Saturday Homecoming to Wind Up Mules' 1965 Football Season

Muleshoe Mules will put their football uniforms back into moth balls — literally at the end of this week after winding up the 1965 season with a blare of trumpets in elaborate homecoming activities Saturday afternoon.

Perryton Rangers, smarting from a 40-2 slaying by football's No. 1 AAA team, Dumas, will roll into Muleshoe for the 2 o'clock game, eager to wind up the season with as high a rating as possible.

The Mules have romped through nine games. They started off the year with four straight non-conference wins and lost their final non-conference scrap, Dumas stomped Muleshoe 28-7 and Tulia walked off with a 28-0 victory. Hereford bested Muleshoe 44-20. The Canyon game was the only conference set to leaning Muleshoe's way.

The Perryton outfit is a much better team than the 40-2 licking by Dumas last weekend would indicate. Thus the Mules should be against pretty good competition Saturday afternoon.

The Rangers were able to master two persistent offensive efforts. The Rangers' offense corked up a little steam in the second quarter in driving 25 yards before being forced to punt. Then in the fourth quarter, another Ranger drive carried for 35 yards before stalling.

The Ranger plays came like this: A Chris Byerley-to-Jim Gobin pass grabbed a first down and then Kenneth Deike turned in some power running for another first-and-10, edging the ball into Dumas territory.

Three more plays gained six yards, but . . . that was the end of the drive. Robbins made the only Perryton score of the evening when he was tackled in the end zone by Gary Thomas, Ranger tackle.

The big weekend is to put the season to a close with a blare of color. All kinds of ceremonies are planned for the afternoon, including the crowning of the homecoming queen.

Homecoming queen will be crowned by the Muleshoe captain at half-time activities, and afterward other events are planned.

Three seniors have been nominated for Homecoming Queen candidates. They include Judy Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Elliott, Dianne Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bay Wilson, and Patsy Angeley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Angeley.

Besides the school activities, other organizations are planning programs for Saturday.

First Methodist Church, for instance, is having an "excess" buffet supper at 4:30 for its members and former members and their spouses.

Also booked for later is a Youth Center Dance at the Veterans' Center with the Hide-aways providing the music.

Rogers 'Reports to the People' In Informal Talk to Area Folk

Congressman Walter Rogers brings his "Report to the people" series to Muleshoe this week with an informal luncheon Friday noon at Paul's restaurant, it was announced Wednesday by Harvey Bass, County Democratic Chairman.

This is the fourth of a series of such informal meetings the 18th district congressman has been holding in his district since Bass said the meeting here will be "strictly informal," and that the congressman is expected to touch on many subjects.

Rogers told a similar "report" audience in Hereford last Friday that the shift in representation from rural to urban centers of the nation has brought about "a whole new outlook in Congress."

"Many, many changes are going on politically, socially and economically throughout the world," the Pampa representative said, adding: "These are also taking place in the United States."

He said that one thing which has triggered a number of these changes in our country is the decision of the supreme court — whether it is good or bad will be left up to history to tell — but it's the one-man, one-vote idea.

"It has shifted power and influence to urban areas and depleted measurably the rural strength and made possible much new legislation — some of it socialistic, effecting many people."

Here are some of the areas he mentioned in his talk at Hereford and in other district towns:

Foreign Policy — Rogers chided African nations receiving U.S. aid who have recently favored the Soviet Bloc on matters of little importance. "But they were important in showing the attitude of these countries . . . I have been skeptical of what we can expect in return for the aid we have sent to the Dark Continent."

Viet Nam — "It's no different today in Viet Nam than it was in Korea or Africa . . . the communists are stirring up brush fires . . . You hear lots of talk about why we are in Viet Nam . . . My answer is because we represent freedom in the same way we did at Valley Forge . . . at Gettysburg . . . and in France in World War II. We continue to have a challenge from the communists. . . who are hoping somehow they can create a war which will bring the whole world into a holocaust which would see the communists emerge victorious.

WALTER ROGERS

Communism — Rogers predicted an eventual fight between Peking and Moscow which would "neutralize" their threat to the world.

LBJ — "The job of the President of the United States is not an easy one . . . I feel certain those who criticize the President's stand on some of these matters would probably do what he has done if they (See ROGERS Page 3)

Month's Crash Record Shows One Injured

Texas Highway Patrol reported Wednesday that Bailey county had eight "rural" accidents during October and that the crashes accounted for one person injured and an estimated property damage of $4,960. However, no deaths were reported.

The October figure, just released by Sgt. Thurman Keffer, the Highway Patrol supervisor for this area, brought the total to 30 persons injured but no deaths so far in 1965. Sgt. Keffer said the estimated property damage for these 54 crashes was estimated by DPS at $43,270.

