

Season Heaviest Rain Soaks Midland Sector

Downpours Of Night Flood Mexican And Negro Areas Of City

Torrential rains early today flooded several sections of Midland and sent water rushing down streets to overflow curbs and practically isolate the Mexican and negro sections of the city.

City street maintenance crews reported two to three feet of water flooded areas but no paving was damaged. All city streets were expected to be opened by late afternoon.

Mexican and negro sections experienced heavy runoff water that covered streets and low places. Water did not run into houses.

Fairways at the Midland Country Club were under several feet of water at low places.

Rainfall here amounted to 3.61 inches last night and early today. Heaviest fall was at 2:45 a. m. The rain came in heavy sheets and straight down.

Reports from the rural districts told of heavy rain in every direction. It filled tanks and lakes on ranches.

Traffic into the city was on schedule. The Texas & Pacific railroad reported no washouts.

The West Texas Gas Company reported traffic was going through to Lubbock by way of Big Spring. The Lubbock-Brownfield highway was closed. Highways to Lubbock north to Amarillo were open.

Seminole streets were flooded with water early today.

May Rainfall 8.34 Inches A bus driver from the west passing through Midland at 8:34 a. m. today, said areas to the west received heavy rains but there were no flood conditions.

Bus schedules were maintained on time both east and west. The driver of a bus coming from the east said rains were heavy but traffic was going through.

Rainfall for May amounts to 8.34 inches by the airport gauge. Heavier rainfall fell in the city however. Total moisture for the year is 11.11 inches.

By The Associated Press. The flood-swollen Pecos River was rising steadily at Pecos Monday and water was expected to flow over the Bankhead Highway between there and Barstow by Tuesday.

Oil well operators in the river bottoms of Ward and Pecos counties were warned to build levees for protection as flood water from New Mexico continued to pile into Red Bluff Lake and surge southward.

Scattered heavy rains fell in parts of West Texas.

Water Over Spillway. Flow at the highway bridge east of Pecos Monday morning was 4,000 second feet and this was expected to triple when the crest hits Tuesday. Observers said this would mean a considerable inundation near here.

Water was spilling two feet over the top of Red Bluff spillway and all floodgates but one were closed in order to allow earlier crests to pass down the river before the release of more water from northern reaches of the stream was necessary.

Torrents Sweep Through New Mexico

Unusually heavy rains in Guadalupe mountains have sent Pecos River out of its banks, leaving over a thousand homeless and many unaccounted for. Homes and debris are jammed against this bridge which in normal times spans a dry ravine. Flood waters in area have reached record highs.

Irish Premier Says Conscription Plan Is 'Grievous Attack'

DUBLIN, May 26—(AP)—Prime Minister Eamon de Valera of Eire denounced today the British proposal to apply conscription to neighboring Northern Ireland as a "grievous attack" on a "fundamental human right."

The Dail Eireann was packed as the lanky premier rose to make his second objection against the British conscription plan.

He recalled to the members, who had been called into special session to consider the proposal, that he had protested to the British government even before the outbreak of war.

Britain Listens To Talk. "There could be no more grievous attack on any fundamental human right," he told the audience, "than the plan to force an individual to fight by force for a country to which he objected to belong."

Among his hearers was Sir John Maffey, the British representative.

"The six northern counties are a part of Ireland, have always been a part of Ireland, the inhabitants are Irish and nothing can alter the fact," De Valera added.

Eire insists that her constitution applies to the whole of Ireland, including the six counties of northern Ireland.

Behind The Headlines

By DeWitt MacKenzie

All the sensational developments of the week-end seemed to be hooked with one of the most critical problems which confront the British and their Allies at the moment—whether the French government at Vichy intends to carry its collaboration with the Nazis to the extent of giving up its colonies for bases.

The sea fight off Greenland, which cost John Bull the battleship Hood, a grand ship of such graceful lines that he took greater pride in it than any other, was a grim part of the battle of the Atlantic. It is a potent reminder that if the Germans get the French ports on the West Coast of Africa, especially Dakar, they will be in far stronger position for their assault on America's all-out aid and other trans-Atlantic shipping.

With this must be coupled Nazi Grand Admiral Raeder's warning that the use of American convoys for contraband to Britain would be an open war act to which the German navy would reply with gunfire if necessary.

Every moment that the Battle of Crete proceeds it calls attention to the likelihood that French mandate Syria will become a full-fledged Nazi base if the Germans win—and maybe it will if they don't—thus creating a powerful threat against the Suez Canal and Egypt.

Every movement, too, that this conflict in the Eastern Mediterranean remains at white heat, we may be sure that the Germans are taking advantage of this distraction to run troops and equipment through the British blockade to the African shores of this inland sea. Are these forces going into the French colonies, to establish a grave threat against England's control of the all-important Mediterranean theater?

That's a question upon which the security of the Allied cause may hinge. Obviously, then, Britain must have an immediate answer. It's too dangerous to let the matter ride along.

She must have absolute assurance that the French won't permit German use of the colonies. She can get this assurance in one of two ways—by a guarantee from the French, or by taking military action to safeguard herself.

British Search North Atlantic For Nazi Vessel

LONDON, May 26—(AP)—British swordfish planes and speedy destroyers were reported searching the fogbanks of the North Atlantic today in a vengeance-driven effort to put a British fighting squadron back in battle contact with Germany's big new Bismarck and her supporting ships.

The navy's torpedo-carrying planes were said to have scored at least one hit Saturday night on the German torpedo boat which the British said broke off the engagement after the 35,000-ton Bismarck sank the 42,100-ton battle cruiser Hood, pride of the British navy, earlier that day.

The British reported that the Bismarck was damaged during the fight and expressed hope that this and the torpedo hit would slow the Germans enough so that they might be overtaken or headed off by the new units of the British navy which are speeding to the scene.

CAIRO, Egypt, May 26—(AP)—At least 24 planes were destroyed and others were badly damaged in new raids by British fighters and bombers against German forces on the island of Crete, the Royal Air Force said tonight.

By The Associated Press

CAIRO, Egypt, May 26—German forces on Crete, reinforced by air-borne tanks, have penetrated British positions around Nazi-held Malemi airport west of Canea and fierce fighting is raging with New Zealanders stubbornly counter-attacking, the British announced today.

A Middle East communique said the Germans, battling desperately to broaden this major foothold on the embattled island, lashed out at the British lines under cover of an intense air bombardment.

