

U.S. Will Act Against Japanese Japan Forms Great Fighting Force

Pacific Island Nation Girds For Trouble As Vessels Near America Discontinue Radio To Save Fleet

Troop Destinations Are Kept Silent But First Contingents Are Expected To Occupy Bases In South Indo-China Surrendered By Frenchmen

By The Associated Press. Japan's dream of conquest in the Pacific moved toward grim reality Friday with the reported mobilization of 1,000,000 men, while at sea her ships blanketed out in silence and turned away from American shores.

Foreign intelligence reports reaching Shanghai said the Japanese mobilization—the greatest since July, 1937, when the war with China began—had been in progress since July 17 and was still continuing.

Troop destinations were kept secret, but advance contingents were expected to occupy newly-won air and naval bases in southern French Indo-China on Sunday, and as one Hanoi newspaper put it:

"Indo-China is on the way to Singapore and The Netherlands East Indies." San Francisco reports said Japan, taking no chance of having her finest liners and cargo ships seized by the United States, clamped strict orders of radio silence on her vast merchant fleet, halted suddenly on the high seas.

Nazis Renew Offensive. Forty-two Japanese ships were reported marking time or turning back toward Japan. There were indications that one liner, the Tatuta Baru, was headed for a Mexican port. Other Japanese vessels in Pacific ports resumed loading operations for a quick getaway.

On the Russian-German war front, London reports said that Adolf Hitler's invasion armies had renewed the offensive along the entire line, but that there was "no decisive result gained by either side at any place."

Hitler's high command asserted the 34-day-old campaign was "proceeding according to plan," but it acknowledged stiff Red army resistance.

The Germans said a strong bunker group known as Emil Eymon on the Stalain line, south of the Pinsk Marshes, surrendered Thursday after a fierce, 24-hour battle.

Claim Division Destroyed. A Soviet war bulletin said "stubborn" fighting raged in five main sectors—on the Protopovsk front, north of Leningrad; on the Pochov front, south of Leningrad; on the Polotsk-Nevel front, in the center; on the Smolensk front, where a deep German salient has been driven toward Moscow; and on the Zhitomir front, in the Ukraine.

All have been scenes of fierce, indecisive fighting for many days. Red army troops defending the road to Moscow reported they had annihilated an entire German infantry division (about 15,000 men) near Smolensk, and the Soviet capital's air defenses were officially credited with beating off a fourth successive night assault by German warplanes.

Unlike the three previous raids, each lasting 5 1/2 hours, the Luftwaffe struck twice Thursday night, from 9:45 p. m. to 11:10 p. m., and later in a two-hour attack.

An official Soviet announcement said that only one plane penetrated the capital's defenses and that it was shot down.

Premier Mussolini's high command said Italian planes sank three more ships totalling 37,000 tons in a British convoy in the Mediterranean Thursday after sinking five ships the day before.

Says Japanese Step Is First Southward. ROME (AP)—Virginio Gayda declared Friday that Japan's program for the occupation of French Indo-China was "the first episode" in Japan's "march toward the south" and was undertaken in full agreement with the other Axis powers.

The authoritative Fascist editor, writing in Il Giornale d'Italia, declared that Japan was strong enough to face any United States reprisals. Gayda said Japan informed Rome and Berlin of her plans on July 15, the day before she began negotiations with French authorities looking to acquisition of new bases in Indo-China.

Ecuador Calls More Men To Armed Force. QUITO, Ecuador. (AP)—The Ecuadorian government, engaged in border conflict with Peru, Friday summoned for military service men born in 1916 to 1919.

Bus Hearing Results Indicate Service To Corps Center Assured

An order authorizing regular bus service between Midland and the site of the Advanced Twin-Engine and Bombarrier Training Center probably will be issued the first of next week, it was learned here Friday.

Another order probably will be issued by the Texas Railroad Commission authorizing bus service between the training center and Odessa.

Ben Templeton, examiner for the commission, conducted a hearing on applications for the service at Odessa Thursday. By agreement between applicants the proposed hearing in Midland was cancelled.

All applicants agreed on the need of the service. Five Applicants. Indications are that through bus service between Midland and Odessa with stops at the training center will not be authorized, but that approval will be granted for service between each city and the military reservation.

Midland applicants for permission to operate between this city and the military reservation are Charles Bush, Ralph Geisler and James Fitzgerald Jr. Applicants for permits to operate between Odessa and the training center are J. J. Willis and J. H. Marks.

Greyhound Bus Lines protested against all proposals to establish service between the two cities.

Alexander Will Hold Institute For 50 Lawyers

James P. Alexander, chief justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, will conduct an institute on new rules of civil law procedure for lawyers of Midland and 11 counties here Monday.

Between 50 and 100 lawyers and district judges from Midland, Lynn, Dawson, Martin, Howard, Pecos, Gaines, Andrews, Ector, Ward, Reeves and Crane counties are expected at the institute, which opens with a luncheon at 12 o'clock noon in Scharbauer Hotel in the Crystal Ballroom. The institute probably will last two to three hours.

The Midland County Bar Association will be host at the meeting. Tom Sealy is president of the association.

Alexander is on tour en route to El Paso to hold a similar institute. The new rules will go into effect Sept. 1.

Invites Celebrities To Free Oil Program

AUSTIN (AP)—President Roosevelt, Lord and Lady Halifax, Oil Coordinator Harold L. Ickes and other federal officials were invited Friday by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel to attend transfer of Texas Oil for Britain at Corpus Christi Aug. 10.

The governor sent the telegraphic invitations and informed the officials arrangements had been completed for Texas oil operators to donate one day's production, estimated at nearly 2,000,000 barrels of crude.

The railroad commission has granted permission to run the oil Aug. 10, originally scheduled as one of several shutdown days under state proration regulations.

German Will Speak At Jaycees Meeting. Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce members were scheduled to honor President Tom Brown with a farewell picnic at Cloverdale Park Friday.

The picnic was scheduled at 6:30 p. m. with W. P. Z. (Bill) German as speaker, and Roy De Wolfe and Frank Savage will furnish musical numbers.

Police Chief L. P. McCasland May Resign Position Soon

The Texas Highway Patrol has revealed it is anxious to recall to duty L. P. McCasland who resigned several months ago to become police chief of Midland.

McCasland discussed the matter with city officials, but to date has not formally resigned his position. Should he accept an appointment with the Highway Patrol, he expects to remain in Midland until Aug. 15 and aid in getting the police department in top shape to handle the added burden brought by the construction of the Advanced Twin-Engine and Bombarrier Training Center here.

The city council at a recent session agreed to name Franklin Manning, for several years a city officer, acting chief to serve, if McCasland resigns, until his successor is selected.

Joe Pierce has been appointed to the police department by McCasland and is assigned to traffic duty.

Charles Atkins resigned from the department Thursday to become a deputy sheriff on the staff of Sheriff Ed Darnell.

City officials still hope McCasland will remain with the department, but will release him to the highway patrol, which is anxious to have his services again. The State Department of Public Safety plans to train about a hundred new patrolmen soon. McCasland is a graduate of U. S. Army Firearms in Self-Defense Schools at Camp Perry, O., and has done considerable instruction work in firearms.

Since coming to Midland last April, McCasland has established a uniformed and trained police department of eight men. He started patrol of the city by officers in automobiles, revised traffic regulations and inaugurated a police radio system.

He is reluctant to leave Midland but explained he couldn't afford to ignore the advantages offered by the highway patrol and the possibilities of advancement in that organization.

He has been an officer more than 10 years and spent more than four years with the highway patrol. He is an outstanding pistol marksman and known for his ability to handle firearms.

"I hate the thought of leaving Midland and the people who have given me such splendid cooperation, but I have to consider the future of my wife and four children, and it may be to their advantage to return to the patrol where possibilities for advancement and increased income are greater than with our fine city department," he explained.

British Fliers Leave Great Fires At Kiel And Emden Navy Bases. LONDON (AP)—Large fires and great damage were left in the German naval bases of Kiel and Emden when the RAF finished night raids there, the air ministry announced Friday.

While Kiel on the Baltic and Emden on the North Sea were being hammered, other RAF forces attacked objectives at Wilhelmshaven and Rotterdam, the Netherlands, and blasted air fields in German-occupied France. Five British planes were acknowledged lost.

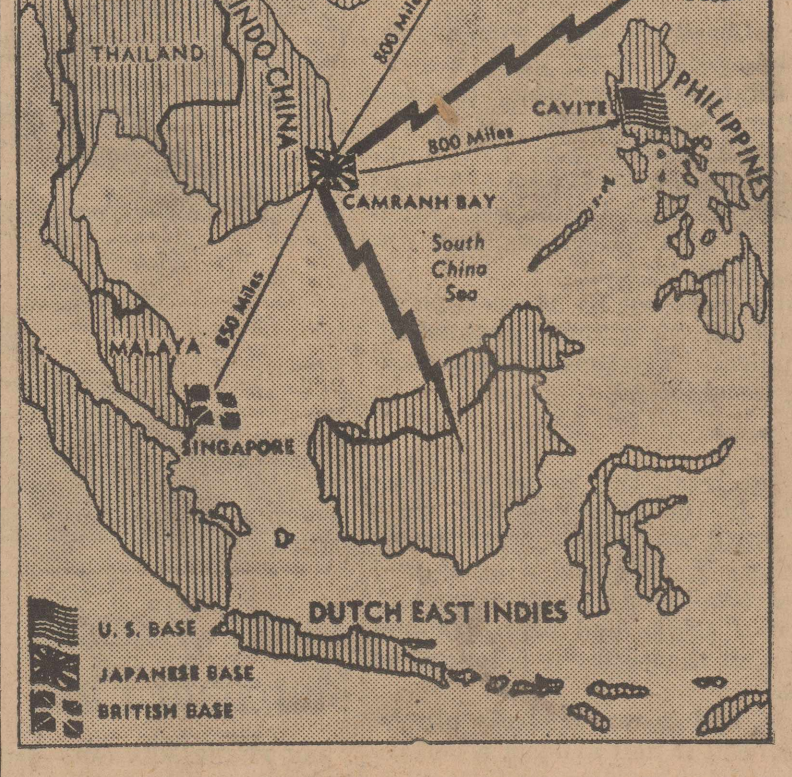

Weather favored the thrust in force into Northwestern Germany where the naval bases lie, the air ministry said, and "heavy loads of bombs were dropped." The attacks on Wilhelmshaven, another North Sea naval base, and on Rotterdam were by smaller forces.

Informed sources said the vigor and extent of the offensive were expected to quiet Russian calls for greater aid.

American Consuls Are Ready To Sail. LISBON (AP)—Several hundred Americans, including consular officials, employees and their families ordered out of Germany, Italy and Axis-occupied countries, were scheduled to sail for home Friday night aboard the U. S. naval transport West Point.

The passenger list was completed last evening when a special train bearing 66 tired, sooty men, women and children crossed into Portugal at Vilar Formoso—the last of 248 Americans to arrive from Germany and German-occupied territory.

Liquor Election Vote Light During Morning

Only 320 ballots had been cast at 1 p. m. Friday in the special election on a proposal to legalize the sale of all alcoholic beverages in Midland County and its precincts.

