Civil War In Rumania Kills Hundreds

Lindbergh Wants Negotiated Peace In European War

States Preference For No Victory In Hearing Before House Body

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP).—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh flatly asserted today that even a combination of the United States and Great Britain could not win the European war "on the present basis" and he urged a "negotiated peace."

The famous flier told the House Foreign Affairs Committee that he did not believe that "anything short of war or beyond war" would win the struggle unless there was a collapse behind the lines of one side or the other.

He said he believed the stand of "the American people" in favor of aiding the British "was a mistake." And he declared he was opposed to the lease-lend bill for British aid because it was "a step away from democracy" and "one more step closer to war."

Testifying at a House Foreign Affairs Committee hearing of the aid-to-Britain bill, the flier was asked by Representative Luther A. Johnson (D-Tex.) whether he had ever expressed sympathy "for one side or another."

"I prefer to see neither side win," the aviator said quickly. "I prefer a negotiated peace. A victory on either side would result in prostration of Europe of a type we've never seen."

"It would be one of the worst things that could happen," he declared. "Are you in sympathy with England against Hitler?" Johnson asked.

"I'm in sympathy with the people—not their aims," Lindbergh replied.

Lindbergh said that "a total airforce, would, I believe, have modern fighting planes plus reserves" would "insure American security regardless of the outcome" of the war in Europe.

Could Change Later
Later it might be necessary to change the number, he said, reading a prepared statement, but that would depend on circumstances.

"But an industry capable of building and maintaining a 10,000-plane airforce, would, I believe, have adequate flexibility to meet any emergency," Lindbergh said. He read slowly, glancing up at committee members from time to time.

As for a transoceanic aid invasion accompanied by landing troops, Lindbergh said that was "utterly impossible." Further, he said, that while bombing raids from across the Atlantic could do "considerable damage on peacetime standards," in time of war the cost would be tremendous, "enemy losses would be large, and the effect on our military position negligible."

His 10,000-warplane figure compared with the approximately 25,000 planes of all types the army has on hand or on order and the 10,000-plane goal toward which the navy, alone, is working. President Roosevelt is announcing a goal of 50,000 modern fighting planes together with a production capacity of 50,000 a year.

Gale And Swells Hold Up Willkie

ABOARD THE YANKEE CLIPPER AT HORTA, The Azores, Jan. 23 (AP)—Wendell L. Willkie, riding a Pan American Clipper to Horta through a gale described by the plane's captain as the worst seen here in two years, faced a days delay before continuing his trip to England.

Swells off Horta and stormy weather on the route to Lisbon caused Pan American Airways officials to defer the Clipper's take-off until daybreak tomorrow. The plane arrived here at 7:30 a. m. (4:30 a. m. EST) today.

Saw Famous Fliers.
En route to study war conditions in Britain, Willkie already had seen evidence of United States Aid to the British.

At Darnell Island, off Hamilton, Bermuda, his eyes widened yesterday when he saw two 13-ton flying boats—bombers to be flown to Britain. Beside them he saw three famous fliers—Bert Balchen, Clyde Pangborn and Homer Berry—lazily tossing pennies.

"Ferrying bombers is getting dull," Berry, who fought with Canada in the World War and wore again a Canadian uniform, told Willkie. "I am joining a fighting unit soon."

Dr. L. B. Pemberton Explains Dentistry To Midland Rotarians

Dr. L. B. Pemberton told Midland Rotarians at their weekly meeting today "American dentistry stands the highest of any country in the world."

He discussed the nature, history and modern practices of dentistry and asserted the early Egyptians were the first persons to use gold in filling teeth.

Two films were displayed at the meeting. Dental X-rays and casts were inspected by the Rotarians. Harry Gossett was in charge of the program.

D. McCormick and Chester Shepard were introduced as new members of the club.

Out-of-town Rotarians at the meeting included R. Anderson of Abilene, Lloyd G. Witter of San Angelo, and Steel Johnston and R. J. Willis of Odessa.

Guests included Mrs. W. E. Ryan, Mrs. L. B. Pemberton, Mrs. W. I. Pratt, and Mrs. L. C. Poe.

Rumania Reports Many Are Killed

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Jan. 23 (AP).—The Rumanian government announced today through its Budapest legation that it had quelled a "rebellion" by "notorious communists" and young Iron Guard extremists after "many" had been killed throughout the country.

Public buildings in various parts of Rumania were reported cleared of the "rebels" under orders from Premier General Ion Antonescu after his tolerance was taxed by a machine-gun attack yesterday on the Bucharest building housing his office.

It was then, according to a statement issued through the Budapest legation, that Antonescu "instructed the army and police to reestablish order."

The machine-gun attack on the premier's office was said in the official statement to have been organized with 600 Iron Guard legionnaires by General George Petrovicscu, who is reported to have been ousted Tuesday as interior minister.

Stanolind Acquires Pecos Well, Leases

Company Pays $380,000 Cash And Overriding Royalty For Ordovician Discovery Producer And Leases On 3,140 Acres In The Vicinity

By Frank Gardner, Oil Editor
West Texas' largest lease transaction in several years was the reported sale today to Stanolind Oil & Gas Company of the discovery producer in the Abell Ordovician pool of Northern Pecos County and 3,140 acres lying within a radius of four miles from the well for consideration of $380,000 cash, plus an overriding royalty.

In addition, it is reported Stanolind assumes obligation to start a well on the acreage not later than Feb. 15 and drill to 6,000 feet unless oil or gas in commercial quantities, granite or water in the Ellenburger are encountered at lesser depth.

Stanolind acquired from Taubert, McKee & Siemoneit of Fort Worth their No. 1 V. W. Crockett, which was brought in last November for natural flow of 933 barrels of oil in 12 hours and 23 minutes through 1 1/2-inch choke on 2-inch tubing at total depth of 5,357 feet. The discovery is producing from pay sands of the Simpson, middle Ordovician. Also included in the deal with Taubert and partners was the 40-acre wellsite and another 40 acres, owned jointly with Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation, adjoining it to the north.