The communique did not mention tanks in connection with this action but unofficial British sources said the German had managed to land some by plane.

The assault started after additional air-borne reinforcements had been landed, the war bulletin said, adding that the Imperial troops inflicted heavy casualties on the Germans.

At British-held Candia and Retimo, where heavy fighting has developed in the seven-day-old battle of Crete, the official announcement said the situation remained unchanged.

British sources said that although the Germans have landed tanks on Crete, they have not yet been reported in contact with the defenders of the Greek island.

Dr. W. R. White Addresses Seniors

Character is the citadel of civilization," Dr. W. R. White, president of Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene, told the graduating class of Midland High School in the baccalaureate sermon at the high school auditorium, Sunday morning.

Brains, brawn, character, and religion are needed at this time more than they have been in any other age, he said, stating that the human spirit cannot do its best without being fused with the divine spirit.

Opening the program, the robed and capped graduates entered the auditorium to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Priests' March," followed by singing of "Hail to the Newborn King" by the high school chorus and community choir.

Invocation and program prayer by the Rev. H. D. Bruce, two choral readings by the high school student body, directed by James Mims, singing of the Gloria by the chorus and choir, "Ave Maria" by selected voices, scripture reading by the Rev. W. C. Hinds, and a soprano solo by Mrs. Roy Parks preceded the commencement sermon.

Superintendent W. W. Lackey introduced the speaker.

Following the address, he also presented the seniors of 1941 and their parents.

Singing of the "Pilgrim's Chorus" and benediction closed the program.

Northwestern Andrews Test Shows Little Oil And Gas In Upper Lime

By Frank Gardner Oil Editor. Mascho Oil Company of Midland No. 1 M. M. Fisher, wildcat in the Shafter Lake area of Northern Pecos County, continued to hold interest today as it logged slight showing of oil and gas less than 100 feet in solid lime.

The well showed rainbow of oil and enough gas to burn on boiler after drilling from 4,165-76 feet. It is drilling ahead at 4,179 feet in solid lime topped high structurally at 4,083 feet.

Farther west by north, Mascho No. 1 Texaco-University is drilling at 2,775 feet in anhydrite and red rock.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1-20-38 B. B. Ralph, wildcat north of the west central part of the county, is shut down for repairs at 2,795 feet in anhydrite and salt, with drilpipe in the hole. Crown was pulled in, damaging lower equipment and necessitating replacement of some parts.

Terry Wildcat Tops Brown Lime. The Texas Company No. 1 S. T. Murphy, Western Terry County test six miles north of Tokio, is drilling at 4,220 feet in anhydrite and lime. With elevation of 3,548 feet it topped brown lime at 4,170. The Yates sand marker has been picked at various points ranging from 3,120 to 3,220 feet.

S. W. Richardson No. 15 R. L. Slaughter, Jr., in the Hockley County portion of the Slaughter pool, flowed at the rate of 770.04 barrels daily after acidizing with 8,000 gallons at 4,980 feet. On the Cochran County side of the pool, Devonian Oil Company No. 3 H. T. Boyd made 1,074.40 barrels daily after 13,900 gallons at 5,058 feet.

Magnolia No. 2 Maple Wilson, Hockley deep test north of the Slaughter pool, is drilling at 5,580 feet in hard gray lime, reportedly in search of lower Permian production.

Siemonet Welsh Out Of Permian. Siemonet Drilling Company No. 1 W. T. Welsh, at all test in the Abell pool of Northern Pecos, went out of the Permian into a broken section identified by some as Simpson, middle Ordovician, at 4,890 feet, datum of minus 2,504. It is drilling ahead past 4,947 feet in broken lime and shale.

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Conry-Davis Unit, wildcat east of the Abell pool, is trying to free stuck drilpipe, bottomed at 5,590 in Ellenburger, lower Ordovician, dolomite.

A short northwest outpost to the pool, Magnolia No. 1 D. P. Gerety, is drilling Simpson shale below 5,434 feet. An east outpost, Sinclair-Prairie No. 1 Grove, cemented 7-inch pipe at 5,442, 5 feet off bottom.

Bedmond, Greene et al No. 1 Iowa Realty Trust, Northern Pecos wildcat two miles north of the Heiner Ellenburger area recently discovered by Culbertson & Irwin, Inc. of Midland, is drilling in anhydrite at 1,140 feet.

An Ordovician test in Southeastern Reagan County, Amerada Petroleum Corporation No. 1-RA University is drilling past 6,118 feet in shale and lime shells.

Sand Hills Ellenburger. Gulf Oil Corporation No. 23 W. N. Waddell et al, southeast offset to production in the southwest extension area of the Sand Hills Ellenburger pool in Western Crane County, is standing, bottomed at 5,532 feet in dolomite, after cementing 7-inch casing at 5,575 feet with 500 sacks. It topped the Ellenburger at 5,552 feet. A 45-minute drillstem test from 5,560 to 5,532 feet failed, and another test from 5,580 to 5,532 showed 130,000 cubic feet of gas daily and rise of 180 feet of oil and gas-out mud in 45 minutes.

Threatens Audit Veto

O'Daniel Tells Legislature If Bill For New Budget System Isn't Passed Tuesday Auditing Proposal Won't Get Approval

By The Associated Press

AUSTIN, May 26—(AP)—Governor W. Lee O'Daniel told the Legislature today that unless it passed by tomorrow a bill providing a new system for preparing the state budget he would veto another bill it recently approved revamping the auditing setup.

In a special message, he described the present plan of auditing and budgeting the "poorest" possible, "slipshod," "ridiculous" and "unbusinesslike."

The governor had advocated making the auditor appointive by and responsible to the legislature. The auditor now is appointed by the governor.

He also had urged creating a budget preparation department under a budget director appointed by the governor. At present the budget is prepared by the three member board of control, who are appointed by the executive for six-years overlapping terms.

The legislature passed legislation to effectuate the former, but not the latter reorganization.

The governor set the deadline for action because tomorrow would be the last day for decision by him on the auditing bill. If he did not veto it, it would become law, either with or without his signature.

He asserted he did not want his message construed as a threat.

"Our present system of auditing and budgeting for the state of Texas, as, in my opinion, is about the poorest system that could ever have been devised," he declared.

"No business organization could remain successful many months if it were operated under our present system."

"I have explained this system to the citizens of Texas, and they were astonished to find out the kind of system we have, and they are insistent that it be changed."

He asserted the legislature had no personnel or facilities for making up a budget properly and was "forced to resort to slipshod and unbusinesslike methods."

