

Nazis Sink 22 Ships Of Convoy German Action To Determine Waters

Hull Answers Questions To FDR's Speech

Roosevelt Tells Nation Ships Will Shoot First To Protect Commerce

By The Associated Press WASHINGTON — Secretary of State Hull indicated Friday Germany's actions will determine what areas the United States will consider "defensive waters" in which American warships will shoot first in their patrols to defend shipping against Axis attacks.

Asked to define the waters concerned, Hull told reporters it must be remembered that the United States confronted a world movement of force for the purpose of conquest of continents and seas.

The discussion was on President Roosevelt's speech Thursday night in which the president bluntly barred war reaches of the seas to what he called "rattlesnake" raiders carrying the flags of Germany and Italy. Mr. Roosevelt backed up the no trespass order with guns of the United States fleet.

The opposing forces, Hull said, will have something to say concerning areas of the sea which the United States may or may not find necessary to defend in order to protect this hemisphere.

Asked whether the United States would now send a formal note to the German government protesting Nazi attacks on American shipping, Hull simply referred questions to President Roosevelt's speech.

To Protect Any Ship. Poles of the administration's policy immediately endorsed that this constituted "an authorized declaration of war," an engraved invitation to trouble.

But there was no disagreement as to what the President meant. His instructions to the fleet, effective at once, were specific—strike first without waiting whenever Axis raiders are encountered hereafter in the "defensive waters" of the United States. He said ships of any flag would be protected from raiders in these seas.

That, in brief, was the burden of the address which the Chief Executive delivered by radio Thursday night to the nation, to the Axis powers and to the other countries of the world.

It represented the President's considered reply to the recent series of sea incidents—a previously undisclosed attempt to torpedo an American warship, the clash between the U. S. Greer and a U-boat in the North Atlantic, and the sinking of three American-owned merchantmen.

"The sole responsibility rests on Germany," said Mr. Roosevelt of the future. "There will be no shooting unless Germany continues to seek it x x x. "But let this warning be clear. From now on, if German or Italian vessels of war enter the waters, the protection of which is necessary for American defense, they do so at their own peril."

While critics were aroused by the pronouncements—Senator Van Nuys (D-Ind.) called them "alarmer... terrorizing"—the address drew a round of bipartisan approval, highlighted by the endorsement of Wendell L. Willkie and the statement of Senator Thomas (D-Utah) that "driving pirates off or out of the seas is not war."

There was an echo of a bygone shooting war when Mr. Roosevelt flatly accused Germany of waging "ruthless... unrestricted submarine warfare." It was the resumption of unrestricted submarine warfare early in 1917 that bought the severance of diplomatic relations with Germany which preceded the United States entry into the world war.

Vague In Places As for the "unrestricted submarine warfare of 1941," President Roosevelt said the United States was ready to deal with it in defensive waters "no matter what it takes, no matter what it costs."

Stanton Farmer Finds Man Dead In Barn With Head Crushed; Officers Believe Death Caused From Fall

STANTON (Special)—An unidentified man, about 65, was found dead early Friday, his head crushed, in a barn at the Jess Blackford farm in the northeast outskirts of Stanton.

Blackford discovered the body when he went to the barn Friday morning. He said the man appeared at his home Thursday night and asked lodging. Blackford gave him a mattress to use in the barn loft. The stranger said he expected to pick cotton in Martin County.

District Attorney Martelle McDonald, Big Spring, and Sheriff Morris Zimmerman, Stanton, investigated. Justice of the Peace Lynn White returned a verdict of "death from accidental causes." Officers believed the man fell from the loft.

The body was taken to Big Spring, where it will be kept while an effort is made to find relatives. Slips of paper found on the man contained the names of Sam Cummings, Shafter, Okla.; V. C. Allen, Albuquerque, N. M.; Bolton Adams, Fortillo, N. M.; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sealey, Minekah, Okla.

Soviets Cross Dnieper And Take Villages

Nazi Leader Loses Chance Of Equaling Napoleon's Advance

By The Associated Press MOSCOW — Counter-attacking Russians crossed the lower Dnieper at four points Friday and claimed capture of an island and two villages from the Germans even as new reverses for the Wehrmacht in the bloody Smolensk central sector dashed all Adolf Hitler's hopes of equaling Napoleon's 83-day march to Moscow.

In his 83rd day of the Nazi invasion, Marshal Semyon Timoshenko's central Red Army reported recapture of the village of Olka as its latest success in the continuing westward thrust against the invaders. Red Star, the Soviet army newspaper, said a platoon scouted the village in advance and then a tank charge threw the Germans out. More than 100 men, 17 field guns and 10 mortars were left behind.

Fighting extended all up and down the central zone, Red Star saying the Germans were being driven back upon Smolensk at the rate of 7 to 10 miles a day.

Admits Weather Hinders BERLIN (AP)—The German high command admitted Friday that rain and mud were making the Nazi invasion of Russia difficult but insisted operations were nevertheless "progressing well." "Stronger" Russian troop concentrations in the central sector were taken under "effective fire" by German artillery, DNB said, resulting in the dispersing of Soviet units.

First Airplane Is Assigned To Field

The first airplane assigned to Sloan Field, an AT-6 advanced trainer, was at the airport and ready for duty Friday.