George T. Abell of Midland, and associates, sold Stanolind leases on 3,060 acres including an 85-acre tract offsetting No. 1 Crockett to the east. Abell and partners represent stockholders of the old Tex-Mex Petroleum Corporation, now defunct.

Second Trade In Week.
It is understood the deal was investigated by Charlie J. Siemoneit, who was instrumental in combining the acreage of Abell and partners with that of Anderson-Prichard and of his own firm and presenting it to Stanolind as a single transaction.

Also significant was the entrance of Stanolind into the Pecos deep play. Only last week, Abell and others sold to Phillips Petroleum Corporation 280 acres for $73,000 cash and $97,000 to be paid out of one-eighth of seven-eighths of oil produced.

Taubert, McKee & Siemoneit and Anderson-Prichard will receive no override or oil payment. However, the Abell group will receive one-eighth of gross production from each well producing from a depth below 4,500 feet until such time as Stanolind shall have recovered gross proceeds in the amount of $50,000 from sale of five-eighths of the gross amount of oil, gas and casinghead produced, or $20,000 under the same terms from wells producing above 4,500 feet.

After each Stanolind well, deep or shallow, has paid out its stipulated quota, the Abell group will receive an overriding royalty on a sliding scale, never to exceed one-fourth.

Simpson Top Expected.
Rapidly approaching the top of the Simpson, Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 Markey Heirs, one-half mile north and slightly west of the discovery, this morning was drilling at 4,763 feet in basal Permian lime, Magnolia No. 1 State-Baldwin is drilling at 3,198 and its No. 1 Upper-Sharp at 3,751, both in state Permian lime. Phillips No. 1 Silverman is drilling at 1,025 in anhydrite and salt, and Abell et al No. 1 E. J. Rixke had reached 181 feet in sand with spudder.

Depth of 5,335 feet, with no change, was reported this morning from Culbertson & Irwin, Inc. No. 1 Heiner, Pecos Ordovician test, which topped the Ellenburger, lower Ordovician, at 5,128 feet.

Loving County Delaware Test.
Final Dome Oil Corporation of Pecos soon will drill its No. 1 Michigan Gas & Oil Company 14 miles northeast of Mentone in search of Delaware production in Northeastern Loving County. Tentative location is in the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 15, block C-26, public school land. Scheduled to go to 5,300 feet, the test will be spudded in several weeks. C. T. McLaughlin & Company, Inc. of Midland have been awarded contract.

In Northwestern Loving, Sloan & Zook Company No. 1 TXL, also a Delaware try, is drilling past 2,500 feet in lime. It is carrying sulphur water encountered at 2,485 feet, but still is far above its objective, the Delaware sand.

Ector Shallow Pool Opened.
Phillips No. 1-A (formerly No. 1-122) M Bar appeared to have opened a new Permian lime pool in extreme Northern Ector County as it flowed 21 barrels of oil in 24 hours through 1 1/4-inch choke on tubing after initial acid treatment of 1,000 gallons. Total depth is 4,312 feet. At last reports, operators were re-acidizing with 1,500 gallons. The discovery is in section 6, block 44, township 1 north, 72 E.P. survey.

Stanolind No. 1-B W. F. Cowden Heirs, deep Permian test in Northern Ector, topped Clearfork lime at 5,190, 2,080 feet below sea level and 53 feet low to Stanolind No. 1

Senate Summons King For Report On Housecleaning

Cotten Resolution Asks More Information Where Bad Conditions Exist

By The Associated Press.
AUSTIN, Jan. 23 (AP).—The Senate today asked State Auditor Tom C. King to appear before it on Feb. 5 and give specific information regarding his report on which Governor W. Lee O'Daniel recently based recommendations for a housecleaning in state government.

By voice vote and with a minimum of discussion it adopted Senator Clay Cotten's resolution asking the auditor to appear before the Senate as a committee of the whole and present evidence.

The Palestine member declared his measure was not a slap at anybody but "an honest effort to correct a bad condition, if it exists."

In his initial address to the new legislature the governor quoted at length from a report by King and then referred to "oligarchic" state boards as the "fourth division" of which the chief executive said had great power without responsibility.

To Retire

Justice James Clark McReynolds.

Justice James Clark McReynolds (above), outspoken opponent of much New Deal legislation, notified President Roosevelt he would retire from the Supreme Court February 1 after 26 years of service. This is a recent picture taken at his desk.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP).—Picking a successor for Associate Justice James Clark McReynolds on the supreme court bench became a major occupation in the capital today, and the name most frequently mentioned in the unofficial speculation was that of Attorney General Jackson.

President Roosevelt kept his own counsel and the White House was barren of hints as to who would receive the sixth supreme court appointment Mr. Roosevelt has had since taking office.

As far as conjecture went, the field was wide open and the number of potential contenders grew with the passing hours. Suggestions were made that the new justice be a westerner, a southerner, a midwesterner, an easterner, a Republican.

Even those with other ideas conceded for the moment that Jackson had the edge as the most probable choice. Some, however, thought the coveted post might go to Senator Byrnes (D-SC), whose nomination would satisfy those who believe a southerner should be picked. It was reported that three Democratic colleagues of great influence—Senate Majority Leader Barkley (Ky.) and Senators Harrison (Miss) and Glass (Va.)—urged Byrnes' causes in a late conference with Mr. Roosevelt yesterday.

Robert E. King Heads Geologists
Robert E. King, geologist for Shell Oil Company, was elected president of the West Texas Geological Society at a meeting last night.

The new vice-president is Fred F. Kotzka, with Tide Water Associated Oil Company, who last year served as secretary-treasurer.

Walter G. Moxey, Stanolind Oil & Gas Company assistant district geologist, was chosen secretary-treasurer.

