

FDR Requests Over Five Billions House Sends Road Bill To Governor

Group Approves Compromise By Large Majority

Representatives Accept Senate Amendments To Adopt Servicing Bonds

By The Associated Press

AUSTIN—An overwhelming House vote Thursday sped to Governor Coke R. Stevenson's desk a compromise road bill—10 days to the minute from the time the special session of the Legislature convened.

With 138 affirmative ballots and a lone dissenting vote the House accepted Senate amendments to a House bill continuing state servicing of county and road district bonds and splitting equally between the State Highway Department and the counties the annual surplus in the road bond fund.

Because the measure received more than a two-thirds affirmative vote in each branch it will become effective as soon as the governor signs it.

House members tabbed, 124 to 15, a motion by Rep. Clayton Bray of Longview to send the bill to a conference committee for revision of one section.

The bills as amended by the Senate reached the House floor at 11:25 a.m. and exactly at noon the 138 green lights on a red light flashed on the big voting board, signaling House acceptance of Senate alterations.

The lone dissenter was Richard Craig of Miami.

Knox Announces Fleet Convoying Ships In Atlantic

WASHINGTON, (AP.)—With convoys ploughing the Atlantic and a grim raid hunt on in the Pacific, the United States Navy let actions do the talking back Thursday to repeated Axis threats of dire consequences.

When Germany believed there was a possibility of convoys months ago, no less a person than Grand Admiral Erich Raeder openly warned the United States that the Reich would consider such a step "an open war act" and that the German navy would use its guns if necessary against American warships on such duty.

But all uncertainty on the question of American convoys was dissipated Wednesday when Navy Secretary Knox disclosed that the Atlantic fleet was using all methods, convoys included, to safeguard British-bound lease-lend cargoes in the 2000 miles of the North Atlantic that are regarded as "defensive waters."

The Navy chief thought it "unwise and indiscreet" to go into further details and he declined to answer a question as to whether the American escorts were turning over the protected cargoes to the Royal Navy somewhere off Iceland for the final 800-mile voyage to port.

At the same time, Knox revealed that the Navy believed an Axis surface raider was operating near the Galapagos Islands in the South Pacific and, while the fact had not been positively established, the hunt was on.

Russia Declares Great Reserves Will Beat Nazis

MOSCOW, (AP.)—Soviet sources declared Thursday a new defense decree broadening compulsory military training was aimed at creating the largest reserve army in history—one capable of bleeding the Nazi Reichswehr until final Soviet victory.

Under the new program ordered by Premier Joseph Stalin's Soviet defense committee in search of fresh reserves to strengthen Russia's resistance, all male civilians between the ages of 16 and 50 will be required to prepare for service in vast civilian army.

They will stay at their jobs but, starting next Wednesday, will train after work for a total of 110 hours with political commissars and older non-commissioned officers as instructors.

"Every citizen who is capable of bearing arms must have military training so that he may be ready to defend his country with weapons in his hands," the defense committee said.

"Our nation never was the slave of the Germans or other enemies and shall not become a slave now." "Autumn fogs have absorbed the dream of Hitler's general staff for a blitzkrieg in the east, but we must realize the war will be long and severe."

Declares Rationing On Gas Won't Be Stopped

WASHINGTON, (AP.)—Secretary of Interior Ickes, the defense petroleum coordinator, declared Thursday the rationing of gasoline and the filling station curfew would continue in the East, despite a finding by a Senate committee that there was no oil shortage and that present restrictions should be lifted.

"To take off all restrictions now, and yell 'come and get it,'" Ickes declared, "would be stupid."

In his first press conference since the committee wound up its oil investigation September 11, the coordinator said the problem of an oil shortage did exist, and he cited figures to show that for the week ending September 13 gasoline stocks on the East Coast dropped 565,000 barrels.

This drop, Ickes said, brought the aggregate decline in stocks for a two weeks period to 1,023,000 and compared with a drop of only 160,000 in stocks during the corresponding two weeks last year.

"Our East Coast gasoline stocks now," he reported, "are about 2,700,000 barrels, or 12.5 per cent less than they were at the same time last year. East Coast gasoline demand on the other hand, during 1941 is about 11 per cent higher than during 1940."

Tells Rotarians Profiteers Are Traitors To U. S.

Profiteers in times of national defense were described as traitors by the Rev. C. A. Johnson of Odessa in a patriotic address to Rotarians Thursday noon at Hotel Scharbauer. The Odessa Rotary Club furnished the program for the regular meeting of the Midland Rotarians. Joe Pyron, chairman of the inter-city relations committee of the Odessa Club, was in charge of the program.

Tom Sealy, club president, presided.

"No one admires a traitor," the Odessa pastor continued. "Our nation faces a great crisis and the time demands the cooperation of every real American."

"The American way of life is being tried and the American way of life must be maintained." Advantages of the American government and its organization were discussed by Mr. Johnson.

Virginia Dean Clardy, soprano, and Laverne Fox, accordionist, entertained with musical numbers. Mrs. Malvern G. McDonald, also of Odessa, was at the piano. A number of Odessa Rotarians attended the meeting.

Maritime Group Warns 11 Boats May Be Seized

Operators And Members Of AFL Union Confer On Strike-Bound Boats

NEW YORK, (AP.)—A spokesman for the Seafarers International Union (AFL) said Thursday the union had rejected a government ultimatum to agree to arbitrate a war bonus dispute with the steamship companies.

By The Associated Press

A threat by the Maritime Commission to take over 11 strike-bound ships brought ship operators and the AFL Seafarers International Union into a hurried conference at Weehawken, N. J., Thursday.

The commission's ultimatum, delivered Wednesday night, was that unless arbitration proceedings were started immediately the government would requisition the vessels which have been held at dock six days by the labor dispute. Capt. Granville Conway of the commission said he had set noon as the deadline for action on the disputants.

Seven of the vessels are in New York harbor, two in New Orleans and one each at Boston and Mobile. They are owned by the Alcoa, Calmar, Robin and Waterman Lines, Land Issues Ultimatum.

The Seafarers International Union (AFL) called a strike Saturday, demanding increases above the present $60-a-month war bonuses paid by some lines for trips to war-menaced waters. The seamen and the ship owners thus far have failed to arbitrate their differences.

Admiral Emory S. Land, Maritime Commission chairman, issued the arbitration ultimatum after the union had rejected his appeal to keep working while the controversy was ironed out.

AFL sailors on the Pacific coast were reported ready to join in the walkout Thursday unless shipping companies met their demands, a situation in the world war almost brought disaster to the allies, and it was inauguration of strong American naval convoys which had much to do with saving the day.

Will there be shooting between our convoys and Nazi raiders? Of course there will, for it must be expected that U-boats will invade our North Atlantic route to Iceland.

However, it remains to be seen whether Herr Hitler will force the issue far enough to bring on war, or whether he will try to avoid it by devoting most of his efforts to British territorial waters.

Oil Company Representatives Urge Railroad Commission For Larger Crude Permissives In Texas Fields

AUSTIN, (AP.)—An asserted increase in demand for low cold test and high octane crude oil from Texas fields was accented by oil company representatives who appeared before the State Railroad Commission in the early moments of a statewide prorotation hearing Thursday.

Spokesmen for three companies, Humble Oil and Refining Company, Magnolia Petroleum Company and the Sun Oil Company, stressed their requests for larger permissive production with demands for low cold test oil while members of the commission and one South Texas company representative mentioned recommendations for increased yield of high octane crude.

At the start of the comparatively brief hearing, member Jerry Sadler announced the state oil regulatory agency had under consideration an order requiring that local demand for crude be met before other requests were filled.

He said the order would be adopted if the commission found it was legally empowered to take the step.

T. E. Bizzell, F. C. Dale, and W. J. Jones left Thursday for Athens and other central Texas cities to obtain cotton pickers for a bumper crop in Midland County.

The men were assured help by officials at Athens and the other cities.

Behind The Headlines

By DeWitt MacKenzie

Secretary of the Navy Knox's announcement that American warships are to be used in conveying our merchantmen should cause little surprise inasmuch as there is no other way in which the safety of cargo boats can be ensured.

That is the corollary to President Roosevelt's order that shipping be protected in our defense waters. If that order is to be enforced there is no alternative to the employment of strong naval escorts, well bolstered with the fast, tough destroyers which make a special business of dealing with submarines. Either you convoy your ships or many of them will be sunk.

The situation is emphasized by the statement Thursday from Dienst Aus Deutschland, authoritative German commentary, that U-boats have sunk 30,000 tons of shipping daily for the last ten days in the North Atlantic. There is no confirmation of this claim, but we do know that there has been a steady loss of British ships. Less than four months ago, on May 27, President Roosevelt summed the position up thus grimly: "Can Expect Shooting"

"The blunt truth of this seems to be this—and I reveal this with the full knowledge of the British government: the present rate of Nazi sinkings of merchant ships is more than three times as high as the capacity of British shipyards to replace them; it is more than twice the combined British and American output of merchant ships today."