Election judges reported 175 votes polled at the courthouse box and 145 at the old Presbyterian Church.

Both wet and dry forces were active, getting out votes in automobiles and conducting telephone campaigns. Wet forces also painted sidewalk and street signs and distributed literature.

Polls will close at 7 p. m. and county precincts will report results of the election to the county clerk's office as soon as they are determined. The county has 1,982 qualified voters.

County Long Dry. Should the proposal to legalize liquor be adopted, liquor can be placed on sale as soon as county commissioners canvass the votes and determine the official results. They are required by law to convene within five days after the election or as soon as convenient thereafter.

Midland long has been a dry city. In the last local option election, May 11, 1940, 706 votes against and 510 for legalization of all intoxicating beverages were cast. The county first voted dry in 1913, according to county officials. It was dry before state and national prohibition.

High Ellenburger Top Encountered By Gulf 25 Waddell In Crane. By Frank Gardner Oil Editor. Third producer for the four-mile south extension area of the Sand Hills deep pool in Western Crane County is in prospect Friday as Gulf Oil Corporation No. 25 W. N. Waddell et al topped the Ellenburger, lower Ordovician, higher than the other two wells.

The marker came in between 5,485 and 5,490 feet. Elevation of No. 25 Waddell has variously been run in at 2,465 and at 2,470 feet. A correlation would place its Ellenburger top approximately 100 feet higher to Gulf No. 17 Waddell, diagonal east offset and original extension producer, and 60 feet high to Gulf No. 23 Waddell, offset producer one-quarter mile southwest.

No. 25 Waddell was cored from 5,492 to 5,551 feet with recovery of a total of 21 feet of barren dolomite in the three cores pulled. It is coring ahead below 5,551 feet. The well is located 666 feet from the north and 663 from the west line of section 17, block 3, H. & T. C. survey.

Gulf and other No. 1-B J. B. Tubbs, wildcat between the extension area and the Sand Hills pool proper, is standing after cementing 8 5/8-inch.

Roosevelt Says Steps Will Be Taken Saturday

FDR Parries Inquiries Of Reporters; Freezing Of Assets Is Probable

HYDE PARK, N. Y. (AP) President Roosevelt disclosed Friday that the United States would retaliate with specific action Saturday against Japan's occupation of naval and air bases in French Indo-China.

He told a press conference there would be something out of Washington Saturday, but would not say exactly what.

But to members of the presidential party spending the week-end here the most likely move appeared to be the freezing of Japanese credits and assets in the United States.

Many persons, indeed, considered that step inevitable. But whether the United States was ready to take additional measures appeared to be awaiting future determination, depending on how the international situation develops in the Pacific.

To a question whether "events in the Far East have sharply accentuated the dangers in the international situation, Mr. Roosevelt suggested that the answer be put this way:

"Events in the Far East are bringing a greater awareness on the part of the public to the dangers of the world situation. Decline to Comment. Speaking in the past tense in Washington Friday, the chief executive had indicated a policy under which the government had been letting Japan obtain oil from the United States with the objective of restraining her from invading the Dutch East Indies for petroleum.

"As of today," a reporter asked, "will this government follow the policy you outlined yesterday?" Mr. Roosevelt said he could not talk about that. He said he had been describing what had happened up to the time he was speaking.

"You left the intimation that that policy might be over with," a reporter remarked. But, Mr. Roosevelt said, he did not say as much.

"We are trying to get you to today," his questioner replied. Smilingly the president said he knew that was the case but that he just didn't have any news along that line.

The president said he had arranged to talk by telephone with Sumner Welles, acting secretary of State, at 10:45 a. m. (CST) and the indications were that they would have a lengthy discussion of the Far Eastern problem.

Elect Schmid Sheriffs Head

SAN ANGELO (AP)—Sheriff R. A. (Smoot) Schmid of Dallas County was elected president of the Texas Sheriff's Association, which closed its convention here Friday.

He succeeds Frank Blagone of Galveston. Other officers chosen were:

Ira Heard of Refugio, first vice president; R. L. Daniels of Hidalgo, second vice president; Gordon Anderson of Gilmer, third vice president; Mrs. Joe L. Ray, secretary-treasurer.

San Antonio was selected the 1942 convention site.

Court Argues Case Against Liquor Law. GALVESTON (AP)—An appeal from the ruling of a three-judge court at Huntsville upholding constitutionality of the new state law limiting the number of prescriptions that can be issued by doctors and the amount of liquor that can be kept in stock by drug stores was argued before the First Court of Civil Appeals here Thursday.

A ruling in the case, styled F. V. Ellison et al vs. Texas Liquor Control Board et al, is not expected before next Thursday at the earliest. Until the court has ruled, the temporary injunction issued by the court recently against enforcement of the law will remain in effect.

Behind The Headlines

By DeWitt MacKenzie

A decade ago Japan stunned the world by coolly appropriating Manchuria, and got clean away with it because the League of Nations lacked either the power or the courage—maybe both—to intervene.

This is recorded by historians as the open sesame for a new era of aggressions which have continued to multiply over much of the earth until the cycle has again touched Japan and we see her creating a threat even to American interests in the Far East by appropriating French Indo-China—a strategic spring board of vast potentialities.

We thus must find an added importance in Acting Secretary of State Welles' quietly spoken advocacy of the creation after the war of an association of nations powerful enough to guarantee disarmament and equal economic opportunities.

As soon as Mr. Welles statement became available I cabled to London for an expression of opinion from Lord Cecil of Chelwood, Nobel Peace Prize winner and one of the chief architects of the League of Nations. I turned to him because I know him and respect his views, having had his friendship since the days of Versailles when daily I watched him drafting the covenant of the league. He replied: Strength In Unity.

"The statement of the acting secretary of state, Mr. Sumner Welles, will be welcomed by all who love peace and hate war. "Both in this war and the war of 1914 an association of nations came into existence in order to resist aggression. Unfortunately it did not come into existence until after the war had begun, and its will for peace therefore had to be enforced by warlike action.

"Had there been such an asso-

IF YOU WANT TO RATE 100 PER CENT AS A CHRISTIAN THIS IS WHAT YOU MUST DO: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself.— Luke 10:27.

An Old-Fashioned Phrase

The Japanese minister to Australia must, somewhere, have received a thorough education in the curious mental processes that pass for thinking in Nazidom. Queried on Japanese ambitions, Tatsuo Kawai replied that he disliked the word "drive" which Americans persisted in applying to that impetus which has sent the Japanese legions into Manchuria, North China, Coastal China, and Indo-China. That word, so popular with Americans, isn't applicable to the Japanese situation, he said.

Further, he was slightly annoyed by a question as to whether Japan contemplated "territorial expansion" toward the Netherlands Indies. "Territorial expansion" is an old-fashioned phrase, he objected.

Well, so it is. It has, at least, the virtue of being clear and well understood. In the 19th century, when every major nation in the world was grabbing off every bit of weakly defended territory it could find lying around loose, everybody knew what territorial expansion meant. It meant that somebody's real estate had been grabbed by somebody stronger, and that thereafter it belonged to the winner. That was that.

It was a crude business, and it was a crude phrase that was used to describe it. But it had at least a certain straightforward honesty.

Not so much can be said of the terms used to describe the same thing these days. The fashion has arisen, and an attempt is being made to foist it on the whole world, to do the same thing but to call it "equitable adjustment of frontiers," or "establishment of co-prosperity spheres," or "setting up of a new order," or "taking over the duty of protecting," or simply "co-ordination."

All such phrases are less accurate as well as less honest than old-fashioned territorial expansion. The distinction in fact is without measurable difference.

If one were to try to measure that slight difference, it would lie in rubbing in the wound of unjustifiable aggression the salt of mealy-mouthed lying and hypocrisy.

Wherein lies the difference between 19th century territorial expansion and 20th century "new orders"?

Only in this: In the former time, even in the most imperialistic countries, men remained free enough so that a few could still rebel and protest and call the spade a damned shovel. But in today's aggressor countries not only is no man free to protest, but the effort is made to smother protest even in countries yet free under an avalanche of words which have lost their meanings.

Never Too Late

It's never too late to do a good thing. Sometimes it's too late to achieve maximum good by the good act. Nevertheless, better late than never.

Jakob Nabel feels that way. He's applying for American citizenship, though he's 106 years old. Nabel came to Cleveland in 1864, fought with the Union army, was wounded, returned, and lived in the United States until, at 106, he has lived here longer than most people who are native. Now he wants to become a citizen.

Well, why not? He reads without glasses, walks, drinks, eats, and is as chipper as a sparrow under a sprinkler on a hot day. Personally, we think he's taking the step not a day too soon. After all, he has the future to consider.

Measure Of Strength

While many are dissatisfied with the rate of growth of defense strength, and none has any right to be smugly satisfied with it, there is nothing about it to cause despair. In General Marshall's biennial report, just released, some interesting marks of progress are shown. Between July 1, 1940, and July 1, 1941, the Army jumped from 174,000 to 1,400,000. From a mere framework of three and one-third divisions, it jumped to four armies, nine corps, 29 divisions.

The Air Corps a year ago had 62 squadrons of between 13 and 18 planes each. Today it has 54 combat groups of between 61 and 121 planes each, more than quadrupled.

True, it is only a beginning. But fortune has granted us the time, and it is only now that the industrial machine is beginning to turn out material in real quantity. Soon, very soon, American military strength will be less a question of material than of organization and trained ability to use it.

Japan Silences Merchant Fleet

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Japan, taking no chances on having her finest liners and cargo vessels seized by the United States, imposed strict orders of radio silence today on her vast merchant fleet, halted suddenly on the high seas.

Japan was clearly apprehensive as a result of President Roosevelt's denunciation of Indo-China occupation.

Forty-two Japanese ships were reported marking time at sea, some just a safe distance offshore, or turning back to Japan. Japanese ships in Pacific coast ports rushed loading operations. Sailings of two Nipponese cargo boats from Yokohama to the United States were canceled.

The whereabouts of the fast 17,600-ton liner Tatuta Maru, due here at 5 a.m. Thursday, was a mystery. Last evening the big ship was seen cruising leisurely 12 miles offshore. Later she had vanished. Like all other Japanese ships, she answered no radio calls.

Senators Will Seek Price-Fixing Curb

WASHINGTON (AP)—An attempt to curb by congressional action any price-fixing orders on farm products was planned Friday by Senators Smith (D-SC) and Thomas (D-Okla.).

Protesting that actions by Leon Henderson, federal price administrator, were "robbing farmers of a chance for a fair price," Chairman Smith said he would ask the Senate Agriculture Committee to act on the matter at once.

"Henderson breaks the cotton market every time he opens his mouth," Smith, known as "Cotton Ed," said.

Senator Thomas, also critical of Henderson's price-fixing attempts, said he would offer two riders to a farm bill dealing with wheat marketing, in an effort to restrict action by Henderson until Congress had considered price fixing legislation.

Japan Plans To Station Vessels

SAIGON, French Indo-China (AP)—Concessions gained by Japan in French Indo-China were reported authoritatively Friday to include the right to station warships in Camranh Bay and at Saigon, several air bases in Southern Indo-China and permission to post troops at several coastal points.

Major General Rishior Sumita, chief of the Japanese military mission in Indo-China, was expected here Saturday to direct occupation of the bases granted by the French government.

