Link And McRae Elected Trustees School District

Last Minute Write-In Campaign Unsuccessful In Saturday Election

Lewis C. Link and Hamilton McRae were elected trustees of the Midland Independent School District in yesterday's election when a last-minute write-in campaign failed.

McRae polled 170 votes, and Link 166. Two hundred and fifteen votes were cast.

Voters gave George Glass 48 votes and George Abell 44 in the write-in balloting, which came in the last 30 minutes the polls were open. Names of Link and McRae were printed on the ballot by petition of citizens.

Link, an oil operator, is now president of the board and has been a member of it three times. McRae, an attorney, is a new member. Arthur Yeager, a member of the board for many years, did not seek reelection.

Several voters arrived at the polls just after they closed. They were not allowed to vote.

Election officials were: J. M. White, judge; and J. Homer Epley, Miss Marguerite Bivens, Mrs. R. O. Collins, and Mrs. H. N. Phillips, clerks.

Magnolia To Drill Wildcat Between Kermit, Keystone

By Frank Gardner
Oil Editor.

Topping developments at the week's close was the announcement by Magnolia Petroleum Company of location of a wildcat between the Kermit and Keystone pools in Winkler County.

It is the No. 29 State-Walton, 600 feet out of the northwest corner of section 4, block B-3, public school land. Cellar and pits have been dug and rotary rig is being skidded to the location which falls nearly one mile east of Kermit production and two miles west of wells in the Keystone pool.

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company and Westbrook-Thompson Huling Co. No. 1 Ida Hendrick, Winkler wildcat 660 feet out of the northwest corner of section 18, block 26, public school land, is drilling below 2-240 feet in anhydrite. It is two miles west of Henderson pool production.

Sherman Swabs Little Oil.
Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1 Silverman, south offset to the discovery Simpson sand producer of the Abell Ordovician pool in Northern Pecos County, yesterday appeared disappointing on initial swabbing tests of lower Simpson sand. It was swabbed to bottom of 2-inch tubing set at 5,625 feet then swabbed at a rate of one to two barrels of fluid hourly. Local offices of the firm stated fluid was mostly water, possibly drilling water, with a slight scum of oil and an odor of gas present. As swabbing continued late yesterday, oil apparently was increasing. No. 1 Silverman is bottomed at 5,635 feet and 7-inch casing, cemented at 5,630 feet, has been gun-perforated with 71 shots from 5,586 to 5,619 feet.

Official Railroad Commission gauge of Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 State-Sharp, lower sand producer and seven-eighths mile northwest extender of the Abell pool, showed it to have pumped 91.77 barrels of oil on 24-hour natural test. Oil tested 40-gravity and production is from sand between 5,920 and 5,942 feet. Total depth is 5,945 feet in sandy shale.

Sinclair-Prairie Oil Company No. 1 E. E. Grove, one and three-eighths miles east of the discovery, is drilling at 2,170 feet in lime. The com-

What Yugoslavia Has For Germany

By The Associated Press.
Yugoslavia, boxed on three sides by Axis armies, has these fighting forces, according to recent estimates:
Navy—one old cruiser, three destroyers, eight torpedo boats, a Danube sunboat flotilla and other smaller vessels.
Army—1,500,000 men, more than double the number under arms one year ago.
Air force—1,500 trained pilots and 1,000 planes, perhaps half of them old models.

CIO President Orders Strike At U. S. Steel

By The Associated Press.
An order for a work stoppage at plants of the U. S. Steel Corporation went out last night to CIO steel workers.

CIO President Philip Murray said that effective midnight Tuesday there would be a "cessation of work" which he asserted was "caused by a lockout."

At that time, the company's contract with the CIO will expire. On March 20, the union asked for a new contract providing for an increase of 10 cents an hour for 260,000 workers, a union shop, check-off collection, annual dues, liberalized vacations with pay and seniority rights. The company included in a counter-proposal an offer of a 1/2 cent an hour increase. Negotiations drifted into what was called an "absolute deadlock" on Friday night.

Orders of Violence
Murray ordered "peaceful picketing" at all U. S. steel plants and said there "should be no violence." "Big steel" holds millions of dollars in defense contract. As the threat arose of a stoppage in its production, another problem gave definite promise of settlement—that of the bituminous coal strike.

Complete Plans For Big Army Day Parade In Midland Tomorrow

Arrangements were completed yesterday and plans announced in readiness for the Army Day observance in Midland Monday. The Army Day program is sponsored by the chamber of commerce in cooperation with the American Legion and other organizations of the city.

A big military parade at 1:30 p. m., an informal reception for officers at 4:30 p. m. and a street dance at 8:30 p. m. will highlight the day's entertainment.

Citizens of the Permian Basin area of West Texas and Southwestern New Mexico have been invited to join in the Army Day observance and Midland is expected to play host to one of the largest crowds in its history.

Feature Attraction
The parade, in which approximately 800 soldiers from the Coast Artillery battalion from Camp Hulen will participate, will be the feature attraction of the day. The parade will start forming at the high school at 12:30 p. m. and will start moving promptly at 1:30. From the high school, the procession will move east on Texas to Loraine, south on Loraine to Missouri, east on Missouri to Main, north on Main to Illinois, and west on Illinois to the high school.

Six or more West Texas high school bands will march in the procession. Marching music for marching units. The six bands are those of Odessa, Andrews, Kermit, Garden City, Monahans and Midland. Others may be in attendance. W. W. Lackey and M. A. Armstrong are co-chairmen of the band division.

