A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
YOU NEED NOT BE DRESSED UP, NOR WEALTHY, NOR LEARNED, NOR FASHIONABLE, NOR YET A SAINT, COME AS THOU ARE: Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart, and ye shall find rest for your souls, for my yoke is easy and my burden is light.—Matt. 11:28-30.

The Demanding Spirit

Petain, thinly-incarnate ghost of the France that held the line before Verdun, speaks to Frenchmen these days as a saddened father might speak to an erring child. "We are arranging everything with the Great White Father in Berlin. Don't worry. Don't think. Papa Petain will tell you what Hitler wants, and arrange to do it. Just stop thinking—obey!"

That is the tenor of Petain's little homilies, verbal soothing-syrup for the most part, to keep France from rattling her prison door. But the other day a phrase of Petain clanged like the closing of an iron gate. A committee of "workers, employers and technicians" was thus instructed:

"Your task is to put an end to the demanding spirit..."

To do this aging symbol justice, what he meant was the sort of uncompromising, zealous struggle in the social and political fields which helped tear France into ribbons; zealots of the extreme right and extreme left, each with a grim, intransigent spirit that "if it cannot be exactly as I wish it, then let it perish."

How this demand for the end of the demanding spirit will set with Frenchmen who once demanded an end of autocratic monarchy, and got, we do not know. But Heaven help the world when the demanding spirit is itself extinguished. It is only because our forefathers demanded liberty and then demanded that it be respected, that we have it today.

Right now the nation is doing some demanding also. An overwhelming majority of its people demand that military strength be built; that a swelling and uninterrupted stream of military supplies and equipment be created.

No. We do not want to extinguish the demanding spirit. Every good thing (along with a lot of bad things) which man has achieved on earth is due to the demanding spirit.

Now is the time, however, when lesser, personal, individual demands must be merged into the one great national demand. They must be reasonable, and practical, and subject to just compromise, whether they are the demands of organized labor or those of management.

Above the bickering of these individuals, groups, classes, rises the united demand of the American people that the job we have set ourselves be triumphantly accomplished.

Dr. Reith's "Private Business"

Can a citizen of a totalitarian country, specifically, of Germany, Italy, Russia, or even Japan, properly make the claim at any time that he is engaged in "private business"?

Totalitarianism being what it is, with every personal concern subjected to the state, it may rightly be assumed that citizen of such countries traveling abroad are always working more or less for their country's interests, not their own, unless the two happen to coincide. They wouldn't be allowed to go abroad, in the first place, if this were not so. In the second, any "private business" they may have is so interwoven with state policy and state direction that it cannot be "private."

We are slow to realize this, being geared to a system where a man can have private interests and pursue them independently of, or even detrimentally to, the national interest. Yet our own experience and the experience of South America, shows plainly that no citizen-in-good-standing of a totalitarian country can do this. Traveling abroad they are all, and in the nature of the case they must be, in the service of their governments to a greater or less degree. Let's not forget it.

Love And Stomach Ache

Love! Poets have been vainly trying to define it—"the wine of existence"—"the sweetest joy, the wildest woe"—"an egotism of two"—"a smoke raised with the fume of sighs"—"a reality born in the fairy region of romance"—"the life of the soul"—"the emblem of eternity"—"a dream"—and so on, and so on down through all the literature of the ages.

Remained for 1941 to discover that love is a stomach ache, or, more precisely, that a stomach ache may be caused by love. Dr. Leon J. Saul of the Institute for Psychoanalysis in Chicago imparted this melancholy information to the National Conference of Social Work.

Thus man's fate: no sooner have you steered junior through the anxious period when stomach aches were constantly following too much enthusiasm for ice cream and cake, than he enters into a period lasting until death when love will subject him to the same complaint. From death, taxes—and stomach ache—no escape.

Four Children To Have Homes

The W. A. Nicholas, superintendent of the West Texas Children's Aid and Welfare Association, who spent several days in Midland, left last night for Abilene with four children who will be placed in homes.

He said he would find homes for eight Midland children. The West Texas Children's Aid and Welfare Association was organized in 1923. It took the high award at the World's Fair in Chicago over other child saving institutions.

Midland citizens have contributed to the association, maintained by donations. Its board of directors, executive committee, and advisory board are composed of West Texas business men and educators.

