FDR And Labor Leader Engage In Sharp Exchange

AFL Teamster Union President Delays Action On Request

By The Associated Press

For the second time within ten days, President Roosevelt engaged in a sharp exchange with a labor leader Saturday over the question of compliance with a White House request that a strike be ended.

This time his correspondent was Daniel J. Tobin, president of the AFL Teamsters Union. The sequence was this:

On Friday, the President asked that Tobin order about 60 AFL truck drivers on strike in Detroit against the Railway Express Agency to return to work within 48 hours. At the same time Mr. Roosevelt appointed an emergency three-man board to attempt settlement of the dispute.

Tobin said he would have to submit the request to the executive board of the union by telegraphic poll and that this could not be done before Monday. To which Mr. Roosevelt replied on Saturday: "I have fully considered your answer and referate my request."

At Indianapolis, Tobin was asked by reporters about the President's second request. The AFL official said again that he would submit it to the board and added: "I will do that Monday and that's the last word."

Three Appeals to Lewis

Ten days ago Mr. Roosevelt made three appeals to John L. Lewis to end the strike of 53,000 CIO-United Mine Workers in "captive" coal mines. Lewis rejected the first two and made no public reply to the third.

However, Lewis agreed to send the miners back to the collieries until Nov. 15, while awaiting the mediation board decided whether to recommend for or against a union shop in the mines. The question still is pending before the board.

In addition to requesting that Tobin order the Detroit men back to work promptly, Mr. Roosevelt also sought to prevent extension of the strike to other cities and 20 adjoining communities. In answer to this, Tobin said he was withholding a work stoppage order to locals in other cities.

The Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, after a strike last month, won a collective bargaining election conducted by the Railway Mediation Board in Detroit. The AFL contended this election was invalid, then struck.

Asks Defense Strikes Be Forbidden Unless Approved By Ballot

WASHINGTON (AP)—High defense officials were reported Saturday night to have given tacit backing to a proposal that defense strikes be forbidden unless approved by a secret ballot election by a majority of workers in a plant. Senator Bridges of New Hampshire—a Republican who has supported the administration's foreign policies—disclosed that he had drafted for introduction in the Senate Monday a bill including this idea.

FDR Proclaims Nov. 20 As Thanksgiving Day

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt Saturday proclaimed Thursday, November 20, as Thanksgiving Day and asked the American people to observe it with prayers for a speedy end to strife and the establishment on earth of freedom, brotherhood, and justice for enduring time.

It was his third and final setting of Thanksgiving a week earlier than customary. Next year the holiday will revert to its normal last Thursday in the month for the whole nation.

As in the last two years, not all states will observe the "Roosevelt Thanksgiving." Sixteen will cling to the traditional Turkey Day.

Three Siren Blasts Mean Prairie Fire—Grab Your Broom

Three blasts of the fire siren means a prairie fire and all Midland firemen then will get brooms and hurry to the blaze. That was the reminder Saturday of Fire Chief Luther Tidwell.

He pointed out that grass again is dry and fires spread quickly. Every precaution to prevent damage is taken by the firemen.

Brooms are kept at the fire station and will be ready for firemen when they drive up for them. Any one with old brooms is requested to leave them at the station.

When three blasts are sounded, firemen should hurry to the station to obtain brooms, determine the location of the blaze and then be on their way, Tidwell explained. It should be unnecessary for them to telephone for the location of the fire.

C. & R. Payroll Totals $105,274

The weekly payroll of Cage Brothers and F. M. Reeves and Sons, general contractors for the construction of the Army's Advanced Flying School at Sloan Field, totaled $105,274 Saturday. Checks were issued to more than 2,500 workers.

Average Daily Oil Allowable Increases

AUSTIN (AP)—The average daily allowable of Texas' oil wells increased 5,013 barrels to 1,536,061 in the week ended Saturday, the Railroad Commission reported.

This was 81,361 barrels above the U. S. Bureau of Mines estimate of Texas market demand of 1,454,700 barrels.

Engineers calculated application of an average monthly under-production of 3.5 per cent of allowable would reduce actual daily flow to 27,599 barrels above the bureau standard.

The number of Texas wells increased 215 to 98,426.

U. S. And Britain Will Strengthen Orient Position

Gravity Of Japanese Situation Emphasized By American Officials

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was learned on excellent authority Saturday that plans are well advanced for an early and concerted action by Great Britain and the United States to strengthen their position in the Orient.

Further, the program apparently is to be put into effect at about the time of the arrival here of a Saburo Kurusu, a special Japanese emissary who is bringing with him a list of proposals by the Tokyo government, to which have been attached some of the characteristics of an ultimatum. Kurusu is expected to arrive here here next week end.

The whole situation, and the plan which has been formulated have been discussed exhaustively at a cabinet meeting, it was said. No one, however, would divulge the nature of what the two nations intend to do.

The gravity of the Japanese-American situation has been repeatedly emphasized in recent days by American officials.

Obtain Building For Recreation Center In City

Midland's recreation council, after weeks of work, finally obtained a lease on a building Saturday to provide a recreation center for soldiers.

The J. J. Willis building at 213 North Main street was obtained for the recreation center and Sam Spears, WPA recreation director, will take charge of it Monday.

Magazines, books, games of all kinds, radios, a piano, furniture, ping-pong tables, card tables, and other fixtures necessary to provide a proper entertainment place for the soldiers are needed. Any persons desiring to contribute or loan any of the necessary equipment is requested by the council to deliver it to the building Monday.

The building will provide space for dances and plans for these will be worked out soon by the council.

The City Recreation Council, the Midland Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary Club of Commerce, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the American Legion, the Business and Professional Women's Club, WPA, and other civic organizations will sponsor the center.

Mrs. Andrew Fasken is chairman of the committee to operate the project and Harry Gossett is chairman of the committee in charge of the building and furniture. The council is headed by Mrs. D. A. Carter.

AFL Threatens Big General Strike Of San Diego Craftsmen

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—AFL officials said Saturday night a general strike of building tradesmen would be called Monday unless demands for wage increases were met at that time.

The declaration came in face of a Navy announcement that striking AFL craftsmen must either return to work on three San Diego defense projects by Monday or lose their jobs.

K. G. Bitter, building trades council secretary, said the action would involve probably a dozen projects, mostly military establishments.

Union officials would not say how many men would be affected by a general strike such as that threatened, but Navy officials estimated the number at 3,600.

The union decision came after the Navy had announced it would take over construction of $10,500,000 in defense projects at the Naval Training Station and Marine Camp Elliott if strikers did not return to work at 8 a. m. Monday.

Veterans of all wars were asked to join in the parade or enter a float. Captain W. E. Wallace urged Spanish War Veterans to join him in the parade.

James H. Godman, legion program chairman, is arranging the activities.

Construction Of Flying School Is 88 Percent Complete

Construction of the Army Air Corps Advanced Flying School at Sloan Field was 88 per cent complete Saturday evening, officials of Cage Brothers and F. M. Reeves and Sons, the general contractors, said.

As the school neared completion, many workers were dropped from the payroll. About 100 carpenters were released Saturday.

The water system is 95 per cent complete and some other projects are even further advanced. Some equipment still is needed for the sewage disposal plant, but it is expected before December 1.

ZAGREB, Cortia (AP)—Heavy fighting is in progress among Serb government troops and rebel bands, Belgrade newspapers reported Saturday night.

No mention was made of German troops. In one encounter at Brezovica 75 rebels were reported killed and former members of dismembered Yugoslavia's government taken prisoner.

Spurt In West Texas Wildcatting Seen As Winkler, Andrews, Dawson Counties Get Locations For Tests

By Frank Gardner Oil Editor

West Texas wildcatting took another spurt Saturday as locations were announced for tests in Winkler, Andrews and Dawson counties.

Union Oil Company of California will seek Keystone lime production in drilling to 4,200 feet in its No. 1 W. C. Driver, new East Central Winkler wildcat eight miles east by southeast of Kermit.

No. 1 Driver was staked 660 feet out of the northwest corner of section 19, block B-5, public school land, on a block originally held by Amerada Petroleum Corporation.

Amerada farmed out the block to L. C. Link of Midland, who turned it to Union for drilling. Union has approximately 2,000 acres in the area. Rowan Drilling Company has been awarded contract to drill the test with rotary and now is building rig.

In the Colby sand area of the Keystone field in Winkler, Standard Oil Company of Texas No. 19-12 W. E. Baird flowed 297.14 barrels per day at 3,340 feet and the same firm's No. 19-14 Baird made 365 a day at 3,345 feet. Each well was shot with 260 quarts.

Andrews Wildcat
Fuhman Petroleum Corporation of Midland has staked location for No. 1 M. A. Thornberry 330 feet out of the southwest corner of section 23, block A-42, public school land, in Southern Andrews County. The scheduled 4,600-foot test lies 4,555 feet south by southeast of Fuhman No. 1 Lockhart & Brown, small producer and discovery of the West Fuhman area three miles west of the main Fuhman pool.

Dawson's new wildcat is Ray A. Albough of Lamesa No. 1 J. Roderick Weaver, to be started on or before Dec. 1. The test is slated to go to 5,050 feet and will be drilled in tract 15, league 1, Taylor County school land, one and one-half miles north and five miles west of Lamesa. Humble Oil & Refining Company, The Texas Company, Atlantic Refining Company, Magnolia Petroleum Company and Tide Water Associated Oil Company own leases surrounding Albough's, 5,388-acre block.

No. 1 Weaver will be about nine and one-half miles south by southeast of Albough and Richmond Drilling Company No. 1 J. J. Handley, Northwestern Dawson County wildcat prospect now undergoing a series of natural production tests. Bottomed at 4,980 feet in lime, No. 1 Handley swabbed 31 barrels of oil through 5 1/2-inch casing and bailed 240 gallons of water the past 24 hours and continued testing.