If two and two make four, then a continuation of such a loss must mean that American aid would lie rotting at the bottom of the sea, and that the allies would meet defeat. Lack of sufficient British warships to protect shipping has been a major cause of these heavy losses. A somewhat similar situation in the world war almost brought disaster to the allies, and it was inauguration of strong American naval convoys which had much to do with saving the day.

Will there be shooting between our convoys and Nazi raiders? Of course there will, for it must be expected that U-boats will invade our North Atlantic route to Iceland.

However, it remains to be seen whether Herr Hitler will force the issue far enough to bring on war, or whether he will try to avoid it by devoting most of his efforts to British territorial waters.

President Informs Congress Total Of $5,985,000,000 Is Needed For Flow Of Aid To Countries In War

Largest Single Item In Budget Is Almost Two Billions For Agricultural, Industrial And Other Articles And Ordnance Takes Big Share

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, (AP.)—President Roosevelt asked Congress Thursday for an additional $5,985,000,000 for the lend-lease program so that there might be "no interruption in the flow of aid to those countries whose defense is vital to our own."

In a letter to Speaker Rayburn, he recommended speedy action. The appropriation would bring the total of lease-lend funds to $12,985,000,000.

Mr. Roosevelt noted that of the original $7,000,000,000 last March $6,280,000,000 had been allocated.

He sent to Rayburn a letter from Budget Director Harold D. Smith which contained a proposed appropriation measure showing the projected breakdown of the $5,985,000,000.

The largest single item, reflecting a determination to supply vital needs for the enemies of the Axis, was $1,875,000,000 for "agricultural, industrial and other commodities and articles."

The next biggest of the subdivisions was $1,190,000,000 for ordnance and ordnance stores of various kinds, including armor and ammunition. For planes and aeronautical material, including engines, parts and accessories, it was suggested that $885,000,000 be laid down.

One stipulation contemplated in the draft of the legislation sent along by the budget bureau would forbid use of any of the lend-lease funds to pay any person who advocates, or belongs to an organization which advocates, the overthrow of the United States government "by force or violence."

An affidavit would be considered prima facie evidence that the person making it was not such an advocate. Ten Millions To Russia. The measure also would let the President authorize contracts for foreign government supplies for the United States to supply them with defense articles, information or services, which would be paid by these governments. This would apply to any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of this nation.

If the Chief Executive considered any defense article covered by the act to be necessary for the defense of this country, it could be retained rather than handed over to a foreign government. Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau revealed that United States financial aid to Russia began a month ago with a $10,000,000 treasury advance to the Soviets.

The secretary made the disclosure at a press conference after federal loan administrator Jesse Jones announced Wednesday a Reconstruction Finance Corporation subsidiary was buying $100,000,000 of minerals from Russia and paying for part of it in advance in order to provide the Russians with cash to pay for war supply purchases in this country.

Morgenthau said that on August 15 Russian Ambassador for Constantinople Oumansky informed him that the Russians were shipping $10,000,000 of gold to the United States in the next 90 days, but needed the money immediately to pay American manufacturers for goods already ordered.

British Press Urges Opening Of New Front

LONDON, (AP.)—Clamor for opening of a new front against Germany, presumably by landings in western Europe, broke out again in the British press Thursday after a respite inspired by disclosure that an RAF wing had arrived in Russia.

The Times, which ordinarily is slow to join press criticism of the government's policies, devoted a full column editorial to a sober reminder that the British are universally convinced the nation must make the most of the present opportunity not only to help on the eastern front but also to "develop other fronts where the enemy will have to expend his strength."

They had battled an unfavorable tide after shoving off from the French coast.

SINNERS SIN MOSTLY AND CHIEFLY AGAINST THEMSELVES. THEY MUST PAY BE THEY GREAT OR HUMBLE: He that soweth iniquity shall reap calamity.—Prov. 22:8.

Let's Be Gay About It, Say The People

American people are spending more money to have fun than ever before. Beginning in midsummer, an avalanche of cash has been pouring from American pockets into the tills of those who have amusement for sale. "Variety," organ of the fun-vending world, describes the situation in its characteristic style as "terrific." It seems to be. For look what's happening:

Summer theaters, dedicated to deficits, disclosed surprising black figures. The first football games played to 90,000 people in Chicago, 52,000 in New York, and corresponding crowds elsewhere. Chicago's civic opera smashed all summer records with 811,000 people. Race tracks have been trying to keep people from being trampled to death in front of the betting windows. The movies, looking for their annual summer slow season, have watched with joy attendance figures piling up from 10 to 18 per cent above last year. The legitimate theater, in those places where it still exists, is booming.

Even more thoughtful forms of diversion, like the sale of books, is up something like 20 per cent over last year. The fresh air and sunburn resorts have had their share from railroads carrying more passengers than ever before.

The first reason for all these things is, of course, that for the first time in many years, people have money to spend. Denied that pleasant sensation for a long time, they insist on spending it. So long as they spend it on matters not competing with national defense (and sunburn, movies, books, and football contests generally don't), who is going to say them nay? Nobody.

Does this indicate light-mindedness in the face of growing realization of crisis in the nation's affairs? We think not. No people was ever more sorely beset, nor more bravely and grimly embattled than the British. Yet such diversion as is available there is patronized eagerly, not to say frantically.

For many people, diversion is all that keeps them going in a world whose terrors increase daily. If a man spend 40 hours a week driving rivets into the wings of airplanes, shall he not relax the rest of the time, and spend his money to do so? Certainly, and he'll drive all the more rivets for that.

Unite—Against Inflation!

The case against inflation has never been better nor more strongly put than it was the other day by Secretary Morgenthau. Never was it more clearly shown that all must unite against it, or all must go down together beneath it.

It is folly, the secretary said, for farmers to push prices up by creating scarcities, for labor leaders to continue to seek repeated and regular wage increases that only increase costs and prices and thus wipe themselves out, for landlords to charge all the traffic will bear in crowded defense centers, or for business men to seek exorbitant profits.

Each, seeking to advance his selfish interest, is contributing to a downfall which might engulf all. Wisdom, restraint, and sanity, not on the part of a few officials, but on the part of millions of ordinary people, is all that will save us.

Hope From The Burma Road

American trucking experts just returned from China, where they have been advising Chiang Kai-Shek on increasing and safeguarding traffic on the vital Burma Road, bring with them encouraging news. According to Daniel G. Arnstein, one of them, no amount of Japanese bombing will ever close that road. Arnstein was over every foot of it, studying it critically and making a valuable report to Chiang on increasing the traffic which is carrying vital war supplies to China. It cannot be bombed beyond a point where quick and effective repair is possible, Arnstein believes.

The Chinese, then, have done their part in building this magnificent artery of freedom. It remains for other friends of freedom to keep the life-blood supplies flowing into it.

Big U. S. Armies Battle Intensely On 75-Mile Front

By The Associated Press.

Armor-girded land forces of the Second and Third Armies locked Thursday in a terrific struggle along a 75-mile wavering front from Alexandria, in central Louisiana, westward to Texas as the simulated warfare involving 500,000 men reached its highest tempo since the start last Sunday.

Massed infantry, artillery, cavalry and armor forces drove through tangled underbrush and thick forests while overhead opposing air forces were engaged in support of their land forces.

Attacking with sudden fury, Lieut. General Ben Lear's mobile Second Army drove from the north between two solidly entrenched flanks of the Third Army. The surprise move wedged heavily-armed Second Army forces deep into the heart of the numerically superior Third Army. Supported by fat-ranging bombers, hundreds of tanks rumbled southward as far as Derider and Oakdale, La., and battered hard-pressed Third Army divisions between Hornbeck and Leesville, La.

The air was filled with scattered dogfights as pursuit ships sought to protect bombers and observation planes circled the battle ground in the greatest air power maneuvers in the army's history. The Second Army caught Third Army defenses unprepared in 200 places. The effectiveness of 200 Third Army anti-tank guns placed along the Texas border was reduced by the thrust toward the center.

Texan Criticizes FDR Opponents

DALLAS (AP)—Critics of President Roosevelt and "pussyfooting politicians" drew the fire of Senator W. Lee O'Daniel Wednesday night in his first speech in Texas since he took the oath of office in Washington.

The Senator, in a Constitutional Day address at Fair Park, declared that defense efforts are being hampered by continual attacks on President Roosevelt.

