Reagan County Gets New Ordovician Pool

Amerada Discovery On University Of Texas Land Flowing Estimated 250 To 500 Barrels Of Oil Per Day From Ellenburger Dolomite

Flowing an estimated 250 to 500 barrels of oil per day Amerada Petroleum Corporation Thursday opened Reagan County's second Ordovician pool.

Plug was drilled Wednesday from 5 1/2-inch casing cemented at 9,017 feet. Two-inch tubing was swung at 9,070, ten feet off bottom, and swabbing was commenced at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday.

The flow began at one a. m. Thursday and lasted for four hours, at which time the well died. Observers estimated production at 10 to 20 barrels hourly and gas volume at 750,000 cubic feet.

Elevation of the Amerada discovery is 2,768 feet. It went out of Permian-Pennsylvanian black shale at 8,905 into detrital formation composed chiefly of reworked Ellenburger, lower Ordovician. Top of

Board Authorizes Smaller Rate For Property Owners

AUSTIN (AP)—An 11-cent reduction in the state property tax rate for 1941 was ordered Thursday by the state automatic tax board.

Meanwhile, the state comptroller announced an increase in property valuations for tax purposes of approximately $89,000,000.

The reduction, from 27 cents to 16 cents, made in the rate for the available school fund will save taxpayers an estimated $3,630,000.

The total rate was set at 58 cents, 35 cents for the general fund, 16 cents for schools and seven cents for the confederate pension fund.

Compared with a total of 69 cents for last year, the general fund and pension fund rates were unchanged from last year.

A prospective cash balance of $1,269,000 in the school fund as of next Sept. 1 made possible the lower rate.

The board's action was unanimous on motion of State Comptroller Geo. Sheppard, Governor W. Lee O'Daniel and State Treasurer Charley Lockhart are other members of the board.

A reduction in the general fund rate was impossible, members agreed, because of an accumulated deficit of $30,000,000 and greatly increased expenditures authorized for next year.

Oil Causes Increase Valuations reported by the counties to the comptroller totaled $3,669,582,023 for 1941, compared with $3,580,407,685, an increase of $89,174,538.

Major cause of the increase, comptroller's attaches said, was oil development.

Wood County, with 1941 valuations of $8,781,190, reported an increase of $4,171,450, or 90.5 per cent, due largely to such cause. This was the greatest per cent increase among Texas' 254 counties.

Normal business development and community growth were suggested as other reasons for boosts.

Counties showing increases included the following (1941 valuations and increases over 1940 valuation): Ector $27,600,000 and $3,831,200; Jefferson $114,411,757 and $11,543,850; Jim Wells $16,705,690 and $4,123,480; Nueces $63,160,000 and $5,033,975.

A total of 117 counties reported decreases, including the following (1941 valuation and amount of decrease): Gregg $103,000,000 and $1,391,775; Marion $4,917,290 and $2,230,991; Smith $26,495,000 and $1,500,883; Ward $16,044,065 and $1,109,850.

LONDON (AP)—Harry L. Hopkins, President Roosevelt's military aid coordinator, now in Moscow discussing United States help for Russia, will return to the United States by some route other than London, it was reliably reported Thursday, indicating that he might travel through the Far East.

Oil Coordinator Asks 100,000 Service Businesses In East States Stop Sales At Night Time; Request Effective Aug. 3

WASHINGTON (AP)—In a move toward compulsory restriction on the use of gasoline, Secretary of Ickes Thursday called upon the oil industry to close 100,000 service stations in the eastern states from 7 p. m. to 7 a. m. seven days a week, effective Aug. 3.

The closings would affect all gasoline retail stations on the Atlantic seaboard from Maine to Florida.

Declaring that "voluntary rationing to date has not achieved the reduction which must be accomplished if we are to avoid a more serious situation later," Ickes spoke of the possibility of more serious rationing, including issuance of ration books.

"Unless this first action achieves results, it must be followed by other steps to accomplish our end," said the secretary, who is defense petroleum coordinator.

The recommendation for closing of service stations during night hours would be applicable "throughout the states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, the District of Columbia, and all marketing areas in or east of the Appalachian Mountains in the states of New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and West Virginia and such additional marketing areas in said states where and substantial part of the motor fuel supplied is either produced in any of said states, or shipped into such areas from any point east of such areas."

A severe raid by naval planes on the Norwegian port of Kirkenes, high above the Arctic Circle, and Finland's Arctic port of Petsamo, were announced by the admiralty.

It admitted the loss of 16 British planes, but it said at least four supply ships were hit, harbor works were pounded at Petsamo, four opposing planes were shot down and two hits scored on the 1,460-ton German warship Bremse, a pre-war gunnery training vessel, at Kirkenes.

German reports described the attack as a British-Russian collaboration—the first such joint military action since the U.S.S.R. became involved—and said 28 British planes launched from an aircraft carrier had been destroyed at a cost of only two Nazi planes.

The air ministry reported renewal after a weather-enforced lapse, of the air campaign against Germany and neighboring occupied territories with new overnight poundings in the Aachen and Cologne areas Western Germany.

Behind The Headlines

By DeWitt MacKenzie

Berlin's quiet insistence during the past twenty-four hours that Leningrad is about to fall compels our attention.

This former glittering capital of the Czars is the second city of all the Russians. Its loss would be a grave blow to the Bolsheviks and would create an immediate threat to the entire structure of the Stalin defenses.

Thus while we should be well advised to regard the situation with reserve, pending developments, the matter is insistent enough to call for a reexamination of what it will mean if the Hitlerites and their Finnish allies do get possession of this great industrial city of 3,200,000 inhabitants.

Here are some vital points for consideration:

Leningrad is Russia's sole remaining port on the Baltic. It is the bridge-head for a network of railroads which extend into the country in all directions.

Capture of Leningrad would cut the Soviet Union off from its naval forces in the Baltic altogether, leaving this homeless and wandering navy to the mercy of German men-of-war and bombers.

Plans Are Concealed Not only does Leningrad give Russia her all-important access to the Baltic, but it is one of the greatest industrial centers of the Soviet.

Here among other products are manufactured munitions of war, machinery of all sorts, chemicals and rubber.

But apart from what Leningrad means in itself, its capture would at once produce the menace of a German-Finnish turning movement against the Stalin line, which has its right flank anchored on the port of Leningrad.

This menace would be multiplied if the Nazis at the same time pressed their assault on the center of the Stalin line in the Smolensk area.

Now, of course we don't know what the plans of the Russian command are to meet such a situation. It would be a seven days' wonder, however, if the Reds hadn't worked out a very definite line of strategy.