"Several thousand" Japanese troops, authoritative sources said, will be stationed at Saigon and also along the Southeast Indo-China coast and within Cambodia.

A similar program, including formal guard mounting, is scheduled for Monahans the night of Sept. 1.

May Compromise Service Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration leaders made known Friday a willingness to compromise on a one-year extension of military service for selectees, national guardsmen and reserves, if they were convinced such a move would increase congressional support for legislation to keep the present army intact.

Senator Hill of Alabama, the democratic whip, told reporters he would offer no objection to a "reasonable" restriction on the additional time citizen soldiers might be called upon to serve over the present one-year limit.

"If we can unify support behind this measure," Hill said, "I would be willing to accept a limitation of one year on additional service for these men. We want to see this bill passed by the greatest possible margin for its psychological effect both at home and abroad."

He declined to discuss in detail "the measures which has majesty's government has prepared to meet these and other possible developments," but promised a further statement at an early date.

We, the Women

By Ruth Millitt
Many a working girl is taking a new kind of "vacation" this summer.

Instead of spending her money on slacks and swim suits and bright sports dresses, and praying for nice weather and a few eligible men as she did in other years, she is sinking her money into the best looking street outfit she can find. And she's heading for a city and two weeks of job hunting instead of a beach and two weeks of swimming.

For five years or more she has hung on to a job she didn't much like in her home town where nothing ever happens, because she thought she was lucky to have any kind of a job at all.

Now she is hearing stories about how easy it is for a young woman with business training and experience to go into the city enjoying a defense boom, ask for a job—and get it.

So she's going to try her luck. Her plans are all made. She'll have at least ten days of job-hunting from morning to night. It may not sound like much of a vacation, but it will be an exciting one to the bored girl who sees at least a chance to get out into the world and tackle a new job.

NOT MATTER OF LIFE AND DEATH

Of course, she may not get the job. But if she doesn't she isn't going to be sick over it. She isn't telling her friends that she is turning her vacation into a job hunt, so she won't have to cope with any pity if she goes back home at the end of her two weeks' vacation the way she has always gone back in past years—broke and glad to have a job at which she can earn a pay check.

And, for a while at least, the old job will look good in comparison with the closed doors she found in the city.

But there's a good chance it won't turn out like that, and that she'll be writing her family to pack her trunk and send it on. "I have a JOB—starting at once. Hooray!"

It's a chance well worth taking.

It is well for a person to be well read in all the different branches of science. Nothing but good can come from knowledge—knowledge of whatever field man's research has made advances—it is profitable to understand the mysteries of the physical sciences as well as the experiments into the realm of psychology. Knowledge and wisdom are part of the life and work of the man of God. It is not a sign of piety to be ignorant. But there is a wisdom that ranks above mundane knowledge and is of greater riches. And that is the knowledge of self and of life and of God and of eternal truth. High above the mists and the fog of mere mortal gropings for fame and fortune and the lure of ambition, there is the realm of spiritual understanding and when one ascends to this plane of living, all else seems only illusory and worthless. Here one may find the open sesame, and know that to live is to walk with kings nor lose the common touch, and to become one with the power and majesty of the divine image.

As the disciple lives the normal life of one created a little below the angels, he finds much more to life and to the world in which he lives and moves and has his being. There is opened up to him the vision of true being, and the understanding is made receptive to the flow of inspiration from the Most High. This wisdom which ranks high above the man-made philosophies is what the Bible offers and actually contributes to all who seek her revelations. That is why the Bible is precious and priceless to humanity. That is why one should seek for the truth contained therein more than fine gold or rare jewels. For the riches obtained from the Bible never perish, nor ever vanish from the possession of the seeker. "Every scripture inspired of God is profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; that the man of God may be complete, furnished completely unto every good work."

VACUUM DRIED CONCRETE MAY SPEED SHIPBUILDING

PHILADELPHIA, (UP)—The practicability of using concrete in shipbuilding—first approached in the World War—has come up again. Karl P. McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By William E. McKenney, America's Card Authority.

Precision in the order of cashing top cards often pay dividends when a bad break develops. Today's hand was played by J. M. Mathews, Jr., of St. Louis, Mo. It illustrates the importance of taking ace and kings in just the right order.

The contract of six no-trump is warranted by the cards, for if the clubs break there are plenty of tricks. The opening lead was won by the ace of hearts.

Dummy led a low spade and the jack won. Another spade to the queen brought out the ace. East returned the ten of spades, forcing the king, and South let go a diamond.

Two top clubs were cashed, and the bad break was revealed. But with East holding the only stoppers in the black suits, a squeeze was sure to follow. South cashed the top hearts, the queen of diamonds, then led to dummy's top diamonds, on the last of which East found it impossible to hold protection in both black suits.

This is a simple squeeze, such as occurs in one or two boards of every duplicate game. Yet Mathews was the only player in this duplicate game to bag it.

The other South players all began by trying to run the club suit, before knocking out the ace of spades, so that East, on getting in with ace of spades, was able to force out South's third club honor and kill the vital re-entry for the squeeze situation.

Economic Committee Prepares Firm's Data For Second Blacklist

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt's economic warfare committee is collecting a list of German and Italian firms in Europe and Asia as a nucleus of a new blacklist to supplement the recent compilation of 1,833 Latin American firms to which it is prohibited to export American goods.

Investigations to this end have been undertaken. It was learned, in Japan, China, Thailand, Sweden, Switzerland, unoccupied France, Spain, Portugal and Finland.

A record is being made of all firms in those countries which fall under the first category of the "proclaimed list of certain blocked nationals," as the original list was officially designated.

The category includes individuals and commercial organizations acting for, on behalf of, or under the direction or jurisdiction of Germany or Italy. A second classification included in the list was designed to cover non-German and non-Italian firms which served Axis interests.

Q. How long will Defense Bonds and Stamps be on sale?

Enough Rest Makes Happy Vacations

By Alicia Hart, NEA Service Staff Writer

The girl who, after a two weeks' vacation, comes back to the office looking fresh, rested, younger and prettier did not, you may be sure, get over-enthusiastic about exercise and sports during her holiday. She got plenty of exercise, of course, and she had fun in the lake, on the golf course, tennis courts or whatever. But she did not wear herself all out trying to pack too many activities into so brief a time.

She had sense enough to realize that a body which had no exercise of any kind in a year wouldn't derive any benefit at all from a hectic round of sports and practically no rest.

She played a little golf, but she didn't try to break the record for the course. She went swimming, but she didn't try to swim a mile (the first day or to out-dive the broad-shouldered life guard). She danced until dawn when she felt like it, but she didn't make a date to climb a mountain at seven in the morning following a night of dancing until three.

DON'T MAKE FETISH OF BEAUTY ROUTINES

She slept at least eight hours out of every twenty-four. She didn't worry about which eight hours, however, so sleeping never interfered with fun.

She had a better-than-average time because she managed to strike a happy medium between wearing no makeup, wrinkled slacks and sloppy blouses and spending too much time in a beauty shop or pressing her clothes or fussing with her face. She was clean and well-groomed every hour of the day, but she didn't make a fetish of her beauty routines.

She used suntan oil conscientiously and so didn't have to waste a lot of time trying to cure a bad sunburn.

There were more than twice as many types in Guam in 1940 as any other type in livestock. Cattle ranked second in importance.

Reagan Test In Ellenburger. It was reported Friday that American Petroleum Corporation No. 1-RA University had reached the Ellenburger in drilling and coring to total depth of 9,080 feet in lime and dolomite. String of 5 1/2-inch casing is being run to bottom. The pipe will be run-perforated opposite zones from 8,900 to 9,080 feet which carried oil. The deep wildcat is in extreme Southeastern Reagan County.

Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation. No. 1 B. F. Boren, deep try southwest of the Apo-Warner Ordovician pool in Northern Pecos County, topped Ellenburger dolomite at 4,490 feet and is drilling ahead below 4,514 feet. Elevation is approximately 2,469 feet. Operators stated the test had encountered first Ellenburger about 80 feet lower than Olson Oil Company and Bryce McCandless No. 1 V. W. Crockett, producer one-half mile east which found pay increases in granite wash after deepening from the regular Ellenburger horizon of the pool, which it extends two miles southwest.

Gulf and L. H. Wentz No. 1 L. H. Miller et al. six and one-half miles south of Girvin in Northeastern Pecos, is standing at 192 feet in yellow clay and lime after cementing string of 13 3/8-inch surface pipe. Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 20 State-Walton, headed for the Ordovician in Northern Winkler County between the Kermit and Keystone Permian pools, is drilling below 7,557 feet in hard lime. A core from 7,525-39 feet returned four and one-half feet of lime showing porosity and oil in the top one and one-half feet. Bottom three feet of the core were slightly porous and showed water.

Softer lime formation was being drilled Friday morning in Anderson-Prichard and Osage No. 1 Frances Brownfield Christmann, Eastern Tery County wildcat, as it reached depth of 5,355 feet. No shows have been logged.

Sport-Uscan No. 1 J. E. Rice, scheduled 5,500-foot test in Northern Lynn County, is drilling in lime below 4,387 feet.

L. C. Harrison No. 1 Nairn Estate, Lubbock County wildcat, is shut down for repairs at 4,730 feet in Clear Fork lime.

SLATE PIT WORKER, 80, IN QUARRIES 70 YEARS. PEN ARGVYL, Pa. (UP)—Eighty-year-old Edward Jackson has been employed in the slate quarries for the last 70 years and is still going strong.

Jackson says that no other man in the slate belt can equal his record. At present he is employed as a blockmaster at the Jackson Bansa, China and the British empire.

"But unless an international organization strong enough to enforce its will actually comes into existence would-be aggressors will always be found to take a chance on beating each of the peace power separately. In this as in other matters it is still true that in unity there is strength."

Naval Enlistment Of Wraither Not To Prevent Marriage

By The Associated Press.

Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel said in Austin Thursday night that he had learned the naval enlistment of Jack Wraither, Jr., young Overton oil man and his prospective son-in-law, would not interfere with his daughter Molly's July 31 wedding but might affect Wraither's naval status. The governor's statement said: "Jack Wraither, Jr., told me the naval requirement would interfere in no way with the wedding July 31. I talked to him long distance. I understand the arrangement he has made affects his status somewhat with the naval unit."

SERIAL STORY

MURDER IN CONVOY

BY A. W. O'BRIEN

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: In England, Greg is sent to Aldershot Camp, where he buries himself in work for the next three days. He is given a premature leave of absence, decides to go to London. He is low in spirits when he arrives, since, before arresting Joan, he had agreed to meet her in London at the "Welcome Snail" inn. When he arrives in London, he takes a cab, doesn't know where to go. Finally he tells the driver to take him to the "Welcome Snail."

JOAN IS WAITING

CHAPTER XII

FOR fully 15 minutes the little taxi twisted and turned through the night, Lieutenant Rollins remarking to himself that the gray-haired driver must have cat's eyes. At irregular intervals, two-decker buses roared by and melted again into the darkness. There were few, if any, autos other than taxis. Astonishingly few, too, were evidences of air raid damage.

Finally, his cab drew up beside a curb.