Anderson-Pritchard Oil Corporation and Osage Drilling Company, Inc., No. 1 Pure Oil Company-A. M. Clayton, Northwestern Borden County wildcat, is drilling below 4,260 feet in lime. It logged porosity and saturation from 4,090 to 4,120 feet but a 30-minute drillstem test from 4,097 to 4,156 feet recovered only 45 feet of drilling mud, with no oil or gas present.

Kleiner To Run Pipe
Coring was halted at 5,450 feet in Sinclair-Prairie Oil Company No. 1 Charles J. Kleiner, new pay prospect four miles east of Plains in Central Yoakum County, and operator is preparing to set a string of 7-inch casing preparatory to testing oil shows. A 35-minute drillstem test from 5,395 to 5,436 feet returned 40 feet of gas-out mud bearing an odor of oil. Coring ahead from 5,436 to 5,450 feet the well recovered 13 feet of lime showing some porosity and saturation. The wildcat is 330 feet out of the north-west corner of section 436, block D, John H. Gibson survey, three and one-half miles northwest of the Ownby pool.

Likins & Hall of Midland No. 1 Dr. E. H. Jones, scheduled 7,200-foot test in extreme Northwestern Gaines County, suffered a setback when 8 5/8-inch casing became parted at 170 feet from the surface. A 25-sack squeeze job was performed and plug was to be drilled late Saturday. The well had reached a depth of 4,588 feet in anhydrite and lime when casing parted.

Drillpipe is stuck in American Drilling Corporation No. 1 W. T. Hufnall, Western Terry County wildcat, and it is rumored it may be abandoned. Total depth is 5,435 feet in lime, only 65 feet short of con-

British Launch Greatest Aerial Offensive Of War

Hitler Challenges British To Attempt Invasion In West

By The Associated Press

Adolf Hitler, declaring his armies could defend Germany and all of Europe despite American threats and armaments said Saturday night he had ordered the German Navy to fire on American ships only if they are attacked.

Any German officer who does not defend himself when attacked will be court-martialed, he said.

As his armies were pictured in the new role of fighting doggedly on the defensive, by Russian and British sources, Hitler challenged Britain to attempt an invasion in the west saying his plans were ready to meet them. Whether they try an offensive on Norway, the German coast, Holland, Belgium or France, he told his party followers: "We can only say 'step up, you will leave again faster than you came.'"

After revealing that German forces were only about 6 1/4 miles from Leningrad, Hitler said the Soviets had lost between 8,000,000 and 10,000,000 casualties and that the Germans had captured or destroyed 15,000 planes, more than 22,000 tanks and more than 27,000 guns.

Russian prisoners total 3,600,000, he said and "when German military authority has counted something, then it is correct."

"The entire industry of the world, including our German, could only slowly replace this material," he added. "The industry of our democracies in any case can only replace it in the next years."

He spoke in the Munich beer cellar where in 1923 the Nazi party met one of its new reverses—the Putsch whose anniversary he commemorated.

His speech came at the end of 24 hours of what the British called the greatest air offensive of the entire war when the RAF sent 600 to 800 bombers, fighters and fighter-bombers against Germany and Northern France.

The London Air Ministry acknowledged loss of 52 planes and 214 airmen, but said more than half the losses were due to heavy thunderstorms and severe icing conditions over the Reich.

The German Radio claimed 60 British planes were shot down in the 24 hours of raids.

Comes Secretly To Meeting
Hitler strode unexpectedly into the Munich hall after coming secretly from the eastern front. It was here, two years ago, that a bomb exploded 11 minutes after Hitler and his aides left a similar celebration.

This time, he proclaimed the "right of every German ship to defend itself when attacked" and scornfully dismissed American attempts "to create dreams of fear in Germany through threats and plans for gigantic armament."

But his speech came as the Russians claimed the new Soviet-Nazi drive on Moscow had been all but thrown into reverse.

Soviet Gen. Rokossovsky, in a Moscow radio broadcast, said the Germans were now struggling to hold their lines against Red Army attacks "on many sectors of the front."

German flame-throwers were reported widely in action, darting long tongues of fire over the snow-covered battlefields in attempts to stop the advance of giant Soviet tanks.

Reds Counter Attack
Russian front-line dispatches reported Gen. Gregory K. Zhukov's Red armies were counter attacking heavily in four main sectors—at Kalinin, 35 miles northwest of Moscow; Volokolamsk, 65 miles northwest of Moscow; Mozhaisk, 57 miles west; and somewhere on the left flank, presumably at Maloyaroslavets, 65 miles southwest of the capital.

On the left flank sector, the Moscow radio said "the enemy has been pressed back for four days running."

Only in the far southern front, in the Crimea, did the Russians appear to be in immediate jeopardy. A bulletin from Hitler's field headquarters—once again silent on operations around Moscow and Leningrad—said German Panzer columns had smashed through a six-mile-deep Russian defense zone guarding the narrow Kerch Peninsula, gateway to Russia's great Caucasian oil fields.

While the Russians insisted they were holding firmly both around Kerch and Sevastopol, key Black

Today's Real Magic

Not so many years ago, the black, greasy, tarlike, thick fluid that was a residue in the coke-making process was simply burned as fuel. No other use could be found for it, but today the same stuff is carefully divided into its rough parts—tar, ammonia and light oils.

From the treated tar come creosote oil, used in the preservation of railroad ties and other wooden objects; pitch, used in roofing, in water-proofing concrete and in the manufacture of briquets and electrodes; naphthalene, employed in making moth balls and in many sorts of plastics; and phenol, used in the manufacture of plastics, such as telephone receivers, radio panels, automobile trimming, and bottle tops.

The light oils are treated and from them are derived benzol and toluol. Benzol blended with gasoline makes a superior motor fuel. Its solvent qualities make benzol important in the manufacture of paints, varnishes, stains, lacquers and paint and grease removers. Toluol is used in the manufacture of one of the deadliest of high explosives, T. N. T.

But even that does not end the list of things that stem from the lumps of black, shiny, bituminous coal, so familiar to everybody. It is the foundation from which spring by various chemical processes exquisite perfumes, indigo and many other more delicate dyes, oil of wintergreen, smelling salts, beads, buttons, artificial silk, linoleum, billiard balls, laughing gas, phonograph records, and spectacle rims. The realm of healing is blessed with still other coal derivatives such as pain killers, including novocain and aspirin, and the new list of battlers against disease germs—sulfanilamide, sulfapyridine and sulfathiazole.

Truly there are veritable miracles being performed in this 20th century and the magicians are the chemists with their test tubes. And chiefly it is beneficent, not black magic.

Despite wars and a thousand other evils, man marches on.

Aid For Lepers

Leprosy is one of the oldest of known disease. It is mentioned and described in the Bible. Sometimes in darker ages lepers were shot to death to get rid of them. Mostly they were shunned, shut off from the rest of the population and left to die without medical or religious care.

But in recent years all that has changed. Great missions have interested themselves in the fate of lepers and devoted men and women have gone out to lonely, isolated places to help them and try to cure them.

The American Mission to Lepers, an organization supported by many denominations, has just made an encouraging and surprising report. Despite a war-torn world, it has received more money for its work this year than in any preceding period. Together with a sister organization in Britain, it cared for 150,000 lepers in 200 colonies in 48 countries.

"I am my brother's keeper" still rings true for many people who practice their religion with their deeds rather than with words.

Neglecting Civilians

The federal government has set up civilian defense machinery in the United States with the object of having every state, city and town join in this all-important work.

So far, however, one very serious matter seems to have been overlooked. Little has been said about supplying the mass of the American people with gas masks in case this country becomes involved in war. The War Department has ordered gas masks only for the Army and for civilian employes in government arsenals.

The British government did something the United States might well emulate. When the present war was imminent, gas masks were promptly supplied free of charge to all the 45,000,000 people in the island.

The old gag about there being more women than men in Washington is disproved by government figures showing 10 women working for Uncle Sam in the capital to every 15 men. The Army now eats a million pounds of meat, a million pounds of fresh vegetables and a million loaves of bread every days. . . . Soviet embassy runs a Russian school in Washington for children of staff members. . . . Soap sales, says the Department of Commerce, are up 25 per cent over last year. . . . Government cafeterias are raising their prices. . . . Congressman Robert Chiperfield of Canton, Ill., has enrolled in a class of public speaking. . . . Nearly 2000 apartments have now been taken over for government offices in the capital. . . . In 1919, 39 per cent of the women of America wore silk hose. In '39 it was 84 per cent. . . . The total sock production for the U. S. in '39 was 152 million dozen pairs—more than a dozen pairs per person, man, woman and child.

More Than 300 See Flower Show

McCAMEY (Special)—Climaxing the club's year's work, the McCamey Garden Club held its first flower show, and celebrated its first anniversary, Wednesday, at the Girl Scout Little House.

Special sections were devoted entirely to dahlias, to chrysanthemums, and to roses, with other classifications of garden flowers, potted plants and miscellaneous. Cash prizes for first place winners were donated to the club by the McCamey Chamber of Commerce and the Lions Club, with blue ribbons representing first place, red ribbons second place and white ribbons third place, in each division.

Judges were Mrs. Joe C. Mitchell, Mrs. R. E. Clark and Mrs. J. A. Smithers of Odessa, and members of the Odessa Garden Club.

The show was under the supervision of Mrs. F. E. Carter, club president, and Mrs. C. T. Stern, general chairman.

Club members served cookies, representing autumn leaves, from a miniature wheelbarrow and tea from a flower sprinkler, decorated in purple and gold crepe paper, from a table laid in purple and gold, centered with a miniature adobe two by one inches in size, his, teacher of the Mexican school, and her first, second and third grade students. The house was a three-room affair, made from adobe two by one inch in size, with doors which open and shut, and glassed windows. The top was of bamboo reeds, and the outside finish was of white plaster. A charm string made of red and white peppers, and the cacti, used by Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Stern in landscaping the sandy lawn, added a western touch to the scene.

The hostesses wore sunbonnets of purple crepe paper and gold aprons decorated in autumn leaves, with corsages of yellow chrysanthemums and fern.

More than 300 visitors called.