A unit from the air corps detachment at Midland Municipal Airport also will take part in the parade. Members of the American

Searchlight Battalion Gets Solidly Entrenched For Maneuvers; Soldiers Ready For Army Day Parade Monday

The Provisional Searchlight Battalion on its second day in Midland found itself getting solidly entrenched for its practice in this area.

The baseball park, empty and idle Friday morning, suddenly became the scene of a well-ordered mass of working humanity.

Liberties were suspended, with few exceptions, until the tents were made adequate for housing, bathing facilities made available, and food made accessible to every member of the industrious crew.

The morale of every worker was reflected in his smile, and not infrequently was heard the statement that the population of Midland was going beyond the realm of reasonable expectation in making the Army welcome.

Despite the sandstorm, the boys appreciated the warm sun after passing through their winter period of adjustment occasioned by the demands on everyone to do his bit in the vast program of national defense.

As a reward for efficient work in setting up camp, and in keeping with the customs over weekends and holidays, men who could be spared from their duties were given opportunities to explore their new surroundings Saturday night.

There will be religious services in the camp through the cooperation of the clergy of Midland Sunday.

Outside of routine duties concerned chiefly with camp maintenance, the men will enjoy a day of rest in preparation for the serious and strenuous practices ahead of them.

Prepare For Parade
Much polish and elbow grease is being employed on brass buttons and other items of uniform, to say nothing of the routine check of neatness and efficiency of motor vehicles to be employed in Monday's Army Day parade. The Army feels that tomorrow is its day, and it is putting on its raiment of holiday attire.

After the parade the soldiers will return to camp to participate in the ceremonies of retreat and to dig in to their meal after a strenuous high enjoyable day.

Visitors will be welcome to inspect the camp but the army would appreciate it if visits are so timed as not to interfere with the normal routine of duty.

Sunday and holiday routine permits ample time for visits during the afternoon and night before 9 a. m. Visitors should enter at the west gate where courteous personnel will see that their tour is a pleasant one.

Italy To Close Two Consulates

WASHINGTON, April 5—(AP)—According to reports from the United States today that it was closing the Italian consulates at Detroit and Newark, N. J.

The announcement came within two hours after Secretary Hull had told reporters the state department was giving attention to the fact that although it requested the closing of the consulates a full month ago, no action had been taken by Italy.

Late in February, the Italian government asked that American consulates at Naples and Palermo be abandoned. On March 5, the state department notified the Rome government that it would do so. And at the same time it asked that the two Italian consulates here be closed.

There will be religious services in the camp through the cooperation of the clergy of Midland Sunday.

Outside of routine duties concerned chiefly with camp maintenance, the men will enjoy a day of rest in preparation for the serious and strenuous practices ahead of them.

Connally Favors Anti-Strike Law To Help Defense

WASHINGTON, April 5—(AP)—Declaring that "tempers are getting pretty hot" over prolonged labor disputes, Senator Connally (D-Tex) proposed legislation today to give the government broad authority to take over plants where strikes "impede or delay" defense production.

The Connally proposal, similar in some respects to one offered by Chairman Vinson (D-Ga) of the House naval committee, would permit government seizure of plants where production is retarded "as a result of a strike or other labor disturbance or other cause."

"We have appropriated billions of dollars with which to purchase arms, munitions, ships and implements of war, both for ourselves and for Great Britain," the Texas Senator said.

Hitler Plunges Armies Into Greece And Yugoslavia At Dawn In Attempt To Gain Control Of Balkan Country

German Radio Announces Move Is Not Invasion Of Greece But To Snuff Out British Influence And Reinstall Order Among Reactionary Serbs

By The Associated Press
The German Balkan armies sprang early today upon Greece and Yugoslavia—the one already a British ally and the other now an ally by the unanswerable logic of war—and thus was opened a second and great front certain to soften the pressure of the long siege suffered by the British Isles.

It opened the Balkans as a field of destiny—a far removed field from the west, but a theatre that might yet tell the story of the great combat.

Hiler's men and machines of steel, long quartered in Rumania, in Bulgaria, in Hungary, struck as they had struck in Norway and in the low countries—upon the claim that British machinations had made essential this latest extension of the war.

It was the German radio that at first hoarsely summoned the Nazis to another adventure. It was, said the Nazi political command, not an attack upon "the Greek people" not upon the southeastern order but directed solely at the policy of striking Britain wherever its forces appeared.

It all happened with a breathless suddenness, for all the fact that it had long been foreshadowed in Greece's stubborn resistance against the Italians and Yugoslavia's equally stubborn refusal to submit to the German-dominated Axis.

It was just at dawn that the German legions—divisions upon divisions equipped with all the steel of blitzkrieg—plunged against the Greeks and Yugoslavs.

The Nazi high command took the grave decision—one of many that have been made in the traditional quiet of the week-end—a few hours after the Russians, their erstwhile partners however silent, had made a compact with the Yugoslavs which clearly seemed designed to try to dissuade away just such a step.

Just what this pact really meant remained unknown. On the face of it, the Russians had made a treaty of friendship and non-aggression, presumably containing no promise of military assistance, but certainly offering no comfort to those who listen quietly to the thunder of martial music in Berlin.

Belgrade, the center of this new and curiously ghostly war—one of which the outside world knew very little hours after it started—was cut off early this morning from all telephone communication.