Requests Boards To Defer Veterinaries

AUSTIN, June 10—(AP.)—The veterinarian plays an important role in national defense, in the opinion of General J. Watt Page, state selective service director, who has urged local draft boards to grant deferments to veterinary doctors and students.

Quoting a recent report of the Office of Production Management at Washington, Page said that a national shortage of veterinarians menaced the success of the defense program. "The veterinarian primarily is a guardian of our food supply and an even more necessary man to the nation than the horse doctor of the pre-automobile period," he declared. "The number of practicing veterinarians in the nation has been practically static for ten years and graduates of veterinary schools have been barely sufficient to offset deaths and retirement."

Orders Cargo Fleet For National Defense

WASHINGTON, June 10—(AP.)—The Maritime Commission has directed the Southern Pacific Company to deliver its entire fleet of 10 cargo vessels "for national defense purposes."

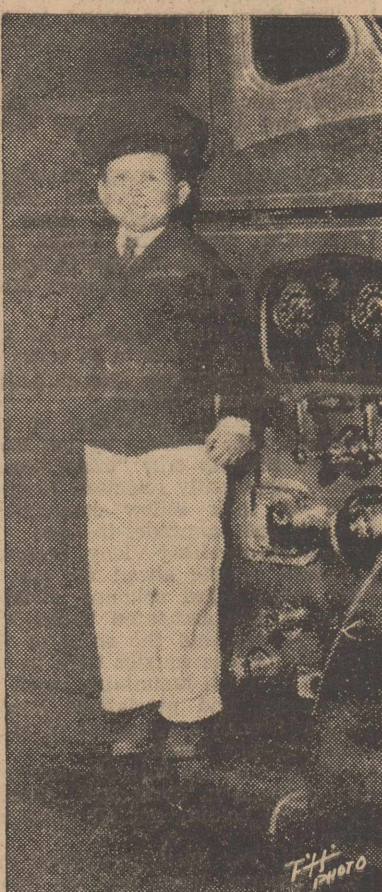

The vessels, the commission said today in announcing the order, are being acquired pursuant to President Roosevelt's order calling for a 2,000,000-ton shipping pool to be used to aid nations whose defense he deems vital to the United States. The cargo vessels owned by the Southern Pacific Company formerly were operated as the Morgan Line in coastwise service from New York and Baltimore to Galveston and Houston.

House Group Opposes Petitions Circulation

AUSTIN, June 10—(AP.)—A House committee investigating the eleemosynary institutions is against circulation of petitions among employees of several of 10 institutions concerning which the committee recommended the superintendents not be re-employed.

Rep. M. A. (Bill) Bundy of Wichita Falls, committee chairman, disclosed last night the group had reports petitions asking that the superintendents not be discharged were being circulated. "Employees are being asked to sign them under threat of getting fired if they refuse," Bundy declared.

For State Mascot

Newel Beauchamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Beauchamp, Midland, is being pushed for mascot of the State Firemen's Association convening in Wichita Falls today. Midland's delegation, G. D. Fuller, T. A. Cole, N. B. Beauchamp, and Doyle FitzGerald, will present the candidacy. Beauchamp is mascot of the Midland Volunteer Fire Department, the Permian Basin Firemen's Association, and last year was the Midland High Bulldogs' football mascot.

Miller And Collins Will Handle Area Defense Program

Directors of the Midland Chamber of Commerce last night named R. L. Miller, sub-area adviser of the defense contract service organization. Bill Collins, chamber of commerce manager, will be sub-area manager for the organization.

In the area under their jurisdiction will be Midland, Ector, Winkler, Martin, Andrews, Ward and Crane counties.

The directors also voted to cooperate with the United States Organization in its funds campaign for recreation for the armed forces. Curt Inman, county chairman for the organization, explained the purpose of U.S.O., and the directors agreed unanimously to work with him in a campaign for funds in this county. Inman estimated Midland County's quota probably would be about $1,000.

H. F. Fox, co-chairman of the convention committee, reported on the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at which Midland won the next meeting.

W. B. Simpson, chairman of the retailers committee, told of its recent meeting and announced $4,360 in rodeo underwriting pledges had been signed. The committee hopes to bring this total to $7,500 within a few days and urges committeemen to have blanks signed promptly and turn them into the chamber of commerce. Reports of other committees also were heard and approved.