Drunken Driving Convictions Increase

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas officers point to a more than four fold increase in drunken driving convictions as justification for their contention a new law on the subject was needed.

The statute under which they operate—providing increasingly stiffer penalties for repeated convictions—replaced one lumping all violations as a felony.

Prosecutors, juries and officers sometimes shied from the repealed statute, fearing the penalty was too hard for some first offenders and generally blocked a sensible approach to the problem of removing potential killers from the roadways.

Statistics indicate the situation has changed as a result of the new law passed at this year's regular session of the legislature.

State police, seeking comparatives, found records of 767 convictions from June 17 to Nov. 1 this year compared with 147 for the same period last year. The new law went into effect last June 17.

Last reports from Broderick & Calvert, Inc., Amon G. Carter et al No. 1 G. H. Hayward, "tight" wildcat nine miles southwest of Muleshoe in Central Bailey County, stated it was drilling at 4,120 feet in hard lime.

Magnolia completed three more producers on the Hockley County side of the Slaughter field, its No. 3-B Mallett Land & Cattle Company flowed a rated 993.60 barrels a day, No. 12-D Mallett 1,306.80 a day and No. 17-J Mallett 1,197.44 a day. Permian Basin Wildcatting Campaign Spreads To Southeast New Mexico As Otero And Eddy Counties Get Tests

Texans Believe War Cost Will Soar To 100 Billion Dollars

WASHINGTON (AP)—Texas' two members of the House appropriations committee, discussing in a radio forum to be broadcast Sunday the cost of the National Defense program, agreed such expenditures would soar to at least $100,000,000, 000 before the war ended.

Representatives George Mahon of Colorado City and Albert Thomas of Houston, answering questions by their colleague and director of the forum, Wright Patman of Texas, explained the function of the highly important committee.

To convey an idea of the comparative amount of the money being spent now, Mahon declared that the preparedness program at present is costing more than the total cost of running the government from the beginning of George Washington's administration to 1920, including the cost of five wars.

Grid Tickets On Sale At Pharmacy

HOBBES, N. M.—Southeast New Mexico continued to share in the Permian Basin wildcatting campaign as new tests were announced Saturday in Otero and Eddy counties.

In Southeastern Otero, Fred Turner, Jr., Midland operator, is moving in cable tools to a wildcat test to be drilled on land owned by him in fee. It will be located in the northwest quarter of section 23-26s-16e, in the southeast part of a 35,000-acre block of fee land and assembled leases. The new test is a rank wildcat and is the third within a radius of 30 miles drilled by Turner in the area.

The area north of the Grayburg pool in Eddy, now undergoing considerable development as the result of two new discoveries, gained location for another wildcat in L. H. Choate and C. W. Brown No. 1 Hoyer-State.

Lime Strike Gauged
Location falls 660 feet out of the northeast corner of section 2-17s-30e, No. 1 Hoyer-State also is two miles north of Grayburg production. It is one and one-half miles southwest of Nay Hightower No. 1 Grier, sand pool opener, and one and three-quarter miles southeast of Sanders Brothers No. 1 Harry Leonard, lime discovery.

No. 1 Leonard, after setting 2-inch tubing at 2,900 feet, was shut in for 12 hours and when opened flowed 55 barrels of oil in five and one-half hours through a one-inch choke on tubing. It has been shut in. The well logged main pay in lime from 2,935 to 2,965 feet and has been shut with 120 quarts of nitro from 2,940 to 2,980 feet, two feet off bottom. It is located 1,980 feet from the south and 660 from the west line of section 34-16s-30e, two and three-quarter miles north of the Grayburg pool.

Two miles east and one-half mile north of the Sanders Brothers strike, Hightower No. 1 Grier has cemented 7-inch casing at 2,500 feet with 100 sacks. Flow was killed before pipe was set. On last gauge the well made 173 barrels of 37.4 gravity oil in 23 hours through a 2-inch outlet off casing. It found pay sand from 3,062 to 3,072 feet and from 3,108 to 3,118 feet, the total depth. Location is 660 feet out of the northwest corner of section 31-16s-31e, also two and three-quarter miles north of Grayburg wells.

Red Lakes Pool
Sanders Brothers No. 1 M. W. Evans, wildcat 1,980 feet from the north and east lines of section 4-17s-30e, two miles north of the Grayburg pool, is drilling below 1,272 feet in anhydrite.

In the Red Lakes pool of Eddy, George Williams and E. Ployhar No. 1 Harbold, section 35-17s-27e, pumped 50 barrels of oil in 12 hours upon completion at 425 feet. Pay lime topped at 405 feet was acidized with 500 gallons.

Also at Red Lakes, E. L. Fulton No. 2 State, in section 36-17s-27e, pumped 15 barrels of oil in four hours after acidizing with 1,500 gallons in pay lime from 491 to 525 feet, the total depth.

The Red Lakes pool gained a new location in Comanche Drilling Company No. 20 Berry, 1,650 feet from the north and 2,310 from the east line of section 24-17s-27e.

Allan Hargrave of Midland has spudded and is drilling below 120 feet in his No. 1 Hargrave, new test in Eddy's Barber pool. It is 890 feet from the north and 2,310 from the west line of section 15-20s-30e.

Extension Sought
P. B. English, Eddy wildcat south of the Shugart area, is drilling anhydrite below 1,575 feet. It is in section 24-19s-31e.

Northwest of Carlsbad in Eddy, Stroup, Yates & Flynn No. 1 Hartz-State, section 16-21s-25e, has passed 630 feet in lime.

A one-location southwest extension of the South Lovington pool in Lea County will be sought by Amerada Petroleum Corporation in No. 7-La State. It is drilling below 475 feet in red rock.

Ployhar and others No. 2 Williams, in the Monument pool of Lea, flowed 125 barrels of oil per day through open 2-inch tubing set at 3,780 feet. It topped pay at 3,780 feet and is bottomed at 3,890 feet, plugged back from total depth of 3,895 feet in lime. The well was acidized with 1,500, then with 4,000 gallons after plugging back. It is in section 33-19s-37e.

Seeking a short northwest extension of the Arrowhead pool in Lea, Repollo Oil Company staked No. 2 J. W. Brownlee 330 feet out of the southwest corner of section 25-21s-36e.

Stock Market Shows Weakness

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market began this week looking something like a lion but ended the stretch Saturday with the appearance of a junior member of the sheep family.

The list had the benefit of a slightly better brand of war news but the threat of a general railway strike on Dec. 5, following rejection of the brotherhoods of the presidential fact-finding board's wage recommendations, took the edge off foreign developments.

In addition, worries persisted over taxes, tightening of federal industrial regulations and the extension of tax setting to establish losses for this year's income statements.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was off 1/4 of a point at 40.3 and on the week was down 2 net. Transfers totalled 288,780 shares compared with 239,740 last Saturday.

Catholic Dean Is Arrested By Germans

BERLIN (AP)—The Rev. Bernhard Lichtenberg, dean of St. Hedwig's Roman Catholic Cathedral here and sometimes representative of the bishop in Berlin, has been arrested by German secret police and is being held in Poeschensee prison in the northwestern section of the city, reliable sources said Saturday.

These sources said he had been in custody for two weeks, accused among other things of offering prayers for Jews against whom intensive Nazi measures recently have been renewed.

His sermons, it was said, also undoubtedly figured in his arrest as they did last summer in his questioning by the Gestapo.

At that time he was called to the secret police headquarters for questioning about sermons in which he supported criticism that the Catholic bishop of Munster, the Most Rev. Count Clemens August von Galen, directed against the Nazis and the Gestapo in particular.

Bad Weather Cuts 1941 Cotton Crop

WASHINGTON (AP)—Unfavorable harvesting weather in the extreme southern part of the cotton belt caused a 41,000 bale or $4,000,000 reduction in this year's cotton crop, the Agriculture Department reported Saturday. Production was forecast at 11,020,000 bales.

This estimate, based upon conditions prevailing November 1, compared with an October 1 forecast of 11,061,000 bales. Production totaled 12,566,000 bales last year and 13,246,000 bales for the ten year (1930-39) average.

A crop of the size indicated is upward of a million bales less than the quantity farm officials expect will be consumed and exported during the current marketing season. However, there is a surplus of about 12,000,000 bales from previous crops.

The yield per acre was indicated at 23.3 pounds compared with 25.2 pounds last year and with the ten year average of 26.4 pounds.

The department said that in Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, and Texas, excessive rainfall during October caused a total prospective reduction of 184,000 bales in production.

3-AA Lamesa in Midland. Odessa in Sweetwater. Big Spring in San Angelo. Abilene in Colorado City.

Deep-seated rivalries flare in District 3-AA and 7-A Armistice Day football classics, Nov. 11.

Headliner is the Odessa-Sweetwater get-together in the Mustang's corral. The Ponies are on top of the heap in the conference and Bronchos are not far behind and gaining prestige.

At Midland, Gus White and the rampaging Lamesa Tornadoes blow into town to collide with down but not out Bulldogs.

Ancient enemies of the grid, Big Spring and San Angelo combat at Angelo. Colorado City and Abilene square off in the Wolves home territory. All are afternoon tilts.

Scrimmage Game Preps Bulldogs For Lamesa Tilt

Hall Gallops 95 Yards For Touchdown; Foster Scores On Reverse Play

The Midland High Bulldogs played a scrimmage game Friday in preparation for Tuesday's clash here with the Lamesa Tornadoes.

The regulars, led by Ivan Hall and Docie Foster, racked up five touchdowns with the aid of some potent blocking.

Hall galloped 95 yards through the center and threading the open field for the outstanding play of the scrimmage. Foster tallied on a reverse.

Robert Wheeler, ace punter and passer of the Bulldogs, is expected to be out of the Armistice Day classic because of ineligibility. Several others also are threatened with ineligibility.

Midland may go back to its passing game against the Lamesas. The South Plains visitors resort to ground maneuvers by Gus White Jr. Last year the two-elevens battled to a 6-all deadlock and the tie knocked Midland away from a tie for the conference bunting. Lamesa claimed a moral victory in the encounter.

