fight to the finish," Konoye said.

The Premier went on to say that efforts would be continued to adjust relations between Japan and Soviet Russia, although he reiterated that Japan firmly opposed Communism and would not allow propagation of it in the Orient.

The Premier emphasized that the pact of Berlin was not intended as a challenge to any other power and that the axis was prepared to recognize the leading position of the United States in the Americas, provided the United States reciprocated as to Europe and the Far East.

Trade negotiations with the Netherlands East Indies are proceeding smoothly, the Premier said, and (See JAPANESE, page 8)

Twelve Criminal Cases To Be Tried In District Court

The district court grand jury turned in a total of eleven indictments yesterday. Cases to be tried are one murder, three car thefts, three drunken driving charges, four gambling charges and one desertion case.

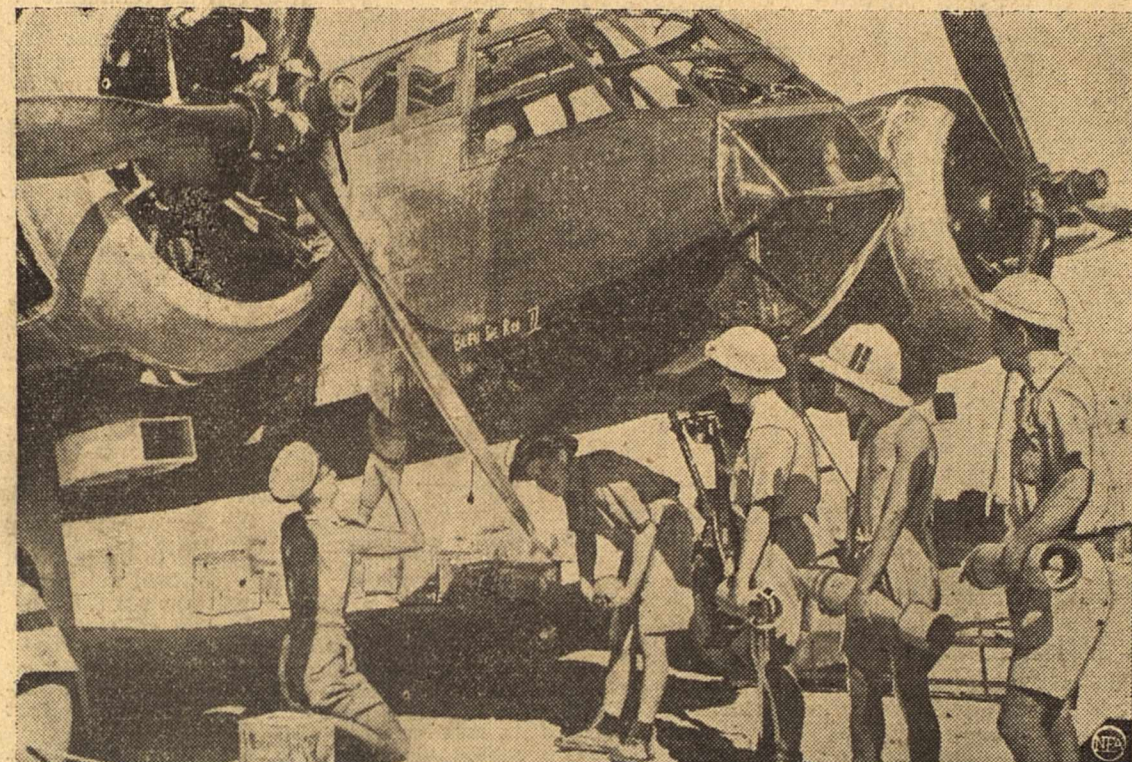

The murder charge is filed against Fanny Mae Franklin, negroess, who allegedly stabbed Six Sanders during the "Juneteenth" celebration at Moody Addition. The trial is set for nine o'clock Wednesday morning.

Douglas Lavere has been transferred from the county jail in Big Spring to Midland where he will face charges of car theft in the term of court.

North Extension Well In Duggan Pool Tests 383-Barrel Daily Flow

Completion of a north extension well in the east part of the Duggan pool in southeastern Cochran County led other oil happenings today. It is Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 F. L. Woodley et al. a mile and a half north of east-side production, which flowed through 1 1/2-inch choke on tubing at the rate of 383.4 barrels of oil per day. It had gas-oil ratio of 590-1. The well is bottomed at 4,985 feet in lime, where it was acidized with a total of 10,500 gallons.

In the south extension area of the same pool, Magnolia No. 1-C Mallett Land & Cattle Company was completed on pump for potential of 222.4 barrels daily, based upon six-hour gauge. It was treated with 10,500 gallons of acid in three stages at total depth of 5,069 feet in lime.

Across the line, in southwestern Hockley County, Magnolia No. 1-G Mallett is drilling at 1,750 feet in red rock, while the firm's No. 2-G Mallett had reached 4,536 in anhydrite and lime.

Newest Simpson Prospect
Taubert, McKee & Stemonett No. 1 Mrs. Virginia W. Crockett, northern Pecos County wildcat which yesterday attracted interest by topping the Simpson, middle Ordovician, at 4,755 feet, 27 feet higher than a well to the north which headed off and gas from Simpson sand, this morning was drilled unchanged at 4,875 feet in lime. It is in section 4 1/2, block 3, H. & T. C. survey.

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 4 W. T. Shearer et ux, Ellenburger, lower Ordovician, test a quarter-mile northwest of the Apeo pool in Pecos, is drilling past 3,306 feet, still in Permian lime.

Landreth Production Corporation No. 1-C McDonald, in the Girvin area of northern Pecos, logged slight showing of oil in lime from 1,640-50 feet, total depth. Two and one-half inch tubing was set near bottom, and hole was swabbed dry. After a 12-hour shutdown, swab was run, and 500 feet of sulphur water was found in the hole. Operators now are preparing to drill deeper.

Amerada Petroleum Corporation No. 1 J. S. Todd Estate, lower Pennsylvanian test a half-mile west of the Todd Strawn pool in north central Crockett County, swabbed 21 barrels of oil and five barrels of salt water in nine hours on last test, while bottomed at 5,811 feet, back depth of 5,881 feet. Cement plug was drilled out to 5,912 feet, and hole was re-cemented to 5,880 with 80 sacks. The well now is standing while cement sets. It went originally to total depth of 6,074 feet in chert and was plugged back in an attempt to exclude salt water. Crinoidal lime of the Strawn, lower Pennsylvanian, was topped at 5,828 feet.

Continental Oil Company et al. No. 6 Todd Unit, quarter - mile south outpost to the pool, cemented 13-inch pipe at 478 feet with 388 sacks and is standing while cement sets. It went to present depth of 486 feet in red beds with spudder but now will rig up rotary to go to the deep zones.

Fifty-Foot Production In North Pecos Gains Name Of "Grassroots"

Latest field in West Texas to receive official Railroad Commission designation, the new shallow pool in northern Pecos County has been named the "Grassroots Field."

At present there are only two wells in the pool. E. C. Webster of Grandfalls Nos. 1 and 2 Clara Gray. They produce from a total depth of about 50 feet and have been granted a daily allowable of 10 barrels each. Webster recently purchased the properties from Otto E. Schkade, also of Grandfalls. Both wells are in section 107, block 8, H. & G. N. survey.

Legend has it that some 50 years ago, when the old Ink Ranch operated in the area, a water well was drilled near the present field which also produced some heavy black oil. The oil was used to grease windmills in that part of the country. Crude being pumped from the Webster wells is being put to a different use, however, that of oiling roads. It is only 14-gravity and too heavy to run through ordinary pipeline channels, but it is said also to contain ichthyol, which has valuable medicinal properties, and a more lucrative market may later be found by owner.

Scarborough Will Case Scheduled Here Thursday

Suit, contesting the will left by the late W. F. Scarborough, veteran Midland and Winkler county ranchman, is scheduled to be heard in district court here on October 10.

Scarborough was shot to death late in June 1939 by his son, Hollis Scarborough. The son later hanged himself after had been ruled insane.

Validity of the will was first contested by Mrs. Noma Scarborough, widow of Hollis, in Winkler county court; when no agreement was reached it was transferred to district court here.

Mrs. Scarborough is attempting to break the will on the ground it violates the Texas law against perpetuities by setting up long-time trusts for the heirs.