State Governmental Costs To Increase $24,000,000 In '41

AUSTIN, June 10—(AP.)—The cost of Texas state government appears due to skyrocket at least $24,000,000 next year.

Conference committee labors on major appropriation bills nearing an end, the legislature today faced the prospect of boosting regular governmental expenditures approximately $8,000,000 annually.

On top of this will come another $16,000,000-plus for the recently-expanded social security program. A multi-leveled tax bill provided more than $11,000,000 a year additional for old age pensions, $3,000,000 or more for teachers retirement and nearly $2,000,000 for aid to the blind and aid to dependent children.

Among big boosts were more than $2,500,000 a year for higher education, a similar amount for government department expansions, approximately $2,000,000 additional for rural school aid and lesser increases for vocational education aid and eleemosynary institutions, several of which will be expanded.

The cost of state government last year was $165,000,000 and will be higher on conclusion of the current fiscal year, Aug. 31. With the listed increases, it was possible the total cost would reach the $200,000,000 mark during the 1941-42 period.

Churchill Reports 15,000 Troops Lost

LONDON, June 10—(AP.)—Prime Minister Churchill declared today that Britain lost 15,000 men in killed, wounded and prisoners in the battle of Crete against 6,000 Germans drowned, 12,000 killed or wounded and 180 freighters and bombers and 150 troop-carrying German aircraft destroyed.

The Prime Minister made the charge that the German had driven British and New Zealand walking wounded before them in the Crete fighting.

He retracted his earlier charge, however, that German paratroopers had worn New Zealand uniforms.

The British losses recounted did not include Greek and Cretan casualties, he said.

Crushless Clothes Will Eliminate Wrinkles From Auto Vacations

By Marian Young
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK.—The woman who plans to spend a great part of her vacation scurrying across the countryside in an automobile should be busily ransacking her favorite stores for suits and dresses which won't wrinkle or show soil easily.

