Two Car Accidents In Midland Vicinity Hurt Nine Other Persons During Week-end; Six Injured In Mishap Four Miles West

William Curry Skeen, 16-year-old Midland high school student and son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Skeen, died here at 6 a. m. Monday in a hospital of injuries received in an automobile accident Saturday night near the west city limits.

Nine other persons were injured, six seriously, in two accidents late Saturday night and early Sunday.

The first occurred at 11:50 p. m. Saturday night and injured four Midland youths, including Skeen, driver of a sedan which struck a railroad embankment. The second occurred about 3 a. m. Sunday.

Funeral services for Skeen will be held at 10:30 a. m. Tuesday at the First Presbyterian Church here with the Rev. Ben Moore officiating. Interment will be in Fairview cemetery. Pall bearers will be: Bradford Clendenen, Tommy Wilson, Bobby Wilson, Calvin Campbell, Gordon Watson, Jimmy Walker, George Conley, and Jimmie Hill. Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Skeen, Midland; grandparents, Mrs. M. E. Skeen, Midland, and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. West, of Prairie Lee community near Midland, and other relatives.

Insurance Man Hurt Six persons were injured in the Sunday accident, about 4 miles west of here on Highway 80. Officers said a car in which a man and woman were riding collided with one driven by Lucy Mendosa, 28, Midland Mexican woman, and carrying four others.

Elizabeth Drake Cole, middle-aged car employe, suffered a dislocated hip, fractured jaw, head bruises, cuts on the leg and nose, and possibly internal injuries.

H. V. Ashton, 45, Abilene insurance man, received a fracture of both bones in the left arm, bruised head, and minor lacerations. He underwent surgery Monday at a hospital.

Nicholas Sanchez, 30, employe at a coffee shop, suffered a shoulder injury and an eight-inch sickle wound in his right leg. He was thrown from the car.

Jessie Sanchez, 21, wife of Sanchez, received multiple bruises of the body but the extent of her injuries has not been completely determined at a hospital.

Juan Mendosa, 33, suffered a neck injury and a fracture of the right arm. The extent of his injuries are not completely determined.

Other Youths Not Serious Lucy Mendosa, 28, his wife, driver of the car in which the Mexicans were riding, was treated for a severe cut over the right eye, but was not hospitalized.

Lucy Olin Mendosa, one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Mendosa, was not injured.

Both cars in the collision were traveling east toward Midland, officers said. Both were demolished. Ambulance drivers found the cars off the highway on the left and right sides.

Conditions of three Midland youths, hurt in the first accident, were not critical, hospitals reported.

Melba Clendenen, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Clendenen, who suffered a broken right leg and severely cut left arm at the elbow, underwent surgery.

Edna Jean Roberts, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roberts, received bruises and lacerations and a dislocated hip. She is expected to recover.

Bobby Wilson, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Wilson, was bruised but not seriously injured. He went home after an examination.

The sedan in which they were riding ploughed into a railroad embankment when it failed to make a turn. Ambulance drivers said Skeen was thrown clear and Miss Clendenen was pinned in the wreckage. They were in the front seat.

Urge Purchase Tax For Income Revenue

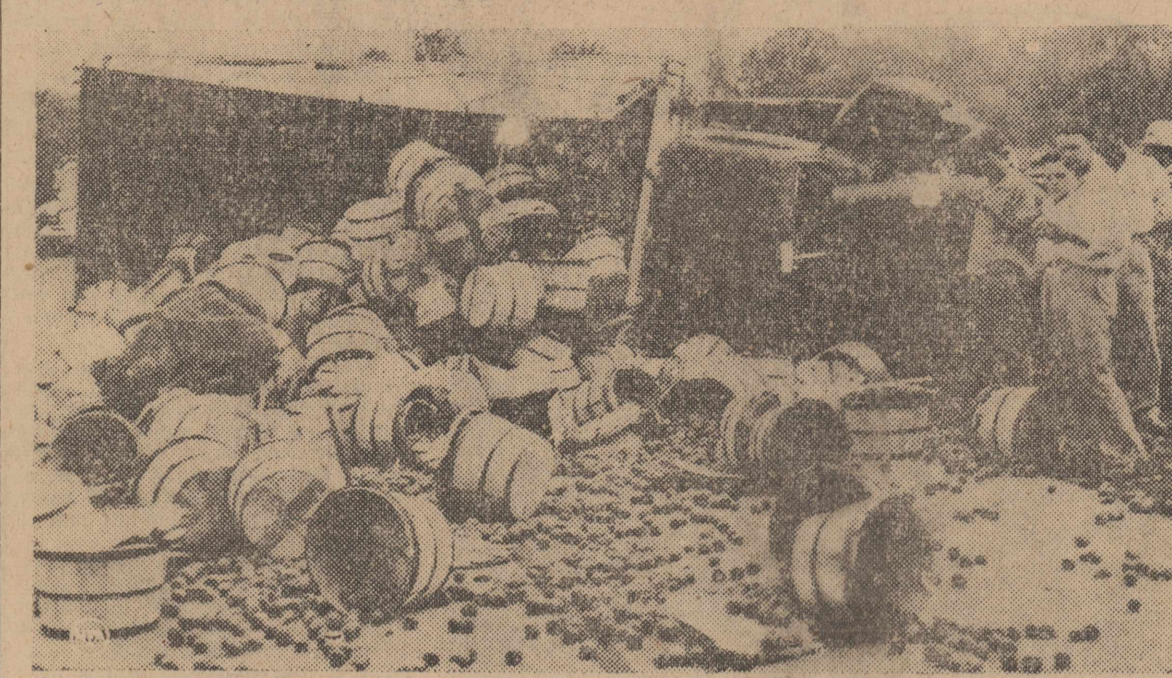

WASHINGTON (AP)—A purchase tax on non-essential articles was suggested by the Investment Bankers Association Monday as an alternative to stiff increases in income taxes.

In a brief statement presented to the Senate Finance committee by Harold Amory, its chairman, the association said that the tax should exempt such purchases as food, rent, gas, electricity and children's clothing. The association suggested that a 5 per cent tax be imposed on purchases of a second category of articles—those falling between the classification of necessities and luxuries. A 10 per cent tax would be paid on purchases of luxury items.

Trustees Make Plans For New School Term

Plans for the 1941-42 term of Midland public schools will be studied and the budget adopted at a meeting of the school board at 8 p. m. Monday night at the high school.

Rural School Children Thought This A "Peachy" Wreck

This truck, carrying several hundred bushels of peaches, overturned on Highway 71 near Greenland, Ark., after a collision with another automobile. No one was seriously injured in the accident, and school children from a nearby rural school took such full advantage of the occasion few of them were able to attend classes the following day. Over Twenty Cars Of Materials Arrive At Military Reservation

More than 20 cars of building material arrived at the Military Reservation Monday for the Advanced Twin-Engine and Bombarrier Training Center and others will follow closely this week.

Captain R. J. Harrison of the Army Engineers, who is supervising the big project will go to Dallas Tuesday to confer with a representative of the quartermaster general's department before bids are opened there at 9 a. m. Wednesday in the Baker hotel for lumber for the Midland program.

Approximately fifty per cent of the lumber for the training center has been purchased by the quartermaster's department. Some of it already is en route to Midland. The remainder of the lumber probably will be ordered Wednesday after the bids are opened. Captain Harrison will remain in Dallas until negotiations there are completed.

Construction of the railroad spur was progressing satisfactorily Monday and representatives of the general contractors, Cagg Brothers and F. M. Reeves and Sons, Inc., hope to be able to move cars of material into the Military Reservation in a few days.

Workers and operators of all kinds now are needed on the project and employment is stepping up. The contractors are anxious to employ workers from Midland and this area before importing men for the jobs. They urge all men who seek jobs to register immediately with the Texas State Employment Service at the Baseball Park.

Nutrition Group To Appoint Head

A permanent chairman for the Midland nutrition committee will be selected at a meeting of the group in the assembly room at the courthouse at 9 a. m. Tuesday. The committee program also will be planned.