"It is my honest opinion," he said, "that during these times of great national emergency it is harmful to the general welfare of our nation for people like Senator Wheeler, Colonel Lindbergh and others identified with the America First Committee to be continually sniping at the President of the United States about the way he does his job. I do not think that does any good for the country. I think it is ill-advised and harmful."

Without Painful Backache
Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.
When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or steady passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills

Modern Study Club Initiates Its Year's Program With "Ship Ahoy" Luncheon At The Hotel Scharbauer

Mrs. Cummings And Mrs. Lunt Are The Speakers For Day

A novel "ship ahoy" luncheon at Hotel Scharbauer Wednesday launched the Modern Study Club on its "Good Neighbor Tour" for the year.

The T-shaped table was laid with a fishnet over blue. A large boat marked "Modern Study Club" sailed a mirror lake and smaller boats were used down the length of the table which was also decorated with flowers.

Places were marked with maps of North and South America, tied with red, white, and blue.

The program opened with vacation reminiscences each member telling what she did on her vacation the past summer.

A pledge ceremony was held for the five new members, Mrs. A. J. Bedford, Mrs. G. F. Vannaman, Mrs. S. A. Schlosser, Mrs. Chas. Sherwood, and Mrs. D. H. Turner.

Mrs. Lamar Lunt, club president, spoke on "Good Neighbors," telling what the United States is doing for her sister countries to the South.

Mrs. F. C. Cummings took the members on an imaginary tour of South America telling of the climate and giving the high points of capitals and main towns in the continent. The route of the make-believe journey was shown on a map.

Arrangements for the luncheon were in charge of the social committee composed of Mrs. Geo. T. Abell, chairman, Mrs. Tom Sealy, and Mrs. Sherwood.

Present were the following, all members: Mmes. Abell, Bedford, J. H. Chapple, Cummings, Austin Flint, M. T. Hartwell, J. M. Haygood, J. J. Kelly, J. H. Kenyon, L. W. Leggett, L. E. Low, Lunt, P. A. Nelson, A. H. Riley, Schlosser, Sherwood, Sealy, D. H. Turner, Fred Turner, Vannaman.

Officers Search In Cross Plains Area For Three

CROSS PLAINS. (AP.)—The discovery of an automobile hidden in brush on a pasture near here caused officers to fan out in this section Thursday in a hunt for three accused Army deserters who escaped from Camp Wolters last Monday and fled in an automobile taken from a soldier and his girl companion.

The car was identified as the one stolen Monday night at Ranger in the robbery of a filling station and tourist camp by three men whose descriptions correspond with those of the fugitives.

Corbet Joy, a farmer, Wednesday night found the automobile four miles north of Cross Plains. It bore the license number of the machine stolen at ranger.

Officers from Mineral Wells, Brownwood, Coleman and Breckenridge, in addition to 10 state police, joined the manhunt.

The men who fled from Camp Wolters took four riot guns, similar to those used in the Ranger robbery, officers declared.

Camp Wolters officials gave the names of the three escaped men as Audley C. McBride, 23, Klondike, Delta County; Roy M. Rankin, 20, Washington State, and Walter L. Sakaitis, 27, of Chicago.

Antelope Trapping In Panhandle Will Be Launched Soon

AUSTIN. (AP.)—Antelope trapping, successful in lower West Texas and the Trans-Pecos region, will be started in the Panhandle within a few weeks.

The project—designed to relieve overcrowded ranges of animals that will be released elsewhere—will center in Oldham County, game department officials said.

A few years ago the antelope population was starving because it couldn't withstand the competition for subsistence with cattle and sheep. The trapping and distributing program is bearing fruit and the state's antelope population is estimated at 10,000 head on the basis of reports from field men who closely observe areas where seed herds have been released.

This year's most cheerful report, drifted in from the Trans-Pecos region where a game manager said there was an excellent fawn crop and that feed supplies were much better than average.

If the North Texas project is as successful as the lower plains and Trans-Pecos antelope programs have been, pronghorns should be much more abundant in the future, game officials believe.

OLD UPTON SINCLAIR HOME IN DELAWARE RENOVATED

WILMINGTON, Del. (UP.)—Workmen are clearing away several years of overgrowth and debris from the little white, clap-board lodge that was once the summer home of Upton Sinclair.

The woodland house was built with the money Sinclair obtained from his novel, "Love's Pilgrimage" which was finished during his stay at Arden. A few months later, domestic troubles and a clash with Delaware's Blue Laws over Sunday tennis caused the novelist to sell his home.

SERIAL STORY

BRIDE FROM THE SKY

BY HELEN WELSHIMER

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Her interest in aviator Sandy Ammerman, Judy Allen decides, was just infatuation. Angered by newspaper stories linking him romantically with heiress Peg Gordon, she determines to put him out of her mind, devote herself entirely to her job as an associate magazine editor and the problems of her secretary, Sara Fuller, who is obviously jealous of her and who has put her own name to one of Judy's stories in Judy's absence. Finally Judy agrees to marry handsome, dependable Philip Rogers, attorney, who offers peace and security in contrast to Sandy's impulsiveness. When Sandy calls from the west coast, she decides not to answer the phone although the bell rings insistently.

SANDY COMES BACK

CHAPTER XI

JUDY did not answer the telephone call that came at 3 in the morning. She shivered slightly as the sound died away, vanishing across hills and mountains and rivers.

Tonight she had finished a chapter of her life. Sandy was out of it. She could write "the end." Period.

She took a warm shower in the morning, followed by one that was cold and brisk. She had a new office ensemble which she decided to wear. The skirt was a soft navy that matched slippers, gloves, and wrap-around turban. The jacket and blouse were made from a new lightweight natural woolen.

A hurdy-gurdy was playing a song from a musical comedy she had seen with Philip, and she sang along with the tune of the wandering musician. When the minstrel picked up a tune which she had shared at another show with Sandy, she tossed the man a quarter and hurried into the nearest coffee shop.

Odd how songs made a bridge across one's life. Each had its memories. She must make a bonfire and burn all rhythms, now. Funny how the projection of half a dozen measures of a song could set the key for an hour, a day, forever.

There were violets in the cool, gray box on her desk. Burying her face in their dewy fragrance she did not glance at the card immediately. It would say "Philip."

Beside the box was a newspaper, neatly turned to an inner page where a short story announced that Sandy and Peg were leaving California for the Gordon lodge. Sandy's monoplane was being repaired more rapidly than had been considered possible at first. Judy understood that. Peg's father talked in millions. Naturally he would reward a boy who had cracked up because he answered that man's daughter's signal for help.

A picture of Peg accompanied the story. Good work, Peg! Not many debutantes had the chance to be rescued by a birdman. Maybe her glamor was growing pale. You'll be tops again!

At the same time Judy told herself that Sandy, as an aviator, even one who had made speed dashes and won cups and money for altitude records, would not have merited such space in the press, had Peg not been a Gordon.

It wasn't fair to Sandy. Then she remembered a wall had sprung up between herself and Sandy. There it stood, a grim, gray fortress that he could never cross. He and Peg were on one side of it. She and Phil were on the other.

SHE picked up the card that accompanied the flowers. "Don't you ever answer your telephone? You're nutty but I love you." The card bore Sandy's initials. Judy knew her barriers were going. A lump filled her throat so that she could neither speak nor swallow. So Sandy was still in pursuit. Maybe he strung hearts on a watch chain as old chiefs used to collect scalps. Anyway, he had wired flowers and a message to her when all of this time she had been so close to his voice.

She was through with tears. They gave you nothing but a red nose. When Sara Fuller came in, Judy nodded curtly. She would have smiled forgivingly—any girl knew life had its ski jumps for women—but Sara did not give her a chance to do anything.

"Sorry I made such a batch of things on the last news proofs. The book had already gone to bed or I would have corrected it. Phil hauled me over the coals." She opened an immense black pocket-book, which Judy knew had cost more than a week's salary.

"Suppose we skip the misplaced by-line," Judy suggested. "Accidents happen."

The green eyes were amused. "Yes, my infant, they do. I take my new gray lace turban off to you for your story. It was honestly good."

"Thanks. The secret's safe." She spoke casually but cherished an unwelcome idea that nothing in the low office with its daisy-sprinkled draperies was safe as long as Sara knew its secrets.

IT was four days later that Judy opened an evening paper to a scene of Sandy escorting a laughing Peg from a familiar monoplane. The cameramen had been out in full force. Reporters had been plentiful.

Judy closed her eyes and followed the procession . . . flash-lights snapping, questions, dozens of them, being hurled at the two who had come in—Peg, gay and glamorous and loving the fanfare; Sandy embarrassed and eager to slip away.

She wondered why Sandy had not called. As yet she had made no announcement of her engagement to Philip. The call came half an hour later.

"Congratulations," she said in her lightest, brightest voice. "Sorry I missed the welcome home."

