

Hey, Skinny, You Can Get Your Own Personalized License Plate Now!

If you are a farmer, a banker, a grocer, or a doctor of some kind you can "advertise" your profession by way of your automobile tags - if you are the first person in Texas to apply for such a tag.

But if you are a pharmacist, a plumber, a mechanic or a teacher, you are out of luck. Your profession has too many letters in it.

Jean Lovelady, who issues automobile tags (among other duties) for Bailey county, received instructions for issuing the special jobs. They will go to people who have $10 extra lying around the bank that they don't know what to do with. You still pay the usual price for your tag, too, in addition to the $10 special fee.

"Don't know whether anybody's going to ask for such tags or not, but I'll bet we'll sell some of those special plates," muses Mrs. Lovelady. "Anyway, we got the applications here and if anybody wants one of the special plates, he had better sign up right away; it will be September anyway before they start turning them out."

Catch is, the new plates will be good for only the rest of this tag year - until April 1. After that, if you want a 1966 job, you'll have to go through the process again - and ante up another 10 bucks.

If you are a real extrovert and are proud of your name, you may be able to inform the world right on the tag in shiny black letters that you are Turner, Higgins, Smythe, Martin, Steele, or Whamie. Six - letter names, you see. If your name is Snicklepus, you're out of luck.

Or you can be the "first in your family and they'll tack on the "1" right after your name - in case it has only five letters. Like "Bobby 1".

Because figures also can be used - provided the total is not more than six letters and figures.

Mrs. Lovelady explained that the fancy license plates are a money - raising project for the state. They figure there'll be enough hand - made tags turned out that the state can pick up a cool $5 million from the zanny tags; ninety - five percent of the fees will be paid to the state's general fund. The bill, Mrs. Lovelady said, does not become effective until 90 days after the legislature adjourns, which probably would put the personalized plates law into effect around Aug. 24.

Only one plate of a kind can be issued, and it will go to the first applicant. Once Mr. Turner, for instance, has latched on to the tag labeled "TURNER" it will be his from then on - provided he remembers to get his $10 special fee into the state office by not later than Jan. 1.

All applications must be accompanied by the applicant's name, address and classification of vehicle for which the personalized plates are intended - limited to passenger cars, trucks, truck - tractors, trailers (not exceeding 10,000 pounds), busses or house trailers. And just to be sure that he isn't disappointed, the application blanks which Mrs. Lovelady has at her office have spaces for three choices. The new doodled - up plates can contain vowels, a custom previously not allowed.

Mrs. Lovelady has been informed that the most - in - demand letters will be FDR, and others may want nicknames, such as "Bigboy", or "Shorty." Or you can put your birthday on the tag, such as "Sept. 1" with figures filling out 6 spaces.

"We expect to get several applications between now and Sept. 1 for the special plates," Mrs. Lovelady said, "and probably considerably more for 1966. The state believes the zanny, personalized plates will be in great demand, once they have got going with the traveling public.

Of course numbers or letters can not conflict with the present system, as BWL prefixes for this county.

Here are the rules for issuing personalized plates as laid down by the Motor Vehicle Division:

- (a) One to six letters, such as, "A" or "Robert."
- (b) Two letters followed by "AB 4" or "AB 2345."
- (c) Three letters followed by a number from 1 through 9, such as, "ABC 9."
- (d) Four letters followed by one or two numbers, such as, "ABCD 4" or "ABCD 45."

(e) Five letters followed by one number, such as, "ABCDE 4."

(f) One number followed by one to five letters, such as, "4 A" or "4ABCDE." (The suffix "PAR" will not be authorized.)

(g) Two numbers followed by one to four letters, such as, "23 A" or "23 ABCD." (The suffix "PAR" will not be authorized.)

(h) Three numbers followed by one of three letters, such as, "123 A" or "123 ABC."

(i) Four numbers followed by one or two letters, such as, "1234 A" or "123 AB."

(j) Five numbers followed by one letter, such as, "12345 A."

Colorado Clouds Again On The Loose!

If so, the rains belonged to a group of farmers living in eastern Colorado. They knew the rains were theirs because they bought them and paid for them - at $2000 a whack.

The rainmaker who "created" the rains in eastern Colorado called the Journal's editor at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon to in-

Judge Proclaims Soil Week Here; Observance Set

Bailey County Soil Conservation Service will mark "Soil Stewardship Week" starting next Sunday, and special observances are being planned, according to Sherman Inman, chairman of the Blackwater Soil Conservation Service district.