Having foreseen war with Germany, they have for years been preparing for just such an emergency. We have seen the effects of that preparation in the great resistance they have made thus far. We shall get a further view of prospects as the battle of Leningrad develops.

Soviet Sources In London Announce Big Push As Germany Reports Troops Smash Seven Divisions Composed Of 105,000

By The Associated Press

Adolf Hitler's invasion armies may expect a vast counter-offensive by 3,000,000 Red Army troops within two weeks, Soviet military quarters in London predicted Thursday, while the Germans declared that Nazi columns smashing toward Leningrad had destroyed seven Russian divisions (about 105,000 men).

London sources said Red Army ranks which underwent the first violent shock of the German blitzkrieg were now being strengthened by hundreds of thousands of reservists for the predicted counter-drive.

Welles Declares Japan's Apology Is Insufficient

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sumner Welles, acting secretary of state, said Thursday Japanese apologies for the bombing of the U. S. gunboat Tutuila in China were insufficient to close the incident.

This government, he said, awaits a more complete reply from Japan to the American representations made here and in Tokyo.

Welles said that immediately upon being informed of the incident at Chungking Wednesday morning, a representative of the Japanese government called at the embassy in Tokyo and expressed deep regrets.

This was done, he said, before Ambassador Joseph C. Grew was able to carry out instruction to make representations.

Welles disclosed he had made identical representations here in a conference Wednesday morning with the Japanese ambassador, Admiral Kichisaburo Nomura.

Detailing to his press conference further Japanese moves in connection with the incident, Welles said the Japanese government made a further preliminary reply after Grew had carried out his instructions.

Until a more complete reply is received, Welles said he could make no further comment.

In reply to a question as to whether the preliminary reply was considered insufficient, Welles said that was a justifiable deduction.

Theaters Receive Big Contributions

Matinees at Midland's theaters Wednesday with a piece of aluminum the price of admission doubled the city's collection of metal for National Defense.

T. Paul Barron, director of the drive, announced a truck load of aluminum was collected in the entire campaign.

The aluminum will be sent to San Angelo, probably this week end. Arthur Judkins, county commissioner of Precinct three, brought in the largest collection from the rural districts.

The campaign opened Monday. The aluminum has not been weighed but Barron estimated several hundred pounds was given.

Axis Held Together With Haywire

What holds the Axis together? Is it hope of loot? Is it sheer overawing of Italy and Japan by the superior force of Germany? Is it desperation born of the thought of "What if we lose?" Is it a vast mutual international inferiority complex?

Maybe it's simpler than any of these. Maybe it's just haywire. Recent publicity efforts of the Axis powers suggest that the strain of the past 10 years has been too much, and that the much-vaunted ingenuity of Axis propaganda has exhausted itself and gone completely haywire.

If there is anything that a super-race and its super-by-courtesy hangers-on must never do, it is to appear ridiculous. Yet if anything could be more ridiculous than some of the recent efforts of Signor Gayda and the pupils of Dr. Goebbels, it would be hard to find it.

The Italian government-controlled newspapers are all sympathetic with the thought that the United States by its conduct is risking war. It is deeply concerned by the thought that American boys may be asked to continue military training for more than a year. For a country which was pitchforked into war by a single leader and without the ghost of a reason, a country whose every male child is from the age of 5 subjected to rigorous military training all of his life, such comments are so ridiculous as to result only in a long horse-laugh.

The crocodile tears of a Berlin paper, which charges that President Roosevelt is circumventing the rights of Congress, are equally ludicrous. It is hilarious for a country which threw its own Congress completely out the window eight years ago to take this stand in relation to an incident in which every American child of 7 knows that the President has put the issue squarely up to Congress.

Two countries which have openly avowed their intention to put an end to "decadent democracies" shed crocodile tears over the rights of democratic citizens and the functioning of freely elected democratic legislative bodies! It is to laugh.

How Most Unfortunate!

Hopkins To Talk Again With Reds Inaccessible Man

MOSCOW (AP)—Further conferences between Premier Joseph Stalin and Harry L. Hopkins, personal representative of President Roosevelt, were expected Thursday—the 40th of the Russian-German war—as the Soviet Army was reported battling the Nazi invaders to a standstill in vital sectors of the long battlefield.

Hopkins, who flew from London to Moscow Tuesday, was almost immediately granted an interview with the most important and most inaccessible man in Russia. He said he came to see Stalin at Roosevelt's request and he expected another meeting Thursday and perhaps several more before he leaves.

Hopkins saw his first Moscow air raid from a balcony Wednesday night, according to Erskine Caldwell, CBS Moscow correspondent. As the sirens sounded at midnight Hopkins watched the city's defenses go into action and then went down into a shelter.

Giving one of the few public reports of an interview with Stalin, Hopkins said in a press conference at the U. S. Embassy residence: "We discussed problems of supply, including types and quantity of materials that can be delivered to the U. S. S. R. I cannot presently speak of the details or quantities. "Stalin gave me a message to transmit to the president. He expressed his sincere appreciation to the president for his offer of assistance and declared he is certain the president and the American people are not mistaken in expressing their conviction that the Soviet people will play their role in crushing Hitler."

OPM Order May Prevent Strikes

By The Associated Press.

The Brooklyn Navy Yard and other defense works appeared likely Thursday to be exempted, pursuant to an OPM request, from an AFL electrical workers strike in New York City.

That walkout and a strike of the CIO Steel Workers Organizing Committee at the Timken Roller Bearing Company plant at Columbus, Ohio, were the principal strike controversies dotting that national scene.

Sidney Hillman, associated director of the Office of Production Management, made the request that the electrical workers go back to their jobs on defense projects, promising an immediate investigation by OPM of the union dispute with the Consolidated Edison Company.

Work has stopped on construction of a 16-story warehouse at the Navy Yard. The strike also has affected to a lesser degree the building of two super-drydocks and threatens to slow work on the $100,000,000 battleships Iowa and Missouri.

Rail Officials And Labor Submit Case To Mediation Board

CHICAGO (AP) — Railroad management and labor negotiators rrammed into a deadlock on revision of working rules, despaired of settling the issue among themselves and turned it over the National Railway Mediation Board Thursday.

They undertook, however, to negotiate a settlement of labor's demand for a multi-million dollar pay increase for 1,150,000 workers.

The nation's class 1 carriers hoped to effect economies in operating costs by altering working conditions and methods of establishing wages. When negotiations with organized labor started July 24, the management insisted on disposal of this issue before taking up the wage question.