The well, in a death bed codicil made after the shooting near Kermit, disinherited Hollis Scarborough and his two children, Johnnie and Marcelle Scarborough.

Salesman, Wife Of Oil Man Discovered Dead At Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, Oct. 4 (AP)—Mrs. Gwendolyn Pelton, 34, Fort Worth housewife and wife of Herbert E. Pelton, oil man, and Gerald Earl Freeze, 41, salesman, were found shot to death this morning in an automobile just outside the city limits and near the Stove Foundry road.

Justice of the Peace Hurley returned an inquest verdict of "murder and suicide."

A pistol was gripped in the right hand of Freeze. The body of Mrs. Pelton was slumped under the wheel of the car, a coupe which belonged to her, while Freeze's body still was erect in the seat.

Mrs. Pelton was shot through the head. Freeze was shot through the right temple.

A blood-stained note was found in Freeze's trouser pocket.

Details Of Meeting Between the German, Italian Dictators Kept Secret After They Leave Brenner

Possible Place Of United States And Her Aid To Britain Believed Discussed; Extension Of War To Mediterranean Also Possible Topic

By The Associated Press
BRENNER, Italy, Oct. 4.—The directorate of the Rome-Berlin axis, Benito Mussolini and Adolf Hitler, held a three-hour council of war today and discussed "all the problems" confronting their countries, according to a communiqué issued just before their parting.

Hitler's armored train headed back through Brenner Pass at 2:40 p. m. and Il Duce's armored train rolled away southward five minutes later, leaving the world to wonder what, if any, world-rocking move had been planned.

Gayda Declares Duce, Fuehrer Sure Of Victory

By The Associated Press
ROME, Oct. 4 (AP)—Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini are so certain of victory they can now begin drafting "the great constructive lines of their new European and African edifice," Virginia Gayda, often Il Duce's editorial spokesman, declared today.

"The new points" decided by the axis leaders at their Brenner meeting today, Gayda added, "are destined to affect deeply the course of the war and the political and economic evolution of the continents into which the war of the axis more directly cuts."

The editor of Il Giornale D'Italia declared "the world may be sure" that the two leaders "do not move only for formal meetings."

Usually well-informed sources suggested that relations between the United States and the Rome-Berlin axis occupied Hitler and Mussolini at the Brenner meeting.

BIG THINGS SAID "IN THE OFFING"

BERLIN, Oct. 4 (AP)—German authorized sources declared today that the very fact that Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini were meeting together in the Brenner Pass was indication that big things were in the offing which might become evident soon.

These sources expressed the greatest indignation that the meeting was revealed prematurely, saying any movement of the chief of state was a military secret.

They declared that in event of a repetition they might invoke German espionage laws under which, they said, foreign journalists will fall as well as anybody else.

WOMAN DRIVES INTO STORE FOR SHOPPING

ANDERSON, S. C., Oct. 4 (AP)—During the excitement of a downtown fire a small coupe skidded a curb and rammed into the front of a department store.

Disentangling herself, an elderly lady emerged from the car and said she was in a hurry to get to the department store.

"Lady," said the store manager, "you're in it. What can we do for you?"

Italians Mass 130,000 Troops, Tanks On The Frontier Of Greece As "Big Events" Said In Offing

By J. Reilly O'Sullivan Associated Press Staff Writer
Italian troops, 130,000 strong with 120 tanks, were reported massing near the Greek frontier today while Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini met at historic Brenner Pass amid reports that "big events" were in the offing.

Reports from Athens said Italian troops in Italian-dominated Albania had shifted to new positions along the Greek frontier within the last few days.

The Italian press has repeatedly turned its propaganda guns on Greece, asserting that the ancient kingdom was being made a "pawn" of Great Britain.

Troop movements from Italy to Albania, Italy's recently acquired territory in the Balkans, have been frequent recently, and numerous ships are available in the Adriatic to speed additional forces across the narrow sea if needed, Greek government circles said.

Official sources, however, expressed belief that Italian strength in Albania still was under 200,000 men.

"All precautions have been taken by Greece against surprise from any quarter," official quarters declared.

The Fascist press several weeks ago voiced demands for a share of Greece's northern Epirus on behalf of Albania.

Reports of Italian troop movement reached here as Adolf Hitler and Premier Mussolini were engaged in a dramatic conference at Brenner Pass.

The Greek army is virtually on a basis of "permanent concentration." Border garrisons have been fully manned since the anti-Greek campaign in the Italian press became hottest more than a month ago.

The government decreed that all unoccupied houses in the country could be requisitioned should air raids force removal of populations from cities.

Greek interest was focused on the Brenner Pass and what it might bring this nation, which has a guarantee of aid from Britain should her independence or territorial integrity be threatened.

American Legion Post Commander Points Out Ways And Methods To Show Respect To The American Flag

For the benefit of the general public, business concerns, schools, school children, churches and individuals in connection with the use of the United States Flag for display purposes on special occasions, national holidays, etc., Post Commander, W. B. Bob Preston of Woods W. Lynch Post No. 19, American Legion, Midland, give herewith "The Flag Code" as prepared by the United States Navy for civilian observation together with the Pledge to the Flag:

The National Flag should be raised and lowered by hand. It should be displayed only from sunrise to sunset, or between such hours, may be designated by proper authority.

Do not raise the Flag while it is furled. Unfurl, then hoist quickly to the top of the staff. Lower it slowly and with dignity.

When the Flag is hung as a banner across and over the center of a street running east and west, the union should be to the north and to the east in a street running north and south.

Where the National Flag is displayed with State or other flags, it should be given the place of honor on the right. Display the flag upon a staff when possible. Place no objects on or over the Flag. Various articles are sometimes placed on a speaker's table covered with the Flag. This practice should be avoided.

Always let the flag hang straight. Do not festoon over doors or arches or tie it in a bow knot. Use red, white and blue bunting for decorative purposes.

When flags are used in unveiling a statue or monument they should not be allowed to fall to the ground, but should be carried aloft, forming a feature of the ceremony.

Take every precaution to prevent the Flag from becoming soiled. It should not be allowed to touch the ground or floor, nor to brush against objects.

Before being placed at half-mast the Flag should be raised to the top of the staff. Before lowering it should be hoisted to the top. On Memorial Day, display at half-mast until noon only, then hoist to top of staff.

When displayed in the chancel or on a platform in a church, the Flag should be placed on staff at the clergyman's right; other flags at his left. If displayed in the body of the church, the Flag should be at the congregation's right as they face the clergyman.

Do not use the Flag as a portion of a costume or athletic uniform. Do not embroider on cushions or handkerchiefs nor print it on paper napkins or boxes.

When carried in a procession, military or otherwise, the Flag should be borne to the right of regimental or other flags.

Pledge To The Flag
"I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Rules For Saluting U. S. Flag
"During the ceremony of hoisting or lowering the Flag, or when the Flag is passing in a parade or in a review, all persons present should face the Flag, stand at attention, and salute. Those present in uniform should render the right-hand salute. When not in uniform, men should remove headdress with the right hand, and hold it at the left shoulder. Women should salute by placing the right hand over the heart. The salute to the Flag in the moving column is rendered at the

Whose Fault Will It Be?

How close the United States may be today to an actual declaration of war will be much better determined by historians 20 years hence.

The people in this country do not want war. They will not have it if it can be avoided with honor. But if Congress is forced to meet some black day and declare war against an aggressor nation, it will be neither the people nor the government who will have forced us into the conflict. Sole responsibility will rest upon the closed corporation of Napoleons who have found the rest of the world too small for their pillaging operations.

War in this country can never begin over any one "incident." Rather it will come after an accumulation of indignities, of atrocities, of gestures calculated to indicate a complete lack of respect for the sovereignty of a democratic people. It will come, if it comes, only after the horror that is being inflicted on the innocent becomes too great to be endured even vicariously.

Historians today are well aware that the Lusitania disaster just before our entrance into World War I was not in itself responsible for the United States' decision to get into the fight. It helped to crystallize feeling against Germany, of course. But fundamentally, that antagonism already existed before the boat was torpedoed.

It began in the first year of the war, when German troops cut through Belgium and Holland in complete disregard of international law. This enmity toward Germany was fanned during the next three years by humiliations American craft experienced on the high seas, by reports of submarines lurking in American waters, by the brazen operations of German agents on the American continent.

No one dragged the United States into that war but the Kaiser. At the moment of its beginning, Americans were resigned to neutrality, were not even certain which side they favored.