A chubby little Frenchman in impeccable formal attire greeted him. "Bon soir, Monsieur. I am Pierre . . ." Then looking over Greg's shoulder, "You are alone, oui?"

The officer smiled. "Oui, I am alone."

"This way, Monsieur." Pierre turned toward the curiously narrow dining room, then stopped abruptly. "You are not, by any chance, Lieutenant Rollins, are you?" Greg halted in surprise. "Yes, I am Lieutenant Rollins, but how in the world . . .?"

Pierre's face fairly beamed. He waved excitedly toward a table in the corner, and Greg's heart stood still. It was a dream. It must be . . . a cruel dream that . . . But, no, she was actually smiling at him and beckoning to the other chair. It was Joan Davaar!

As if in a daze, Rollins approached. Automatically, he removed his cap, tucked his cane under his left arm and bowed. Still automatically, he sat in the chair as Pierre placed it under him.

"Good evening, Greg, aren't you glad to see me?"

Rollins finally found his tongue. Impulsively he reached out his hands and clasped hers. "Of course I am, Joan. I'm so glad I could . . . no matter what . . ."

She laughed happily. "I knew you'd say that. You are a very lovable person, Greg. I phoned out to Aldershot this evening and found you had gone on leave. There was only one place I could hope to meet you, and even then I doubted—but you remembered." Greg's face was troubled, but he still held her hands in his across the table. "Forget it, Joan. You must have escaped, and you are in danger. What can we . . .?" She laughed again, gently removing one hand. "Just a minute, Sir Galahad. I'm disobeying the strictest of orders in showing you this paper, but I'm a woman, too, and I'm afraid, rather in love." She opened a folded letter from her purse.

London streets—still blanketed in fog—are much the same as they always were.

GREG's eyes widened as he read. It bore the letterhead of the British Intelligence and was signed by one of the most famous names in England!

The letter was addressed to "Agent R-72 Joan Connaught" and contained warm personal congratulations for "your most commendable counter-espionage work in connection with Troopship Convoy MX."

Mixed joy and bewilderment stood out on Greg's face. "But, Joan, what . . .?"

"I was planted in the German Embassy at Ottawa through devious channels 15 months before the outbreak of the war and, shortly before you sailed, I drew another assignment, to play the role of a nurse—with the name Davaar—on 'T 9.'"

"I kept watching the light flashes from the battle cruiser in order to keep in touch with what was going on. I knew the code and was on guard lest the cruiser see the nightly searchlight business and warn our O. C."

Rollins interrupted. "Then the Nazi agent must have been . . ."

She made a motion for him to lower his voice. "Yes, it was Harry Miley. Poor Tees found out first!"

"That explains," murmured Rollins, "why he was so curious about you. He must have seen you approaching that night on deck, put two and two together when he saw you studying the cruiser signals and was on the watch for any secret discussions between us, just in case I was with you."

"Check. And, the night I caught him red-handed, there was no choice but to shoot him when he tried to go for his gun. I had just taken the flashlight from his hand when you came up from the rear. I couldn't reveal my identity to you, but did so privately to the colonel after you left. Secret papers were found in Miley's gas mask."

"It was on my suggestion that the quarantine scheme was employed. We had to cover up in order to let one of our men take Miley's place on shore until the seat of the Nazi ring is found in England. His job had evidently been to flash regularly each night at the same time from a high deck to guide any prowling U-boat flotillas."

GREG squeezed her hands. "That's the grandest news I've ever heard. Now how about us?" "Not so good, Greg. I'm leaving on the midnight train. They've found another job for me—in the Balkans this time." She searched Greg's troubled eyes.

"But they can't, Joan dear," he said in a hoarse whisper. "I've only found you again. Not so soon . . ."

"It's no use, Greg," she injected tenderly. "This is war, and I must go."

Rollins had already shown he could act when action was necessary.

"Then what would normally take months must be done in two hours." He spoke in measured tones. "Will you marry me tonight—now?"

There was no hesitation on the girl's part. She nodded.

Rollins jumped to his feet and picked her up from her chair.

Pierre was tapping their shoulders, his face reflecting supreme embarrassment. "Monsieur, Made-moiselle . . . pliz, you are in the 'Welcome Snail' . . ."

He turned as a gale of laughter swept through the little restaurant. Pierre, being a discerning head-waiter, quick to appreciate the moods of his customers, shrugged his shoulders in a gesture of tremendous helplessness.

"C'est la guerre!" he apologized.

Howe's Win 12-10 Tilt Over Central

Cure And Mosely Hit Doubles As Players Go On Scoring Spree

John P. Howe nudged Central Pharmacy, 12-10, Thursday night but the drugists never gave up. The tilt was tied 9-9 from the fourth inning to the sixth when the "girls in blue" got three.

Cure and Mosely hit doubles to spark the winning rally. Cure's single scored Reeves who had walked. Then Mosely smacked her two-baser, scoring Cure. Mosely later stole home.

Batting in its last half of the last frame, Central got a run when Britie Neill, hitting star of the game, smashed a double scoring Marcom. Neill hit a homer, triple, and the double in four trips.

The score was close all the way. Charlie Crawley of Central and Mickey Musgrove of Howe's pitched. Howe was handicapped by the absence of Kidwell, Moffett, and Smallwood, three regular infielders.

Hitting honors were divided. Cure, Mosely, Webb, Ficke, and Choate hit doubles for Howe. Ficke, Howe outfielder, hit a homer in the third inning, and got three four four. Marcom got three hits in four trips for Central. Other Central bat stars were: Livingston with a double; Davidson, a double, and Montgomery, double.

The win kept Howe's out in front in city league play with four wins and one loss. Southern Ice is tied for second place with three wins and two losses. Central also has won three and lost two. Sewell Motors lost four.

Tennis Star Fails To Discover Fault

SEA BRIGHT, N. J. (AP)—The enigma that is Donald L. McNeill, tennis champion of the United States, remains unsolved.

"For the life of me, I don't know what's wrong. Your guess is as good as mine." This from McNeill himself. It doesn't take an expert to pick out glaring flaws in McNeill's technique. McNeill knows there's plenty wrong with it, but no one yet has been able to offer an explanation for the disintegration of a game that carried the modest, soft-spoken Oklahoman to the top of the heap last year.

Thursday, in the quarter-final round of the 54th annual Sea Bright tournament, McNeill fell victim of the tournament's biggest upset. He was beaten by 20-year-old Ted Schroeder in straight sets, 6-3, 7-5.

Whirlaway Will Challenge Jinx Of Chicago Race

CHICAGO. (AP)—Whirlaway dares the grave yard of champions at Arlington Park Saturday.

The king of the American turf will go to the post the top heavy favorite in the $30,000 Arlington classic—a race in which many an odds-on favorite fell before the stretch charge of unheralded long-shots.

Remember what happened to Johnstown in 1939? After winning the Kentucky Derby by eight lengths and the Belmont by five, Johnstown went to the post in the classic at odds of 1-5 and finished third, six lengths behind the triumphant Challedon and Sun Lover. Challedon's win price was $29.20.

Six Entries In Race.

Last year's Gallahadion, Kentucky Derby winner, and Bimelech, one of the biggest failures in turf history, staggered home behind the victorious Sirocco, which paid off at $28.20.

Back in 1931, Mate, at 5 to 1, conquered Twenty Grand which had set a record in winning the Kentucky Derby that year. Twenty Grand was an even money shot.

The Woodvale Farm's Our Boots is regarded as Whirlaway's principal rival, with Attention, entry of Mrs. Parker Corning, New York, as another contender. The others will be Bushwhacker, To A Tee, and Daily Trouble.

Reports Condition Of Payne Satisfactory

Jim Payne, manager of the Midland Semi-Pro Baseball Tournament, was still talking baseball from his hospital bed Friday.

Attaches at Western Clinic Hospital said he was resting comfortably. He underwent an operation for appendicitis Thursday and it was necessary to postpone indefinitely the Reporter-Telegram's Semi-Pro Baseball tournament of which he was manager.

"He's getting alone fine," the hospital reported.

While working out final plans for the tournament Wednesday night, Payne suddenly became ill and was taken to the hospital.

Midland's Beauty Entry

Miss Mary Frances Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Carter, will represent Midland in a bathing beauty contest at the Texas Parade of Stars program in San Angelo, July 31. She recently won a bathing revue contest at Stephenville as Miss Midland.

St. Louis Cardinals, Resembling Old Gas House Gang, Rally In 10th To Defeat Giants By 3 To 2 Score

By Judson Bailey
Associated Press Sports Writer.

There never will be another "gas house gang" until there is another Pepper Martin, but the present St. Louis Cardinals are the next best thing.

They are hard-hitting, fast-running, never-say-die outfit with eight hitters batting more than .300 and seven pitchers with a winning percentage, four of them having a combined won-lost record of 38-11.

They have a bright, fiery-eyed little boss named Billy (The Kid) Southworth, who plays his Cards with an abandon never equalled in the Major Leagues.

This explains how the Redbirds have performed such phenomena as winning 20 games by one run and how one pitcher, Lefty Ernie White, captured three contests in as many days to sweep a series from the New York Giants.

The Cardinals nosed out the Giants, 3-2, Thursday to bag their second-extra inning hit in two days.

In the tenth Enos Slaughter singled and Jim Brown doubled for the winning run, giving the Cards their fifth straight victory and exclusive possession of the National League lead, a half-game ahead of the idle Brooklyn Dodgers.

Home Run Breaks Tie.

The defeat tossed the Giants into a fourth-place tie with the Pittsburgh Pirates, who edged out the Phillies, 3-2, in the ninth for their 19th victory in 26 contests.

Babe Dahlgren's sixth-inning homer, his 14th of the season, snapped a tie and gave the Chicago Cubs a 5-4 victory over his former teammates, the Boston Braves, in the other National League engagement.

The New York Yankees continued their triumphant stride at the front of the American League, beating the Cleveland Indians, 4-1, and stretching their first-place margin to 10 games. Charley Keller's 24th homer with one on in the fifth decided the issue, pointing the Yanks to their sixth straight victory and 37th in 43 games. It was the 12th time they had beaten the Indians in 16 games.

The Philadelphia Athletics made 13 hits, including homers by Sam Chapman and Benny McCoy, to whip the St. Louis Browns, 9-7 and take over fifth place from the Detroit Tigers, who were beaten again by the Washington Senators, 6-5.

The Boston Red Sox retained for lead, a half-game ahead of the Chicago White Sox with an 11-1 drubbing of the Chicago crew.

Fine Looking Pitcher Hurls Cardinals Back Into Loop Leadership

ST. LOUIS. (AP)—Who is this Ernie White who has pitched the St. Louis Cardinals right back into first place in the National League by racking up three mound victories in as many days?

Both the New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers, his chief victims, will tell you he's one fine, hard-working southpaw and they regret the day he ever changed his mind about becoming a first baseman.

Always clamoring for work, Ernie chalked up his tenth victory Thursday by stopping the Giants cold in relief role, just as he had the previous day to win No. 9. The day before he drew the starting assignment against Bill Terry's crew and recorded victory No. 8 although he did not finish the game.

The pennant-mad Dodgers have been set down three consecutive times by the 24-year-old southpaw, whose chief stock in trade is a dazzling fast ball mixed with a fair curve he has developed steadily under the guiding hand of the Cards' veteran catcher, Gus Mancuso.