The situation, so far as could be learned, was simply this: The Yugoslavs, a strangely assorted people made a nation by Versailles and not willing yet to forget its, stood roughly a million strong—and more to count the uncounted thousands who seized whatever weapons were at hand—to defend as best they could a country of as many curious diversities as themselves.

They had planned, in all the long days of the assault upon their collective nerves which Berlin had directed to make them give up as the other little countries in the Balkans had done, to retire about midway down the country and there hold the mountains which in all history have been so hostile to invaders.

Yugoslavia completed the preliminaries of war last night as she recalled all ships to port, cut off almost all communication with the outside world, closed her frontiers, patrolled her skies and arrayed her military might for the expected battle.

The Yugoslav cabinet held another five-hour meeting during the night, but still did not issue a declaration of foreign policy. Premier General Dusan Simovic ordered the government "to be ready at a moment's notice to leave Belgrade."

Hope that Yugoslavia eventually might escape war with the Axis was shattered when Italy closed her border at Fiume and mined the international bridge. This was the first indication that Italy would follow Germany's lead. Italian diplomats, realizing their country's need for Yugoslav products, had sought some way to iron out the Berlin-Belgrade break but the Fiume move indicated their efforts were fruitless.

Yugoslavia's small navy was on duty along the Adriatic coast, the army established a "war press bureau" and the only chink permitted in the locked borders of the country was the frontier facing Greece.

Powerful Bombs On Yugoslavia Signs Friendship Pact With Muscovites

Nazi Battleships
LONDON, April 5—(AP)—Germany's commerce-raiding battleships Gneisenau and Scharnhorst are "very, very lucky" if they escaped damage in an overnight pounding with the "most powerful bombs" ever loosed on such targets, returning Royal Air Force fliers declared today.

An air ministry account of the raid on Brest, where both 26,000-ton battle wagons are in harbor, cautiously avoided any claim of great damage but the fliers who carried it out—the 49th of the war and the third in a week on the Nazi-held French port—were exuberant.

One pilot in the powerful RAF bomber force claimed either a direct hit or a "very near miss" on one of the raiders.

"On the quay at the torpedo boat base," the ministry said "stores of oil were set alight and burned with dull red flames under a blanket of heavy smoke."

"Many warehouses were seen to be burning."

Imperial Forces Hit Axis Columns
CAIRO, Egypt, April 5—(AP)—German-Italian armored columns rumbling east from Bengasi, Libya, were suddenly hit and held today by the waiting British Imperial forces. It was officially reported.

This first dividend on Gen. Sir Archibald P. Wavell's elastic defense plan was announced by the Middle East command in a single sentence:
"Enemy columns advancing eastward from Bengasi have been successfully held and the situation is well in hand."

The location was understood to be some distance east of Bengasi. The British previously have estimated the Axis Panzer forces to number about 20,000 men.
The German and Italian commands announced only today that they had taken Bengasi, although the British disclosed the abandonment Thursday.

Mrs. L. B. Lancaster Will Construct Attractive 16-Unit Apartment Building On West Texas Ave.

Plans for the construction of an attractive 16-unit apartment building at Texas and F Streets this spring were announced yesterday by Mrs. L. B. Lancaster.

The two-story structure of light cream brick, trimmed in Texas limestone will be known as "The Lancaster." It will be a memorial to the late L. B. Lancaster, a pioneer oil operator in the Permian Basin and a prominent builder of West Texas.

He and Mrs. Lancaster came to Midland in 1927 and later he organized the Tex-Mex Petroleum Company. They came here from Abilene where Lancaster was prominent in building work.

Although he was a prominent operator in the Permian Basin and active in assembling the Imperial block in Pecos County, building construction was his hobby and in 1936 the A. & L. Housing and Lumber Company was organized.

Lancaster believed every family should be properly housed and was active in many construction and building programs.

The A. & L. company will handle the construction of "The Lancaster." It said several requests already have been received concerning apartments and that it anticipated no difficulty in obtaining tenants for each.

The new building will be U-shaped and on the rear of the lot will be a garage for each apartment. The basement will contain a laundry and a storage room for each apartment.

Ranges and refrigerators will be installed in each apartment as will be blinds. Gas will be used for heating.

Separate stairways will be provided for service entrances in the rear of each apartment.

Mrs. Lancaster completed details for the plans before her departure for New York City on a business and pleasure trip.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

CONQUER PREJUDICE: What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.—Acts 10:15.

A Stab Of Light Into The Dim Future

A mere million dollars is nothing in the vortex of billions whirling about in Washington today. Yet the million dollars spent by the Temporary National Economic Committee during the last three years in getting together 20,000 pages of testimony from more than 500 industrial leaders may turn out to be the most productive million of them all.

The committee set itself a crushing task—nothing less than to find out the answers to the questions everyone has been asking for 10 years: Why want amid plenty? What's wrong with our economic system?

Now, in 37 volumes, the report is made. It should be the greatest mine of information that exists on our economy and how it works, and why it doesn't work.

Everybody is concerned about what will happen after the war emergency is over. Will it mean another depression worse than the last one? It is certainly possible unless the greatest possible foresight is used, beginning now. The recommendations of the TNEC are aimed, apparently, at this post-war period rather than at the period of the defense effort, which is no time to rock boats.

Many and many a sub-study, and many a recommendation for new laws will come out of the vast body of what the TNEC has learned about our economy. Only the general lines are clear, but they are interesting as a questing searchlight beam poked toward the future.