Lamb county had 10 accidents during October with two injured and property damage of $7585, and Cochran county had two injured in three accidents but only $950 in property damage. Hale county had 28 accidents, 30 injuries and $19,397 in property damage during last month. The October report also showed 10 accidents in Hockley county and seven injured with property damage of $8440.

The sergeant pointed out that November and December are "dangerous months in traffic, and especially for pedestrians."

He pointed out that during the last two months of 1964, there were 80 pedestrians killed and 726 injured in collisions during the last two months.

He said there are many reasons for this: Longer hours of darkness, bad weather, pedestrians not visible to driver, holidays and lack of driver's and pedestrian concentration.

He urged pedestrians to "wear something light colored when walking down the highway if possible."

3-Barrel Output Revealed on Test

A Bailey county wildcat may have uncovered the first petroleum ever discovered in this county.

This was indicated early this week after the Craig Hammon Co. No. 1 Dewey Ross wildcat nine miles southwest of Muleshoe in the central part of this county, flowed oil at the rate of three barrels per hour during a test. The test was made of the Queen formation.

The flow was natural and for an unreported time from perforations in the Queen Zone. The interval was not listed.

The operation drilled to total depth 2,650 feet and set 5½-inch casing at 2,640 feet for the completion attempt. Electric logs placed the top of the Queen at 2,411 feet.

At last report a pump was being installed. There currently is no oil production in Bailey County. The nearest reservoir is approximately 30 miles southeast in the Littlefield area.

Location of the prospective discovery is 650 feet from south and east lines of Labor 24, League 171, Hale County School Land survey.

Sheriff Jaunts West for Couple

Sheriff Dee Clements rolled back into Muleshoe over the weekend from a "long and tiresome" trip to California. He had jaunted to the west coast to pick up a man and his wife, wanted here on charges of theft.

The couple face charges of buying an automobile here and giving a worthless check for $150 with which to pay for it. The couple were picked up in California a few days later.

In Muleshoe it was a quiet weekend, crime-wise. The sheriff's office arrested a drunk, the highway patrol arrested a man on a driving while intoxicated charge, and the city arrested a vagrant and charged another with driving while intoxicated, sheriff's blotter showed.

Bucky Taylor Wins Grid Money

Bucky Taylor, 201 E. Birch, Muleshoe, did the best job of guessing in the Journal's weekly football prognostication contest, it was revealed this week after a check of entries showed he had missed only one college game.

Second prize went to David Hardison, 520 E. 3rd who wound up with two misses.

The contest continues again this week, and an entry blank will be found in this issue.

Taylor failed to pick Texas A&M over Rice, while Hardison missed the Navy-Penn State and Auburn-Georgia setto.

Incidentally, both top pickers for the week selected Muleshoe to beat Canyon,

'Cutrate' Taxes Now In Effect

If you like bargains, then now is the time to pay your county taxes while the taxes are on "cutrate" bargain tables.

Jean Lovelady, county assessor-collector, pointed out Wednesday that tax-paying time is here again and that the eager-to-save payers have been saving their hard-earned dough ever since October 1.

That was the date when "bargain" rates went into effect. That was the month when the county granted a three percent cut to those who got their little county taxpaying job attended too in the early autumn.

Mrs. Lovelady says "quite a few" taxpayers flocked into her office on the first floor of the courthouse during October when the bargain rates went into effect.

And then on Nov. 1, the rate dipped to 2 percent, but still a sizeable saving in case you have a sizable bill of tax-paying to be done before we ring out the old year and ring in the new.

But folks haven't been too eager to pay their taxes this month for the 2 percent saving, it seems. Or maybe it's just because harvesting time is at hand.

But come Dec. 1 the rate will be down only 1 percent from the standard run-of-the-mill tax prices.

Because after Jan. 1 the price settles back to the price-tag it bore at the start of the season — no bargain, but, then, no penalty, either.

So, 2 percent, 1 percent or standard, as a tax-payer, it's up to you!

Philately Club Proposed Here

Two stamp collector enthusiasts in Muleshoe are considering forming a philately club here, it was announced Wednesday, "depending on the response which such a proposal brings."

Eddie Faust said he and Frank Ellis have been considering forming such a club and decided to "sound out the public on the proposal." Each has been collecting stamps for a number of years.

Persons interested in joining such a non-profit club were asked to contact either of the two backers.

LIKE BARGAINS? — If you like bargains, then now is the time to pay taxes, as Tax-Collector Elaine Ethridge points out at Jean Lovelady's tax office here. Through November, payers can save 2 percent, and through December they will get a 1 percent cut. However, the really thrifty taxpayers took advantage of the October rate — a 3 percent cut. (Journal Photo) knew the facts . . . history may record LBJ as a man who relied on trial and error — he has to try almost anything to solve some of the problems we see today."