Trained home economists were invited. It is hoped the committee can serve in an educational capacity through organizations already in existence. Miss Alpha Lynn, county home demonstration agent who is temporary chairman of the committee, said Monday.

Such organizations include the PTA's, in the city and rural areas, church organizations, Red Cross, Children's Service League, the health unit, home demonstration clubs and land use planning committees. The committee's aim is to give information on low cost diets that are balanced, and to help people in what they should eat and how to prepare food appetizingly.

Unions Urge Michener Be Barred From Office

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—A majority report of the UAW-CIO grievance committee recommended today that Lew H. Michener, West Coast regional director, be barred from holding "either elective or appointive office" because "of his conduct" in the five-day June strike at the North American Aviation plant in Inglewood, Calif.

Warns Against Defeat Of Service Extension

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Hull said Monday that failure of Congress to extend the service of army rank and file would have an "exceedingly bad" psychological effect alone on the international situation.

The secretary made this comment at his press conference, authorizing direct quotation of the words "exceedingly bad" to give them emphasis.

Declining to discuss specific details of the army extension legislation, Hull made it clear that he was thinking about the general effect that failure to pass some extension would have on American foreign relations.

On the general question of whether the present dangers to the United States warranted some extension, he said a reading of newspaper headlines should emphasize that dangers do exist.

House administration leaders, faced with a stiff fight, decided to make every concession necessary to obtain approval of legislation authorized President Roosevelt to extend service for the rank and file of the army beyond the present statutory limits.

The first important votes on the bill were delayed at least until Tuesday, however, when Speaker Rayburn announced the House would meet only briefly and then adjourn out of respect to Rep. Albert G. Rutherford of Pennsylvania, who died Sunday.

Behind The Headlines

Just over half a century ago the citizens of France presented to the people of the United States the heroic Statue of Liberty, who carries on her left arm a book representing the statement by its author, the date of July 4, 1776—a symbol of liberty based on law.

As this is written Washington is waiting anxiously for the French government at Vichy to interpret the statement by its envoy at Paris, Fernand de Brinon, that France has decided to accept the Nazi version of the New World Order as opposed to the American and British concept. That concept still remains liberty based on law.

Brinon's statement if confirmed would mean Vichy's acceptance of Hitlerism, and collaboration with the totalitarian Nazis. Should this collaboration extend to military matters, such as the turning over of Dakar and other strategic colonial bases to the Germans, a fresh and grave threat would be created for America and for the Allies.

Word from Washington is that diplomatic relations will be severed if Vichy's aid to Hitler includes the granting of such bases. As a matter of self-defense Britain and her Allies will be compelled, so it seems to me, to occupy the French bases immediately by force if it becomes apparent that Vichy contemplates such concessions.

France then would at last be at war with her former ally, England, and would be utterly opposed to her old friend, the United States.

That must be qualified if we are to be accurate. It will be the Vichy government and not "France" which will be responsible if this step is taken.

From diligent inquiry I am convinced that the vast majority of the people of France not only have no sympathy with Hitlerism but are utterly opposed to it. They simply are helpless and have no voice in the matter. My information, however, is that the spirit of revolt is widespread and seeking a chance to register itself.

Indications are that Herr Hitler is trying for a grand diplomatic coup. Not only is he said to be demanding that Vichy provide him with bases and send troops to fight the Russians, but he also is reportedly putting pressure on Spain and Portugal for bases which would be used along with the French bases to bolster the Nazi assault in the vital battles of the Atlantic and the Mediterranean.

Soviet Cavalry Ukraine Troops Rushes To Aid

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet cavalry under the famed horseman, Marshal Semeon Budyenny, has been thrown in mass into the Ukraine fighting, a front-line dispatch in Pravda reported Monday riding swiftly to the hottest sectors and then dismounting to fight as infantry.

The dispatch said one cavalry regiment covered in 18 hours a distance which would have taken infantry three days to negotiate. Then the unit made a surprise attack on village "Q" and routed a German force after a 2-hour battle.

By The Associated Press Germany's invasion armies smashed deeper into both ends of the 1,200-mile battlefield Monday, scoring a 60-mile advance toward Leningrad in the North and threatening the Black Sea port of Odessa in the South.

Authoritative quarters in London said that two Nazi columns striking toward Odessa from the north and west were making "very considerable progress" and that the important wheat center of Nikolaev, 80 miles northeast of Odessa, was imperiled.

The German drive east, these quarters said, already "may have crossed the Dniestev River apparently speeding operations to pinch off the last Ukraine granary before the September rains begin.

A bulletin from Adolf Hitler's field headquarters asserted that "pursuit of the retreating enemy in the Ukraine is progressing rapidly everywhere."

Nazi officials declared that Marshal Semeon D. Budyenny's Red Army of the south had practically lost the entire Dnieper Bend, the fertile plateau southeast of Kiev.

DNE, the official German news agency said the 180th Soviet Light Infantry division (about 15,000 men) had been completely destroyed south of Lake Ilmen, on the front below Leningrad.

Lake Ilmen lies east of Solts, which is 120 miles south of Leningrad, where the Russians had already conceded a 60-mile German breakthrough from the old Pskov battlefield.

Nevertheless, the Russians declared that their armies, reinforced by a rising tide of militia, were holding firmly against the German onslaught.

All Workmen Should Register Immediately

All Midland workmen and men of this area who seek jobs connected with construction of the Army's Advanced Twin-Engine and Bombarrier Training Center are urged to register immediately with the Texas State Employment Service at the Baseball Park.

L. F. Parker, manager of the TSES office, said he is anxious to get Midland persons registered so they will have first chance at the jobs. He especially wants common laborers to register and also welders, machine operators, jack hammer operators and experienced drivers of water trucks.

More than 100 workmen were sent to the Military Reservation Monday by the TSES office.

Warden And Three Others Die In Oklahoma Prison Gunfight

By Francis E. Barden McALESTER, Okla. (AP)—An iron-clad rule, he himself, laid down several years ago brought death to Warden Jess F. Dunn of the Oklahoma penitentiary and to two escaping convicts and a former prison guard in a brief but bloody Sunday break, the worst in three decades.

Several years ago Dunn told Bill Alexander, then a guard, "if there ever should be a break and the convicts get hostages, even if they get me and I tell you not to shoot, go ahead and shoot."

Alexander, now a deputy sheriff, remembered that admonition Sunday when he intercepted four long-term prisoners who had seized the warden and a chance companion in the prison yard.

The convicts, armed with homemade knives used Dunn and J. H. Fentris, telephone engineer to shield their escape past two guards at the east gate and fled in a car parked outside the walls by a prison employe.

A short distance away Alexander caught up with them. Dunn requested that he let the party pass. Dunn Shot And Stabbed "Warden, you can pass, but the prisoners had better fall out of that car," Alexander replied.

Defense Official Promised Action In Big Construction Project If Workers Didn't Resume Building On Jobs Totaling Millions

NEW YORK (AP)—The Federal Drydock and Shipbuilding Company Monday announced it had offered its strike bound shipyard at Kearny, N. J., to the Navy Department "for immediate possession and operation."

By The Associated Press A defense official said in Washington Monday that plans for government seizure of the Federal Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company at Kearny, N. J., were "lying ready on the desk, at the Navy Department, for use if the company did not alter its 'intransigent' attitude in the strike which has tied up $493,000,000 in defense orders.

This official who is connected with OPM but declined to permit use of his name, predicted that action could be expected within 48 hours. He said it might take the form of company acceptance of a Defense Mediation Board recommendation for settlement of the dispute with the CIO industrial union of marine and shipbuilding workers, or the government might take over operation of the big shipyard.

Pecos Ordovician Well Flowing 200 Barrels Per Day

Northern Pecos County's new Ordovician strike, Anderson-Pritchard Oil Corporation No. 1 B. F. Boren, two miles southwest of the Apocryphal pool, is flowing an estimated 200 barrels of oil per day by heads through casing while fishing for perforating gun. Production is natural.

