Celebrates July 4th Holiday In Traditional Way

Citizens Will Sing And Repeat Flag Allegiance At Hyde Park Ceremony

By The Associated Press

Against a sobering background of strife abroad and stern preparations for defense at home, the United States Friday celebrated the Fourth of July with traditional enthusiasm.

The manner of celebration varied as widely as the terrain of the 48 states. For some, Independence Day brought excursions to beaches or mountains, or picnics in public parks. Many towns and rural communities planned reunions, barbecues and rodeos.

But wherever they might be, millions of Americans were expected to pause at 3 p. m. CST to hear an Independence Day address by President Roosevelt, broadcast from his home at Hyde Park, N. Y.

At the conclusion of the president's speech, the listeners were invited to join Chief Justice Stone in repeating in unison the oath of allegiance to the flag. Then in all quarters of the country, at the same moment, millions of voices were to join in the National Anthem.

Emphasizing the current cooperation between Britain and this nation, the Stars and Stripes flew beside the Union Jack Friday in many sections of the United Kingdom. The London Daily Herald declared editorially that "the faith proclaimed in Philadelphia in 1776 is the faith for which we of the British commonwealth are fighting today."

In a speech broadcast over the world by short wave, Wendell L. Willkie, republican presidential candidate last year, declared "I am quite sure that before long now the great force of the American navy will be brought into play to insure the delivery" of supplies to Great Britain.

The Department of Commerce at Washington estimated that small boys—and some adults—would light the fires of some $3,500,000 worth of fireworks Friday, but warned that next year defense priorities may restrict the domestic production of holiday noisemakers.

Unless the nation's motorists drive with extreme care, the national safety council cautioned, some 475 lives may be lost in traffic accidents over the holiday weekend. The council said the average toll for a normal July weekend is 90 deaths Friday, and 140 fatalities each on Saturday and Sunday.

FHA Official Urges Midland To Provide Adequate Housing

Midland builders and contractors were urged Thursday night to start constructing rent houses for Army Air Corps men who will be stationed at the Advanced Twin-Engine and Bombarrier Training Center here.

J. A. Raley Jr., head of the Lubbock office of the Federal Housing Administration, told the Midland Chamber of Commerce's housing committee that proper housing must be provided and probably will be provided by some major syndicate from the east if Midland citizens don't get busy promptly.

Midland has applied for Defense Housing classification in order to get maximum financial help on its problem on providing houses, apartments and room for the hundreds of Army men who will live in the city.

Raley outlined action to get housing, providing Midland gets the desired classification. It can be granted only by President Roosevelt. Methods of getting finances for housing, of forming a corporation to handle the task and of working out details in the program were discussed.

He recommended that a local corporation be formed so housing could be provided quickly and development controlled in order that property values not be impaired.

Profiteering must not occur, he warned, and asserted the United States is "in this war", and determined to win it.

The full cooperation of the FHA was promised by Raley in the construction program.

No Time For Delay

(An Editorial)

"We're in a war!
"And we're going to win."

Those are quotes from the remarks of an FHA official who Thursday surveyed Midland's housing situation. He made it clear to a number of business men and builders that proper housing is going to be provided here for Army officers and enlisted men.

Nothing must happen to impair the morale of the United States Armed Forces in this time of Unlimited National Emergency. Uncle Sam will see that these men are properly housed, fed and clothed.

The War Department has ordered construction of a $4,500,000 Advanced Twin-Engine and Bombarrier Training Center in Midland. On its completion, 3,900 men will be stationed here. Construction should start before July 15. Thousands of men will come here for the work as the program calls for completion of the assignment in 120 days.

Midland has few houses available for men who will do this work.

As soon as they are through with their job, the Army Air Corps will move in almost 3,900 strong and with almost 200 multi-motored planes. Hundreds of these men will require housing in Midland for themselves and their families. It is Midland's patriotic duty to see that these men are properly housed.

Selfish interests must be cast aside in this time of emergency. Profiteering must be stopped. Prices must be fair and reasonable. Several contractors report that prices of lots in Midland already have begun to "soar." Is that patriotic?

Certainly, that is not the way Midland expects to serve Our Country in this emergency.

Houses must be provided for the Army men. Scores must be built. These men want to rent desirable houses. They are not here and Midland must immediately take steps to see that they are provided.

If it fails, prospects are that some eastern syndicate or corporation will come in and erect the needed dwellings and probably more. Midland can do the job and should control its housing situation to keep property values on an even keel. It wants no mushroom boom or growth which some day may impair all property values.

Defense loans now are being made on a 20-year basis. Our Government is setting up its program on that basis. It is arming to the teeth and expects to provide an adequate Army, Navy and Air Corps from now on.

Army officers have given Midland every possible assurance that the Training Center here will be a permanent Military Reservation if it is within their power. They are proud of Midland's response, and the way it cooperated in bringing the big development to our city. Midland will not fail them. It will not fail Our Nation.

But there is no time for delay. Action must be taken. Midland has filed application for classification as a Defense Housing Area. Federal officials are cooperating in investigations and surveys to determine the actual needs. Their reports will go to Washington promptly.