If the moral support of virtually the whole of the American people means anything, we are already in World War II. As new events unfold, as the dictatorial nations become bolder and sign new treaties to emphasize their right to destruction, hatred for the methods of totalitarianism becomes more intense among Americans.

The total defense we have at last undertaken may be the instrument needed to keep us out of war—to keep war away from us. Americans hope it is. But if it becomes necessary to emphasize our devotion to democracy in any other way, we shall be ready.

If that time ever comes, remember—the aggressor nations will have asked for it.

Folks need time to catch up with the government. Just when they start realizing how much a million dollars is, they start working on the billions.

The tardy and wayward Londoner at least has an excuse for wife these days. "Sorry, dear. Another of those air raids, y'know."

Well, they finally got around to glass slippers for women. One coy look from every Cinderella can make a shoe clerk feel like Prince Charming.

Side Glances

"Dear, I know this is your home town and you'd like to snub a certain few of your old friends—but remember I'm trying to get votes!"

OUR COUNTRY

Twenty-third of 24 articles on "Our Country" written exclusively for NEA Service and The Reporter-Telegram by the nation's most famous authors.

By Stewart Edward White, Author of "Long Rifle," "Story of California," "Ranchero," etc.

IT is a commonplace to say that it is up to us—the United States—to preserve democracy for the world, now that it has practically collapsed out of Europe. But I think our job is bigger than merely preserving a form of government. There is to be a drastic readjustment. Nobody—anywhere—is going to live just as he lived before. There is going to be a new pattern, and we have the chance to blueprint that pattern. And it has got to be a new pattern. Otherwise we shall land—later—just where this one has landed the rest of the world.

History has come to the basis of self-preservation, with the accompanying greed, indifference to the other fellow, hatreds, cruelties and treacheries necessary to carry out that scheme of things. We have fatuously returned to that basis every time we have been jarred away from it by catastrophe, though mere self-preservation is no longer the vital issue. And our devotion to it has obscured for us the two underpinning truths on which this "democracy" we talk about depends.

THE creator is more important than the thing-created, no matter what it is. When the thing-created is made more important, you have totalitarianism.

Now we have this job of "preserving democracy" and redesigning the pattern for life because ordinarily our republic was laid down pretty much in accord with those two principles. Originally, we have backed somewhat, especially lately. We have been exalting the thing-created at the expense of the creator.

It has not taken us many years to build that golden calf, but the thing we are beginning to sacrifice to it are the slow growth of age long struggle. Such simple things as sacredness of promise; sense of moral obligation; ordinary veracity; personal integrity; individual liberty; elementary justice—what we

Parachute Troops Of U. S. To Demonstrate For S. A. Visitors

FORT BENNING, Ga., Oct. 4 (AP)—The United States army is planning to unveil results of several months experimental training for parachute troops before 20 army chiefs of nine Latin American nations, here on a tour of this country's defense preparations.

The mass jump—the first semi-public demonstration by the army—is scheduled for Saturday morning and will follow today's demonstration of more than 25,000 troops at this largest infantry post in North America.

Fifteen men of a group of 40 soldiers and two officers, who have been training in various sections of the country the past several months, will drop from an army transport near Lawson Field—the Fort's airport.

The visiting chiefs of staff from Bolivia, Colombia, Costa Rica, Peru, Guatemala, Honduras and Uruguay, and high ranking officers from the Dominican Republic and Panama will see Red and Blue forces opposing each other in extensive action today.

The visiting officers left Washington Wednesday and visited Langley Field and Fort Monroe in Virginia before coming here. They will fly to San Antonio, Tex., Saturday, stopping briefly at Barksdale Field, La.

YESTERDAY: Kitty finds Vera's glove in the office, but Vera explains its loss easily. Mr. Clark is worse. Sue Mary realizes that she can't help her, that she must solve the problem herself. What if Nick and Vera have anticipated discovery. In that case Sue Mary would be made a fool.

"MEET ME HERE—TONIGHT" CHAPTER XXIII LUNCHTIME came and Sue Mary put on the wide-brimmed straw hat that made her look like a little girl, deepened the golden glints in her brown eyes. Her tan linen dress flared from the hips in the same way it had delighted her, when she had worn it for the first time weeks ago. The bangies on her wrist still jingled merrily, but she was too absorbed in her distraught thoughts to feel the confidence a well-groomed girl usually possesses.

"So blind you can't see me?" he demanded, taking her by the elbows and showing her back away from the crowd coming from the elevators. "I'm not sure that pleases me."

"She drew a frightened breath, but managed to hide her fears and smile. "After all, one doesn't expect to see you here."

"But here I am, and guess why?" His dark face was close to hers and his eyes looked deep into her startled brown ones.

"To see you, my dear. When a man in love he wants to see his girl. And there seem to be less and less chances these days. Sue Mary you know that. At the hall there are always people; people wanting me to do this and that; asking questions, wanting to talk. And at the apartment—"

"He shrugged his shoulders. "Well, there's either Vera or Natalie—"

"But Nick—"

"She had a feeling that they didn't trust her. She knew they didn't respect nor fear her intelligence. To them she was still the naive, lonely little girl who, strange and bewildered, with nothing to do and nowhere to go, had fallen into their group. She had swallowed their philosophy, followed their course, allowed herself to be used to their advantage.

If she could only think. If she could only see what to do. She knew she couldn't stand idly by and permit them to carry out their plan. Every instinct of decency, every instinct of Americanism within her rebelled. They didn't know the meaning of patriotism. She smiled a little. I'm thinking like a Girl Scout, she said to herself.

Only, in these days, patriotism had suddenly become something vital and terribly important. With a world cranking about you, with your country—the country in which

National Defense Contracts To Texas Total $41,442,988

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 4.—National defense contracts totaling $27,610,787 were awarded to Texas concerns during the six weeks' period which ended September 15, Governor W. Lee O'Daniel has reported to his industrialization committee throughout the State.

Transmitting figures furnished him by the office of government reports, the Governor announced that this brought the amount of such contracts awarded in Texas since June 13, to a total of $41,442,988.

This does not include the contract let on September 9 for the construction of twelve destroyers at Orange, the governor said. The exact contract price for these vessels has not been announced.

The governor's office is serving as the state headquarters for the national defense advisory commission at Washington, and the staff of the Texas industrialization program, organized last February, has taken over a great variety of duties in this connection, O'Daniel stated.

Industrial mobilization for national defense, as it pertains to Texas, will continue to receive major emphasis during the period of the crisis, it was indicated.

National defense awards during the six weeks which ended September 15, covered a great number of projects and items of different size and nature. The largest single contract was that awarded for the your parents and grand-parents had worked and toiled and lived to make it free and safe—now faced with stark danger—patriotism was much more than a word, or a verse, or a line from a poem.

IT wouldn't have been so bad, she thought, if I could stop and think this out clearly, sanely, but there's Joe, too. What was happening to him?

She closed her eyes and pictured him in the hospital, quiet, motionless on the white bed, his blood head swathed in bandages, doctors and nurses moving about him; consultations, X-rays, diagnoses, operations.

Life without Joe—She gripped the marble top of the counter—as she felt her head swim in dizzy circles and a pall of blackness began to descend. The coolness of the marble, the freeze from the fan gave her strength. Somehow she got back to the office.

There was a note on her desk Call Mercy Hospital. She had left her number and begged she be notified of any change. Now something had happened.

She tried to dial the number, but her fingers shook so that the numbers slipped by aimlessly. Tears dimmed her eyes so that she could barely see.

If he was worse—But she didn't dare think of that. He couldn't die. Couldn't leave her. She dialed the number again and waited for the answer.

Alleged British Sabotage Probed By the Rumanians

BUCHAREST, Oct. 4 (AP)—Eighteen Rumanian battle planes flew in a "defensive reconnaissance flight" over Rumanian oil fields and Bucharest authorities said today as they pressed an investigation of alleged British sabotage plots against gasoline shipments for Germany.

Some of the planes were German-made Messerschmitts.

"Secret police for hours questioned A. Miller, director of the British-dominated Astra-Romana Oil Company, who was suddenly turned over to them today by persons reported to have kidnaped him two days ago.

British legation officials, after interviewing the oil man in his cell, said he had been beaten during the 48 hours he had been held by a band of youths in plain-clothes.