Five and one-half inch casing has been perforated with a total of 125 shots from 4,767 to 4,791 feet, top of cement plug. Total depth is 4,804 feet in dolomite of the Ellenburger, lower Ordovician, which it topped at 4,490 feet. Chief pay zone was entered at 4,686 feet. No. 1 Boren is located 1,976 feet from the south and 860 from the east line of section 4, block 605, Louisa. Merchant survey, one-half mile west of Bryce McCandless and Olson No. 1 Crockett, large Ellenburger and granite wash producer.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 State-Young, one-half mile east outpost to the Abell pool of Pecos, recovered 15 feet of Simpson, middle Ordovician, sand and shale by coring from 5,100-18 feet and is coring ahead. The firm's No. 1-A State-Clint Myrick of Midland is drilling below 1,920 feet in lime and anhydrite. Standard Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Thrapp-Walker unit, northwest extension test, is drilling at 5,615 feet in broken lime and shale.

Harrison Swabbing Black Oil. L. C. Harrison No. 1 Nairn estate, Central Lubbock County wildcat, filled 400 feet with fluid after a 96-hour shutdown while moving in and rigging up cable-tool unit. This morning it was being swabbed through casing, with each pull showing 20 per cent heavy black oil and 80 per cent drilling fluid. No gas was present. Oil apparently was increasing as swabbing continued.

No. 1 Nairn is bottomed at 4,905 feet in lime which carried oil saturation in the last six feet. It is only three and one-quarter miles northeast of the city of Lubbock.

Rotary derrick has been erected at Trinity Drilling Company No. 1 Dan Auld, Western Lynn County wildcat, and it is awaiting installation of rotary tools. The test was spudded with machine to 25 feet in sand. In Northern Lynn, George P. Livermore, Inc. No. 1 J. E. Rice is setting whipstock to drill by junk. Total depth is 4,800 feet in lime.

Publisher Of Times-Herald Newspaper Dies

DALLAS (AP)—E. J. Kiest, 79, publisher of the Dallas Times Herald and a charter member of the Associated Press, died Monday.

Mr. Kiest would have been 80 years old on September 24. Friends described his long battle against death as "valiant and spectacular." Seriously ill for months, he defied doctors to carry on his work, and almost to the last insisted on visiting the Times Herald every morning and inspecting every department.

Next to the Times Herald, the rugged little publisher loved Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College. He took immense pride in his service as a director, and watched expansion of the school with particular delight.

While he took lively interest in governmental affairs, he always met suggestions that he run for office with firm reply: "I'm a newspaperman."

State Fair President It was a part of his creed that he could better serve the public that way.

Nevertheless, many honors came his way. He was made a lifetime president of the State Fair of Texas, after having served actively for many years. He received the Lutz award as Dallas' outstanding citizen for 1930. Texas A. and M. College and Southern Methodist University both conferred doctor of laws degrees upon him.

A thirty-third degree Mason, he also held life membership in the Boy Scouts, the Red Cross and the Elks.

Surviving Mr. Kiest are a brother, Frank G. Kiest of Des Moines; a sister, Mrs. Ellen M. Schaller of Oak Park, Ill.; a niece, Mrs. Ruth DeVarney of Oak Park; a grandniece, Mrs. Genevieve Pruitt of Oak Park; a great grandnephew and namesake, John Edwin Pruitt, of Oak Park.

The Times Herald was a small paper when Mr. Kiest acquired it. He mingled with all employes and daily walked through the offices, chatting with executives and the rank and file alike.

He took out very little of the paper's profits himself. His wife died at the time he was emerging from his long fight to put the paper on a secure basis. He did not marry again.

THIS IS MORE THAN A LEGEND, IT IS A TREMENDOUS LESSON: But his wife looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.—Gen. 19:26.

Justified, But Unfruitful Resentment

If there is one keynote in the way Americans are thinking these days, it is probably resentment. It is pretty late in the day for that, but it seems to linger deeply in the American mind.

All that is natural and human, not merely American, but it is getting very late for us to indulge in it. The more we sit back and allow ourselves to stew in this resentful mood, the more we blind ourselves to reality.

This is no plea for taking the world as we find it. As we find it, it isn't good enough. Our job is to make it better.

But it is as we find it, and it will not be made better by a sullen resentment which smoulders and glows, consuming fruitlessly energy and constructive spirit.

Resentment against an existing situation is a barren and fruitless emotion. Nothing was ever changed for the better simply by resenting it.

We have a beautiful, spacious, free land to preserve, defend and improve. Our clear duty and advantage is to bend resolutely to those tasks with minds and hearts uncluttered by resentment and self-pity.

The Democracy Of Death

Bruno Mussolini has gone to join in death the dazed Ethiopian natives he bombed in their huts, the bewildered Russian peasant boys falling before Smolensk.

He wanted to live dangerously, Bruno Mussolini said. He lived so, and he died so. The sad part of it is that those who want to live dangerously cannot go and do their dangerous living on some desert island with others of the same instincts.

It doesn't matter now. The swashbuckling Bruno, courting danger with a gleam of medals and the flash of a scarlet-lined cloak, is one in death with the inoffensive Norwegian youth who died with an unaccustomed rifle in his hand.

They are one today in the democracy of death; how each may fare in some later Judgment is another matter, not given to man to know.

The Cost

Tax collections by federal, state, and local governments for the fiscal year 1940-41 will be the highest in the country's history, well above the $14,800,000,000 of the previous year.

We usually think most consciously of federal taxes. Yet despite a 40 per cent increase in these taxes to $7,754,000,000 up to June 30, it is clear that federal taxation in spite of the defense burden is not yet much more than half of the taxes Americans pay.

A tax burden of $15,000,000,000 a year begins to approach 20 per cent of the national income, but it is not even then comparable to the percentages of national income being burned up by nations at war on war expenses alone.

Government Presses V Campaign To Rid Farms Of Accidents

By Richard West, Associated Press Staff.

Quietly, unemotionally, the government Monday pressed its "V" campaign in the backwoods to rid Texas and Oklahoma rural areas of a blight worse than boll weevils and dust storms—farm accidents.

In the hullabaloo of publicized safety campaigns in the city, mishaps in the barnyard and pasture go unnoticed. But in these two Southwestern states whose life-blood is pumped from the farm, accidents cost farmers $75,000,000 annually—a tenth of what they earn.

If, as economists estimate, every farm dollar means two in retail sales, Texas and Oklahoma cities are losing $150,000,000 in business.

But just as methodically as a tractor turns over sod, the Farm Security Administration is mobilizing its vast field forces for safety.

In the last few months, Safety Director O. J. Hicks said Sunday, 90,000 farmers have been contacted in these states, taught the principles of safety and told the consequences of carelessness.

"Watch that can of gasoline; do not slip in the hayloft" and other warnings are being drilled into farmers through a barrage of educational literature that gets down to earth as quickly as a gopher.

Entrusted with furthering the "security of the farmer," the FSA senses progress in its campaign to lighten the load of homes saddened and impoverished by careless drownings, broken backs and infections.

Japan May Move Against Siberia

PEIPING (AP)—Observers in this North China gate to Manchukuo and Mongolia expressed conviction Monday Japan's next theater of action is more likely to be Siberia than Thailand—and that the blow may fall any day.

(In Shanghai foreign military sources agreed that Japan was mobilizing a powerful striking force in Manchukuo but usually well informed quarters still believe Japan would act, only if European Russia seemed about to collapse.)

Informed quarters expressed belief that August was the latest the Japanese could expect to launch a campaign into Eastern Siberia without a winter stalemate.

Agents Arrest Man In Extortion Effort

AUSTIN (AP)—What FBI agents and state police declared was attempted extortion of $25,000 from the Southern Pacific Railroad was the basis Monday for holding a 64-year-old Austin man, former state and political newspaper employe, in jail here.

The officers said the man maintained innocence immediately after he was arrested Saturday at the alleged pay-off spot about 10 miles from Austin but later confessed.

They asserted letters threatening to blow up railroad property if money was not paid was received by Houston officials of the railway.

Naval Building Program Rushes Ships For 1944

WASHINGTON (AP)—The warship building speed-up, cutting construction time on new men-of-war and average of 12 1/2 per cent for each vessel, will give the United States its two-ocean fleet two years earlier than originally scheduled, navy sources said Monday.