Only President Roosevelt can declare Midland a Defense Housing Area and there is no reason to suspect he will not do so and that he will not make money

Lawmakers Trek Homeward After Unusual Session

Gavels In Both Houses Fall Early In Morning; Vote Biggest Tax Bill

By Ray Neumann
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN—The 47th Legislature trekked wearily homeward Friday after setting new highs in length, tax-raising and governmental money-spending.

Gavels which fell after midnight in both Houses terminated a record-shattering 171-day general session, outlasting its predecessor eight days largely because House and Senate disagreed on a method of quitting in the face of the recent U. S. Senatorial election.

Besides laboring over a heavy docket of legislation, the 181 lawmakers approved the biggest tax bill in history—a multi-leveled measure estimated to yield $22,000,000 annually—to finance greatly expanded old age pensions, aid to the needy blind, aid to dependent children, teachers retirement and the deficit-ridden general revenue fund, currently $27,000,000 in the red.

The appropriated a total of $147,000,000 for two years of governmental operations, social security and other services, including $1,500,000 for the proposed establishment of Big Bend Park in West Texas, $650,000 for public junior college aid, $600,000 for firemen's pensions under an old law, $500,000 for cancer treatment and research, $250,000 for research on new uses for cotton and $65,000 for Texas defense guard equipment, all new cash outlays. Oil Proration Permanent.

The money-spending bills, $56,000,000 higher than current biennial expenditures, may be offset by an anticipated $44,000,000 additional revenue from the omnibus tax measure and possibly more from old sources but finance experts held little hope that the general revenue fund deficit would decline.

Work of the legislature was reflected in vital new statutes making oil proration permanent, slashing unemployment compensation taxes, boosting the truck load limit, prohibiting violence in strikes, curtailing liquor sales in dry areas, making sabotage punishable by death, eliminating penalties on certain delinquent taxes and submitting to the people proposed constitutional amendments placing state finances on a cash basis in 1945 and constructing a $2,000,000 state office building.

In the mixture of bitter argument and hilarity adjournment Thursday night, the House refused to follow the Senate in overriding Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's veto of a bill remitting one-half of state property taxes to counties and reducing state income by $4,500,000 annually.

Climax to a long and torrid controversy came when the Senate declined to follow the House in passing, despite a gubernatorial veto, a bill to prorate oil on a statewide rather than field-by-field basis.

Midland Is Quiet On Fourth Holiday

Midland citizens celebrated the Fourth of July at home and in every sector of the state.

Delegations went to rodeos at Pecos, Canadian, Stamford, and the Double-Heart Ranch near Sweetwater.

No special observance was held in Midland. Many groups chose the Fourth of July week-end to make trips to Ruidoso and Carlsbad, N. M., Dallas, Fort Worth, and other downstate cities. Picnic spots and swimming pools drew crowds.

Oil offices, banks, governmental agencies and the post office were closed.

Officers reported a quiet pre-Fourth night Thursday with only two arrests.

Army Air Corps Announces Plans To Organize Six Squadrons Of Bombers As First Regular Deliveries Start

WASHINGTON (AP)—The army air force has started to receive regular deliveries of dive-bombers, it was learned Friday and plans have been completed for organizing by November at least six squadrons of these improved American counterparts of Germany's famed Stukas.

Authoritative indications were that approximately 100 dive-bombers would be available for use in fall maneuvers when American troops will receive their first large scale training in the coordinated employment of air and ground forces.

In addition to these new army planes, a flight of navy dive bombers will participate in the maneuvers, but the army has not yet indicated the number of navy planes involved.

Initial deliveries of the army's new highly specialized dive bombing planes began last month and the air force combat command now has about a dozen on hand.

As the number in service increases, squadrons will be organized until the first aid group of 54 planes—consisting of one headquarters and three combat squadrons—is completed. In addition, it was learned, there will be at least two or three other squadrons and an unspecified number of planes in reserve.

Capitol Officials See Increase In Chief's Request

Marshall's Statement Draws Controversy In Congressional Circles

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON — Plans for a substantial increase in the size of the United States Army—perhaps to double its present strength—were believed indicated Friday by the General Staff's controversial request for power to hold National Guardsmen and selectees in service, and to use them beyond the confines of the Western Hemisphere if necessary.

The question of the army's future size was momentarily obscured by the rush of highly critical congressional reaction to the high command's request, but well-informed officials pointed out that the two subjects were very closely linked.

The army's strength, they noted, was about 1,400,000 men. If the bulk of those men are to be kept on duty, new regulars recruited and the scheduled 900,000 trainees inducted in the next year, they said, the land force would be close to 2,800,000—the goal the high command has in mind for the first expansion, if one is deemed necessary because of world conditions. Critical equipment is being manufactured for an army of that size.

Would Break Faith
Regardless of its ultimate objectives, Thursday's request touched off a wordy tempest on Capitol Hill, where most of the legislators to volunteer comment were openly hostile to granting the power asked.

Generally, congressional reaction followed two lines. Some rejected the idea of extending the tour of service on the ground that it would be breaking faith with the guardsmen and trainees who had been mobilized or inducted with the understanding that they would be released after one year of service.