Dana M. Secor, district geologist for Skelly Oil Company, had served as acting president of the society since the transfer to Louisiana of John E. Adams.

About 50 members were present at the election, held in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer.

British Air Raiders Pound Ruhr Sectors
LONDON, Jan. 23 (AP)—British air raiders pounded at the Dusseldorf area in Western Germany's industrial Ruhr Valley during the night, the government announced today, ending several nights of inactivity caused by bad weather.

The attack, said to have been the 21st aimed at Dusseldorf's steel, oil and munitions works, was described as concentrated but of only moderate scope because of the weather over the continent.

(The official German News Agency reported in Berlin that a small number of bombs dropped in Western Germany early last night caused unimportant damage to private property and started small fires which were quenched quickly. It said only a few casualties resulted.)

Service Board Needs Two More Volunteers
Harry Edward Hamlin volunteered yesterday for selective service and left only two volunteers needed to fill Feb. 10 and 12 calls, the draft board announced today.

Four physical examinations this afternoon are scheduled for volunteers.

Questionnaires were mailed today to Herman Richard Dunn, Preston Vest, Leonard Edwin Oliff, Johnnie Loyd Jones, James Ezekiel Low, Mark Munsell, Malcolm Douglas Patterson, Robert Rufus O'Neal, Salvador Almandarez Espolosa, Earnest Alexander Richters, Ike Allred, Louis Bell Stewart, Tim Franklin Kirk, Alton Cecil Hall, and Roy Flowers.

Wavell's Army Announces Capture Of Two Italian Divisions While Budapest Says Premier In Control

Dispatches From Sofia And Belgrade Report Violence In Balkans Mounts With Seizures; Britons Ready For Drive On Fascist Bases

By The Associated Press.
Bloody civil war with hundreds slain was reported in Rumania today, amid conflicting accounts of its progress; while in North Africa, the British announced the capture of two Italian divisions (about 24,000 men) at the fallen stronghold of Tobruk.

British military quarters said Gen. Sir Archibald P. Wavell's army of the Nile had now "captured, destroyed or disintegrated" 11 Italian divisions in the Egyptian and Libyan desert campaigns—a grand total of about 132,000 men since Dec. 9.

All told, these quarters said, about 100,000 Fascists have been taken prisoners.

Reports on the widespread disorders in Rumania varied.

Rumania's legation at Budapest, capital of Hungary, acknowledged "many" deaths, but asserted that Dictator Premier Ion Antonescu was "complete master" of the situation.

Dispatches received in Sofia and Belgrade, however, depicted the strife as mounting in violence, with the pro-Nazi Iron Guard revolutionists—as they were identified by the Rumanian government—having seized the Bucharest post office, radio station and military airport.

African Army Controls 80 Miles
The Rumanian legation in Budapest said it had received advices from Bucharest that "notorious communists and very young Iron Guard legionnaires were behind the rebellion."

Belgrade dispatches said that the conflict raged in Bucharest and through the provinces, and that Iron Guard insurgents had massed 30,000 men in the capital.

Several army commanders were said to have joined the revolt, and troops from the army corps at Brasov were reported headed for Bucharest in trucks to join the rebellion.

Capture of the Italian stronghold of Tobruk left Britain's African armies in control of 80 miles of the Libyan seacoast today and in position for a possible drive against the Fascist bases of Derna and Bengasi.

Nominates Postoffice Head Four Years More
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP).—President Roosevelt today nominated Frank C. Walker to serve four more years as postmaster general.

He also sent to the Senate the nomination of Dean G. Acheson to be an assistant secretary of state in place of Henry Grady, resigned.

Walker was named postmaster general last fall to succeed James A. Farley, who resigned to enter private business. The postmaster generalship is the only cabinet office for which a new appointment had to be made at the beginning of a new presidential term.

Greece Reports Dual Attack On Objectives
ATHENS, Jan. 23 (AP)—A two-way attack on Italian objectives in the Greek war theater—military buildings and transport concentrations in Albania and the airbase of Maritza on the Dodecanese Island of Rhodes—was reported today by the British Royal Air Force.

The assault on Maritza, one of the actions thus far against Italians in the Dodecanese Islands, caused fires among military buildings at the airport last night, the communication said.

Military buildings at Berati, Albania, also were damaged, the RAF reported, while transport on the Kilsura-Berati road was raked ahead of the Greek counter-invasion front.

"Enemy fighter aircraft intercepted our bombers and a short engagement resulted," the RAF said, but all British planes returned to their bases.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

WHEN MEN AND NATIONS LOSE FAITH AND BECOME CYNICAL THEY HAVE LOST ALL: I have prayed for thee that thy faith fail not.—Luke 22:32.

Local Civil Protection Part Of Defense

The dramatic side of the defense program is the race against time in the airplane factories, the shipyards, the training camps.

But there is another side which we dare not neglect. It is not dramatic; it is not fashionable to mention it; it opens one to the charge of hysteria. Nevertheless—

An important part of the all-out defense on which we now depend to keep war away from the United States is civilian protection and precautions against aerial bombardment, sabotage of water works, bridges, tunnels, power stations, airports, railroad yards, and other nerve centers of urban life.

The American Society of Civil Engineers has had a committee working on these things since last October. It works with the War Department's Technological Civil Protection Committee and with other societies and agencies to make plans for civilian defense. If there should be a sudden war, it is too late to improvise such plans, and the events in Europe are convincing proof that civilian defense is a most important factor.

This does not mean that we must immediately begin building dugouts and practicing blackouts. There is nothing about the study of these things that suggests hysteria or war-mongering. We have been taught, bitterly, in the last two years, that war can happen to any country, and woe to him who is not ready.

These civilian defense plans are and must be local, for every community presents its own special problem. The War Department and the various engineering organizations are urging that city and state committees begin immediate study of questions like this:

Whether deep or shallow air-raid shelters best fit the local picture, and where they could be built in emergencies.