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
TOMORROW MAY NEVER COME. DO THE ESSENTIAL THING TODAY; Behold now is the acceptable time; now is the day of salvation.— II Corinthians 6:2.

Confidence; No Smugness, No Despair

A year has passed since that May 16, 1940, when President Roosevelt called the nation to prepare.

So many conflicting opinions are advanced as to what we have done in response that it seems worthwhile to back off once more and look at the picture. One hears this one say: "We are terrible. The troops are ill-equipped, untrained for modern battle. Strikes have hamstrung our efforts; industry has not co-operated. It's bad." The other says, "We're wonderful! Everything is swell! We are invincible."

We have read a lot of reports, studied a lot of statistics and stories from those who should know. And this we conclude:

The first year of the defense effort has accomplished more than any nation has ever accomplished in a similar period. It is not enough.

There is no reason for despair. There is no reason for smug satisfaction. The period of preparation for defense production nears an end. We are beginning to produce.

The effort is uneven. In some fields we have accomplished prodigies. In others, the effort has fallen short, largely because many, both in the ranks of management and labor, do not realize the importance of the job, do not realize that it may be a matter of life and death for the country and the way of life they love.

We might have done more during these last 12 months; certain ill-justified strikes, certain managerial muffs of the ball; certain reluctances of management to get in and pitch; these have held us back.

But there is absolutely no reason to be discouraged or to feel that we are failing.

What is past is past. The year since May 16, 1940, is gone. We have many reasons to be proud of what has been done; no reason whatever for despair.

A second year begins. The pace is faster, faster. Fortunately, people are beginning to buckle down to the task. Event after event shows that the only salvation is in faith and strength.

America shall not lack either. In faith and growing strength, then, forward!

Not Too Strong, Yet Strong Enough

Every American is deeply concerned today with preserving democratic institutions. Our love of freedom is redoubled by seeing the piteous plight of peoples who have lost it.

So, because people are activated by violent feelings, one hears violent words. This one or that one "ought to be hanged." That one or the other "ought to be made to shut up." Various people want to hang or shut up various other people, according to their opinions.

This very violence of feeling and of speech leads us back to a central problem of democracy which Lincoln surveyed in 1864, and on which he commented in words as wise as any American ever applied to practical politics:

"It has long been a grave question," he said, "whether any government, not too strong for the liberties of its people, can be strong enough to maintain its existence in great emergencies."

Those words were spoken by Lincoln at a time of great emergency. He had the practical problem to face, just as we have it to face today. Waves of conflicting emotion sweep across the country today just as in 1864. We, too, face the same grave question. We must keep our free institutions as strong as they need to be to preserve them, yet not too strong for the liberties of the people. We must keep production rolling, so as to be able to defend democracy from threats from without, yet we must keep it rolling in such a way that its essential spirit is not destroyed within.

It is that spirit which will essentially preserve it in the long run, and nothing else.

Those who remember the World War know that in an emergency such as we face today things cannot go on "as usual."

Business cannot go on "as usual," Labor cannot go on "as usual."

There will be, in the urgent interest of maintaining the government's existence, some infringements on the ways and even the liberties of normal peaceful life.

Yet we have turned the balances in that direction before, and yet afterward recovered our normal liberties. In times of grave emergency, we have several times leaned toward that strength required to maintain our existence. Each time we have been able to turn the balance back, to show that that strength was not, in the long run, too strong for the liberties of the people. This we can do again, and this we will do.

General Motors and Ship Building Cases Bring Out Defects In Labor; "Cooling Off" Generates White Heat

By Peter Edson
The Reporter-Telegram
Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON. — Difficulties in settlement of two recent major labor disturbances, the General Motors and Pacific coast ship building cases, have brought out sharply some of the fundamental weaknesses of the American labor situation today and the weakness of most of the remedies now under consideration to cure what ails us.

Take the General Motors case first. Management and labor both admitted privately that this was one strike that would not be allowed to happen. Inside story is the C. I. O. filed its five-day notice of intent to strike, as called for by Michigan law, purely as a precautionary measure, with the idea, perhaps, that it would speed up negotiations and settlement. What happened, however, was that the cooling off period became a heating-up period, and before leaders knew it, their unions had all steamed up and ready to walk out.

It took 16 days of the National Defense Mediation Board's best likes to effect settlement. Even then, on the day before agreement was reached, 36,000 workers in Detroit and Flint, unaware that the negotiators had agreed to a further 24-hours truce, walked out. Flint workers simply ignored the order of U. A. W. President John R. Thomas that they return to work. Fortunately, the walkout was ended after one day of signing of the new agreement.

Waterfront Steams Up
Take the coast shipyards case. On April 23 in Seattle, a master contract was agreed to at Office of Production Management instance, providing $1.12 an hour with time and a half for overtime. A short time later, however, "uptown" San Francisco machinists not working in the shipyards made an agreement for $1.15 an hour and double time for overtime.

This steamed up 1900 waterfront machinists, 1200 of them AFL, 700 of them CIO. Taking the stand that the master contract had not been approved by the rank and file membership, they went out on strike for $1.15 an hour and double time, forming picket lines that kept 20,000 men off the job. Union leadership was powerless to prevent this clearly unauthorized strike. OPM appealed to the machinists to go back to work, but without effect.

Here is the interesting complication: Because OPM had handled this case from the first, the Conciliation Service of the Department of Labor was not called in and because Conciliation Service was not called in, the secretary of labor could not certify the case to the National Defense Mediation Board. What The Doctors Think Chief panacea that Congress has been able to think up for these mixups follow the general formula of the Vinson bill now under consideration, providing for a cooling off period. In neither of these cases labor experts in Washington believe, would the cooling off period have done any good. Rank and file union membership, when it takes matters into its own hands, has all too frequently turned away from its leadership.

Reorganization of all federal labor relations agencies under one head has been proposed since there has been confusion in the eight-headed OPM-Mediation Board Conciliation Service-Department of Labor-Wages and Hours-NLRB-Maritime Board-Railway Labor Board setup. These organizations really have different functions and they are now co-ordinated through Steel-

Senator Pepper Says Americans' Decision Should Be Made Soon

DALLAS, May 26 (AP)—Senator Claude Pepper (D-Fla.) says it is time for Americans to decide whom they are for in the world conflict and "the way we respond will determine not only whether democracy shall live but also whether it deserves to live."