The other attack centered on the request that permission to use guardsmen or trainees outside of the hemisphere. Critics of the administration's foreign policy viewed it as another step toward eventual United States participation in the war, and Senator Wheeler (D-Mont) charged that the administration planned to use American troops to occupy Iceland.

All this immediate reaction presaged a lively legislative fight, for congressional approval would be necessary on both fronts.

Milk Supply And Project Strikes At Labor Fronts

By The Associated Press
Two strikes, one delaying work on an important Army Air Corps project and another threatening New York City's milk supply, engaged labor's interest Friday in the midst of the nation's holiday celebrations.

The War Department officials expressed mounting concern over the strike of 1,500 AFL-building trades workers at Jefferson barracks, St. Louis, Mo., where the Air Corps plans to begin training 11,825 recruits on Sept. 1. The AFL men walked out in protest to employment of about 60 WPA workers in painting 28 out of 264 new buildings.

British Bombers Hit Nazi Factory

LONDON (AP)—Big British bombers, diving 50 feet over the rooftops of Bremen in broad daylight, scored direct hits on a large factory in the waterfront area of the German port and shipbuilding city, the Air Ministry reported Friday.

The RAF gave Bremen only a short breathing spell after the night shift of British raiders had left it. The morning attack there preceded a sweep across the channel in the afternoon in a new offensive against Nazi-occupied France as the RAF kept intact its string of day and night air blows.

Besides unloading their explosives from 50 feet over the big factory, the Air Ministry said heavy Blenheim bombers attacked a freight yard and railroad junction northwest of Bremen and machine-gunned planes on an airfield.

available quickly for proper housing of Air Corps men assigned to our Training Center.

But then what? Will Midland citizens—capitalists, merchants, professional men and business men—sit back and let some eastern syndicate come in here and erect necessary houses, thus surrendering control of property values to outside interests operating only for financial gain and with little or no sense of pride in our city? Will Midland remain on its heels and force Uncle Sam to provide necessary housing in restricted areas, perhaps outside of the city limits?

Some business leaders have suggested that a local corporation be formed quickly to assume the task. By raising $3,600 and organizing a corporation, it can obtain $100,000 from the FHA, and by hiking the outlay it can obtain more in proportion.

A suggestion has been made that 100 men put up $36 each, or even better, that 200 men put up $50 each to start the corporation. The suggestion is good. There will be other suggestions. They may be better. But it now is time for action.

It must be evident to those who have paid attention to what has been going on that the United States is, in fact, at war.

It is at war against the destruction of thousands of years of civilized progress. It is at war against the ruthless slaughter carried on by the dictators.

It is at war against the philosophy that might makes right. It is at war against the subjugation and destruction of the small nations of the earth.

It is at war to support and preserve a civilization in which we believe and to which we subscribe. It is at war to support freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom from want and starvation, freedom of the seas, freedom of press, and freedom from constant fear that aggressive nations will overrun the earth in a series of brutal conquests. (We are indebted to a good friend for this splendid definition.)

Midland men and women are thinking. The turn of events on the Russian front has provoked even more serious thought. There certainly is no place today for men of greed in Our Country. The man or woman unwilling to put his shoulder to the burden of aiding Our Country should be pointed out to the citizens.

Thousands of men have gone into Our Armed Forces, left their families, their homes, their businesses, their professions. They are determined that Hitler and his gang must be trounced thoroughly. They are determined to protect Our Country, Our Cities and Our Homes.

Midland must act without delay. Forward Midland.

Japanese Study Aid For Russia

TOKYO (AP) — The Japanese government is giving serious consideration to the possibility that the United States may send aid to Soviet Russia via the Pacific port of Vladivostok, an official spokesman indicated Friday.

In a press conference discussion of the Vladivostok situation, Koh Ishii, the cabinet spokesman, said the government had been discussing the question of an extension of the limits of Japan's territorial waters beyond the internationally recognized three-mile zone.

Ishii was asked how Japan would regard the possible stationing of United States planes at Vladivostok. This, the spokesman replied, Japan would consider "an unfriendly act," as she already regards the sending of United States - made planes to British Singapore, Batavia, in the Dutch East Indies, and Chungking, China's capital.

The Japanese press has been referring to recent United States moves in this region as a "blockade of Japan" and "encirclement."

Invasions Continue To Change Thought And Fashion Life

By R. A. Weaver

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: There was a man of Macedonia standing, beseeching him, and saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And when he had seen the vision, straightway we sought to go forth into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel into that land.

—Acts 16.

Paul and his companions—Luke, Silas, Timothy, and perhaps others—made a successful invasion of Europe with a new idea—the truth about God. Never will there be another invasion of such significance. It was peaceful, generally unnoticed, and without loss of life although it was directed against hostile forces. The effects of that invasion have reached across the centuries to you and to me so that we know the name of Jesus and the way of salvation.

Waves, Past And Future.

We have heard much in recent years of "the wave of the future" and the "wave of the past." Possibly we have overlooked the most important wave of them all, which is the "wave of the present." For all ways there is the tide of public opinion, public morals, and public policy, all of which indicate the tenor and the spirit of human progress. Decadence and death are ever operating in the process of life; the death's head of the dark ages is pitted against the angel of the renaissance in every age. It is the battle of right against wrong, the good against bad; truth against error; civilization against barbarism. This wave operates today with exceedingly great acceleration, as nation arises against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. This study of waves in the history of mankind is only the observation of the phenomenon known as repetition of events. For history repeats itself. Cycles predominate in the course of human progress. It is the rise and fall; the upswing and the down drop; the mountain top and the valley as expressed in the panorama of life.