Magnolia Gets Big Well On Vacancy Strip Owned By Midland Insurance Man In Abell Simpson Pool Of Pecos

By Frank Gardner Oil Editor A vacancy strip in the Abell Ordovician pool owned by Clint Myrick, Midland insurance agent, has started to "pay off" with the development by Magnolia Petroleum Corporation of a large producer in its first well, the No. 1-A State-Myrick.

Bottomed at 5,387 feet, corrected by steel line from 5,394, the well flowed 108 barrels of oil in one hour through 1-inch choke on 2-inch tubing set at 5,384 feet. The second hour opening was reduced to 3/8-inch and the well made 43.22 barrels. It flowed 43.21 the third hour, also through 3/8-inch choke. The fourth hour No. 1-A State-Myrick flowed 70.23 barrels through 1/2-inch choke on tubing and was shut in for potential gauge, slated to be taken Saturday. It is located in scrap-file 13,974 on the Myrick strip and is a south offset to Magnolia and Stanolind No. 3 Tex-Mex Petroleum Corporation-McKee. Production is from Simpson sand of the middle Ordovician.

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 1 W. M. Rixse, new Abell Simpson producer which flowed 50 barrels an hour on drillstem test, is standing after cementing 7-inch casing at 5,396 feet with 475 sacks. Total depth is 5,416 feet. Main pay sand was topped at 5,399 feet.

Also in the Abell, Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1 Tex-Mex re-covered 120 feet of gas-cut mud and blew 2,196,000 cubic feet of gas daily when drillstem-tested 30 minutes from 5,160 to 5,245 feet. It will be deepened. Magnolia No. 2 State-Silverman is drilling past 5,147 feet in Simpson lime and shale.

It then was tested through casing and tubing for four hours, flowing 80.4 barrels of 36.4-gravally oil, with 1,945,000 feet of gas for a gas-oil ratio of 4,050-1. (See "OIL NEWS" page two)

Eight Drift On Barge In Storm

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Concern was felt Friday for the safety of eight men aboard a drifting barge off the mouth of the Mississippi River in a tropical storm meandering along the gulf off the river passes.

The weather bureau Friday extended storm warnings eastward toward Mobile and westward to Lake Charles, La., near the Texas Coast, as the slowly moving disturbance kept observers uncertain where it might blow ashore.

Germany Contends Single Submarine Actions Greatest Attack In History On Vessels Taking Aid To Britain

Spokesman Says 'All Roosevelt's Contentions Are Lies' And Others Report Big Chase Against Convoy Is Continuing With Scattered Vessels

By The Associated Press BERLIN—The German high command Friday countered President Roosevelt's no-trespass speech with the announcement that U-boats have sunk at least 22 ships out of a Great Britain-bound convoy, and an authorized spokesman later declared: "All Roosevelt's contentions are lies." The U-boat attack was, perhaps, the greatest single submarine action against commerce in history and many quarters took that, itself, as an eloquent answer to President Roosevelt.

FCC Approves Two-Way Police Radio System

Midland will have a two-way police radio system, one of the best in West Texas.

Its application for the sending and receiving set was approved by the Federal Communications Commission in Washington Wednesday, Frank Manning, acting chief, was notified.

Midland's station will be KRLE, operating on a short-wave frequency of 2458 kilocycles. Under average conditions calls can be sent and received over an area extending as far as Austin, officers estimated.

Police patrol cars will be radio-equipped. A central station will be established but the location has not been selected.

Will Operate Soon Officers said a number of citizens qualified as third-class operators for the system.

Most of the equipment already has been received and other equipment is expected in time to set up the system within a week.

Midland's station will be stronger than Big Spring, Sweetwater, and Abilene.

An application by the city was made to the FCC several weeks ago. Previously the department only had a receiving set.

Behind The Headlines

By DeWitt MacKenzie President Roosevelt's order to the fleet to shoot on sight whenever Axis raiders invade America's "defensive waters" brings one to the obvious conclusion that a shooting war might develop.

The Chief Executive's statement on this policy, however, makes it clear that we do not seek war and that "there will be no shooting unless Germany continues to seek it."

That puts the future up to Herr Hitler. Berlin thus far has given no indication of what is in his mind.

What we do know is that up to this juncture the Nazi leader has studiously avoided war with the United States. If he now forces the issue it will represent a complete change in policy and one which it would seem hard to justify from the standpoint of German strategic needs, since the last thing he can desire is to have the American Navy cut loose against him.

No Mention Of Japan. Still, it's possible that if the Fuehrer believes he can liquidate the Russian danger in the near future, he may contemplate another quick all-out assault on Britain. In that case he might attempt to cut England off from American aid by attacks on our shipping.

There is small doubt that there will be further "incidents" which will involve shooting. However, while it is certain that each one of these is fraught with the danger of war, it strikes me that if they were only occasional they might continue long before precipitating general hostilities.

The president's omission of any reference to Japan was taken by some observers to have special significance, as indicating a desire not to say anything which might influence the very delicate conversations now proceeding between Washington and Tokyo in an effort to reach accord over the Far Eastern situation.

Petroleum Office Makes No Effort To Remove Clamp

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the face of a Senate committee's report that the East has a sufficient gasoline supply for motorists, the defense petroleum coordination office made no move Friday to lift restrictions on sales of motor fuel.