Wave Of Upsets Thins Ranks Of Undeclared Grid Teams Of 1941

By Herb Barker

NEW YORK (AP)—The football season's first great wave of upsets swept Fordham, Army and Navy off the undefeated list Saturday, saw Texas' Longhorns inexplicably held to a 7-7 draw by Baylor and left Minnesota, Duke, Texas A&M and Duquesne as the sole remaining major teams neither beaten nor tied.

Fordham's Rams, victorious in their first five tests and apparent sure shots for a bowl assignment, were victims of as great a form reversal as the game has seen. Matched with Pitt's de-emphasized Panthers who had lost five in a row, Fordham never could get organized against the aroused Panthers and dropped a decisive 13-0 decision.

There was no great surprise in the defeat of both service elevens, although most football critics felt Army's finely drilled eleven finally would crack Harvard's defense. It didn't work out that way for Army scored early in the game but Harvard, its offense clicking for the first time this season, pushed over three touchdowns and won easily, 20-6.

Navy gave Notre Dame a great test before 65,000 in Baltimore but succumbed to Angelo Bertelli's accurate passing, 20-13.

Texas' disappointing stalemate with Baylor came close to the Pitt upset for sheer surprise.

Of the four major teams still unbeaten and tied, Duquesne was idle Saturday in preparation for its meeting Sunday with St. Mary's of California. Duke, almost certain to wind up unbeaten, toyed with Davidson, 56-0, both Texas A&M and Minnesota were seriously extended. Minnesota found Nebraska a stubborn foe but finally won, 9-0. The Aggies had to come from behind to spill Southern Methodist, 21-10.

Patty Berg Scheduled In Big Spring Match

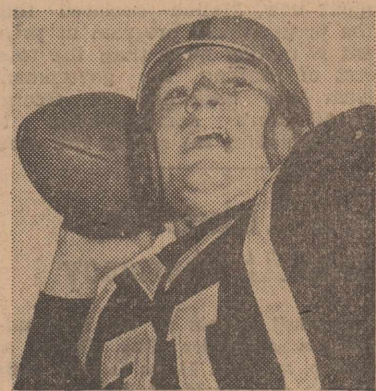

Midland golfers plan to see an exhibition golf match at Big Spring Nov. 29 in which Patty Berg, noted woman golfer, will perform.

The exhibition will be played over the Big Spring Country Club course.

Down SPORTSLANE

With Tanner La'ine

Texas football teams just naturally can pass that ball! The sport term—"aerial circus"—originated in the Southwest Conference when SMU used to travel around the nation throwing the pigskin to all corners of the lot. Then came Sammy Baugh of TCU with his famed air darts; then Davey O'Brien of the same school. All contributed in building up a legend about the wild-and-wooly pass-minded southwesters, who might pass at you from behind the goal-line and at any time. It was great stuff and it still is. This season from all sectors, the Texans are passing that apple. Take J. C. Meeks, of East Texas, one of the nation's leading passers. He has 73 completions out of 130 throws.

J. C. Meeks

And the yardage amassed is almost a thousand yards (901). Eight of his heroes have gone for touchdowns.

When Emery Nix passed for TCU a total of 337 yards against Baylor, he established a new high for air gains for the Horned Frogs, a team that is known throughout the nation for its aerial attack. Nix's percentage figures 10 completions out of 26 attempts—was not especially alarming, but the fact six of the 10 went for 30 yards or better was something brown. Two forwards gained 59 yards apiece, one going all the way for a touch. Another paid off with 52 yards, another with 47, one for 42 and one for 30 and a touch. The Frogs best previous total for one day's work was in 1938 against Centenary with Davey O'Brien and Jack Odle gaining 259 yards with their heaves. O'Brien completed 12 out of 22 for 228 and Odle one out of four for 31. The best passing day TCU had in Baugh's regime was made against Texas in 1935, seven complete, for 157 yards out of 12 tosses. Montgomery once out of two for 43 yards; and Lawrence one for one for 15 yards. Recently Texas School of Mines set a record for the number of passes in a ball game. They shot more than 60 darts in the air and completed almost 50 per cent of them.

The forward pass is one of the most interesting of football plays. It tangles the spectators and keeps the fans out of the seats. Ray Morrison, the old ringmaster, formerly of SMU, started the S. W. league on its air game. Along came Dutch Meyer of TCU to take it up. And now everybody is doing it. One of the contributing factors to this year's great Texas team is its passing attack. When they have to, the Steers unleash one of the most daring aid games in the business. Texas flingers made good passers in the pro ranks. Look at Baugh and O'Brien, who hold most of the passing records of the pay-for-money circuits. Ray Mallouf, SMU, was not heralded as such but he was one of the game's best passers and proved it in

Texas Tech Defeats Creighton 13 To 6

LUBBOCK (AP)—Texas Technological College won its sixth game out of seven starts this season with a thrilling 13 to 6 victory Saturday over the Creighton Bluejays.

Maurice Mullin, Creighton left half, gave the 7,000 homecoming crowd on the opening kickoff when he took the ball on his own 12 and ran through the Tech team to the 11 before being caught.

A few plays later Ray Leonard hit left tackle for a Bluejay score. The try for point was wide.

A few minutes later Tech scored after a sustained drive from its own 24. Fullback Charles Dvoracek went over from the 2-yard line. Roger Smith's conversion was good.

In the second period Tech scored on alert line play. Bernie Betterman and Tom Dineen, Bluejay backs, mishandled the ball deep in their own territory and Clarence Tillery, Tech's great senior end, caught the oval in midair on the Bluejay 42 and raced for a touchdown.

For 49 minutes the Mustangs battled the Aggies to a standstill, leading the 10-0 on Bo Campbell's field goal, but the Red Line finally pulled itself together to remain among the nation's undefeated and untied teams—the only eleven now with that status in the Southwest Conference.

A crowd of 20,000 remained in a continuous uproar at the thrilling gridiron drama unfolded before the Jim Sterling and Bill Henderson battered forces, crushed 34-0 last week by Texas, actually outplayed the Aggies for three quarters.

Superior reserve strength and the pass magic of Moser finally told, with the Aggies getting two quick touchdowns to put the game on ice after four minutes had elapsed in the fourth quarter.

The partisan crowd roared as news came over the loud speaker that mighty Texas had been tied 7-7 by Baylor to leave the Aggies standing high and dry in the hectic conference race.

A group of Midland people has returned from a visit to Missouri. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Corrigan and son, Pat, visited Hugh Corrigan, Jr., at Kemper Military School at Boonville and went to St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Armstrong visited Helen Armstrong; and Mrs. Ellis Cowden visited Mary Sue Cowden at Stephens College, Columbia. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. York, Barbara York, and Miss Minder York visited Bobby and Jean York at Booneville and with them and J. M. White also visited St. Louis.

It required only four minutes for A&M, to score with Moser cutting back over left guard from the SMU 11-yard line after having passed to Jim Sterling and Bill Henderson for 17 and 12-yard gains respectively. Jake Webster kicked goal.

Six minutes later the Mustangs tied the score on Preston Johnson's great runs. The Aggies had staved off the SMU drive to their nine-yard line but the Mustangs came pounding right back. Moser punted out to the Aggie 48 and in two runs Johnson scored. The touchdown coming on a 38-yard romp. Johnston added the point.

The Mustangs tried two field goals in the second period and one kicked. SMU had gained the ball on its 23 after an exchange of punts and whirled down to the A&M 27 where the attack bogged down. Campbell then stepped back and sent the ball between the goal posts from the Aggie 35-yard line.

Aggies Get Safety

The half ended that way but the Aggies got a safety shortly after third period opened. They had smashed with the kickoff from their 42 to the SMU 37 where Moser punted outside on the Mustang one-yard line. Johnston, passing from behind his goal line, stepped outside the end zone. That made the score 10-9 in favor of SMU.

Soon after the final period opened the Aggies got the clincher. Johnston had kicked and Bob Williams ran the punt from his 39 to the Southern Methodist 33. Moser passed to Marshall Spivey for 24 and then flipped him another in the coffin corner for the counter. Webster missed the goal—his first failure to add the point in 25 tries.

The Aggies added another touchdown shortly afterward as the exhausted Mustangs tried futilely to halt the lunge of the big Red machine. Moser led a ground attack down to the SMU 30 where he passed to Spivey in the corner of the field.

ROUNDING UP THE STRAYS:

Fred Waring has agreed to write a fight song for Texas Tech. It will be introduced by Waring on his program of college fight songs.

Watch for this column's recipe on how to pick football winners coming up next week.

Jim Neill, assistant coach at Lamesa, was the Texas Tech back who beat TCU in '37. He did it on a canter around Walter Roach's end after the team had NOT shifted as it did every other play of the game. The maneuver caught the Frogs napping.

Roy Maxcom wonders what happened to Centenary. He remembers, and you do too, when the Gents could knock off the Southwest Conference giants and were considered dangerous competition.

One reason, Roy, is that, the then coach of Centenary was one Homer Norton, doing right well, thank you, at Texas A&M.

Somebody brought it up that Minniscota beat Texas U once about 40 something to 12.

Let the Gophers could not duplicate that now.

Thanks Jane Doran for a little consolation on that 34-0.

James H. Goodman, who has watched T. U. football since way back, believes Texas teams around 1914 were about as powerful as this year's outfit.

Oil Scout M. Presels is getting healthy since he quit taking aspirin as a football coach.

He always will be "coach" to Sports-lane and about a peck of kids in Midland.

Superior Reserve Strength Brings Win To A. & M.

Mustangs Battle Aggies To Standstill For 49 Minutes Of Game

By Harold V. Ratliff

COLLEGE STATION (AP)—De-race Moser threw touchdown passes down shadowy sidelines Saturday to pull the Texas Aggies from the brink of defeat and give them a 21-10 victory over gallant Southern Methodist.

For 49 minutes the Mustangs battled the Aggies to a standstill, leading the 10-0 on Bo Campbell's field goal, but the Red Line finally pulled itself together to remain among the nation's undefeated and untied teams—the only eleven now with that status in the Southwest Conference.