Whether adequate supplies of piling and other timber are available for quick repair to docks and wharves in case of bombing or sabotage.

What could be done to supply emergency electric current if the regular source were interrupted.

What emergency sources of water supply could be called on in emergency.

What bridges and public works would require protection, and how to protect them. (New York has already closed all openings and covered all anchorages of bridges, increased patrols, and supplied floodlights.)

What could be done to evacuate civilians quickly and without interrupting military movements.

What special defense problems would occur in each community in case of war, in addition to those problems that would be common to all.

Since the country has decided almost unanimously on defense as the best insurance against possible war, it is no longer sensible to ignore this phase of defense, which events in Europe have shown to be scarcely less important than purely military activity.

Army Doctor Declares Hand-Picked Unit Of Supermen Could Beat Any Outfit, With Fists If Necessary

PORT LEWIS, Wash., Jan. 22 (AP)—An army doctor declared today that he could hand-pick raw recruits and create a force of "super-men" by scientific dietetic supervision in the mess hall.

Should they lose their weapons and the shirts off their backs, the "tiger" in them would still make the men dangerous as a battering, bare-knuckled brigade.

Col. Albert P. Clark, head of the Fort Lewis base hospital, and nutrition authority, paraphrased in an interview the Napoleonic precept to the interpretation: "An army fights on its stomach."

Unbeatable Army.
"If I had the opportunity to personally select 5,000 men from the 49,000 we expect to have in this area by spring, and feed them a specially prepared diet which included increased mineral and vitamin content, I would have a small army of unbeatable men within six months," asserted the colonel, who is the surgeon in charge of the entire 3rd and 4th divisions at Fort Lewis and Camp Murray.

"They would be super-men—men who would fight with rocks and their bare fists if they lost their weapons. They would be a superior type of shock troops, which seem to be so successful in modern winning armies."

"Hopped up" only through an improved diet, the troops would be as superior mentally as physically, the colonel prophesied, and they would be capable of acting resourcefully alone as well as in a group.

Stock Leaders Stumble After Few Early Rises
NEW YORK, Jan. 23 (AP)—A few rails, aircrafts and specialties today managed to tack modest amounts on to Wednesday's feeble rally, the first in ten sessions, but many leaders stumbled after an early rising sortie.

Best prices were registered in the first hour on fair-sized volume. Gains ran to a point or so for favorites. These were whittled down or converted into declines. Dealings slackened to a crawl in falling intervals. Steels and motors were shaky although these stiffened in the final hour along with scattered issues elsewhere. Closing trends were slightly uneven. Transfers were around 500,000 shares.

Smithsonian Doctor Asserts Scientists Have Broader Skulls

By Stephen J. McDonough, Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23—If your child gets bigheaded, he may be developing into a genius.

America's greatest scientists have bigger and broader skulls and lower cheek bones than the ordinary run of the population and at the same time have sturdier physical development, Dr. Ales Hrdlicka of the Smithsonian Institution said today.

The famous anthropologist, who has roamed the world studying the physical development of man has completed a new study of 150 members of the National Academy of Sciences—the nation's select group of scientists chosen for their accomplishments.

Skulls Are Thinner
In general, he found, their heads are bigger, permitting greater brain development, and at the same time indications are that their skulls are thinner to enable additional brain development.

This does not mean, however, that intellectuals are "high brows" in any sense of the term, Dr. Hrdlicka declared. The number of low foreheads determined by precise measurement was almost the same among the Academy members as among a general group of the population, the studies showed.

King . . .

Allegations Vague.
He referred to overlapping state boards as the "fourth division" of government which exercised legislative, executive and judicial powers and labeled them along with lobbyists, as the basic cause of most government ills.

Cotten said allegations of misconduct by boards, bureaus and commissions was non-specific in King's report and in the governor's message.

His resolution asked King to specifically name the when, where and who of any suspected conduct.

"His report leaves the legislature in doubt as to where to begin on corrective legislative, if any is needed," he asserted.

Sewerage Association Will Meet At Midland
Midland has been chosen site for the next meeting of the Permian Basin Waterworks and Sewerage Association.

The meeting will be held in February as a monthly session.

A. B. Cole, city water superintendent, and Leonard Winkler, of Midland, attended the first meeting of the association in Odessa Tuesday night.

Dr. John MacKay of Princeton University presented a series of four sermons on Ephesians and Dr. Harry Cotten of Chicago discussed the practical side of the minister's problems.

Dr. Geo. Irving of Philadelphia led the conference.

Santa Rita No. 1 Continuing Flow But Rig Is Moved

By Tony Slaughter, Associated Press Staff Writer

The old Santa Rita No. 1 Reagan County discovery oil well in Texon that led to the biggest drilling campaign the southwest has ever known, continues to give her daily production of eight barrels each 24 hours but the scenery around this "model town of the world" isn't the same.

The old dust and grease covered rig that the late Carl Cromwell used to bring in Texon Oil and Land Company's discovery producer is gone.

A new steel rig has replaced the wooden derrick and somewhere near the Bermuda-covered campus of the University of Texas, the old rig is "stacked" awaiting completion of the university's new petroleum building before she takes her stand on the campus as a memorial to Carl Cromwell and the millions that oil from university lands has reaped for the state school.

Ceremony For Well
The old rig will have a place so close to the new petroleum building that rigging her up is being delayed until completion of the building because it would interfere with construction.

There's going to be a ceremony at Austin when the rig is completed. The plans are indefinite but the widow of Cromwell, and their daughter, Carlene, both of San Angelo, are expected to be on hand for the ceremonies.

Mrs. Cromwell faced the hardships with her husband in search for the permian pay check in the cold winter of 1922. The well blew in May 28, 1923.

CRANIUM CRACKERS
Ballads and Ballots.

Music often plays an important part as words in any election campaign and many a candidate has received as much push toward the presidency from his campaign song as from his speeches. Both parties united on "God Bless America" in the recent campaign, but how many of this tune's campaign predecessors do you recall?