Acting Petroleum Coordinator Ralph K. Davies said he stood pat on his previous appraisal of the situation, adding that "the necessity for public cooperation continues."

"To the coordinator's office, the admittedly low condition of petroleum stocks on the East Coast continues to mean shortage and the necessity for appropriate action," Davies declared after the committee released its conclusions Thursday.

May Resume Hearings Stressing that the report was merely a preliminary one, Senator Maloney (D-Conn.), subcommittee chairman, had asserted that the shortage, as we see it, is a shortage of surplus and not a shortage of products, or a lack of facilities to transport them.

The Senate group saw no danger of a lack of fuel for domestic heating or for operating defense industries, and said that "with proper conservation motorists should find it possible to acquire the gasoline and oil products which they need."

Reliable sources declared Friday that unless Ickes and other officials removed the sales restrictions, the Senate committee would resume its public hearings to find out why.

Stamford Bank Of $5000

STAMFORD, (AP)—A calm bandit who produced an old-fashioned revolver from a paper sack Friday held up to employees of the First National Bank, and escaped with an estimated $5,000.

"Stand over in the corner and don't move or I'll shot you like rats," he was quoted as saying.

Keese and Rinn said they stood there, while the bandit used his free hand to scoop up all the cash in sight.

A House Is Torn Down, Without Loss

In Detroit a great house is about to come down under the wrecker's crowbar, a vast pile of brick and stone that cost $3,000,000 and had 110 rooms.

That isn't important, and it isn't very interesting either,
except for one thing:

Houses like that in every town are also coming down.
Nobody wants them, even the very rich who can afford them.
There is scarcely an American city that does not have one or more of these dinosaur relics of the age of the American colossi, which is either being dismantled or stands lonely and neglected simply because nobody wants it any more, even the few who could afford it if they did. They date. They recall an era that tried to be magnificent and didn't quite make it.

The Detroit house was that of John F. Dodge. It was still uncompleted when he died in 1920, and the family never occupied it. Stonework which Dodge imported 110 stonecutters from Scotland to finish remained unadmired.
The lavish grounds began to grow up to underbrush. Once a florist rented the greenhouses; once a whole girls' summer camp operated in the screened porch. Brush and grass grew higher; children peered daringly into the gaunt windows, then ran away. It was a friendless, cold, haggard ghost of a house.

The Dodge estate couldn't sell it. The property will be easier to sell with the house removed. There are still men in Detroit who could pay the price, but the fashion has changed. These American castles, which would make Marlborough's Blenheim look like a week-end lodge, have seen their day pass.

Who shall mourn them? Few indeed.

It is still possible for Americans of outstanding ability or luck to have homes on a grand scale. But the houses built on a scale of sheer ostentatious grandeur, far beyond any sanely imaginable need of their occupants—they are passing. They are passing, not because an indignant people tore them down as happened in pre-revolutionary France, or in Russia, but because native American good sense, made dizzy for a while by the merry-go-round of the twenties, has come back to balance.

Oslo Reports Revolt Against Nazi-Backed
Officials Imminent

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)— Reports from Oslo Friday said a spirit of revolt against the German-supported Quisling government was growing rapidly in Norway and a gigantic conflict was indicated in the next few days with the trade unions leading the opposition to the Nazis.

The unions have about 350,000 members.

A great many persons were reported arrested at a number of places in Norway Thursday.

Ludvik Buland, vice president of the Labor Federation, was sentenced to death and then pardoned by Josef Terboven, Nazi gauleiter for Norway as official accounts said
"labor peace was restored and there were no episodes of any kinds."

Officials' Movement
May Preserve Forest

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo.— (AP)—Forest service officials have discovered a forest so beautiful they have started a movement to have it set aside perpetually as an area where never a woodman's axe may ring.
E. S. Keithley, supervisor of Pike National Forest, said the trees are Engelmann spruce with a stump diameter of about 30 inches and some are 135 feet high—as tall as a seven story building.
They cover a 40-acre tract.

Keithley said the area was "discovered" while he was on an inspection trip. He said the timber was virgin, spared for many, many years from forest fire or timber cutters.

Although the White House had promised that the speech would leave no questions unanswered, it contained only the vaguest indication of what parts of the sea were held to constitute "defensive waters."
Moreover, it made no mention of any decision to seek repeal of the neutrality act, and it was completely silent on the subject of the third Axis power, Japan—a silence some thought was significant.

In speaking of "defensive waters," Mr. Roosevelt made only one point clear—that the seas immediately surrounding all American outposts were so considered. The absence of a more explicit definition set legislators studying previous presidential pronouncements in an effort to work out one for themselves.

Legislature May Hold Inquiry On Prison Matters

AUSTIN (AP)—Storm clouds of a penitentiary investigation by the legislature seem to be gathering.
The lightning of an inquiry into Texas far-flung prison system soon may be flashing.

In both House of Representatives and Senate there is talk that a resolution calling for an investigation may be introduced, but so far as can be determined, a resolution has not been drafted.

Recent action of the state prison board in firing the system's general manager, O. J. S. Ellingson, together with reported unrest among prisoners and a hangover from the legislature's abolition of the bat last spring, have caused some legislators to wonder if an inquiry was desirable.