Legislation — "We have seen a great deal of legislation passed . . . much of which is new and we haven't associated with it in the past."

"Perhaps the most important single measure, I think, is the cut in excise tax," Rogers opined. "It has given us a chance to renew our faith in the basic principle that the private enterprise system by showing that the gross national product increased measurably when additional capital was available."

Most Controversial — "The most controversial legislation was medicare an civil rights," he said.

"These two things caused more heated debate and bad feelings," he said. Explaining, Rogers said that the controversy was not so much against the idea of extending aid than it was against the "closed rule" enacted with the introduction of the bill which prohibited congress from making changes in the measure.

"The Civil Rights Bill was controversial — not because of the issue of black and white. . . nobody was fussing about that. The name Civil Right was a misnomer — lets look at it for what it is: a bill vesting more power in the federal government . . . that's exactly what."

Space Program — "We are making headway against Russia in the Space Program. . . I don't believe Russia can catch up with us . . . we are not falling by the wayside as some people have been led to believe . . . I don't think we need to have any great fear of that at this time."

Water Supply — "Few people realize how dangerously low our water supply is, Rogers commented.

He also pointed out that — contrary to popular theory — there perhaps exist greater water shortages in the East than in the West. "We are anticipating federal participation in solving our water problems — whether we like it or not — people in urban areas are turning to the federal government to get it . . . the number of representatives from cities has become so much greater it is almost impossible to top many of these trends toward federal aid and control."

"The federal government is moving into the field . . . I don't like it — I much prefer control on a local level."

"There are growing reserves for water such as the Canadian River Dam, where federal money will be paid back, but many are not paying back federal money and they have ways to get it with city representation in Congress," he said. The congressman also commented about the proposed North American Water and Power

Cecil Davises Have Guests

The Cecil Davises had several weekend guests visiting in their home. Mr. and Mrs. J.I. Guess and Mrs. Zona Perdue, Weatherford, were guests. Mr. Guess is Mrs. Davises' brother.

Other visitors in the home were Miss Ann Pronger, Stratford; Miss Mary Ann Selman, Watrus, N.M.; and Miss Gail Stone, Capitan, N.M. These were all students from Eastern New Mexico University.

Joining the group were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Askew and Mrs. Nona Davis of Muleshoe. The group went to the Needmore Gin where Cecil Davis is employed and the group toured the gin. Mrs. Davis reports that harvest is in full swing in the Needmore Community, both grain and cotton.

wer Alliance — which would bring water from Canada and Alaska to the United States. "It would cost 100 billion dollars — now that's a lot of money — How far it will go I do not know but they are talking seriously about it and I think NAWAPA is worth knowing about."

The Farm Bill — Rogers said that the Omnibus Farm Bill was one developed through years of trial-and-error on short-term programs. "I hope it works out as a four-year program . . . this gives everyone time to utilize it."

Postponements — "When we meet again in January, 1966, the proposal to repeal 14-B (the right-to-work law) will still be in the Senate.

"Another thing is the proposed change in minimum wage about which I have personal great concern . . . We can't put a horse collar on a jack rabbit . . . we shouldn't change provisions exempting certain farm labor.

"And another thing of great importance is the attempt to grant home rule to the District of Columbia . . . Don't let anyone fool you . . . this should not be done. The congressman emphasized, saying he would provide a further explanation of this viewpoint on this measure to anyone who desired it.

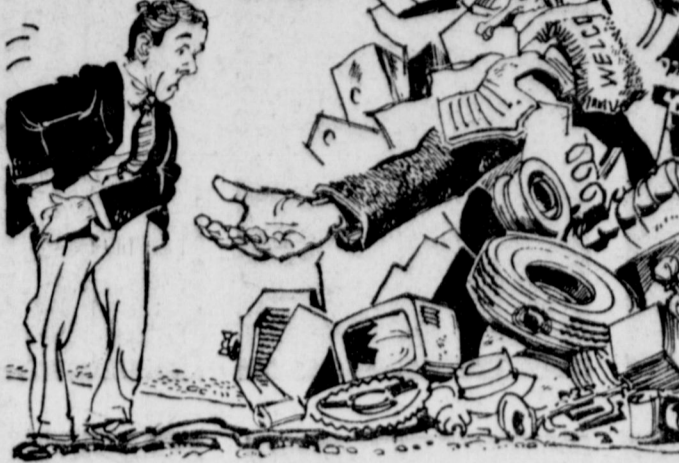

"We hope that with the proper legislation and the proper administration, we will end up with quality legislation, not just quantity."

In a question-and-answer period which followed, Rogers also commented on the Trinity River project recently approved by Congress.

"It was a highly controversial matter in Congress," Rogers said. "It will give this region a chance to compete in Eastern markets by reducing freight rates, but I was basically opposed to it because of the cost."