1. What defeated presidential candidate campaigned with "Sidewalks of New York?"

2. What did the candidates that used "Hot Time in the Old Town" and "Happy Days Are Here Again" have in common?

3. In what campaign was "Tippecanoe and Tyler Too" used?

4. What song states that the candidate "came out of the wilderness?"

5. What Republican candidate used a Stephen Foster song as a campaign tune during the past decade?

Highlights From the Week's Oil News

(From The Oil & Gas Journal)

In 1940, drilling is starting at a low ebb, running even lower than last year. However, 1940 turned out to be a more active year than any since the depression with the exception of 1937. At the beginning of last year, there was only one boom in sight, namely the Devonian play in Illinois. There were, of course, other fields to be developed, but this development was of a routine nature. This year, there is a Trenton play in Salem in Illinois, which will probably not be as extensive as last year's orgy. Mississippi is slowing up but the Fort Worth basin play is just getting under way with a large crop of late-1940 discoveries to be developed. In California expiring leases require much wildcatting and already there are signs of increasing activity in the Los Angeles area which may develop into town-land drilling. Kansas has started off stronger than last year and will probably continue to run above last year's levels. Then, of course, there is the East Texas campaign, which is barely getting under way with a growing influx of operators in search of Woodbine production. Drilling in 1941 should increase over the next few months, at least.

CALIFORNIA: After a year and a half with no important discoveries, California enjoyed a most successful week. A new gas field was brought in in San Joaquin County near the Tracy field. The Newhall-Castaic district may have its second field in a few months as a test in Oak Canyon is showing oil. It has not yet been tested. Eugene production was extended north in Kettleman Hills, although not beyond the limits of Tumbler production. In the Los Angeles Basin, the second deep test at Inglewood is not giving encouraging results, and Union Oil Co. has passed the 12,000-ft. level in Dominguez without encountering favorable shows. Production is now established as a distillate field and plans are under way for its development. Oil sand was cored in a test about midway between Rio Bravo and Greely.

TEXAS GULF COAST: A second location increases interest in La Ward, Jackson County prospect, although the first well has not yet been successfully tested. A new sand is in prospect at Rowan, Brazoria County.

OKLAHOMA: A 52,000,000-cu. ft. gas well opened a new pool southwest of Okemah in Okfuskee County. The Harvey and Henry discovery, also in Okfuskee, gauged 99 bbl. in 1 hour on test and the South Ekanawa field in Pottawatomie County got a well which made 187 bbl. an hour.

MONTANA: Eight gas wells were completed in four districts in Montana. Gas production is continually assuming larger proportions in the state as distribution facilities are increased.

KANSAS: Arbuckle production was extended 3/8 mile in Kraft and 3/4 mile in East Trapp. Topoka lime production was extended 3/8 mile in the Beaver pool.

OHIO: A Geauga County test formerly abandoned in the Clinton has started up again to test the Trenton.

LA-ARK-TEX: Three Wilcox sand failures dim the possibilities of the Completions in All Fields.

trend play in northern Oklahoma. LOUISIANA GULF COAST: The Gueydan field, which was not considered important, is being regarded in a new light as a flank well flows 210 bbl. from a deep sand. Bayou de Glaise flank production continues elusive as another test flows and then sands up. Lakeside, Cameron Parish, is established as a distillate pool. A possible new horizon has been uncovered at Port Barre, St. Landry Parish.

SOUTHWEST TEXAS: The Dimmitt County well which has been showing production is finally tested for 3 bbl. an hour on the pump. After cleaning out it flowed 25 bbl. in 11 hours. Although not high, this record attracts attention to a virgin area. Le Gloria and Alice in Jim Wells County, and North Rincon in Starr County have all been extended. Willmar's second test is running below the discovery well with little showing.

ILLINOIS: Rossi's Trenton well in Salem is estimated to be a 200-bbl. well and has started 20 wells for the Trenton already. A McClosky pool is opened in Edwards County and a Cypress pool in Marion, near Patoka.

EASTERN TEXAS: Radiating out from the Woodbine sand discovery at Hawkins in Wood County, the entire eastern Texas district is undergoing the most intense lease play since the early stages of the East Texas field. Practically all counties have and are sharing in the spreading lease play. Several of the long known structures in the district are being reworked for immediate testing.

NEBRASKA: Wildcaters are extending their activity into Otoe County, west of Falls City, as operations in that pool decline to a minimum.

MICHIGAN: The second well in the Winfield-Montcalm pool came in for 600 bbl. from the Monroe to make this area more promising. The discovery was a 40-bbl. well. The Monitor area, around Gulf's deep well, is attracting much attention as a new well a mile north of the deep test filled with oil from a shallow sand.

WEST TEXAS: Deep exploratory activity in the Permian basin again held the attention this week in the district as shows of oil were reported in an Ordovician wildcat west of the Abell field and as new activity was registered for the Abell field itself.

NORTH TEXAS: New wildcat tests topped the news of the week in this district as five tests were planned and several of the eight new ones started the previous week were started. Many of the little developed deep fields from the Strawn and Bend sections throughout the district are being marked for thorough development during the coming year.

WEST CENTRAL TEXAS: Jones County's new Swastika field discovery of a week ago was officially gauged for one of the most promising new strikes in the district in several months. Humble 2 Sears made a daily rating of 1,182 bbl. New development was started in Fisher County's recent Swastika strike, while activity continues at the Olson or North Avoca field in Jones County.

Wink Will Have District Lions Event In March

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 23 (AP)—Ivan Barzella Heiderich who, like Samson of old, takes great pride in his untrimmed locks, faced an induction board today with the fear that the army would be his Dallah.

The 33-year-old Marietta, Okla., farmer whose shoulder-long golden curls never have known a barber's shears, blew into town with a group of draftees, considerably irked because the army was about to get into his hair.