Ideas Exchanged
It would not be a new step for the legislature. In the past it has investigated the prison setup many times and from the reports of its committees changes in prison administration and methods of operating have resulted.

Senator Fred Mauritz of Ganado conferred Thursday with Denver Chestnut of Kenedy, prison board member, in Austin while other members of the legislature exchanged ideas on what should be done.
"I told Chestnut," Senator Mauritz said, "that newspapers had quoted a member of the board as saying that Ellingson was efficient but nevertheless there was turmoil in the system. I also told him that if an efficient man was causing turmoil something must be wrong and possibly we should look into the situation."

lowing quotations from a famous document of freedom.

1. "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal."

2. "We, the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union. . . ."

3. ". . . all the men in all the lands may live out their lives in freedom from fear and want. . . ."

4. ". . . this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom. . . ."

5. "In the wars of the European Powers in matters relating to themselves we have never taken any part, nor does it comport with our policy to do so."

Chance for a bright idea

There's only one reason why so many people use newspaper advertising—they haven't found a cheaper way to do what newspaper advertising does.

And what it does is save time in finding enough customers to keep factories and stores busy.

There's a chance here for a bright idea.
But it's got to be mighty good. Advertising is.

To Win The Crown Means To Overcome Life's Temptations

9 After these things I saw, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation and of all the tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, arrayed in white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 and they cry with a great voice saying, Salvation unto our God who sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 And all the angels were standing round about the throne, and about the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and power, and honor, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever, Amen.—Rev. 7.

By R. A. Weaver.

In the study of Revelations, it is interesting to note the manner in which Jesus presented Himself to each of the seven churches in Asia to whom the messages were addressed. To each He presented Himself under a different title, and to each He gave a different precious promise. To the present day Christian a resume of this will be highly interesting. Let us take these in order and consider their meaning:

Ephesus. To the church of Ephesus Jesus gave this salutation: "These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks." Here we note that Jesus represents Himself as being the protector and preserver of the stars by which is meant the ministers of the gospel; and as being also with and in the midst of the churches of God. His promise to this church is: "To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God."

Smyrna. To the church of Smyrna Jesus identified Himself in these words: "These things saith the first and the last, which was dead and is alive." This reference to eternal divinity is generally expressed in the Greek as "The Alpha and the Omega," the signature of the everlasting and eternal God without beginning or end. The apostle Paul referred to God as "One God the Father of all, Who is in all, through all and above all." Jesus' promise to the church in Smyrna was: "He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death."

Pergamos. To the church in Pergamos the message began: "To the messenger of the church in Pergamos write: These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges." The sharp two-edged sword was the insignia of a King of Kings and Lord of Lords who was to come and judge the world at the end of time, and destroy the forces of evil. The promise to this church was: "To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saying he that receiveth it."

Thyatira. To the church in Thyatira Jesus spoke thus: "These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass." As the sharp two-edged sword represents the word of Truth, the Son of God came into the world as the true Logos of the Father—the Word became flesh.

The promise to this church is: "He that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations; and he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as a vessel of a potter shall they be broken in shivers; even as I received of my Father."

Sardis. To the church of Sardis Jesus became "He that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars." His promise to this church was: "He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before His Angels."

Philadelphia. To the church in Philadelphia Jesus addressed Himself as: "These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth, and no man openeth." In this salutation Jesus reiterates His perfection and power which he had beforetime declared to His disciples saying, "All authority in heaven and in earth is given unto me." The promise to the church in Philadelphia was: "He that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out; and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God which is New Jerusalem."

Laodicea. To this church Jesus called Himself "The Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God." The promise is: "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne." From all these we find the keynote is the necessity for each Christian today to overcome the world, the flesh and the devil. In this present evil world, the Christian will find comfort and assurance from each of these precious promises.

In winning the national mixed team-of-four championship, Sidney Silodor of Oakmont, Pa., established a remarkable record. Last December in Philadelphia, at the fall session of the National tournament, he and Mrs. R. C. Young won the National mixed pair title.

Following his victory in the mixed team-of-four at Asbury Park, Silodor turned in a good score in the National men's pair championship, when he and his partner, Joseph Davis of Philadelphia finished second. He has finished first or second in 12 tournaments within the past year.

Silodor is a slow, careful and accurate player, with an uncanny ability to count down a hand. In today's hand he won the opening lead in dummy with the ace of clubs. West discarding the three of diamonds. A low heart was led and won by the queen.

Then, Silodor led his jack of hearts and West won. A spade came back, and the ace won. Now Silodor laid down the ace of diamonds, dropping the blank king. After that it was easy to develop two more diamond tricks and win nine top card tricks.

When asked how he guessed the diamond solution, Silodor said, "West has the ace of hearts and a club void, yet he wouldn't over-rail the one-club bid. I don't think he has two five-card suits. He probably has 5-4-4-0 and his first discard is from his five-card suit because he doesn't know yet which suit he can afford to abandon. That leaves East with a blank king or queen of diamonds to explain West's pass."

Hitler Appeals To Germans For Funds

BERLIN, (AP.) — Success "unheard of in world history" has rewarded the German soldier's sacrifice "in blood, sweat, worries and privations," Adolf Hitler told the German nation Friday in a written appeal for contributions to the winter relief fund.