County Judge Glen Williams this week issued a proclamation setting aside May 23 - 30 for the observance.

His resolution read:

"Today with a rapidly increasing population we must be more aware than ever before of the value of our natural renewable resources. These God - given resources, soil, water, plant and wildlife, must not only be conserved but improved.

"What's the weather like down there?" he asked.

"Clear," he was told.

"Are there any clouds?"

"Yes, quite a few but the sun is shining anyway."

"Well, it should rain there along about 6 o'clock this evening," the weatherman promised.

He said the rains were coming by jet - jet stream, that is.

"We put out a lot of chemicals in eastern Colorado this weekend," the rainmaker, F. Neal Bosco, explained, "and the rains got caught in the jet-stream and sped off to the south. You folk in Muleshoe are right in line to receive the rain."

And he ended with another promise: "It will rain there Sunday or Monday, and if it doesn't let me know."

This is the second time that Bosco's "seeding" operations in eastern Colorado have

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm gets involved with figures this week.

Dear editor:

I understand some colleges specializing in agriculture around the country are now offering a new service to farmers.

They've installed big computer machines and if a farmer will send in his records the machines will digest the information and in 30 seconds or so tell him what he's doing wrong.

This may be fine for bachelor farmers, but farmers with wives don't need a machine to tell them what they're doing wrong.

However what I started out to say this week before I got sidetracked - as you can see I operate on the same level as the statesmen do on foreign policy, you don't plan what you're going to do, you wait till something busts loose and then react the best you can - is that I have developed a

Put in these terms, the national budget this year is not quite one - tenth of a trillion. Say it over. A tenth of a trillion? Why, that sounds paltry. Like a tenth of a dollar. Like half a loaf.

In the years ahead, as we extend our rockets in space and our soldiers on earth, whoever is President can go before Congress and say our budget this year will come to only two - tenths of a trillion dollars, and we can all get some sleep.

Yours faithfully,

Rev. Ira Waddell, Pastor
Richland Hills Baptist Church

Christ taught His disciples and followers many facts about this life. It was during His personal ministry that He taught them how they should live in relation to this life. He told them more about heaven than anyone had ever spoken. Christ said "I go to prepare a place for you." John 14:2d. This was a profound statement given that He would prepare a place for His own. One great fact Jesus said "I will come again, and receive you unto myself." John 14:3b. The day Christ ascended to heaven, many standing on the mount of Olives heard a voice saying "Why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in the manner as ye have seen him go into heaven." Acts 1:11. There is no question as to the manner of Christ's return, because they saw Him ascend out of their sight unto heaven; He shall return in like manner, Revelation 1:7 tells us "Behold, he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him." Also in I Thess. 4:16 declares "For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God, and the dead in Christ shall rise first." One would be foolish to set a certain time and date and say this is when Christ shall return. Jesus plainly tells us "that no man knows the time, 'But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no not the angels of heaven but my father only.'" Matt 24:36. It will be a time when the world is least expecting. "But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night." II Pet 3:10a. Christ is not a thief, but will come unexpected, as a thief. Christ could return today. Are you prepared to meet Him if He should come today? Could this be your prayer as John said in Rev. 22:20b "Even so, come Lord Jesus?"

That time, Bosco came down to look the situation over. He "recognized" the rain which fell here because it was full of the secret chemicals which Bosco had turned loose earlier in Colorado.

Bosco is a recognized leader in the rain-making field. A geologist by trade, he says rainmaking is a science which man is just beginning to conquer. delegation was told that most of the right-of-way parcels for the Bailey county road had been secured, but that "one or two" condemnations may be necessary.

Commissioner Lloyd Stevens, in whose district the new road will lie, said that rains had made it possible to grade the route, and that work will be started as soon as possible.

Most of the road will be a dirt road, the route connecting with the present FM 1760.

Also here for a visit with the commissioners were groups from the southern part of the county interested in seeing FM 2487 completed. This route would start near Baileyboro and extend north for seven miles, intersecting FM 746. Most of the parcels, they were told, have been signed up for the right-of-way with one condemnation possible.

George Washington, only president of the U. S. who never lived in the White House, laid the cornerstone for the building on October 13, 1792.

