Psychologists hedge their ideas in a thicket of big words. They invent and use words of their own; words which have a different meaning to them than to you and depends on Turkey's attitude, and that in turn hinges in large degree

Sometimes it is hard to discover what they are driving at. Nevertheless, some of their ideas are quite simple, and equally sensible, when you break through the verbal bushes.

Psychologists have an explanation of the appeal of dictatorship in these days, and it was well stated by Dr. Margaret E. Fries to the American Orthopsychiatric Association. Don't let the association's name scare you; follow the argument:

Deep down in every person, no matter how old or how experienced he becomes, there lies buried a memory of childhood. Even if we don't realize it, some part of our consciousness remembers the time when we were warm, our thinking was done for us. We weren't held very strictly liance. Activities of the Mustang Boys Club will be increased and a larger program of recreation adopted. A new playground will be opened on the west side of the city, bringing the total here to four, Malcolm Bridges, Big Spring, district WPA recreational supervisor said. Others are the southside ground, and those of the Latin Americans and negroes. The Rotary Club, sponsor of the boys' club, plans to remodel the club house, putting it in first class condition. The Lions Club and American Legion are co-sponsors of the play-ground program.

Nine Sports In Program

Nine sports are included in the spring athletic program. They are softball, volley ball, horse shoes, pitching washers, arts and crafts, and croquet. Playground supervisors will direct playground activities, and hours will be from 2:30 p. m. to 6:30 p. m. daily.

The youth committee of the Ro-tary Club will meet at 8 p. m. Wed-nesday night at the club house to perfect plans of the boys' club. The club was organized three years ago with 67 members. There now are 300 members, 100 regular in attendance. The boys meet Wednesday and Saturdays. Four men leaders are active. They are Howard Proctor, Robert Hedg-es, John Parker, and Pete Jameson.

This is the first of a series of six articles on hands that were played by the country's outstanding experts-otherwise they would not have worked.

You see, the expert is so fine in his analysis of his hand, that when he is playing against another ex-pert, he knows he can depend upon that opponent to make just the correct play. So occasionally one ex-pert will lay a very fine trap which the other expert cannot help but fall into.

This first hand was played by Oswald Jacoby against one of the country's greatest card analysts. Would you have fallen for the same play?

Jacoby was sitting South. The opening lead held and North con-tinued with the jack of clubs, at point Jacoby overtook in order to lead the king of hearts, which West won with the ace.

A small diamond was led to the king and the deuce of diamonds re-turned. Jacoby split his honors, playing the jack, West won with the ace and led a small diamond, trumping in dummy. Jacoby played the queen of diamonds, deliberately establishing declarer's ten-spot.

Jacoby's purpose was to cause West to misread the hand. West West had to reason thus:

"South had either two or three ubs. He did not have more than clubs. four hearts, or he would have releast three spades."

the queen of spades won.

By Harold V. Ratliff Associated Press Staff

The Jeff Davis Panthers of Houston look like the team to beat in the State Schoolboy Basketball Tournament at Austin this week-but there are quite a few who say San Marcos can do it.

The Rattlers stumbled at first but finished the district and regional drive with a rush. Followers of the team declare it now is every bit as good as that of last season when the Rattlers worked their way camp today. to the state championship.

San Marcos dropped games to Austin and Jeff Davis in the practice schedule but it was Austin the Rattlers beat out for the district

Equipped with three members of last season's title team-Coers, Edwards and Jones-San Marcos has the experience and poise necessary to wade through such a strong field as presented at the state tournament

El Paso Stands Out

Jeff Davis has lost but one game and the Panthers loom as all sorts of trouble for the field in the showdown Friday and Saturday. Two other teams stand out in the drive to the state tournament. El Paso High, the 1940 state runner-up, is back with another fine team. The Tigers, like San Marcos, had trouble until the chips were down. Then El Paso went to town, beating the widely-heralded Odessa team in the first round of the regional tournament and crushing Imperial in the finals.

Among the four other teams qualifying for the state tournament is Abilene, a perennial visitor to Austin. The Eagles have won their regional championship three times in four years and lost only one game this season.

Pampa, Waco and Bloomington are the remaining three.
