West Extender Of Slaughter Pool Is Completed For 358

Atlantic-Rhodes Strike Nearly Doubles Yield When Re-Test Is Made

Re-testing of Atlantic Refining Company and Ray R. Rhodes of Midland No. 1 Carrie Slaughter Dean, two and one-half mile west extender of the Slaughter pool in Cochran County, nearly doubled its original daily rating of 195.92 barrels of oil.

It pumped 358.36 barrels of oil, plus 40 per cent water on the re-test, which will be filed with the Railroad Commission as the official potential gauge. Located 672 feet from the north, 8,423 from the east line of league 89, Lipscomb County school land, it is bottomed at 5,111 feet, plugged back from total depth of 5,150 feet, and has been both shot and acidized.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 3 F. L. Woodley, short north extension producer to the Cochran side of the pool, flooded 90 barrels of oil, cut four per cent with sediment and water, in three hours while cleaning out after treating with 10,500 gallons of acid. Total depth is 4,992 feet.

George P. Livermore, Inc. No. 1 Della Slaughter Wright, deep test on the northwest edge of the Dean pool in Eastern Cochran, is drilling past 6,582 feet in lime. It is slated to go to 7,000 feet.

Hockley Extension Test. Magnolia No. 1 Maple Wilson, seeking one-mile north spread of the Hockley side of the Slaughter pool, recovered four feet of lime showing porosity, oil, gas and water by coring from 4,870-74 feet. Water is believed not to be of bottom-hole origin. The well had logged first oil staining in cuttings at 4,850 feet. After core was taken it was drilled from 4,874-95 feet. Coring was resumed at the latter depth, and the well now has cored to 4,898 feet in lime.

Also in Hockley, Magnolia No. 2-J Mallett Land & Cattle rated daily potential flow of 1,355.40 barrels after acidizing with 10,500 gallons at 5,044 feet. S. W. Richardson No. 3-B S. A. Slaughter made 342.24 barrels after 8,000 gallons at 4,975 feet. Western States Gasoline Corporation No. 6 W. G. Frazier rated 1,462.80 barrels following acidization with 9,000 gallons at 5,069. Honolulu Oil Corporation No. 2-3-52 Mallett "A" set potential of 676.88 barrels after 7,500 gallons at 5,070 feet.

Magnolia No. 1 N. B. Teague, wildcat in Northern Martin County, shut down at 4,775 feet in lime to mix circulating mud after losing returns at 4,773 feet. It previously had lost returns from 4,675-77 feet.

Predicts Victory For Britain Soon

LONDON, March 14—(AP)—A British victory "will not only be certain—it will be quick," if the empire can hold on until American aid is received, First Lord of the Admiralty A. V. Alexander declared today.

"You can not win this national struggle except on the basis of 100 per cent national cooperation," Alexander told a parliament press luncheon.

"We are facing perhaps the most critical stage of the war in which the navy is called upon to play a very great part."

Minister of shipping Ronald H. Cross told the engineers institute: "I say frankly we are going to be faced with a really hard struggle at sea this year."

Hank Greenberg Has Flat Footsies

DETROIT, March 14—(AP)—The Detroit News said today that a selective service board examining physician at Lakeland, Fla., has declared Hank Greenberg, the American League's most valuable player last season, unfit for more than limited army service because of his flat feet.

Dr. Grover C. Freeman of Lakeland was quoted by the News as saying he has recommended to Greenberg's Detroit draft board that the big Detroit outfielder be placed in 1-B classification.

Greenberg, the News reported today, signed his 1941 playing contract last night for a reported sum of $50,000.

Standard Unit To Merge With Carter Company

TULSA, Okla., March 14—(AP)—The Louark Producing Company, crude oil producing unit of the Standard Oil Company of Louisiana, shortly will be merged with the Carter Oil Company, it was announced today.

The announcement was made by M. J. Rathbone, president of Standard of Louisiana; J. J. Conry, president of Carter, and J. R. McWilliams, president of Louark.

Both Louark and Carter are subsidiaries of Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. The announcement said that the merger will become effective April 1, "if the necessary legal requirements can be met by that time."

"Through the merger with Carter, Louark will be in a position to utilize its organization in prosecuting more extensive exploration and producing work in Louisiana and contiguous territory," the announcement said.

Time To Major Things. "On the other hand, by divesting itself of producing interests which are relatively minor as compared to its refining, marketing and pipe line investments, the Standard Oil of Louisiana will be free to devote its entire energy to these major activities."

"Also, the Louisiana company's crude oil position will be better protected because the Carter organization will be able to build crude reserves behind the Louisiana company's refinery needs more efficiently than has been possible through the small Louark organization."

"While the Carter, with general offices in Tulsa, will be the continuing company after the merger, its operations in Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi and Alabama will continue to be managed from the Shreveport, La., office. The merger may require some adjustments in personnel, in which event the management will adhere to its established policy of retaining all employees with long service and absorbing to as great an extent as possible those other employees with shorter periods of service."