Beauty to Reach Texas Roadsides

By Vera Sanford
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN — A facelifting of the Texas roadside scene is about to take place.

Gov. John Connally has pledged full cooperation with the Federal government in connection with the new Highway Beautification Act. A legislative council committee here now is considering the legal steps necessary in Texas to enforce provisions of the Act. This to prevent loss of U. S. funds.

State Highway Engineer D.C. Greer is outlining an initial plan of compliance with the Federal law which proposes control of scenery-spilling billboards and junkyards and general scenic enhancement along 17,589 miles of Texas' Federal-Aid highways alone.

Texas Highway Department. Greer reports, already is taking steps to put into effect an expanded program of landscaping and beautification at a cost of about $10,000,000. Program will cover a two-year period and will include planting projects, rest areas, irrigation systems and possible scenic easement at selected overlooks and natural-beauty spots.

Greer anticipates Texas will get about $6,000,000 a year in federal funds for this work.

He has called for a complete inventory of junkyards and large outdoor advertising signs and devices within 660 feet of highways.

Some of the junkyards, Greer emphasized, will be screened by plantings, fences and other means in the near future.

Meanwhile, information from the inventories will be used in studies of needed state legislation, including zoning of industrial and commercial areas along the state highway system as called for in the beautification act.

Interest Rates — State Banking Commissioner J. M. Falkner, on the heels of a new policy announced by U. S. Comptroller of the Currency James J. Saxon, has asked Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr whether state Texas may charge the same interest rates as loan companies. Saxon said national banks in Texas may charge the same interest as loan companies regulated by the state. So Falkner wants to know if the State Banking Department should let state banks exceed the constitutional interest limit of 10 percent.

Texas law authorizes small loan companies to make loans with rates scaled from $1 interest on a $5 loan up to about 17 percent for loans up to $1,500.

Governor Connally vetoed a bill earlier this year authorizing banks to raise their rates to 17 percent each year on $100 loans up to $1,500 and 14 percent per $100 on loans between $1,500 and $5,000 a year.

Question now is whether state banks may charge the same interest rates as loan companies and national banks in Texas. AG Rules — Attorney General Carr said accounts payable to the State Building Commission, incurred under an inter-agency contract with the Mental Health and Mental Retardation Departments, can be deposited to the Building Commission. Proceeds may be deposited as professional fees and service and travel expense.

Carr also ruled that: A County Treasurer is entitled to receive compensation for additional duties of handling levee improvement districts' funds within his county.

Counties are responsible for the hospital care and treatment of prisoners in the custody of the sheriff.

Interest earned on investment of bond proceeds, not needed immediately for a voted purpose, may be placed in the proper interest and sinking funds, at the discretion of the Board of Trustees of the school districts.

Salt Water Disposal — Ector County oil operators have agreed to get rid of salt water disposal pits within three years.

County officials had requested Texas Railroad Commission to enter no-pit order for 40 Ector fields.

Courts Speak — Houston Independent School District must pay its $82,899 phone bill, State Supreme Court ruled. Court held that the school must pay Southwestern Bell Telephone Company full business rate of $16.50 per month for service rather than residential rate of $5.90 it had tried to settle for under a 1911 city ordinance.

Court refused to hear a suit alleging malpractice against a former Littlefield physician. Woman attempting to bring suit claimed the doctor left a gauze pad in an incision during an appendectomy.

Court of Criminal Appeals for a second time upheld murder conviction of a Midland man, Marvin Clewis, who received a 25-year sentence for slaying his wife.

Criminal Code Reviewed — Texas' much-maligned new code of criminal procedure was defended by State Bar official, Fred Erisman of Longview, at a three day institute to study its provisions here.

Erisman said code brings Texas criminal statutes in line with modern-day decisions of U. S. Supreme Court. It means little to law enforcement, he maintained, to obtain conviction, only to have Supreme Court set the defendant free because of unconstitutional procedures.

Prison Unit Named — Texas Board of Corrections honored longtime member H. H. Coffield of Rockdale by naming the new unit in Anderson County for him.

Coffield has served on the board 16 years, eight years as chairman. Board also authorized buying a new $190,000 airplane. Director George Beto reported that the plane already owned by the prison system isn't adequate for returning parole violators from other states.

Securities Sales Hit Record — Securities approved for sale in Texas reached an all-time high of $283,300,000 during fiscal year just ended, according to University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Total was $66,900,000 or 31 percent over fiscal 1964, despite a major market upset during 19-65.

Activity, Bureau predicts, will "continue to be strong so long as the economy continues to expand."

Appointments — Clay Cotten, formerly of Palestine, is the new State Commissioner of Insurance. As such he will be administrative head of an agency regulating Texas' No. 2 industry.

Tom I. McFarling of Austin is the new liquidator and conservator for the State Board of Insurance and Robert P. Clines is legal counselor.