Hitler reminded the Germans he was appealing for the ninth time and told them their contributions would strengthen Germany both at home and at the front, giving the nation's soldiers evidence "that the entire German people stand behind them and that their fight is not in vain."

McAlester Convicts Will Use Stir Horse In September Rodeo

McALESTER, Okla. (AP.) — Convicts practicing for the "world's biggest inside the walls rodeo" Sept. 20-21 couldn't use real broncos for obvious reasons, so they developed a substitute which bucks but won't run.

They call it a stir horse. The contraption, made of an empty oil drum covered with a mattress, is suspended on chains from four iron posts. When husky prisoners grasp the chain and start heaving, the stir horse bucks like a rowboat in a tosses a mile.

"You get all the motion of a pitching broncho and then some," said one of the riders.

"And if you don't watch out it will toss you a mile." The rodeo, an annual event at McAlester penitentiary, will be a memorial this year to its founder, Warden Jess Dunn, slain with four others in a break Aug. 10.

Only two events are open to outsiders—calf roping and bulldogging. The convicts have the field to themselves in mane hold riding, saddle broncho riding, wild Brahma bull riding, buffalo riding, wild cow milking and trick riding.

Flashes Of Life

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa. — Eight-year-old Kenneth Snyder, admiring some gold fish, scooped up one in his hand and puckerd his lips in a kiss of affection for his finny friend.

There was a sudden jump by the fish, a gulp and Kenny was unintentionally—a fish swallower.

WINFIELD, La. — Soldiers here were impressed by the generosity of school children who provided them with showers, cold drinks, shoe shines and even let them ride ponies. Finally a tot explained: "Because you are using our school for an office until the maneuvers end, we get an extra month's vacation."

SOYBEAN OIL ENRICHES GROUND FOR TOBACCO

WINDSOR, Conn. (UP.) — The Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station has announced an increase in the tobacco crop yield after using soybean oil meal instead of cottonseed meal in fertilizer experiments.

Average results for five years showed a 7 per cent increase in the yield of soybean-treated plots, while the grade index increased 6.5 per cent and the total crop index (yield by grade) 14 per cent.

Other experiments show nitrogen from castor pomace to be 20 to 25 per cent more efficient than nitrogen from soybean oil, 14 to 15 per cent more efficient than cottonseed.

Des Moines Crowd Heckles Lindbergh

DES MOINES, Ia. (AP.) — Charles A. Lindbergh contends the British, Jews and the Roosevelt administration are plotting to drive the United States into the war.

His voice drowned out at times by the boos and cheers of a boisterous and heckling crowd, the flyer declared at an America first rally Thursday night.

Before Lindbergh reached the platform, the crowd heard — and cheered 11 distinct times—the broadcast of President Roosevelt's address.

Earl C. Jeffrey, America first field representative, who estimated the crowd at 8,500, said the conduct of the gathering was "the worst I have seen."

ARIZONA PROTESTS PRICE OF 12 CENTS FOR COPPER

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UP.) — The 12-cent price peg of domestic copper should be raised to stimulate production to meet national defense needs, it was contended today by Charles F. Willis, chairman of the Arizona mineral resources board.

Willis contended the price was pegged without consideration for cost of production, fair return on invested capital, supply or demand or any other factors usually considered in fixing prices.

He said the price should be approximately 14 cents. This would enable many border-line copper mines in Arizona to go back into production.

he added, "It looked like an organized attempt to sabotage the meeting."

Maybe it was the insolent demand that the answer come collect. Or it might have been the question the debutante asked that upset Judy. But deep in her heart two words rode restlessly: Sandy was "doubtful" . . . Sandy was "unhappy."

If Sandy himself had sent such a message she would have answered quickly, releasing him forever. Clean wounds healed. The pain was sharp and fierce at first, but in the end you knew there were no little words to act as brief anointment to any sting.

She handed the yellow slip to Phil and smiled oddly as she did so. He took it, read it, and glanced up quickly, his eyes narrowed, his chin stern.

"That young lady needs a lesson or a spanking. I'd like to give her both!"

Judy glanced up, crinkling her nose into laughing lines. "Men don't spank Peg. They kiss her. Didn't you know?"

Already she had torn the other telegrams to pieces. Both were from Sandy. One sang a psalm of praise for Peg's bravery and assured her he was still sending a card from the municipal airport in San Francisco. Apparently Airways Incorporated had told the press that a girl, identifying her-

SERIAL STORY

BRIDE FROM THE SKY

BY HELEN WELSHIMER COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: In Chicago, flying on her way to Sandy Ammerman, test pilot whom she realizes she loves after his plane is downed on a trip to the west coast, Judy Allen reads a newspaper account hinting at romance between Sandy and blond debutante Peg Gordon. Judy, wounded and bewildered, cancels her reservation and returns to New York, her job as an associate magazine editor, and another suitor, Philip Rogers, attorney for Judy's magazine, Phil gives her three telegrams that have arrived in her absence.

