Uncle Sam Gets Ready To Mine Water In Harbor

Finnish Sources State Stalin Has Opposition From Soviet Red Army

By The Associated Press

Italy was reported ready last night to seize American property in Italy in quick reprisal for President Roosevelt's order freezing German and Italian assets in the United States.

Some Fascists in Rome branded the Roosevelt move as "another example of gangsterism" following American "piracy" in previously seizing Axis ships in United States ports. President Roosevelt's freezing of the American finances of Axis-conquered or occupied countries of Europe, as well as those of Germany and Italy, was the highlight of the international situation.

The gravity of the current world situation was emphasized by a U. S. Navy disclosure that waters off New York Harbor are to be mined im-

A World Of Wanderers

Perhaps no war of the past has ever driven from their homes so many people—has ever created literally millions of wanderers on the face of the earth.

Everyone knows, in a vague general way, that many people in Europe have been forced to leave the places where they had built their homes and their lives. We have many of them in the United States; to that extent we are usually aware of the problem.

It is, however, a tragedy of such mountainous size that only a survey like that made recently by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. can reveal its appalling extent.

Had you realized that these fruits have been gathered by the men who rashly decided to make Europe over by force:

More than 300,000 people have been forced to leave Germany.

Perhaps 400,000 other Germans have been brought back into Germany from the Baltic, Polish, and Bessarabian territories seized by Russia.

Several hundred thousand people, mostly Ukranians, Pumpers Place were received back by Russia in her conquered territories, mostly from Poland.

Buy Defense Bonds—

Fifteen Years To Cork

California forestry specialists are going forward with placement of 10,000 cork oak seedlings among farmers who will promise to plant 50 trees each, and take care of them. Experiments have shown that the cork oak will grow well in certain parts of California, and produce bark equal to the Spanish and Portuguese trees.

But it takes 15 years to grow a cork oak to the point where cork may be stripped from it. In order for this plan to have helped to avoid today's shortage of cork, somebody would have to have thought of it 15 years ago and had the courage to go ahead with it. If he had, he would probably have been denounced as a visionary and

The Sympathetic Warrior

It was a bitter Al Smith who slipped out a side door of the Congress Hotel in Chicago July 3, 1932. He was an hour before train time, but he was eager to avoid the crowd gathered at the front entrance to greet Governor Roosevelt, triumphant winner of the presidential nomination Smith had sought and lost.

It was a bitter Al Smith who through the succeeding nine years snarled criticisms of the New Deal and aided and comforted its enemies.

Was it the memory of the days when he, too, bore the crushing weight of leadership and public responsibility that led Al Smith to the White House the other day? It was just a friendly call, he said. "I wanted to shake hands with the President and wish him well.'

It was decent and gracious thus to dissolve old bitterness in sympathetic good-will toward one who is bearing a staggering burden.

-Buy Defense Bonds Transporting A Million

With the summer maneuver season not yet really opened, the railroads have already in the first four months of the year transported more than a million members of the armed forces. More than half these were on 1890 special trains, the rest were carried incidental to regular service. The transport burden will probably increase this summer as hundreds of thousands of troops are concentrated at various points for maneuvers. Nevertheless, performance to date gives some hope that the rail confusions of 1917-1918 will not occur again, either as to transportation of the armed forces themselves or the materials to supply them and keep the national economy going at the same time.

State's Pension Office Waits On Federal Answer

AUSTIN, June 14—(AP.) — The tate old age assistance administration today awaited the federal govstate money made available to offset cuts in benefit payments.

J. S. Murchison, director of the public welfare department, conferred in San Antonio with regional officials of the social security board on the proposition of obtaining suf-ficient fededal aid to pay an average June grant of $18.50.

Murchison announced the regional office's review of the Texas legislature's emergency appropriation should reach Washington Monday morning.

"However, it takes time to get fin-al approval on such matters and for the United States treasury to get a check back to Texas," he added.

Unless additional federal money is made available June checks will average $9.50, compared with $11.47

Benefit checks usually are mailed about the 15th of the month but it was believed June checks would be delayed at least a week.

Big Ford Sales Jump

WHY has this year's Ford scored one of the biggest sales gains over the previous year in all Ford history? Why did its sales this year start to boom so far in advance of the usual spring car-buying season? The answer's just that good news travels fast, that buyers are discovering the new 1941 advantages that only a Ford gives you at the price, that buyers are switching to the greatest Ford ever built to get the things it gives.

Will Labor Trouble Cripple U. S. Like In France? Taylor Is Shell

Congress Studies Question Prior To Balloting On Bills

By Milton Bronner NEA Service Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON.—Are the numercrippling the United States as they did France where, many contend, they led to her crushing defeat by Germany last spring?

This is a question being turned over in every congressional mind, for Congress may soon have to vote on bills that would forbid strikes in defense industries and severely penalize the men who order them.
In some ways the French story points us the American scene. The

"Country Cousin" On City Vacation Should Choose All Her Summer Clothes With Care

By Marian Young NEA Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK.—Mention summer vacations to the city girl and she'll immediately begin to day-dream mountains, babbling brooks and sun-drenched lakes. But mention a summer vacation to a woman who sees brooks, mountains or lake almost every day of her life and she'll probably admit that a room in a big hotel, the sight of skyscrapers, museums, plays and shopping tours in huge department tores would suit her just dandy for couple of weeks.