A deadlock was reached Tuesday in conferences with delegates of the 14 non-operating unions and Wednesday night with those of the Big Five operating brotherhoods.

Nye Cites Big Losses In Service Argument

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reported heavy German losses in the Russian campaign were cited Thursday as an argument against pending legislation for the retention of selectees, national guardsmen and reserves in the Army longer than the present one-year service.

Senator Nye (R-ND), an opponent of the bill, raised this point as the Senate opened its second day of debate.

He told reporters there was reason to doubt that today's German Army was either as large or as efficient as before it entered the Russian campaign. He said he had received unofficial reports that the Germans were calling heavily on their reserves.

It followed, he argued, that the Nazis offered a less powerful threat to American security than any they could have presented a year ago when Congress voted conscription and decreed that selectees should be released after a year's service.

Dos Reales Club Is Feted With Bridge-Luncheon

Mrs. H. W. Deax, 1400 W Ohio, feted the Dos Reales Club with a bridge-luncheon, Wednesday at one o'clock.

Summer flowers in shades of bronze and yellow were employed in floral appointments.

After the two-course luncheon had been served at quartet tables, the time was devoted to bridge. Tallies from Santa Fe, featuring an Indian theme, distinguished accessories for the games. High score was held by Mrs. Lloyd Haseltine and second high by Mrs. Fred Kotyza.

Present were one guest, Mrs. Haseltine, and the following club members: Mmes. Burt Atkinson, E. S. Hitchcock, J. A. Jorgensen, Kotyza, H. T. Newson, Jerry Phillips, J. C. Williamson, and the hostess. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Williamson.

Tennis Clothes May Spotlight Figure Faults

By Alicia Hart
NEA Service Staff Writer

Many a woman whose street and evening clothes always are ultra-flattering somehow seems to get all mixed up when it comes to active and spectator sports outfits.

It's pretty amazing to see a girl who never wears tight, slim skirts because she thinks the shape of her legs not quite good enough to stand such severe lines, blossom out on the tennis court in short, unpleated shorts. Or to see one who always wears a girdle under day dresses refuse to wear a panty girdle under slacks.

SPORT CLOTHES ARE JUST AS REVEALING

If your neck and shoulders are so thin that you always choose covered over rather than décolleté dance frocks, why is there any reason to believe that halter tops are going to be smart with slacks? Wouldn't sheer, cool blouses with very short sleeves be a better idea?

If you are more than size 18, think twice before you buy inexpensive slacks. Generally speaking, slacks for larger women should be impeccably tailored—another way of saying that they'll be fairly expensive.

REMEMBER YOUR FIGURE FAULTS

If you indulge yourself in sheer, sheer stockings because you know your ankles and calves are just a little too thick to risk slightly more sturdy hose, then don't make the mistake of wearing ankle socks with play clothes. Ankle socks make ankles look thicker.

If you spend a great deal of time looking for day dresses with subtly placed fullness that conceals the fact that you are flat-chested, don't spend less time searching for a bathing suit which also will conceal your figure faults. And don't forget that a bathing suit with a flared skirt will hide a tendency toward hippiness.

We, the Women

By Ruth Millett

There are some things no woman who fancies herself attractive likes to hear. So if you want to please, don't make any of the following comments to a woman who still "cares":

Don't ask her if she hasn't gained a few pounds. Even in the case of a thin woman who goes around bemoaning the fact that she can't gain weight, it's safer to assume she is really proud of her streamlining and that her complaining is only a harmless way of calling attention to it.

Don't (especially if you're a man) rave about how attractive some other woman is—or what a wonderful cook, if you're talking to a woman who prides herself on her own cooking. Even if you are raving about how pretty a woman's daughter is, it's nice to see a resemblance between her and her mama.

Don't tell a woman how much she looks like some other woman. That's not flattering—unless you are talking to a sixteen-year-old girl, and then you'd better find a resemblance between her and some other high school girl.

NO WOMAN WILL APPRECIATE THESE

Don't say to a woman, even if she is your contemporary, "When we were young—" or "We old folks." She won't appreciate it one bit.

Don't guess a woman's age, even if she asks you, unless you underestimate it considerably.

Don't tell a woman that you saw a man she is, or was once, interested in, with another woman.

Don't say "at HER age" about a woman who is about the same age as the woman to whom you are talking.

If you disobey any of these rules, you needn't expect a woman to feel kindly toward you.

ELK FORGOT MANNERS TO WOO LADY NICOTINE

SOUTH END, Wash. (UP)—Game Protector Josh Allen would be happier if his herd of North river elk hadn't taken up with Lady Nicotine.

Not that he minds their moral delinquency, he said—but they're becoming a traffic hazard. Allen said that elk now were in the habit of going on to the highway at all hours to "mooch" cigarettes from motorists.

Elk don't inhale. They chew.

Mrs. Inman Has Luncheon And Bridge For Club

Covers were laid at one large table when Mrs. C. R. Inman, 100 South F street, was hostess to the Wednesday Luncheon Club, at one o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Zinnias were party flowers.

After luncheon, bridge games were diversion for the group.

Present were one guest, Mrs. O. C. Harper, and the following club members: Mmes. Preston Bridge-water, Prentice P. Brown, Walter Collins, Ralph Cooley, Robert Dewey, Vaughn Maley, Ed Reichardt, and the hostess.

Mrs. Bruce McKague will be hostess to the next meeting of the club.

Party Celebrates Fifth Birthday Of Donald Dickinson

Donald Dickinson, who celebrated his fifth birthday anniversary Wednesday, was honored by his mother, Mrs. J. E. Dickinson, with a party at their home, 712 Cuthbert, Wednesday afternoon from 3:30 o'clock to 5.

Guests were entertained in the yard. Games were played with prizes going to Billy Mims and Marilyn Gilbreth.

At the refreshment hour, the pink-and-white birthday cake was lighted by pink candles.

Rubber balls were distributed as favors.

Texas White House Prepares For Marriage Of Pretty Molly O'Daniel, Eighth Mansion Bride, Thursday

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas White House Thursday seethed with last-minute preparations for the wedding of winsome Molly O'Daniel, daughter of Governor and Mrs. W. Lee O'Daniel, to Jack Devereaux Weather, Jr., young East Texas oil company executive.

The governor has invited all Texas to the nuptials at 8 p. m. when the 19-year-old youngest child and only daughter of the O'Daniels will become the wife of the 23-year-old University of Texas alumnus to climax a campus romance.

The wedding, to be witnessed actually only by friends who received engraved invitations, will be the biggest event at the mansion since free barbecue and lemonade were served thousands after the governor's second inauguration last January.