IS IT TRUE WHAT I SEE IN THE PAPERS STOP HURRYING HOME TO STRAIGHTEN OUT LIFE STOP SORRY ABOUT DELAY STOP PEG DOING FINE STOP LOVE SANDY

A handful of words that said everything and nothing. After all, Sandy did not know how cruelly his Sir Galahad stunt had bumped into her plans. He did not know that she would have thrown aside everything for him—her job, her apartment, Philip—almost her life.

READY TO FORGET CHAPTER VI

SHE tried to be honest facing Philip across the heavy silver of the breakfast dishes. Outside an April sun was shining. Outside people laughed or frowned, hurried through the station to their trains.

She wondered if the tabloids had caught more news during the night. She must find out, but Phil must not know.

"Mind if I take a taxi down home and slip into an office dress?" she asked him. "This way—well, I look as though I started to go some place and didn't get there. Anyway, you're due at your office long ago, and you've been a guardian angel long enough."

She found a lilt and tuned her voice to it. She managed a smile, dazzling, a little too bright, because tears were so near her eyes.

"May I pick you up about tea-time?" he asked. "Around 5?"

She wanted to shake her head. No one since Sandy had waited for her in that office. She must clear out his memories before Phil or anyone else entered. Then, too, Phil's offices were down in Maiden Lane, a steep white street in the Wall Street district, and he probably had work enough to do to keep him busy all evening.

But Phil had been kind when there had been no special need for him to take care of her. Maybe it would be better not to sit alone on a deeply cushioned seat in a dusky room and remember to strains of canned music. Yes, definitely, it would be better to go with Phil.

She bought all the morning newspapers before she entered her own walk-up apartment. For some reason which she did not try to fathom she bathed, brushed her bright hair into a nest of curls on her low neck, made two top curls into a pompadour to gleam outside her off-the-face shiny brown turban, and put on a rust crepe shirtwaist dress with brown wooden buttons that held the fone of the turban and pumps. Her long cape matched the dress's rust tone.

The sun might run down, the Nazis might part the waters and cross the Mediterranean, a fairly reliable heart might begin to break, but the editorial staff at Under Twenty must appear smartly and appropriately dressed.

READY at last, Judy opened the papers one by one. Yes, they all knew that she had represented herself to Skyways Incorporated as Sandy's fiancée. The late press knew that she had gone in quest of him. In fact, there seemed to be only one thing the press didn't know. That was that Judy Allen was returning to work immediately.

The editor threw both arms around Judy's shoulders. "Judy, child, you look good to me. I'm glad you're back. Don't let the news stories get you. I had it all happen to me and lived to get over it."

Judy smiled. It was a gay smile, donned like a mask. "I don't know just what has happened to me. Sandy seems to have turned from a Galahad to a Romeo, if the news I've been reading is true. As Sandy, we were engaged. Sandy hasn't a buffalo nickel and like roots. . . a steady job. It never would have clicked."

Never would have clicked. . . the words should have held conviction for her own heart, now that they were spoken aloud. All night, all morning she had whispered them without comfort. Now that they had taken definite shape they should be a reality instead of four words with no place to go.

She opened the door just in time to hear Sara, her secretary, say to someone on the telephone line, "Oh, yes, I've known Margaret for some time. I am not in the least surprised. . . . There was a pause. "Well, I don't know when Miss Allen will return, but I'm the department head pro tem."

Judy opened her lips to speak quickly. Then she closed them quietly. Sandy's picture—gay, teasing, light hair tousled, eyes creased into a grin—was gone from her desk. Just the big, empty letter frame awaited.

Ysleta Expects Win Over Bulldog Eleven

Coach Clark's Boys Play First Contest Of Football Season

An Ysleta eleven, predicted to be the best in the history of the school, was slated as the Midland Bulldogs' season opening opponent at 8 p. m. Friday night in the Ysleta stadium.

Coach Clyde Waffer's Lower Valley lads boast the finest array of football talent it ever possessed. A veteran line from end to end, heavy and tough, and a fast experienced backfield supports an Ysleta prediction for a two-touchdown victory over the inexperienced Class-AA Midland.

Heid Light Drill

The Bulldogs were to move to Ysleta from El Paso Friday afternoon. They were scheduled in a light drill there Thursday and spent the night in the border city.

Probably starting lineups: Midland—Davidson 154, lb; Leftwich 157, lg; Sevier 168, lt; Noyes 145, c; Lee 170, rg; Estes 155, rt; Lester 160, re; Hall 140, Foster 150, Wheeler 165, and Kelly 147, backs.

Ysleta—Crutcher and Porras, ends; Graham and Bean, guards; Rader and Shoup, tackles; Sparks, center; Champie, Butchofsky, Brown, Seat or Sallentine, backs.

Coaches Christians

Coach Dutch Meyer of Texas Christian University was chuckling over a letter from a former Horned Frog football star.

Bullpup Candidates Swarm Over Tutors At Opening Practice

Junior high coaches, L. M. Freels, Earl Killough, and Dewey Johnson, assumed the role of Mother Hubbard—they have so many football players they don't know what to do. One hundred and four Bullpup candidates answered a call for the '41 junior high team and the coaches cannot outfit them all.

The squad is expected to be culled to 75 youths but still it will be impossible to equip every boy, Head Coach Freels commented.

Nearly 40 players were outfitted Wednesday and more received equipment Thursday. The Pups swarmed out of the field house as soon as they received equipment and Freels gave them passing drills.