The Invasion of Truth.

While armies sweep before them destruction and death, the invasions of culture and religion partake of silent and unheralded penetration into the life and ideals of mankind. Slowly and painfully the good, the true and the beautiful have humble beginnings. First it is the seed, and then the blade, and after that the stalk, and finally the full ear of grain. Through countless centuries and aeons of time, the ideal is being approached in man's struggle toward the full stature of being. The same errors, the same mistakes have to be made over and over before one learns aright the lessons of living. But the plot of God is still turning the stubborn globe. Ahead is a perfect society, and a perfect form of conduct, and perfect existence. How far ahead is this goal depends upon the conduct and attitudes of human beings. The truth shall survive because it is worthy of survival. Love, mercy, peace, goodness—all these shall survive because they are immortal principles which cannot be destroyed from the earth. They belong to the wave of God, and after all other waves of impulse, ambition, custom, change and decay have had their way, the wave of God shall sweep before it all the transient forces of error.

The Wave of Death.

Many individuals have recently asked the writer whether or not the present situation in world history betokens the fulfillment of Biblical prophecy. Particularly as concerns the recent war between Germany and Russia. In this connection, the reader is referred to the prophecy of Daniel, chapter 11:36-45. This seems to indicate that the great transgressor and anti-Christ will have trouble and defeat from the hands of those referred to as the king of the south and the king of the north. The end is indicated in verses 44-45: "But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him; therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many. And he shall plant the tabernacle of his palaces between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him." Thus, in this manner and at this time shall come the denouement of the great aggressor against civilization and culture. Christ corroborated this finality when he said, "When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place (land)." Hence we conclude that the end of the great war will take place in Palestine. Toward this area armies are even now converging, and no one knows but what the armies of Russia and Germany may bring together the armies of the world to fight the final battle of Armageddon in the land of ancient Bible time.

To Pay Penalty On Overplanting

Cotton farmers of Midland County who are issued red marketing cards because they have overplanted 1941 cotton acreage allotment will be required to pay a penalty on excess cotton they market equivalent to one-half the basic loan rate for cotton, Josephine Elliott, secretary of the Midland County ACA, announced.

The penalty on cotton for the 1941 marketing year had been set at 3 cents per pound but a recent amendment to the Agricultural Adjustment Act has increased it.

The exact amount of the penalty cannot be determined at this time, Miss Elliott said, since the basic loan rate for cotton has not been set for Texas, but it probably will be about 7 cents per pound.

READ THE CLASSIFIEDS

By Wm. E. McKenney America's Card Authority.

The summer session of the national championships tournament, which will be held this year in the Convention Hall at Asbury Park, N. J., the week beginning Aug. 4, brings together a greater assembly of master bridge players than any other tournament.

This is a long grind, extending over four sessions. I doubt if any newcomers will carry off the title—it will be a pair of top-ranking stars. But keep an eye on Jack Denny of Toledo and Jack Shore of New York if they participate. Although I have played with Denny only once, I predict he will rank among the top flight players in the next few years. I have always claimed Jack Shore was greatly underrated.

If he pairs with some of the stars this summer, he is capable of carrying off any of the titles. Today's hand is an example of his brilliant play.

Shore (South) won the second round of hearts with the ace. After playing the queen and a small diamond to dummy's king, he discovered that, because of the high cards in the suit in his own hand, the suit would be blocked, and he would be unable to win the ninth trick without the spade finesse, which might be wrong.

He solved the situation by leading the suit originally opened by the defenders, a heart. West ran the balance of the heart, but won only four tricks, as Shore discarded one diamond from his hand and thus won all five diamonds, two clubs and the two major aces.

ROAD BOND BILL DIES IN SESSION

AUSTIN (AP)—The road bond bill, one of the hottest issues before the legislature, lived until the fleeting last minutes only to die along with the general session early Friday.

In its demise proponents saw necessity for many counties to raise their tax rates unless a special session was called to act on the issue.

Wrangling over a conference committee report on the bill featured the warning seconds of the session. The Senate adopted the report which would give to the highway department a surplus in the board bond fund which under present law expires Aug. 31 is now distributed among counties for a variety of purposes. The vote was 20 to 8.

The House, favoring a continuation of the present law, humped its back at the report and tabled it. The session ended without further moves to adjust differences between the two branches.

You May Get Chance To Serve As Fireman Or Anti-Gas Man In LaGuardia's Program But First Join In July 4 National Song

By Peter Edson
 The Reporter-Telegram
 Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Details of the jobs that you and you can do to aid your country in time of national emergency are beginning to come out of the Washington fog.

First manifestation of what you can do will come at five minutes to 4 on the afternoon of July 4 and for five minutes thereafter. That's a eastern standard time and it means 1 p. m. in San Francisco, 11 a. m. in Alaska and 8 p. m. in Honolulu. At that precise moment, no matter where you are, in swimming, at a ball park, or unpacking a picnic lunch at the top of Pike's Peak, have the radio turned on, or if you have no radio, make sure that you run, not walk, to the nearest bandstand.