What's worrying Ivan is that if he is passed by the examining board, he will face an army proceeding in which the growth of a lifetime is doomed to be clipped down to the regulation two-inch crop.

"I'm going to protest," Ivan proclaimed. "I didn't want to go in the first place. I don't want my hair cut. When I was a little boy, I had beautiful curls and my mother wouldn't cut them."

Army's Largest Plane, Four-Motored Bomber, Lands Here At Airport

The largest ship that the U. S. Army flies—a B-17, four-motored bomber, landed yesterday at the Midland Airport.

It was refueled at the airport and took off for March Field, flying here from Barksdale Field.

At the controls was Capt. Darrow of the 12th bombardment group. A crew of nine, and one passenger, a marine, were on the plane. The crew consisted of a pilot, co-pilot, navigator, radio man, and mechanics.

137-Foot Wing Spread. The bomber, with a wing spread of 137 feet, was landed easily. Five gun turrets were on the bomber, one on each side behind the wings, one atop midship, one in the nose of the ship and one on the bottom. The bomber can carry 25 persons. The plane used 1135 gallons of gas alone coming from California. It has eight gasoline tanks.

By Wm. E. McKenney, Americas Card Authority.

At every tournament you are sure to see some player off in a corner, muttering to himself over a hand. "Well, maybe I am wrong. Nobody else would bid a club." You will always see players running around with a hand written on the back of a score card, asking "What would you bid on this hand?" When you tell them what you would bid, they start an argument, so my answer always is, "What would YOU bid on it?" Here is one hand that caused lots of arguments as to what to bid originally. At the tables where the bidding started with one club and ended in three no trump, West opened hearts. After the seven of hearts lead, the defense cashed five tricks at once. With the queen of hearts opening, some defenders gave declarer his contract by letting the ten-spot make. One West player, after the three top honors had gone on the first trick and a return lead had been won by his seven, had the iron nerve to switch to diamonds. East thus got in for a second heart lead and the contract was set. Where South opened the bidding with one heart, West did not open the suit against no trump. The change made game because on the parade of eight black tricks, West did not guess that he must discard diamonds instead of hearts.

Negro Wanted Justice, But Primary Need Was Return Of Suit, Pants

It's all in the day's run for Justice of the Peace B. C. Girdley. This morning Claude Nelson, negro, wanted a complaint filed against Dan Herd, also a negro, for allegedly stealing his clothes, Nelson told the judge. Questioning Nelson, Girdley said, "How much were your clothes worth?" "I don't exactly know, boss," the negro answered. "Maybe not much to some people but a devil of a lot to me." Just Wanted Pants. "Do you want this boy punished on charges of theft," was the judge's next question. "I just want my pants and suit, and I don't care what happens to him," Nelson said. Then, realizing he was in justice court, the negro assumed dignity, and, prompted by the judge, said, "He might want to do that to somebody else. Yes sir, I want him punished!" The judge filed a complaint for theft.

We, the Women

By Ruth Millet

Few women have more than two or three husbands in a lifetime, and most women are fairly content with one. Considering that, women do get an awful lot of "how to get your man" advice.

"What would come in handier in day by day living would be some advice on how to be attractive to the men a woman would just as soon let some other woman get, or keep.

Here are a few rules. Follow these and the husband of your old school friend won't groan when he hears you are coming for a visit:

A LOW VOICE IS A RESTFUL ONE

Don't talk fast and furiously. Keep your voice low and soft—so that you are a restful, soothing person to have around. Women who chatter on and on drive men crazy.

Don't go into the personal details of your life—mentioning your diet, your session at the beauty salon, etc. If you have to talk about those things, wait until you're with "the girls."

Don't make fun of yourself, or apologize for yourself.

When you are talking to a man and a woman, don't talk to the woman and dismiss the man with "I know you aren't interested in this but—." Talk about something he is interested in, if he has to listen.

THEY LOVE TO HEAR GOSSIP

Don't believe that old stuff about men not liking to hear gossip. Tell an amusing story and see how the men prick up their ears. Just one word of caution—don't run down an attractive woman.

Look as daintily feminine as you can manage. Wear flat-heeled

CONSCRIPT'S WIFE

BY BETTY WALLACE

CHAPTER XVII

MARTHA MARSHALL, in a printed house dress that belonged to her sister, with her hair straggling about her unpowdered face, a knife in her damp fingers, was a different Martha from the girl Paul Elliott had always seen before. At his tactless, astonished outburst, she almost broke down in tears. But she managed to say, "Come in."

"So you think I look terrible?" she said, and her tone was almost gay. "I don't blame you. I feel terrible."

He couldn't seem to stop staring at her. "You must have lost 10 pounds! Haven't you been sleeping? Good grief, what's been going on here?"

"Helen's in the hospital, and I'm merely doing the housework and looking after the children. Woman's work. The kind Helen's always done."

"You mean, you're doing slavey work?" he asked. "You're not accustomed to work for which your brother-in-law should hire someone?" He was very angry. She could tell from the spots of color on his throat, above his collar, and from the way his eyes regarded her, a hot brilliance in their steady depths.

For a moment, the fact of Paul's anger came as an inexplicable surprise. Why should he take this attitude? Bill would never have dared to say this! Did he think he owned her?

But as she stood there, seeing the way Paul's big hands fumbled for his pipe, her resentment died. She said softly, "After all, Paul, Helen's my only sister. I'd do anything in the world for her! More than this. Why, this is nothing! A little cooking, caring for my own niece and nephews . . . Nothing!"

"Look at you! You're not strong enough! The whole thing's ridiculous! Why in the name of common sense can't they hire someone whose business is housework, someone who could do it better and more cheaply? Martha, your health is involved! Your well-being! To say nothing of—"

"My own health is perfectly all right," she snapped. "I think you're the one who's ridiculous."

Just then the door burst open. Genie rushed in. His face was sticky, his sweater flew open, and he was screaming, "Sis upset the baby! Sis upset the baby!"