"Judy, I couldn't reach a phone last night. Some people were interested in my parachute and wanted a conference to inspect it."

"What did you do? Do a flop from a hotel balcony?" Not a tear tripped her husky voice.

"No, I talked. It's no go. The amiable gentlemen wouldn't meet my terms."

"What did Peg think?"

"She raised the dead. Her uncle was one of the committee so she came along."

"On crutches?" Judy asked sweetly.

"Yes, on crutches. Why?" His voice was puzzled.

"No reason. I just wondered how she was. Will you excuse me, Sandy? I have a date with Phil and have to dash."

"That's right. Old Phil wouldn't split a second on an appointment. He's a good guy. Say hello to him for me."

"He likes you, too," Judy finished sweetly, and hung up.

A good guy! Say hello to him for me! And Sandy never mentioned tonight or tomorrow or next September! Peg had gone to the conference! Let him get caught in an earthly net. No son-in-law of the Gordons would fly for fun. Dumb nut. He should be warned—

There was something warm and reassuring in Phil's voice when he called for her.

But his words turned her heart into a trapeze—a swinging, winging hoop that couldn't stop.

Navy Announces New Cargo Boat

WASHINGTON. (AP.)—The Navy announced Thursday a cargo ship of revolutionary design which it said could be produced by hundreds in much shorter time than present types and might offset sea losses of free nations.

Light in weight, simple in construction, relatively cheap both in original cost and upkeep, this craft, the Navy said, would challenge the submarine and provide "a new bridge from this country to the free nations of the world."

The first freighter launched at Orange, Tex., has been named the "Sea Otter." It will carry a net 1,500 tons of cargo. It is only 270 feet long over all and when loaded, displaces 1,900 tons. It can be built at inland yards and taken to sea by river or canal, the Navy added.

Flashes Of Life

By The Associated Press
FORT MYERS, Fla.—Joe Whitehill telephoned the police station to report: "There's an alligator in my chicken house and by his deep voice a big one."

The desk sergeant sent Officer Dick Henry to the scene. Henry unlimbered his .38 pistol, took out his flashlight, spotted two large eyes shining in the darkness and fired.

The Whitehill family had frog legs for breakfast.

Germany Says Several Chileans Are Arrested

BERLIN. (AP.)—Several Chileans—the exact number undisclosed—have been arrested in Germany on suspicion of engaging in activities hostile to the Reich, authoritative sources announced Thursday.

"We regret being compelled to take such measures," one informant asserted, "but reasons of state make them imperative. We are in war and it is essential to eliminate all elements intriguing against us."

SAYS AIR POWER CAN WITHSTAND ASSAULTS

NEW ORLEANS. (AP.)—Two high ranking U. S. air officials expressed the belief in an interview Thursday this nation's air power is great enough to withstand any assault.

They were Robert A. Lovett, assistant secretary of war for air, and Major General Henry H. Arnold, chief of the army air forces, who arrived here yesterday after an inspection trip of air facilities in the Louisiana-Texas maneuvers.

Studies Doctors' Health

PHILADELPHIA.—The Philadelphia County Medical Society, long concerned with the public's health, has got around to wondering about the well being of its own members.

Dr. Edward L. Bortz, retiring president, listed as one of the accomplishments of his administration the establishment of a committee for the preservation of the health of physicians. The committee will make a five-year study of the physical and mental history of 1,000 local doctors.

Receives Report Italy Tries To Pass Straits

LONDON. (AP.)—An authoritative source said Thursday reports had been received of an Italian attempt to pass warships through the Turkish-controlled Dardanelles under the Bulgarian flag and that the British ambassador to Ankara "probably" had made representations against this proposal to the Turkish government.

The British envoy was believed to have asked that Bulgaria not be considered a non-belligerent because two British allies, Yugoslavia and Greece, have declared war on her.

New Battleship North Carolina's Guns Produce

The world's largest navy warns the world with a voice of thunder as three huge 16-inch rifles on the newly-commissioned U. S. S. North Carolina roar in unison, hurling their shells about 26 miles to sea. Silhouetted against the Atlantic sky, the world's most powerful ship fired, for the first time, all her tremendous armament, from 50 caliber machine guns to the great 16-inch "thunderers."

College Elevens To Start Action

By The Associated Press

A scattering of games brings more than one-third of the Texas colleges into football action this week.

All the conferences, except the Southwest, have tests scheduled.

West Texas State of the Border Conference and Sam Houston State of the Lone Star start the ball rolling Thursday night, the Buffaloes meeting Oklahoma City University at Canyon and Sam Houston engaging Lamar College at Beaumont.

Friday night, out on the Pacific Coast, Little Texas A.&I., one of the country's top minors, plays San Jose State, champion of the California Collegiate conference.

Three games are scheduled Saturday night with Hardin-Simmons, member of the Border Conference, meeting Texas Wesleyan, co-champion of the Texas Conference, at Fort Worth; Abilene Christian of the Texas Conference, playing Texas Tech of the Border loop at Lubbock, and East Texas State of the Lone Star clashing with Austin College of the Texas Conference at Commerce.

Ruggles Reports Defensive Play High In League

DALLAS (AP)—No standard records were broken in Texas League fielding but in general the level of 1941 defensive play was high, averages announced Thursday by W. B. Ruggles, statistician, show.

Beaumont narrowly missed tying the worst mark for passed balls in one campaign with 32.

Fort Worth led the club fielding with .969 and seven of the eight clubs were above .960.

Howard Pollet of Houston led pitchers in fielding with a perfect average, accepting 52 chances in 25 games.

Other individual leaders included: Catchers, Chico Hernandez, Tulsa, .988; first basemen, Murrel Jones, Shreveport, .993; second basemen, Clyde McDowell, Fort Worth, .976; third basemen, Greenberg, Fort Worth, .975; shortstops, Bob Neighbors, San Antonio, .941; left fielders, Guy Curtright, Shreveport, .965; centerfielders, Paul Easterling, Dallas, .960; right fielders, Art Rebel, Fort Worth, .979.

FEMININE FANCIES

By Kathleen Eiland

Plaids have literally "gone to the head"—and quite fashionably, too.

We've been looking at a fabric hat of perfectly huge plaids in colors not too brilliant. A hat which turns its wide brim back to give an odd, rectangular effect to the front. With it is paired a bag of matching plaid of the same material.

For the less dashing type, more conservative styles may be obtained in hats, which likewise have matched bags.

There seems to be no end to what may be done to dresses to give them an individual air. A gold-colored jersey makes itself a name as something unusual by having the back of the blouse, below the shoulder yoke, made of diagonal pieces of corduroy, some likewise in gold, and some of maroon.

What an idea for using that material which lacks just a wee bit of being enough for a dress! Help it out by using strips of other material at strategic points.

Most individual note that we've seen in furniture in a long time is the bed ensemble displayed in a downtown window. The low headboard is flanked on either side by narrow, plain bookcases (or maybe they're tiers of shelves, we don't know) which are connected by a long not-too-wide shelf extending above and across the head of the bed.

For those who do not object to a shelf across the top of the bed, this is the most attractive variation of the idea that we've seen.

The bookcases with their linking shelf may be lifted away from the bed and used elsewhere in the room.

American made, the furniture is sturdy and simple and pleasing in design and finish.

Special Committee To Probe Monopoly

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Chairman Clark (D-Ida) announced Thursday the special Senate investigation of alleged war propaganda in the movies and on the radio would shift its attention next week to "asserted monopoly" within the multi-million dollar film industry.

The Senator said he hoped to develop the "entire financial and economic standpoint of the movie industry" by questioning a series of top-ranking executives, beginning with Nicholas Schenck, president of Loews, Inc., and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Midland Pigskin Preview Starts At 8 P. M.

Football Fans Will Get Inkling Of Team In Drills At Field And Tutors And Officials Will Be Introduced

Frank Monroe, principal of Midland high school, will announce at the "Pigskin Preview" Thursday night that all Midland public school students, from the fifth grade up, will be admitted free to football games. Pupils below the fifth grade will pay student admission.

Midland's first annual "Pigskin Preview"—a football party introducing the high school grid team, its coaches, the MHS band, with other features was scheduled at 8 p. m. Thursday night on Lackey Field.

Sponsor of the event is the Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce. The Jaycees presented a similar program two seasons ago but decided this year to start an annual "Pigskin Preview."

Clint Dunagan will be master of ceremonies.

Crippled Crane Team Expects Tough Test From Yellow Jackets

CRANE (Special)—Coach A. V. Patterson's Golden Cranes had expected to beat Kermit in the conference tilt Friday at Kermit, but a team cripple in last week's Stanton affray, may not meet expectations.