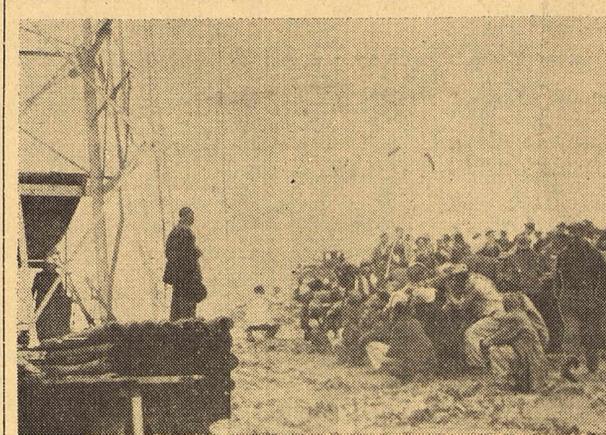

Midland Teachers To Big Spring Meeting

Negroes Pray For Oil As Drilling Starts On Wildcat Test

Negro church members of Cune, Tex., are led in prayer by their preacher (left), on derrick, as drilling starts on a rank wildcat test in Cherokee County, East Texas. The negroes pooled their lands a year ago and gave it under free oil and gas lease to whoever would agree to drill a hole to the Woodbine sand. A shining new derrick was set up on their land and the congregation went down on its knees to ask the Lord to send them oil—and riches. They feel that their prayers have been answered to some extent in that the derrick has been set up.

British Air Raiders Wreak Great Destruction On Ports Of Germany

By The Associated Press. RAF raiders carried the war to Germany with renewed fury overnight. British reports said today, striking tempestuous blows on the ports of Hamburg, Bremen and Emden and raking the Nazi-held port of Rotterdam, Holland.

Berlin said more than 50 patients and nurses were left "dead and buried" in the wreckage of two Hamburg hospitals.

In heavy counter-bomb, Adolf Hitler's Luftwaffe smashed at the great Clydebank shipping yards at Glasgow, Scotland, and pounded again at Liverpool, London and Hull.

Severe Hamburg Raid. London's air ministry said that the raid on Hamburg, carried out in bright moonlight, was "the most severe attack" yet delivered on that bomb-battered city and that huge fires broke out around the shipbuilding yard, docks and warehouses "which had received special attention the night before."

The German high command dismissed the military damage by British attack as "insignificant," but acknowledged that numerous buildings destroyed or damaged.

The British claimed 11 German planes were shot down during the night's fierce action, making a total of 23 since Wednesday night; the Germans claimed 12 RAF planes were destroyed.

RAF night fighters appeared in unprecedented numbers to combat the Nazi bombers, which resumed the use of scream bombs such as they dropped last spring in France.

First Munitions Factory Produces

WASHINGTON, March 14—(AP)—Three months ahead of schedule, a critically-needed smokeless powder plant reached the production stage today, the first of a $1,000,000 string of government munitions factories.

Under-Secretary of War Patterson, Governor Price of Virginia, Major General Charles M. Wesson, the army's chief of ordnance, and Major General Edmund B. Gregory, quartermaster general, arranged to attend the formal opening of the new $4,000,000 ordnance works at Radford in southwestern Virginia.

A army of 21,000 workmen, working in three shifts around the clock, hustled the scheduled 10-month construction job through in seven and met the war department's pressure for speed. The 4,400 acre project was given top priority because of the threatened ammunition shortage which would affect not only the nation's expanding defense forces but also the plans to make the United States the "arsenal of Democracy."

Burnet Lectures On Early History

R. M. P. Burnet, of Carlsbad, N. M., took his audience "on a trip through the Guadalupe" with an illustrated address before Town Hall members and guests at the high school auditorium Thursday evening.

His lecture, and a series of colored slides concerning the cave country of the Guadalupe region of Texas and New Mexico supported his "unorthodox" contention that man existed in the Southwest at a time far earlier than is usually believed.

Illustrates With Slides. Caves where Burnet and his co-workers in archaeology dug and sifted debris to ferret out facts concerning early men were pictured in slides and in humorous and informal words of the lecturer.

The speaker was presented at an extra-curricular meeting of the club and guests.

Board members for next year were balloted. The results will be announced later.

Powder Explosion In Spain Kills Fifty

SEVILLE, Spain, March 14—(AP)—Fifty persons were killed, authorities estimated, when the Santa Barbara powder depot near Seville blew up today.

The number of injured was placed at 480.

All Seville felt the blast violently. A workers' suburb of 300 houses was wrecked, scarcely one of the houses remaining intact.

In all, 2,500 persons were left homeless.

Only a few persons escaped from the powder depot, and a textile factory under construction nearby was all but demolished.

Five soldiers guarding the powder house were among the dead.

There were many women and children injured in the workers' suburb, their men having gone to work before the blast occurred.

Three Big Issues Face Legislature

AUSTIN, March 14—(AP)—The half-way mark of the general 120-day convolve today found the legislature in week-end recess with the truck load limit increase, Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's anti-strike proposal and taxes highlighting discussion.

Climaxing long debate, the Senate yesterday passed a bill permitting gross weights of motor truck and load up to 38,000 pounds, 3,000 higher than that sanctioned by the House to which the proposal returns for acceptance or rejection of Senate amendments.

In another unexpected appearance, the governor appeared before the lawmakers and urged quick passage of a law prohibiting strikes or lockouts in defense industries without 60 days notice.

Omnibus Bill To Committee. Receiving the House's $25,000,000 omnibus tax bill, the Senate assigned it to its state affairs committee for hearings, study and possible alteration.

Amendments stipulating methods of enforcement and penalties for violation accompanied the truck load bill back to the House. Efforts to boost the current 7,000-pound limit have consumed many hours in hearings and debate. If the House does not approve Senate alterations, the proposal will go to a conference committee.

A bill defining marginal oil wells as those which would not produce their maximum capacity except by pumping, gas lift or any other means of artificial lift received a unanimous favorable House committee report.

British Shoot Down 14 Planes

ATHENS, Greece, March 14—(AP)—RAF headquarters announced today 14 Italian fighter planes were shot down and a number badly damaged yesterday in a battle over the Kilsura-Tepeleni sector of Albania without the loss of a single British plane.