A report was made by E. K. Angeley and others of a conference with officials of El Paso Natural Gas Co., in El Paso

May 5, looking into the possibility of buying irrigation gas from El Paso Natural Gas Co. It was reported that El Paso advised that if gas were bought directly from them by a qualified group of farmers, the price for such gas would be 23.1 cents per Mcf. The group of farmers on the Lamb - Bailey County line could purchase the gas directly from El Paso without laying any additional line because the farmers' line now ties directly into the El Paso main. This will permit farmers to buy gas for not much in excess of one-half of the present cost.

TSTA's Pay Hike Proposal Favored By Rogers Over Governor's Plan

By Rep. Walter Rogers
Due to the importance of and the wide public impact posed by pending public school legislation, I feel an obligation as your State Senator to present my own position toward the so-called "Teachers Pay Raise" bills.

First of all, may I say that education today is our first line of defense. The brains we educate today will determine whether or not we are a free nation tomorrow. Our kind of government cannot long survive in the world of today with a second rate educational system.

We will be first in this field, or we will be conquered. Our very physical depends on our attaining and maintaining the best educational system in the world.

The main object of our educational system is the end product - a high degree of learning and character among the graduates of our schools.

In our country, since the beginning, the whole concept of public education has been that every child should have, as nearly as possible, an equal opportunity for instruction and learning.

Ball Managers, Sponsors Listed

Eagles are managed by James Mason and sponsored by Houston Hart; Dusters are managed by Joe Bob Stevenson and sponsored by St Clairs; and the Colts are managed by Bruce Shafer and sponsored by Plains Auto Parts.

The exact cost of buildings, equipment, and teachers is not of primary concern, except as they produce these desired results.

Economy? YES, but not at the expense of the best educated minds we can produce to meet the challenges of our imperiled globe. I am willing to pay the price. We need more teachers. We need better teachers. In our free society, higher salaries are necessary to produce either.

The so-called "Governor's" Teachers Pay Raise Plan is deficient by the above mentioned standards in two respects: First, it makes the rich school districts richer, and the poor ones poorer. This is accomplished by giving more state tax money to the rich districts that already are able and are paying higher salaries, while the poorer districts will receive much less state tax money under this plan. Also, it throws more school cost burden on the local districts.

Many of our school districts outside our big cities are already taxing themselves to their limit. These points of the "Governor's" would mean that the already existing educational gap between our poorer and richer areas would widen and further violate the integrity of the equal educational opportunity requirement of public education.

Second, this plan simply does not reward those who would be teachers enough to attract more or better teachers.

Much propaganda has been spread that the State of Texas is paying 80 per cent of public school costs, and the local districts only 20 per cent. This is pure baloney. When buildings, maintenance, salaries, retirement contributions, text books, etc., are all tallied up, it is quite clear that the total cost of public school education in Texas is shared almost equally, 50 - 50, by the local districts and the State.

The other school improve-

Guest Editorial

"A JOB WELL DONE" has to be the verdict on Lubbock County Commissioners' precinct redistricting. The changes were accomplished at a special meeting Friday in which differences were forgotten in the interest of a fair reapportionment of population.

Unless unexpected legal difficulties turn up, the rearrangement promises to be a remarkably painless one. Since it goes into effect immediately, there will be plenty of time for ironing out any objections well before the 1966 elections. Voting and justice precincts are not disrupted and it is anticipated that the terms of the four commissioners will not be affected.

One excellent result is that there will be a better mixture of the rural and urban population, correcting the overabundance of city voters in Precinct 1. Another is that the move comes well before the "one man-one vote" pressure filters down to the county government level.

Moreover, the commissioners' action is opening the way for a desirable reappraisal of county road maintenance, so that funds can be assigned to fit more closely the individual commissioner's responsibility. An engineering study will provide the basis for dividing the money according to the need rather than on a strict geographical division.

Commissioners Arch Lamb, Alton Brazell, Les Derrick and George Green and County Judge Rod Shaw are to be commended for updating the precinct lines. (Lubbock Avalanche-Journal)

Senator Irked By 'Mail Cover' Action Uraed

Editor's note: Senator Ralph Yarborough is opposing "mail cover," a practice of the post office department whereby individuals' and firms' mail is kept under surveillance. The following article expresses his view.

There is a serious and growing threat to the Constitutionally guaranteed right of privacy of the individual through several questionable practices by governmental agencies. I have objected to this encroachment upon a person's private affairs, and I have co-sponsored bills to prohibit these illegitimate practices.

In recent Senate hearings, it was revealed that the Post Office Department has had the mail of approximately 24,000 persons under surveillance over the past two years, by means of a "mail cover." This is a device used to keep systematic records of all mail received by a person or firm, as well as the recording of all information obtainable from the mail without opening it.