When the family moved into the mansion two and a half years ago, Molly was forbidden to slide down the long banister of the staircase which she will descend on the arm of her father to become the eighth mansion bride.

The first was Miss Mary Goodwin Hall, niece of Governor E. J. Davis, who on Jan. 31, 1872, was married to George T. Sampson and the most recent was Miss Helen Ince, niece of Mrs. James V. Allred. Miss Ince was the bride of James H. Blundell and wedding occurred during the second term of Governor Allred.

Arrived by air Wednesday for Molly's wedding was a 150-pound wedding cake, described as a symphony of hearts, chaste rosebuds and doves making love to each other. The cake, three feet high and two and a half wide at the base was a four-tiered confection baked by a Dallas pastry expert.

Molly's attendants will include Mrs. Mace Stewart as matron of honor, Miss Mary Katherine Elliott as maid of honor, and Misses Dorothy Schneider, Ruth Collins, Betty Lou Foster, Audrey Louise Jones, Virginia Berry, Madeline Dobbs and Mrs. Roger Hoffman.

The groom will have Addison P. Moore, III, as best man and the ushers will be Pat and Mike O'Daniel, James Cogdell, Raymond Friedlander, George Clark, M. W. Laird, Cecil Gauldin, Jr., and R. N. Smith.

The bridal procession will start at the head of the hall stairs and proceed to an improvised altar at the rear of the gold room on the lower floor where Rev. M. E. Sadler, pastor of the Austin Central Christian Church, will perform a double-ring ceremony.

The decorative scheme will include huckleberry, white asters, gladioli, calla lilies, dahlias, white roses and kentia ferns and palms, satin ribbon, candelabra, pedestal baskets and satin drapes will form altar and room decorations.

The bride's table in the state dining hall will bear the cake around which will be laid soft garlands of white French maline gathered into tufts centered by gardenias. Punch will be served from silver bowls on each end of the family dining room table.

Mrs. Hubon Holton of Fort Worth will sing "Because" and Mrs. Sylvia Davis of New York will play "At Dawning" on a fern-concealed organ.

The bride will wear a regal gown of lustrous pearl tulle with long sleeves. From a basque waistline, the full skirt will be draped into a deep, fan-shaped train.

A veil of imported bridal illusion will match the gown's satin tone and fall in circular tiers from a Mary Stuart cap of shirred illusion embroidered with seed pearls. Molly also will wear a cultured pearl necklace and diamond bracelet, the gift of the groom.

Her bouquet will contain a cluster of white orchids from which will cascade gardenias and sprays of white stephanotis backed with loops of ivory maline.

The bride's attendants will wear identical marquisette dresses of Dresden blue with high necklines of chantilly lace. Mrs. O'Daniel will wear a marquisette dress of heavenly blue shade and Mrs. Weather, Sr., a model gown fashioned of white chiffon. Both mothers will have corsages of lavender orchids.

A Pietro two-piece suit of grey pacaui with the coat softly tailored and studded with metal buttons will form Molly's traveling costume.

A mansion announcement said the bride and groom would fly to California on their honeymoon and then to Washington for O'Daniel's oath-taking. From there, the couple expected to go to New York and Canada, returning to a home in Dallas about Sept. 1.

Ward County Nurse And Pyote Methodist Minister Are Wed

MONAHANS (Special)—The marriage of Miss Lucille Mauldin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mauldin of Monahans, to the Rev. Lance Hurst of Pyote has been announced. The single-ring ceremony was performed at the Methodist parsonage in Pecos last Thursday evening with the Rev. Mr. Hill, pastor, officiating.

Mrs. Hurst has served as Ward County health nurse since January, 1939. She came here from Weslaco where she held a similar position. She is a graduate of the college of nursing, John Sealy Hospital, University of Texas, and has done post-graduate work at George Peabody Teachers College at Nashville, Tenn. She recently returned from Nashville where she had taken a summer course in Red Cross home nursing.

The Rev. Hurst is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hurst of Spur, Texas, and is a graduate of Texas Wesleyan College, Fort Worth. He is an instructor in the Pyote high school, and is pastor of the Pyote and Wickert Methodist churches. He taught at McAadoo in 1939.

Following the ceremony, the couple left for a short wedding trip to Carlsbad, and Ruidoso, New Mexico, and El Paso. They are making their home at Pyote.

Two birthday cakes were lighted by candles.

After the picnic supper, the evening was spent in conversation.

The starting lineup against the pro champions, in addition to the Michigan pair, will consist of Dave Rankin, Purdue, and Ed Ruessink, Indiana, ends; Nick Drahos, Cornell, and Ernest Pannell, Texas Aggies, tackles; Augie Lio, Georgetown, and Tommy O'Boyle, Tulane, guards; Rudy Mucha, Washington, center; George Franck, Minnesota, at halfback opposite Harmon, and George Paskvan, Wisconsin, fullback. REBELS SQUEEZE OUT 5-4 VICTORY
By The Associated Press.

Clinging to third place in the Texas League, the Dallas Rebels squeezed out a 5-4 victory when Heinz Becker knocked a lousy three-bagger and was singled home by Lloyd Rigby in the final inning of a game with the Beaumont Exporters Wednesday night.

Reliable old Ed Greer hurled a three-hit shutout to permit the Cats to triumph 5-0 over the Shreveport Sports at Fort Worth. The Cat offensive got underway in the fifth when Rabbit McDowell's triple scored two men.

A good pitching job for the Oklahoma City Indians by Pete Mallory went for naught when his teammates dropped a 2-1 decision to the cellar-dwelling San Antonio Missions at Oklahoma City.

The Tulsa Oilers, playing at home, managed to tie the Houston Buffs 3-3 when Ed Zydowsky homered a moment or two before rain broke up the contest in the eighth inning.

Kovacs Is No Longer Life Of Tennis Party

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y. (AP)—Frank Kovacs isn't the life of the party any longer. The once hilarious Hungarian admits he isn't playing tennis for laughs this year, but he denies that he isn't playing to win either.

"Maybe my record isn't as good as it was last year," lanky Frank said Wednesday, "but I'm just as anxious as ever to beat the other boys."

The Oakland, Calif., star, side Wednesday when rain washed out the entire third-round program of the 51st annual Meadow Club tournament, says he can't win unless he's completely relaxed.

Cardinals Beat Brooklyn To Get Three-Game Lead
By Judson Bailey
Associated Press Sports Writer.