Greek dispatches declared five Italian divisions had been shattered in Italian offensives launched in the last seven days in response to Benito Mussolini's reported adjuration to his officers to "do something."

A furious Italian assault over the wide front in the central sector about Tepeleni was completely beaten off, the Greeks said, and great losses were suffered.

For beauty as well as deliciousness, the lamb chops were placed on a green platter and garnished with halves of pears and mint jelly. Another attractive dish was the pineapple chiffon pie with crust of vanilla wafers, a row of wafers round the edge of the pan giving roundly scalloped effect.

Women in the audience demonstrated their interest by asking a large number of questions, answered by Miss Crosson from the platform. Foods prepared were displayed in the lobby of the Yuca theatre and were distributed as gifts at the close of the morning.

The Traffic Cop

Well, today we are out driving for a little air. We have been sitting in the house all day, maybe had friends in for bridge, lunch, or maybe dinner is over and we just want to ride around. Since we live in the good old U. S. A. we can do just that without permission and we can buy all the gasoline we want so we can get some air.

Now while driving along talking let's don't forget our slogan and at the same time keep just as far to the right side of the street as we can because we are driving slowly but there are others who wish to go a little faster, so we give them all the street they want to pass us without having to sound horns.

We are very thoughtless of the above and, too, we know we have said some nasty things about that road hog up ahead, and now the things that we have said about him he is saying about us. Remember?

Fresh White Collars For Sale

Just as there is a bright side even to afflictions like appendicitis or a tonsillectomy, so there is a bright side to some of the rough ride Americans have had during the last dozen years.

Something unhealthy and slyly subversive of real Americanism was growing up in the twenties. It was the desperate desire of every family to bring its sons up into white collar positions. This brought a sort of cleavage of the population into two classes—those who wore white collars and those who didn't.

Ever there was a false basis for division, that was it. Yet families slaved and struggled, denied themselves everything, so that their sons might achieve a job pushing a pencil or pen instead of working with their hands. Thousands of young men, often ill-qualified, fought their way through college or high school for no better reason than that it seemed to promise later light work at high pay.

That philosophy was fair neither to higher education, nor to American life, nor to the young men. For the primary purpose of education ought not to be to prepare one for a "good job," but to bring about a better adjustment of a man to life, with a greater appreciation of its rich and varied phases. Such objectives are no less valuable to a machinist than to a bank teller. And under today's conditions the machinist is more likely to have time and leisure to develop the cultural side of life than the teller.

People began finding that out after the depression struck. Young men and women with high school educations or better found that the white-collar jobs for which they had planned did not exist. They went into the textile and steel mills, into the truck cabs and shops.

And to the surprise of many of them, they found, first, that it wasn't as bad a life as they had been led to believe, and second, that they were all the better mill-hands, drivers, or machinists because of their education.

The whole "white-collar culture" of the twenties is now in disfavor, and the boom in defense industries now draws thousands more from desk to lathe. More and more of the future seems to be going over to the engineers, the chemists, the architects, the skilled workmen. Real brains and brain work always will be at a premium, but a white collar just for a white collar's sake no longer looks as good as it used to.

Old and artificial divisions and classifications are breaking down, and a good thing, too. True Americans will wear no man's collar but their own, nor will they be as greatly influenced in the future as in the past by its color.

Fires Smouldering Below

Europe is beginning to smoulder. Very little information seeps out of the tight blanket thrown over a continent by the censorship of the conqueror. But here and there a little wisp of smoke appears, suggesting that beneath the blanket of oppression there are fires smouldering.

It is true that not all news from occupied territories can be trusted. Some of it comes from sources which would naturally want to exaggerate the discontent, making it appear that rebellion is about to break out. But taking only the news permitted to be known by the Nazis themselves, there is evidence of widespread discontent as the grip of the conqueror tightens.

Newspapers in occupied Paris, in which nothing appears without the Nazi imprimatur, now threaten death for young Frenchmen who try to leave occupied France. Apparently numbers of them have been escaping across the English Channel from lonely French coastal points to take up arms against their conquerors.

At the same time, heavier penalties are being invoked against the Dutch, as official German news reports tell of sabotage, secret organizations, and occasional actual attacks against German soldiers.

Norway, too, is feeling a heavier hand. The Nazi commissioner has decreed that the property of the families of all Norwegians who aided the British in their spectacular raid on the Lofoten Islands shall be burned. That is repression precisely like that practiced during the Thirty Years War of 300 years ago, and suggests that the situation has become serious.

With all this there is a mounting passive resistance; non-violent refusal to co-operate with the conquerors. This, too, seems to be spreading and developing new techniques. These tactics, difficult to cope with, can't be helping the morale of idle troops of occupation.

All this is not to suggest that military revolt is brewing in conquered Europe. With the machine guns, the tanks, and the airplanes all on one side, that is impossible. But enough has escaped from German sources to indicate that the task of conqueror is not in all ways a happy one, and that instead of being "co-ordinated" into the Nazi way, much of Europe is sullenly resentful, beginning to smoulder.

The boon of "liberation" by the Nazi invaders seems less appreciated, not more, as the months pass.

Millions, unversed in ideology, remember only that before the Germans came they had food, and work, and freedom.

The Bear That Walks Like A Mouse

Broiling Is Easy Way Of Cooking If Rules Are Followed

Broiling is one of the easiest methods of cooking meat and it is a favorite method. Yet, it probably raises more questions than any of the other methods of cooking meat. Perhaps, this is natural because recommendations for broiling have been changed, after much research has been carried on in meat cookery. Then, too, personal opinion differs greatly as to what is the "perfectly broiled steak or chop."