Under existing postal regulations, a "mail cover" is authorized to be placed upon any person or firm at the request of any government department, and the evidence indicates that this surveillance technique is used with little effort at control.

This practice is highly objectionable in a free country, as well as being legally questionable under the Fourth Amendment which protects "the right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures." There is no law on the books authorizing this mail tampering.

Federal statutes also make it a crime to delay the mail for any purpose, and specifically if the delay is to pry into someone else's business. Yet, the Post Office Department removes mail from the regular channels, sets it aside, records information and then puts it back in the regular course. . . a series of events which certainly delays the mail.

Another shocking practice is the seizure and opening of mail by the Post Office Department for the Internal Revenue Service for the purpose of collecting federal taxes. This seizure of mail without a search warrant is an obvious violation of the Fourth Amendment, and is directly contrary to all American concepts of fairness and privacy.

I am strongly opposed to these practices of snooping through the mails and will continue to support investigation and legislation which will insure protection of privacy for the individual and insure his Constitutional guaranteed rights.

The Greatest Of All Is Love
By REV. CASEY PERRY

Paul in writing his first letter to the Church at Corinth gave the very heart of the Christian message when he paused at the thirteenth chapter to tell them and us that the ministry of all Christian gifts must be governed by love. Paul contrast love with other christian graces. He began by saying that the eloquence of speech without love is just noise. He said that prophecy, faith, charity and martyrdom, were all nothing unless it was governed by love.

In his analyses of love, Paul said that its functions embodied, kindness, patience, generosity, courtesy, humility, unselfishness, good temper, quiescence, and sincerity. Of the three abiding facets of the christian life, Paul, admonishes is faith, hope, and love, but the greatest of these is love.

On another occasion Paul said that "love is the fulfilling of the law." Another great apostle, Simon Peter, once urged his readers to "above all things have fervent love, among yourselves, for love shall cover a multitude". It would probably do us well to remember that love is loves reward, it gives itself, it is not bought.

Rope spinning originated in Mexico. A Mexican member of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show, Vincenti Orespo, introduced the custom in the late 1880s and it was adapted by American cowboys.

Church Group To Attend Meeting

Boyd Lowery, presiding minister of the Muleshoe congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, has announced a three - day convention which Witnesses in this area are invited to attend. It will be held in Vernon, Texas, June 4 - 6.

"The meeting, which is to be held in Wilbarger Memorial Auditorium, is for advanced Bible instruction and a study of ways to increase the effectiveness of our Ministry," Lowery said. "Also, each witness attending will plan to devote some time that weekend to making house - to - house visitations in Vernon to get acquainted with the local residents, and invite them to attend our free sessions at the Auditorium," he added.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has found out about the new television satellite, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:
 While I've never figured out how television pictures can be sent through the air even ten miles, I understand now they've got a satellite up called Early Bird which enables live pictures to be sent to practically any spot in the world.

Under this system, Hullabaloo and Hazel can be seen in Europe the same night they're seen here, although what we'd get in exchange hasn't been indicated and there's no way of telling who'd get the worst of the deal. It's hard to see through how we could come out the losers.

But what interested me about this was a comment I read in a paper in snatches last night during commercials that the Early Bird television satellite, by bringing instantaneous news from the rest of the world to this country and the same from this country to the rest of the world, will "help mutual understanding more than anything that has gone on heretofore."

I have thought this statement over and I'm not sure about it. What I mean is, we've had direct live television from Washington, New York, Alabama and other places to this Johnson grass farm for several years, but still there are lots of times when I doubt if we understand each other.

Also, I'm not sure a live television picture from Viet Nam will tell us what's going on over there, especially when the people living on the scene right there in that country don't know what's going on.

There are some members of Congress, right there in Washington where they can see live without any television, who don't know what happened on the floor yesterday.

In fact, it's hard for me to believe that the reason the world's in the uncertain state is that we haven't seen enough of each other's television programs, live or shipped over on film.

I'm not undermining television, I like it, it beats plowing any day, but if anybody is counting on it to bring understanding and peace among nations, he's been getting some different channels from the ones I get out here.

Yours faithfully,
 J. A.

West Texas Meet For Methodists Opens May 24

Hundreds of Methodist pastors and lay leaders from the vast Northwest Texas Annual Conference of The Methodist Church will gather in Lubbock, May 24 - 28 for the 56th annual meeting of the Conference.