The St. Louis Cardinals have the class that distinguishes a champion and barring a miracle—or a catastrophe—they are likely to proceed to the National League pennant.

They have plenty of pitching, fine fielding and marvelous power—eight hitters batting over 300 and one who was 299 in the last official averages. But most of all they have the stamina and courage that is required to come from behind and win the close games—the battles that count.

This was the way they beat Brooklyn Wednesday, 6-4, to take a three game lead over the Dodgers in their pennant tussle. The Dodgers scored a run in the first and then were held to one scratch hit for the next five frames while the Redbirds pulled into a 3-1 lead.

The Dodgers got a run back in the seventh through an error and in the eighth Pete Reiser hit a home run with one on to put Brooklyn in front 4-3.

This only caused the Cardinals to strive harder and they immediately ripped off three runs in their half of the eighth to sew up the game. Walters Wins Thirteenth

The Pittsburgh Pirates yielded third place to Cincinnati again by dropping a 3-2 ten-inning verdict to the Boston Braves while the Reds were pelting the New York Giants 9-0. Bucky Walters acquired his 13th triumph in the latter affair, although giving 11 hits.

The Phillies and Chicago Cubs split a double-header. A six-run fifth inning gave the Phils the first session 8-4. Chicago captured the nightcap 5-3.

Action in the American League was confined to two night games. Washington beat the Cleveland Indians 7-1 and Bob Feller failed for the third straight time to snare victory No. 20. He was not charged with the loss because he was removed for a pinch-hitter during a two-run Tribal rally in the ninth. But with Joe Heving and Harry Eisenstat on the mound, Washington came back with two runs of its own on doubles by Doc Cramer and Cecil Travis.

The Philadelphia Athletics squeezed out a 5-3 victory in 11 innings over the Chicago White Sox with Sam Chapman accounting for all the A's runs on two homers.

Club Encampment Opens Thursday
Formal opening of the two-day annual encampment of Midland County home demonstration clubwomen and 4-H club girls was scheduled for 2 p. m. Thursday as Cleveland Park.

Says Nation's Firms Will Lose Hired Man

EAST LANSING, Mich. (UP)—Economists of Michigan State College believe that the one-time backbone of the nation's farms—the hired man—is on his way to obscurity.

Many reasons are listed for their contention. It is pointed out that mechanized equipment, such as mowers and milkers, are doing most to make the hired man's help unnecessary.

In addition, economists point out that the draft and the lure of higher wages in cities' stepped-up production industries are discouraging any apprenticeships on farms.

When Frying Fish Use Method That Retains Flavor

By Mrs. Gaynor Maddox NEA Service Staff Writer Fish, one of our most abundant foods, can be used in the menu in place of meat. It is an excellent protein, and if Americans use more of it, fish can be made one of our cheapest sources of high-grade protein.

Like all good cooks, you probably keep dozens of favorite fish recipes tucked away in your bag of cooking tricks, but have you learned the real secret for preparing fish in such a way that all the delicate flavor is retained? First, do not overcook them, and, second, if you plan to deep-fry them, use a pure, bland salad oil—nothing strongly flavored, because you don't want your fish to taste of the fat in which they're fried.

FRENCH FRIED FISH FILLETS Desired number and kind of fish fillets, 1 egg, well beaten, with 1 tablespoon water, crumbs, corn meal, flour or potato meal, salt, pepper, bland salad oil for frying. Wash fillets in cold water, drain on absorbent paper. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Dip first in dry coating (crumbs or other if preferred), then in egg mixture and again in dry coating. Place in deep salad oil—375-385 degrees F., or hot enough to brown a 1-inch cube of bread in 40-50 seconds.

One pint milk made of 1/2 cup dry skim milk and 1 pint water, 1 1/2 pounds fresh haddock or other fish, or 1-pound can salmon, 2 cups diced potatoes, 1 cup diced carrots, 1 pint water, 1/2 cup diced salt pork, 2 tablespoons chopped onion, 2 tablespoons flour, salt and pepper. Cut the fish into small pieces and remove the bones and skin. If using raw fish, cook it and the potatoes and carrots in the water for 15 minutes. Fry the salt pork until crisp, remove from the fat, cook the onion in the fat for a few minutes, add the flour, stir until well blended, and add the milk. Add this mixture to the cooked vegetables and the cooked fish or canned salmon. Simmer 10 minutes longer, stirring frequently. Add the salt pork and season to taste with salt and pepper.

TOMORROW'S MENU Breakfast: Blackberries, shredded wheat, top milk, raisin toast, coffee, milk. Luncheon: Tuna, celery and green pepper salad, enriched bread sandwiches, cheese, bananas, tea, milk. Dinner: French fried fish fillets, mashed potatoes, broiled tomatoes, watercress salad, lemon gelatin, custard sauce, coffee, milk.

C. I. O. And Labor Affiliate Pulls Neatest Lobbying Job In Long Time Beating Selective Service In House

By Peter Edson The Midland Reporter-Telegram Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON.—Chaff up for C.I.O. and its affiliated Labor's Non-Partisan League the neatest job of lobbying that Washington has seen in a long time.

The result of the lobby was the defeat in the House, 220-149, of the Connally-May amendments to the Selective Service bill which in brief would have authorized the President to take over national defense plants where production is threatened by labor disputes, and authorize Army and Navy to keep defense plants open during labor disputes. Those amendments, tacked onto the bill without hearings, had been considered fairly sure of passage, as they were the first of the so-called defense-labor bills to reach the floor. But so effectively was the CIO-LNPL lobby organized that at least 100 congressmen were persuaded to vote against the amendments, giving the labor forces one of the biggest victories in months.

The real story of how the labor lobby worked is just now coming out. Congressman Howard Smith of Alexandria, Va., chairman of the House committee which investigated the National Labor Relations Board last year, referred to the lobby as a "goon squad" but it was anything but that. The lobby was made up of the best-looking, the smartest, and the highest type of labor representatives that the C.I.O. unions could find. They were recruited from all over the country. They were carefully schooled, not only in what they were to say, but what they were not to say. The importance of being courteous to the congressmen was stressed, and also the fact that there must be no threats, not even of withdrawal of labor support at the next election.

General credit for organization of the labor lobby goes to four men—John T. Jones, C.I.O. legislative representative and director of Labor's Non-Partisan League; Lee Pressman, C.I.O. general counsel; Len DeCaux, editor of C.I.O. News; and a newcomer, Russ Nixon, an assistant to Jones. For the last five years Nixon has been at—of all places—Harvard University, getting himself a Ph.D. degree, doing a little teaching in labor relations, acting as secretary of the Massachusetts branch of the LNPL. He has been in Washington only a few months, but if the organization of this type of labor lobby is in any sense his work, the affable young man will be heard of further.