Barring labor trouble or actual war, the fleet will be "substantially ready" by 1944 to fulfill its intended mission of defending the United States from simultaneous attacks in the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

Some of the 17 battleships authorized, and perhaps certain other large units will be incomplete, but by 1944 it was estimated that the most powerful fleet the world has ever known will be in readiness for any possible hostile combination.

Double and sometimes triple-shift work in navy yards and private shipbuilding plants, authorization of overtime pay, and new worker-training programs have begun to show results in accelerated deliveries which began to reach a peak in June and July.

In those two months, the navy announced, a warship keel was laid every two days and a ship was launched almost every week.

U. S. Relations With France To Depend On Decisions Of Cabinet

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States made its future diplomatic relations with the French government contingent on the decisions taken Monday at the meeting of Marshal Petain's cabinet in Vichy.

Relations would be severed, it was reported, if the Vichy government accedes to the latest German collaboration demands and permits the Nazis the "share" they seek in defending the French empire.

This possibility caused conjecture whether the United States might then extend recognition to the "Free French" forces of General Charles De Gaulle—a step which De Gaulle's believe would redound psychologically to the benefit of their cause in most of the French possessions.

Texas Governor May Reach Decision On Extra Session Soon

AUSTIN (AP)—Decision on a date for a special session of the legislature may be forthcoming from Governor Coke R. Stevenson soon, probably this week.

Last week the governor said, in issuing a statement urging legislators and others interested to compromise on the road bond controversy, that he expected reaction within a few days which would enable him to chart a course with reference to a session.

Following Stevenson's swearing in, Speaker Homer Lechard of McAllen left on a vacation trip to California, planning to return about Sept. 1, but prior to his departure he expressed the opinion Sept. 9 would be an ideal time for the start of a session. He asserted one was inevitable to deal with the road bond problem.

O'Daniel's Start In Congress Simulates Gubernatorial Event

By Howard C. Marshall

AUSTIN (AP)—Senator W. Lee O'Daniel has left the barrier in the United States Senate about as he did in the Texas legislature.

He has surprised, and he has seen, a matter he was very keen to have enacted into law get exactly nowhere.

When O'Daniel went to Washington following up his sensational election to the seat of Morris Sheppard, he took along a bill.

He also had a bill in his pocket when he arrived in Austin about two and a half years ago after crashing an election record to win the governorship of Texas.

The one was a bill making it a felony punishable by penitentiary imprisonment to use or encourage violence in strikes and the other a bill levying a tax on virtually every form of business transaction.

Both bills were introduced instantaneously when O'Daniel landed in the congressional and legislative halls.

The demise of the anti-strike measure differed, however, from that of the transaction tax legislation. It was quicker.

On the third day he had been Senator, O'Daniel offered the anti-strike bill as an amendment to the proposal extending terms of Selective Service trainees. He had introduced it on his second day.

The Senate killed the amendment by a shouted voice vote and without discussion. O'Daniel later said it was done so quickly he was reminded of Hitler going through Holland.

Not so with the transaction tax.

Introduced on his second day as governor, the bill lingered for months, never coming up on the floor of the State House. A barrage of denunciation engulfed it.

The Senate considered the bill on the floor of the State House, a program to attract tourists to the Southwest and Northern Mexico was the hot item on the list of the Associated Southwestern Chambers of Commerce Monday as the organization entered the second session of its three-day annual convention.

Registration went over the 100-mark late Sunday with more than 25 other officers and directors of chambers in New Mexico, Arizona, West Texas and Chihuahua, Mexico expected to join the list.

Fred Wemple was scheduled to speak Monday at a retailers meeting of the Associated Southwestern Chambers of Commerce convention in Silver City, N. M.

Bill Collyns, secretary of the Midland Chamber and chairman of the nominating committee at the A. S. W. C. C. conclave, Dan Hudson, Fred, Jr. and Allan Wemple, also are attending the convention.

Government Puts Japanese On Full Economic Footing

TOKYO (AP)—The government put Japan on a full economic war footing Monday under the general mobilization act and authoritative quarters declared only two steps remained before a possible actual break with the United States.

But strangely, amid the atmosphere of deteriorating Japanese-American relations, came the counsel of a Japanese diplomat, Kaname Wakasugi, homecoming minister at the Washington embassy, that "the United States is prepared and determined to meet the worst eventualities."

The two steps that would preclude a complete American break with Japan were specified by the newspaper Chugai, which speaks for big business, as a complete embargo and severance of consular relations. The consular breach would be a likely prelude to an end of diplomatic relations.

For Chugai this was a new, pessimistic turn in its editorial comment. For Japanese diplomacy, Wakasugi's blunt delineation of Japanese-American relations was one of the sharpest outlines by a Japanese official in recent months.

Shows Concern For Singapore Security

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—Australia has a vital interest in the security of Singapore, Australian Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies declared Monday as his cabinet met in an emergency session.

The meeting, reported to have followed consultation by the ministers with heads of Australia's armed services, will be continued Tuesday.

The Prime Minister, who cancelled a tour and returned to the capital because he said, the situation is more full of danger than ever, declared the dominion faced problems "such as to call for the calmest and clearest judgment."

"We are concerned with security of the empire and the things it stands for."

O'Daniel Asserts Congress Unfair

DALLAS (AP)—In a talk studied with homely colloquialisms, W. Lee O'Daniel began his second week as Texas Junior Senator by telling a radio audience Sunday that "the Congress has been very unfair to our boys, and have let many other people run wild in holding up defense production."

O'Daniel, in a transcribed address minus music broadcast over several Texas radio stations, asserted that "now just because our boys in training have kept their mouths shut, and worked hard, and have become good soldiers, the Congress proposes to penalize them for their good work and force them to remain in the service 18 months longer, at no increase in pay, and against this will..."

He declared that "the service of these boys should not be continued 18 months, or 12 months, or six months, or one day, because to do so would be a dishonorable thing to do."

British Official And Wife Arrive By Plane

NEW YORK (AP)—Alfred Duff Cooper, formerly Britain's minister of information, says that his government anticipates "great developments" in the Far East.

Cooper, accompanied by his wife, Lady Diana Cooper, arrived Sunday in the Atlantic Clipper, en route to Singapore where Cooper will coordinate Britain's colonial administration.

Like to go window Shopping?

Suppose the windows of all the stores were empty. That's something like saying, "Suppose there were no advertising."

Advertising tells you what's to be had. It is just like show windows—only more convenient.

It saves your time. It saves time for people with things to sell. That's important these days.

Midlante Club Has Picnic At Bennett Home

Fourteen Couples Are Present For Informal Party

Fourteen couples of the Midlante Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bennett, 2001 Brunson, Saturday evening for a picnic supper which was served in the yard. Afterward, the evening was spent in conversation.

Attending were: Messrs. and Mrs. James N. Allison, C. L. Bradshaw, Geo. Bennett, Leo McLaughlin, A. Knickerbocker, Don Johnson, R. D. Scruggs, Geo. Todd, Ed Prichard, F. R. Wallace, Eugene Vanderpool, Langdon Tennis, Clint Lackey, and Joseph Mims.

At Your Library

SPURS ON THE BOOT, by Thomas B. Morgan: Quoting from "The Living Age": "The publishers hail this book as the answer to Winston Churchill's remark that the story of the decline and fall of the Italian Empire . . . will not take a future Gibbon so long to write as the original work."

"Morgan has undertaken that job and done it well . . . No one, perhaps, is better equipped to do a job on the 'inside story' of Italy. A foreign correspondent in Rome for 17 years, he covered Italy and her interests in the entire Mediterranean area. And he enjoyed the benefit of personal acquaintance with Mussolini and the men and women who have surrounded and influenced Il Duce.

"Spurs on the Boot" carries the story of Fascist Italy from its birth in Milan, when Benito Mussolini, gathered several scores of political vagabonds in an upper chamber in a dark and spooky structure on Holy Sepulchre Place, in March, 1919, and promised that if they followed him, some day they would rule the world.