A crowd of 20,000 remained in a continuous uproar at the thrilling gridiron drama unfolded before the Jim Sterling and Bill Henderson battered forces, crushed 34-0 last week by Texas, actually outplayed the Aggies for three quarters.

Superior reserve strength and the pass magic of Moser finally told, with the Aggies getting two quick touchdowns to put the game on ice after four minutes had elapsed in the fourth quarter.

The partisan crowd roared as news came over the loud speaker that mighty Texas had been tied 7-7 by Baylor to leave the Aggies standing high and dry in the hectic conference race.

It required only four minutes for A&M, to score with Moser cutting back over left guard from the SMU 11-yard line after having passed to Jim Sterling and Bill Henderson for 17 and 12-yard gains respectively. Jake Webster kicked goal.

Golden Gophers Beat Nebraska

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Minnesota's Golden Gophers won their fifteenth straight football game Saturday, defeating Nebraska 9 to 0 in a stubbornly fought contest.

Stepping methodically along toward another perfect season, Coach Bernie Bierman's outfit held the upper hand from the start. The threatened several times but found the going mighty tough when the Cornhuskers' goal was threatened.

It was nothing to nothing going into the second quarter and it took that sensational little man—Bud Higgins—to begin taking that pigskin places.

Midget Bud showed the big fellows how it should be done by skipping ten yards for a first down on the Nebraska one. Then, Heavyweight Bob Sweiger powered it over.

Notre Dame Knocks Navy Team Out Of Undefeated Ranks

BALTIMORE (AP)—A work-horse Notre Dame backfield, getting solid support from an underrated squad of ends, knocked a big but eventually bewildered Navy football team out of the nation's dwindling undefeated ranks Saturday.

The Irish, in keeping themselves on the list of the unconquered with a 20-13 triumph, did so on the fine forward passing of Sophomore Angelo Bertelli; the sweeping, slanting, hard-to-stop drives of Steve Juzwick and Frederick Owen (Dippy) Evans, and the smashing defensive play and often miraculous pass-catching of their ends, principally Bob Dove, John Kovatch and Matt Bolter.

Notre Dame couldn't have won on any single one of these factors, and had a hard enough time winning with the combination of all three, but by the time a crowd of 64,795 in Municipal Stadium saw a last-hour Navy passing flurry expire at midfield, Notre Dame had established itself decidedly as the superior football team.

Pitt Blocks Fordham Out Of Bowl Picture

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pitt 13; Fordham 0.

And thereby hangs another enactment of football's favorite saga—the story of the team that always was beaten rising to glory behind a shocking upset of the team that couldn't be beaten.

In this case it was a band of badly mauled Pitt Panthers—they hadn't won once in five previous starts—who smashed down a potential football powerhouse, the all-victorious Fordham Rams.

The Panthers not only defeated the Rams—they balked the touted powerhouse at every turn and clearly led in every department of play.

Until this blow was dealt them, the Rams seemed headed for some one of the nation's post-season bowl classics.

Sea naval base, Nazi dispatches said Axis troops storming across the Yaila Mountains to the coast were maneuvering to attack the Crimea's last strongholds and that Stuka dive-bombers were smashing Soviet "escape fleet" transports from the Crimean coast.

Far Behind Schedule
The Nazis were still far behind schedule, however, for last Tuesday they declared that German assault troops would begin a direct attack on Sevastopol "within a very few hours."

To the northeast of the Crimea, the Russians reported that floods, sleet and icy gales had forced Germans to hole up in the drive against Rostov-On-Don, which guards the land route to the Caucasus from the north.

On the central front, the British radio said Gen. Fedor Von Bock's armies were preparing to spring a new attack on Moscow "in the near future," shifting troops southward from Kalinin for a mass assault in another sector, but other reports declared the Germans were digging in, content with a long winter's siege before Moscow. In this connection, German military experts have contended that Napoleon's big mistake, in his ill-fated drive to Moscow in 1812, was to retreat rather than try to endure the rigors of the Russian winter.

Germany's Axis partner, Italy, also experienced the lash of the far-flung British aerial offensive, with RAF bombers operating from African bases pounding Brindisi, Adriatic port on the heel of Italy's boot, and points in Sicily.

Premier Mussolini's high command admitted serious damage was inflicted at Brindisi, with 40 killed and 80 injured.

Authoritative London quarters said the scale of raids on Germany would be increased as the winter nights lengthen, and perhaps with this in mind, British Supply Minister Lord Beaverbrook declared: "I am convinced that the day of vengeance is near at hand—a day of wrath, a day of distress for the enemy, a day of waste and desolation, a day of darkness and gloom for Germany."

Amazing Kittrell Runs And Passes Longhorns Dizzy

Third Stringer Scores Lone Touchdown For Texas Longhorns

By Ray Neumann
WACO (AP)—Baylor Bears hurled baffling ground play and aerial magic at the University of Texas Longhorns in surprising fashion Saturday and earned a 7 to 7 tie with the nation's top-ranking football team.

A hard-charging Baylor offense, led by Kilt Kittrell, amazing 175-pound sub halfback who ran and passed the Longhorns dizzy, and Jack Wilson, key Bear back, largely outthought a Steer eleven which appeared disorganized throughout.

Fast-breaking backs gave Baylor 128 yards on the ground to the Steers' 116. The Longhorns gained 43 yards overhead to the Bears' 41. Baylor's backs accumulated 64 yards returning kicks to the Longhorns' 31. Baylor completed 6 of 12 passes to 4 for 14 by the Steers.

The Bears accomplished their unexpected feat largely without the services of Wilson, while the Longhorns obviously suffered from the loss of Regular Fullback Pete Layden, Wingman Malcolm Kutner and Tackle Julian Garrett, all benched because of injuries last week.

Doss Drops Pass
Noble Doss, Steer halfback whose foot injury slowed him down, twice figured in plays which could have meant a Texas victory. Once he dropped a long pass on the Baylor 10 while headed for a possible touchdown and Baylor's pass to a score went over him in the Steer goal zone.

Texas' lone marker—where the Steers previously had won six successive contests by margins of not less than four touchdowns—came shortly before the whistle ended the first half.

Spec Sanders, sub Longhorn back, booted out on the Baylor 17 and, after the Bears failed to gain, Bert Edmison, who had been kicking some beautiful boots despite a strong breeze, kicked out poorly on the Baylor 10.

Crain Adds Point
Sanders plunged through tackle for four and Roy McKay, sub fullback, then hurried one to Sanders on the one. McKay, regularly a third stringer, crashed over the middle of the staunch Baylor line for the marker. Jack Crain, who several times brought the spectators to their feet with short-lived, spectacular chases, booted the point from placement.

The Baylor tally came in the dying moments of the game and climaxed an 82-yard drive.

It was Kittrell who started the campaign with a pass to Wenzell Gandy who was nalled on the Bear 32. Then Kittrell sliced off tackle for nine and Milton Crain plowed to the Texas 41. From here on, he Longhorn defense seemed to collapse. It was Kittrell again for eight, plunging through a gaping hole in the line, and again for four at apparently the same place.

A pass was incomplete, Kittrell carried for two more and Lewis Self, a guard, managed to fall on a fumble which gained to the Steer 19. A couple of plays later, Kittrell uncorked one to Bill Coleman, 155-pound sub back, who had galloped into the end zone with Texas' Doss right behind him. The stands went wild when Coleman snared the aerial. Wilson went in and booted a perfect point for placement.

Powerful TCU Team Conquers Centenary Gentlemen 37 To 7

SHREVEPORT (AP)—Centenary College put on Saturday its best grid performance of the season but it wasn't good enough to hold back the powerful Texas Christian University Horned Frogs who conquered them 35 to 7.

The local Gentlemen had to be satisfied with a remarkable play by their Indian star, Truman "Chief" Johnson who received the third-quarter kickoff to run 86 yards for a touchdown.

The early touchdown occurred within the first three minutes of play failed to discourage a team that hasn't won a game this season. The Gents, playing defensively most of the time, held the Frogs to one touchdown for each of the first three periods.

The early touchdown occurred when Bob Raley, Centenary back, fumbled on his 33 and Palmer covered for TCU. After a short pass, Nix to Hill, had gained four yards, Nix hurried to Kring in the end zone.

The Frogs' second period score was made after Bagley flipped to Kring on the Gents' 15 and Kring scampered across, standing up. The half closed after Charles Birtman, Gent back, intercepted on the 40 a heave by Montgomery and carried the ball to TCU's one-yard line. The whistle sounded before another play could be started.

WTCC Again Thanks Midland Citizens

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce again Saturday expressed its hearty thanks to Midland citizens for their excellent cooperation in entertaining the organizations general convention here.

In a letter to Jim Allison, president of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, J. A. Rex, assistant manager of the West Texas chamber, wrote:

"Just want to thank you again for the many courtesies extended all of us while in Midland the last few days, and to express our appreciation for the very efficient manner in which your organization handled so many of the details of the convention. Midland has lived up to its reputation of cooperation with our organization 100 per cent. "Best personal regards."

Searchlight Troops Enjoy Weekend Rest

Soldiers of the Provisional Searchlight Battalion, on maneuvers here, will practice at 3:45 p. m. Monday for Tuesday's Armistice day parade. The order for the practice with band music was issued Saturday afternoon. The Midland high band will be on hand.

Weekend passes were issued to scores of the soldiers Saturday, and many others obtained passes permitting them to go to Odessa or other nearby communities for visits.

The next searchlight practice is scheduled for Monday night.

Rice Owls Win 21-12 Victory Over Arkansas

HOUSTON (AP)—Rice Institute shook the Arkansas Razorbacks with a double-barreled scoring thrust in the first six minutes here Saturday and then battled the Mountaineers' great passing machine long enough to muster a 21-12 victory.

Ironically, the Owls utilized passing to smother the Razorbacks, scoring once on an aerial and then climaxing that game with a touchdown-producing pass interception within the last 60 seconds.