Organization of the lobby began on Friday, June 13. The Vinson bill, providing for cooling-off periods and arbitration of labor disputes, was scheduled to be called up in the House for June 23. The four men named above, deciding that something had to be done to check the flood of "anti-labor" legislation being proposed in both Houses, sent out calls on Friday the 13th to over 30 of their international unions, asking them to send in four or five of their best men for two weeks' work in Washington. Then the Vinson bill was laid on the table and the Connally-May amendments substituted.

Nothing much happened during the week of June 29-July 5, and the original delegations went home, but not before C.I.O. headquarters had sent out a call for a July 7 meeting in Washington of six picked delegates from each C.I.O. international and two from each LNPL state headquarters. In all, about 250 came to town. They were immediately given a course in how to lobby, without benefit of the usual lobbyists' tricks—the cocktail party with entertainment. This was strictly an open, business-hours lobby.

Turning On The Pressure. The men were split up into geographical units. They were given lists of the congressmen from their states and lists of the unions in each congressman's district. They were told where the congressmen's offices were, and they were told the procedure to calling congressmen off the floor and buttonholing them in the corridors of the Capitol itself. There were some amusing sidelights here. Some of the labor men, respectfully, didn't think they should bother the honorable congressmen while they were in session. The boys got over that as soon as they were shown congressmen napping in the cloak-rooms, reading newspapers on the floor, and in general playing horse all over the place.

Where the going was a little tough, wires went out to the local unions in the congressman's home district. And wires came back from the local unions to the congressman, telling him how his constituents felt about this legislation. This double pressure will get almost any congressman, almost every time, and it worked here, perfectly. The strictly amateur character of the lobby was one of its strongest assets. There wasn't a lawyer in the bunch, and it didn't operate as lobbies usually do, with form letters and city slickers. Some of the lobbyists were talked out of their positions on the first call on their congressmen, but they came back to headquarters, got new answers, and went back to outtalk even the congressman.

Service Board Gets List For 70 Registrants

The Midland County draft board received its master list for 70 registrants on the second registration day and order numbers were assigned them.

The board determined the order numbers by cross checking its county list with the master list. Registrants' names inserted in the county list will be inserted in the county list in the ratio of 20 to 1, that being determined by dividing the 70 names into the complete number of names on the roll after the number already inducted or disposed of had been subtracted.

Three hundred and fifty-five registrants had been disposed of on the first registration list. This number was subtracted from the total of 1851. It was divided by 70 and the 21 thusly determined. Twenty-one was added to 355 and the first order number 376 obtained. The list of Midland County registrants on "S-Day" with order numbers follows:

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By William E. McKenney
America's Card Authority.

I only hope every bridge player in the United States will some day have the privilege of visiting Salt Lake City. Never before have I met so many people with such nice dispositions. In Mrs. George B. Corey's Bridge Club in the Utah Hotel they play bridge just as hard as any place else, but I believe there is less argument over bridge in Salt Lake City than any place I have been. For example, there was plenty of room for argument on today's hand. North won the opening lead with the king of hearts and led the deuce of diamonds. Declarer ruffed. East laid down the king of clubs.

South pounced on it with the ace and led a low diamond, again forcing East. The ten of clubs then brought out South's queen, and South led a third diamond. That gave declarer his contract, as he was able to take out trumps, ending in dummy, and cash the clubs.

North might have blamed South for the persistent diamond leads, pointing out correctly that a second heart lead by South would have killed dummy and set the contract at once.

West might have blamed his partner for taking out the double of four diamonds. Indeed, there was some discussion as to whether this contract can be made. What do you think about it?

Official Says Autos Will Not Be Inferior

DETROIT (UP)—Notes of the automobile industry.

There is no need for fear that diversion of strategic materials to defense industries will result in building of inferior cars during the 1942 model season, according to Charles F. Kettering, vice-president of General Motors Corp. "The industry will not make an inferior car," he declared. "There are lots of substitute materials which can be used without lowering the quality of the car—in fact, the emergency may result in improvements."

Despite need for vital defense materials, including steel, aluminum and chrome, is one of the factors prompting curtailment of new car production, effective Aug. 1. The output slash may be as much as 50 per cent.

Winner Of National Pennant May Win 100 Contests This Year

NEW YORK (UP)—For the first time in 30 years and the second time in the 64-year history of the National League, the century mark in victories will be surpassed this season by two clubs—not only the pennant-winner but the second-place contender—judging from the breakneck pace to date of the St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers.

So tightly have the Cards and Brooks been bunched in their battle for the league lead that the senior circuit flag chase has had the aspect of anything but a runaway affair. Yet in all National

RURAL TEACHERS SCARCE
PLENTYWOOD, Mont. (UP)—Olaf Aasheim, Sheridan county superintendent of schools, says the draft and defense work has caused a shortage of teachers in the county. A few weeks ago there were only eight vacancies in the county's rural schools, now there are 23.

League history only once has any spring-blooming wonder team succeeded in reaching the 50 mark in the win column before July. In 1912, John McGraw's champion Giants of 1911 on their way to their next pennant, registered their 50th victory on June 29.

The next earliest date in the all-time book is July 3, when the 1907 Chicago Cubs won their 50th. Since 1912, in 29 years, no National League pacesetter has reached the half-century as early in the calendar as has been achieved by both the Cardinals and the Dodgers.

Fewer Physicists In United States

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—The country's reserve of physicists is being drained rapidly, according to expert opinion here.

Two physics professors, Dr. Clarence A. Hodges of Temple University and Dr. Gaylord P. Harnwell of the University of Pennsylvania, cited two basic reasons for this lack of highly trained technicians. First, they said government defense laboratories are competing with one another in hiring research workers. Second, they reported that only a few students are majoring in advanced physics. Hodges said that the number of students interested in research physics is even smaller than 10 years ago.

Temple Reports Few
"If the government is going to demand more physicists in the coming years, I don't know where it is going to get them," he added.

Temple has a total undergraduate enrollment of 2,800 full-time students but only a half dozen are majoring in physics. Numerous other students are taking courses in the subject but only as a preparation for other careers.

TOWN'S ONLY DOCTOR TO ARMY
HALLSTEAD, Pa. (UP)—Hallstead, population 1,293, will have to remain healthy as its contribution to national defense. Dr. Forest F. Smith, a reserve officer and the town's only doctor, has been called to serve as a captain in the 109th Regiment, 28th Division.