Governor Connally announced these appointments: State Board of Corrections — Fred W. Shield of San Antonio and Walter M. Mischer of Houston with Walter Pfluger of Eden reappointed.

Good Neighbor Commission — A. G. Ainsworth Jr. of Lubbock, Walter McBee of Dallas and Mrs. Philip R. Bishop of Fort Worth with Ramiro Martinez of McAllen reappointed.

Texas Tech Board of Directors — Dr. Fladger F. Tannery of Dallas, Retha R. Martin of Lubbock and C. A. Cash of Amarillo.

Board of Texas College of Arts and Industries (Kingsville) — E. S. Joslin of Corpus Christi and Everett Braden of Edinburg with J. C. Martin Jr. of Laredo reappointed.

Speaker of House Ben Barnes named Reps. Hudson Moyer of Amarillo and John A. Traeger of Seguin to the Interim Committee on State and Local Tax Policy.

C. L. Friou, assistant director of administration of Parks and Wildlife Department, is the new president of Texas Public Employees Association.

W. O. P. Embarrassed — Dr. William H. Crook, southwest region director of the War on Poverty, said the program is temporarily "embarrassed by success".

Project Head Start, a child development program, has met such tremendous national success that there isn't enough money to meet the demand.

Regional office here now has 67 Head Start applications, totaling more than $15,000,000.

Land Office Active — First oil and gas lease sale for 1966 will be held February 1 at the General Land Office.

Nominations for tracts must be in the Land Office by December 8.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler says his department's activities added $87,000,000 to the permanent school fund this year, boosting the fund to $654,000,000.

Short Shorts

State Board of Education adopted two economics textbooks despite protests. . . . Texas Water Pollution Control Board will hold hearing December 1 on a proposed order zoning the Houston ship channel and tributaries and defining water quality objectives for each. . . . Forty-one Texas towns have received, free, $120,000 worth of surplus property from U. S. air bases to develop and maintain their airports, says Texas Aeronautics Commissioner Director Charles Murphy. . . . Governor Connally approved a Community Action Program grant for a McAllen project and Neighborhood Youth Corps projects in Galveston, Mount Enterprise and La Grange.

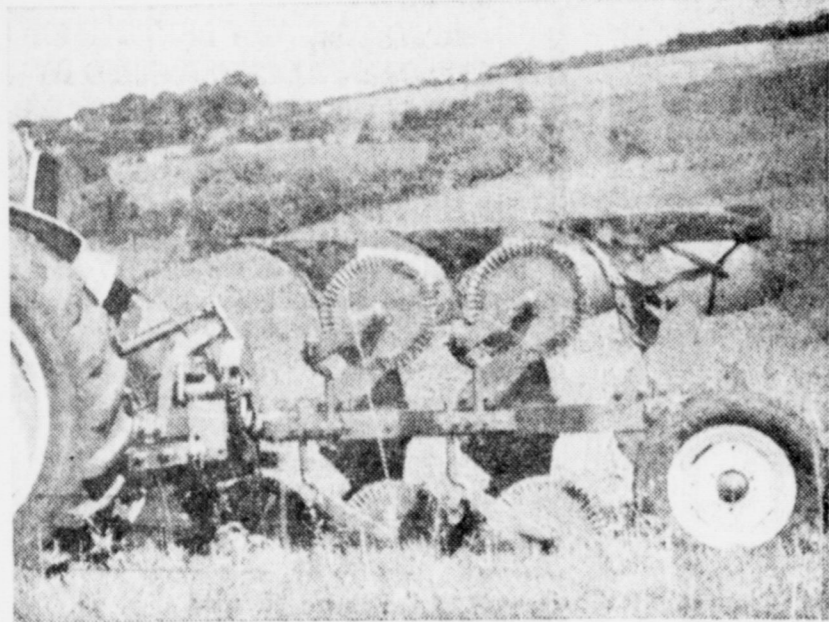

Sandy Koufax won 11 straight games for the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1965.

There are more than 15,000 naval officers on active duty who have received their commissions through programs they entered as enlisted men.

LONDON (AP) — Group Capt. A. Cooper, air attache at the Australian embassy in Paris, has landed a job on the movie "How to Steal a Million Dollars and Live Happily Ever After." His job: Teaching the stars, Peter O'Toole and Audrey Hepburn how to throw a boomerang so that it reaches its target and returns to the thrower.

How to make a holiday last all year long

"How often do you call Long Distance to friends or members of the family?"

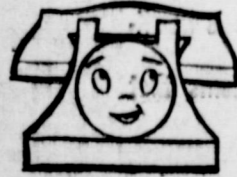

"Well, I expect to make some calls on Thanksgiving and maybe on Christmas."

"Why wait for a holiday or special occasion to call - that's the old fashioned way!"