Little Barron Ellis was the star of the Rice show. He switched from tailback to wingback with no loss of luster and a great deal of merit, keeping the Razorbacks on edge with his running and pass-snaring.

Ellis opened the scoring spree with a masterful snatch of a pass from Dick Dwell at the end of three minutes of play.

Ellis churned 40 yards through practically the entire Arkansas lineup for the second score.

A 46-yard drive in the second period gave Arkansas its first tally. Passes from Bob Forte, dangerous back who kept the Owls in hot water much of the time, to backfielders Louis Ramsey and Bratton Haynes and end Joe Tibbitts, set the ball on the 12-yard line, whence Max Sallings, halfback, started a touchdown spurt around right end.

Near the close of the third quarter Arkansas made its second score on the tail end of a 90-yard surge.

The final score of the game came with less than a minute to play. Calvin McDougle, blocking back, snatched an Arkansas pass as the visitors tried desperately to score before the contest's close and dashed 15 yards across the line.

Rice made only one first down through the first half and finished with only five compared to Arkansas' 12.

The Owls held a big advantage in rushing, gaining 151 yards to the Hogs' 68. Arkansas sailed for 180 yards by passing with Rice picked up only 60.

WEST VIRGINIA BEATS KANSAS JAYHAWKERS

MONGANTOWN, W. Va. (AP)—The West Virginia University Mountaineers, starting slowly with a 15-yard field goal in the first period, banged for three touchdowns in succeeding quarters Saturday to haul down the Kansas University Jayhawkers 21-0.

Pups Lose, 13-6 To Odessa; Norris - Yeager Duo Shine

ODESSA (Special)—Plunging Bobby Norris and Swivel-hipped Wilbur Yeager, a couple of fancy-footed Midland Bullpups teamed up Saturday night on a 65-yard march in the fourth quarter to tie up the ball game but Odessa's little Bronchos rallied in the last minute to win 13-6 in a junior high grid battle on Fly Field.

Odessa with a sprinkling of ninth graders in the lineup scored in the first quarter on running plays but failed to convert.

The Pups bounced back and in the last last stanza, Norris and Yeager engineered a 65-yard passing and running drive to score. Norris ploughed it over from the three-yard line. Conversion failed.

Score On Last Play
With a minute to play Midland kicked off out of bounds to the Odessans. Then it happened. On the first play and the only one left a big Broncho back took off for paydirt and the winning touchdown. Point was made by plunging.

Norris and Yeager completed five out of six tosses on one drive and when the air game slowed down, Norris belted his way for gains on the ground. Yeager's broken field dashes were good.

The game against Odessa's junior high reserves was the first football encounter for every member of Coach Earl Kilbough's Bullpup eleven.

A return game will be played here the afternoon of Nov. 14.

Something Backfired And Western States Get Rains While East Coast Has Severe Drought

By Frank I. Weller WASHINGTON (Special News Service) — Something went wrong high in the sky over the Atlantic Seaboard this year and the rains it should have had spilled down instead on what used to be the dust bowl out west.

The normally drier western half of the country had unusually abundant rainfall while the more humid eastern states suffered severe drought. Spring months were the driest of record in West Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee and second driest in Virginia, Pennsylvania, New York and New England. In the meantime cloudbursts swept through western skies and floods roared down long-dry arroyos of the great plains states.

Government weather men know how all this happened, but they don't know why. Let J. B. Kincaid, chief of the division of climate and crop weather, tell it: "Most of the moisture in the United States comes from the tropical zone, drifting up here on air currents generated off the eastern coast of Mexico. Machinery set up by these high air masses normally turns clockwise, in this case west to east, sending most rain clouds over eastern states.

Something Backfired "This year something backfired. Upper air current moved counter-clockwise, or from east to west." And there you are. Only half an answer, but it's all there is. The high-riding "tongues of moist air"—that's what weathermen call them—literally carried rivers of rain hundreds of miles farther west than usual. No one understands what went on probably 10 to 20 miles above their heads to cause it.

Now this upset is not exactly a phenomenon. It is inexplicable but it has happened before.

That unknown atmospheric quantity back again in 1941, must have really plagued the high skies a decade ago. It completely stagnated upper air currents and produced the great eastern drought of 1930. That year pastures perished, cattle died in their tracks, fruit fell unripe from half-starved trees and no garden or staple crop survived. There was less than normal rainfall from winter through spring, summer, fall and to winter again. The great plains states, notably the North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas dust bowl area of the last ten years, as green as the bay tree. Not a cloud in sight all through the 1930's—and now water everywhere!

Iceland Becomes U. S. Naval Base

WASHINGTON (AP)—Designation of Iceland as a full-fledged naval operating base stirred conjecture Saturday night that extension of American naval patrols and convoys escorts all the way to Britain was imminent.

Secretary Knox assigned Rear Admiral James L. Kauffman, 54-year-old veteran of World War convoy battles against submarines, to command the Iceland Base.

The announcement followed by a day the Senate's vote to permit American flag vessels to go into belligerent, meaning especially British ports. While the House was yet to act, authorities forecast that if cargo vessels are permitted to make the whole trip to England they will travel routes protected by American warships.

Should the Atlantic Fleet add this job to its present assignment of guarding the sea lanes between American and Iceland, the island outpost would become the scene of even more intense military and naval operations than it has experienced since American forces moved in four months ago.

Such intensive development of the place had not previously been indicated, but the establishment of a naval operating base there, within itself an administrative step, showed that numerous naval activities both ashore and afloat had been or were being set up.

Even if American bases are set up on the British Isles themselves—a not unlikely development—it was considered probable that Iceland would remain the most important fleet base in the Eastern Atlantic.

In addition to its strategic position on the sea lanes to Britain it is also in a watch-dog position on the route over which much of the new billion dollar worth of lease-lend equipment will move to Russia via the port of Archangel.

Direct House Vote Will Be Asked Soon On Neutrality Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration leaders decided Saturday to press for a direct final House vote on the Senate's amendments to the Neutrality Bill not later than next Thursday.

Speaker Rayburn said after a conference with Majority Leader McCormack of Massachusetts that this procedure would get the legislation to President Roosevelt "much quicker" than would turning the House and Senate bills over to a joint committee for compromise.

"Christmas Bundle" Party Will Be November Benefit Of Midland Bundles For Britain Organization

Home Of Mrs. Andrew Fasken, President Of Group, Will Be Scene Of Festivity; Public Is Urged To Contribute Gifts

"Christmas time is children's time." With this in mind, Bundles for Britain has announced that its November benefit will be a "Christmas Bundle" party at the home of Mrs. Andrew Fasken, 1511 W. Missouri, Wednesday afternoon from 2:30 o'clock to 6.

The public is urged to attend and give generously in order that those enduring the terrors of war in bomb-scarred England may enjoy Christmas. Callers are asked to bring a package of a group or any one of the following articles: Toys, games, chocolate, hard candies, cigarettes, paper products, dried fruit in cellophane packages, canned fruit, fish or meat, and any other articles that are not immediately perishable and can be packed without loss of space.

The party is being held this early so that the packages may be shipped to New York immediately to be loaded on British boats that will carry them to England in time for distribution at Christmas.

A generous response, especially with articles that will bring joy to children, is asked by the organization. "Unless we give from our abundance there can be very little if anything to spare for any sort of celebration in England because all foodstuffs, clothing and other salable goods have to be strictly rationed," the sponsors declare.

"The committee arranging this benefit asks that everyone feel that he is bringing something to be sent to some individual or family so that when he himself is celebrating at Christmas in the safety of our own country, he can have the great satisfaction of knowing someone in an air-raid shelter or improvised home in England is being cheered."

A Fine Arts program will be presented during the receiving hours. Mrs. Holt Jowell, Mrs. Yates Brown, and Mrs. L. A. Absler will present piano selections. Patsy Lou Arrington accompanied by Miss Jesse Scott Price and Jo Ann Proctor accompanied by Charlotte Kinsey will give vocal solos.

At 4 o'clock Mrs. Bernadine Stowe will read "The White Cliffs of Dover."

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. John Dublin, Mrs. M. H. Kinsey and Mrs. Dan Hudson.

Mrs. Bill Stevens and Mrs. C. G. Cooper will have charge of a merchandise table where a selection of articles appropriate for Christmas gifts and collectors' pieces may be seen.

The Midland chapter of Bundles for Britain is one of more than 1,000 units making up the national and international organization. Its officers serve without pay. The purpose of the organization is to provide for civilian needs in order to keep up the morale of the English people who stand behind the armed forces of Britain in maintaining a determined front against ruthless aggression.

MAINBOCHER, famed dressmaker to the Duchess of Windsor, designed this pullover-and-cardigan dinner ensemble, outstanding excitement-maker in fashion circles. The black cashmere pullover has heavy gold bead and pearl embroidery at the round neck. The gold cardigan repeats this ornamentation at the neck and on one sleeve. Black tweed is used in the skirt.

Fall's Colorful Raintogs Will Keep Both Your Clothes and Spirits Undampened

Cheering Young Plaids Abound In What Is Usually Drab Stormwear

The brightly tailored girl at left, above, wears a light gabardine raincoat reminiscent of her favorite army man's, with matching pert rain hat, and long brown, zipper boots. Her companion displays a full length corduroy coat, which is water-resistant and inspires gay, casual headpieces.

Capes are rain as well as wind protection this year, adding cheer to storm clothes. Becoming hood of this rubberized white satin cape is detachable. Matching boots zip up the sides.

By Marguerite Young
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—There seems to be a new slogan in the great American dress business: Lady, go smooth, go shining in the rain.

Or it could be the other way around—could be that manufacturers finally have got wind of the fact that well-dressed women expect rainwear to do as much for their appearance — no, more! — than fair weather clothes do.

Anyway, this year's bluster-togs carry functionalism to the point at which a raincoat really lifts your spirits against the storm while it does regular out-ward-protection duty, too. Goodness knows it makes sense. For if alert women ever think of the function of clothes, it's when they go wandering through dreary racks of rain things that may keep them dry but never heard of what they need just as much—cheer!