SPITFIRES ROLL OUT IN 2 DAYS
LONDON (UP)—Spitfires are now being completed within 48 hours in British factories. Less than two days after the parts reach the assembly line, the "Miracle Workers" wheel the finished fighter to the test flight airfield.

Chemical Plant Growth Provides Larger Yield
SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (UP)—Experiments with plants grown in chemical solutions without soil have led to increased yields and improved quality, but too many persons expect fantastic results from soilless growth, Dr. O. Wesley Davidson, a biochemist experimenting with the method, believes.

Davidson, associate biochemist directing floricultural research for the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station at Rutgers University, said soilless growth usually permits an improved crop because all elements of growth can be controlled.

Fight Impends Over Hobo King Election
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UP)—Dr. J. Leon Lazarowitz has opened his campaign here for re-election as president of the Hobo Fellowship.

Lazarowitz, claimant to the title of "King of the Hoboes" and holder of degrees from three universities, said he would seek re-election at the organization's national convention at Britt, Ia., Aug. 10.

His claim to the title is disputed by Jeff Davis, also prominent in migratory circles. Concerning labor unrest in defense industries, Lazarowitz said: "The trouble with labor is there is too much of it."

Stadium Series Might Hit Snag

NEW YORK (UP)—Notes from the major league baseball circuit: Brooklyn's high standing in the National League at this late stage of the baseball season has engendered a fiery debate among Dodger fans throughout the city. On one hand, there's a school of thought that believes if both the New York Yankees and Dodgers win their respective pennants, all games of the 1941 World Series should be staged in Yankee Stadium because of the increased seating capacity, thus enabling more Brooklyn fans to see their Dodgers while the Yankees.

The other half is just as concerned with keeping National League pennant-winners in their home parks for the World Series and that's all there is to it.

What neither side seems to have taken into consideration is the attitude of Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis. It's hardly possible that the silver-haired guardian of baseball's integrity would permit a National League club to perform as hosts for their half of the series in an American League park. He hasn't been approached as yet for an official or unofficial opinion but his answer would be couched somewhat along those lines.

California Sets Up Authority For Convicted Youth

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—California is the first state to create a new, model Youth Correction Authority intended to handle more effectively convicted youths of the older adolescent age.

It will operate on behalf of that younger class of criminals which comes between the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and the courts that deal more or less with persons that can only be ranked as hardened criminals or who have committed crimes of such a seriousness that the heavier penalties must be exacted.

Its jurisdiction will be limited to convicted persons under the age of 23.

The model project originally was prepared by the American Law Institute, which Elihu Root, William Howard Taft and other distinguished figures of the American bench helped found.

The institute is engaged in re-vamping the civil and criminal laws of the country, endeavoring to make them similar in the various states and more in keeping with the spirit and progress of the present day.

Other Programs Pending

The model law for a Youth Correction Authority, as drawn up by the institute and adopted in California, was characterized by former Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes of the U. S. Supreme Court "as the most important constructive suggestion for dealing with the crime problem that has been made since the original probation and juvenile court legislation."

Projects for the adoption of the same law are pending in a number of states.

The Youth Corrective Authority will consist of a board of three directors, one of them will be appointed by the governor on his own choice while the other two will be chosen by him from a list of persons drawn up by the advisory panel, consisting of the president of the California Conference of Social Work, California Probation and Parole Officers' Association, California Medical Association and of the Prison Association of California.

The courts will have the right to commit to the new authority persons whom they have convicted and feel should be accorded another chance.

Soldiers Form 'Keep 'Em Happy' Clubs To Keep Girls Back Home True And Morale Up

By Merrill Pannitt
Written for NEA Service

CAMP ROBINSON, Ark. — How would you like to spend eight hot hours crawling around in the dust, listening to a sergeant demand "Action!" and then return to your tent to find a letter like this from your one and only:

"Dear Joe,
"Things are really picking up at home—three dances this week. George Splevin took me to all of them in his new summer formal outfit and believe me, he looked swell."

You wouldn't like it, buddy, you wouldn't like it any more than do thousands of soldiers in Uncle Sam's training camps who are receiving letters like that every day.

The "Keep 'Em Happy" Club is trying to cope with such situations which, Army officials admit, present a problem in morale. Of course we won't suffer defeat on the battlefield because Joe Smith is worried about his girl friend at home, but Joe probably will train better—and fight better—if his mind is off his heart.

A happy soldier is a good soldier. That is why the Army has a large and important Morale Branch in Washington that reaches into every fort, camp and base in the nation.

The girl back home can do the new Army a lot of good, Capt. Frances E. Conder, morale officer at Ft. Harrison, Ind., believes, if

Anatomist Declares Upright Posture Is Man's Big Mistake

BERKLEY, Cal. (AP) — Perhaps the greatest physical mistake man ever made was when he decided to stand upright and walk only on two legs. That is the belief of Dr. Verne T. Inman, anatomist of the University of California.

Dr. Inman told a session of the American Physiotherapy Association that while it was this decision that made man's present intellectual development possible, it left him with a body inadequate to the demands of modern life.

This prehistoric departure from his normal posture, Dr. Inman said, is accepted now as the cause of man's ills which come after 30, such as a depressed kidneys, varicose veins, infected sinuses, flat feet, low back pains, warped spines and flabby legs.

Gorilla Old At 30

"By the age of 30," Dr. Inman said, "an animal like a gorilla is ready to die. Its body has served its purpose. But man, by the use of his brain, has extended his life and must face many years of increasing weakness, senility and pain with a body that is already out of style."

"Human beings possess a very primitive anatomy. They do not have the advanced, specialized structures that mark such animals as the whale, the dog and the cat," he pointed out. "Man's body was created for locomotion on all four feet in horizontal manner and not on two feet in a perpendicular manner."

Lightning Bolt Brings Happiness

FORT WORTH (UP)—The bolt of lightning that struck 4-year-old Bobby Fletcher in his log cabin home in the mountains of northern Alabama 37 years ago made him deaf and carved for him a profession that has made persons happy.

Bobby now is the Rev. Robert C. Fletcher, deaf minister who has helped 15,000 deaf and 4,000 blind persons to "see and hear."

He has conducted services for the deaf and blind in Dallas and Fort Worth and has made plans to preach in Waco, San Antonio, Austin, Corpus Christi and Houston before he returns to his home and his mission work in Birmingham, Ala.

Braille Books Used

He is an ordained Episcopal minister. During morning and evening prayer and the Holy Communion services blind persons can follow from the Book of Common prayer for the church, which he has transcribed into Braille.