He won 15 and lost six for Houston in the Texas League in 1939.

TWO U. S. ARMY PILOTS DIE IN PLANE CRASH

MT. GILEAD, O. (AP)—Two U. S. Army pilots ferrying a Lockheed-Hudson bomber to Canada for delivery to the British Royal Air Force perished in flames Thursday as their twin-motored ship plowed into a central Ohio cornfield.

Major Robert H. Baker, contact officer for the Army's "Ferry Command" at Patterson Field in Dayton, identified the victims as First Lt. R. F. Rush of Tucson, Ariz., and Second Lt. N. L. Warner of Dallas, Texas.

Condition of John Dublin, former man of the Schaefer Cattle Company, was slightly improved at a Midland hospital Friday. Dublin has been seriously ill several days.

U. S. Will Act Against Japanese

Roosevelt Says Steps Will Be Taken Saturday

FDR Parries Inquiries Of Reporters; Freezing Of Assets Is Probable

HYDE PARK, N. Y. (AP) President Roosevelt disclosed Friday that the United States would retaliate with specific action Saturday against Japan's occupation of naval and air bases in French Indo-China.

He told a press conference there would be something out of Washington Saturday, but would not say exactly what.

But to members of the presidential party spending the week-end here the most likely move appeared to be the freezing of Japanese credits and assets in the United States.

Many persons, indeed, considered that step inevitable. But whether the United States was ready to take additional measures appeared to be awaiting future determination, depending on how the international situation develops in the Pacific.

To a question whether "events in the Far East have sharply accentuated the dangers in the international situation," Mr. Roosevelt suggested that the answer be put this way:

"Events in the Far East are bringing a greater awareness on the part of the public to the dangers of the world situation."

Declines to Comment

Speaking in the past tense in Washington Friday, the chief executive had enunciated a policy under which the government had been letting Japan obtain oil from the United States with the objective of restraining her from invading the Dutch East Indies for petroleum.

"As of today," a reporter asked, "will this government follow the policy you outlined yesterday?"

Mr. Roosevelt said he could not talk about that. He said he had been describing what had happened up to the time he was speaking.

"You left the intimation that that policy might be over with," a reporter remarked.

But, Mr. Roosevelt said, he did not say as much.

"We are trying to get you to today," his questioner replied.

"Smilingly the president said he knew that was the case but that he just didn't have any news along that line.

The president said he had arranged to talk by telephone with Sumner Welles, acting secretary of State, at 10:45 a. m. (CST) and the indications were that they would have a lengthy discussion of the Far Eastern problem.

Alexander Will Hold Institute For 50 Lawyers

James P. Alexander, chief justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, will conduct an institute on new rules of civil law procedure for lawyers of Midland and 11 counties here Monday.

Between 50 and 100 lawyers and district judges from Midland, Lynn, Dawson, Martin, Howard, Pecos, Gaines, Andrews, Ector, Ward, Reeves and Crane counties are expected at the institute, which opens with a luncheon at 12 o'clock noon in Scharbauer Hotel in the Crystal Ballroom. The institute probably will last two to three hours.

The Midland County Bar Association will be host at the meeting. Tom Sealy is president of the association.

Alexander is on tour en route to El Paso to hold a similar institute. The new rules will go into effect Sept. 1.

Police Chief L. P. McCasland May Resign Position Soon

The Texas Highway Patrol has revealed it is anxious to recall to duty L. P. McCasland who resigned several months ago to become police chief of Midland.

McCasland discussed the matter with city officials, but to date has not formally resigned his position. Should he accept an appointment with the Highway Patrol, he expects to remain in Midland until Aug. 15 and aid in getting the police department in top shape to handle the added burden brought by the construction of the Advanced Twin-Engine and Bombarrier Training Center here.

Contractors Say Work Force Will Expand Rapidly

More than 100 men were at work Friday on the military reservation which will house the $5,000,000 Advanced Twin-Engine and Bombarrier Training Center and the number should increase rapidly in a few days, officials of Cage Brothers and F. M. Reeves and Sons, Inc., general contractors, said.

The temporary office building to house army engineers is nearing completion and the Army probably will move its equipment into the structure Saturday. Shingles were being nailed on the roof Friday.

Construction of temporary roads and the office building for the contractors went ahead and executives said equipment for the railroad spur should be here within a few days.

Meanwhile, both construction and Army officials were studying bids on various supplies needed in the big program and were buying materials.

British Fliers Leave Great Fires At Kiel And Emden Navy Bases

LONDON (AP)—Large fires and great damage were left in the German naval bases of Kiel and Emden when the RAF finished night raids there, the air ministry announced Friday.

While Kiel on the Baltic and Emden on the North Sea were being hammered, other RAF forces attacked objectives at Wilhelmshaven and Rotterdam, the Netherlands, and blasted air fields in German-occupied France. Five British planes were acknowledged lost.

Weather favored the thrust in force into Northwestern Germany where the naval bases lie, the air ministry said, and "heavy loads of bombs were dropped." The attacks on Wilhelmshaven, another North Sea naval base, and on Rotterdam were by smaller forces.

Informed sources said the vigor and extent of the offensive were expected to quiet Russian calls for greater aid.

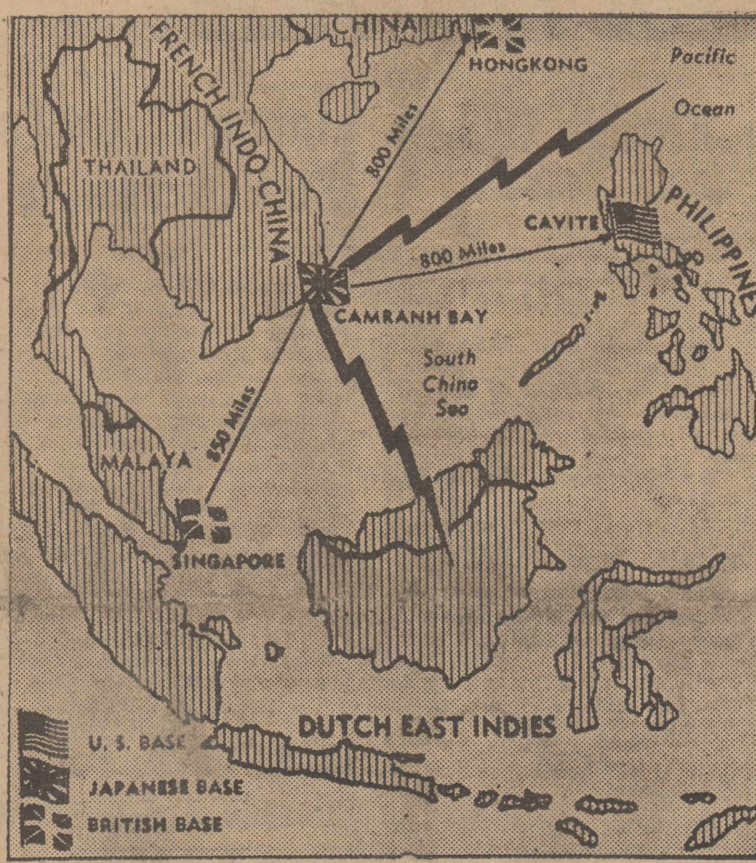

Invites Celebrities To Free Oil Program

AUSTIN (AP)—President Roosevelt, Lord and Lady Halifax, Oil Coordinator Harold L. Ickes and other federal officials were invited Friday by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel to attend transfer of Texas Oil for Britain at Corpus Christi Aug. 10.

The governor sent the telegraphic invitations and informed the officials arrangements had been completed for Texas oil operators to donate one day's production, estimated at nearly 2,000,000 barrels of crude.

The railroad commission has granted permission to run the oil Aug. 10, originally scheduled as one of several shutdown days under state proration regulations.

Japanese Mobilize Million Men And Silence Radios On Their Merchant Ships On Pacific Near American Coast

Troop Destinations Are Kept Silent But First Contingents Are Expected To Occupy Bases In South Indo-China Surrendered By Frenchmen

By The Associated Press.

Japan's dream of conquest in the Pacific moved toward grim reality Friday with the reported mobilization of 1,000,000 men, while at sea her ships blanked out in silence and turned away from American shores.

Foreign intelligence reports reaching Shanghai said the Japanese mobilization—the greatest since July, 1937, when the war with China began—had been in progress since July 17 and was still continuing.

Troop destinations were kept secret, but advance contingents were expected to occupy newly-won air and naval bases in southern French Indo-China on Sunday, and as one Hanoi newspaper put it:

"Indo-China is on the way to Singapore and The Netherlands East Indies."

San Francisco reports said Japan, taking no chance of having her finest liners and cargo ships seized by the United States, clamped strict orders of radio silence on her vast merchant fleet, halted suddenly on the high seas.

Nazis Renew Offensive

Forty-two Japanese ships were reported marking time or turning back toward Japan. There were indications that one liner, the Tatuta Baru, was headed for a Mexican port. Other Japanese vessels in Pacific ports rushed loading operations for a quick getaway.

On the Russian-German war front, the London reports said that Adolf Hitler's invasion armies had renewed the offensive along the entire line, but that there was "no decisive result gained by either side at any place."

Hitler's high command asserted the 34-day-old campaign was "proceeding according to plan," but it acknowledged stiff Red army resistance.

The Germans said a strong bunker group known as Emil Ezyon on the Stalin line, south of the Pinsk Marshes, surrendered Thursday aft-

Capitol Predicts U. S. Will Shut Off Japanese Oil

WASHINGTON (AP)—Abandonment of the two-year-old policy of giving Japan access to the United States oil in order to prevent aggressive action in the Pacific was considered a distinct possibility Friday, now that Japanese forces have moved southward to occupy strategic military and naval bases in French Indo-China.

Informed sources here were agreed that extraordinary counter-measures were in the making as a result of the Indo-China affair—measures designed to express this country's opposition to the action already taken as well as to any further Japanese step in the direction of Singapore, the Netherlands East Indies or the Philippines.

Capitol Hill heard increasingly frequent speculation on use of the navy to safeguard American Far Eastern interests, while immediate prospects here were for some kind of economic action.

In this connection it was regarded as significant that Treasury Secretary Morgenthau cut short a visit with his parents in Bar Harbor, Me., to return to the capital Friday explaining that the national emergency made it necessary for him to do so. In the past Morgenthau has been active in working out anti-Axis economic measures.

Behind The Headlines

By DeWitt MacKenzie

A decade ago Japan stunned the world by coolly appropriating Manchuria, and got clean away with it because the League of Nations lacked either the power or the courage—maybe both—to intervene.

This is recorded by historians as the open sesame for a new era of aggressions which have continued to multiply over much of the earth until the cycle has again touched Japan and we see her creating a threat even to American interests in the Far East by appropriating French Indo-China—a strategic spring board of vast potentialities.

We thus must find an added importance in Acting Secretary of State Welles' quietly spoken advocacy of the creation after the war of an association of nations powerful enough to guarantee disarmament and equal economic opportunities.