The British legation promised a "sensational statement" later about the Miller case.

It said that still unknown was the whereabouts of Percy Clark, 60, president of the Apostol Oil Engineering firm, who the legation charged was kidnaped yesterday in circumstances similar to the seizure of Miller.

Muhlenbrock Gets Life Imprisonment

REDWOOD CITY, Calif., Oct. 4 (AP)—Wilhelm Muhlenbrock was sentenced to life imprisonment today for the kidnaping of three-year-old Marc De Tristan, Jr.

The German alien was sentenced exactly two weeks after he snatched the little boy from a Hillsborough street in what he planned as the "perfect kidnaping."

He stood as though transfixed as Superior Judge Maxwell McNeill pronounced sentence "to the term and time fixed by law," and wrote finis to Muhlenbrock's miscarried plans. When the Judge had completed the sentencing, the kidnaper stood behind the bench and his attorneys had to call to him to sit down.

District Attorney Gilbert D. Ferrer asked the court to include in the "record that the child was returned to his parents without being harmed."

Midland Boy Wins Honor At Kemper

BOONVILLE, Mo., Oct. 4.—Having lived under the Standard of Honor for one year, Bobby York, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. York of south H street, Midland, Texas, was honored by Kemper Military School by being given the privilege of signing the institution's Standard of Honor.

The Standard of Honor is the fundamental law of the Kemper Corps and is signed each year by boys who have proved their integrity.

The Midland Bulldogs make their first conference try tonight when they meet the San Angelo Bobcats at 8 p. m. on Lackey Field. Coach Taylor has been working the boys on some new plays behind barred gates all this week in preparation for what is slated to be one of the hardest games of the Midland team's schedule.

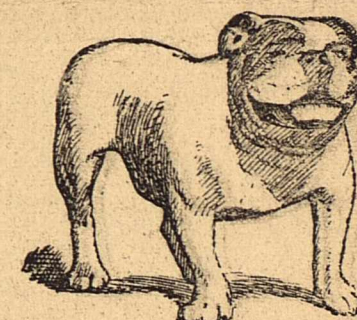

Taylor's eleven has done very well for itself in the previous games, and the fans are expecting a thriller.

Last week, the Bulldogs went down before a strong Austin High (El Paso) team, but not without showing plenty of mettle, and it is reported that they will carry their part of the San Angelo game with strong offensive action.

The game tonight should be more spectacular than the previous Bulldog matches, because Coach Taylor is expected to have the boys playing wide and passing extensively. The Bobcats outweigh the Midland team 15 pounds per player.

This is the first conference game, and will have a great deal to do with the standing of our team in the final tally, for San Angelo is picked by many sports writers for first place on the conference roll at the season's end.

Everybody will want to be out at Lackey Field early to assure themselves good seats. Get your tickets now, and be out there to watch the Midland Bulldogs tackle San Angelo in the race for conference honors. All Midland fans are confident that the Bulldogs can do the work, so it is up to us fans to watch them put the bee on the favorites.

Thumbs Up, for Uncle Sam

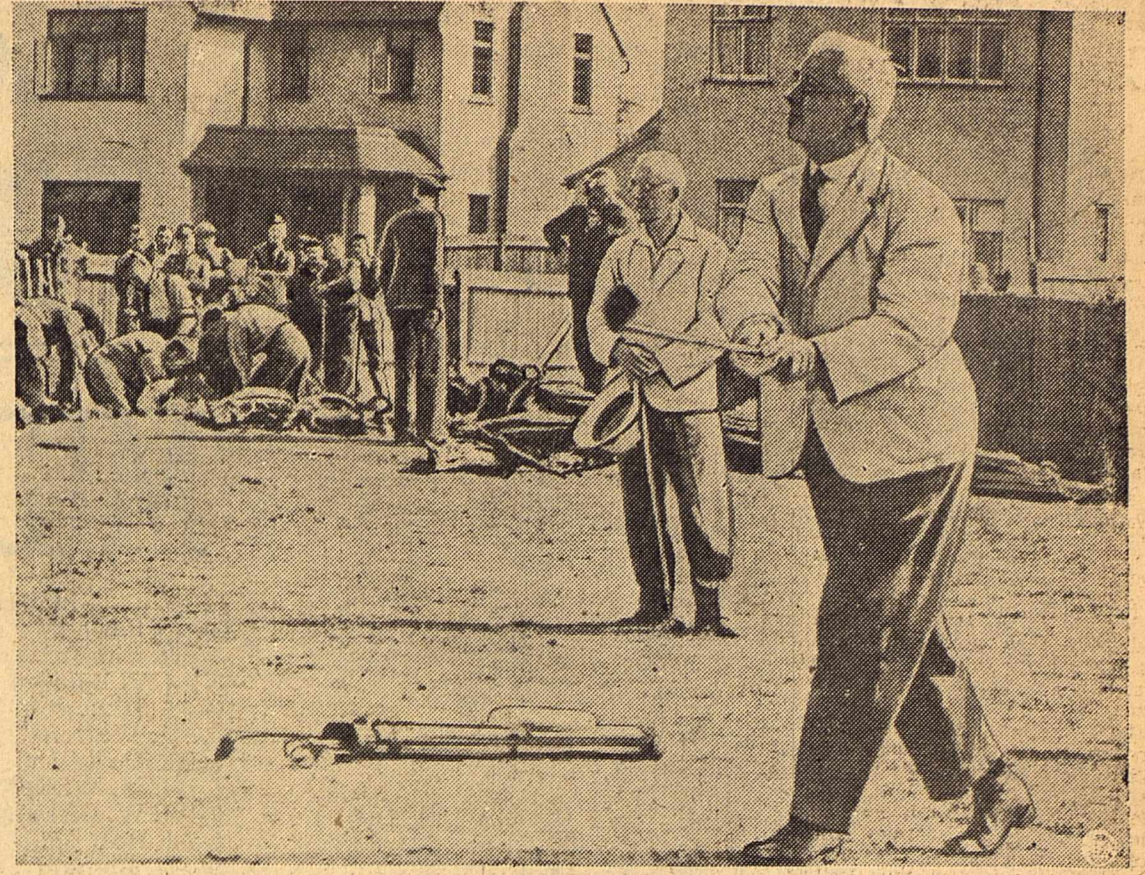

President Roosevelt recently told America—and the world—that "Today 50,000 young Americans are licensed fliers, and the number is growing by almost 2000 a month." Here's one of the youngsters the President had in mind—getting the thrill of his fledgling life, the "thumbs up" signal from his instructor, indicating he's on his own for his first solo flight. Photo, taken at Randolph Field, Tex., shows Flying Cadet Paul Epperson, of Pasadena, Calif., and Lt. C. C. Pratt, of Knoxville, Tenn.

Interception!

Here's a perfect picture of what gives forward pass receivers gray hairs. Mühlenberg's Franklin (10) thought he had a pass all safely snagged until Temple's Bilikiewicz leaped into the picture and stole it from him. Interception occurred in recent night game at Temple Stadium, Philadelphia, where Temple eleven trounced the visiting team 64-7.

"Fore!" (After Hazard)