Operating under a new setup this fall the Pups will use junior high students only. A schedule has not been completed.

Dutch Meyer Worries Over Lack Of Brawn In Horned Frog Line

By Harold V. Ratliff (AP) FORT WORTH (AP) — Coach Dutch Meyer of Texas Christian University was chuckling over a letter from a former Horned Frog football star.

It revealed that a baby was going to arrive at the ex-Frog's house soon and added "I hope he grows into a 190-pound fullback for old T. C. U."

"I am answering that it might be too late but for him to start early feeding the boy vitamin pills or something so maybe he could get here before the wolves got me," Meyer grinned.

It really isn't that bad at Texas Christian University this season but if the boy was available now, Dutch likely would put him in the line instead of at fullback.

Good First Eleven

That's the little chunky mentor's big problem these days although he admits TCU should be materially stronger than last season. The backfield vastly improved, the line powerful but lacking in reserve strength.

"We will have a good first team," he commented. "In other words, we'll be good as long as we can keep our starting line in there."

Little Kyle Gillespie is well and hearty these days. He even says the knee that hampered him in two brilliant seasons is stronger than the other—the always good one.

And Meyers smiles broadly at mention of a boy named Emory Nix, who he frankly says will compare with the great Sammy Baugh and Davey O'Brien as a passer before he finishes at TCU.

Nix is from Paris Junior College but did not finish there so he has three full seasons in Southwest Conference play.

White Works For Kemper Position

J. M. White, 165-pound speedster and halfback on the 1940 Midland high school grid team, is a candidate for the '41 Kemper Military School eleven.

White showed up well in the pre-season football camp and when the squad was cut to 40 players, including lettermen and outstanding prospects, he was retained.

Washington Redskins Will Play Westerners

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Washington Redskins wind up their fall training period in Southern California Friday night with a game against the best collection of professional football players in the west—and the best hardly figures to be good enough for the National League outfit.

Paul Schliser, coach of the Western All-Stars, said he was putting the finest eleven men on his squad into the lineup at the opening kickoff.

"After that I'll just pray," he smiled.

The Barefoot Boy

Barefooted kicking is not confined to the Hawaiian Islands. When Johny Peacock, sophomore guard, drops back to punt for Dartmouth, he takes time out to remove his left shoe and stocking.

Dixie Walker Singles In Eleventh To Drive In Winning Counters As Dodgers Win First Contest 6 To 4

By Judson Bailey (AP Sports Writer) The stupendous struggle of the St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers for the National League pennant keeps piling climax on top of climax.

Thursday the Dodgers battled to a 6-4 triumph over the Cardinals in 11 innings of baseball as tense and thrilling as any World Series could be and yet their series has two more contests to go and as much remains to be decided as though the season were in its infancy.

The victory boosted the Dodgers' lead to two full games. But it didn't remove the crisis that existed before the series started because St. Louis still could regain first place by two percentage points by capturing the encounters Friday and Saturday.

The standings now:

Brooklyn . . . . . 89 49 .645
St. Louis . . . . . 86 50 .632

The difference between the two teams was just two men—Dolph Camilli and Dixie Walker of the Dodgers. Camilli clouted his 33rd homer with two on to climax a four-run rally in the fourth inning. Walker singled with the bases loaded in the 11th for the winning runs.

Giants Crush Reds

Ernie White, young Cardinal left-hander, allowed only seven hits over the long route. Yet his hurling actually was not as effective as that of Fat, 40-year-old Fred Fitzsimmons, who gave up 10 hits before being removed for a pinchhitter in the 11th.

In the other National League action, the New York Giants crushed the Cincinnati Reds, 6-0, with fourth pitching by Bob Carpenter and a five-run fifth inning. The Pittsburgh Pirates and Boston Braves divided a double-header. The Pirates staked the opener, 7-5, scoring four runs in the second to make Ken Heintzelman's task easy. In the nightcap Tom Early pitched a 10-0 shutout for the Braves, with the Pirates making six errors.

The Detroit Tigers evened their season's series with the New York Yankees at 10-all by wringing out a 5-4 decision in 12 innings. Herman Besse rejoined the Philadelphia Athletics and clipped the Chicago White Sox, 2-1, in a pitching duel with Johnny Rigney in which each gave six hits. Cleveland defeated the Washington Senators in a double-header.

Abrams-Zale Fight To Be Fought Later

NEW YORK (AP)—Tony Zale will spend Friday night in a hospital instead of in the ring at Madison Square Garden—and as a result this middleweight division will have to remain the muddleweight for a while.

Tony was scheduled to oppose George Abrams, the moon-faced scrapper from Washington, by way of Uncle Sam's Navy. In a 10-round non title bout that was to have been the first step in straightening out the conflicting title claims of Zale and Billy Soose, the New York recognized titleholder.

But Zale neglected what appeared to be a minor skin ailment on his feet and legs, until it suddenly became so bad that he went to see a doctor. He wound up in a hospital, where he is expected to remain a week or more.

Oilers Eliminate Shreveport From League Playoffs

By the Associated Press

The Tulsa Oilers swept Shreveport out of the Texas League Shaughnessy playoffs Thursday night by the score of 4 to 1, while at the same time the Dallas Rebels were beating the Houston Buffs 3 to 0 to take the second straight game of the series.