Troy Langford, ace end and pass receiver, re-injured his knee and although physicians said he may play later in the season, he will be out of the game Friday. Thomas Brightman, who carries out his assignments at tackle, received lacerations on the head and has had the stitches removed, but will not start. Jack Ellison, tackle, is recovering from a bruised leg, and Bill Wallis from arch injuries. Half-back, Joe Grounds injured an ankle in practice this week, but probably will start in Langford's place. Gilvie Whitwell, guard, who played with a knee injury last week may start.

Crane won over Stanton 13-0 and the Kermit Yellowjackets won over Stanton 20-0 and were defeated 28-0 by Brownfield.

Probable starting lineups, Kermit—Price and Parker, ends; Johns and Mays, tackles; Willis and Crispin, guards; Funderbuck, center; McKey, Neeley, Myers and Dodson, backs.

Crane—J. Grounds and Ellison, ends; Webb and Stewart, tackles; Whitwell and Hutchinson, guards; Brunette, center; Earp, Teague, G. Grounds and Pettit, backs.

Down SPORTSLANE

With Tanner Laine

Woodrow Adams, giant Texas Christian University tackle from Midland, is a little bit above the average of the typical 1941 Horned Frog.

The average Frog is 20 years old, weighs 185 pounds, is 5'8 1/2 feet tall, and lives in Texas. Woodie is 22 years old, weighs 227 lbs., is six feet, two inches tall, and in the only conformity, lives in Texas—yessir Midland. A whale of a performer for Midland high, Adams has earned L.V.O.

varsity letters at the Fort Worth school and is after another this season—that's better than the average TCU'er will do, too.

Seven in the starting lineup for Midland at Ysleta were Bullpups last year. They were: Jack Neves, center; Jimmy Watson and Junior Bird, ends; Gene Estes, tackle; Pete Lee, guard; and Charlie Kelly and Rober Wheeler, backs. Seeing service in the tilt were 10 ex-junior high boys, including Bill Richards, back, and Marshall Whitmore, guard. Thirteen former pupils of L. M. Freels, Pup mentor, are out for the high team, including Tom Tisdale, back; Mal Kidwell, end; and Jerry Hudson, back.

Only 10 general wildlife and game bills were passed in the last session of the legislature, some affecting this area. They are: prairie chickens may not be hunted until Sept. 1, 1946; deer with certain exceptions must be removed from storage by June 5th of each year; doves may be taken during the open season now in progress but this law is amended by Federal regulations has changed regarding migratory birds and waterfowl; carrier pigeon and homing pigeons must not be killed or molested at any time; persons may not fish in public parks under control of the state parks board without the consent of the caretaker or superintendent; hunting in public parks under control of the state parks board is prohibited; non-resident, alien, and artificial lure licenses are not required for sport in salt water but are required of those fishing in fresh water; golden eagles or Mexican brown eagles, abundant in the western part of the state, may be killed at any time. Restrictions on some of the nearby counties include: Unlawfulness to kill or hunt deer in Reagan, Tom Green and Glasscock counties for five years.

For memory lane in today's Sportslane, here is last year's record of the Midland high Bulldogs: Won 8, lost 2, tied 1; in conference play—won 4, lost 1, tied 1, placed second in loop; had three one-point victories—beat San Angelo 7-6, beat Abilene 7-6, beat Breckenridge 7-6. Other conference scores included: A win over Sweetwater 14-7; loss to Big Spring, 0-6; tie with Lamesa 6-all; and defeat of Odessa 16-14. Non-conference records—beat Ysleta 19-0; beat Wink 24-6; lost to Austin high, El Paso, 7-12. Team standing of District 3-AA last year:

Big Spring	5	0	1
Midland	4	1	1
Odessa	3	2	1
Sweetwater	3	3	0
Abilene	1	4	0
San Angelo	0	5	1

Lamesa did not play a full conference schedule and was not figured in the standing.

Odessa Junior Team Plays Colorado Cubs

ODESSA (Special)—While their "big brothers" are idle and the rest of the district 3-AA's football teams take on non-conference foes, Odessa's junior high school Colts will open their season here on Thursday against the Colorado City Cubs.

Coach Audas Smith has only four lettermen back from his 1940 team, but he expects a fairly successful season. "I've got a good bunch of rookies," he said today.

The Colts' tentative schedule calls for games with the junior clubs of Crane, Midland (two games), Lamesa, Wink and Kermit.

(Gandy) Green, letterman on the 1940 Midland high team, is playing at Jal, N. M., and played against Wink the other night. . . Nelson Puett, Sr., of the federal tender board office, is the father of Nelson Puett, Jr., former University of Texas football star and Judge E. H. Barron believes the dad might be a former Baylor University athlete. How about it Mr. Puett? . . . Backfielder J. R. Callahan is Texas Tech's most promising sophomore. Every college in the Southwest wanted him after graduation from Wink. He received many tempting and soft offers but turned them down to study petroleum engineering, one of the college's stiffest courses. . . Usually a giant tackle is just a tackle and nothing else, but it is different with Jack Shanks from Monahan and of the Red Raiders. He scales 202 pounds but it doesn't keep him from being No. 3 man on the varsity tennis squad or from being student instructor in a dancing class. . . KRLH is pretty unhappy at the District 3-AA schedulers, who put so many Midland and Odessa home games right together. The broadcasters are problemned with which game to broadcast. . . Just askin', will the lights at Lackey Field be stronger this season. . . Comes a warning to dove hunters to watch out for rattlesnakes, which are more plentiful in the hunting areas this season. . . Robert Wheeler, MHS back, wears a special nose-guard helmet because hard contact on his beak produces nosebleed.

NEW YORK (The Special News Service)—One of the biggest disappointments Leo Durocher has had lately was when Montreal got into the International League's final playoffs. . . FOREST WARDEN TOWERS ATTRACT TOURIST CLIMBERS
ROSCOMMON, Mich. (UP)—More than 27,500 persons climbed Michigan's 72 lower peninsula forest warden towers during 1940, according to state conservation department figures—and surprisingly, 30 per cent of the persons who made the breath-taking climbs were women.

Visitors whose names were recorded in guest books in the towers were from 40 states, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Canada, Cuba, Egypt, Germany, Argentina, Portugal and England, conservation department records show.

To Select Dixie Series Site Soon
DALLAS (AP)—Selection of the site for the opening of the Dixie Series between Texas League and Southern Association champions will not be made until the conclusion of the final Shaughnessy playoff.

President J. Alvin Gardner of the Texas League said the leagues don't alternate openings but "the Dixie Series is arranged each season to the best interests of both respective towns."

Mississippi Plunger Shoots For Top With Kimbrough Graduated

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—Merle Hapes, the fullback who out-Kimbroughed "Jarrin" John Kimbrough on the gridiron last fall, is shooting for all-America honors—one year late.

The chunky University of Mississippi plunger was just another good backfield performer at the start of the 1940 season. Kimbrough was the "Texas Aggie's" great all-America fullback and the man from Texas made the grade again. But Hapes, the Rebels' big chief from Garden Grove, Calif., didn't lag behind.

He hurtled his 175-pound frame into the line 120 times, grossed 851 yards, charging off 44 yards loss on plunges, he netted 807, or an average of 6.73 yards every time he carried the ball. Kimbrough, behind rushing 162 times, gained 669 yards, rushing 16 21 times, gained 669 yards and lost 58—a net of 611. His average was 3.77 yards.

Kimbrough wasn't ranked on passing and punting, but for the record Hapes completed 13 of his 21 passes for 274 yards and three touchdowns, booted an average of 44.92 yards for 25 punts, half of them on the quick-kick variety.

De Correvont Girds For Last Year Try To Repay Grid Fans

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Bill De Correvont, who's been bounced around roughly for two seasons, believes he's ready to climb into the driver's seat this fall for the stretch run of his collegiate football career.

The Northwestern back, who came to the Wildcats in 1939 as the most highly publicized high school player in years, never has tried to alibi his mediocre showing of the last two years. He'll have no alibi if he fails to come through this fall. He does believe, however, that he'll prove he doesn't rate the "flop" many fans hung on him after the 1939 and 1940 campaigns.

Northwestern's offense now is being built around Blond Bill. Should he have a great year the Wildcats may be the surprise team of the national title battles. De Correvont knows the fans will be watching him again. He isn't worrying about that this fall.

Contestants For League Title To Play Fifth Tilt
DALLAS (AP)—The evenly matched Tulsa and Dallas teams, each with two victories in the Texas League final playoff, will stage another of their toe-to-toe battles here Thursday night—but it can't be any better than Wednesday night's game which ended in a 1-0 decision for the Oilers.