It's true that thousands of people who live in the country and in small towns pour into the largest cities for their summer holidays. The correct and practical wardrobe for city streets requires as careful shopping and planning as the wardrobe for a camping trip, a mountain climbing or automobile tour vacation.

For a summer holiday in a southern or middle western city, washable dresses, white shoes and accessories will do nicely for day wear. For a couple of weeks in New York or San Francisco, however, take dark sheer jacket outfits, dark shantung suits, prints that are citified rather than coun-try clubbish, and dark shoes. The smartest New York women never wear white shoes in town.

An adequate street wardrobe for a city vacation might include a dark sheer dress with a matching jacket; a dark shantung or printed sheer suit with several white blouses; a cool, one-piece dress of black, brown, navy, gray or dark green sheer with white collar, or of silk print with dark background.

These will be right for lunch anywhere and everywhere, for visits to museums, informal dining in restaurants or the homes of friends and for "don't dress" evenings at the theater.

It is possible for one to desecrate the liberty guaranteed by the constitution, and to flout the freedom pared, Mrs. Susie G. Noble said, granted unto this nation by the fathers of our country. It is possible for one to ignore the mercy and Grace of God and trespass upon His loving kindness. The time has come in the history of the world when all people are impelled by the very nature of world affairs to rededicate themselves to God, to the church, to their native country and to patriotism. For a patriotic American to be lulled to sleep today with apathy toward the need of loyalty, sacrifice and alertness is to trespass against the soul of America, and against the blessings which this country lavishes upon all. For any man to be indifferent to the will of God is to trespass against the highest and noblest duties that

No one is ever forced or compelled to take God into his way of life. The choice to be or not to be is ever available. But the recompense is That is the thing. While certain. the Creator never forces one to do right, and always allows one to take it or leave it, the consequence is the question that must be faced and must be taken into account. This is illustrated forcefully in the command given by Jesus to his disciples when he sent them forth: "In what place soever ye enter into a house there abide till ye depart from that place. And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testi-mony against them. Verily I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.' In the light of the facts, it is time for all people to awake to the opportunities to serve God and to comoly with His judgments. Arizona Prison Felon Claims Knowledge Of Lost Mine's Location

FLORENCE, Ariz. -(UP) - The lure of Superstition mountain and the legendary Lost Dutchman gold mine once more are back in the news.

Latest individual to insist he knows the "true story" of the Lost claims to know the location of the fabulous mine. The 65-year-old convict, who was a prospector before he was sentenced to a life term for murder of a fellow gold-seeker, said he knew where the mine was and would reveal its location to "some man of reputable character."

Secret Lost In Killings The inmate asserted the mine is not located in the Superstition mountain range where, according to legend, the Spanish conquistadores first uncovered the rich lode. He said it was "in the direction' of the mountain and was located under "a black cone rock."

The secret of the Lost Dutchman mine supposedly was lost A film "Color Photography," and after the Spaniards was massacred colored slides loaned by a camera by Indians. One of the most popular men in bridge is Henry P. Jaeger of Cleveland, Ohio. He was one of the organizers of the American Bridge League and followed R. R. Richards, the founder of the league, as the president of the organization. Rated as one of the best men in the country in the play of the hand, his favorite subject is squeeze play. How well he can handle this pet is demonstrated in today's hand, in which he sat South.

Dummy played the jack of hearts on the opening lead and the king won. East returned a heart, clearing the suit. Dummy led a low diamond and South won with the Jaeger saw that to continue diamonds so as to establish the suit would lose contract at once. With only eight tricks in sight, he decided to let West run his remaining three hearts, for then East might be squeezed.

So South led the ten of hearts, West won and cashed two more North discarded a spade and two diamonds, while South let go a diamond and a club. East cheerfully ditched two clubs. West then exited with a diamond, won by the ace.

Jaeger cashed the queen of clubs, then led the jack. Dummy over-took with the king, and when the ace of clubs was led East was not so cheerful. He was now down to three spades and the king of diamonds, and any discard he chose gave Jaeger the last three tricks.

Cooperation of registrants and employers with selective service boards is essential for the proper placing of each available man in the National Defense program, General J. Watt Page, State Selective Service Director, notified the Midland County draft board. "Much of the trouble in classify ing workmen," he said, "results from lack of understanding by registrants and their employers that they have a responsibility to help the selective service system function to the best advantage of their county."

Through misguided patriotism, many registrants and employers do not request occupational deferment, General Page said, and in some cases employers failed to assist the local board by giving complete information about registrants, when the employer alone knew that these registrants were essential to National Defense in their civilian occupa-

There is an atmosphere of dignity and permanence to this two-story stone and brick home. Well planned and well located, it represents the type of house most American families some day hope to own. One unusual feature of the plan is that the kitchen, entrance hall, and stairwell are located in front, leaving the dining room and living room opening onto the rear where they may overlook a garden and at the same time are located away from street noises.

A few years ago a home of this kind could be bought by only families of considerable means, but today, through the Federal Housing Administration plan, the range of potential owners has been considerably broadened by means of lower interest rates and a sound single-term mortgage system.

REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—(UP).—The problem of which came first, the revenue or the expenditure, has caused city officials to order the reprinting of 10,000 pamphlets designed to show taxpayers what happened to their tax-dollar. The pamphlets were ready for distribution when someone discovered that, through error, the page of "Expenditures" was printed before that on "Revenues." The city fathers decreed that it might give the impression that money was spent before it was raised.

The printers were ordered to change the plates and run off another 10,000 copies.