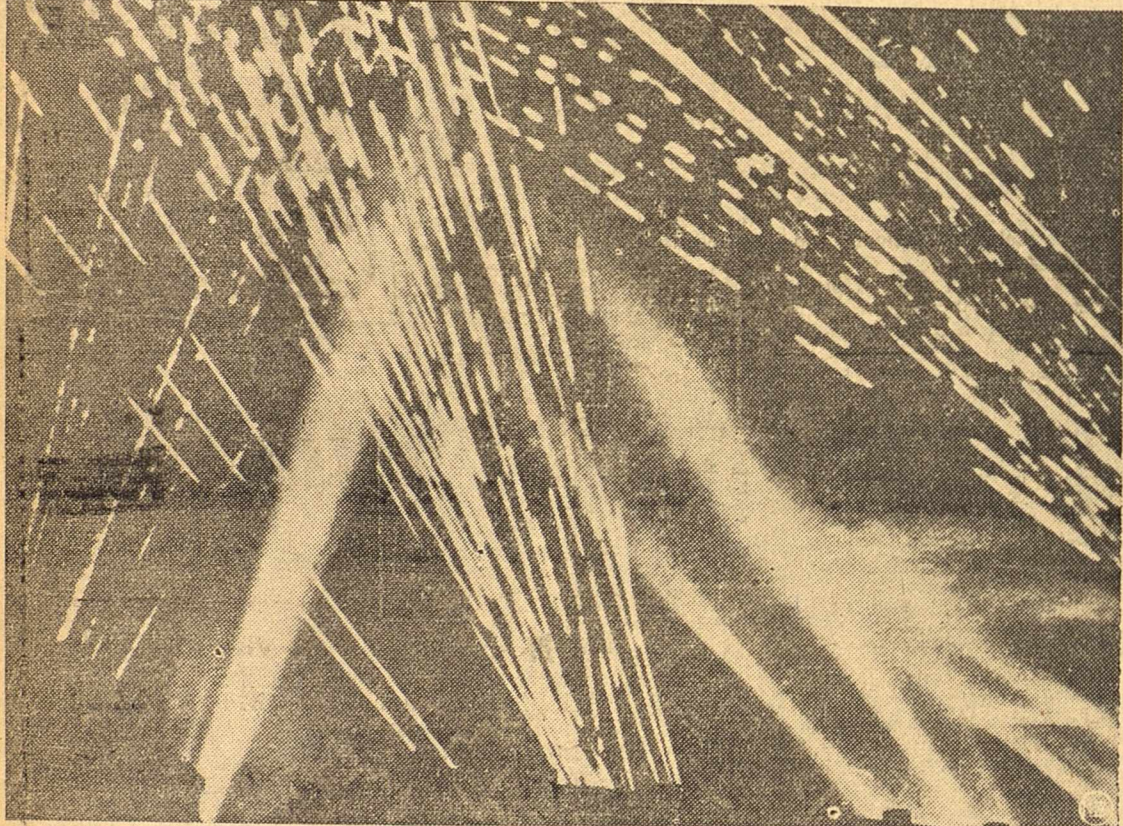

You've heard of British aplomb. Now you can picture it. Londoners, above, tee off on outskirts of British capital to continue game interrupted while, according to British censor, R.A.F. Spitfire downed Nazi Messerschmitt. In background, soldiers dig out remains of crashed raider—now just another hazard on the links.

America on Guard!

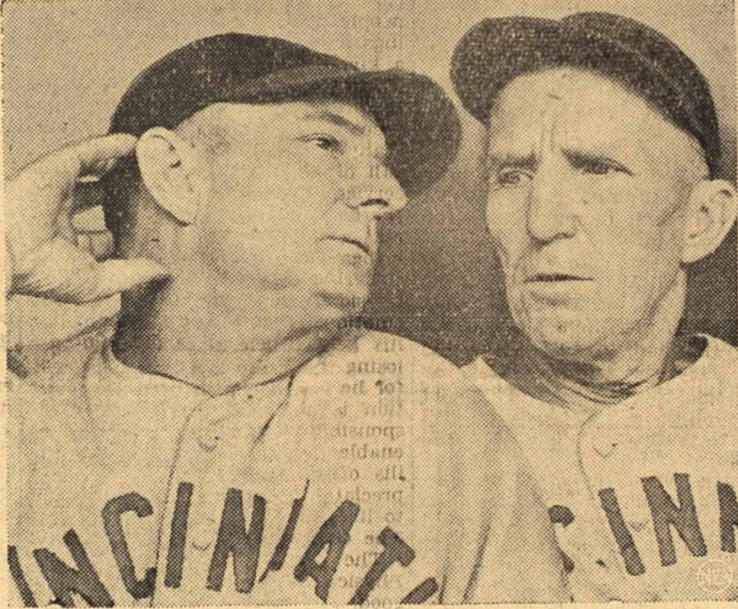

America on guard! Bayonet fixed, eyes ahead, mouth determined, this modern American doughboy symbolizes the national resolve to prepare the U. S. for all eventualities. Sgt. Arthur Schworzel, above, Army regular at Fort Dix, N. J., demonstrates what the finished product should look like after hundreds of thousands of civilians all over the nation complete the year of military training called for by the recently-passed conscription bill.

Blazing Nazi Reception to British Raiders

This spectacular blaze of light is no giant July Fourth celebration. It's fireworks in earnest, as German searchlights grope skies and anti-aircraft batteries spit tracer bullets "against British air pirates during their attack on a German city," according to Nazi censor's caption.

Traffic Warning: "Trouble Ahead"

Motorists entering the Metropolitan area of London from suburban areas where no alarm has been sounded are warned by roadside signs that Germans are attacking. An air raid warden stands by to give further information.

This Gun Hurls Its Own Pigeon

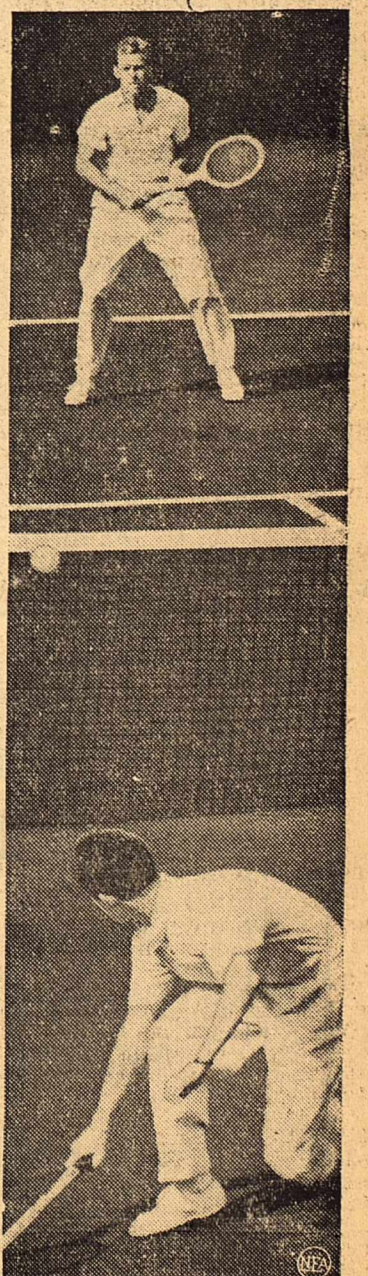

This device permits a shooter to practice trapshooting in an open field without assistance. It consists of a 14-ounce trap, fitted with a circular target attached to a .22-caliber shotgun or rifle. The trap trigger is pulled to hurl the target, then the gun trigger is pressed for shooting. Emily Walker demonstrates at the hunters' and winter sports show in Chicago.

He Didn't Miss the Buss

Marjorie Pandel, of Long Beach, Cal., is soundly bussed by Private Ralph Smith, as his pals of the 251st Coast Artillery grin in the background. Soldier's farewell occurred as artillerymen left with other California National Guard units for year's service with regular army.

Riggs' Revenge

Bobby Riggs, foreground, defeats Don McNeill in Los Angeles for Pacific Southwest men's singles championship, 5-7, 2-6, 6-0, 12-10, 6-3. Riggs wins in same manner as McNeill beat him at Forest Hills for national title . . . takes last three sets.

This youngster forgot his ills in the thrill of getting Wendell Willkie's autograph. Above, Mrs. Willkie looks on as the G. O. P. candidate for President signs a card for the young patient during a recent visit to the Shrine Hospital in Portland, Ore.

Press agents being notorious practitioners of the old army game, it's no surprise that beautiful Margie Hart, burlesque queen, was "worried" that national guardsmen might get lonely during year's active duty. She sent Maj. Gen. William Haskell, New York commandant, 5000 autographed copies of her photo, above, asked him to distribute them to his troops. She specified "bachelors only."

Morning Coffee Is Courtesy For Catholic Women

With new members of the parish as specially-honored guests the Catholic women of Midland were entertained with a coffee at the home of Mrs. J. W. McMillen, 2201 W. Missouri, this morning from 10 o'clock until 11. Informality was stressed as the keynote of the affair which was designed to further acquaintance among women of St. George's Catholic Church.

The coffee table was centered with an attractive arrangement of a horn of plenty filled with autumn fruits and pyracantha. Vari-colored pottery added to the brightness of the service.

BULLDOGS MEET SAN ANGELO BOBCATS HERE TONIGHT AT EIGHT

Heavy Visitors Favored To Beat Midland Eleven

The age-old question of whether a good little man can whip a good big man will get an 11-fold test tonight at eight o'clock out at Lackey field when the Midland high school Bulldogs meet the heavy San Angelo Bobcats.