And "public opinion, not congress or Roosevelt, will determine America's course," Senator Pepper said yesterday in a radio address opening a two week's swing through the Middle West.

The senator was to address an Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce luncheon today, fly to Austin to address the Texas legislature Tuesday and appear at an American Legion meeting at Waco Tuesday afternoon. He will speak here again Tuesday night after President Roosevelt's nation-wide address. He planned to be at Wichita Falls and Amarillo Wednesday.

U. S.-Argentine Troubles Affect Republics Pact

By Lawrence S. Haas
U. P. Latin American Editor
Prospects for closer economic cooperation between the United States and Argentina, which now appear as the result of the announcement of trade pact negotiations, are certain to have a far reaching effect upon Pan-American relations in general.

Although United States-Argentine relations always have been what Latin Americans term "correct," meaning that there has existed a scrupulous mutual respect for each other's sovereign rights and dignity, nevertheless an undercurrent of resentment has prevailed persistently in Argentina. As long as it lasts the United States' objective of harmonious understanding with other American republics will be difficult to reach.

Normal Market Good
In times of world order the United States is an important and active competitor for the Argentine market—for its automobiles, tires, office machinery, electrical appliances, farm machinery, steel products, and, to a somewhat lesser degree, its textiles, toilet articles, and hundreds of other commodities.

Argentina adheres closely to the belief that this country must buy where it sells, and in recent years the trade balance with the United States has been unfavorable to Argentina. Essentially an agricultural country, Argentina's main products parallel those of the United States. They are principally meat, grains, wool, hides and linseed.
Argentina's position among Latin American neighbors is a potent one, and there is no secret that the State Department in Washington realizes that all-out economic, political and cultural cooperation between the United States and Latin America will not be achieved so long as a country of Argentina's importance is not a whole-hearted participant.

BRITISH BOMBERS RAID CONVOYS ALONG COAST
LONDON, May 26 (AP)—British bomber attacks on two convoys and other vessels yesterday in a daylight sweep along the Dutch, German, and Danish coasts were reported today by the air ministry.
The announcement said debris from one shipment of about 6,000 tons was hurled into the air after a bomb explosion and a 4,000-ton vessel was reported left enveloped in smoke after direct hits.
Several other ships were believed damaged, the air ministry said. It acknowledged the loss of four planes during the attacks and scouting operations.

Brig.-Gen. Allen Urges Camp Hulen Soldiers To Give Biggest Individual Effort For Summer Mass Maneuvers

By William T. Rives
CAMP HULEN, Palacios, Tex., May 26 (AP)—Camp Hulen, one of the army's big coast artillery anti-aircraft training centers, has an all-out program of its own.

Every soldier on the reservation is being keyed to one objective—outstanding performance during the coming mass maneuvers this summer.

Along with other units, Camp Hulen's men—the 33rd Brigade—will participate in Louisiana in the greatest peace-time maneuvers ever staged by the army.

The soldiers never are allowed to overlook this fact.
From the commanding officer himself, Brig.-Gen. H. C. Allen came the words:

"Each unit in this command has the capacity to be one of the outstanding units in the Third Army and I urge all of you collectively and individually to strive to win for your unit that enviable place in the army of the United States."

In daytime hours, in the dead of night, on smooth terrain, on muddy fields—under all conditions, the 33rd Brigade has carried forth its training program, going as far afield as Midland in West Texas to practice the exercises it may be called upon to perform this summer.

Camp Hulen hit its full training stride in January and its full strength—11,500 officers and men—in mid-April.

Only one regular army unit—the 69th Coast Artillery anti-aircraft regiment—is in camp. The remainder of the troops are National Guardsmen, the 197th Regiment from New Hampshire; the 203rd from Missouri; the 204th from Louisiana; the 211th from Massachusetts; the 105th Coast Artillery Battalion from Louisiana; the 106th Battalion from Kentucky, and attached units.

Approximately 3,500 of the soldiers were selected with no previous basic training.

All the doughboys, however, are put through the camp's training process.

For the first month, they are run through basic military instruction—infantry drill, first aid, rifle firing, personal hygiene, etc.

Then they move into the secondary period, usually lasting from four to eight weeks, in which each soldier is training to fit him for his specialty.

After that, he is sent out on actual practice and maneuvers designed to qualify him as a first-class fighting man.

Each battalion gets in a month's firing at a time. Its targets are towed by planes from the Michigan National Guard, stationed at Camp Beauregard, La., but based at Houston during their work with the anti-aircraftmen here.

Legislative Closing Is Near But Chambers Must Find Agreement

AUSTIN, May 26 (AP)—The end of the long trail was in sight today as sentiment grew among members of the legislature to quit and go home.

The House of Representatives has approved a resolution to recess June 2 to July 25 while the Senate passed a proposal which would adjourn the four-and-a-half month long session June 3. The houses must be in accord before the assembly can be terminated.

Major remaining important legislation—bills which will specify how much money the state government can spend the next two years and for what—was in conference committees.

Other matters also were calendared for action—what to do with excess money in the state's county and district road bond indebtedness fund and whether to amend the state's oil production law.

New Mexico May Be Past Dangers

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., May 26 (AP)—Flood conditions subsided today in Southeastern New Mexico where Carlsbad counted 1,300 homeless, one dead and four missing from two flash floods last week in Pecos River tributaries.

A new threat, meantime, rolled down the Rio Grande toward Central New Mexico as warm weather released water from Colorado mountain snows to join freshets from local showers along the upper watershed.

High water was expected, too, in the San Juan river of Northwestern New Mexico within the next 24 hours.

Red Bluff Reservoir Filled.
Both the Rio Grande and San Juan are now well below previous flood levels.

Although scattered thunderstorms were reported over the Pecos watershed yesterday, there were no recurrences of the disastrous downpours that loosed 8 to 15 foot crests down arroyo tributaries on Carlsbad.

The heavy Pecos runoff filled the McMillan reservoir, above Carlsbad, and the Red Bluff, Tex., reservoir, down stream. Although high, the river was mostly within its banks and weather conditions were reported greatly improved over the watershed.

Will Negotiate For Removing Survivors

IRUN, Spain, At The French-Spanish Frontier, May 26 (AP)—DuWayne Clark and George W. Poland, Jr., United States embassy representatives, crossed into France again this morning to discuss the removal of 140 American passengers of the Egyptian steamer Zamzam, sunk in the South Atlantic by the Germans.

They took a copy of the St. James version of the Bible which one of the American missionaries in the party had requested.