First, the committee is sold on free enterprise. It feels that the only way in which America will eventually be gotten back at peacetime work is by reopening the opportunities for new enterprise. Those avenues are now increasingly blocked on one hand by the increasing size of a few vast corporations, and by increasing government regulation.

Thus the committee suggests: subjecting national corporations to national charter and control; loosening the grip of patent rights; abolition of basing-point systems for calculating prices; repeal of the Miller-Tydings type of price-maintenance laws; government restriction of new mergers; legal and tax policies which will foster and protect new enterprises, and thus encourage them.

That is a bare hint of the line of thought that has come to the majority of the TNEC after hearing all this testimony. The crux of the matter is here: as long as American business continues to gravitate into larger and fewer units, an equal centralization and expansion of government is inevitable. As free enterprise is restricted, free government is endangered; political freedom is impossible without economic freedom.

When the present emergency is passed, it is clear that the United States is going to have to do some fast stepping. Every bit of light that can be thrown now on the best direction of those steps, light such as the TNEC report is now shedding, is a guarantee of future safety and progress.

Over 100,000 Men To Celebrate Army Day

By The Associated Press
Proud as punch, the army lifts the veil Monday on some of its new tricks and thousands of its new soldiers in grand-scale celebrations of Army Day all over Texas and at Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

The better part of 130,000 men will take part. From bridge-building to flipping flap-jacks on the run, the army plans to show the thousands of expected visitors, high and low, just what it has accomplished toward organizing a first-class fighting machine.

The big celebration is concentrated at Brownwood, where important visitors from Iowa and Texas, including Texas legislators, will gather for the Camp Bowie festivities. But the soldier also will be up and shining at San Antonio, El Paso, Mineral Wells, Abilene, San Angelo, Palacios, Laredo and Midland.

Georgian Shoots Fine Round And Challenges Wood

By Bill Boni
AUGUSTA, Ga., April 5—(AP)—Samuel Dewey Byrd, a native Georgian who was brought up in Alabama and first gained fame as Babe Ruth's substitute, stood up alone today as one challenger after the other dropped out of the pursuit of Craig Wood in the Augusta Masters Golf Tournament.

The 33-year-old reformed outfielder shot a brilliant third round 68, four under par, for the Augusta National course, to make up three shorts on Wood and post a 54-hole score of 211 to the Mamaroneck (N. Y.) veteran's 208.

Byrd's round was, with the exception of one hole, a model of consistency. He had 14 pars, for only one of which he required a recovery shot; four birdies, three of them on par-5 holes, and finished with a tremendous gallery at his heels after starting off the first tee with few more companions than Gene Sarazen and the two caddies.

Byrd was the only man able to crack the wind-swept course for a better-than-70 score this afternoon, and he and Wood were two of only eleven players who could equal or improve on par of 72.

PIRATES BLOW LEAD AND LOSE TO ATHLETICS

EL PASO, April 5—(AP)—In typical Pirate fashion, the El Paso National Leagueers obtained a 9-1 lead over the Philadelphia Athletics today, then blew up and lost 12-11 in a 10-inning game.

The big Californian with the stabbing left declared he wasn't interested in meeting Billy Conn or anybody else before hand, loftily implying that he was through with the small fry and wanted to get his tucks into something really big. "I've stopped both Baer and Pat Comiskey this winter," he pointed out. "What has Conn been doing all this time? Oh, yes, he did manage to beat Gunnar Barlund last night in Chicago, didn't he? That must be the same Barlund I whipped here several years ago when I was learning the business."

University Track Men Fly To Medley Record

One World Mark And Nine Relay Fall In Contests At Austin

By Felix R. McKnight.
AUSTIN, April 5—(AP)—Four Texas University lads—ranging from a towering redhead to a shy little fellow of five feet, six inches—whirled to a world's sprint medley relay record today in an electrifying performance at the fourteenth annual Texas Relays.

Forced into a makeshift lineup at the last minute when one of its sprinters fell out with a pulled muscle, the Texas quartet ran the relay—a 440, a pair of 220's and a final 880—in three minutes, 24 seconds. It was just a clear half-second faster than the old record established by the University of Pittsburgh in 1938. Referee Lawson Robertson, famed U. S. Olympic coach and Pennsylvania coach, said the time made today would be submitted for official recognition.

Capt. Morris (Red) Barefield started with a 48.7 second quarter-mile, saw sprinters Billy Seay and Freddie Ramsdell add 21.6 second 220-yard gusts and then was there at the finish to grasp Sophomore Mac Umstadd when he finished his fine 1:52.1 half-mile.

Wins Three Events.
In all, the Texas team captured the quarter-mile, half mile, mile and sprint medley relay events.

It was a rough day on records—one world and nine Texas Relay marks tumbling. One other was equalled.

Richards Heaves Lester Long Pass And Hall Slashes Away On Reverse Beating Broncs! Is It Fantastic?

By Tanner Laine.
Chalk it up as spring "training" fever! This is the way it looks for Midland high:

It is November. Midland and Odessa are scrapping it out at Fly Field at Odessa. It is early in the first quarter. Fans are seeing Earle Clark's Bulldogs in their first real test. Bill Richards has just chucked Wilford Lester a long aerial to get in scoring distance. The Bulldogs have been passing incessantly. Clark, under the new rules, sends in "Docie" Foster as guard to give a signal. It works and Ivan Hall dashes off on a reverse to score.

Received Good Blocking.