MAKES YOU LONG FOR RAIN

Now, one of the cheeriest designs fashion has produced this fall is plaids. And great bright plaids are here in raincoats, too. There's one coat to make a college girl long for rain. This is a reversible, wool plaid on one side, cotton gabardine on the other. It's the classic, fixed-around-the-middle cut. Another of this type is made of Egyptian cotton, beige on one side, solid fireman's red on the other.

Could it be that the designers out of sheer patriotism have figured on keeping the women healthy and morale-building-ray for U. S. defense, rain or shine?

There's a clear-cut military note in one of the new tailored gabardine coats. With straight skirt and slightly upped collar, it will remind you of your favorite army man's. Another coat which is being featured in the stores at the moment is a full-strength corduroy with an extra guarantee on its water-resistant processing. This boxy coat is light and bright in color, too. It's beige, with brown leather buttons, which prompts the wearer to all sorts of inexpensive, merry headpieces, such as her favorite brilliant scarf thrown over the head, peasant style, with ends tucked into the coat.

RAIN BOOTS ALSO MATCH

Then there are nylon and rubber. From Fifth Avenue, New York, to Market Street, San Francisco, the better shops are featuring the translucent stuff that shows off your bright suit or dress. Some have head scarves to match.

Rubber boots are keeping right up with umbrellas in brilliance. Among the newest is a high, all-white, zipped boot. It is shown with a rubberized white satin cape which has a soft, flattering, detachable hood.

For the woman who can splurge for a splashing storm, there's an import, the brightest and one of the most particular of all. It's yellow rubberized silk on top, and sure-enough rubber of the same brilliant hue inside. No two ways about this full-sweeping coat, tailored with care and dash, with underarm ventilating holes; it's made to keep you dry and warm—and gay.

Baptists Gifts Total $989,021

DALLAS.—With total gifts of $989,021.35 to causes outside their local churches, Texas Baptists will report to their annual convention in Abilene, November 11-14, the largest year's gifts recorded since the early '20s, Dr. W. W. Melton, executive secretary, said Saturday.

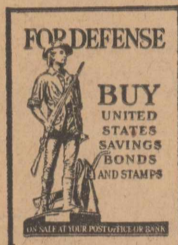

Dr. Melton expects total receipts to go beyond $1,000,000 by the time he makes his report to the convention next Wednesday, but he will not count these tardy receipts in the year's record. The goal for next year, he said, is $1,200,000.

Gifts for the year just closed were $123,849.05 more than last year, while October receipts of $164,291.47 went $23,630.05 beyond those for October, 1940.

Five thousand Baptist from every quarter of the state are expected in Abilene for the Baptist General Convention, opening Tuesday night. The Brotherhood and Woman's Missionary Union Conventions, opening Monday afternoon and running simultaneously through Tuesday afternoon, are expected to draw 3,000 each.

Thank Midland For Fine Convention

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce, in a resolution received by the Midland Chamber of Commerce, officially expressed its thanks and appreciation to Midland citizens and organizations for facilities and assistance rendered in the successful staging of the twenty-fourth general convention of the regional organization here last Monday and Tuesday.

The resolution, signed by D. A. Bandeen, WTCC secretary, was adopted unanimously by the executive board of the organization.

The resolution follows:

"On Appreciation To Host City"

"The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has been unfailingly fortunate in its selection of convention host cities. In this, the twenty-fourth general convention, the people of Midland have typically lived up to its slogan as a 'Typical West Texas Town.' They have met the highest West Texas standard of hospitality as hosts; and, largely through their wholehearted cooperation as participants in the 1941 Fall convention has been a memorable and memorable occasion for our officers, committeemen, delegates and staff.

"For facilities and assistance rendered, all without charge, we extend our grateful thanks to the people of Midland and especially the following: M. C. Ulmer, mayor and vice president of our organization; Mrs. Ulmer, her ladies' entertainment committee, and all of the host committees; President J. N. Allison; Secretary-Manager Bill Collins and the board of the Midland Chamber of Commerce; the management of the Yucca Theater; the Midland Hardware Company; the Dunagan Sales Company; the Midland Reporter-Telegram; the Business and Professional Women's Club; the Midland Garden Club; the band and young lady ushers and receptionists from the Midland High School and others who helped.

"Adopted unanimously, November 4, 1941, by authority of the executive board of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

"D. A. Bandeen, secretary, West Texas Chamber of Commerce."

Red Cross To Tell Of Work In Texas

How the 239 Red Cross chapters in Texas, with their years of peace-time experience, are adapting their services to fulfill civilian defense needs will be dramatized on a special half-hour radio show at 7:45 o'clock Sunday night, to be broadcast by the 16 stations affiliated with the Texas State Network. It was announced today by U. A. Hyde, publicity chairman of the Midland County chapter.

Famous Song Loses Tonsorial Prestige

PITTSBURGH (UP)—The classic tune, "Sweet Adeline," long a favorite of off-key harmonizers, is no longer No. 1 on the barber shop quartet hit parade, an authoritative source here revealed.

The anthem was pronounced dead by one Maurice E. Reagan, identified as a leader in the local chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America.

"To me," explained Reagan, "that song is associated with the end of a drunken brawl, which we don't allow at our meetings of the SPEBSQSA."

Reagan reported results of a canvass of local members, including prominent business men, to discover which songs are most popular with the amateur choristers.

First place went to an old number entitled, "I Had a Dream, Dear?" second place went to "Mandy Lee," third place to "Honey," and fourth position to a former top favorite, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

Editor's Note: In this series of articles the writer is not advocating the "V. V." system. In keeping with his policy to present anything new to his readers, the various details of this system are presented for their information, so that if and when they play against the system, they may have an adequate defense against it.

By William E. McKenney
America's Card Authority
Let me review some of the points in the "V. V." system for you. If the original bidder opens with one of a suit, even one club, and his partner unnecessarily jumps to two of another suit, this is not for-

Hand No. 1	Hand No. 2
♠ K Q 10 7	♠ A J 7 6

♦ A 6	♦ K Q 10 5
♣ 7 6 4	♣ 7

ing. It does not even show a good hand. It is made as a pre-emptive bid.

In other words, all bids of two in a suit in the "V. V." system are pre-emptive unless they are simple overcalls, such as one heart-two diamonds. Otherwise, whether it is an original bid, a response to partner's bid, or an overall of an opponent's bid, it is classed as pre-emptive.

For example—the "V. V." original bidder bids one diamond; the opponent overcalls with one heart; the "V. V." partner bids two spades; this is pre-emptive, not forcing. An opening bid of one heart is made. "V. V." player as an opponent overcalls with two spades. This is pre-emptive, not forcing.

"V. V." players use a term called "in the system". Whenever the original bidder and his partner indicate by their bids that the combined hands hold six of the high cards, they are "in the system". For example, if the original bidder bids one heart and partner responds with one no trump, the combined hands have six of the high cards, and they are "in the system".

When "V. V." players are in the system, they show distribution in the following manner: With two five-card suits, bid the higher ranking suit first and then the lower ranking suit. With a five-card suit and a four-card suit, bid the five-card suit and re-bid it, before showing the four-card suit. With two four-card suits, bid the lower ranking suit first and then the higher ranking suit.

When in the system, a rebid in the same suit at a level higher than necessary shows a set-up suit—a six-card suit headed by the ace-king-queen or a seven-card suit

Skirt Fullness

Latest shirtwaist dresses insist on skirts having fullness—definite fullness in front, modified fullness in back. Set in a pair of pockets and you have that perfect casualness which is the last word in smartness. The shirtwaist top is cut with shoulder yokes, gathers and soft lines through the bodice, a convertible neckline, sleeves which may be full cut and long, or short and straight, set flush with the shoulder line. The band top of the skirt fits snugly.

Pattern No. 8067 is designed for sizes 12 to 20. Size 14 with long sleeves requires 4 2/3 yards 35-inch material.

For this attractive pattern, send 15c in coin, your name, address, pattern number and size to The Reporter-Telegram Today's Pattern Service, 211 W Wacker Drive, Chicago.

For more interesting patterns which can be quickly and easily made, see our Fashion Book of winter styles.

headed by the ace-king-jack. For example, if the opening bid is one heart, partner bids one no trump, and the original bidder now bids three hearts, this shows a set-up suit.

For slam bidding the "V. V." system uses a combination of the four-five no trump and the Blackwood convention. As these are the two popular conventions in use today, I will give you the "V. V." variations in my next article.

With hand No. 1, bid one heart, then spades, showing four-four. If spades were bid first, then hearts, it would show five-five.

With hand No. 2, bid one heart, then spades, then diamonds, showing four-four-spade-one. Bidding diamonds before spades would show four hearts, five diamonds and four

MUSTANG BOYS' CLUB COLUMN

Tuesday is Armistice Day. This will be a big day for Midland and for the Musty Mustangs. There will be no school. In the morning the American Legion has invited all Mustangs to march in the Armistice Day parade. And what a parade. Midland will remember this event for many a day. There will be two bands, the Midland High School band and the one from Lamesa. Also the pep squads from both schools and those snappy majorettes. The soldiers, too, will be marching in full force with colors flying. The American Legion and many other Midland organizations will be represented in this cheerful fiesta.

Every loyal and patriotic Mustang will be expected to show up at the club headquarters at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, ready for lots of fun in the parade. Some special features or stunts will show up in the Mustang ranks on the line of march. Every Mustang who can, is asked to bring an old broom. If you can't, come anyway. But be there. Any Mustang will be allowed to bring any boys 12 or over who do not belong to any club. The parade will end at the high school grounds, where the soldiers will stage some interest events for the public. After the parade all Mustangs who were in the line of march will return to the club where they will be served all of the hot chocolate and fresh doughnuts they can handle. At the same time an announcement of special interest will be made.

Then in the afternoon there will be the football game with all of the trimmings with picture shows or what have you that night. A full day with lots of action. Grab a broom and cooperate with the gang. —NUFF SED.