At a cue from the U. S. Marine Band in Washington everybody will burst forth all over this broad land in an "Oh, Say Can You See!" that should make the eagles scream.

The President of the United States will then address you briefly and everybody will recite in unison the Pledge of Allegiance.

The idea for all this was thought up by the American Legion, V. F. W., D. A. R., Elks, Boy Scouts and others, but is being made a national institution by New York's Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia, who is also administrator of the Office of Civilian Defense, which will carry on from there. On July 21 will come the national collection of aluminum pots and pans you don't happen to be using, and from then on you want to be as ready as a fireman on a greased pole.

In connection with this aluminum drive, one thing the OCD would like to make clear is that you shouldn't give the aluminum you're still using. All the government wants is the old battered stuff under the sink or on the back shelf. Furthermore, don't give it up before July 21.

Watch for Tricks

In Kansas City a collection was made ahead of time and it backfired. A junk man came along, said he was authorized to buy the stuff for 3 1/2 cents a pound, bought it, hauled it off and disappeared himself. The fixed price then being 11 1/2 cents, the junkman made himself a nice profit and the defense of the country got a black eye. So hang onto your aluminum until the big government collection.

From Top To Bottom

Organization will trickle down to you through a simple pattern. Possibly county agents will supervise organization of local defense councils.

So far, there have been 1500 local defense councils organized. A good many of them are still on paper but they will be made real by the aluminum collection, and the county agents in 3000 rural counties will also be swung into line by use of Department of Agriculture mailing lists.

A few test mobilizations have been made like the one in Washington where volunteers were asked to sign up for what they'd like to do, from spotting planes to putting out fires. There is a 95 per cent chance that none of these things will have to be done, but you can't afford to run that 5 per cent risk. So, if you've had any suppressed desires to be a fireman, policeman, ambulance driver, anti-gas man, or population excavator, you may get a chance to do your stuff.

Burnett Is County Health Sanitarian

The Midland city council Thursday approved and signed the budget of the city-county health unit which included employment of Gene Burnett as new health sanitarian for Midland County.

Burnett will begin his duties immediately. He has been employed as a sanitarian with the state health department several years and has worked in several West Texas cities.

Hold Everything!

"About once a year my wife gets fed up with washing dishes, and I can't afford to buy new ones!"

You May Get Chance To Serve As Fireman Or Anti-Gas Man In LaGuardia's Program But First Join In July 4 National Song

WASHINGTON—Details of the jobs that you and you can do to aid your country in time of national emergency are beginning to come out of the Washington fog.

First manifestation of what you can do will come at five minutes to 4 on the afternoon of July 4 and for five minutes thereafter. That's a eastern standard time and it means 1 p. m. in San Francisco, 11 a. m. in Alaska and 8 p. m. in Honolulu. At that precise moment, no matter where you are, in swimming, at a ball park, or unpacking a picnic lunch at the top of Pike's Peak, have the radio turned on, or if you have no radio, make sure that you run, not walk, to the nearest bandstand.

At a cue from the U. S. Marine Band in Washington everybody will burst forth all over this broad land in an "Oh, Say Can You See!" that should make the eagles scream.

The President of the United States will then address you briefly and everybody will recite in unison the Pledge of Allegiance.

The idea for all this was thought up by the American Legion, V. F. W., D. A. R., Elks, Boy Scouts and others, but is being made a national institution by New York's Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia, who is also administrator of the Office of Civilian Defense, which will carry on from there. On July 21 will come the national collection of aluminum pots and pans you don't happen to be using, and from then on you want to be as ready as a fireman on a greased pole.

In connection with this aluminum drive, one thing the OCD would like to make clear is that you shouldn't give the aluminum you're still using. All the government wants is the old battered stuff under the sink or on the back shelf. Furthermore, don't give it up before July 21.

Watch for Tricks

In Kansas City a collection was made ahead of time and it backfired. A junk man came along, said he was authorized to buy the stuff for 3 1/2 cents a pound, bought it, hauled it off and disappeared himself. The fixed price then being 11 1/2 cents, the junkman made himself a nice profit and the defense of the country got a black eye. So hang onto your aluminum until the big government collection.

From Top To Bottom

Organization will trickle down to you through a simple pattern. Possibly county agents will supervise organization of local defense councils.

So far, there have been 1500 local defense councils organized. A good many of them are still on paper but they will be made real by the aluminum collection, and the county agents in 3000 rural counties will also be swung into line by use of Department of Agriculture mailing lists.

A few test mobilizations have been made like the one in Washington where volunteers were asked to sign up for what they'd like to do, from spotting planes to putting out fires. There is a 95 per cent chance that none of these things will have to be done, but you can't afford to run that 5 per cent risk. So, if you've had any suppressed desires to be a fireman, policeman, ambulance driver, anti-gas man, or population excavator, you may get a chance to do your stuff.

Burnett Is County Health Sanitarian

The Midland city council Thursday approved and signed the budget of the city-county health unit which included employment of Gene Burnett as new health sanitarian for Midland County.