Sal Glatto for the Rebels and youthful Henry Wyse of the Oilers put on an epic pitcher's battle that finally was decided by a wild pitch. Although the hurlers allowed only five hits apiece, Glatto struck outfielder Ed Zydowski on the shoulder in the sixth inning with the bases loaded, forcing in Marvin Rickert with the run that won the contest. Fast Ball Is Puzzle.

Joe Demoran, who took a 2-0 victory from Tulsa in the opening game of the series, will hurl Thursday night against Emil Kush. Both are right-handers. After Thursday's game the teams will move to Tulsa to finish out the best-four-out-of-seven series.

The Rebel's had difficulty with Wyse's fast ball that did tricks around the plate. They didn't get a man beyond second base. Wyse faced only thirty men and didn't walk a batter. Glatto looked almost as good except for the one bad inning that gave the Oilers victory.

U. S. To Finish Base Chain Soon

WASHINGTON, (UP)—America's chain of defense air bases in the Atlantic joining Newfoundland to British Guiana is being forged rapidly and its most important link will be completed before the winter sets in.

Read Admiral Ben Moreell, head of the Bureau of Yards and Docks, reported that the huge naval air station at Argentia, Newfoundland, was in operation and would be completed before the end of the year.

The $28,000,000 project, constitutes a defense outpost of immense strategic importance, he said. The site at Placentia Bay, bordered by slowly rising land, is well suited for seaplane operations.

Work Progressing Rapidly. But the Newfoundland naval air base is only one of eight under construction on sites leased from the British in the trade of 50 over-age American destroyers last fall.

TOBACCO RATIONING IRKS AUSTRALIAN FEMINISTS

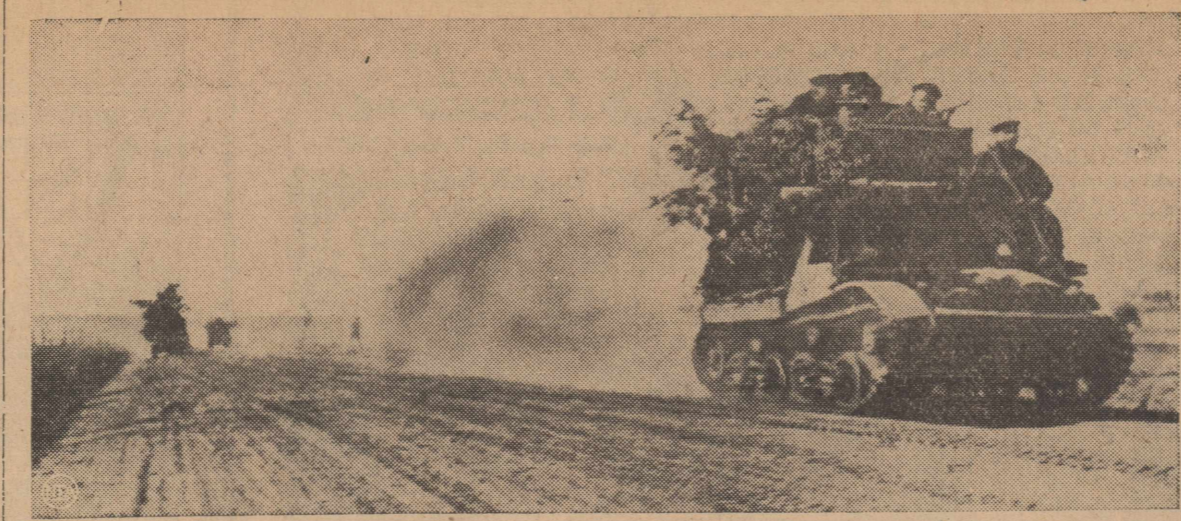

SYDNEY, Australia (UP)—When tobacco rationing became a famine in the larger Australian cities, it almost led to a new phase of the war of the sexes.

Adelaide tobaccoists resorted to the device of selling smokes to men only. Women's organizations throughout Australia immediately prepared to protest strongly.

Mrs. P. A. Cameron, president of the Feminist Club, led the stand. "If there is consolation to be had from smoking, then that consolation should be available to women just as readily as to men," she said. "Women are making great sacrifices in this war. They should be able to enjoy the same privileges as men."

Better organization of the ration scheme restored harmony. munda, the Bahamas, St. Lucia, Jamaica, Antigua, Trinidad and British Guiana are being rushed to completion and two are in operation, Morell said.

Caption radioed with this picture from Moscow says it shows Soviet tanks in the front lines near Odessa, which Berlin claims to have encircled. Tanks may have arrived by way of the Black Sea.

NAVY'S RECRUITING DRIVE PROVES TOO SUCCESSFUL

WASHINGTON (UP)—The navy's advertising campaign for recruits in Indiana almost backfired. Chester F. Weems, editor of the Worthington Times, Worthington, whose paper was carrying the advertisements, complained that as result of the campaign he might be forced to suspend publication. His only printer, Dale W. Loffland, had read the ads and enlisted in the navy.

AUSTRALIAN ARMY PAY FOR WOMEN $1.50 DAILY

CANBERRA, Australia (UP)—Australia, with the highest-paid army in the world—averaging $45 a month for an unmarried private to $98 a month for a married corporal has decided to pay its army auxiliary of women a minimum $1.50 a day or $45 for an average month.

Let Youngsters Refresh Vacations At Porch Party

By Mrs. Gaynor Maddox
NEA Service Staff Writer

High school students like to get together and talk about their vacations and coming term. Here are recipes, easy to make, for those early September porch "talk fests."

FAVORITE COCONUT LAYER CAKE

Two and one-fourth cups sifted cake flour, 2 1/4 teaspoons combination baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup butter or other shortening, 1 cup sugar, 2 eggs, well beaten, 3/4 cup milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs and beat well. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla. Bake in greased pan, 10x10x2-inch, in modern oven (350 degrees F.) 45 to 50 minutes. For a large party cake, double recipe and bake in two 10x10x2-inch pans or bake in three greased 9-inch layer pans in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 25 to 30 minutes.

Cover top and side of cake with boiled frosting and sprinkle thickly with one can moist, sweetened coconut while frosting is still soft.

Passenger Alfred King, 343-pound British air raid warden, makes a mighty load for motorcycle driven by his 112-pound buddy, Harry Gooden, but shows big men and little men both play a part in protecting London.

MINCED HAM SANDWICH FILLING (About 2 Cups)

One cup water, 3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 pound boiled ham, ground, 1/4 cup minced onion, 1 tablespoon vinegar, 1 tablespoon mayonnaise.

Combine water, tapioca, salt, and pepper in saucepan and mix well. Bring mixture quickly to a full boil over direct heat, stirring constantly. Remove from fire. Combine remaining ingredients in order given; add to tapioca mixture and blend. Cool.

MENU

BREAKFAST: Cantaloupe, creamed codfish, wholewheat muffins, tart jelly, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Cream of tomato soup, ham sandwich with enriched bread, nippy cheese sandwiches with enriched bread, fruit bowl, tea, milk.

DINNER: Tomato juice, dried beans cooked with ham shank, steamed brown bread, apple pie, cheese, coffee, milk.

Exports of Lipsticks were valued at $423,240 during the first half of this year, Department of Commerce statistics show.

Dartmouth Team Is Big Question

HANOVER, N. H. (UP)—Unpredictable is the word for the football team that De Ormond (Tuss) McLaughry is grooming in his first term at Dartmouth.

The 47-year-old McLaughry, one of the nation's topflight gridiron mentors, was greeted by one of the most promising Big Green squads in recent years when he arrived last spring after 15 years at Brown to replace Earl (Red) Blaik, who was impelled by "duty" to return to West Point.

McLaughry and a new staff of assistants settled down to the task of installing his system and at the conclusion of spring sessions, it appeared Dartmouth was set to fill the hopes of its most ardent supporters.

But hard luck began to upset McLaughry's plans in a big way. First to feel the impact was Robert McLaughry, son of the coach and most highly-touted Dartmouth fullback in a decade, who was afflicted by a baffling shoulder injury. Then eight members of an exceptionally strong freshman team who were counted on for varsity service were declared ineligible.

Ordnance Jobs Boon To Denver

DENVER (UP)—One of the biggest events in Colorado since a man named Gregory discovered gold back in the last century will be the manufacture of the first case of shells in the army's new $31,000,000 ordnance plant in the foothills of Denver.

It will mean more than just another defense boom when the wheels start turning in mid-September in the big new plant sprawled out a t the foot of the Rocky Mountains. Colorado leaders look on the new industry as the start of a new era.

The Denver ordnance plant, to be operated for the army by the Remington Arms Company, will employ 10,000 men and women in a community of 400,000 which since 1876 has been traditionally non-industrial in a state which depends on tourist dollars instead of industry payrolls for its prosperity.

Stocks of black pepper in the United States approximate from 2 1/2 to 3 years normal supply, the Department of Commerce says.