"Among his insights into Mussolini's Italy are that every war that Mussolini has waged has been against the wishes of the people and against the will and advice of his staff; that the two women who most inspired him were Jewesses; that he planned to supersede the king; that when Mussolini declared war on France and Britain, Italy was dead broke from Ethiopia and Spain, and finally, that Mussolini, if exiled, has staked out his future home in Brazil.

"Morgan estimates that 2,000,000 are dead from Mussolini's wars—in casualties, from hunger, disease, mass murder in Spain, Libya, Ethiopia, Yugoslavia, Albania, Greece, and Italy itself."

Salt Lake City To Bring Back Dramas

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah. (UP)—The legitimate drama, which flourished in Salt Lake City in the '90s under the sponsorship of the L. D. S. Church, is experiencing a revival. Although the historic Salt Lake theater, built by Brigham Young and graced, at intervals, by Joseph Jefferson, Maude Adams, the Barrymores, and many other stars of happier days, has been razed, an attempt is under way to establish a stock company for continuous play production. The new company has been organized by a group of former actors and bit players immobilized by the motion picture and the radio. Lacking a theater, the first play—Kampong, a dramatization of one of Somerset Maugham's short stories—was presented in the auditorium of the state institute for the blind.

Miss Lois Guffey Named Head Of Senior League

Leaguers Will Present Evening Program Sunday

Miss Lois Guffey was elected president of the Senior Methodist League in its meeting Sunday evening. She takes the place made vacant by resignation of Miss Carolyn Oates, who is going away to school. Miss Oates presided at the session. Herman Brewer was appointed chairman of the worship committee. Miss Ruth Tidmore and Miss Marie Newton had parts on the evening's program.

The group discussed sending one person from this union (not from Midland) to the Mt. Sequoia meeting. Judge Chas. L. Klapproth will speak at the League meeting next Sunday. Leaguers will present the program at the 8 o'clock worship hour next Sunday evening.

Officers Named By Brotherhood

Officers for the Brotherhood of Calvary Baptist Church have been elected as follows: Happy Stults, president; William Brown, vice-president; B. L. Crites, treasurer. Officers were named at a meeting Friday night. Scripture reading was presented by Roy Frazier. Ice cream was served.

We, the Women

By Ruth Millett
The rather shy girl, who used to get "A" on her high school theme, but who was a little too timid to get on easily with a stag line, now can hold her own with the popular girl who might have been a bit dumb, but who knew just how to look up at a man in a way to make him feel wonderful.

The reason that the bright, though shy, young lady is to have her day is that she'll be better able to express her personality through letters to the soldier away at camp than will the girl whose conversation was made up of a few slang phrases but who got by because she knew how to punctuate her remarks with just the right glance or toss of the head.

IMPORTANCE OF LETTERS
And don't ever belittle the importance of letters in the life of a soldier. The Rev. DeLoss Marken, chaplain for 39,000 soldiers at Camp Claiborne, La., says the young men in camp are eager for letters and that receiving letters makes them much happier and better satisfied.

And anybody who knows anything about history knows how quickly romance can flourish through letters—even when a man and girl are separated from each other for long periods of time, and have to depend solely on correspondence to keep romance alive.

So now that the lonesome-soldier-ism from home and eager for mail situations is such a common one, the girl who has brains enough to write an interesting letter in a way that expresses her own individuality has a chance to hold her own with the girl with fewer brains but more oomph.

ROMANCE FOR THE TIMID
But if she hasn't a young man away at camp, a girl can always write a young soldier from her home town. She can explain that she had heard men in the army liked to get letters from home and that she would be delighted to write to a man who was doing his part toward his country's defense.

The timid girl could do that—because it doesn't take much courage for a girl boldly to make the first move toward friendship if the young man is a thousand miles away.

Miss Elder Is Class Visitor

Sanders taught the lesson and Miss Katherine Barrett, president, presided. Miss Robbie Elder of Big Spring was a visitor.

FEMININE FANCIES

By Kathleen Eiland

Guess what is the newest thing for bright young things to wear at college? Rompers! Believe it or not, rompers—one piece garments from collar to just-above-the-knee length bloomers. They are made with long sleeves. Of course, for the sake of beauty as well as decorum (most-ly for the sake of beauty, we'll wager) these rompers are designed to be worn under goodlooking sleeveless, short-skirted jumpers in contrasting colors.

The latter may be worn with other blouses, of course. Rompers—we can't more than half-believe it. But since 'tis so, we begin to think there may be some reason behind the college boy's liking to call his sweetheart "baby."

Most original advertising that has come to our notice in many a day is that put out by a widely-known hosiery company. It has published a delightful little book of Southern recipes including such as "Corn Pone," "Syllabub," "Yum Yam" and others designed to make one's mouth water at the very reading. And the company has named its hosiery colors by these same delicious titles.

Can't you just imagine how delightful "Syllabub" would be in hosiery? Well, it's an intriguing idea and we think it is plain downright hard luck that much of the advertising can't be used—because of the silk hose restrictions.

We would say to the unlucky copy writer, however—that no war lasts forever, so maybe he can still use those clever ads. We hope so, at least.

MIND Your MANNERS

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below:

1. If you invite friends to be your guests at a movie, is it usually customary to see that they have something to eat or drink either before or after the movie?

2. Is it all right for a man to put his arm around his date in a movie?

3. If the feature picture lacks only four or five minutes of being over and to leave you would have to walk in front of half a row of people, should you wait until the feature is over before leaving?

4. When a person tries to pass in front of you in a movie should you rise, or is it enough to turn your knees sideways?

5. If you pass in front of others when taking a seat at the movies should you say "I'm sorry?" What would you do if—
Your very small child remains silent when you prompt him to say good morning to a grownup who stops to speak to you—
(a) Let the matter drop?
(b) Insist on his speaking, even if you have to threaten to punish him if he doesn't?

Answers
1. Yes. If you can manage it.
2. No. It makes the couple conspicuous, and makes it hard for those behind to see the screen.
3. Yes, it is the courteous thing to do.
4. You should rise.
5. Yes.
Best "What Would You Do?" solution—(a).

Only Grown-ups Can Pass This Social Quiz

By Alicia Hart
NEA Service Staff Writer

There are plenty of signs of maturity besides graying hair and a laugh line or two around the eyes. If your answer is "yes" to more than three of the following questions, you are qualified to take your place on the side of grown-ups. Check yourself on these:

Do you judge a man by his brains, ability, judgment and sense of humor more than by his dancing and good looks?

Have you finally decided, after high school and college years of doubting, that your father and mother really know more than you do after all?

Do you try to make as good an impression on your weekend host and hostess as you do on the man they invited out to help entertain you?

Whether you like him or not, are you completely charming to the man on your left at a dinner party—simple because you don't want to hurt your hostess' feelings or upset her plans for a successful party?

Do you believe that a successful marriage is the result of a couple's sincere efforts and hard work to make a success—instead of completely a matter of luck?

Instead of resenting them, do you like to talk to people who are better informed than yourself? Are you firmly convinced that who you are and what you stand for are more important than who your grandparents were?

Have you stopped believing that all rich people must be unhappy because they are rich and that all poor people must be good simply because they are poor?

MAKE SOME REAL FRIENDS

Would you rather have half a dozen close friends than dozens and dozens of casual acquaintances? Do you trust completely at least three people outside of your own family—to the point of feeling free to confide in them, knowing that it is not necessary to say, "Don't mention this to anyone else, of course?"

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By Wm. E. McKenney

It was no surprise to me to find a pair of San Francisco players the international winners of the World Bridge Olympic. Robert P. Wilson and George Gooden of San Francisco were the North-South winners of the Olympic this year.

I told you in one of my earlier articles describing our transcontinental bridge tour—in my opinion, the caliber of bridge in San Francisco is higher on the average than I have found in any other section of the country.

Today's hand incorporates a difficult defensive play, but I am sure that if it were tested on a group of San Francisco players, all would make the correct play. West leads the seven of clubs as an exit, rightly fearing that a spade lead would give declarer his ninth trick.