Strictly with the idea of giving out information and not alibing, Coach Bud Taylor of the Bulldogs reported this morning that at least five of the first string boys were suffering from bad colds that are certain to affect their efficiency.

Halfback Gordon Bigham has had a case of "walking flu" all week and has not participated in a drill by the team. He has been at the field for each drill, learning assignments on the new plays issued by the coach, but has not been suited out. Jim White, the other halfback, is still limping because of a twisted knee he received in the game last week and will be slowed up considerably.

The Bulldogs will go into the game outweighed eight pounds per player. The visitors have a 10-pound advantage in the line and a five-pound advantage in the backfield.

The Bobcats rely mainly on their heavy line to make holes for scat backs Chase and Dodson. When the line is not moving out opposing forwards well enough to suit a big fullback named Hill, who weighs 182 pounds, quite often is able to smash them himself. There is no finesse about Hill. He either runs over them or does not advance. When he isn't running over opposing players Chase and Dodson are likely to be trying to go around them.

Taylor will counter the line plunging of Hill with some by Wendell Williams, quarterback of the Bulldogs. Williams weighs in at 175 pounds and has scored in every game played by the Bulldogs this season. He is also fast enough that he can sweep ends or cut off tackle when the situation demands. In last week's game, El Paso sports writers called him the best backfield man they had seen in high school this year.

It is a cinch the Bulldogs will try plenty of wide plays and passes tonight. The pass offensive has been weak all season but Williams was hitting his marks in practice during drills this week better than heretofore.

The winner of tonight's game will be out in front in the league pennant chase—along with the winner of the Odessa-Lamesa game—since these are the first two conference affairs booked.

Sports Roundup

DETROIT, Oct. 4 (AP)—Football tip: Tomorrow's Notre Dame-College of the Pacific score will be closer than a lot of youse guys think. . . Apparently Powel Crosley, Jr., isn't worrying about the world's series, even if he does own the Red Sox. . . Last weekend he went to New Mexico on a fishing expedition and hasn't been seen since. . . Told pals Giles and McKechnie could run the club good enough to suit him. . . Clark Griffith says Cleveland has no business tinkering with Bucky Harris (if they have) because he is under contract. . . Paul Derringer admitted today he bet $1,000 on himself to win Wednesday's opener. . .

Sports Cocktail: Birdie Tebbets and Charlie Gehring of the Tigers will leave on a Caribbean cruise immediately after the series. . . Both of Texas Christian's first string ends are converted fullbacks. . . Charles Bicknell, a triple threat sophomore and a former mayor of Father Flanagan's famous Boy's Town, near Omaha, Neb., is battling hard for a regular berth on the U. of Portland (Ore) grid squad this year.

Short Shorts

Since returning to the majors Jimmy Rippie has swatted five homers, each of which won a ball game. . . This week's football special: Virginia to trim Yale. . . Harold Hanna of Cedar Rapids, Ia., will get two tickets to the Iowa-Wisconsin football game from the Cedar Rapids Gazette for correctly calling the finishing positions of eight National League teams. . . Back to amateurism, eh? . . . U. of South Carolina, which has been importing gridgers from Pennsylvania and other foreign points and getting nowhere rapidly, apparently had given it up as a bad job. . . Anyway, word from down there is that 21 of the 26 members of the yearling squad are from South Carolina.

Barker Uses Coin To Pick Nebraska, Tennessee In Wins

By Herb Barker

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—Aiming at the week's football winners and maybe hitting a few:

TENNESSE-DUKE: Two great southern powers in Saturday's stand-out game, marked by a renewal of the personal rivalry between Bob Neyland and Wallace Wade. The coin spins and says Tennessee.

MINNESOTA-NEBRASKA: Another even-steven affair. Minnesota looked fast and alert against Washington; Nebraska supposedly is coming up with a real power-house such as the Huskers used to put on the field. Out of the hat. . . Nebraska.

CORNELL-COLGATE: Cornell.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA-OREGON STATE: A flier on Oregon State.

PRINCETON-VANDERBILT: The visiting Commodores should find out whether Princeton is as good as touted. Princeton.

NORTHWESTERN over Syracuse.

OHIO-STATE-PURDUE: Those Buckeyes look like the goods. Ohio State.

PITT-MISSOURI: It's just possible Paul Christman will pass the Panthers dizzy but this hunch ball goes to Pitt.

INDIANA-TEXAS: One of the toughest of them all. Bo McMillin.

may have a sleeper at Indiana this year but the choice here is Texas. MICHIGAN over Michigan State. SANTA CLARA over UCLA. YALE over Virginia. STANFORD over Oregon. ST. MARYS over California. WASHINGTON over Idaho. TEXAS CHRISTIAN - ARKANSAS: No way to judge so the coin says TCU.

TEXAS AGGIES-TULSA: The Aggies but it might be close.

SOUTHERN METHODIST-NORTH TEXAS TEACHERS: Baylor just got past the Teachers a week ago but the choice must be Southern Methodist.

RICC-CENTENARY: Taking Rice.

NOTRE DAME - COLLEGE OF PACIFIC: Apparently A. A. Stagg's bringing the far westerners into South Bend mostly for educational purposes. Notre Dame.

MARQUETTE - WISCONSIN: Probably close but we'll take a chance on Wisconsin.

TULANE-AUBURN: It's hard to believe Tulane is as bad as it looked against Boston College. Put it down to sheer stubbornness but this vote goes to Tulane.

LOUISIANA STATE - HOLY CROSS: Don't risk any fortune on this. Out comes the coin and reads. . . Holy Cross.

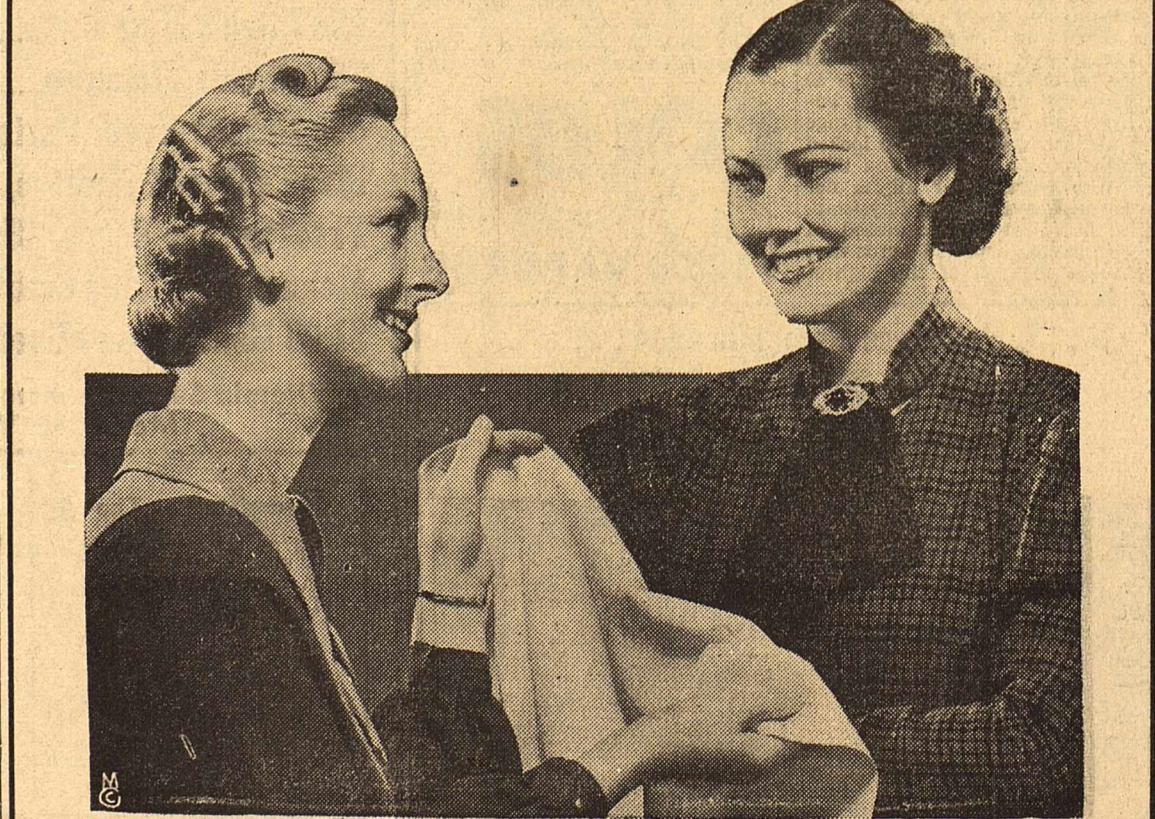

KANSAS STATE-COLORADO: A flier on Colorado.