As soon as Mr. Welles statement became available I cabled to London for an expression of opinion from Lord Cecil of Chelwood, Nobel Peace Prize winner and one of the chief architects of the League of Nations. I turned to him because I know him and respect his views, having had his friendship since the days of Versailles when daily I watched him drafting the covenant of the league. He replied:

"The statement of the acting secretary of state, Mr. Sumner Welles, will be welcomed by all who love peace and hate war."

"Both in this war and the war of 1914 an association of nations came into existence in order to resist aggression. Unfortunately it did not come into existence until after the war had begun, and its will for peace therefore had to be enforced by warlike action."

"Had there been such an association of nations in 1914, the war would have been avoided."

An official Soviet announcement said that only one plane penetrated the capital's defenses and that it was shot down.

Premier Mussolini's high command said Italian planes sank three more ships totalling 37,000 tons in a British convoy in the Mediterranean Thursday after sinking five ships the day before.

Proposal To Legalize Sale Of All Alcoholic Beverages Is Defeated

Midland County voters Friday turned thumbs down on a proposal to legalize the sale of all alcoholic beverages in the county.

Unofficial returns from the five precincts on the county-wide vote showed:

For legalizing the sale of all alcoholic beverages 385.

Against legalizing the sale of all alcoholic beverages 551.

The vote does not concern the sale of beer in the county.

Both wet and dry forces were active in the election campaign. Petitions were circulated to obtain the special election.

Midland long has been a dry city. The last liquor election was May 11, 1940, and the vote was 706 against and 510 for legalizing the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The county first voted dry in 1913. It was dry before state and national prohibition.

The first complete but unofficial returns came from Precinct 1, the courthouse box. It showed 223 votes for legalizing liquor sale and 282 against. On the proposal to vote the precinct wet, it showed only 222 wet votes against 280 to keep the precinct dry.

The next returns came from Precinct 4, Warfield, which gave three votes for the proposal to legalize liquor and 20 against. The same vote was cast on the precinct proposal.

The third precinct to report was Precinct 2, Stokes schoolhouse, which showed 5 wet and 20 dry votes on both the county-wide and precinct ballots.

An overwhelming dry vote came a few minutes later when complete but unofficial returns were reported from Precinct 5, the old Presbyterian Church. In this precinct 154 votes were for the proposed legalization of liquor sales and 217 opposed it. The precinct ballot on liquor sales in this box was 155 for and 215 against.

Precinct 3, Stephenson, gave 12 votes against the proposal and none for it.

An Old-Fashioned Phrase

The Japanese minister to Australia must, somewhere, have received a thorough education in the curious mental processes that pass for thinking in Nazidom. Queried on Japanese ambitions, Tatsuo Kawai replied that he disliked the word "drive" which Americans persisted in applying to that impetus which has sent the Japanese legions into Manchuria, North China, Coastal China, and Indo-China. That word, so popular with Americans, isn't applicable to the Japanese situation, he said.

Further, he was slightly annoyed by a question as to whether Japan contemplated "territorial expansion" toward the Netherlands Indies. "Territorial expansion" is an old-fashioned phrase, he objected.

Well, so it is. It has, at least, the virtue of being clear and well understood. In the 19th century, when every major nation in the world was grabbing off every bit of weakly defended territory it could find lying around loose, everybody knew what territorial expansion meant. It meant that somebody's real estate had been grabbed by somebody stronger, and that thereafter it belonged to the winner. That was that.

It was a crude business, and it was a crude phrase that was used to describe it. But it had at least a certain straightforward honesty.

Not so much can be said of the terms used to describe the same thing these days. The fashion has arisen, and an attempt is being made to foist it on the whole world, to do the same thing but to call it "equitable adjustment of frontiers," or "establishment of co-prosperity spheres," or "setting up of a new order," or "taking over the duty of protecting," or simply "co-ordination."

All such phrases are less accurate as well as less honest than old-fashioned territorial expansion. The distinction in fact is without measurable difference.

If one were to try to measure that slight difference, it would lie in rubbing in the wound of unjustifiable aggression the salt of mealy-mouthed lying and hypocrisy.

Wherein lies the difference between 19th century territorial expansion and 20th century "new orders"?

Only in this: In the former time, even in the most imperialistic countries, men remained free enough so that a few could still rebel and protest and call the spade a damned shovel. But in today's aggressor countries not only is no man free to protest, but the effort is made to smother protest even in countries yet free under an avalanche of words which have lost their meanings.

Never Too Late

It's never too late to do a good thing. Sometimes it's too late to achieve maximum good by the good act. Nevertheless, better late than never.

Jakob Nabel feels that way. He's applying for American citizenship, though he's 106 years old. Nabel came to Cleveland in 1864, fought with the Union army, was wounded, returned, and lived in the United States until, at 106, he has lived here longer than most people who are native. Now he wants to become a citizen.

Well, why not? He reads without glasses, walks, drinks, eats, and is as chipper as a sparrow under a sprinkler on a hot day. Personally, we think he's taking the step not a day too soon. After all, he has the future to consider.

Measure Of Strength

While many are dissatisfied with the rate of growth of defense strength, and none has any right to be smugly satisfied with it, there is nothing about it to cause despair. In General Marshall's biennial report, just released, some interesting marks of progress are shown. Between July 1, 1940, and July 1, 1941, the Army jumped from 174,000 to 1,400,000. From a mere framework of three and one-third divisions, it jumped to four armies, nine corps, 29 divisions.

The Air Corps a year ago had 62 squadrons of between 13 and 18 planes each. Today it has 54 combat groups of between 61 and 121 planes each, more than quadrupled.

True, it is only a beginning. But fortune has granted us the time, and it is only now that the industrial machine is beginning to turn out material in real quantity. Soon, very soon, American military strength will be less a question of material than of organization and trained ability to use it.

Japan Silences Merchant Fleet

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Japan, taking no chances on having her finest liners and cargo vessels seized by the United States, imposed strict orders of radio silence today on her vast merchant fleet, halted suddenly on the high seas.

Japan was clearly apprehensive as a result of President Roosevelt's denunciation of Indo-China occupation.

Forty-two Japanese ships were reported marking time at sea, some just a safe distance offshore, or turning back to Japan. Japanese ships in Pacific coast ports rushed loading operations. Sailings of two Nipponese cargo boats from Yokohama to the United States were cancelled.

The whereabouts of the fast 17,600-ton liner Tatuta Maru, due here at 5 a. m. Thursday, was a mystery. Last evening the big ship was seen cruising leisurely 12 miles offshore. Later she had vanished. Like all other Japanese ships, she answered no radio calls.

Senators Will Seek Price-Fixing Curb

WASHINGTON (AP)—An attempt to curb by congressional action any price-fixing orders on farm products was planned Friday by Senators Smith (D-SC) and Thomas (D-Okla.).

Protesting that actions by Leon Henderson, federal price administrator, were "robbing farmers of a chance for a fair price," Chairman Smith said he would ask the Senate Agriculture Committee to act on the matter at once.

"Henderson breaks the cotton market every time he opens his mouth," Smith, known as "Cotton Ed," said.

Senator Thomas, also critical of Henderson's price-fixing attempts, said he would offer two riders to a farm bill dealing with wheat marketing, in an effort to restrict action by Henderson until Congress had considered price fixing legislation.

Flashes Of Life

YOO-HOO, Frances! FORT JACKSON, S. C.—A dozen odd members of Tennessee's 117th infantry are asking the question: Who's Frances?

Post cards have been arriving daily from Elizabethton, Tenn., addressed to members of the First Battalion. All conclude with this bit of affection—"With love, Frances."

But who's Frances? No one seemed to know.

OKLAHOMA CITY.—A. P. Smelser thought he had a bargain when he bought a piece of land at a tax sale for $49.

But he wants his money back. It was under a church, not subject to taxes.

CHICAGO.—Louise Sherman is aiding the defense drive—she sold the army her air rifle.

The toy gun, which fires BB shot, was purchased by the 124th Illinois Field Artillery at Camp Forrest, Tenn., for $1. Miss Sherman said a captain told her it was needed to chase razorback hogs and cows from in front of tanks as they maneuver over mountain roads.

Officers Take Four Escaped Terrorists

AMARILLO (AP)—Four escaped convicts who have been terrorizing Texas since last Monday were captured here early Friday without a shot being fired.

An effective highway blockade, built under dramatic directions from the police two-way radio stopped the fleeing men.

Although armed heavily from a Linden hardware store robbery, Jack Brunson, Wichita Falls; Hoyt Beasley, Linden; W. R. McBride, Dallas; and Francis Hofman, Bronx, N. Y. who fled Harlem Prison Farm near Sugarland, made no effort to resist peace officers.

Japan Plans To Station Vessels

SAIGON, French Indo-China (AP)—Concessions gained by Japan in French Indo-China were reported authoritatively Friday to include the right to station warships in Camranh Bay and at Saigon, several air bases in Southern Indo-China and permission to post troops at several coastal points.

Major General Rishior Sumita, chief of the Japanese military mission in Indo-China, was expected here Saturday to direct occupation of the bases granted by the French government.

"Several thousand" Japanese troops, authoritative sources said, will be stationed at Saigon and also along the Southeast Indo-China coast and within Cambodia.

May Compromise Service Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration leaders made known Friday a willingness to compromise on a one-year extension of military service for selectees, national guardsmen and reserves, if they were convinced such a move would increase congressional support for legislation to keep the present army intact.

Senator Hill of Alabama, the democratic whip, told reporters he would offer no objection to a "reasonable" restriction on the additional time citizen soldiers might be called upon to serve over the present one-year limit.

"If we can unify support behind this measure," Hill said, "I would be willing to accept a limitation of one year on additional service for these men. We want to see this bill passed by the greatest possible margin for its psychological effect both at home and abroad."

The House of Commons cheered when Eden said the British government had "been in close communication with the United States government" on the latest developments in the Far East.

He declined to discuss in detail "the measures which has majesty's government have prepared to meet these and other possible developments," but promised a further statement at an early date.

Midland Girls Awarded Medals Camp Waldemar

Five Midland girls have returned from Camp Waldemar, near Kerrville, after six weeks of riding, swimming, shooting, playing golf and tennis, and canoeing.

Each girl was awarded an 11-star medal at the final banquet honoring the campers and 400 guests. The medals were awarded for outstanding work during the term, making the required number of camps and holding aloft the ideals of Waldemar.

Those honored were Ann Cleveland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reese Cleveland, a bronze medal; Allyne Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Kelly, a silver medal; Dorothy Jean King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. King, a bronze medal; Mary Martha Sivals, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Sivals, a gold medal; Dorothy Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Turner, a gold medal; and Marjorie Ann Cramer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cramer of Royalty, a bronze medal.

We, the Women

By Ruth Millett
Many a working girl is taking a new kind of "vacation" this summer.

Instead of spending her money on slacks and swim suits and bright sports dresses, and praying for nice weather and a few eligible men as she did in other years, she is sinking her money into the best looking street outfit she can find. And she's heading for a city and two weeks of job hunting instead of a beach and two weeks of swimming.

For five years or more she has hung on to a job she didn't much like in her home town where nothing ever happens, because she thought she was lucky to have any kind of a job at all.

Now she is hearing stories about how easy it is for a young woman with business training and experience to go into the city enjoying a defense boom, ask for a job—and get it.