Arrangements have been completed with Spanish and Portuguese railway companies for the 24-hour trip to Lisbon from the frontier and the group now awaits only the formalities of Spanish and Portuguese visas, which will be completed by Wednesday, they said.

(The Germans have indicated that not all 140 Americans will be treated alike.)

Time Spent In Making Up Is Time Saved

By Alicia Hart, NEA Service Staff Writer

Smartly turned-out career women usually allow half an hour for morning beauty and grooming routines. They know that it isn't possible to take a shower, dress carefully, apply cosmetics the way cosmetics should be applied, and comb the hair the way hair should be combed, in less time than this.

You may be able to dress in five or six minutes. In fact, if your closet and dresses drawers always are in good order, there's no reason why you shouldn't. This leaves fifteen minutes for brushing teeth and taking a shower, followed by a good brisk rubdown, and ten for making up.

APPLIED WITH CARE MAKEUP LASTS LONGER

If you think that there's not much point in spending ten minutes putting on makeup just remember that quickly applied cosmetics won't stay on as long. If you take time to smooth and blend foundation film into the skin, it will hold powder in place for hours.

If, after blending cream rouge on the cheeks, you press on quantities of powder and let it set for a few minutes before whisking off the excess, both rouge and powder will be with you until time for the pre-lunch hour face cleaning. But if you dust a bit of powder on quickly, it'll pass a rouge puff lightly across the cheeks your face will be shining and pale within two hours.

KEEP LIPS DRY FOR LIPSICK

Lipsick ought to be applied on dry lips, left unmoistened for a minute or two, then blotted with cleansing tissue. It won't stay on for

Take Your Choice--Rubber, Cotton or Wool--Suits Are Smart, Becoming And Attractive

Streamlined Or Soft, There Is A Wide Style Variety To Choose From

Morning glories bloom all over this white cotton pique beach ensemble, designed to flatter all types of figures. The bathing suit is of the skirted, dressmaker variety. The flaring cape is lined with white terry cloth.

By Marian Young, NEA Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK.—Summer's smartest swim suits were designed for swimming as well as figure flattery.

This is a year when a girl doesn't have to decide between a bathing suit that is practical and looks like one which is charming but of no earthly use in the water. There are plenty of designs which combine the practical features of a streamlined maillot and the feminine becomingness of a softer, dressmaker suit.

Even rubber swim suits—heretofore thought of in terms of active swimming but seldom in terms of lounging in a deck chair beside a pool—have a new softness about them. There still are plain maillots and slim-skirted rubber suits, of course. In addition, however, there are beautiful models with pleated shorts over skin-tight trunks and bra-tops with dressmaker touches which are feminine but not chichi.

SUITS IN RUBBER, WOOL AND COTTON

One of the handsomest rubber

suits comes with box-pleated shorts in a navy blue, a white belt and a scarlet halter. Another—a one-piece type with slim skirt—is made in an embossed floral design that resembles a printed cotton material.

Among the wool swim suits, prints seem newest. One lovely model with quarter skirts across back and front is in soft hyacinth blue with a wide-spaced design of small white daisies. Another is in red, white and blue stripes—most popular color combination in beachwear departments at the moment.

In cottons, white pique—self-trimmed and with colorful touches—is repeated again and again. Flowered cottons make some of the prettiest suits for the fullish figure and for the too-thin figure. The majority of these have skirts which manage to look gracefully ample, but not voluminous.

Our favorite cotton suit is white with colorful morning glories in shades of blue and soft violet splashed all over it. There's a matching beach cape, too—lined with white terry cloth.

A red, white and blue swim suit, of rubber which looks like fabric, will appeal to both expert swimmers and dawdlers. The shorts—attached to form-fitting trunks—are knife pleated. The bra top has ties at the back and a halter strap around the neck. The huge, rubber lined, cotton beach bag also comes in red, white and blue.

Good for sun bathing on the beach as well as active swimming in the surf is this royal blue bathing suit of soft, lightweight wool. Red and white braid trims the V neckline which continues to a deep square at the neck. The star and navy rating emblem are smart fillips.

MUSTANG BOYS' CLUB COLUMN

Can you answer the following questions. Answers tomorrow:

1. In what river in the U. S. A. are all the fish blind?
2. What is the name of the pirate who buried the biggest treasure of all times? This treasure is still un-found. The pirate's first and last names are the same.
3. What is the name and location of the richest gold mine in the United States?
4. What county in Texas has less people than any other county in the U. S. A.?
5. What is the largest county in the U. S. A.?

A snappy track meet Saturday night spelled fun with capital letters for the Mustangs. The meet, at night and under the lights, added charm. It was entirely im-promptu and Malcolm Bridges, with his assistants, ran events off in nothing flat. Two remarkable per-formances were made. David Biz-zell chinned himself 36 times and Raymond Wheeler 23 times. We chal-lenge any person in Midland re-gardless of age to equal this un-usual record. The events that made up the fun were the broad jump, high jump, 50-yard dash, 80-yard dash and chinning. The following rep-resents the top notch winners in points:

Senior division:
 First, Robert Wheeler 15, 2nd., Bill Franks, 13 1/2, 3rd., Lomer Green, 12 1/2; 4th, Russel Turnbow, 7.

Monarch Finds Haven In Egypt

CAIRO, May 26—(AP)—Barely evading swarms of Nazi parachutists who landed virtually in his backyard on embattled Crete, King George II of Greece found temporary haven today in Egypt en route to British territory to re-establish his government in its third capital in less than five weeks.

The harassed monarch, who told in his own words upon arrival of how narrowly he eluded the first clouds of German sky troops last Tuesday, proclaimed immediately that Greece was determined to fight on.

He did not say where the government, which had been establish-

SERIAL STORY

THREE TO MAKE READY

BY W. H. PEARS

YESTERDAY: Paula fails to get Chris out of jail. Later she learns that Jenks is raising the fraternity men to attack a League meeting. She rushes to Dr. Lud for help. Ends Tony there. Dr. Lud goes into action.

DR. LUD MEETS DEFEAT

CHAPTER XIII
DR. LUD'S ancient but shiny coupe was parked in the driveway. The two men reached it, Paula at their heels.

Tony said, "Paulie, where are you going?"

"With Dr. Lud!" she flung at him. "And don't try to stop me."

"No time to argue," Lud commanded. "Let her come."

Backing into the street, Lud said, "If we only knew where to start. We haven't one chance in a hundred driving around blindly."