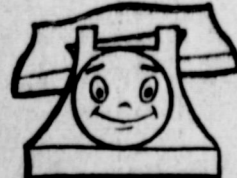

"How come? Is the phone company having a sale just now?"

"No, not that. New low-cost long distance rates are now in effect all day Sunday and every night after eight - so now for a dollar or less, you can keep in touch more often."

"Say! That's a good idea! Tonight I'll make some important calls I've been putting off."

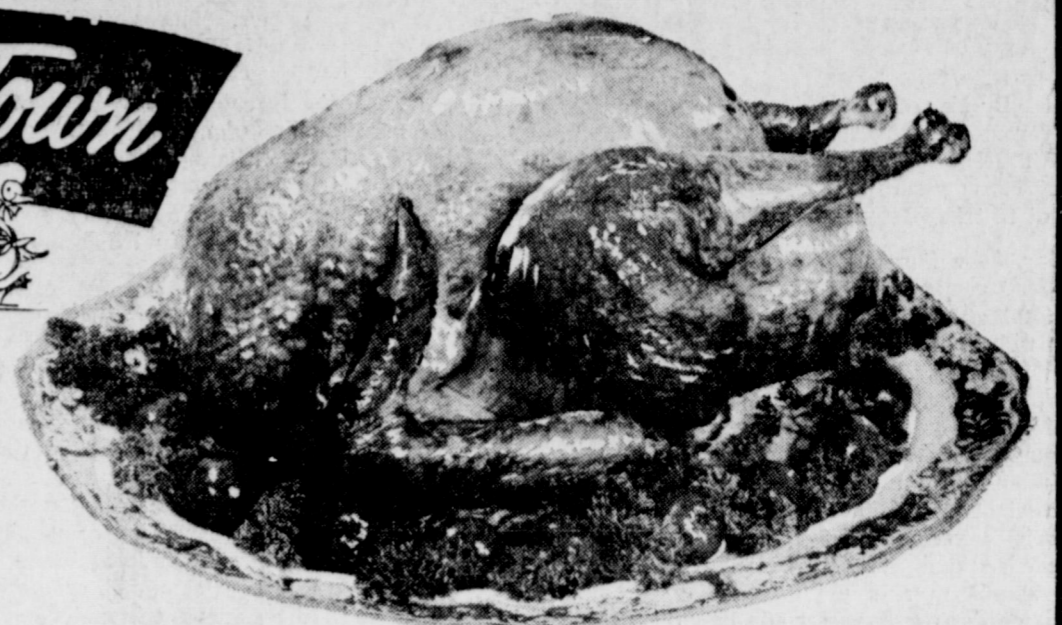

"Fine! Thanks to new low rates you can call anywhere in continental U. S.* station-to-station and talk three minutes for $1.00 or less. This is the big communications bargain - the modern way to keep in touch at all times."

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm discusses beauty in his letter this week, we suppose.

Dear editor:
I was wandering around this Johnson grass farm yesterday afternoon thinking up what I could do to it to bring it up to the standards of the National Beautification Program when I saw a newspaper had blown against a gate and I rushed over and pulled it off, I've had enough trouble keeping that gate standing without risking its going over from added wind resistance, and took it over to the sunny side of the barn and read awhile.

The first article that jumped out at me was one on the steps American business men are taking to make America more beautiful.

According to it, one power company is housing its substations in log cabins, so a passing motorist would never guess they had anything to do with electricity.

I have been thinking this over and haven't been able to figure out why a log cabin is more beautiful than a power plant's brick substation, unless it's simply that an Indian would consider a wigwam prettier than a log cabin, or a cave-dweller a cave prettier than a wigwam, or some people admire a can-

Johnson grass farm, but I don't know where to start. Well, I know where to start too, but this place is not for sale.

I was out here looking this Johnson grass farm over yesterday afternoon without really planning on doing anything about it, I guess the reason some people don't get ahead is that they don't know they're behind, and for no reason at all I kicked a brush pile and a copy of a farm magazine fell out, which I took home and read that night. At first I thought it was a rabbit.

According to an article in it, electronic computing machines, the kind that guides astronauts down from space when a fuse doesn't blow and they have to do it by hand, will some day be commonplace for farmers and ranchers.

You'll carry a tiny tape recorder with you and talk each day's farm business into it as you go about your work, then at night you plug the recorder into your telephone and a central computer collects your day's reports and stores them in its electronic mind. When you need to make a decision on something, you phone the computer and have it do the figuring for you.