South takes his ace of clubs and four diamonds. West discards the five of spades and East lets go his two fours. Declarer then cashes the queen of clubs and leads a small heart toward dummy.

West realizes that declarer, with eight top tricks, is probably planning to use the heart suit to force West into lead spades. If West plays low, dummy will take the ace and lead another heart, and then no defense could stop game. But West forestalls the situation by playing the king of hearts, to leave himself two small hearts for exit. Now declarer cannot make the contract.

Former Wall Street Financier Is Paroled

OSNING, N. Y. (AP)—Richard Whitney, who lost $11,000,000 in Wall Street, left prison walls a free man Monday after making a profit of $181.01 in 40 months in Sing Sing.

The 63-year old former president of the New York Stock Exchange, paroled after serving three years and four months of a 5-to-10 year sentence for stealing $214,000 from client brokerage accounts, was met by his brother, George, in a chauffeur-driven limousine.

Whitney greeted his brother, a J. P. Morgan partner who advanced $2,600,000 of his own fortune in a vain attempt to save Whitney's firm from bankruptcy in 1938, with a silent handclasp. Neither spoke until the big car pulled away from the prison to carry Whitney to the Barnstable, Mass., dairy farm which he will superintend.

MUSTANG BOYS' CLUB COLUMN

Seventy-seven boys and seven adult leaders are scheduled to leave for the Mustang summer camp Tuesday morning at 6. Everything is ready at Christoval, on the deep Concho. The officials down there are prepared to do all in their power to show the Mustangs a good time. Red Crawford is tuning up his motor boat and getting ready his surfboards for swift aqua planing. Three excellent row boats are reserved for the entire stay. Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Wilson are underwriting the boat fun. Two friends have provided and hand-picked two large tender calves. Proud hens laid 50 dozen fresh eggs last week. One hundred and ten dozen tender buns will demand 60 quarts of country applebutter to add to their glory. The lowly pinto, too, has crashed the gates, and in quantities too great to count with an adding machine, will find comfortable repose in youthful stomachs. "Sour Puss" pickles, by the gallon, will prevent the rest of the menu from becoming too sweet. Plenty of delicious stewed fruits will keep the doctor away, and 200 pounds of California spuds, will pad the odd corners. Tomatoes, corn, onions, carrots will do their share in adding color and variety to the above. Enough hot chocolate to float a Swiss navy will provide convenient liquid lubrication. Hub Castlebury with his cooking magic will do the rest. All these Mustang boys hilariously extended their appreciation to the Rotary Club and others. The boys earned the right to go

WESLACO (AP)—A third giant U. S. Army air corps aviation school is being sought for the Lower Rio Grande Valley by a group of mid-valley business men representing the communities of Weslaco, Donna, Mercedes, Ed Couch-Elsa-La Villa.

First public announcement of the effort was made after a meeting of representatives of the four communities had resulted in appointment of Eldon B. Smith, manager of Hidalgo & Cameron Counties Water Control & Imp. Dist. No. 9, as general chairman of the four-city airport committee.

Construction is under way on a $3,500,000 flexible gunnery school for the air corps at Harlingen and on a $4,000,000 Advanced Single-engine school north of Mission.

OH, JUST FEED THEM TO THE PIGS! AS YOU SAY, PUG...TIMES HAVE CERTAINLY CHANGED! PHOOEY!

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

AS LATE AS THE 19TH CENTURY, MANY SCIENTISTS BELIEVED THAT LIFE CAME TO OUR EARTH ON METEORS, FROM DISTANT PLANETS.

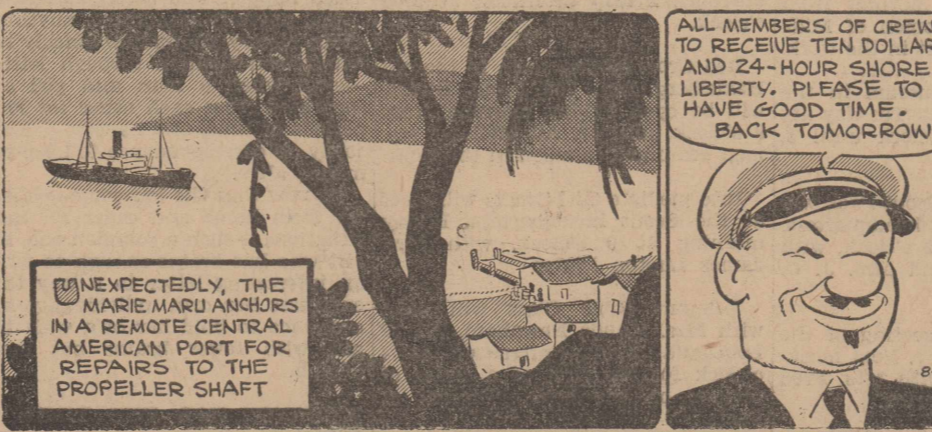

RHUBARB BELONGS TO THE BUCKWHEAT FAMILY

ARE MINISTERS' SONS USUALLY FAILURES?

ANSWER: No, but those who do fail impress the public. In "Who's Who in America" the proportion of sons of ministers to sons of unskilled laborers is about 2400 to 1.

SERIAL STORY

SECRET VOYAGE

BY JOSEPH L. CHADWICK

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: Jim Mallory, diver for the Ajax Salvage Company, finds an uninvited visitor, Mary Larson, has arrived on ship while he was exploring the wreckage of a sports car, 10 fathoms under water. He believes she is an accomplice of a man who has bribed and threatened him for the location of a mystery ship. But Jim invites Mary to stay for lunch, thinking he may learn the identity of the man. When Mary asks if she may question him, Jim tells her to go back to the man who pays her. She is furious and prepares to leave. Jim tries to get her to talk but she refuses.

CHAPTER II

THE battered old salvage boat rolled slightly with the surf. From the galley, Blacksheep's rich voice lamented in a spiritual.

Jim Mallory kept his grip on the girl's arm until he saw the fury fade out of her eyes. She rubbed her wrist then as if he had hurt her.

She was pretty, yes. With her copper-tinted hair and wide gold-flecked eyes, she was pretty. And perhaps more than pretty. Jim Mallory looked away from her, thinking he'd better watch his step. Some friend had once told him, "There's Irish blood in you, Jim, and the Irish are sentimental. You'll be a pushover for a pretty face, whether it's the right or wrong one."

He heard this girl, this Mary Larson, say, "All I wanted to know was where I could find your employer, James Mallory, the owner of the Ajax Salvage Company."

"He has an office," "He's never there. I was there twice, and I could get no satisfaction out of the office boy. But at least he didn't manhandle me."

"James Mallory won't go for a pretty face any more than I will."

LEGAL NOTICES 68
By virtue of certain Execution for Costs issued by the Clerk of the District Court of Midland County, on the 8th day of August, 1941, in a certain cause wherein W. J. Wooster is plaintiff, and H. B. Dunagan is defendant, in favor of the said plaintiff the judgment having been paid before sale date, but court costs were not, this execution for costs unpaid in the amount of $21.20 with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per centum per annum, from date of judgment, together with all costs of suit, that being the amount of a judgment recovered by the said W. J. Wooster, plaintiff, in the District Court of Midland County, on the 30th day of June, 1941, I have levied upon, and will on the first Tuesday in September, 1941, it being the 2nd day of said month, at the Court House in Midland, Midland County, Texas, within legal hours, proceed to sell for cash to the highest bidder all the right, title and interest of H. B. Dunagan in and for the following described Real Estate, levied upon as the property of H. B. Dunagan to-wit:

All of Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, in Block "D" Garrett Place Addition to the City of Midland, Midland County, Texas.

The above sale to be made by me to satisfy the above described judgment for court costs in the sum of Twenty One and 20/100—($21.20)—Dollars, together with the costs of said suit, and the proceeds applied to the satisfaction thereof.

ED DARNELL, Sheriff, Midland County, Texas.

By Fisher, Pollard, Deputy, Midland, Texas, Sale date September 2nd, 1941. Aug. 11-18-25.