"Early in life I began to meet deaf and blind people who were handicapped like I am," he said. "They were an unhappy and forgotten people and I decided the outlet for my own real happiness was to serve these people."

The Rev. Fletcher has nearly 20,000 parishioners in 63 mission churches in the South.

THRIFT SURPRISES OFFICIAL

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UP)—Ray W. Wilson, assistant to the city manager, decided Kansas City's expense of $14,000 a year to collect $26,000 in dog taxes was too great so he wrote other municipalities asking information on their expenses. Now he is telling officials in other cities how Kansas City manages a profit from the dog tax, for it seems that in most cities that department operates at a loss.

Patriotic Names In Draft

She has formed a chapter in her home town, and girls who have sweethearts in camp meet once weekly to advise ways to "Keep 'Em Happy." ### Midsummer Musings Of Beauty Expert

By Alicia Hart
NEA Service Staff Writer.
On The Beach:

An uneven coat of tan is not a pretty thing. Wonder why that attractive blonde over there doesn't tilt her head back the next time she takes a sunbath and let her throat tan to match her face. . . also wonder why that brown-haired woman doesn't wear a hat or a bandana on her head for the rest of the summer. The top of her hair is getting faded, bleached and streaked. She'll have trouble with it later on, you can bet on that. . . Girls who won't take time to use a razor or a depilatory on their legs shouldn't go to the beach at all.

On The Street:

Only women with fairly coarse, easily-managed hair should go hatless. . . fine hair that blows every whichway certainly should be kept under control by means of some kind of hat. . .

Slightly soiled white gloves detract from any woman's appearance, no matter how smart her dress or clear her face. . . by August there always are too many dingy white hats floating about. . . more women ought to make friends with cleaners who know how to clean white hats. . . silk shantung is just as cool and a great deal smarter on the street than transparent, peek-a-boo materials.

In A Nightclub:

A girl will make any evening dress fit more smoothly, float more gracefully. . . there ought to be a flat rule that no woman who is more than size 12 may dance in public unless she wears some kind of foundation garment. . . liquid powder seems to keep some of the smartest faces from getting shiny on a crowded dance floor.

In The Office:

Perfume never was meant to be worn in the office on a hot day. . . shoes without toes and heels are not flattering unless stockings underneath are quite beautiful and, of course, quite sheer. . . there's one thing worse than the office worker who forgets to clean her face and put on fresh makeup during the day—it's the girl who puts on makeup every half hour or so while sitting at her desk.

The population of American Samoa more than doubled in the last 40 years. The first Census of American Samoa, taken in 1940, reported a total population of 5,679. The 1940 Census counted 12,908, according to the Census Bureau.

CREWE, Eng. (UP)—Food "director" to the 60,000 people of Crewe, Cheshire, is Kathleen Mary Wright, who is only 23.

Her first job will be to commandeer buildings for an emergency, and she must be prepared to provide at least 10,000 meals.

HAMILTON, MEN'S COLLEGE COUNTS THREE ALUMNAE

CLINTON, N. Y. (UP)—Hamilton College is strictly for men, but it has three alumnae.

The college awarded an honorary degree to Miss Alice Van Vechten Brown, professor of Art emerita at Wellesley college and the daughter of a former Hamilton president, at 1941 commencement exercises.

Previously only two women had received honorary degrees, Ruth Draper in 1924 and Helen Hayes in 1938.

in her letters to the boy friend in the service she tactfully avoids mentioning the dates she is having in his absence.

"Letters and lots of them are what the men in the Army want," he recently told young women of the Indianapolis Youth Forum. He advised that depressing bits of news and gossip that disturb morale and get the soldiers' minds off their business be left out.

HOW CLUB STARTED

There aren't enough Captains Conders in the Army to reach every girl who has a sweetheart in a training camp—so the "Keep 'Em Happy" Club was formed here in the 35th Division to carry the gospel to every one of them.

This is the introductory item that appeared a few weeks ago in "The Covered Wagon" 35th Division newspaper:

"It's a pretty sad state of affairs when all your girl at home writes about are the fine times she's having with George Splevin."

"All over the Division, little clubs are springing up—and all are aimed to keep the gals we left behind true to us."

"For instance over in the 140th Infantry, a group of H Company men have the 'Jilted Lover's Club.' Not all have been jilted—but they expect it."

"The 134th Infantry has one called the 'Protective Society for Girls Back Home.' The idea is to keep both girls at home and soldiers on the straight and narrow."

"Most of us believe we're certainly doing our part for National Defense. All we ask of our girls is that they stay OUR girls."

"We don't ask them to march twelve or fifteen miles a day with packs on their backs."

"We don't ask them to get up at 5:45 every morning or stay up all night for combat team training."

"We don't even ask them to take their share of chiggers."

"National defense, we're told, is an all-together, all-out affair."

"How about the girls?"

"The War Department insists that morale is important in building an Army. The best morale-builder possible would be for the ones we think about most to think about us a little bit."

"To this end we're establishing a battle cry based on the national 'Keep 'em Flying' slogan. 'Keep 'em Flying,' we say, but 'Keep 'em Happy' too."

An application blank appeared below the story. Soldiers were to send in blank letters to the girls for signature. The signed applications were to be returned to the paper, which notified soldiers their gals had joined the club.

The blanks contained four pledges girls agreed to observe:

1. To refrain from mentioning dates with other men when writing to a soldier.
2. To be honest with a soldier in camp and not lead him to believe she was being true when she was not.
3. To let a soldier know as quickly as possible if her feelings toward him changed and not to cause him "mental anguish" by simply stopping her letters.
4. To remember at all times that the soldier is serving his country, and should be entitled to the utmost consideration when other men compete with him for her attention.

Japan May Curtail Food Consumption

TOKYO (UP)—Agriculture Minister Hiroyasu Ino, in a nationwide radio broadcast, has warned the Japanese nation a further reduction in food consumption might be necessary. At the same time, he offered assurance that the food supply would be adequate to meet any national emergency.

Emphasizing that food problems "are ultimately decided on the outcome of wars," Ino said Japan's supplies would remain satisfactory "if the people are willing to bear some hardships."

Twelve-Year Plan

Ino said the shortage developing in important rice and wheat crops was due to the lack of farm laborers, need of fertilizers and the prolonged droughts and insect ravages.

He announced the government had adopted a 12-year plan under which rice and wheat production would be increased under government direction. He said an effort also would be made to encourage planting of sweet potatoes.

The new food program also envisages the purchase of foreign rice supplies to compensate the reduced crops of the past several years.