"No, sis. Come in and sit down. This is Mr. Elliott," Martha smiled slyly. "He's my boss, Sis."

Gravely, quite like a grown-up, Sister settled herself on the other side of the baby. Martha realized afresh how lovely the child was. The baby wiggled. He wanted to get down on the floor. Martha reached for the box of dominoes which could keep him endlessly busy, spilled them out on the floor and sat him down beside them. "Take off your jacket, Sis. Play with him awhile. My boss!"

"Cooking! Dishwashing! Bathing the baby! Mopping the kitchen floor! I saw you! Are you crazy, Martha? I'm going to hire a woman to take over first thing in the morning, and you're coming straight back with me!"

"I am not!"

"Besides, the office is really busy. We need you."

"Helen needs me more."

"Martha," he said ominously, "I'm going to telephone Bill."

The palms of her hands grew suddenly damp. "Everybody," she cried in a queer little voice, "Everybody wants to go running to Bill! I meant to tell you before. Suzanne has threatened to drive up to camp and—t-tell him how I'm carrying on!"

Many Film Colony Stars Could Turn Pretty Heads On Career And Find Living Otherwise

By Alexander Kahn
United Press Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD. (UP)—A surprising number of Hollywood film actresses could snap their fingers at their picture careers and still be assured a comfortable livelihood.

For, to a great extent, these same film career girls have other careers which they have previously followed and to which they could return.

For instance, there is the latest starlet at Paramount, Veronica Lake. Until a year ago, when she was prevailed upon to change careers, she was making a medical course at McGill University, Montreal, Canada.

Likewise independent of a film career is Gail Patrick, who was within a few months of getting her degree as an attorney when picture offers followed her winning a beauty contest. A law office might welcome her dark beauty and active mind.

Colbert Was Designer.

Once a designer, Claudette Colbert has that career as a back-log. Madeleine Carroll is another self-supporter aside from the screen.

Until a few years ago she was teaching school in England. Then a studio scout from Elysee discovered her blonde beauty hidden behind a stack of school books and she was launched on a film career.

Mary Martin, shapely beauty who appears opposite Jack Benny in "Love Thy Neighbor," is a dancer by profession and at one time previous to her Broadway stage hit and subsequent film success, she conducted a dancing school in Weatherford, Tex.

And, believe it or not, Ann Sheridan, once taught school; Wanda McKay was formerly an airline stewardess; Greer Garson, like Miss Carroll, was an English school teacher; and any number of others could teach dramatics if necessary.

Planning Wardrobe Is Major Project For Chic Woman

By Alicia Hart
NEA Service Staff Writer

The chic woman reads dozens of stories about new fashions before she plans her spring wardrobe. She considers each new color, silhouette and accessory carefully.

Then, because she is smart about considering her budget, as well as which lines and shades are most flattering to her type, she eliminates from her list items that do not suit her background and those which are impractical from other viewpoints.

A Common-Sense Compromise.

For example, if her days are spent in an office and her social life consists of simple cocktail parties after work, the movies and having a few people in to dinner occasionally, she does not buy a cocktail suit with fishtail skirt, however new and exciting it looks.

She puts the money she has allowed for dress-up clothes into lovely housecoats and a dinner dress or evening gown with jacket instead of an elaborate, ultra-formal gown which she isn't likely to be able to wear more than twice a year.

Unless she can have more than one pair of shoes in her Easter wardrobe, she doesn't buy red ones—no matter how intriguing they are. If she can have only one hat—for rainy days as well as sunny ones—she does not buy a frothy little flowered hat with yards of veiling. If she can have only one pair of gloves, she chooses dark ones.

Fitting Fashions To The Figure.

If she is short and inclined to be plump, she eschews capes and wide-brimmed hats. If she's flat-chested and inclined to be angular, she avoids perfectly plain, severely tailored shirtwaist dresses with no soft touches at throat or wrists.

She does not wear mannishly tailored, single-breasted suits of hard finish wools unless she knows that she is pretty. And she does not wear ultra feminine, ruffled, positively frilly clothes if she is more than size 18.

AUTO ACCIDENT VICTIM DIES IN LAREDO HOSPITAL

LAREDO, Tex., Jan. 23 (AP).—E. J. Myers, 60, injured in an automobile accident in which his son was killed Jan. 13 near Benavides, died in a Freer hospital yesterday.

The son, Eloy Myers, 26, was driving the car in which his father was riding. A building contractor here, Myers had been working in Corpus Christi for several months.

SIGNAL MOUNT UNION TO MEET IN MIDLAND

Midland was chosen site of the next meeting of the Signal Mount Union of Methodist young people in a session of the organization Monday at Stanton. The meeting will be February 17.

Ollie Deel of Big Spring, called to army service, resigned his position as president, Miss Nell Eden succeeding to the office.

Eighteen young people from Midland attended the meeting. Churches at Big Spring, Ackerly, Coahoma, and Stanton also were represented.

TOOL ENGINEERS PLAN AGAINST SHORTAGE IN FUTURE EMERGENCIES

DETROIT. (UP)—The United States never again will be caught in an emergency without enough skilled workers to swing full speed into a national defense production program, according to a broad new educational plan just formulated by the American Society of Tool Engineers.

The society soon will release through its 37 chapters, a three-point training program to local school boards which eventually may turn out skilled men by the thousands, Ford E. Lamb, executive secretary of the society, said.

Shortage of Men

An acute shortage of machinists, tool and die makers and machine designers has been the principal bottleneck in attempts to retool and expand factories for defense production, and the society estimated last summer that 1,200,000 technical and skilled workmen were needed for defense requirements.

This figure, Lamb said, has not changed "because we can make a semi-skilled machine operator in four to six weeks but it takes years to train a skilled mechanic or tool and die maker."