HE couldn't find her at first. That scared him. The water was treacherous here. A wave hit him and took him under. He felt the drag of the undertow before he broke surface.

Now tell me who sent you here to question me?" He put his pipe between his teeth again, and this time felt in his pockets for matches. He had none there, but a box was on the table. The girl picked up the box, took out and struck a match, and held it out for him. He saw laughter in her eyes as he puffed. He wasn't suspicious until she rose and shoved the table against him. She turned and ran for the companionway, reaching the deck before he recovered from his surprise. He heard the splash as she took to the water, and reaching deck he saw her striking out for shore.

She swam well, but not too well, and he knew before she was half way to shore that she wasn't going to make it.

"Shall I drive you to where you're going? Or can you make it?" "I can make it, after I rest a moment. I haven't far to drive, just to the Hammond estate on Indian Creek."

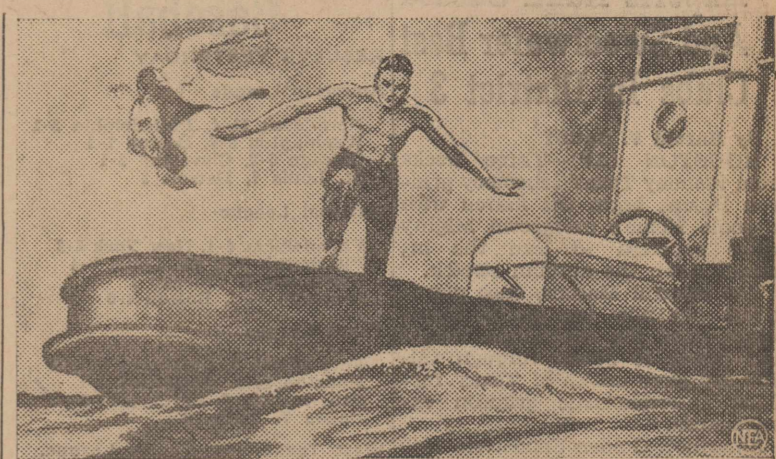

Jim Mallory nodded. He'd wait with her, but only because she might be more done in than she looked.

He said, "Jeffery Hammond's place?" And when she replied in the affirmative, the first part of the puzzle fell into place. Jeffery Hammond was president of the Hammond Steamship Lines, and the Sonora was a Hammond ship.

He shrugged, turned, walked to the water. Curly had put the tug in closer to shore. It wasn't much of a swim, this time. . . .

There was a letter awaiting him when he got to the office at Barrows Landing. Harris, who ran the office after a fashion, said it had been delivered by a uniformed chauffeur in a town car. That was unusual enough for Harris to note and comment on. The letter gave him a jolt.

It was an invitation from Jeffery Hammond to spend the week-end at the Indian Creek mansion. To talk business. (To Be Continued)

He kicked off his shoes when he saw the first falter in her stroke, then ripped off his shirt and dove in when he saw her go under.

She went under again before he reached her, but he caught her coming up. She was gasping, choking, but she didn't fight him. He got his arm around her, felt her go limp. She was so free of panic that he thought she might be faking. But then he knew, somehow, that she wasn't like that.

He got her onto the sand, up where it was dry. She lay with eyes closed, shivering, or trembling. There was a car parked up by the road, which he guessed was hers. He went to it and found a beach robe. He took the robe back and covered her.

"I suppose I ought to thank you," she said. "You ought to know better than to swim after a heavy meal," he said. What he liked about her was her lack of hysterics. And he was sore because he liked anything about her, since she had been put onto him.

"Why?" "She didn't answer that." "Did Hammond know you were trying to find Mallory?"

"No." "And you wouldn't want Hammond to know what you were up to?"

Her eyes opened wide, meeting his with a disturbing steadiness. "That's right," she said. "Did you have some idea of telling him?"

He didn't answer. He gave her a hand when she started to get up and walked to the car with her after she got into the beach robe. She took a pair of sandals from the car and put them on her feet. She still looked a little shaky. She got into the car and started the motor. It was a big yellow

Mighty Mites And Sandies Favorites

Experts Rank Odessa And Sweetwater Best Clubs In District 3

By Harold V. Ratliff
HOUSTON (AP)—Three weeks from Monday Texas' schoolboy gridiron legions begin the march with Masonic Home's overgrown Mighty Mites expected to lead the big parade down the autumn stretch.

The colorful Masons, once giant-killers but now the giants themselves, have the experience, weight and power to sweep through this time, say close critics of Texas' far-flung interscholastic gridiron extravaganza.

Amarillo's Golden Sandstorm 1940 champion, again ranks with the top teams and the talk around the Texas high school coaching school, where more than 400 mentors and footballers finished up a week's clinic Saturday, is that it will be Sandies and Masons again in the semifinals.

Other teams pointed to as particularly outstanding include Lubbock, Paris, Gainesville, Tyler, Lufkin, Jeff Davis (Houston), Goose Creek, Breckenridge (San Antonio) Jefferson (San Antonio), Edinburg and Corpus Christi.

Here's how the district races are being forecast:

1—Amarillo and Lubbock to fight it out but Plainview a major threat and Pampa quite strong.

2—Childress the favorite with Vernon ranking No. 2 but Wichita Falls liable to upset them both.

3—Sweetwater and Odessa to fight it out with Sweetwater a slight favorite.

4—El Paso high a prime favorite.

5—Paris and Gainesville to battle for the title.

6—Denton to scrap Highland Park (Dallas) down to the wire.

7—Masonic Home but not without a real struggle.

8—Adams (Dallas) favored but not by a long margin. Woodrow Wilson and Dallas Tech quite troublesome.

9—Breckenridge, Mineral Wells and Brownwood to stage a horse race.

10—Bryan, Corsicana, Ennis, Temple and Waco—take your choice.

11—Tyler the outstanding favorite.

12—Lufkin ditto.

13—Jeff Davis a paper eagle over Lamar and Stephen F. Austin.

14—Goosecreek, South Park (Beaumont) and Port Arthur the big three.

15—Red Forehand's Breckenridge team headed by George Harcourt, a fine passer, and Ken Jackson, devastating tackle shifted to fullback, favored over the veteran Jefferson team.

'Cody Kids' Churn For National Swim Title

By Richard H. Syring
NEA Service Special Correspondent

PORTLAND, Ore.—Full of ambition, Portland's famous "Cody kids" are aiming to take up at High Point, N. C., where they left off splashing in Buffalo last spring.

The "kids" star swimmers of nationally famous Coach Jack Cody of the Multnomah Athletic Club here, will be entered in the national senior women's swimming competition at High Point, Aug. 15-17.

They are Nancy Merki, Grenda Helser, Joyce Macrae, Suzanne Zimmerman and Ann Cooney, whose ages range from 15 to 17.

If the kids don't add to their list of titles, Coach Cody will be the most surprised man in the world. After watching them for three years, he is confident that they will knock off the 800-meter championship and a record.

Already the 400-meter free style relay is credited to the Oregon girls on the American outdoor books. The Misses Zimmerman, Merki, Macrae and Helser splashed it off in 4:45.7 in San Francisco last fall. Official recognition is still lacking, but the quartet is sure to get credit for additional American records in the 400-yard free style (indoor and 440-yard free style outdoor).

The Misses Zimmerman, Merki,

Macrae and Helser swam the 400-yard event in 4:12.4 in Buffalo during the national indoor meet in March. In a practice event for the North Carolina meet, the kids churned off the 440-yard relay in 4:45.6 at the Oregon A. A. U. outdoor meet.

Cody and his kids want the 800-meter title badly. They had their best chance last summer, when Portland was host to the national outdoor, but illness cut down little Miss Merki as the big show got underway and the local hopefuls had to yield to the bid of the Women's Swimming Association of New York. Barring accident or sudden reversal of form, the 800-meter team will consist of Misses Helser, Macrae, Merki and Zimmerman, with Ann Cooney as alternate.

The winsome Portlanders also are shooting for the other big relay crown, the 300-meter medley relay, consisting of 100 meters each of backstroke, breaststroke and free style.