OKLAHOMA-OKLAHOMA A. & M.: Picking Oklahoma.

DENVER-BAYLOR: Taking Baylor.

Baylor, Texas Picked To Win Over Denver And Indiana Clubs

By Felix R. McKnight

DALLAS, Oct. 4 (AP)—The Baylor Bear goes over the mountains in mid-high Denver tonight, moving Southwest Conference clubs into a cluster of six weekend games, one of which opens League play.

The Bayers leave the prairies of Texas to enter the rarefied atmosphere of the Rockies for a date with tough Denver University, and the homefolk are leery of it all because of the sudden climatic change.

Only last Saturday Colorado University slipped down into Austin and lasted about 34 minutes, giving way to weariness and fatigue that permitted Texas to run four touchdowns over them in the fading minutes.

The tip is that Baylor, usually dependent upon a hard running game, may switch to an easier-going aerial routine against a Denver team that opened last week with a victory over Iowa State.

Big Jack Wilson, the tremendous Baylor ball carrier, and his old running mates, Jimmy Witt, Weldon Bigony and Milton Merka, will be ready. Too, it is almost certain that sophomore Milton Crain, the 210-pound speedster, will be ready after nursing hurts for two weeks.

Climate or no climate, it's Baylor in these books—with a very sudden reversal of the form they showed against North Texas State last Saturday.

To Bloomington, Ind., goes Texas for an afternoon with Bo McMillin's Indiana Hoosiers. One of the closest games of the nation's card, with Cowboy Jack Crain and the brilliant Hal Hurst slated for a duel, it could go either way. But D. X. Bible started his crew in the right direction by swamping Colorado and should shave past the Hoosiers with a superior passing attack.

Over in Fort Worth the Arkansas Razorbacks, old linex of Texas Christian, come to town for the conference opener. The Christians have more than first suspected—a grand collection of sophomore backs who can scat.

If the going gets too rough, Kyle Gillespie, the one-man gang, is likely to bow in for the first time this season, despite his knee.

Coach Dutch Meyer kept him out of the Centenary game and has indicated he would be used only in emergencies during the Arkansas battle. These two teams play hair-raisingly annually, but TCU should put it away on speed and defensive play.

Baptism of Rice Institute under a new regime—the Jess Neely regime—takes place at Houston tomorrow night.

The Owls, a faster, better conditioned team than Owl supporters have seen in years, start off against battered Centenary, which, with eager sophomores in the lineup after a general overhauling by TCU may be a good test. Neely has in T. A. Weems, Gene Keel and Dick Dwell, a likely trio of sophs to sandwich in with a flock of veteran backs and linemen.

Rice to give Neely an appropriate sendoff—but not an avalanche.

The Texas Aggies play at San Antonio against Tulsa. Its another Aggie victory, going away. Tulsa has a rough club, one that has almost dared John Kimbrough and Jim Thomason, two very destructive forces, to run against it. At last reports, brothers Kimbrough and Thomason had accepted the challenge, which means football hungry San Antonio will see lots of power.

Southern Methodist, suddenly struck at the vital tackle posts, will be missing two giants in the line but should prove that North Texas' showing against Baylor was a "one night stand." The Methodists, back in the sunshine and dry weather after licking UCLA on a dew-covered field at night, should romp with passes and runs from nine veteran backs.

Longview And Port Arthur Game Tops On Gridiron Slate

By The Associated Press

A battle between Longview and Port Arthur at Longview headlines a schedule of 44 Texas schoolboy football games today and to night as the campaign completes its first month.

Undeclared and untied—and each unscathed on—the game will go a long long way toward setting up the favorite in the lower bracket of the state race.

Amarillo's mighty Sandies meet Capitol Hill of Oklahoma City at Amarillo in another outstanding game—a game in which the high-ranking Sandstorm is due to be sorely tested.

Five games were played last night. Arlington Heights beginning its search for the Port Worth district title with a 20-7 victory over Poly and favored Brackenridge downing Harlandale 27-6 in the San Antonio district.

Lamar beat Milby 18-0 in a Houston district conference game.

Arlington defeated class A Weatherford 25-7 and Bowie (El Paso) battled Mexico City YMCA to a 13-13 tie in an international encounter at El Paso.

LEAVE FOR BORGER

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kirkham and son, Jimmie, left this morning to make their home in Borger, where he will be assistant manager of theatres. The former assistant manager of the Borger theatres will come to Midland in the transfer.

When the flag passes. When the national anthem is played, those present in uniform should salute at the first note of the anthem, retaining this position until the last note of the anthem. When not in uniform, men should remove the headdress and hold it as in the salute to the flag. Women should render the salute as to the flag. When there is no flag displayed, all should face the music. In display of the flag, the following "Cautions" are fifteen things to avoid in connection with the use of the American flag. 1. Do not permit disrespect to be shown to the flag of the United States of America. 2. Do not dip the flag of the United States to any person or anything. The regimental color, state flag, organization or institutional flag will render this honor. 3. Do not display the flag with the union down except as a signal of distress. 4. Do not place any other flag or pennant above, or, if on the same level, to the right of the flag of the United States of America. 5. Do not let the flag touch the ground, or the floor, or trail in the water. 6. Do not place any object or emblem of any kind on or above the flag of the United States of America. 7. Do not drape the flag over any form whatsoever. Use bunting of red, white and blue. 8. Do not fasten the flag in any manner so will permit it to be torn. 9. Do not drape the flag over the hood top, sides or back of a vehicle or of a railroad train or boat. When the flag is displayed on a motor car, the staff should be affixed firmly to the chassis or clamped to the radiator cap. 10. Do not display the flag on a float in a parade except from a staff. 11. Do not display the flag as a covering for the ceiling. 12. Do not carry the flag flat or horizontally, but always aloft and free. 13. Do not use the flag as a portion of a costume or of an athletic uniform. Do not embroider it upon cushions or handkerchiefs nor print it on paper napkins or boxes. 14. Do not use the flag in any form of advertising nor fasten an advertising sign to a pole from which the flag is flown. 15. Do not display, use or store the flag in such manner as will permit it to be easily soiled or damaged. Post Commander W. B. but casualties and damage were said to be light. New raids started this morning, however. Although the British reported the Royal Air Force had again attacked objectives in Germany during the night, Berlin had no alarm and Nazi "invasion bases" along the channel apparently escaping pounding. In Egypt the British sought to frustrate a possible resumption of the Italian land offensive by striking at enemy sources of water supply—key to the success of desert warfare. RAF planes blasted at water storage tanks erected by the Italians at their advance post of Buq Buq and returning fliers reported they had done heavy damage. British warships returned to their base at Alexandria after a four-day cruise in the Eastern Mediterranean without incident. The British said their scouting planes had sighted Italian naval units about 100 miles away, but they were steaming for home and no contact was made. The British landed reinforcements at Malta.

"fairly favorable results are expected." Konoze was on his way back to Tokyo after a formal journey to the Grand Shrines at Ise to report his recent assumption of the Premiership to Amatsu, the Sun Goddess, Chief Deity of the Japanese. SHANGHAI, Oct. 4 (AP)—A general withdrawal of American women and children from the Far East, especially China, appeared probable today as the feeling grew among Americans that conflicting Japanese and United States policies in the Pacific are heading toward an eventual frontal collision. It was reported reliably that the Texas Oil Company had suggested to its employees that they send their families home as soon as accommodations are available. Similar action by the Standard Vacuum Oil Company was reported yesterday. Many American women are reported also to have left and to be preparing to leave Japan, as much because of difficulties of living and raising families under present conditions as because of a war scare.

First Round Play In Women's Golf Tourney Finished

A field of fourteen entries started first round match play in the city women golf tournament being held at the country club yesterday afternoon.

In the championship flight, Mrs. F. A. Stacy, medalist, beat Mary Ruth Dozier, Mrs. R. W. Hamilton beat Mrs. Ted Lowe, Mrs. J. L. Rush beat Mrs. W. B. Harringer, and Mrs. A. R. Beals beat Mrs. Bob Dickey.