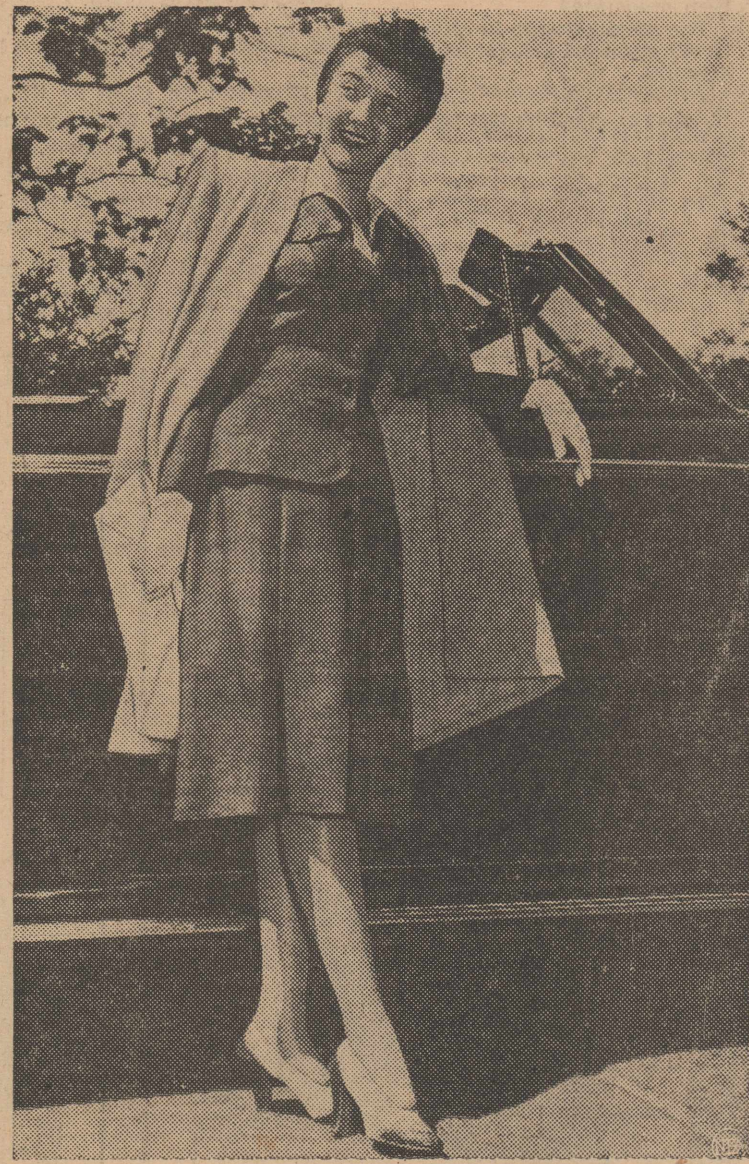

She should resolve not to wear little numbers in which she'd be ashamed to be seen if her husband suddenly decided to throw the picnic lunch out the window and she had to dine at a good roadside inn. She should determine not to let her hair fly all over the place, or to wear shoes that will make her husband wish he could leave her in the car when he happens to remember that "Old Joe lives in this town."

IDEAL WARDROBE FOR AUTOMOBILE TRIP

For a two weeks' automobile trip, an ideal wardrobe might include: a suit of dark green, black, brown or navy shantung or non-crushable, cool spun rayon; another suit of cotton or cotton and no-crushable linen; at least six blouses, three of which can be washed and ironed during an overnight stop, if necessary; two pairs of shoes; three or four pairs of white cotton gloves; a turban or close fitting hat that is smart with both suits, a topcoat and a bathing suit.

In addition, your chic tourist will take along one street-length dress, suitable for dinner in a hotel or a friend's home where there's to be a brief stop-over. And an evening dress with a removable jacket.

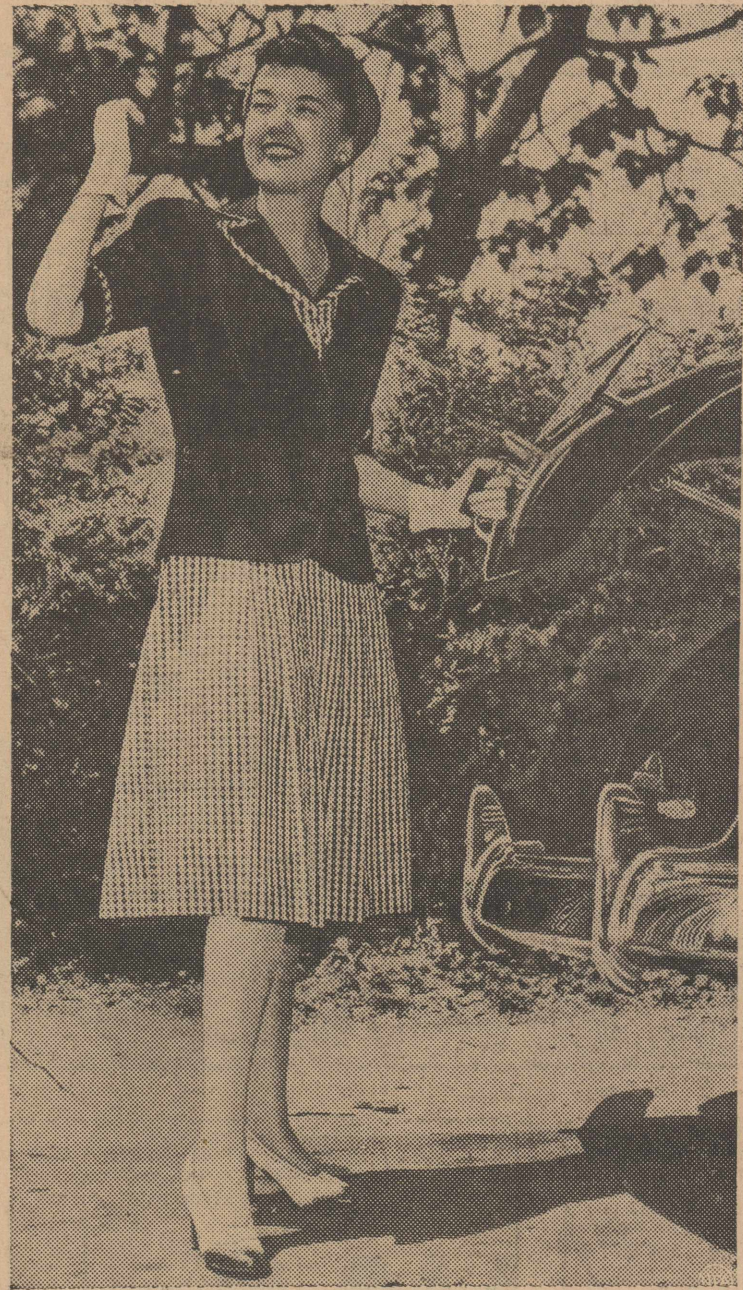

If she is going to play golf along the way or stop to catch a few brook trout now and then, she'll add a special outfit for each of these out-of-the-car activities. Otherwise the two suits with plenty of blouses should see her through