In addition these girls will shoot for the various individual crowns. Miss Helser, defending champion, is going into the 100-meter free style along with the Misses Macrae and Zimmerman.

Miss Merki will swim the one-mile free style, in which she twice has finished second.

Dodgers And Cardinals Battle Neck And Neck For Pennant With Double Victories And Yankees Also Win Two

By Bill Boni
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Drama being somewhat outside this department's scope, there will be no effort made here Sunday to tell you in glowing phrases of the history-making National League pennant race now in progress.

The drama, instead, will be left in the hands of the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals—and capable hands they are, too—while this will serve as a simple recitation of the facts.

The facts are these—Last Friday night Brooklyn was in front by three percentage points. Since then each team has played three contests. Yet Monday those same three points are all that separate the Dodgers in first place from the Cardinals in second.

This was achieved by a chain of circumstances which first saw the Boston Braves snap a seven-game Dodger winning streak on Saturday, and the Cardinals promptly lost a 13-inning thriller to the Pittsburgh Pirates. Then Sunday there was a double victory for Brooklyn over the Braves, whereupon the Cards, already having won the opener of their doubleheader from Pittsburgh, broke loose with three runs in the eighth inning of the nightcap to take that as well.

White Wins Opener.
Brooklyn pounded three pitchers for 17 hits, including four doubles and a homer by Duck Medwick, for a 14-4 decision. The nightcap saw stout Frederick Pitzsimmons and his knuckleball shut out the Braves, 4-0, on six hits.

Close-to-the-vest pitching was the winning prescription for the Cards. A crowd of 26,513, one of the year's largest in St. Louis, saw Ernie White take the opener, 3-2, and then watched Mort Cooper, though touched for 10 safes, bear down in the clutch to win his 10th of the year.

The baseball tradition that it's bad luck to get presents held true for the Chicago Cubs' Charley Root. The 42-year-old veteran got a station wagon from his fans, a $1,600 check from his club and even a baby pig. But when he settled down to work he got a 3-1 trimming from the Cincinnati Reds.

Yankees Win Pair.
The New York Giants ran the last-place Phillies losing streak to eight in a row by winning the first half of their double bill, 5-4, getting four runs on homers. But then the Terrymen, riding a three-game victory string that was their longest since June, rode it to a fall as Veteran Si Johnson turned them back, 4-3.

In the American League the New York Yankees took two from the Philadelphia Athletics, 11-2 and 4-1, and thereby climbed back into a 14-game lead over Cleveland. The Indians held things along by bowing to Ted Lyons and Thornton Lee of the Chicago White Sox, who held them to six hits apiece in winning by 5-2 and 2-1, respectively.

The Boston Red Sox were their slugging selves in trimming the Washington Senators, 7-6, but in the nightcap couldn't bunt their lead 10 hits off Venezuelan Alejandro Carrasquel, who chalked up an 8-2 triumph.

Buck Newsum of the Detroit Tigers, who hasn't won a game since July 15, didn't win Sunday, either. The St. Louis Browns got to him early for nine hits in four innings, got six more off Schoolboy Rowe, and won, 7-3.

Third-Place Rebels Defeat Oilers, 7-2

By The Associated Press.

The third-place Dallas Rebels, determined to oust Tulsa from its second-place spot in Texas League standings, cracked out a 7-2 victory over the Oilers Sunday night in the first contest of a series.

In other games, the Houston Oilers, leading the circuit by a towering percentage, took a doubleheader from the Exporters at Beaumont, 14-4 and 4-1. Fort Worth smashed through the Indians at Ft. Worth for a 3-0 win, and San Antonio eked out a 2-1 triumph over the Sports at Shreveport.

He won over defending champion Horace Norman of San Angelo, 3 and 2. Broome was medalist.

Pat Eiley of Midland, runnerup for medalist honors, lost his second round match.

James Parker, Jr., Alpine, won the consolation title in the championship flight. He defeated J. B. Copeland, Iraan, two up.

L. L. Presley, Crane, downed W. C. Putnam, McCamey, one up, to win the first flight; and Oza Gohbert, Texon, clipped Dencil Kenner, Iraan, three up, for consolation.

Eddie Ratliff, Sonora, won over Paul Crandell, Rankin, two up, for victory in the second flight.

TELEPHONE MANAGER ARRIVES HERE
Russell Howard, new manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, has arrived in Midland and is in his office today. He is moving his family here and will live at 1910 W. Wall.

Top Skeet Shooters Set Eleven Records

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Eleven new records were in the books Monday and six others had been tied, as the nation's topnotch skeet shooters wound up their seventh annual national championships.

C. H. Poulton, from down in the Alamo country at San Antonio, Tex., took the final official event on the slate, the coveted all-gauge 250-target championship, with 250 straight, but he had to break 175 additional targets to nose out Alex Kerr, 28-year-old Beverly Hills, Calif., star, in the shootoff.

The shootoff, occasioned by a deadlock in the regular event, was the longest ever witnessed at the National event.

ULMERS RETURN
Mayor and Mrs. M. C. Ulmer and daughter, Ann, returned Sunday night from Evansville, Ind., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Barron Kidd and family.

Three Teams Remain In Baseball Tourney

DENVER (AP)—It will take three victories in two nights for the Buford, Ga., Shoemakers to win their second consecutive Denver Post semipro baseball tournament.

With just three teams left in the prize money scramble, the Georgians were scheduled against Aurelia, the Iowa semipro champion, Monday in a do or die semi-final struggle.

The loser will be eliminated, since each club has lost one already, and the winner will clash Tuesday night with the undefeated Ethiopian Clowns of Miami, Fla., for the title.

If the Clowns lose, another game must be played immediately following under the tournament's two-defeat elimination plan.

the 51-day-old struggle as continuing overnight in the bloody Smolensk Salient, 230 miles west of Moscow, on the Estonia front, and at Bel Tserkov, 30 miles south of Kiev, the Ukraine capital. A fierce new battle was reported developing in the Uman sector, midway between Kiev and Odessa.

The disputed city of Smolensk itself had fallen to the Nazis. An Associated Press correspondent, the first American newspaperman to reach that sector since it was first reported captured by the Germans on July 16, said the city had been virtually erased.

Hitler's high command said Nazi warplanes struck violently at Moscow during the night—the 16th raid on the Soviet capital—and "dropped many tons of explosives and incendiaries on the armament industry, primarily northwest and east of the city."

The Russians admitted an attack by several waves of Luftwaffe raiders, in which civilian casualties touched off fires in the ruin of dwellings smashed by high-explosives. The assault lasted four hours and 15 minutes.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr.
(Finch Hitting for Eddie Brietz)

NEW YORK.—(The Sports News Service)—Week's wash: Best heading we've seen in some time is the "Upton Nooz," doughboy paper from Camp Upton, N. Y. . . Leo Waldman, former N. Y. Herald-Tribune writer, does the sports editing and reports the Upton ball team is so hot the local folks call 'em the "Senior Dodgers." . . . Frank Leahy came right out in public at the Texas High School Football Coaches Association meeting and told them material counts more than anything else in their business. . . . And don't you think the listeners didn't believe him, what with all the coaches in the state around to get a look at the kids playing in the all-star game. . . . A dozen of the all-stars are headed for Texas A. and M. this fall and 10 for Rice. . . . The U. S. G. A. finally has decided that golfers know enough to come in out of the rain.

Midwestern harness fans better get a look at Bill Gallon, the Hambletonian winner, while they have a chance. His owner let most of the colt's three-year-old engagements lapse when he didn't show much early speed, so from now on he'll have to race against the crack older horses or not at all. . . . Giant fans (yes, there still are some) agree with Horace Stoneham in stringing along with Bill Terry as manager, but they say Horace should get himself a new ball club for Bill to manage. . . . Alice Marble and her coach, Eleanor Tennant, expect to get a sponsor soon for a proposed radio program. Eleanor will talk about tennis. Alice, you know, can sing but we'd rather watch her make her court opponents moan. . . . Will Lou Nova be Joe Louis' successor as champion? Well, he was once. He took the National A. A. U. title right after Joe held it.