So she's going to try her luck. Her plans are all made. She'll have at least ten days of job-hunting from morning to night. It may not sound like much of a vacation, but it will be an exciting one to the bored girl who sees at least a chance to get out into the world and tackle a new job.

NOT MATTER OF LIFE AND DEATH

Of course, she may not get the job. But if she doesn't she isn't going to be sick over it. She isn't telling her friends that she is turning her vacation into a job hunt, so she won't have to cope with any pity if she goes back home at the end of her two weeks' vacation the way she has always gone back in past years—broke and glad to have a job at which she can earn a pay check.

And, for a while at least, the old job will look good in comparison with the closed doors she found in the city.

But there's a good chance it won't turn out like that, and that she'll be writing her family to pack her trunk and send it on. "I have a JOB—starting at once. Hooray!"

It's a chance well worth taking.

There Is Knowledge Incomparable To Be Found In The Bible

By R. A. Weaver

And for this cause we also thank God without ceasing, that when ye received from us the word of the message, even the word of God, ye accepted it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which also worketh in you that believe. Thess. 2:13.

Bruce Barton once wrote a book titled, "The Book Nobody Knows." This was a book written about the Bible. The title indicated the lack of study and understanding of the revelations of God through man and spoken by men. While the Bible may be the book which nobody knows, yet it has always commanded the reverence and study of all races and nations since it was first written.

The Bible remains the best seller of all time. It still has the power to comfort the broken-hearted; give hope to the discouraged, and strengthen the weak and heavy-laden. It still has the influence on men and on nations, to change character, and build the fibre of manhood and integrity into peoples of all tongues, and to give rest to the weary. If all the books that have been written with the Bible as the central theme were gathered together there would be almost a countless number of tomes that have affected the life of man toward better things. There is no question about the great good and lasting benefit that have come down through the ages because of the Bible having been given to mankind.

The reason the Bible is so helpful to everyone who studies it, is because it has the needed remedies to adjust and correct the ills of life. It has the panaceas which all the world is seeking—and human nature is so complicated that these ills are numerous and intricate. In order to express the fulness of a full life, one must be able to secure a perfect balance between the physical, mental and spiritual trifolds of human personality. Without this equilibrium, a person becomes what we call "top-sided" and when this occurs there is no perfect peace, satisfaction or poise. Christianity, the central theme of the Bible is a religion which offers practical and workable living in which success, joy, peace and health are promised. These are produced by the power of God working in and through the individual and touching the planes of the triangular aspect of personality—mind, spirit and body. And these promises apply to the present day and to this present world.

It is not in heaven alone that the Christian finds the verities of life which make of one master over the material forces and impulses of the world in which we now live. Christianity works anywhere and everywhere, and it is able to make of this dwelling place a little heaven comparable to the highest of heavens that lie beyond the Milky Way, or the great dipper. In fact one may come to know that heaven is a state and that state may become the habitation of yourself here and now.

It is well for a person to be well read in all the different branches of science. Nothing but good can come from knowledge—knowledge of whatever field man's research has made advances—it is profitable to understand the mysteries of the physical sciences as well as the experiments into the realm of psychology. Knowledge and wisdom are part of the life and work of the man of God. It is not a sign of piety to be ignorant. But there is a wisdom that ranks above mundane knowledge and is of greater riches. And that is the knowledge of self and of life and of God and of eternal truth. High above the mists and the fog of mere mortal gropings for fame and fortune and the lure of ambition, there is the realm of spiritual understanding and when one ascends to this plane of living, all else seems only illusory and worthless. Here one may find the open sesame, and know that to live is to "walk with kings nor lose the common touch", and to become one with the power and majesty of the divine image.

As the disciple lives the normal life of one created a little below the angels, he finds much more to life and to the world in which he lives and moves and has his being. There is opened up to him the vision of true being, and the understanding is made receptive to the flow of inspiration from the Most High. This wisdom which ranks high above the man-made philosophies is what the Bible offers and actually contributes to all who seek her revelations. That is why the Bible is precious and priceless to humanity. That is why one should seek for the truth contained therein, more than fine gold or rare jewels. For the riches obtained from the Bible never perish, nor ever vanish from the possession of the seeker. "Every scripture inspired of God is profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; that the man of God may be complete, furnished completely unto every good work."

VACUUM DRIED CONCRETE MAY SPEED SHIPBUILDING

PHILADELPHIA. (UP)—The practicability of using concrete in shipbuilding—first approached in the World War—has come up again. Karl P. Billner, inventor of a newly-discovered vacuum dried concrete, says that hulls of 10,000-ton tankers could be built with the preparation in four weeks or less and still give the ship the same lightness and strength of steel.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By William E. McKenney, America's Card Authority.

Precision in the order of cashing top cards often pay dividends when a bad break develops. Today's hand was played by J. M. Mathews, Jr., of St. Louis, Mo. It illustrates the importance of taking ace and kings in just the right order.

The contract of six no-trump is warranted by the cards, for if the clubs break there are plenty of tricks. The opening lead was won by the ace of hearts.

Dummy led a low spade and the jack won. Another spade to the queen brought out the ace. East returned the ten of spades, forcing the king, and South let go a diamond.

Two top clubs were cashed, and the bad break was revealed. But with East holding the only stopper in the black suits, a squeeze was sure to follow. South cashed the top hearts, the queen of diamonds, then led to dummy's top diamonds, on the last of which East found it impossible to hold protection in both black suits.

This is a simple squeeze, such as occurs in one or two boards of every duplicate game. Yet Mathews was the only player in this duplicate game to bag it.

The other South players all began by trying to run the club suit, before knocking out the ace of spades, so that East, on getting in with ace of spades, was able to force out South's third club honor and kill the vital re-entry for the squeeze situation.

Economic Committee Prepares Firm's Data For Second Blacklist

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt's economic warfare committee is collecting a list of German and Italian firms in Europe and Asia as a nucleus of a new blacklist to supplement the recent compilation of 1,833 Latin American firms to which it is prohibited to export American goods.

Investigations to this end have been undertaken, it was learned, in Japan, China, Thailand, Sweden, Switzerland, unoccupied France, Spain, Portugal and Finland.

A record is being made of all firms in those countries which fall under the first category of the "proclaimed list of certain blocked nationals," as the original list was officially designated.

The category includes individuals and commercial organizations acting for, on behalf of, or under the direction or jurisdiction of Germany or Italy. A second classification included in the list was designed to cover non-German and non-Italian firms which served Axis interests.

Q. How long will Defense Bonds and Stamps be on sale?
A. Indefinitely. Secretary Morgenthau has emphasized that the Defense Savings Program is to be a continuing effort. Its success will be measured by the number of persons taking part, as well as by the amount of money raised, which is now in excess of $700,000,000.

Q. Is the purchase of Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps compulsory?
A. Absolutely not. Purchase of Bonds and Stamps represents voluntary action on your part. When you buy them you take your stand in the ranks of the National Defense Program. You automatically become a shareholder in your Government.

Note: To buy Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office or bank.

Fudge Will Analyze Soil-Grass Samples

Soil and grass samples of Midland County will be analyzed by Dr. J. F. Fudge, chemist at College Station, to determine the mineral content and value in cattle feeding.

Fudge with I. O. Starke obtained samples of soil and grass from all soil types of the county.

By the analysis, Starke hopes to obtain information valuable to ranchers and farmers, who graze stock.

Enough Rest Makes Happy Vacations

By Alicia Hart, NEA Service Staff Writer

The girl who, after a two weeks' vacation, comes back to the office looking fresh, rested, younger and prettier did not, you may be sure, get over-enthusiastic about exercise and sports during her holiday. She got plenty of exercise, of course, and she had fun in the lake, on the golf course, tennis courts or whatever. But she didn't wear herself all out trying to pack too many activities into so brief a time.

She had sense enough to realize that a body which had no exercise of any kind in a year wouldn't derive any benefit at all from a hectic round of sports and practically no rest.

She played a little golf, but she didn't try to break the record for the course. She went swimming, but she didn't try to swim a mile the first day or to out-dive the broad-shouldered life guard. She danced until dawn when she felt like it, but she didn't make a date to climb a mountain at seven in the morning following a night of dancing until three.

DIDN'T MAKE FETISH OF BEAUTY ROUTINES

She slept at least eight hours out of every twenty-four. She didn't worry about which eight hours, however, so sleeping never interfered with fun.

She had a better-than-average time because she managed to strike a happy medium between wearing no makeup, wrinkled slacks and sloppy blouses and spending too much time in a beauty shop or pressing her clothes or fussing with her face. She was clean and well-groomed every hour of the day, but she didn't make a fetish of her beauty routines.

She used suntan oil conscientiously and so didn't have to waste a lot of time trying to cure a bad sunburn.

She sunned her hair, but she didn't let it bake and dry out to the point where no less than fifteen hot oil treatments will get it back into shiny, healthy condition.

There were more than twice as many hogs in Guam in 1940 as any other type of livestock. Cattle ranked second in importance.

FOUR BROTHERS WITH COLORS

CHOCORUA, N. H. (UP)—Four sons of Mr. and Mrs. Adbert Fortier are scattered through the various armed services and a fifth is sitting on the front doorstep waiting for his draft questionnaire. Meanwhile a cousin, Edward, of Laconia, is on his way to Panama to bolster Canal Zone defense forces.

Midland Volunteers Attend Fire Course

T. A. Cole and Houston Oney, representatives of the Midland Volunteer Fire Department, are attending an annual Texas Fireman's School at College Station.

The school was scheduled to close Friday, National defense tactics and other fire-fighting methods were being studied.

TRAINEE TAKES SCHOOL BOOKS

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (UP)—A year's military training isn't going to stop Joseph B. Anderson, 22, from getting an education. Anderson, a senior at Kalamazoo central high school, was called in the draft, but he took text books with him.

Reagan Test in Ellenburger.
 It was reported Friday that Amara Petroleum Corporation No. 1-RA University had reached the Ellenburger in drilling and coring to total depth of 9,080 feet in lime and dolomite. String of 5 1/2-inch casing is being run to bottom. The pipe will be gun-perforated opposite zones from 8,900 to 9,080 feet which carried oil. The deep wildcat is in extreme Southeastern Reagan County.

Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation No. 1 B. F. Boren, deep try southwest of the Apo-Warner Ordovician pool in Northern Pecos County, topped Ellenburger dolomite at 4,490 feet and is drilling ahead below 4,514 feet. Elevation is approximately 2,469 feet. Operators stated the test had encountered first Ellenburger about 80 feet lower than Olson Oil Company and Bryce McCandless No. 1 V. W. Crockett, producer one-half mile east which found pay increases in granite wash after deepening from the regular Ellenburger horizon of the pool, which it extends two miles south-west.

Gulf and L. H. Wentz No. 1 L. H. Miller et al. six and one-half miles south of Girvin in Northeastern Pecos, is standing at 192 feet in yellow clay and lime after cementing string of 13 3/8-inch surface pipe. Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 20 State-Walton, headed for the Ordovician in Northern Winkler County between the Kermit and Keystone Permian pools, is drilling below 7,557 feet in hard lime. A core from 7,525-39 feet returned four and one-half feet of lime showing porosity and oil in the top one and one-half feet. Bottom three feet of the core were slightly porous and showed water.