First flight results were: Mrs. A. E. Horst beat Mrs. H. S. Forgeron, Mrs. Bill Pitzer drew a bye, Mrs. Fred Hogan beat Mrs. Jimmy Brooks, and Mrs. L. F. Shiplett drew a bye.

In the quarter-finals, Ruth beat Beals, Pitzer beat Horst, and Hogan beat Shiplett.

Willkie and McNary Open Pennsylvania Drive At Pittsburgh

ABOARD WILLKIE TRAIN EN ROUTE TO PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4 (AP)—A colorful Willkie-McNary rally at Pittsburgh, where the Republican presidential nominee urged a change in administering the Wagner Labor Act, touched off a statewide party drive that moved today into Eastern Pennsylvania cities.

It was the first time that Wendell L. Willkie and Senator Charles L. McNary of Oregon, running mates on the Republican national ticket had spoken from the same platform. An audience last night in brightly-lighted Forbes Field, estimated by police at 30,000, cheered them again and again.

Willkie, upheld the principle of collective bargaining in a speech devoted solely to labor problems, described administration of the Wagner Act as "one of the most shocking tragedies in the history of American industrial relations."

"The trouble lies in the main," he said, "not with the act, but with its administration." The presidential nominee said that he stood for "full rights for labor," adding that "with increased rights go increased responsibilities." His prepared text contained a statement that as president he would try to end the civil war within labor's ranks, but the section was omitted in delivery because, Willkie, said, he was exceeding his radio time.

Willkie offered several recommendations regarding labor, including improvement of the federal conciliation service, decentralization of government labor activities, encouragement for states in settling labor disputes, enforcement "both north and south" of wage and hour standards, extension of the social security program, and a voice for labor "in the councils of our government."

Fire Prevention Observance Week Scheduled Here

Plans for the observance in Midland of National Fire Prevention Week, October 6 to 12, were perfected this morning at a meeting of the Fire Prevention Committee of the Midland Chamber of Commerce. City wide observance will be started here Sunday and will be continued through the remainder of the week.

First prevention announcements and talks will be made during the week at the various churches and schools, at the Lions and Rotary club luncheons and before other civic gatherings. Radio talks are also scheduled to be made. Speakers assignments were made at the meeting this morning. Newspaper publicity will also be used during the week. Fire drills will be held at all Midland schools during the week under the supervision of Frank Prothro, city fire marshal. Luther Tidwell, fire chief, and his department will assist in the week's activities.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce fire prevention committee are J. E. Hill, chairman, Claude O. Grant, Clint Myrick, Vesta Deaton, J. D. Brown, Ray Hyatt, Laura Jesse, Frank Prothro and Luther Tidwell.

Congress Strives To Wind Up Work For Short Recess

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4 (AP)—The last big defense appropriations bill delivered to the president's desk, Congressional leaders redoubled efforts today to clear the remaining important legislation from their slates so that a recess might be taken sometime next week, possibly Tuesday.

Axis Determination To Defeat Roosevelt Reported By Paper

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4 (AP)—President Roosevelt quoted today a newspaper dispatch saying that "the axis is out to beat President Roosevelt" when asked at a press conference whether he had "any reason to believe Germany and Italy are working for your defeat in the election."

The news article was a New York Times dispatch from Rome. Mr. Roosevelt picked up a copy of the Times on his desk and quoted from the story in reply to the question.

When, after the quotation, he was asked whether he had "any reason to believe the story was true," the President replied he was just quoting the press back to reporters.

It was, the President added, just a newspaper story, and he laughed when someone remarked that it was a "pretty good ad" for his candidacy.

"Moreover, the axis is out to defeat President Roosevelt, not as a measure of interference in the internal policies of the United States but because of the President's policy and because of everything which he stands for in the eyes of the Italians and Germans."

Mr. Roosevelt also read a section of the story which said "as far as the United States is concerned, the axis is interested primarily in keeping it out of the war and trying to prevent or minimize its help to Great Britain."

Committeemen Choose C Of C Drive Members

With the annual membership campaign of the Midland Chamber of Commerce scheduled to be held next Wednesday and Thursday, John E. Butler and Daniel H. Griffith, captains of the two opposing sides which will compete against each other in the drive for new members, met yesterday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce office to draw for workers who will compose their respective sides. Considerable squabbling between the two captains over the method of drawing was reported, but no blows were exchanged.

Each captain will have under his supervision 20 teams of two men each, the contest to be decided on a point basis. Points will be given for new members listed, new members unlisted, increase in dues, dues paid in advance, contacting of all prospects. The side having the most workers present at the kick-off breakfast to be held on Wednesday morning will receive 500 points. Members of the winning side will be the guests of the losers at a banquet to be held next Thursday evening.

After viewing the list of their sides, both captains were confident of victory and both expressed the opinion that their workers would enjoy the feat at the expense of the opposition.

Captain Griffith's side is composed of Marilyn English, Ed Prichard, J. C. Miles, V. G. Young, Fred Fromhold, Clint Myrick, J. E. Hill, T. R. Wilson, Paul McHargue, T. Paul Barton, Paul Nelson, Lester Short, W. B. Simpson, Earl Horst, Luther Tidwell, S. M. Vaughan, William Page, Jack Bedford, R. M. Barron and Roy McKee.

Mexico City, Bowie "11s" In Free-for-All

EL PASO, Oct. 4 (AP)—Peace reigned today between football players of Mexico City YMCA and Bowie High School of El Paso after the teams had engaged in a free-for-all at their game here and their supporters had staged a near riot in downtown El Paso. The contest ended in a 13-13 tie.

Police broke up the street fighting. Authorities said apparently none of the players were involved.

Trouble arose when Bowie was given a second chance to score a point after touchdown with only seconds left to play.

Officials had ruled the first try for point—in which the kick was blocked—did not count because time had been called out while they cleared the field of jubilant Bowie fans who had swarmed down when the tying touchdown was scored.

When Bowie's second try also failed, this time on a running play, a group of Mexico City players started swinging fists. The field became so jammed further play was impossible.

An estimated 7,000 attended the game.

PHYSICIAN STRIVES TO HALT GIRL'S SNEEZING

CLARKSVILLE, Ark., Oct. 4 (AP)—Miss Juanita Lallis, 21, of Lamar, sneezed about once a minute today while her physician sought some means of relieving the proxysmia. Dr. Earl H. Hunt said the 115-pound woman was weakening rapidly under the attack of sneezes. He asserted that he had "done everything I can think of and unless she stops soon I am going to try putting her completely to sleep."

Ripple And Walters Put Reds Back In Race For Series Cash

By Gayle Talbot DETROIT, Oct. 4 (AP)—A few well-spaced smacks by Cincinnati's batters and one beautifully pitched game by Bucky Walters had changed the entire complexion of the 1940 world series as the reviving Reds tackled the Detroit Tigers in the third struggle of the autumn series at Briggs Stadium today.

Before yesterday's game anybody who would have offered a dime for the Red's chances must either have been psychic or an incurable sentimentalist. The National League champions had looked plain terrible as they lost the opening game at Cincinnati, 7 to 2, and they were the first to admit it.

Today they had to be accounted almost a new ball club. They finally had crashed through and won a world series game, 5 to 3. Bill McCosky's boys, who have felt for two years that they were a fine ball club, were riding the crest of victory and confidence that they were on the brink of showing the American Leaguers a thing or two.

It was a brand new series, as full of fight as a mountain bobcat. A majority of the country's baseball writers who crammed a special train from Cincinnati last night were feeling much better about their original hunch that the Reds were due to win.

There was some substance to their feeling, since Walters had won his game and the Reds had knocked Schoolboy Rowe, Detroit's second-best pitcher, from the hill. The Reds appeared to be in vastly better shape for pitching.

Detroit's logical pitcher today—in fact, about the only finger Del Baker could call upon—was the veteran Tommy Bridges. This admittedly would be Tommy's last appearance in the big series. Great star as he has been, Tommy is 34 years of age. He was tired in the latter stages of the American League race and was knocked from the box the last two times he started.

The Reds, on the other hand, had a couple of strong winning pitchers to try to follow the example set by Walters yesterday. It either would be "Milkman" Jim Turner or Junior Thompson, either of whom would be a welcome addition to the Detroit staff at this juncture. And after this pair the Reds could come right back with Paul Derringer, who was knocked from the hill in the opening game, somewhat inexp