Burnett will begin his duties immediately. He has been employed as a sanitarian with the state health department several years and has worked in several West Texas cities.

ANOTHER MAN'S WIFE

BY DONNA ASHWORTH
 SERIAL STORY
 COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: Lita gets her divorce, but it will not become final for six months. While shopping in New York, she sees Ken and an attractive girl. Lita watches as Ken kisses the girl goodby, remembers Ken said he had a business appointment. Ken explains the girl is Janet Carstairs, to whom he was once engaged.

ANN INVADERS FARMINGTON CHAPTER VI

ON a gray February morning Lita—now Ann—and Sally drove into Farmington. Trucks loaded with furniture, bought in New York, followed them. The real estate man from whom they had rented a house had already engaged two servants to help them get settled—John, a Negro houseman, and Jenny, a cook who was all that anybody could ask.

When the furniture was finally in place, Ann and Sally surveyed their new home. It was perfect. From pictures to rugs and knickknacks, the place had an air of having been lived in for a long time. Antiques mingled with more modern furniture in just the correct degree. Rugs were rich and luxurious. If Ann had wanted background, she had bought plenty of it, as far as furniture and her house were concerned.

"And now what?" Sally asked. "Ken is here, but he might as well be a thousand miles away. What are you going to do next?" "Today is Saturday," Ann answered. "Tomorrow we go to church. Ken will be there and we shall be properly introduced. He will call tomorrow afternoon."

"Church," said Sally slowly. "And I haven't been to church in 20 years. I wonder if I'll know how to act."

"You'll never learn any sooner. And if you had ever been in an orphanage, Sally, my love, you could never forget, because you had to go so much."

ANN walked out on the porch and stood staring out at the street. The air was chilly but not raw. There was no sound except a car passing down the street and the crackling of the bare branches in the wind. Snow lay on the ground in irregular patches, smoke curled up from chimneys, and in some houses she could see that already the lights were on.

Home. Her whole life from now on would be here. Everything was beginning here. For Ann Marshall, a nice, ladylike name, Ken had said. Lita Damson was entirely dead. She would never live again.

SUNDAY MORNING, and all of Farmington was going to church. Ann had never dressed with such care. Her golden hair was a mass of ringlets beneath her green felt hat. Her fur coat covered a green dress with a bright-hued clip. Everyone would look at her. And she wanted them to. She wanted them to look at her and like her. She smiled at Sally as they walked along past old houses set deep back from the street, and her eyes were eager with anticipation.

At the red brick church with the tall steeple, Ann's heart stood still with sudden fright. It would take courage to go inside. As they went in, it seemed she could feel the eyes looking her over, the questions in those eyes.

Now she was singing, songs she had almost forgotten. The readings all came back, too. The years of the orphanage were as yesterday, and she found herself repeating the words without hesitation, without stumbling.

"They'll never know I haven't been to church since my wedding day," she thought. "But, then, they would never know that she had been married. She must remember that."

Service was over. People were moving down the aisles. People were coming up, speaking and introducing themselves to her and to Sally.

"I'm Ann Marshall," she was saying, "and this is my aunt, Miss Green. We're living in the old Willard house." She spoke to this one and that one. Then Ken was standing before her. The minister was introducing him at the door.

"How do you do?" She spoke demurely, a smile on her lips, as his hand held hers a moment.

"This is my aunt, Miss Green, Mr. Richards." Ann almost laughed at herself.

"And my mother, Mrs. Richards—Miss Marshall and Miss Green."

"Are you staying in Farmington?"

"I hope so," Ann managed to answer. "It is a very charming town."

"Yes, we whose people have lived here for generations think so."

Someone else was coming. Definitely, she did not like Ken's mother. Ken and his mother moved on and were gone. At last she was outside, walking along beside Sally.

"Oh, Sally," she said, "that woman! I think I've made a mistake. I'm an outsider. She won't ever like me. If I only had some ancestors. My kingdom for an ancestor!"

"Manufacture them."

"She'd recognize them as modern reproductions. No, I'm scared to death. Everybody seemed nice, but she frightens me. Oh, Sally, I wish I were out of this!"

"I wish you were, too. I told you it was a mistake. You can't make yourself into something you aren't, though you did look like a saint standing there singing and repeating the ritual over like you said it every day of your life. I believe you've been practicing."

"Sixteen years of practice does a lot, darling. But Ken was so dignified, so remote, not like himself."

"Remember, he had Mama in tow."

IT was 2 o'clock when he called. "Hello, Oh, Ken, darling, you've got to come over right away. I'm in a panic. Your mother's..."

Her voice broke. "You can't! Either this afternoon or tonight? But you promised. Oh..." She swallowed a sob and her voice was a little hard. "Your mother wants you to take her to see some of the relatives, and you are taking her to church again tonight. She always insists that you take her... But what about me?"

"Yes, I understand. Perfectly. Yes, in Farmington you don't rush things. You wait... Yes, of course I'll be waiting. That's all I have to do. I may get used to it in time. But I doubt it."

"So she thinks I'm pretty. It doesn't matter. I don't care what she thinks about me right now, or you either. I wish I were back in New York with Jerry."