Ideal for a motor trip is this black shantung suit with fitted jacket and box-pleated skirt. It may be worn with easy-to-wash cotton blouses and gloves and a black turban. The lightweight top coat is of natural rabbit's wool. This ensemble, plus a cotton suit and a variety of blouses, should see any motorist through a two weeks' holiday.

Afternoon Snack

For a special afternoon treat, give the children tall glasses of chocolate milk topped with a generous spoonful of vanilla ice cream. A quantity of chocolate sauce can be made up and kept in the icebox for some time and may merely be added to the milk and thoroughly mixed to be ready to serve. For an extra touch, sprinkle the top with grated semi-sweet chocolate.

Here's a perfect suit for the vacationist who is going to see a couple of thousand miles of the country from her automobile. Of brown and white gingham and brown linen, it could be washed and ironed during an over-night stop. A brown wrap-around turban, white cotton gloves and spectator pumps are comfortable, easy-to-clean accessories.

The topcoat may be of soft lightweight wool or heavy cotton crash or heavy, wrinkle-proof linen, depending on whether the car is heading north or south. Both the dinner dress and the street length dress-up dress may be of lace or some other summery looking material that loses its wrinkles within half an hour after removal from a suitcase.

A white seersucker blouse is a handy item. It doesn't require ironing. White cotton gloves are equally trouble-saving. They can be rinsed out in any old tourist camp and dried in the car enroute. Black and white or brown and white spectator pumps are perfect to wear in a car. So are airy sandals of featherweight alligator in black or brown.

SOME TIPS FOR CAR TRAVELERS

Wilson Folmer, famous Jay Thorpe designer, recommends for automobile travel a brown and white checked gingham dress with brown linen collar to match a brown linen jacket. Also a black shantung suit with fitting jacket, box pleated skirt and white blouse. To wear with both there's a lightweight topcoat of natural rabbit's hair and turbans of the black shantung and the brown linen.

A makeup kit or a box filled with cleansing cream or cleansing lotion should be tucked into the compartment of the car. A box of little pads which have been sa-

America's Card Authority.

They say the cards never forgive, but the cards certainly were good to declarer in today's hand, which was sent to me by Dr. Jacob A. Cantor of New York.

The contract of seven spades was reached by use of the Blackwood Convention. Four no trump by North asked South to show the number of aces he held, which did by bidding five diamonds. Five no trumps asked about kings, and six diamonds indicated one king.

The contract was obviously a lay-down, barring a bad split in trumps or diamonds. After taking the opening lead with the club ace, declarer laid down the king of trumps. When both hands followed, only the diamond split had to be considered. Against a 5-1 or 6-0 split, declarer would have to develop a squeeze. He planned to cash all his top cards before trying out the diamonds. With his mind fixed on this plan, South, intending to lead a law spade, inadvertently played the five of diamonds.

It now looked as though this blocking of the diamond suit would kill any possible squeeze, and that declarer would have to rely on a fair diamond split. Dummy put up the ace of diamonds, and two more rounds of trumps were led. Then the queen of diamonds was cashed.

The diamond break was revealed and South could do nothing but lead his last two trumps and pray. Dummy let go the club on the fourth trump round, and when the fifth came Dummy let go a diamond since West had saved his diamond stopper.

Now see how the cards forgave the slip! In order to save the diamonds and the queen of clubs, West had to let go a heart. The squeeze developed after all, since West held all the significant cards.

No Change In Income Tax Exemptions

WASHINGTON, June 10—(AP)—The House Ways and Means Committee voted today to retain the present individual income tax exemptions of $800 for single persons and $2,000 for married couples.

On the basis of this year's figures, this means 16,000,000 persons will file income tax returns on their 1941 income. About half of those who filed returns this year paid income taxes.

At the same time the committee decided to retain the current $400 credit for dependents in addition to the spouse.

The question of rates was left to future consideration.