"Most of us have heard that we sear meat to keep the juices in," Miss Crosson continued. "But studies on roasting disproved this theory and it seemed reasonable to assume that searing would be no more effective in broiling. Also, the assumption that the undesirable effects of high temperatures in roasting would be equally undesirable in broiling, appeared justified."

"Studies proved this to be true and for this reason moderate temperature is recommended because the meat will be about half done by the time the top side is nicely browned, but not charred."

"Perhaps some reasons the broiler is not used more extensively in the preparation of meat is that women consider it 'too hard to wash the broiler pan,' the 'kitchen is smoked up' and 'it is too much bother.' The construction of the broiler pans and racks in the modern gas range has done much to overcome this difficulty."

"The broiler oven may be preheated 5 to 10 minutes with the burner on full and then the broiler rack greased with a piece of suet. This pan and rack should be cooled before washing then it is not too hard to wash."

"Another reason why women regard broiling as not being easy when the cooking temperature is high is because it takes more or less constant attention with frequent turnings."

"As a consequence, in a great many homes the broiler remains an unused part of the range. This is unfortunate because not only meats, but the entire main course may be prepared to add variety to meals."

"Tender steaks and chops as well as many of the other foods, such as fruits, and vegetables, which go well with them are easily and satisfactorily broiled."

"Not only is it important to select the right cut of meat for broiling, but for the best results, special attention also should be paid to the quality. There should be a liberal distribution of fat throughout the lean. This should not be confused with gristle."

"Wipe the meat with a damp cloth. Preheat the broiler oven and grease the rack. Place the broiler rack so that when the meat is in place, the top side will be about 3 1/2 inches from the flame. By the time the top side of the steak is nicely browned, the steak will be approximately half done. Season and turn. The broiler door on the modern gas range should be closed while broiling."

"The length of time required to broil depends upon how done you want the food; the thickness of the steak or other food; and to some extent upon the area of the food. In other words, a large steak will take more time to broil than a smaller steak of the same thickness. Of course, if you like steaks rare, you will not broil them as long as if you desire well-done steaks. The mixed grill is a combination of foods that have been broiled. Indeed, the mixed grill is practically the whole meal prepared at one time, in one cooking and served on one platter or on individual plates. A green salad and a simple dessert complete the meal. Pork—with the exception of a slice of ham cut one-fourth inch thick

Preparation And Attractive Serving Of Foods Demonstrated By Expert

Deft combinations of foods can result in colorful dishes which rate, plus in appetite-appeal, it was shown by Miss Mary Alice Crossman in the concluding demonstration of a series at The Reporter-Telegram cooking school at the Yucca Theatre this morning.

Following are the recipes demonstrated:

MODERN BAKED HAM

Place the ham, fat side up, on a rack in an open roasting pan. Preheat oven of gas range to 300 degrees F. Bake without adding water and without covering. For a 10 to 12 pound ham, allow approximately 25 minutes per pound; for larger hams 20 minutes per pound; half hams 30 minutes per pound.

Forty-five minutes before the ham is done, remove it from the oven and remove rind. Cut diagonal across the fat to form diamonds. Stick whole cloves in center of diamonds. Moisten brown sugar with some of the fat drippings; rub on the ham. Return to the oven to finish baking. During last 10 minutes, increase heat to 425 degrees F. to brown ham.

ASPARAGUS TIMBALES

1 bunch asparagus
Few grains pepper
1 1/2 T. melted Banner butter
2 eggs
1/4 c. hot Banner milk
1/4 t. salt
1 c. bread crumbs

Wash asparagus thoroughly; cut the tender parts into one-half inch long, and put into boiling salted water. Boil rapidly for 10 minutes and drain thoroughly. In the meantime, cover the bread-crumbs with hot milk. When crumbs are soft, add eggs, and mix well together. Stir in salt, and melted butter; then stir in asparagus tips, carefully. Grease small timbale molds, and fill. Set in a baking pan that contains boiling water, but do not allow the water to reach the top of the molds.

Preheat the oven of the gas range to 300 degrees F. Bake 35 to 45 minutes. Invert on a heated platter. Serve with white sauce.

SWEET POTATO BALLS WITH MARSHMALLOWS

Mash and season canned or cooked sweet potato. Shape into balls with a marshmallow in the center of each. Roll in crushed cornflakes and bake until hot and brown with the rest of the meal.

APPLE COMPOTE

4 medium-sized tart apples
2 c. water
1 c. sugar
1/4 c. red cinnamon candies

Wash, pare, quarter and core firm, ripe apples, and drop in cold water. Boil sugar and water 3 minutes, stirring until sugar is dissolved; add cinnamon candies. Drain dropped apple sections into syrup, a few at a time; cover and simmer gently until fruit is transparent, turning apples when half done. A small amount of red vegetable coloring and 1 small stick cinnamon may be added to the syrup in place of the cinnamon candies, if desired.

BROILED STEAK WITH VEGETABLES

Select steak 1 1/2 to 2 inches thick. Trim off excess fat and wipe with damp cloth. Preheat the broiler 5 to 10 minutes. Rub broiler rack and pan with suet. Place steak on rack 3 to 3 1/2 inches below the flame with left-over vegetables under the rack. Sear steak on one side. Then season and turn. (If a fork is used, it should be inserted in the fat rather than in the fiber of the meat.) Reduce the gas flame, if a well-done steak is desired. Broil 20 to 30 minutes.