In winning the world championship Masters team-of-four contest this year, Waldemar von Zedtwitz and his teammates, Sam Fry, Jr., and Edward Hynes, Jr., of New York and A. M. Barnes of Atlanta, Ga., might be said to have settled a grudge that originated a year ago. They were favored to defeat the 1940 winners, Bertram Lebar, Jr., of New York, Sam Katz of Newark, and A. R. Roth and O. J. Brozman of Washington, D. C. This year these two teams met in the semi-finals.

AWFUL AMERICAN ACCENT EMBARRASSING TO BBC

LONDON, (UP)—BBC chiefs have new worry. Parents in Britain are broadcasting to their evacuated children in the United States. The broadcasts are two-way, with the children speaking from America.

One mother, on hearing her child, said, "Oh what an awful American accent you have. Terrible."

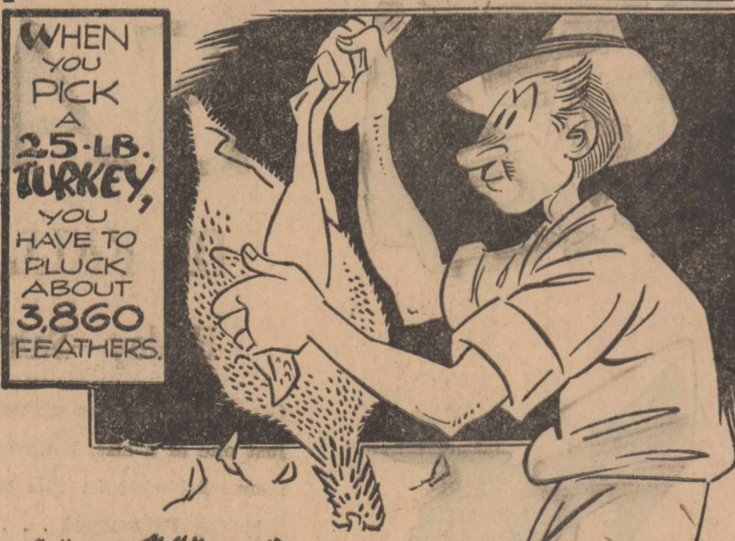

The evacuee's foster-parents did not like it. Neither did the BBC. Now broadcasting parents must begin by a list of Do's and Don'ts. If they don't, the officials switch them off.

PRIVATE KEEPS TRADITION BUYS HIS BIRTHDAY CAKE

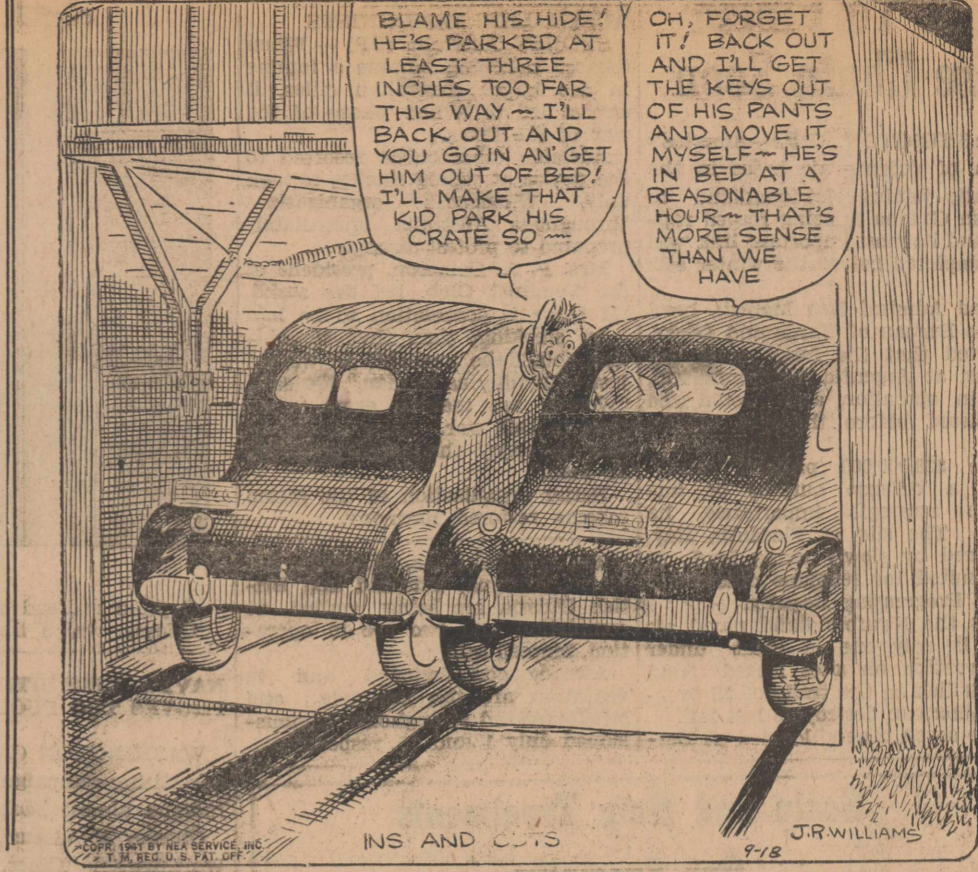

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash. (UP)—Before Pvt. Reese Spurrier, a motion picture employe at Hollywood, was drafted into the army he never missed a birthday cake.

He kept his record intact at Port Worden—even if it was at a drug store, without his mother being present. Spurrier strolled into the store, sat down at the counter and unwrapped an already purchased cake and candle.

Spurrier jabbed the candle into the cake, lighted it, then passed out slices to the store force and nibbled a few himself. The proprietor reciprocated with coffee and a juke-box rendition of "Happy Birthday."

NEA Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON—Few of the Axis "surprise" moves in recent months have been a surprise to Uncle Sam. Axis strategy almost always involves all-out propaganda campaigns as the opening guns of military campaigns, and the U. S. Federal Communications Commission has now established a Foreign Broadcast Monitoring Service to act as "style scout" for the latest models of Axis propaganda.

"It's almost like listening in on the instructions as they are being given," says Lloyd A. Free, director of the F.B.M.S., which is conducting a 24-hour survey of short-wave broadcasts to detect new techniques and lines of action which set the pace for pro-Axis papers and Fifth Columnists in the Western Hemisphere and elsewhere.

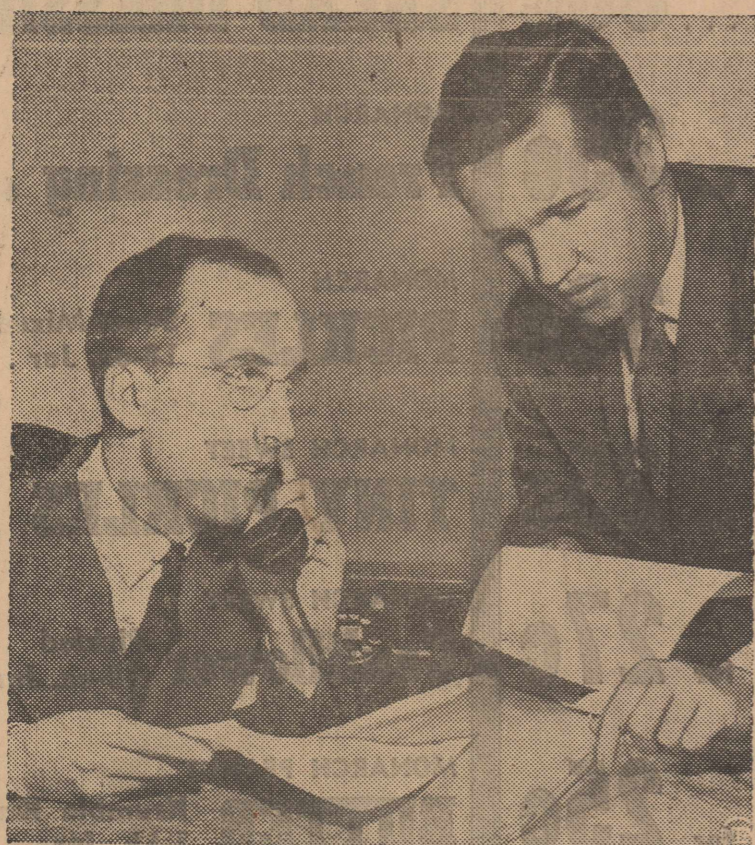

A news broadcast from Tokyo in Spanish for Latin-American consumption may be picked up at the Monitor Service's Portland, Ore., "listening post." A speech in English from below the Rio Grande might be intercepted at Kingsville, Texas. There is a receiver in Puerto Rico which records European programs aimed at Latin America, while those slanted for the United States are put on record at Laurel, Md.