I don't know about business men, newspaper publishers, lawyers, etc., maybe they keep their mind on business and nothing else all day, but I reviewed some of my thoughts for one day and I doubt if science has yet produced a computer that could digest them to any great advantage. Here are some of them: (8 a.m.) There must be some way to figure out a football game where both sides win and everybody leaves the stadium happy. Will work on it tomorrow. (9 a.m.) One way to stop having so many junk yards alongside highways is to stop building so many highways. (10 a.m.) That sick calf will either get well or die, wish he'd do one or the other, I'll check on him tomorrow. (11 a.m.) I'm getting hungry. (1 p.m.) I'll think about Viet Nam after my nap. (2 p.m.) That fence needs fixing. (3 p.m.) Coffee break. A man can't work all the time. (4 p.m.) It's a little late in the afternoon to

I guess if the government gave me one of these machines to talk into I'd take it, but I believe I can get the same results and do it cheaper just by talking to myself.

High Plains Oats, Wheat, Barley Results are Told

Tascosa wheat was the top in yield with 69.4 bushels in the 1965 wheat variety tests at the High Plains Research Foundation, according to Loyd Langford, associate agronomist. This variety has been consistently high in yield for the past five years at Halfway. And also been consistently high in baking qualities, Langford said.

Caddo and Bison varieties were not significantly lower than Tascosa in the 1965 test.

Seven wheat varieties tested in 1965 were: Tascosa, Caddo, Bison, Commanche, Improved Triumph, Kau, and Triumph.

The tests were planted October 23, 1964, at a seeding rate of 100 pounds per acre and harvested June 23, 1965. All varieties received a fertilizer application at planting time of 125 pounds of 11-48-0 per acre and a topdress application of 46 pounds of nitrogen from ammonium nitrate on March 8, 1965.

A 6-inch post plant irrigation was applied on October 30 for germination. Irrigations during the growing season were applied at jointing, March 16; early boot on April 24; and when grain was milky on May 10.

Bronco oats was the top-yielding variety with 98.7 bushels per acre in 1965 in a test of 6 varieties of oats at the High Plains Research Foundation. The oat varieties tested by Loyd Langford in 1965 included: Bronco, Cimarron, Alamo X, Alamo, New Nortex and Mustang.

The four-year average in oat variety testing at Halfway shows the Cimarron variety with 90.2 bushels per acre and Bronco with 90.1 bushels per acre. Langford said the Cimarron is an early maturing variety and when harvested at the right time will generally out produce all other oat varieties.

The new Will variety of barley was the highest in yield with 67.1 bushels per acre in the 1965 Barley Variety test at the High Plains Research Foundation. The Roger variety was second in yield with 60.8 bushels. This variety has been the leading variety for three of the five years it has been tested at the High Plains Research Foundation.

The full report on 1965 small grain variety tests is in Report No. 162 from the High Plains Research Foundation for 1965.

Your Child's Portrait in LIVING Color

Parents: We have arranged to have a leading child photographer at our store on the dates shown below.

Any age, any number of children accompanied by a parent will be photographed FREE in Living Color.

ONE complimentary color portrait will be given to each FAMILY as a gift from our store.

DON'T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY to get a living color portrait you will treasure always. Several poses are taken and low cost additional portraits are available for those who wish them.

This is our way of saying 'Come in to see us.' If you are one of our many regular customers, this is a 'Thank You' for your patronage. Incidentally we believe these color portraits to be something really special. These are beautifully posed portraits — not snapshots, so dress the children colorfully.

FIVE OF TV'S TOP STARS SIGNED FOR HOUSTON SHOW—The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo has drawn television's biggest names to headline the 34th annual show, February 23 through March 6. Doc and Festus of Gunsmoke fame (Milburn Stone and Ken Curtis) will open the show, appearing at the Feb. 23, 24, and 25 performances. Bonanza's Ben and Hoss Cartwright (Lorne Greene and Dan Blocker) will appear at all week-end performances, Feb. 26 and 27, and March 5 and 6. Jimmy Dean, the lanky Texan who headlines The Jimmy Dean Show, will appear at all performances Monday through Friday, Feb. 28 — Mar. 4. The Rodeo will be held in the famed Astrodome and the livestock show in the new $4.25 million livestock exposition building adjacent to the domed stadium. The Houston show is the largest rodeo in the world.

Orphanage Can Close

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP) — St. Vincent Home for Girls, which has sheltered orphans in Santa Fe since 1865, will close June 1966.

Msgr. William Bradley, director of Catholic Charities for the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, said the institution would be closed because of the small number of girls living at the home.

The orphanage was opened by two members of the Mother-house of the Sisters of Charity with one Indian baby found on a battlefield.

At one time, the orphanage, occupying an adobe house on the hospital grounds, accommodated 100 orphaned girls and a school.

The home's location was moved in 1954 when the adobe and several other old buildings were torn down.

LINDA AND THE GOVERNOR—Linda Hollins called on Governor John Connally, asking that he support the Christmas Seal campaign against tuberculosis. Linda's mother, Mrs. John Hollins of Austin, a former WAC, was recently hospitalized with the disease. Linda, her two sisters and her brother, are being cared for by an aunt and by their father, who is employed as a welder. Governor Connally apparently found Linda pleaded her cause well.