Baseball Heads Briggs And Bradley Disagree Heatedly On Highest Paid Pitcher But They Won't Give Terms

CLEVELAND, Jan. 23 (AP)—Alva Bradley, president of the Cleveland Indians, maintains that Bob Feller is the highest-paid pitcher in the history of baseball despite Detroit's claims for Buck Newsom. Methods of bookkeeping may have something to do with it. Neither club would reveal exact figures but here is how they stack up today: Feller received a salary last year generally believed to have been $27,000. His bonuses and income from endorsements added something like $10,000 more. Newsom was paid $30,000 last year including bonuses, said Walter O. Briggs, owner of the Tigers. "And he has signed his 1941 contract," Briggs added, indicating a raise in salary although nothing was said on that score. The most optimistic estimates placed the top possibility at $35,000. To the assumption that Newsom's 1941 contract must call for more than $30,000, Bradley snapped: "So does Bob's." Feller still is the highest-paid.

Chapman Looks For Success With Nats

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 23 (AP)—Eye irritations cured, Ben Chapman is convinced he still is a 300-hitter and a cinch for a comeback in the Washington outfield this season under "the best owner-manager combination in baseball." What's more, he's happy and ready to go. The erstwhile holdout and problem boy already has signed his 1941 contract, and he "took a cut because I had a bad year and figure I was due it." His batting average slumped to .286 at Cleveland last season and the Indians traded him to Washington during the winter. Cleveland doctors told Chapman he needed glasses and he got them, but without results. A young Montgomery specialist found the trouble, an irritation of the lids. It responded quickly to treatment and vision returned to normal. "Yeh," Chapman agreed, "normal is what the doctor says. But my vision is 20-20 and that's perfect—good as anybody's got."

Bullpups To Play In Tournament At Alpine Saturday

Midland Junior High's Bullpups will go to Alpine Saturday for an area tournament. Two teams will make the trip, Coach W. N. Hargrave said today. The tourney is divided into two groups, according to heights of players and Midland will enter both. One division includes heights to 5 feet 3 inches, the other is over that height. Midland, Marathon, Van Horn, Marfa, Iraan, Grandfalls, McCamey, and Monahans are entered in the meet. First Game Saturday Noon Midland's first game is at 12 noon Saturday, with the "short" team playing Monahans. At 12:40 p. m., the taller plays Monahans. The Pups will leave by automobile at 7:30 a. m. Saturday morning. Coach Hargrave named this traveling squad: H. B. Bedford, Bill Richards, Copper Daugherty, "Duck" Drake, John Larsh, Bobby Stephens, Bobbie Hyatt, Jimmy Watson, Ralph Vertrees, John Cowden, Henry Shaw, David Hyatt, and Bobby Conkling.

Texas Interscholastic League Plans Basketball Competition Operated On Same Basis As Football Procedure

If plans of the Texas Interscholastic League materialize, basketball in 1941 will take on order and organization, being played in districts with playoffs identical with those of football. A proposed change calls for four state championship playoffs for AA, A, B, and six-man football districts. Elimination would follow the procedure used in football playoffs—district winners advancing to bi-districts, regional and state playoffs. Eight Teams Would Play Eight teams would compete in the state championship in each division. District 3-AA this season started play among football rivals in a basketball league for the first time. Midland high however must advance to district ranking by winning a county championship.

Tech Will Name Mentor Tuesday

LUBBOCK, Jan. 23 (AP)—A decision is expected next Tuesday on the new football coach at Texas Tech. W. L. Stangel, chairman of the athletic council, said today the list of applicants had been trimmed to five and that the council would finish its interviews Saturday. Four others are being considered for assistant jobs, Stangel added. The college board of directors will meet Tuesday and the athletic council expects to have its recommendation submitted by that time. More than 100 applied for the post vacated through resignation of Pete Cawthon.

Crosby Tourney Entrants Ready

RANCHO SANTA FE, Calif., Jan. 23 (AP)—Entrants in the fifth annual $3,000 pro-amateur golf tournament sponsored by Bing Crosby appeared on the scene today for final practice rounds before the start of the 36-hole event. Half of the record field of 320 tees off tomorrow for its first round, and the other half, including most of the leading contenders, play Saturday. The tournament ends with 18 holes Sunday. Tournament director Darsie L. Darsie said that while the entry list exceeded expectations, indications pointed to an even greater turnout by spectators during the three days of the meet. All receipts, he said, are to be turned over to charity, and various social relief organizations of Los Angeles and San Diego have been helping with the promotion.

Wife Says Ruth Through Forever

NEW YORK, Jan. 23 (AP)—From Mrs. Babe Ruth came the surprising word today that the Babe is through with baseball for keeps, let the offers fall where they may. Talking for the one-and-only Bambino, simply because his larynx is so sore he couldn't talk for himself, Mrs. Ruth disclosed this bit of news after revealing that the "flu" bug has bitten the Babe and has kept him in bed since Sunday. "There's nothing to the report that Babe is planning to become manager of the Seattle club of the Pacific Coast League," Mrs. Ruth said. "Worked Hard Enough. In fact, the Babe isn't planning to work in baseball any more at all, regardless of what offers he may receive. We feel he's worked hard enough in baseball and he'll take it easy now. At the moment, the Babe wasn't much interested in baseball, his golf, bridge, or even the size of his wandering waist-line. Mrs. Ruth explained two doctors have been treating him and that day and night nurses are helping them out.

Mustangs Promise Stiffer Fight In Midland Contest

Hot-and-cold Sweetwater will be the opponent of the Midland Bulldogs cagers at 8 p. m. Friday night in the Mustangs corral. The Bulldogs hold a decision over Sweetwater in their first meeting here. The Mustangs dropped Snyder Monday night, 29-10, in a game which labeled them as definitely improved over early season appearances. Makes Nine Points Fitzgerald led the Mustang attack on Snyder. He poured four field goals through the hoop and sank one charity shot for nine points. Midland cagers have been occupied with semester examinations this week, but found time to get in hard practice sessions. Coach Earle Clark has not named his traveling squad for the Sweetwater tilt.