U. S. Marine Corps Celebrates Birthday

On November 10, 1775 the log book of the United States Marines begins. The very first entry shows the authorization of the Continental Congress to enlist two battalions of "soldiers to serve by sea."

Tun Tavern, Philadelphia, was the first recruiting station, and men of the waterfront clamored for the chance to enlist. The proprietor of Tun Tavern, Robert Mullan, dispensed much good cheer to his guests and spoke long and loud for the new branch of the service. In short time he was made captain and Samuel Nicholas, a Quaker gentleman of dash and spirit was the first Marine leader.

The first expedition of these Continental Marines went with success. They landed in the Bahamas in 1776 and captured ammunition and supplies. It was the prophetic beginning of a brilliant career of colorful and successful exploits all over the world. The Marines have landed in every port of call.

Their wide experience and training makes a modern Marine the soldier on land or sea, and in the air.

MISSOURI TIGERS BEAT NEW YORK U. 26 TO 0

NEW YORK (AP)—A dormant University of Missouri football team came to life just often enough Saturday to defeat a surprisingly stubborn New York University eleven, 26 to 0, with the visitors' last two tallies coming on a fumble and an intercepted lateral.

Liveliest of the Tigers was Maurice (Red) Wade, the ambidextrous quarterback, who did everything asked of him but used only one hand in doing it.

SERIAL STORY

FOR THE LOVE OF PETE!

BY BURTON BENJAMIN

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Star footballer Pete Laird isn't the steady, modest boy he was before State's big opening game with California. It is after that game that Hollywood's glamorous Stephanie Stevens begins an introduction, and Pete stands up his college sweetheart, Anne Humphreys, and 500 alumni who are waiting to meet him. He attends Stephanie's party instead, becomes infatuated with her, does not realize she has conspired with her manager, Larry Winslip, to use him for his publicity value. University town seems unreal to him when he returns by plane, meets Anne's train, makes a date with her. His anger over newspaper photographs showing him first with Stephanie, then with Anne, is forgotten when Stephanie calls from Chicago, asks him to meet her there. He decides he will go and explain to Anne and his best friend and team captain, George Landers, when he returns.

GEORGE CONFESSES

CHAPTER VI

CONCERN clouded George Landers' face when he strode up to Anne Humphreys on campus the next morning.

"Anne," he inquired, "have you seen Pete?"

"Not since yesterday morning. We had a date last night—and guess what? He didn't show up."

"I'll say he didn't," Landers said dryly. "He wasn't in the apartment last night either."

Anne dug her hands in the big pockets of her coat and frowned. "I'm worried, George," she said. "Call it woman's intuition or anything you like. I have a hunch sonny's got himself in another jam."

"Hope not," Landers grunted. "Dugan'll take just so much and then . . ." He shrugged his shoulders. "I'll drop over to the house tonight and let you know what's what. That'll give the old hens something to cackle about," he managed a half smile.

"Good," she nodded. "I'll be ready about 7:30."

Pete Laird's absence received official recognition that afternoon. Dugan was collecting the first team for dummy scrimmage. Suddenly he stopped and looked around.

"Hey, Phil," he called to the manager, "where's Laird?"

"Haven't seen him, Coach."

"Has he an afternoon class?" asked Dugan.

"Nope, he's free after lunch."

Dugan walked over to Landers. "Where's Pete?" he asked. "He's been around long enough to know when practice starts."

"I don't know, Coach," said Landers, kicking an imaginary hunk of dirt out of his cleats. "Maybe he's got a class or something."

"Yes," Dugan looked at Landers quizzically, "yes, maybe he has." He blew his whistle. "O. K.—first team over here, seconds down there with Pat. Sheridan take the tailback on the varsity today."

Players stared at Dugan and began looking around for Laird. Several of them whispered among themselves. "All right," snapped Lester, "break it up. We've got a lot to do."

After practice Dugan, Lester and the other coaches dressed in their locker room.

"That Sheridan kid looked good today, Coach," said Lester. "He's fast and tricky out there."

"Couple of years from now he'll be a whizz," grunted Dugan. "Right now, he's young. Isn't as smart as Laird."

"Wonder where that bird is," muttered Lester, squeezing on a shoe. "You don't suppose that Stevens dame . . ."

"I don't suppose anything," Dugan said quietly. "I'll have a talk with him when he comes around."

ANNE was at the door of the Delt house that night. "Any news?" she asked Landers eagerly.

"Nope," he said quietly, "not a word. The guy's done a fadeout. If he doesn't show tomorrow Dugan'll probably call the police."

Fraternally row was beginning the evening heira to the Delt house. The room grew noisy and crowded as campus smoothies called for their dates. Some headed for an evening at the library, others for a night of juke box jitters. A few set off for the movies.

"Let's get out of here, Anne," said Landers above the bedlam. "I want to talk to you."

She nodded, slipped on a loose covert coat, and they pushed their way through the crowd. People stared at them and one girl whispered too loudly: "That'll teach Pete Laird to give her the air!"

It was one of those nights—beautifully crisp, a sky full of stars and a pumpkin moon. Buoyant, Anne took a deep breath of the cool air. "Let's go down to the island, George," she said almost gaily. "It's a perfect night!"

"Fine," he grinned, "just what I hoped you'd say."

He slipped his arm into hers and they walked briskly down the quiet streets. Neither spoke; each was buried in thought. Anne wondered about Pete. Had one short week changed everything? Landers thought of the girl who walked beside him. He had loved her for three years, never saying a word to anyone, always standing by for Laird. And Landers was too realistic to relish the role. He scorned the platonic, the "good-old-George," the nobility of stepping aside and being a good pal.

"GOOD-OLD-PAL"—it infuriated him! Unconsciously he prodded himself. "Now's your chance, George. He doesn't care about her any more. You've waited long enough. Tell her, George. Tell her while you've got the chance."

He clasped her hand tightly, and she looked up and smiled. "We're almost there," she said. They were crossing the bridge over the railroad tracks. Beyond them, bathed in moonlight, lay the island—scene of college romances from time immemorial. A little stream played around it and the trees walked lightly in a freshening wind.

They sat down on the bench under the old oak. Neither spoke. Finally Anne broke the silence: "Why so quiet, George?"

"Just thinking," he answered quietly. "Been doing a lot of thinking."

"About Pete?"

"No!" He stood up and fairly shouted it. "Not about Pete! Is that all you think I do—think of Pete, worry about Pete, take care of Pete?" He stopped and sat down. "I'm sorry, Anne. I was thinking about you."

"About me, George?" she said, surprised.

"Yes," he said softly, "about you. Always about you, Anne. It's never been any other way."

She stared at him incredulously. "You mean—"

"I mean I love you, Anne," there, he had said it. And he continued — the words coming easily for he had said them to himself hundreds of times.

"I've always loved you, darling," he said. "I knew there was nothing I could do about it. I'd never have told you, Anne, except that Pete's—well—changed. You know that as well as I do. I'm telling you now because I have a right to."

He took her in his arms and kissed her tenderly. She was almost limp and there were tears in her eyes.

"George," she sobbed, "oh, George, what a fool I've been! I'm so ashamed!"

Landers kissed her again and felt her arms tighten around his neck. Suddenly she broke free and stood up.

"What's the matter, darling?" he said, standing behind her.

"George, I'm so confused! I never dreamed . . . please . . ."

she faltered, "please take me home."

"Sure, Anne," he said. "Sure." (To Be Continued)

Editorial

There was a hush over a crowd gathered in front of a pile of debris and the atmosphere told that many hearts were sad. The bricks and ashes used to be its alma mater. Its school when days were bright and there was no fear of bombs. This scene is witnessed all over England. Sometimes it's just a little frame building, but it is their school.

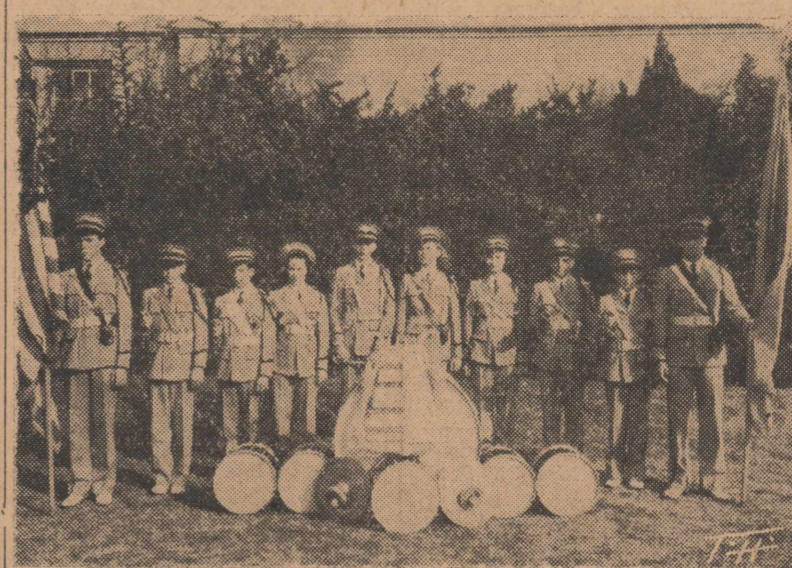

Few American boys and girls appreciate their schools as they should. Students should take every opportunity to beautify the school, keep it clean and inviting, and be proud to attend their school.

If every boy and girl in Midland High School would help preserve the property of the school, they would maintain one that they would be proud to call their "alma mater." An Abilene official recently inquired about the age of the high school building. When told it was 15 years old, he stated, "Oh, I didn't think it was half that old."

JOIN AMERICAN RED CROSS

The 1941 poster of the American Red Cross Roll Call for members illustrates the cooperation given to the Armed Forces by the Red Cross. Through Red Cross nurses, field directors and hospital recreation workers in the camps and stations and home service workers in 3,700 Chapters, the Red Cross always stands by as friend to the service man. The poster is an appeal for all men and women to join their local Red Cross Chapters during the Roll Call. The poster is by Robert C. Kauffmann, noted magazine illustrator.