With varying thickness, degree of heat and personal preferences, the Fold in whipped egg whites and cream. Sprinkle half of finely crushed vanilla wafers in bottom of dessert tray of automatic refrigerator. Pour mixture over crumbs, and cover with remaining crumbs. Set temperature control pointer for faster freezing and freeze until firm. Serve in finger length slices. Serves 6.

PINEAPPLE CHIFFON PIE

1 T. gelatin
1/2 c. sugar
1/4 c. cold water
4 eggs
1 T. lemon juice
1/4 t. salt
1 1/4 c. canned, crushed pineapple
Soak gelatin in cold water 5 minutes. Beat egg yolks slightly, add 1/4 c. sugar, pineapple, lemon juice and salt. Cook over boiling water until of custard consistency. Add softened gelatin, stirring thoroughly and cool. When mixture begins to thicken fold in stiffly beaten egg whites to which has been added the other 1/4 c. sugar. Fill baked pie crust and chill in automatic refrigerator. Just before serving spread thin layer of whipped cream over pie.

COFFEE

Put fresh water in lower part of glass coffee maker and drip, ground Folger coffee in upper part, being sure that filter is properly adjusted. Wipe outside with dry towel. Set coffee maker over gas flame with tip of flame touching bottom. Do not turn flame so high that the flame laps up around the sides. The Lord's Supper Is Christ's Invitation To A Famishing World

By R. A. Weaver

17 And he received a cup, and when he had given thanks, he said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 For I say unto you, I shall not drink from henceforth of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 And he took bread, and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave to them, saying, This is my body which is given for you; this do in remembrance of me.

20 And the cup in like manner after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood, even that which is poured out for you.—Luke 22.

Jesus said, "With desire have I desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer." This Hebraistic expression means, "I have greatly desired." It is a very emphatic statement of the depth of Jesus' emotion at this time. Note how he calls attention to the fact that He shall suffer.

But before inaugurating the new covenant, Jesus declares that He shall not again eat the Passover until it is fulfilled in the new kingdom, meal, there is to be no such observance by Jesus and His apostles of the Passover. But the new supper, about to be inaugurated, will be fulfillment of all the blessed fellowship which the Passover afforded, and will be shared by Jesus and His followers whenever observed through all coming ages.

He took unleavened bread. When He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "This is my body which is given for you; this do in remembrance of me."

Then He took the cup and had them all drink of the fruit of the vine. He said that this was the covenant, established by His own blood poured out for our redemption. The Lord's Supper is symbolic of the sacrifice of our Lord. Jesus also calls it the new covenant. The new covenant was dedicated by the shedding of Christ's own blood.

Meaning of the Lord's Supper.

1. It is a memorial to Jesus Christ who gave His life on the cross for our redemption. Jesus said, "This do in remembrance of me."

2. It is a proclamation—a showing forth of the Lord's death until he comes again. Thus, since He is the living Christ who is to return again, the proclamation includes not only His death, but also His resurrection.

3. It is prophecy. Every time this feast is observed, it foretells that our Lord will return to earth in glory. It is a prophecy of His second coming. We show forth His death "until he comes."

4. It is a covenant. In the olden days a covenant was attested not by a signature, but by the actual life-blood of the persons who made it. The Lord Jesus has made a covenant with all those who accept Him in faith. He promised that we shall have eternal life with the heavenly Father. This promise He sealed with His own blood. It is a covenant that He has established forever with His disciples. He renews that covenant with us every time the Lord's Supper is served. Christians accept that covenant when they receive the seal of baptism. They also renew that covenant in the Lord's Supper. In order to claim the promise of the Lord, we must appropriate His salvation through faith in Him. Every time we observe this supper, we renew our covenant with Him.

5. It is a holy communion or spiritual fellowship with the Lord who is spiritually present at the feast.

6. It serves to unify the church. There is a communion with the saints or fellowship with the brethren. There is a solidarity recognized by the church as it assembles around the Lord's Table. There is a recognition

I hope that hand No. 13 in this year's World Bridge Olympic, which is to be held April 17, will not prove the Jonah that last year's No. 13 hand was. The committee prescribed the bidding, and figured that the only problem on the hand was for East to make the correct opening.

They stated, "The whole defense hinges on the opening lead. East is expected to see from the bidding and his holding of top clubs that the best plan is to lead through South's declared heart suit, in an effort to knock out the sides entries to the declared club suit. After any other lead, declarer should make game easily."

But many defenders tried other opening leads and still made life difficult for declarer. An East player in a game at Portland, Ore., opened the five of diamonds. The jack forced the ace, and North laid down the queen of clubs. East held off, then won a second lead of the suit.

Now East saw it might be a good idea to attack the hearts. Declarer could not afford to duck a round of the suit, because then a diamond would come through and thus set the fifth trick for the opposition. So South won the heart and led another club. East won and continued a heart.

While South was able to run the club suit, he lost his contract because the spade suit was not established. As soon as West got in with the ace of spade, he cashed two good heart tricks.

No Group Action On Tax Proposal

AUSTIN, March 14—(AP)—Concluding a series of hearings on a bill to repeal the state chain store tax, the House committee on taxation and revenue last night failed to act on the proposal for lack of quorum.

Advocates contended the tax was a punitive measure rather than one to produce revenue and declared chain stores benefitted thousands by offering merchandise at prices within reach of families in moderate circumstances.

Asserting competition was the only safeguard assuring fair prices, W. B. Addison of Houston, president of the Texas Retail Grocers Association, assailed "loss-leaders" he said were used by chain stores to draw customers.

"The chain stores are seeking to dominate the retail business of America," he declared. "I believe they are an economic menace."