Jack Noyes, playing his first high school game at center, turned in a good performance. Tony Watson, his substitute, hustled a good game.

Go Into Second Week.
The Bulldogs completed the first week of spring training yesterday with a rough session. Passing formations have been stressed. Fundamentals have not been overlooked.

The Bulldogs scrimmaged the third day out. The team is light but hustling. A second week of long and hard drills is planned starting tomorrow. Thirty days of training is permitted. A game with graduating seniors will climax the spring training. Julius Johnson and W. N. Hargrave are assisting.

Easter Seal Sale Will Close Sunday

The Easter Seal is the symbol of hope for thousands of crippled children who receive treatment and training from the proceeds of the sale of seals at a penny each.

The official Easter Seal sale campaign will close Easter Sunday and the Children's Service League, sponsor of the sale in Midland, urges that all citizens here take part in helping crippled children by buying the seals. When expenses of the Midland drive are deducted, half the proceeds will be sent to the state organization, The Texas Society for Crippled Children, Inc., which sponsors the sales in the state, and half will be retained in Midland County.

A large percentage of the people who are permanently crippled wouldn't have been if they had had good care, experts say. This is one of the major phases of the National Society for Crippled Children. Another important phase is that of making it possible for physically handicapped children to get an education.

Mrs. W. T. Schneider is chairman of the sale here. For information or to obtain Easter Seals, those interested are asked to communicate with Mrs. Schneider, 2000 W. Brunson, phone 984-W.

Hearsay Evidence Is Not Permitted In Witnessing Christ

By R. A. Weaver.

"But ye shall receive power, when the Holy Ghost is come upon you; and ye shall be my witness both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. And when he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight."—Acts 2, 8-9.

"Ye shall be my witness." To all Christians, the world is saying today, "Show us the Father and it sufficeth us." This is the supreme task of the followers of Christ, but a task sadly lacking in evidence. Down deep in the heart of each individual, there is a yearning for those great and profound experiences such as came to the blind man after receiving his sight, and his testimony: "I once was blind but now I see." Or the witness of Thomas who, after he was illumined fell at the Master's feet and said "My Lord and my God." Vaguely do we apprehend the silent moving of the inner urges that respond to the divine wooing, and with great difficulty do we analyze the upward gropings of the soul. Ever the sincere Christian seeks higher ground and attempts to come into that state of being in which he can be a witness to the blessed promise of the Saviour when he said: "In that day ye shall know that I am in the Father, and ye in me, and I in you." This is the true witness. Having taken up his cross, and having followed Jesus daily, the disciple is able to say: "This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we are witnesses." That is the only kind of witness the world cares anything about. That is the only witnessing sinners will heed and be interested in. One may be able to argue and quote and expound the scriptures till doomsday and yet have no effect on the unenlightened, or be able to cast the eternal light along the path way of the lost. One cannot preach the gospel unless the gospel is within. The Fellowship of Christ.

There is an old saying of the wise men that reads: "When the pupil is ready the teacher appears." Conversely, "When the teacher is ready the pupil appears." Those who may witness for Christ need not advertise the fact, their virtues will find them out, and they who are filled with the light are as a city set upon a hill that cannot be hid.

There are multitudes of Christians who sincerely desire to drink more deeply of the stream of unfoldment, and undertake great things for the Master. Many find life a compelling urge to express

Tony Safe If Fight Exceeds Two Rounds

ST. LOUIS, April 5—(AP.)—Tony Musto's handlers appeared satisfied tonight with the progress the squat Chicagoan has made in training for his fight with Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis Tuesday and think he should give a good account of himself—particularly if he gets over the first round or two.

"He's not such a good starter, but gets better as he goes along," said Manager Gabe Genovese.

the deeper impulses of the soul, and seek vainly the avenues of opportunity. After all the seeking, striving and wandering in devious paths, the neophyte finally understands that the secret is found in the words of the still small voice which says: "Christ in you is the hope of glory." This is true witnessing. We cannot witness to any fact or reality unless we ourselves have experienced it.

Ye Shall Receive Power.

The power or authority comes from higher source, and we of ourselves can do nothing. "The Father within me doeth the work." First, Christ is our witness. Christ has chosen us. When Christ has witnessed to us, then it is that we are under duress to witness for him. All who have the truth must bear witness to the truth. This is an obligation that cannot be avoided. Whether or not God "calls" people to teach, or preach, or heal or prophesy is a debatable question among the clergy, but there are legions of men and women whose exalted experiences and yearnings compel them to cry out with Paul: "Woe is me if I preach not the gospel." This is the kind of witness the world is seeking.

Pressing On To The Mark.

Paul says: "I press on toward the mark." The religious life is a forward life; one that is continually reforming and transforming one's self to new discoveries and new conceptions. Onward and upward forever is the pathway of the just. Inspiration comes from the hunger and thirst for righteousness. Blessed are they for they shall be filled. Never content with the few grains of golden truth; ever longing for that ultimate perfection which will come only after aeons of time have passed across the darkling void, the Christian finds each day of work, and each accomplishment only a more poignant realization that with increasing desire his spirit pants for Thee, O Living God! But as he lives from day to day, groping through darkness looking upward, he will find that even this kind of witnessing is what the world is attracted to. Witnessing for Christ! He is the teacher we seek.

At the recent Eastern Contract Bridge championships I kibitzed a number of tables.