Softer lime formation was being drilled Friday morning in Anderson-Prichard and Osage No. 1 Frances Brownfield Christmann, Eastern Tery County wildcat, as it reached depth of 5,355 feet. No shows have been logged.

Sport-Usan No. 1 J. E. Rice, scheduled 5,500-foot test in Northern Lynn County, is drilling in lime below 4,387 feet.

L. C. Harrison No. 1 Nairn Estate, Lubbock County wildcat, is shut down for repairs at 4,730 feet in Clear Fork lime.

SERIAL STORY

MURDER IN CONVOY

BY A. W. O'BRIEN

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: In England, Greg is sent to Alderholt Camp, where he buries himself in camp for the next three days. He is given a premature leave of absence, decides to go to London. He is low in spirits when he arrives, since, before arresting Joan, he had agreed to meet her in London at the "Welcome Snail" inn. When he arrives in London, he takes a cab, doesn't know where to go. Finally he tells the driver to take him to the "Welcome Snail."

JOAN IS WAITING

CHAPTER XII

FOR fully 15 minutes the little taxi twisted and turned through the night, Lieutenant Rollins remarking to himself that the gray-haired driver must have cat's eyes. At irregular intervals, two-decker buses roared by and melted again into the darkness. There were few, if any, autos other than taxis. Astonishingly few, too, were evidences of air raid damage.

Finally, his cab drew up beside a curb. A chubby little Frenchman in impeccable formal attire greeted him. "Bon soir, Monsieur. I am Pierre..." Then looking over Greg's shoulder, "You are alone, oui?"

The officer smiled. "Oui, I am alone."

"This way, Monsieur." Pierre turned toward the curiously narrow dining room, then stopped abruptly. "You are not, by any chance, Lieutenant Rollins, non?"

Greg halted in surprise. "Yes, I am Lieutenant Rollins, but how in the world..."

Pierre's face fairly beamed. He waved excitedly toward a table in the corner, and Greg's heart stood still. It was a dream. It must be... a cruel dream that... But, no, she was actually smiling at him and beckoning to the other chair. It was Joan Davaar!

As if in a daze, Rollins approached. Automatically, he removed his cap, tucked his cane under his left arm and bowed. Still automatically, he sat in the chair as Pierre placed it under him.

"Good evening, Greg, aren't you glad to see me?"

Rollins finally found his tongue. Impulsively he reached out his hands and clasped hers. "Of course I am, Joan. I'm so glad I could... no matter what..."

She laughed happily. "I knew you'd say that. You are a very lovable person, Greg. I phoned out to Aldershot this evening and found you had gone on leave. There was only one place I could lower his voice. Yes, it was Harry Miley. Poor Tees found out first!"

London streets—still blanketed in fog—are much the same as they always were.

he still held her hands in his across the table. "Forget it, Joan. You must have escaped, and you are in danger. What can we...?"

She laughed again, gently removing one hand. "Just a minute, Sir Galahad. I'm disobeying the strictest of orders in showing you this paper, but I'm a woman, too, and I'm afraid, rather in love!" She opened a folded letter from her purse.

GREG'S eyes widened as he read. It bore the letterhead of the British Intelligence and was signed by one of the most famous names in England!

The letter was addressed to "Agent R-72 Joan Connaught" and contained warm personal congratulations for "your most commendable counter-espionage work in connection with Troopship Convoy MX."

Mixed joy and bewilderment stood out on Greg's face. "But, Joan, what...?"

"I was planted in the German Embassy at Ottawa through devious channels 15 months before the outbreak of the war and, shortly before you sailed, I drew another assignment, to play the role of a nurse—with the name Davaar—on 'T 9'."

"I kept watching the light flashes from the battle cruiser in order to keep in touch with what was going on. I knew the code and was on guard lest the cruiser see the nightly searchlight business and warn our O. C."

Rollins interrupted. "Then the Nazi agent must have been..."

She made a motion for him to lower his voice. "Yes, it was Harry Miley. Poor Tees found out first!"

"That explains," murmured Rollins, "why he was so curious about you. He must have seen you approaching that night on deck, put two and two together when he saw you studying the cruiser signals and was on the watch for any secret discussions between us, just in case I was with you."

"Check. And, the night I caught him red-handed, there was no choice but to shoot him when he tried to go for his gun. I had just taken the flashlight from his hand when you came up from the rear. I couldn't reveal my identity to you, but did so privately to the colonel after you left. Secret papers were found in Miley's gas mask."

"It was on my suggestion that the quarantine scheme was employed. We had to cover up in order to let one of our men take Miley's place on shore until the seat of the Nazi ring is found in England. His job had evidently been to flash regularly each night at the same time from a high deck to guide any prowling U-boat flotillas."

GREG squeezed her hands. "That's the grandest news I've ever heard. Now how about us?"

"Not so good, Greg. I'm leaving on the midnight train. They've found another job for me—in the Balkans this time." She searched Greg's troubled eyes.

"But they can't, Joan, dear," he said in a hoarse whisper. "I've only found you again. Not so soon..."

"It's no use, Greg," she injected tenderly. "This is war, and I must go."

Rollins had already shown he could act when action was necessary.

"Then what would normally take months must be done in two hours," she spoke in measured tones. "Will you marry me tonight—now?"

There was no hesitation on the girl's part. She nodded.

Rollins jumped to his feet and picked her up from her chair.

Pierre was tapping their shoulders, his face reflecting supreme embarrassment, "Monsieur, Made-moiselle... pliz, you are in the 'Welcome Snail'..."

He turned as a gale of laughter swept through the little restaurant. Pierre, being a discerning head-waiter, quick to appreciate the moods of his customers, shrugged his shoulders in a gesture of tremendous helplessness.

"C'est la guerre!" he apologized.

Howe's Win 12-10 Tilt Over Central

Cure And Mosely Hit Doubles As Players Go On Scoring Spree

John P. Howe nudged Central Pharmacy, 12-10, Thursday night but the drugists never gave up. The tilt was tied 9-9 from the fourth inning to the sixth when the "girls in blue" got three.

Cure and Moseley hit doubles to spark the winning rally. Cure's single scored Reeves who had walked. Then Moseley smacked her two-baser, scoring Cure. Moseley later stole home.

Batting in its last half of the last frame, Central got a run when Britte Nell, hitting star of the game, smashed a double scoring Marcom. Nell hit a homer, triple, and the double in four trips.

The score was close all the way. Charlie Crawley of Central and Mickey Musgrove of Howe's pitched. Howe was handicapped by the absence of Kidwell, Moffett, and Smallwood, three regular infielders.

Hitting honors were divided. Cure, Moseley, Webb, Flicke, and Choate hit doubles for Howe. Flicke, Howe outfielder, hit a homer in the third inning, and got three four four.

Marcom got three hits in four trips for Central. Other Central bat stars were: Livingston with a double; Davidson, a double, and Montgomery, double.

The win kept Howe's out in front in city league play with four wins and one loss. Southern Ice is tied for second place with three wins and two losses. Central also has won three and lost two. Sewell Motors lost four.

Whirlaway Will Challenge Jinx Of Chicago Race

CHICAGO (AP.)—Whirlaway dares the grave yard of champions at Arlington Park Saturday.

The king of the American turf will go to the post the top heavy favorite in the $60,000 Arlington classic—a race in which many an odds-on favorite fell before the stretch charge of unheralded long-shots.

Remember what happened to Johnstown in 1939? After winning the Kentucky Derby by eight lengths and the Belmont by five, Johnstown went to the post in the classic at odds of 1-5 and finished third, six lengths behind the triumphant Challenged and Sun Love. Challenged's win price was $29.20.

Last year's Gallahadon, Kentucky Derby winner, and Bimelech, one of the biggest failures in turf history, staggered home behind the victorious Sirocco, which paid off at $28.20.

Back in 1931, Mate, at 5 to 1, conquered Twenty Grand which had set a record in winning the Kentucky Derby that year. Twenty Grand was an even money shot.

The Woodvale Farm's Our Boots is regarded as Whirlaway's principal rival, with Attention, entry of Mrs. Parker Corning, New York, as another contender. The others will be Bushwhacker, To A Tee, and Dally Trouble.

St. Louis Cardinals, Resembling Old Gas House Gang, Rally In 10th To Defeat Giants By 3 To 2 Score

By Judson Bailey Associated Press Sports Writer.

There never will be another "gas house gang" until there is another Pepper Martin, but the present St. Louis Cardinals are the next best thing.

They are hard-hitting, fast-running, never-say-die outfit with eight hitters batting more than 300 and seven pitchers with a winning percentage, four of them having a combined won-lost record of 36-11.

They have a bristling, fiery-eyed little boss named Billy (The Kid) Southworth, who plays his Cards with an abandon never equalled in the Major Leagues.

This explains how the Redbirds have performed such phenomena as winning 20 games by one run and how one pitcher, Lefty Ernie White, captured three contests in a many days to sweep a series from the New York Giants.

The Cardinals nosed out the Giants, 3-2, Thursday to bag their second-extra inning tilt in two days.

In the tenth Enos Slaughter singled and Jim Brown doubled for the winning run, giving the Cards their fifth straight victory and exclusive possession of the National League lead, a half-game ahead of the idle Brooklyn Dodgers.

Home Run Breaks Tie.

The defeat tossed the Giants into a fourth-place tie with the Pittsburgh Pirates, who edged out the Phillies, 3-2, in the ninth for their 19th victory in 26 contests.

Babe Dahlgren's sixth-inning homer, his 14th of the season, snapped a tie and gave the Chicago Cubs a 5-4 victory over his former teammates, the Boston Braves, in the other National League engagement.

The New York Yankees continued their triumphant stride at the front of the American League, beating the Cleveland Indians, 4-1, and stretching their first-place margin to 10 games. Charley Keller's 24th homer with one on in the fifth decided the issue, pointing the Yanks to their sixth straight victory and 37th in 43 games.

It was the 12th time they had beaten the Indians in 16 games.

The Philadelphia Athletics made 13 hits, including homers by Sam Chapman and Benny McCoy, to whip the St. Louis Browns, 9-7 and take over fifth place from the Detroit Tigers, who were beaten again by the Washington Senators, 6-5.

The Boston Red Sox retaliated for Wednesday's shelling by the Chicago White Sox with an 11-1 drubbing of the Chicago crew.

Fine Looking Pitcher Hurls Cardinals Back Into Loop Leadership

ST. LOUIS (AP.)—Who is this Ernie White who has pitched the St. Louis Cardinals right back into first place in the National League by racking up three mound victories in as many days?

Both the New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers, his chief victims, will tell you he's one fine, hard-working southpaw and they regret the day he ever changed his mind about becoming a first baseman.

Always clamoring for work, Ernie chalked up his tenth victory Thursday by stopping the Giants cold in relief role, just as he had the previous day to win No. 9. The day before he drew the starting assignment against Bill Terry's crew and recorded victory No. 8 although he did not finish the game.

The pennant-mad Dodgers have been set down three consecutive times by the 24-year-old southpaw, whose chief stock in trade is a dazzling fast ball mixed with a fair curve he has developed steadily under the guiding hand of the Cards' veteran catcher, Gus Mancuso.

He won 15 and lost six for Houston in the Texas League in 1939.