State Legislature Ahead Of Schedule

AUSTIN, March 14—(AP)—At the halfway point today of the general session of the 47th legislature, members glanced forward and backward and expressed confidence that final adjournment would find their promises to the people fulfilled.

Most agreed the session was ahead of schedule in its work. Lieutenant-Governor Coke R. Stevenson, president of the Senate, declared progress was as good, if not better, than two years ago.

"Prospects for Senate approval of a revenue producing measure are bright." The upper chamber can't initiate bills Stevenson asserted, Speaker Homer Leonard was gratified at "splendid headway" made in the House. "We are far ahead of past years," he said, "and have done more work with better harmony than ever before."

Does Away With Indirect Income For Pension Funds

AUSTIN, March 14—(AP)—Elimination of considering indirect income to determine an old age pensioner's eligibility has resulted from a House committee's inquiry into work of state investigators, Rep. Gene McNamara of Waco, chairman, asserted today.

McNamara said that since the committee started its investigation with hearings at Lufkin, Waco, Fort Worth and other points, the practice of old age assistance investigators' checking egg, milk and garden production against a possible grant has been abandoned.

Yugoslav Leaders Fail To Go To Germany

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, March 14—(AP)—Despite continuing Axis pressure, Yugoslav government leaders failed to leave today for Germany to talk terms with Adolf Hitler as had been expected.

Will Create Defense Mediation Board

WASHINGTON, March 14—(AP)—An indication that a 11-man defense labor mediation board would be created with mediation powers and voluntary rather than compulsory arbitration authority developed today from a conference between President Roosevelt and AFL President William Green.

The board would handle labor troubles in the defense program. Green told reporters his understanding of the proposed new setup was that it would have four representatives of industry, four of labor and three from the general public.

Parties Settle One Walk-Out At Houston

HOUSTON, Tex., March 14—(AP)—One strike has been settled and negotiations are under way toward preventing another at plants holding defense contracts.

The strike at the Tolul plant built at the Humble refinery at Baytown was settled last night and the 143 craftsmen, who walked out Monday, are to return to work today.

Negotiations continued at the Shell Oil refinery where International Oil Workers Local 376 have demanded a 10 per cent wage increase and discontinuance of a "systematic discrimination against union employees."

Texas Gets Millions In Defense Contracts

AUSTIN, Tex., March 14—(AP)—National defense contracts in Texas moved steadily upward and through February amounted to $228,712,454, B. Frank White, acting state director for the office of government reports, announced today.

The amount includes only contracts for work done within the state and does not cover construction projects outside the state being built by Texas concerns, White said. Such awards total approximately 14 million dollars.

On Oracoke Island, N. C., ponies and cattle roam wild.

British Ask Help For Merchant Marine

LONDON, March 14—(AP)—Britain asked quick help from the United States to bolster her merchant marine in a statement issued today at No. 10 Downing street.

The statement said Prime Minister Churchill was sending Sir Arthur Salter, parliamentary secretary to the ministry of shipping, to the United States immediately to work out details of aid to shipping.

Roosevelt Wants Larger Social Security Program

WASHINGTON, March 14—(AP)—President Roosevelt recommended at a press conference today that the numbers of persons covered by the social security program and the benefits they receive be increased.

Some developments on this program, he said, may be expected in the spring. The chief executive said a good deal of consideration had been given to revision of the social security program. The general idea, he asserted, was that coverage as regards the number of human beings affected and the greater equalization of benefits for old people was something that we want to go ahead with.

Dallas Scotties Favorites To Win Fort Worth Meet

FORT WORTH, March 14—(AP)—Highland Park's State Champion Scotties will head an imposing array of 600 contestants battling for places today in the high school division of the Southwestern Exposition Track and Field Meet.

The schoolboy class, with more than 80 Texas and Oklahoma teams in the field, runs off preliminaries this afternoon to open the nineteenth annual carnival.

Preliminaries in the university, college, junior college, prep school and municipal pentathlon divisions are scheduled tomorrow morning with all finals tomorrow afternoon.

The Scotties, with 18 contestants headed by Larry Wolf, state quarter-mile champion and crack relay team, are highly favored to win the schoolboy title.

If numbers mean anything Dallas schools should run off with the major share of events because, besides Highland Park, there will be 26 entries from North Dallas, 25 from Sunset, 24 from Adamson and 15 from Woodrow Wilson.

There also will be golf and swimming meets in both high school and college divisions.

In high school there will be 14 events, with the 440-yard relay taking the place of the javelin throw this season.

Two special events also are scheduled. The 100-meter dash will attract Lonnie Hill of Texas, who has won it the past two years; the new sprint sensation, Fred Ramsdell of Texas; Welby Williams, the North Texas State flier, and other star dash men of the Southwest.

Marsh Farmer, one-armed hurdler from Texas Tech, and Boyce Gatewood, former Texas star, will run in the 120-yard event. Gatewood holds the all-meet record at 14.3 seconds. College and high school teams will run the football relay.

Harris Juggles Senators Lineup

ORLANDO, Fla., March 14—(AP)—Having finished within one jump of the American League cellar last year, the Washington Senators are undergoing a great shifting-around in spring training in a rather forlorn hope that something might click and put them in the running.

For one thing, the great "Cuban experiment" is over, and outside of one lonesome Venezuelan the club that Manager Bucky Harris puts in the field will be as American as the capital dome. Without breaking and confidences, we can say that this is a great relief to Bucky.

For another thing, they know now with an awful certainty that Buddy Lewis is not an outfielder and are bringing him back to his former post at third base, with Cecil Travis shifting over to short and the weak-hitting Jim Fohall reverting to the bench.