CHINESE, RUSSIAN, SLOVAK, ICELANDIC
These four points operate on three eight-hour shifts, day and night, taking care of all types of word barrage, including considerable Eastern Hemisphere material, such as the Arabic programs sent from Axis stations to North Africa.

Frequently so-called "outlaw" transmissions, sent secretly from within friendly countries, are picked up and recorded. Recordings are made on white celluloid discs or dictating machine cylinders.

Language experts in Chinese, (both Mandarin and Cantonese dialects) Russian, Slovak and recently Icelandic—to name some of the more unusual of the 15 tongues represented—go to work on the recordings. They sit before rows of machines, ear phones on, faces intent, and hear the broadcasts played back to them. Some bat out their own translations on a typewriter, while others dictate.

To convert the 800,000 to 900,000 words that emerge daily from this garnering into finished reports will eventually—the F. B. M. S. was only started last March—take a staff of 24 psychologists and 25 report makers, including two women. "Reporters" condense the day's haul to concise essentials for reference by the various government departments—Chiefly State, War and Navy departments, the Rockefeller Latin-American division and Col. "Wild Bill" Donovan's new setup for the "coordination of information." The psychologist "brain trust," often collaborating with report men, issues weekly analyses.

Uncle Sam's "watch-dog" over Axis short-wave propaganda is the recently established Foreign Broadcasting Monitoring Service, which listens to the Axis spool on a 24-hour-a-day basis. Here Director Lloyd A. Free (left) checks reports of a broadcast with his assistant, Harold N. Graves, Jr.

Spot bulletins of urgent findings are rushed to officials whenever necessary. When something urgent comes up, like the German short-wave campaign to blame the United States for the Bolivian shake-up and the Peruvian Ecuador flare-up, urgent bulletins are rushed to government officials so they can prepare counter-measures. Sometimes propaganda trends are anticipated so that the U. S. can beat the Axis propagandists to the draw.

F. B. M. S. BECOMES ALL-AROUND WATCHDOG

Analysts generally work on a long-range basis, realizing that it often takes months to recognize and chart a course of propaganda maneuvers. The foundation of the Foreign Broadcast Monitoring Service was inaugurated and pushed through by Chairman Fly of the F. C. C. He realized the importance of such a "watch-dog" agency and got in touch with private research groups working along related lines.

The Princeton Listening Center was one of these pioneer organizations. But the Princeton station merely took "samples" of programs at various hours. The F. B. M. S. realized the necessity of going the whole hog. So it's recording every single word.

Movie Propaganda Steals Show From Fellowmen In Examining Witnesses

By Peter Eldson
The Reporter-Telegram
Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON—Freshman Senator Ernest W. McFarland, of Florence, Ariz., cut his senatorial eye-teeth and became a hero the other day in most amusing fashion, and with a big, boyish grin started biting his scowling, deep-dish colleagues of the Interstate Commerce sub-committee inquiring into propaganda aspects of the movies.

It was quite a surprise to everyone, and perhaps most of all to the 47-year-old junior senator himself. But with Wendell Wilkie, hired as high-priced counsel to defend the movie moguls, theoretically silenced and refused permission to cross-examine the witnesses, McFarland as the "minority" member of the sub-committee began to do a little cross-examination on his own account. And he stole the show, taking the play away from such able debaters as Senators Nye of North Dakota, and Bennett Clark of Missouri.

What wasn't generally known is that McFarland is an experienced court lawyer. Even though he has been in Washington only since January, back in Arizona he is known as "Judge Mack" of the state superior court, and before that as a trial lawyer he defended Winnie Ruth Udd of trunk murder fame, getting her death sentence reduced to insanity. As prosecuting attorney of Pinal County in 1928 he secured the conviction of Eva Dugan, the first woman to be executed for murder in Arizona.

Just Like Lawing
After the first sessions of the movie hearings were over, McFarland admitted he got a kick out of the proceedings, as he hadn't done any trial lawing for a few years, but from this it should not be deduced that McFarland is handling the minority end of the inquiry just as a lark. He agrees that it would have been a bad precedent to let Wilkie cross-examine witnesses.

Just why McFarland was put on the sub-committee, Judge Mack doesn't even know himself. The chairman, Senator Worth Clark of Idaho, and the other members, Tobey of New Hampshire, Brooks of Illinois and Bone of Washington, are all isolationists in their leanings. McFarland has distinguished himself principally by keeping his mouth shut, as a freshman senator perhaps should. He has made a couple of short speeches, and voted for lease-lend, other administration foreign policies, and he favored conscription.

McFarland's technique is perhaps best illustrated by an exchange with Senator Nye on the opening day of the session. Nye had just recited a list of films he said were propaganda and McFarland asked which ones had been objectionable: Nye—"It is most difficult. I go to a film tonight and tomorrow my recollection is hazy. But I recall 'I Married a Nazi.'"

McFarland—"All right, what was objectionable?"
Nye—"The injection of scenes that tended to make one hate a whole race of people."
McFarland—"What portrayal induced hate?"
Nye—"I suggest you see the picture. There is in it a spirit of hate. McFarland—"That's a conclusion. Did you see 'Escape?'"
Nye—"I can't remember. I am afraid I am doing terrible injustice to you when I inflict my conclusions upon you."
McFarland—"Don't worry about me; I'll take care of myself."

Manufacturers Return To Wooden Materials

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UP)—Priority distribution of aluminum has forced artificial limb manufacturers to expand their production of wooden arms and legs. Ray Trautman, president of an artificial limb concern here, said only one artificial limb firm in the nation, a Philadelphia company whose production was restricted to aluminum alone, still has a supply of the metal left.

A deposit of Bauxite is reported to have been recently discovered on the Isle of Pines, Cuba, the Department of Commerce says.

Woman Forms Party To Hunt For Giants

PALENQUE, Mexico (UP)—Mrs. Karen Shields, pilot-archeologist of Crescenta, Cal., is organizing an expedition to penetrate the Central American jungle in search of a tribe of Mayan giants, long reputed to exist there.

Five previous expeditions have made the same attempt but no members ever came back. Mrs. Shields, an apparently frail, blonde woman, believes that her tiny stature, blond hair, blue eyes and very white skin may command the awe of the Mayans she hopes to find.

Mrs. Shields will be accompanied only by the manager of her plantation and several native boys. The party will undertake the trip on horseback.

SAVE THE CRUMBS

When grinding crackers or toast, fasten a paper sack over the end of the grinder and the crumbs will fall into the bag. This saves crumbs from getting on the table and floor.

Burma Road Traffic Could Be Increased

CHUNGKING (UP)—Confidence that the traffic on the Burma road could be increased as much as 300 per cent was expressed by three American trucking experts after submitting a report on their investigation to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

The trio, Daniel Arnstein, Harold Davis and Marco Hellman, returned here after a careful inspection trip of the length of the "life line" and also an investigation of the transport facilities.

"The Burma road—it is not a trucking problem, it is an emergency," said Arnstein the spokesman for the trio. "But if half of our recommendations are put into effect there is no reason why the road can't carry from 200 to 300 per cent more traffic."

Includes Control

Arnstein said that while details of the report could not be disclosed, that it could be said in general that the plan envisages the establishing of four organizations to manage the road. He said they included the creation of an efficient police or military patrol department, a unified communication system, probably with radio, to keep all points in constant contact, a highway maintenance department and an operations department which would operate all government trucks on the

Standardize Names

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UP)—One hundred and twenty-two young men, sound of body and mind, are busy almost from sunup to sundown at self-imposed hard labor because their religious beliefs have kept them from the army and brought them instead into the Colorado Springs civilian public service camp for conscientious objectors.

"We like it," says their leader, Albert Gaeddert, who, like the rest, is a Mennonite.

"There's no grumbling because the work is hard," he says. "The labor is a welcome alternative to bearing arms, which we may not do and still remain true to our beliefs."

Common fish names now vary widely, according to Walter H. Chute, director of the Shedd Aquarium at Chicago, who has been in charge of the fish-naming committee for three years. "A standard list of common names is essential if fishermen are to talk the same language," he maintains.

OCD Asks Hospitals To Organize Services

CHICAGO (UP)—The nation's general hospitals have been asked to contribute to the defense effort by forming field casualty services in seaboard states and the industrial areas of the interior, it was revealed in a bulletin released by the Medical Division of the Office of Civilian Defense.

Detailed plans contained in the bulletin call for the erection of an Emergency Medical Service as a section of the local defense organizations throughout the country, working in cooperation with welfare, police, and other emergency services.

The plans have the approval of Fiorello H. LaGuardia, director of civilian defense. Gift items for Americans serving in the British armed forces are admitted duty-free, the Department of Commerce says.