Tony said, "Gosh, if I'd only kept my mouth shut! I knew the Lud boys were up to something and I blew off to Hal about it. So, of course, he shut up."

Lud was driving aimlessly about the campus. Tony glanced at his wrist watch.

"Seven-thirty," he announced. "If we don't get a lead soon..."

Paula said suddenly, "Why not try the old barn, Dr. Lud?"

He shook his head. "It's doubtful if they'd meet there again."

"No, wait, Dr. Lud!" Tony broke in. "The League might figure that nobody would look in the most obvious place."

"All right, Tony, maybe it's worth a try."

Paula told him how to reach the old barn. In a few minutes they were on the road which she and Jenks had taken.

"Car coming," Lud grunted. Headlights flared behind them. An open roadster, traveling at high speed, swished past.

Tony gripped Lud's arm. "That was Hal Bascomb's car. We're on the right track. Feed it the soup, Dr. Lud."

PAULA, her body tense, peered into the darkness. They were still about a half mile from the road where she and Jenks had turned.

"Dr. Lud—stop!" Paula exclaimed. "I—I thought I saw cars parked behind that old schoolhouse."

Lud jammed the coupe to a stop, backed slowly. Tony shouted, "She's right!" Tony shouted, "Naturally the fellows wouldn't meet on the campus. They'd probably get together somewhere and go to the League meeting."

Lud turned the car into a rutty lane. "Well, soon see."

A figure darted from behind the schoolhouse and ran to meet the car. "Hey, Jenks, we thought you weren't coming."

At that moment the student recognized Dr. Lud. A whistle of astonishment broke from his lips. He disappeared.

Calmly Lud drove behind the schoolhouse and parked beside a half dozen other cars loaded with students. Then they heard the voice of Hal Bascomb:

"You're a great guy, Tony! What's the faculty going to give you for squealing—a magna cum laude?"

Tony said, "Look, Hal, will you listen to what Dr. Lud has to say before you get sore?"

Slowly, grumbling under their breath, the students piled out of their cars and stood in a sullen group before Lud.

"Shoot it, Professor," Hal said. "Well, listen until Jenks comes, but we won't change our minds."

With the utmost composure, Lud ignored the remark. Deliberately he took a cigar from his pocket and, cupping his hands against the breeze, lighted it.

"Relax, gentlemen," he said as calmly as if he were addressing a class. "I'll make it brief. First, how many of you feel that Dr. Van Horn is a good president?"

"He's okay, but he lets the League run the campus."

"Sure," Bascomb said, "it's all right for guys like Tony to turn the other cheek. He's not coming back to Cardman. But I am, and so's my kid brother. Think I want him to get slugged because Van Horn hasn't nerve enough to buck the League?"

"I can see your point of view, Bascomb," Lud said. "But if you'll turn around and go home I promise the League will give you no trouble next year."

From the rear of the group someone jeered, "Yah! Another statement from the president's office, I'll bet!"

Lud went on: "Tell me, Bascomb, do you think you fellows are more capable of handling this problem than the faculty?"

THE question was shrewd. An embarrassed silence followed. Lud quickly pursued his advantage:

"Did it ever occur to you fellows that the League is being deliberately used to make trouble at Cardman? If you go to their meeting tonight you're playing right into the enemy's hands."

"That's old stuff, Dr. Lud!" Again the voice came from the rear where, obviously, several heads were keeping out of sight.

"Bill Jenks says the League's using that story to protect itself."

"Jenks seems to know everything," Lud said dryly.

"We know our duty to Cardman," Bascomb said stubbornly. "We're going to run the League out of school."

Lud's cigar glowed. "Gentlemen, suppose I tell you that if you pursue this foolish course, I'll see that every last one of you is expelled?"

"You can't do that," Bascomb protested.

"Nevertheless, I will," Lud retorted.

The group shifted uneasily. Then, from the darkness, a harsh voice spoke: "Fellows, that's pure hokum."

Bill Jenks had parked on the road and walked back. He strode over to Bascomb and linked his arm in the student's.

Lud's words snapped out at the reporter: "You're pretty confident, Jenks, because you've nothing at stake."

"Look, Bascomb," Jenks said, "Dr. Lud here talks about avoiding a scandal at Cardman. What do you think'd happen if all of you were expelled?" Jenks laughed. "It's a swell bluff, Doc, but it won't work."

AND in that instant Paula knew Dr. Lud had failed. Jenks' arrival had stirred the boys to new excitement. Nothing, she felt, could stop them now.

Lud pulled Paula and Tony to one side. "I'm going to delay them as long as possible," he whispered. "You two get to the League meeting and warn them to disperse."

Tony slid into the driver's seat and Paula followed. Recklessly he backed the coupe along the snaky ruts. Once on the open road, he sent the old car shuddering through the night at top speed.

When they reached the mud road Paula directed him to turn. They hit a deep rut that almost jammed her head into the top.

"Stop here," she ordered a few moments later. "We'll cut through the field."

Tony obeyed. Then he turned and grasped Paula's arms. He spoke slowly, as if the precious minutes weren't slipping away:

"Look, Paula, I know you hate me. Maybe I don't blame you, but—"

Furious, Paula tried to twist free. "You're wasting time!" she gasped.

"Paulie, this is important. This League bunch may be pretty tough to handle. We've got to work together. I'm asking you to forget just for tonight that you hate me."

Paula hesitated only a moment, then she said quietly, "All right, Tony. I'll do as you ask."

Stock Market Leaders Drift To Lower Levels

NEW YORK, May 26—(AP)—Buying inspiration generally was lacking in today's stock market and, while there was little selling pressure at any time, leaders finished a drifting session down fractions to a point or so.

Transfers for the full proceedings were under 300,000 shares. Among stocks touching new lows for the year or longer were Consolidated Edison, Commonwealth Edison, Woolworth, Dow Chemical, Eastman Kodak and Continental Can.

Wool

BOSTON, May 26—(AP)—U. S. Dept. Agr.—Quotations generally were firm on domestic and foreign wools although few sales were being closed in Boston today. Wool houses here were receiving reports of strong buying in fleece wool states. Their customers, however, were showing little interest. A number of houses were asking 48 cents in the grease, delivered for combing average bright 3/8 and 1/4 blood fleece wools, but they found no interest above 46 to 47 cents, in the grease.