I sat behind the West player in today's hand. Each time he passed I had to make an effort to keep a "poker face," and when he let three no trumps get by undoubted I was astounded. But when declarer made a small slam, I had to admit that West was right, and my unspoken criticism was wrong.

On holding the first lead, West decided that it would be too dangerous to continue the suit, giving South a trick with his queen. Then declarer could afford to lose a club trick to establish the suit if necessary, as he could then go game with six club tricks, one heart, the spade ace, and the diamond ace.

So West shifted to the queen of spades. South won with the king, cashed his two clubs, then went over to the ace of spades to cash the rest of the clubs. South saved all three diamonds.

On the tenth trick West found he had to discard from the jack of spades, the ace of hearts, and the king-queen of diamonds. To discard either of the first two would let dummy cash a nine-spot and squeeze West again. To discard a diamond would let South win the rest.

SERIAL STORY

DOLLARS TO DOUGHNUTS

BY EDITH ELLINGTON

YESTERDAY: The dance hall is a new thrill for Bee. She is so much in love with Anthony, and she knows he loves her. Sam and Toby seem to have settled their difficulties, too. En route home, on the subway, Bee sees a headline: HERESS BELIEVED KIDNAPED!

MASQUERADE MUST END CHAPTER XXIV

KIDNAPED! The paper said that Beatrice Davenport had been kidnaped. It was incredible, fantastic, so ridiculous that Beatrice wanted to scream.

She wasn't kidnaped. How in the world had that story gotten started? Her head hummed.

She was supposed to be in South America. Of course, she'd never so much as booked passage on a liner. But even if someone, somehow, had run across that damaging fact—did that make her kidnaped?

Then, like a blow, she remembered. Clarence was the one who thought of kidnappings!

Oh, the fool, the blundering idiot! This story must have come from him. She'd disappeared—he couldn't find her—Weeming said she'd gone to South America and Clarence, shocked because their marriage was only a week away, must have tried to find out where in South America...

"Covered Wagon" Art Collection To Be On Display

Club Sponsors Free Exhibit Of Paintings Here This Week

"The Covered Wagon of American Art" has come to Midland. Dr. Carlton Palmer's traveling art exhibit, thus whimsically named, will be open to the public from today through Friday, under auspices of the Palette Club, organization of Midland artists.

The exhibit, which is housed in the Daniel building, 206 W. Texas, just north of the courthouse, will hold open house this afternoon from 2 o'clock until 6. There will be no admission charge and the public is invited. On Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, the display will be open from 9 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock in the evening.

About 60 paintings, most of them by contemporary artists, are included. They were chosen to illustrate "The Joy of Pictures," a lecture in a series which Dr. Palmer presents under the auspices of Columbia Lecture Bureau. The lecture is for laymen and the pictures were chosen for the enjoyment of laymen.

They range in subject from Hugo Ungewitter's "Cossack Hunter on the Steppes," where the likeness of the landscape to West Texas draws exclamations from sightseers; to Paul King's delicate "Falling Snow" which Dr. Palmer has found popular; to the misty colorful gorges of Thomas Moran's "Grand Canyon at Sunset"; to numerous still-lives, a few portraits, and several beautiful autumn scenes. There is even a picture of a palomino horse which should catch the attention of Midland visitors.

Among the pictures is "Autumn," possibly the best work of Willard Metcalf who died in 1925. This picture was once sold for $6,000. Dr. Palmer said, while another, a vague, misty scene of trees turned golden by fall, once brought $15,000.

Dr. Palmer comes to Midland, not to deliver his lectures on art, but to display these art originals on a between-season tour.

Everyone interested in art is invited to visit the exhibit.

Knitting on afghans and working on quilts occupied members of the Friday Knitting Club who gathered at the home of Mrs. S. B. Roach, 513 Holmesley, Friday afternoon. The club is a supplementary organization of Bundles for Britain.

Next Friday the group will meet with Mrs. Epley, 1206 W. Missouri.

Clerk Henry May Weds Mr. And Mrs. Henry May

DALLAS—(UP)—Mrs. Henry May was listening in the next room as her husband, ordained minister and clerk of the Dallas County criminal court, performed a marriage ceremony.

"And now," May intoned, "I pronounce you Mr. and Mrs. Henry May."

The next instant, the minister's wife appeared in the doorway to upbraid May for his "mistake." He looked calm.

The marriage certificate he held was issued to Henry May and Miss Ruth Ransom of Longview, Tex. Not related, the two Mays never had seen each other before.

NEW YORK.—This is a spring when the girl on a slender budget can be as smartly turned out as the woman with more-than-enough money for more-than-enough clothes. It's a year when Easter fashions in the budget departments are every bit as exciting as those in the swank, custom made salons.

The matter of suits in budget departments of all stores, from coast-to-coast is particularly interesting this year.

For less than thirty dollars, it's possible to find a wool gabardine model—sleek and tailored and in all of the new and popular colors, including postman blue, pet shade of the socialites.

For less than twenty-five dollars, there are checked, striped and plaid suits in wool of good quality. These come in the "town tweed" category, and therefore are as chic on city streets as in the country. This is an important point for the low-budget-minded girl who must make one suit do the work of two.

Even covert, fabric darling of the higher priced departments appears in wonderfully well-cut suits in a variety of styles. There are simply tailored, single-breasted covert cloth suits, many double breasted types, softer versions in the dressmaker category and many with matching capes.