Dr. Dow Kirkpatrick, pastor of The First Methodist Church, Eyanston, Illinois, and a leader in many phases of Methodist activity on the national scene, will be the conference preacher.

This year's conference will be held at First Methodist Church in Lubbock under the guidance and direction of Bishop O. Eugene Slater. This will be Bishop Slater's first full annual conference meeting since returning to the Northwest Texas section last June. He was pastor of Polk Street Methodist Church in Amarillo for 10 years and had been presiding bishop over the Kansas Area from 1960 to 1964. Bishop Slater now oversees work in the San Antonio - Northwest Texas Area which includes the Northwest Texas and Southwest Texas Annual Conferences.

Bishop Slater will formally open the 1965 annual conference at 7:30 p.m. May 24 with a communion service, and the first business session will be held at 8:45 a.m. Tuesday, May 25. The conference will run through Friday noon, May 28, with the reading of appointments scheduled late that morning.

Dr. Kirkpatrick's first sermon will be Tuesday night, May 25.

Indications are that this year's conference business sessions of the conference will make its recommendations concerning the number of districts. The proposal is to reduce the number from nine to eight for the 1965 - 66 year, and that the second district be eliminated as soon as flexibility in ministerial appointments makes it feasible, either this year or any year in the future. Proponents of reducing the number of districts say that population shifts are causing loss of membership in some areas and gains in others. They say that seven districts will serve the entire conference now since the larger towns in the districts to be eliminated can be absorbed into other districts since good highway facilities in the conference now make it possible to cover larger areas.

The Board of Hospitals and Homes will propose construction of a Methodist retirement home in Abilene, the first unit of which would cost about $120,000.

The Northwest Texas Conference will further study plans to eliminate the Central Jurisdiction (Negro churches and conferences) and make its recommendations regarding absorption of these churches to the South Central Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church, the administrative body which coordinates work of the church in the Southwestern United States.

Cub Scouts Plan Family Night

Cub Scout Pack 620 will hold its final award program at a Horse Shoe Bend Family Night Thursday, May 28, according to Jim Shaffer, cubmaster. Parents and families of cub scouts are to meet at the Cub Scout Hut at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Shaffer said.

This will be the last presentation of rank and arrow awards to cubs of this pack. All den mothers have been asked to turn in their den's award list to Frank McCamish, awards chairman, by today (Thursday), Shaffer announced.

Mothers of each Cub are asked to bring either homemade ice cream or homemade cookies to the social - awards program. Dress is to be informal but boys are to be in uniforms, officials explained.

Kansas City Athletics' Owner Lures Customers With Gimmicks

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor
Charles O. Finley, the successful Chicago group insurance broker, is more enthused these days over a Missouri mule than over the Kansas City Athletics, the baseball team he owns.

And who can blame him. The 3-year-old mule, which he named Charlie O, cost him nothing. It was a gift of Gov. Warren E. Hearnes of Missouri. The ball club, which appears destined to finish last in the American League, cost him over $2 million when he bought it and doubts that figure in less than five years.

"The big reason back of the mule," says Finley "is to add a little color to the game. There is nothing wrong with having a mascot. Furthermore, Missouri is mule country."

"There is an old saying - 'you can't ballyhoo a funeral but we're trying like hell. We are doing everything within our power to promote baseball in Kansas City. I would love to stay there. Only time will tell whether we can or not.'"

Finley has tried to move his franchise to Atlanta or Louisville, plus other places. He had Atlanta in the palm of his hand but was forced to remain in Kansas City through 1967 while the Milwaukee Braves grabbed Atlanta for National League baseball for 1966.

"What owner was ever saddled with a contract with options to remain in one city for 11 years?" asks Finley. "There was a clause in that first contract that any year less than $50,000 fans turned out in Kansas City I could leave. I struck that clause from the contract as a goodwill gesture. It was the biggest mistake I ever made."

"We drew 683,500 that first year (1961), and we haven't drawn 800,000 since. I'd sell the club to Kansas City people for $8 million. They say that's too high. Well, the Yankees went for $14.2 and all they have is bodies. Neither of us own the parks."

"Getting back to the mule, in Chicago I read a life story for the Missouri mule. That's for me for a mascot, I said."

"Last February at a Chamber of Commerce kickoff meeting to sell season tickets we invited Gov. Hearnes. I asked him before the meeting how he would like to donate a mule."

"Gee, Charley, this is great. I would like to be the donor of the mule," he said.