High-Scoring Teams In College Meet At Kansas City Show Defensive Game Is As Outmoded As Last Year's Hat

By Harold Claassen
KANSAS CITY, March 14—(AP)—Scores in the fifth annual National Intercollegiate Tournament, are proof that defense in basketball is as rare as 31 days in June.

In the 28 games needed to cut the 1941 field to four semi-finalists there has been an average of 86 points a game. West Texas State alone stuffed 77 points through the net in vanquishing one foe.

Another Lone Star state school, Texas Wesleyan, and Evansville, Ind., College used 133 to reach a decision.

Abolition of the center jump increased the time for actual play and hiked the scoring but mentors attending the tourney are certain a change in coaching and playing technique is equally responsible for the astronomical figures.

All agreed offense is stressed by coaches on the theory that by ignoring and outscoring the foe one can win as many games as by throttling the opposition's point-makers. At the same time, more spectators will pay to see the livelier display.

Al Baggett, coach of the West Texas Giants, also believes the modern streamlined forward has done his share to outmode defense.

In basketball's infancy, Baggett explains, the player hurried down the floor, surveyed the situation, distributed his weight equally on both feet in preparation for the next defensive move in case his shot missed, and then let fly.

The 1941 forward shoots with all the determination of a night club soprano every time he gets near the free throw line. Sometimes he is falling, sometimes he has both feet in the air and at least two buckets were made with the shooter seated on the hardwood.

A miss and the original shooter seldom gains his equilibrium in time to join the fray.

Of the four teams in the 1941 semi-finals, three are of the harem-scarum type. Only Santa Barbara, California, State has the more deliberate style.

The Gauchos have forced their first two foes into their style and tonight have the Thoroughbreds of Murray, Ky., Teachers as their opposition at 8 o'clock. In the upper bracket Baggett's Texans and San Diego, Calif., State collide at 9:30.

Sports Roundup

By Eddie Brietz
NEW YORK, March 14—(AP)—Boston College's naming Denny Myers as football coach gets our wholehearted applause because he is a personable gent full of ideas.

His term at Brown expired March 1 which is one reason he had the inside track. The B. C. Rector instructed the graduate board to have no dealings with coaches under contract elsewhere.

Joe DiMaggio confides he expects to be a proud pop in October and the Yanks probably will offer him a fat bonus from first call on the youngster's services—if a boy. Hal Manders, Detroit rookie who is as fast as Buck Newsum, is afraid to cut loose for fear he'll kill a batter.

At Last!
Minneapolis seems to have beat Madison Square Garden under the wire with honest wrestling.

Anyhow, 8,000 roaring fans saw old Bronko Nagurski beat Ray Steele for title No. 27-C. And the Morning Tribune solemnly reported "it was a shooting match from beginning to end, much to the satisfaction of the throng."

Heard And Seen
Coed hearts fluttered when Pete Smith (who looks like Gary Cooper) arrived at Marquette as coach Tom Stidham's assistant. Only hitch was Pete brought Mrs. S. with him.

Wish all of you could have read Dick Cullum's side-splitting column in the Minneapolis Times on how a guy can make himself presentable to his Beagles for an outlay of only $219.75.

George Case, Washington outfielder, will be awarded the John D. Plant cup for 1941 tonight. Award goes to the Peddie school graduate who was outstanding in athletics during last year.

There will be no eastern and western division in the American Hockey League next season. Al Schacht's book getting good reviews all over.

Today's Guest Star
Henry Vance Birmingham Age-Herald: "Doc Prothro says he'll keep ten pitchers this year. That's eight more than the Phillies usually have. They can't afford to carry too many players. If they do, the banks will quit carrying them."

Personals
Coach Frank Thomas of Alabama is beating the flu. Steve Bellise and Tami Mauriello, who fight in the Garden tonight, live within a couple of blocks of each other in the Bronx.

Four stars to Stan Frank's nifty stavepost piece in which he tells how Hank Greenberg harnesses brain and brawn.

Tom Akers, sports editor of the San Diego Tribune-Sun, is kicking himself all over the place for not playing a hunch in the Santa Anita. His telephone exchange is Bay View.

Pete Sarron, former featherweight champion, brought a team of boxers from Camp Blanton, Fla., to the Golden Gloves Tourney and was heartbroken when none of 'em won.

We Don't Get It
We can go along with the Magazine News week in selecting Billy Conn as the best dressed athlete in the country.

What gets us is they ever used Lew Jenkins in the first ten, much less in seventh place. P. S. Max Baer was second and Joe DiMaggio third.

Success Story
Frank Leahy now reigns in the same gymnasium where he once worked as a janitor to help pay his way through Notre Dame.

Seeded Players In Disagreement Over Net Winner

By Austin Bealmer
OKLAHOMA CITY, March 14—(AP)—It's like asking a judge to sentence himself, but if any one of the seeded players left in the National Indoor Tennis Tournament thinks he can win the title—you can't get him to admit it.

Seven of the eight seeded stars were still in the running today as the meet moved into the quarter-finals.

"In this field you don't know who to pick," said Defending Champion Bobby Riggs of Chicago, who meets in the National Indoor Tennis Tournament today. "I think Jack Kramer is the tournament dark horse."

Guernsey, two-time National Intercollegiate Champ, said any one of the first five seeded men might win. The Texan himself is seeded eighth.

Kramer Plays Sabin
"Watch out for Kramer," Guernsey declared. "He might surprise somebody."

Kramer, the Rollins College student from Los Angeles who holds a half-interest in the National outdoor doubles crown, picked Frank Kovacs, the California cut-up, as most likely to survive the field.