She slammed the receiver on his words and turned to Sally. "Life looks lovely in Farmington," she said, with bitter sarcasm. "I'll love it. I wonder how he thinks I'll love sitting by my own fireside while he takes Mama about. I wonder..."

Midland Semi-Pros Schedule Busy Week-End With Games At Fort Davis And Against Colorful Boston Team

Lamesa Assistant Coach Visits Here

Jim Neill, Texas Tech football ace and New York Giants pro-football player, visited in Midland Friday.

He has been elected assistant coach at Lamesa. He formerly coached at Pecos.

The Midland semi-pros will have a busy baseball week-end and post week-end. Two games are scheduled, Sunday the team will travel to Fort Davis for a tilt there.

Monday night the touring Boston Hoboes come to town for a game at 8:15 p. m. at the baseball park. The Hoboes are a potent nine and present a sideshow of "screamlined" baseball.

Midland announced the addition of three players. They are: Lefty Greenwood, outfielder; Miller Harris, outfielder; and "Baldy" Joiner, former Midland player and infielder. He is slated for a shortstop slot.

Jim Payne was uncertain Friday of his pitchers for the two tilts. He has Bobby Walker, University of Texas smooth flogger, "Windmill" Brown, crafty veteran, and Jones, a recruit, available for slab work. City softball league games will be cancelled Monday night for the baseball engagement.

Tommy Henrich appears to be slipping baton to Joe DiMaggio, next up, while Johnny Sturm waits for another. As a matter of fact, DiMaggio grasped Henrich's hand and Sturm, who scored ahead of Yankee outfielder, waits to congratulate him on prolonging New York team record for home runs in consecutive games.

Grove Hangs Up 299th Triumph Of Long Career

By The Associated Press When the great pitchers of all time in baseball are recalled, Robert Moses (Lefty) Grove always will have a place on the honor roll. He is 41 years old, leathery cheeked and with greying hair, but he still a winning pitcher and Thursday he achieved the 299th triumph of his long and memorable career.

He subdued the Philadelphia Athletics 5 to 2 for the beleaguered Boston Red Sox, who needed the victory desperately. It wasn't an imposing performance like Grove gave in the days when he had a fire ball and was striking out 200 batters a season. The A's tagged him for ten hits and only two struck out.

Jim Tabor hit a three-run double in the first inning to give the veteran a nice sendoff and Ted Williams homered with one on in the eighth.

Grove, taking plenty of rests between starts, has won six games and lost only two this season. When he reaches the 300-victory goal he will be one of 12 pitchers to accomplish the feat and the first since Grover Cleveland Alexander.

This was the only game in the American League Thursday as other teams rested for the big Fourth of July program.

The action in the National League was confined to two contests with the Chicago Cubs mosing out the St. Louis Cardinals 2-1 and the Boston Braves beating the Phillies 4-1.

Western Golf Meet Serves Plenty Of Holiday Fireworks

COLORADO SPRINGS (AP)—A double order of golf fireworks, served up in Fridays Independence Day car at the 42nd Western Amateur Tournament with two sets of 18-hole matches was to hammer the field down to four finalists by sundown at Broadmoor's Mountain layout.

The two prime favorites—defending champion Marvin (Bud) Ward and medalist Harry Todd—checked in for the second day of match competition, Ward after one of the tightest squeaks of his career.

Ward, 1939 National Amateur king from Spokane, Wash., found himself trailing by three holes on the 14th yesterday, then struck back with two pars and two birdies for a 1-up victory over Rodney Bliss, Omaha veteran. He drew Warren Berl, Stanford and San Francisco performer, in Fridays second round.

Todd, 1939 Western winner from Dallas, rolled over Lyman Wright, Colorado Springs ex-bronco buster, with his prodigious hitting attack, 7 and 6, and drew Claude Wright, young Denver plasterer, today in the bracket opposite Ward's.

Coming Events SATURDAY. Story Hour will be held in the children's library at the courthouse, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Midland County museum in the courthouse will be open Saturday from 10:30 o'clock in the morning until one o'clock in the afternoon. The public is invited.

Sports Roundup

By Eddie Brietz NEW YORK (AP)—Fourth-of-July special, hospitalized in Chicago after stopping one with his bean, is in—of all places—the maternity ward. Babe Ruth and Ty Cobb will captain two Cleveland amateur teams in a war relief football match later this month. . . . Fritz Zivic and Bummy Davis drew the smallest ball-park gate since Mike Jacobs went into the sock racket. Consensus was: Davis should have stood in camp. . . . All Lyttleton Rogers, Lubbock 14, Wichita Falls 1 tennis star, needs is a good press. Wednesday afternoon papers wrote feature stories about him. That afternoon the guy went out and gave Frankie Kovacs his lumps. Latest from the Washington rumor foundry has Muddy Ruel succeeding Stan Harris. We don't believe it.

Poetry Contest (James E. Doyle in Cleveland Play Dealer) Flash! Ducky Weatherly suspended! The era of good feeling ended.