Cities Pay Tribute To 1300 Victims Of Vessel

PLYMOUTH, England, May 26—(AP)—Special tribute was paid to the 1,300 or more men who went down with the battle cruiser Hood, most of whom were from war-scarred Portsmouth, Plymouth and Devonport, in Sunday services in the three towns.

Congregations stood and offered silent prayers for the bereaved families.

Some of the Plymouth men aboard the British warship anxiously had been awaiting shore leave to visit their wives and families who had been bombed out of their homes.

Germany Claims Big Week Losses

BERLIN, May 26—(AP)—German air and Italian naval and air forces combined to sink 11 "enemy" cruisers, eight destroyers, one submarine and five torpedo boats and damaged one battleship and several more cruisers and destroyers in the Eastern Mediterranean since last Tuesday, the German high command announced today.

In addition to this summary of the fighting since the battle of Crete began, the war bulletin said that yesterday the Luftwaffe blasted British positions on the island itself, setting munitions dumps afire, and destroying two merchantmen in nearby waters.

Six British planes were declared destroyed in yesterday's air fights, including three bombers and three chasers, with an additional three RAF planes destroyed on the ground.

Cards Will Play Cubs With Star Rookie On Shelf

By Gayle Talbot
Associated Press Sports Writer.

The St. Louis Cards, setting a breathless pace in the National League, open a new series against the Chicago Cubs today with a patched-up infield, the result of an injury to their sensational rookie second baseman, Frank Crespi.

Crespi suffered a fractured finger yesterday as the flying leaders were sweeping a doubleheader with the Pittsburgh Pirates by scores of 6 to 4 and 4 to 3, and probably will be out for a fortnight.

This will supply the test of whether the Cards are sufficiently strong in replacements to shake off an occasional casualty and go right on blowing down the opposition. If Crespi's absence fails to slow Billy Southworth's boys, then Brooklyn might as well begin plotting for 1942.

The Cleveland Indians, threatening to make a runaway of the American League race, went bowling merrily along to their fifth straight victory as 20,000 Sunday fans watched Bob Feller shut out the St. Louis Browns 6 to 0.

Grove Wins No. 296.

Old Lefty Grove, Boston, inched nearer his lifetime goal of 300 victories as he notched No. 296 at the expense of the New York Yankees 10 to 3.

The Chicago White Sox burst loose with a seven-run rally in the seventh frame at Detroit to win 7 to 3.

The Athletics swept their three-game series with Washington by jumping on the eminent knuckleballer, Dutch Leonard, for five runs in the eighth. The score was 7 to 3.

With Joe Medwick dropped down to seventh place in the batting order, the Brooklyn's made the most of five hits to beat the Phillies, 8 to 4.

Charley Root bested Paul Deringer in a tense duel as the Chicago Cubs nosed out Cincinnati, 3 to 2, in the ninth.

The Boston Braves trotted out 22 players, but still lost to the Giants, 6 to 2.

Layden Proves Worth As Merriwell Player

AUSTIN, May 26—(AP)—Burt L. Standish would have named him Frank Merriwell had he come along at the turn of the century.

But to the University of Texas he is just Pete Layden, a quiet, unassuming youngster who has earned honors seldom accorded a college athlete.

Down here they call him a "money-player"—the fellow who comes through in the clutch, much as did mythical Frank Merriwell in Standish's immortal sage of sports.

When mighty Texas A. and M. looked toward its second undefeated season and the Rose Bowl, it was Layden who broke the Cadet's heart with a touchdown that brought one of the greatest upsets in Southwest Conference history.

When Texas tottered on the brink of oblivion this year in the conference baseball race, it was Layden who beat A. and M. with a homer in the tenth—a victory that eventually meant the championship.

Manager Calls Off Baseball Practice

A scheduled workout today for the Midland semi-pro baseball team will not be held because of wet grounds.

Last night's heavy rains flooded the ball park and Manager Jim Payne called off the workout.

Was The Blow Fair Or Foul?

Buddy Baer crumpled on floor after Joe Louis (left) delivered the much-discussed blow at end of sixth round in their championship fight at Washington, D. C. Manager Ancil Hoffman claims blow landed after bell sounded, and so wants title awarded to Baer. Boxing commission is having special hearing over disputed blow, which has caused almost as much excitement as Tunney's "long count."

Sports Roundup

By Eddie Brietz

NEW YORK, May 26—Feed-box special: Market Wise is all geared up to give Whirlaway a real tussle in the Belmont Stakes. Don Meade will be aboard. This gent isn't on our preferred list, but he doesn't fool around with cows, you know.

The Reds were so glad to get out of Chicago last night they wouldn't wait for a regular train, but hired a special. They're leveling off at Bob Zuppke out in Illinois and will wonder if Bob wishes he hadn't turned down that five-year offer to coach the Detroit Lions at $10,000 per year. Yea, verily, brethren, that's cabbage, not hay—and no alumni to boot.

Nobody in his right mind believes Joe Louis has to cart his own referee around. Just the same, nobody's feelings (except his own) would be hurt if Arthur Donovan is given a long vacation from future Louis bouts.

Justice Dept.

Let's hoist a stein to Buddy Baer! Boy, did he slip one over! And he should be right back in there.

Record gate receipts for a National Open ($47,000 at Interlachen St. Paul, Minn.) more than likely will be surpassed next month at Fort Worth. (Texas has gone plumb wild over the thing.)

Carl Hubbell, the old maestro, who never asked for quarter when he was in his prime, would like to see the lively ball toned down to give the young pitchers a break.

Golfers To Start Qualifying Rounds

NEW YORK, May 26—(AP)—The energetic youngsters who still claim golf as an old man's game and going oldsters who maintain that tournaments are only for the young fellows, can find plenty of fuel for their arguments today.

For the entry list for the 1941 National Open Golf Championship is loaded with colorful veterans and sharpshooting newcomers who have to win their places in the main tournament through today's sectional qualifying rounds.

Approximately 1,000 players have to fire 36 holes apiece in 27 different localities. Of these 128 will win the right to join 42 exempted stars in the Open at Fort Worth, Texas, June 5, 6 and 7. The field is the smallest in nearly a decade, due mainly to the fact that Fort Worth is so far from the big eastern and mid-western golfing centers, but its still strong enough to keep all but the best from qualifying.

Bank Officers Report Livestock Improvement

FORT WORTH, May 26—(AP)—A decided improvement in the Texas agricultural and livestock condition over the same period of last year was reported here today as officers of the federal land bank of Houston and representatives and directors of 33 farm loan associations in North Central and West Texas held a one-day field conference.