Suave wool crepe in a warm, glowing shade of beige fashions one of the prettiest soft suits we have seen this spring. And its price tag reads less than twenty dollars. There are narrow, unpressed pleats to give flattering fullness from shoulder seams down over the bust line, and it is finished with huge amber and gold buttons.

In the dressier, afternoon category, there's a low-priced, charming model of black rayon faille with patch pockets, jeweled buttons and a silk pique collar that creates the "plunging neckline" illusion. The skirt has a box-pleated front and a gored back. This is the kind that any woman, regardless of her size or age, would find useful for church, bridge parties.

At prices that will make no career girl lift an eyebrow or become discouraged because her budget is low, there are suits with the new, less square shoulder line; skirts both gored and pleated as well as slim and straight; suits with pockets in all sizes, shapes and designs, as well as those without; suits to work in and suits to have dates in and suits which, by the switch of accessories, are for both working and dating.

Navy blue, brown, gray, beige, black and chalk-striped grays, black and blue are popular colors. And any one of these, except the palest beige tones, will be as right under a fur coat next winter as under a spring coat now.

The suit with navy skirt and red jacket looks new. So do those in purple and the new ultra-violet tones. However, if she expects to have to wear her suit this spring, next fall and probably at least three days a week all next winter, the good shopper thinks twice before buying purple. It's lovely, of course, but she knows that it can be pretty trying on days when she would much rather stay in bed than go to the office.