Thursday night's defeat was the third in a row for the unhappy Sports, who dropped two games at home before moving to Tulsa for what proved to be the final contest.

The Rebels and Buffs take their feud from Houston to Dallas Friday night for what might be the final act of the drama—the Buffs have lost two consecutive games and unless they win the third time out they're through. The Rebels need only one more win to enter the final playoff against Tulsa.

Manager Wally Dashiell, Rebel manager, announced that right-handed Joe Demoran would be relied upon for the mound work Friday night. Freddy Martin will take the hill for Houston.

The Oilers lost no time in getting the jump on Shreveport, rushing across two runs in the first inning. Clare Bertram relentlessly mowed down the Sports until the third, when York banged out a double and then scored on a two-bagger by Max Thomas.

Gordon Maltzberger turned in a six-hit mound job against Houston.

Sports Round-Up

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr. NEW YORK (The Special News Service)—No matter what happens from here on, the boys can't make any more cracks about the Dodgers' old men. . . . Fred Fitzsimmons is the daddy of them all and if anybody could give a better or more courageous performance than he did Thursday we'd like to hear about it. . . . And Fritz hasn't been getting any too much help, either—thirteen errors behind him in the last four games he's pitched. . . . Anyway, Peewee Reese's contributions to the error list are making Joe Cronin look good. He's mainly gained all along the kid wasn't a major leaguer. . . . And how the Yanks must have laughed when they heard the teams that want to play them in the world series had kicked eight chances in one game. . . . Michael Smith, a Brooklyn embalmer who is a red-hot Dodger fan, joined the club on the way to St. Louis and for a while Thursday it looked as if he could go right to work on Brooklyn's pennant hopes.

Quote, Unquote Mike Jacobs: "I think the NBA made a wise choice and I've wired congratulations to Abe Greined. I think we can get together down at my place in Rumson and do something for the good of boxing."

Service Dept. Lieutenant Carl Newsome of the air corps, formerly sports editor of the high point (N. C.) Enterprise, asks how about running a few more notes on what the boys in the army camps are doing. . . . Well, here goes. . . . Lt. Newsome has been stationed in three camps in the last 10 weeks. Fort Bragg (N. C.), Maxwell Field, Ala.) and Baton Rouge (La.) air base. . . . One of the guys with him at Baton Rouge is Waddy Young, the old Oklahoma all-American. . . . Last year Coach Green of Drake had five varsity fullbacks and five on the freshman squad. . . . Now one is in the flyers corps and one of the fresh took a job in an airplane factory, leaving one lefty and four other yearlings, who promptly became ineligible. . . . The Moffett Field (Calif) Flyers have lined up a nine-game grid schedule, starting September 20 against Nevada. . . . Maybe they could lend a few games to Will Roger Air Base in Oklahoma, which started practice with no equipment, no schedule and an uncertain squad but with plenty of enthusiasm. . . . Marsh Farmer, the one armed hurler from Texas Tech, would like to join the air corps if they'd take him. . . . He figures if he can rope and brand calves with one hand, piloting a plane shouldn't be too hard. . . . Rhoten Shetley, ex-Furman fullback, is at Fort Bragg and plans to play with the New Charlotte (N. C.) outfit this fall. . . . The 280th Coast Artillery, which is a long way from the coast at El Paso, Texas, has put in a bid for a spot in the Sun Bowl January 1.

Today's Guest Star R. G. Lynch, Milwaukee Journal: "The United States is about to do Tom Harmon a big favor by drafting him into the army. Tom, a fine young man when he attended Michigan, is said to have 'gone Hollywood' in a big way. We cannot think of a better way to cure him."

Wright Wrests Title From Veteran Fighter WASHINGTON (AP) — Chalky Wright, a streamlined little fighting whirlwind from Los Angeles, took over Friday as featherweight king in New York and Maryland, and promised to take on all comers in the division—"the tougher the better."

Chalky, a lithe negro with plenty of power in his flying fists, knocked out Joey Archibald, the Providence, R. I., veteran, after 54 seconds of the 11th round here Thursday night to gain the New York-Maryland title recognition.

Thirteen seniors bowed out at diploma time in June. Twelve whirlwind traded football togs for army uniforms. And a 220-pound sophomore tackle, Bob McNitt, headed for the West Indies on a defense job.

Notwithstanding the loss of these 26, the fate of the draft still holds the key to Nebraska's football success because 23 others have registered and await call. Jones fears there may be other losses before the Huskers open a nine-game campaign against Iowa State on Oct. 4.

Big Spring Resident Sees Transportation From Ox Cart Period BIG SPRING (UP).—Mother Zinn's 95 years have spanned almost every form of transportation known to man.

Formally known as Mrs. R. B. Zinn, but beloved by hundreds in this community as "Mother Zinn," the pioneer Texas settler recently celebrated her 95th birthday.

For celebration she took her first airplane trip. The air was rough and Dr. P. W. Malone, who piloted her in his airplane, asked if the weather made her uncomfortable. "I should say not," she said. "It's no rougher than lots of country roads."

As a small girl, "Mother Zinn" rode in an ox cart, almost the most primitive form of transportation known. She came to Big Spring with her husband in 1883.