"Collections to date are way above the same period of last year," Sterling C. Evans of Houston, president of the bank, reported. "I believe this is due primarily to the fact that producers have received much better prices, especially in the cattle and wool markets."

Jameson Will Defend Title Today In Golf Tourney At Houston

By William T. Rives.

HOUSTON, May 26—(AP)—Betty Jameson, who can bring more clouds than a thunderstorm, opened defense today of her Trans-Mississippi golf title, one of her "Big Three" championships.

The San Antonio miss finished many brows among the biggest field of the tournament's history by tying the River Oaks course record in her first practice round over the scene of the tourney.

She drove here from San Antonio, went straight to the course and fired a 36-39-75, bettering par by a stroke going out and playing the second nine in even par.

Miss Jameson, who holds the National and Western championships, as well as the Trans, indicated she would be hard to stop.

Marion Miley, two-time winner from Lexington, Ky.; Mrs. Lucille Mann of Omaha, Neb.; Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth, former Curtis Cup player; Miss Kay Pearson, Texas champion playing over her own course; Miss Elmae Williams, Chicago model, and Phyllis Otto, youngster from Atlantic, Ia., appeared worthy of ousting the champ.

Bowler Is Close To Perfect Game

Jim Payne came within two pins of bowling a perfect game. He shot one of the highest bowling scores ever recorded in Midland.

The kegler scored 288. His first 10 frames were strikes. The eleventh ball left two pins standing. The next two balls produced a spare and a strike.

Payne's score was shot in practice. He is a member of the Mackey Motors team.

Former Nazi Testifies On Gestapo's Card File

WASHINGTON, May 26—(AP)—Richard Krebs, who wrote the book "Out of the Night" under the pen name of Jan Valtin, told the House committee on un-American activities today that the German Gestapo had a complete "card file" designed to provide Germany with a "constant barometer" of the strength of other nations.

Krebs testified that he had gone to Germany from Moscow in 1933, later broke with the Communist International and became a Gestapo agent. He learned, he said, that the real aim of Germany was "world domination."

$10,000,000 Goods Are In Japanese Hands

HANOI, French-Indo-China, May 26—(AP)—Ten million dollars worth of United States goods consigned originally to the Central Chinese government was in Japanese hands today after Japanese soldiers barged down the doors of two Haiphong warehouses yesterday and seized the contents.

The Japanese contended that the two American companies holding the goods—the Far Eastern Trading Company and the North American Syndicate—merely were blinds to cover the real Chinese owners. The Japanese had blocked shipment of the goods, which included trucks and tires, since September, when they gained army and air bases here.

Martin And Pollett Pitch Well As Buffs Thunder To Victories

By The Associated Press

To call the Houston Buffaloes "The Thundering Herd" may sound terribly trite—but it fits the picture.

Never uncomfortable about losing their first-place position since the Texas League season opened, the Buffs went on a super-winning spree during the last seven days, losing one game and then taking the next nine straight.

They fired their two ace pitchers at the Shreveport Sports yesterday to take a 14-2, 6-1 doubleheader victory. Fred Martin, the league's leading hurler, won the opener for his eighth straight victory and Howard Pollett pitched the second victory for his seventh win of the season against one defeat.

Clarence Gann won his seventh game of the season as the Beaumont Exporters took their opener with San Antonio, 11 to 6. The Missions copped the nightcap, 5 to 3.

Old Ed Greer, Fort Worth workhouse, pitched his 78th inning of the season when he went the route for the Cats in trimming the Tulsa Oilers, 5 to 2. Tulsa won the finale 3 to 1.

The Oklahoma City Indians whipped the Dallas Rebels twice, 3 to 1.

Conn Hopes For Kayo Over Knox

PITTSBURGH, May 26—(AP)—Threatened with the "sudden death" of his heavyweight dreams unless he wins decisively, Billy Conn may turn slugger tonight as he seeks to smash down Buddy Knox, unsung Dayton, O., boxer in a final 15-round pre-Louis "test" before a hometown crowd.

This transition from master boxer into fistie dynamite became necessary for Conn through an ultimatum by Mike Jacobs which virtually ordered Billy to win by a knockout or sacrifice his rights to a title crack at Champion Joe Louis next month in New York.

Baer's surprising showing touched off loud demands to replace Conn with Baer in the June shot at Louis. Jacobs indicated he would give serious consideration to this clamoring if Billy the Kid fails to commit mayhem on Knox, who originally was scheduled as fort of a dress rehearsal stogie.

ST. LOUIS, May 26—(AP)—The Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. resumed business session today, advised that "should America actually enter the war, Christians must rally public opinion to prevent the wholesale internment of refugees."

Joe Hill Challenges Governor To Debate

AUSTIN, May 26—(AP)—Senator Joe Hill of Henderson said in a personal privilege speech today he would give $10,000 to the British Red Cross if Governor W. Lee O'Daniel would meet him in a public debate.

"I want to ask him a few questions," Hill said. "I want to ask him why he is not in favor of aid to Great Britain. I want to ask him why he has nominated so many republicans to office in Texas."

Workers Strike At Niagara Falls

By The Associated Press

A strike by CIO workers at the Carborundum Plant at Niagara Falls, which union leaders predicted would be 100 per cent effective, started this morning and threatened the manufacture of grinding wheels and abrasives which company officials said were in practically every defense industry.

Company spokesmen said they expected no appreciable curtailment of production and said "a great many" of the 3,200 employees were on their jobs.

On the other side of the strike picture, construction work was resumed on the $30,000,000 Ravenna, Ohio, arsenal as officials said 10,400 men returned to work after a three-day shutdown which AFL officials said was "unauthorized."

The CIO men at the Carborundum Plant seek collective bargaining representation.

The National Defense Mediation Board, conceding that it had failed to settle a wage dispute between CIO's United Mine Workers and operators of southern soft coal mines, made ready today to publish its recommendations.

The board has no statutory power to force the opposing sides to accept these, but John L. Lewis, UMW president, agreed there would be no work stoppage until they were completed.

Fighting May Crumble Old Iraq Government

ANKARA, Turkey, May 26—(AP)—Reports suggesting that the two-month-old Iraq government of Premier Rashid Ali Al Ghalani might be breaking up under the stress of three weeks of fighting against the British circulated today in Ankara.

(There was no immediate indication as to whether the riots were against the Iraq government or against the British, who claim to have taken the city early in the undeclared war. London said it had no word of the rioting, that the situation was confused.)