Kramer plays Wayne Sabin, former National Indoor Champ from Portland, Ore., tonight, while Kovacs meets Bill Talbert of Cincinnati.

Don McNeill meets Frank McElwee of Arkansas University today. McElwee pulled the tournament's first major upset by ousting seventh-seeded Lefty Brown of Waco, Texas, last night.

The quarter-finals doubles matches also were on the day's schedule, designed to reduce both singles and doubles to the semi-finals for tomorrow.

Big Spring Man Wins Place At Pistol Meet
TAMPA, Fla., March 14—(AP)—The Marines claimed two titles and police one in events fired yesterday in the National Mid-Winter Pistol Matches.

Mark Eilling, U. S. Marines, won the 45 caliber slow fire match with a new record 187. L. P. McCasland, Big Spring, Texas, won the sharpshooter place.

Football Timber For 1941 Golden Cranes Is Light

CRANE, March 14—(Special)—A. V. Patterson and Kurt Lenser have only four lettermen from 26 coming out for spring football practice, and a two-man track team. Softball will be a big issue when practice season closes about April 8.

Coach Patterson says, "We don't expect to do much in football next year, but the season following ought to be pretty good."

The District 7-A Golden Cranes having one-year letters are: Norman Brunette, Gilvey Whitwell, Earl Teague, and George Grounds. Outstanding players coming up from the junior squad are: Tiny Earp, Delwin Webb, Jimmy Stewart, John F. Heard, Cliff Gobel, and Herman Kane. Andy Cook is coming out, but likely will play with the juniors.

Other squadmen include: Billy Rhea, Wright, Lloyd Osborn, Ben Wood, Bobby Perkins, R. L. Hayer, Aubrey Cantrell, Grady Joe Groves, and J. L. Hutchison.

More expected to report for track, but at present only Billy Joe Maynard, 100, 220, and 440 yard dashes; and Elmer Grounds, shotput and discus are out.

Softball will be an intra-school activity with each physical education class forming a team for tournament competition.

Class D League Is Paradise For Baseball Rookies

By Harold V. Ratliff
DALLAS, March 14—(AP)—The West Texas-New Mexico League is a paradise for rookies if ever there was one.

Its turn-over in baseball flesh is fast and sure and there is little room except at the top.

Each season 48 new ball players come into the league—that is, 48 youngsters who have not had more than 45 days professional experience.

This means that 48 experienced men must be moved out each year. As it is a class D loop, the lowest in classification, those who depart can't go down. They either have to jump up or get out.

The league, which plays a fast brand of ball despite its classification, is doing all right by itself as evidenced by the fact that 23 are graduating to higher company this year.

Starts Fifth Season
The loop opens its fifth annual campaign April 22. Each club will have 15 players, including the manager, with a salary limit of $1200 per month, not including the manager.

The rookie rule calls for six new men for each club. Most of them will be budding young players who never have performed for money before so the average $85.00 per month they receive will look very good to them inasmuch as it will be their first cash earning in baseball. Also the job offers the opportunity for advancement to the ranks of those who draw down big money.

The eight clubs and their managers this season are: Amarillo, Claude Jonnard; Big Spring, Jodie Tate; Borger, Gordon Nell; Clovis, Howard Taylor; Lamesa, Sam Scalling; Lubbock, Chasley Engle; Pampa, Dutch Frather; Wichita Falls, Sammy Hale.

Midland Is Replaced
Wichita Falls replaces Midland and Big Spring returns to the league for Odessa, which had taken Big Spring's place in mid-season last year.

Here are the players graduating to higher company from the league due to their 1940 work: Amarillo—Bill Altenburg, White Sox; Emmett Altenders, Topeka; Malone Sanders, Red Sox; Ben Parrish, Fort Worth.

Borger—Ernie Potocak, Shreveport; Robert Crues, Sacramento; Bill Scopetone, San Diego; M. B. Short, San Diego.

Clovis—Dick Adkins, Wilmington; John Stone, Wilmington; Newman Shirley, Waterloo; Melvin Steiner, Sacramento.

Lamesa—Joe Beeler, Cincinnati; Lloyd Patterson, Red Sox.

Lubbock—Vincent Castino, Athletics; Edwin Schweda, Waterloo; Eugene Stack, White Sox; Chester Hajduk, White Sox.

Midland—Rankin Johnson, Jr., Athletics.

Pampa—William Garbe, Hollywood.

Pampa—Rex Dilbeck, San Diego; Darwin Hallbours, San Diego; Philip Potter, San Diego.

Huge Temple Coach Teaches Grid Team Dancing For Timing

By Harold V. Ratliff
TEMPLE, March 14—(AP)—Ponderous Les Cranfill, one of the most successful football coaches in Texas, has taken up dance teaching.

Les, a 250-pounder who is light on his feet, hastens to reassure fans that he's not only helping furnish entertainment but doing a good turn for football.

He's thinking about working in a sort of dance step with a strong rhythm on his spinner back's footwork at Temple high school next fall. He thinks that might help put Temple in the state play-off again.

Football Demands Rhythm
"Dancing can be a big help to athletes," Cranfill explained. "Modern football demands rhythm and close timing, just like some of these intricate dance steps, and I'd be tickled if all my football kids were good dancers."

"I've seen very few good athletes who weren't also good dancers." Cranfill was helping teach the physical education classes dance steps when a "joke box" was installed in the school gym. Grownpups and kids alike began dancing there.

By popular demand, Cranfill was drafted to teach them the steps. He knows the Virginia reel, figure 8, quadrille, ten pretty girls, schottische, heel and toe polka, put your little foot and such.

About half of his football squad has turned out for the classes.