Firecrackers That $3,000 that kept Joe DiMaggio and the Yanks apart so long last spring probably will be given Joe as a bonus for his hitting streak. (After all he drew 50,000 customers to the stadium on a Tuesday and Ed Barrow can't laugh that off) Jack Laken, Baltimore promoter, has signed Joey Archibald and Lou Transparent for a bout there July 17. . . . Lou Little has recovered from a long illness and is resting on Cape Cod. . . . Umpire Bill Summers is second only to Red Ormsby as the "great white father" of the American League. He has eight children, three down to Ormsby. . . . Iowa State just can't wait. Football schedules, posters and information books go out this week. . . . Chick Meehan, who announced he is out to bust the boxing trust, says he has messages of support from throughout the country. The more the merrier, for he's sure going to need plenty of help.

Help Help Can't anything be done to get Baron Boots Poffenberger out of the dog-house? . . . The 90-day suspension he drew for socking an ump runs until after the end of the Southern Association season. . . . Which reminds Col. Ed Danforth of the Atlanta Journal of the Kentucky Judge who sentenced a hill-billy to 99 years for murder. . . . The mountaineer leaped to his feet and yelled: "But judge, that ain't legal. . . . I won't live that long."

She Felt Hurt If Joe Louis really socked Mrs. L (as she alleges in her divorce suit) with his customary guest, we can't say as we blame her much.

Ain't They Pretty? The Cubs finally have received their new road uniforms. . . . In other words, they're all dressed up but going no place.

Utility Job Is Puzzle To Fans DALLAS (AP)—Northern fans voting for the utility in the sixth annual Texas League all-star game at Beaumont July 16 seems to be puzzled.

The early voting shows a preference for Gray Clarke, Dallas, who is ineligible because he is not a utility man and Teddy Cieslak Oklahoma City, whose eligibility is questionable. He has just taken over the extra infield job with the rearrangement of the Indians' inner defenses and he played but one infield position, third, all year.

The Dallas eligibles are George Jansco, now playing second regularly, and Lloyd Rigby, the extra man. Of the two Jansco is the more adaptable to all infield positions and has played second, third and short this year while Rigby has handled third and second.

Russia . . .

Moscow apparently centered in alternative blows at Borisov, 40 miles northeast of Minsk on the road to the Soviet capital, and at Bobruisk.

"The enemy is everywhere meeting with stubborn resistance from our troops, devastating artillery fire and crushing blows by the Soviet air force," the Moscow communique said.

Blasts Troop Train Further north, in the Dvinsk sector of Latvia, the Russians reported they had taken up new positions after engaging German columns which crossed the Dvina River at two points.

Nowhere did the Russians admit approaching collapse in the 13-day-old struggle.

In Southern Poland, Soviet troops were pictured as putting up a terrific battle against Nazi armies lunging toward the rich Ukraine.

Responding to Premier Joseph V. Stalin's call for a campaign of "scorched earth" and guerrilla warfare, the Russians reported that a German munitions train had been blown up en route to the front through Nazi-occupied territory, "exterminating" the crew.

Cases of sabotage deep in the German rear were reported increasing.

Milk Supply . . .

less than one-fourth completed, it was said.

New York's milk strike, precipitated by 23,000 dairy farmers union members in an effort to force higher prices, took a graver turn when an organized group of 30,000 other milk producers announced they would aid the union provided Owen D. Young, retired industrialist, would lead the strike.

Asks President's Entry Dairy union officials estimated the three-state milk blockade, accounting for incidents in which one man was killed and two truck convoys fired upon, already had halved New York City's daily 5,000,000-quart milk supply. Milk-sheds in New York, Pennsylvania and Vermont were affected.

In another strike, dating from March 14, union members asked President Roosevelt to take over the American Potash and Chemical Corp. plant at Trona, Calif., "in the interests of the American public."

Easing defense-labor problems, on the other hand, the defense mediation board completed a formula for averting a strike at the Western Cartridge Co., Malton, Ill., and the Federal Conciliation Service announced an agreement forestalling a walkout on July 9 by 10,000 CIO workers in three Connecticut plants of the American Brass Company.

Pollet Takes Strikeout Lead

By The Associated Press. Virtually every time Howard Pollet steps to the pitcher's box he makes news. And why not? He's easily one of the two or three best big-league prospects in the Texas baseball circuit.

For instance, the 19-year-old product of the New Orleans corner lots not only won a 6 to 3 victory for the Buffs over the San Antonio Missions in a game at Houston Thursday, but he stretched his season's string of strikeouts to 101 to lead the league in that respect.

In the night's two other contests, the Tulsa Oilers, playing at home, drubbed the Dallas Rebels 6-1, and the Indians notched a 6-2 win over Fort Worth at Oklahoma City. The Shreveport at Beaumont affair was postponed because of rain.

WASHINGTON (AP). — Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, an opponent of administration foreign policy, said he had information that the administration soon would send American Navy and Army forces to occupy Iceland.

Highway Department Submits Part Plans For Project To City

The Texas Highway Department has turned over to the city, right-of-way maps and part plans for a $52,000 project, which includes the widening of paving on Highway 80 through the city.

The project consists of work on 22 blocks of Wall Street. Surveys virtually have been completed and the Highway Department is going ahead with plans. Several houses and possibly filling stations and businesses will have to be moved back to permit widening.