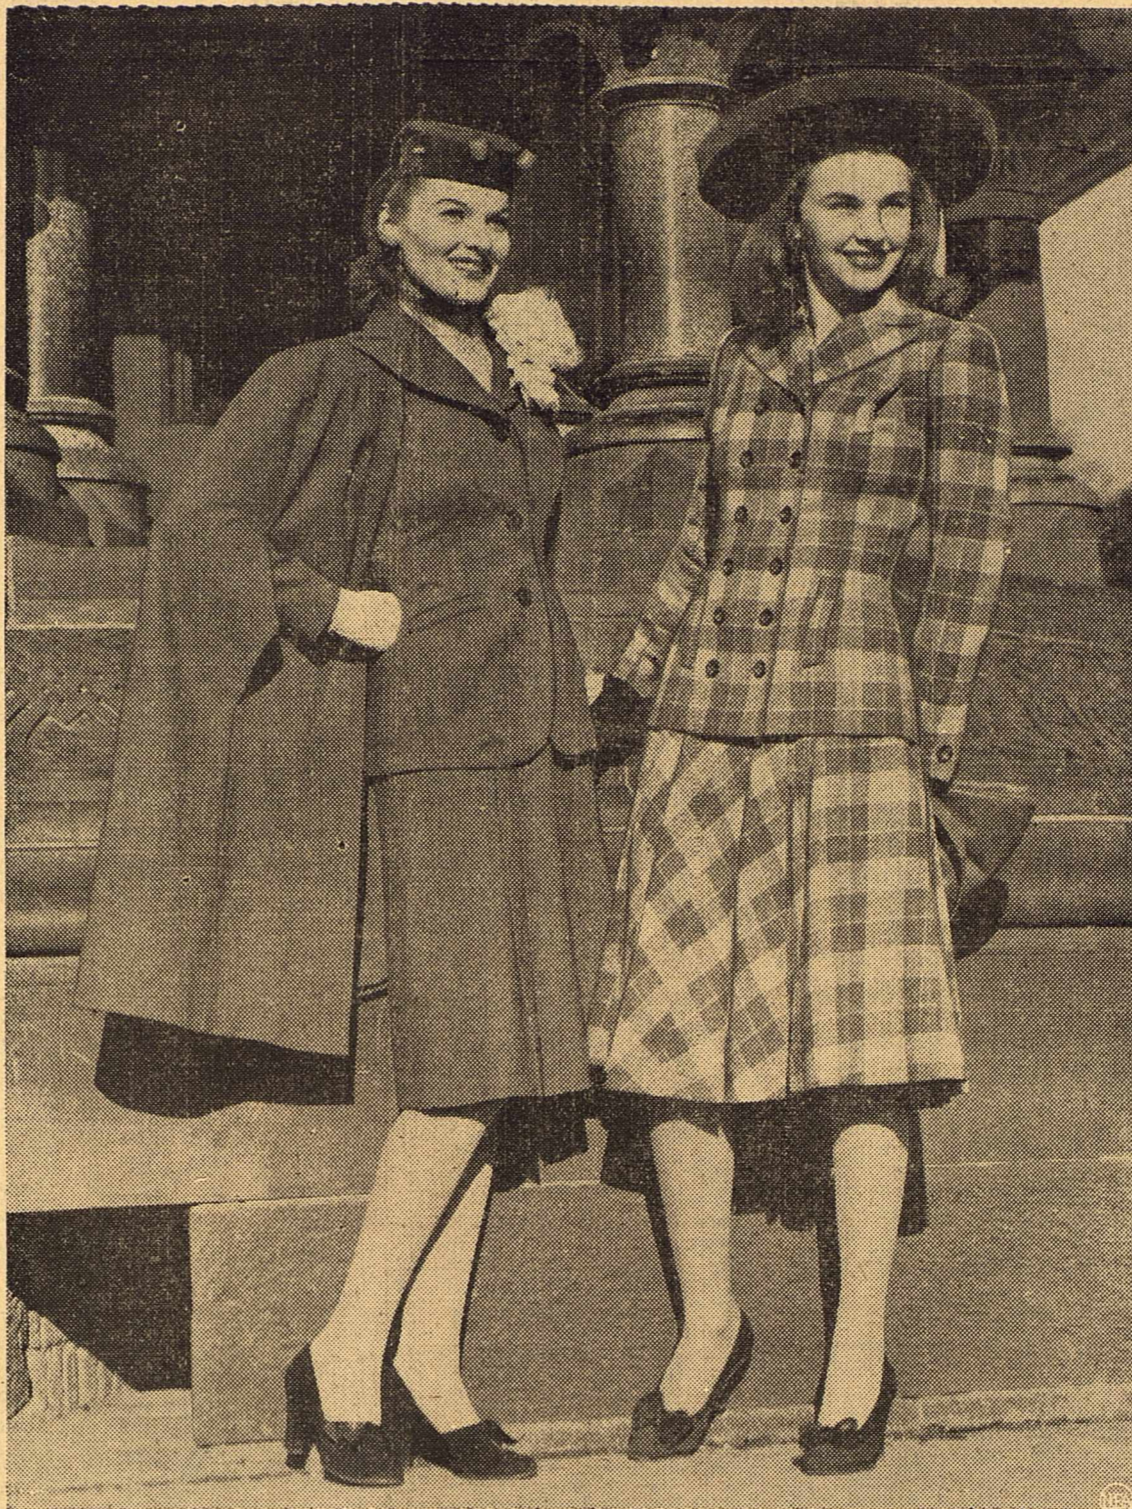

If she is wise, the budgeteer will put a new foundation garment at the top of her shopping list. She realizes that it doesn't make sense to have new clothes fitted over an old, bulging girdle. Also, that no matter how slender she is, the chances are her spring suit will be more flattering if worn over a girdle than if not.

The fact that there are so many smart budget suits available doesn't mean that designers have simplified the shopper's life to the point where she can dash into any department and come out in half an hour with something that actually does something for her. It simply means that there are the right fashions for every woman, regardless of what price she wants to pay. Finding them is up to her.

UNLIMITED RANGE OF FABRIC AND DESIGN

At prices that will make no career girl lift an eyebrow or become discouraged because her budget is low, there are suits with the new, less square shoulder line; skirts both gored and pleated as well as slim and straight; suits with pockets in all sizes, shapes and designs, as well as those without; suits to work in and suits to have dates in and suits which, by the switch of accessories, are for both working and dating.

IPAA Index Figures Show Improvement In March Gas Situation

Improvement in the gasoline situation which has been witnessed in recent weeks is reflected in the index of the Independent Petroleum Association of America for the month of March, released today.

Gasoline markets have been growing noticeably stronger since the first of the year. This has been evident in both tank car and tank wagon sales. The average tank car price, as computed by the National Petroleum News has moved up about 2.10 of a cent per gallon since the close of 1940 with a corresponding increase in tank wagon prices.

The index of gasoline stocks has declined 13 points from the level of January of this year while the gasoline price index has increased 3 points.

Two qualifying facts should be noted. Despite the relatively better position of motor fuel stocks, these stocks are still very high and are greatly above what has been estimated as a sound economic level.

Secondly, the improvement in gasoline prices must not be considered as a real increase in prices but rather as a partial recovery from the drastic and demoralized collapse in recent years. It is apparent that the improvement of both stocks and prices must be extended and enlarged before the industry can realize truly healthy conditions.

Overall and basic costs both in production and refining have been ignored for too long a period in the determination of a sound price structure.

MINERAL WELLS, April 5—(Special)—A preliminary program for the annual West Texas chamber of commerce convention in Mineral Wells, tourist-health city was worked out this week by a joint committee from the WTCC. The convention will be Thursday and Friday May 15 and 16.

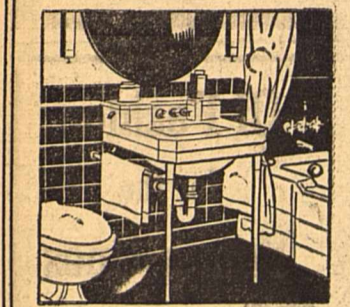

The decision to compress the convention in two days, was taken after a look at the national picture and from a desire to concentrate heavily on the business of West Texas. Conditions Normal Again.

The Mineral Wells group gave full assurance the convention city will be ready. Boom town conditions incident to the building of Camp Walters have passed, things are normal again, and the city's hotels will have ample accommodations at no price advances.

Each of the 171 West Texas affiliated towns has been asked to appoint and certify a delegation of not less than 10 representative citizens, selected for diversity of business interests, to come to the convention for a study of business problems and an expression of the convention theme.

The theme is: "To Hell with Hitler." The convention will declare West Texas is for strengthening and preserving the American democracy through invincible national defense and preparedness. Tough Mining Camp Becomes Simon Pure BUTTE, Mont., April 5—(AP)—This mining camp town was almost pure today, but not because it wanted to be.

The saloons still were open, but the city's famous gambling joints—the most elaborate and well patronized in the west—except those in Reno—were deserted and dreary.

Gone was the chant of the dice-table dealers, the sing-song of the lottery board men, the soft shuffle of cards at the "twenty-one" and poker tables, and the click and whirl of the roulette wheels.

The shutdown was the result of a letter to a 11 of Montana's 56 county attorneys from Atty-Gen. John W. Bonner. He pointed out that the legislature had refused to legalize and license gambling, and that the old anti-gambling statutes still were on the books.