 The message this week is directed to the storekeepers' and businessmen of the community... As a business man you undoubtedly know that, in many ways, you are legally responsible for the personal safety of customers and others who enter your place of business or office... The law says in effect, that you must remove and guard against all hazards which might cause injury to members of the public... No matter how careful you are... You can never be absolutely certain that your store or office is accident proof... But you can be certain of having someone to stand by you, in the event an accident should occur, if you will just give us a call and let us fully insure you with one of our All-Risk Liability Policies... Why not call us right now before it's too late...

Proposed Changes in Congressional Procedures Discussed by Rogers

By Congressman Walter Rogers

In recently concluded hearings of the Joint House-Senate Committee on the Organization of Congress, a group established to study means by which Congressional functions can be strengthened and improved, extremely valuable recommendations were received from some of the most senior members of the two Houses. While the suggestions were many (the printed hearings are five inches thick), some proposals had particular bearing on problems that, in my view, need to be solved if Congress is to continue to do its work well and, as envisioned in the Constitution, in proper relation to the Executive and Judicial branches of Government.

Of paramount importance in the hearings was the carefully prepared testimony of my warm friend and House colleague from the South Plains, the Honorable George H. Mahon, who has represented the 19th Congressional District of Texas in the House since 1935 and who is now Chairman of the very powerful House Committee on Appropriations. The fiscal operations of our Government have received Congressman Mahon's daily attention for years. No man in or out of Congress has a better background of experience on which to base recommendations for improved Congressional review and disposition of the appropriations responsibility. As Congressman Mahon put it in citing the Constitutional duty of the Congress, "The supreme weapon of the Congress for control of Government is the appropriating power."

Space here does not permit a full review of Congressman Mahon's recommendations for improved procedures. I would like to summarize several of them because of their particular interest to me and, I know, to other experienced Members of Congress who believe present procedures can be improved.

It may come as a surprise to many citizens, but there is not now any service Congress provides itself by which a Member can receive an up-to-date summary on any given day of the status of budgetary actions in relation to budget recommendations originally submitted by factors beyond the appropriations actions affect the matter. The effect of "back-door" spending — money spent by Government agencies without their having to go through the appropriating process — can affect the state of the budget without Members having immediate knowledge of it. Appropriations actions may reflect lower spending levels than requested in the President's budget, but the situation may actually be that back-door spending has raised the total above budget goals.

"Back-door" appropriations are indefensible in my view as in Congressman Mahon's Standing authorizations permitting agencies to stage end runs on the appropriating process, by enabling them (as an example to borrow money from the Treasury to finance their operations, are a travesty on the Constitution, Congress should, in acting on reorganization recommendations expected to come forward next year, take action to curtail this evil.

Also being urged is a careful look at the desirability of changing the Government's fiscal year to a calendar year basis. Until 1842, the two coincided. Now, because of the press on Congress in so many areas, appropriations bills for a fiscal year beginning on a July 1 are often not acted upon until the fiscal year is several months old. Departmental efficiency is affected as a result, and it might well be that the return of the fiscal year to a calendar year basis would be a sound step to take.

These are examples of the very close look Congress is taking now at its own procedures. You'll be hearing more

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Of Law and Love

Theft: A Tax Deduction

During divorce proceedings, a court awarded part of the family's money to the wife. Her husband, outraged, reacted very much like the proverbial pugilist who cries:

"I wuz robbed!"

In that spirit, he solemnly claimed a deduction for "theft" on his next income tax return. But the government took a dim view of his claim. And, after a court hearing, the judge ruled this was not exactly the kind of theft that the tax law had in mind.

Generally speaking, you do have a right to deduct for loss-theft of your personal property, above a $100 minimum. Unless you are covered by insurance, you may subtract the amount of the loss from your gross income.

But the government will insist on a reasonable showing that you really did suffer a theft. Mere unexplained disappearance is not enough.

For instance: In one case, a valuable bird dog, released for exercise, simply disappeared. The court, observing that the dog might as probably be lost as stolen, denied tax relief to the owner.

On the other hand, you do not need overwhelming, ironclad proof to establish a claim. The circumstances of your loss may be convincing enough, even though no thief is ever caught.

For example:

A traveller was advised, at an airport stopover, that it was safe to leave his camera in the plane. But upon his return he found the camera gone. Theft was held sufficiently likely. In these circumstances, to support his claim for a tax deduction.

A woman kept a diamond pin in a locked drawer, but with the key accessible to her maid. When she returned home after a few days' absence, the pin was missing. So were some clothes, so were some linens, and so was the maid. Held: good enough evidence of theft.
