Lynn Lenau, Charles Knolle Repeat Vows in Church Rites

Miss Lynn Lenau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long Lenau, 313 East Fir Avenue, became the bride of Charles Edward Knolle, Junior, of Sandia, in impressive wedding services Monday in the First Methodist Church of Muleshoe. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Knolle of Sandia.

The ceremony was solemnized Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The Rev. James A. Mock, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Plainview, officiated.

The church altar was centered with a floral arrangement of white mums, pom-poms and white poinsettias, and noble fir and holly, with the tall altar candles. Spiral candelabra, accented with fir and holly, flanked the altar.

Preceding the service, Mrs. Sam Damron presented a group of organ selections which included a solo by Mrs. Pat Bobo, "O Perfect Love" by Clekey. Other selections were "Glorious Things of These Are Spoken", Haydn; "Prelude in C Major", Bach; "In Dulce Jubila", Bach; "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God", Luther; "Prelude in G Minor", Bach; "Soliloquy", Rowley; "God of Our Fathers", Warren; "Prayer in F", Guilman; Purcell's "Trumpet Voluntary" was the processional with Haydn's "The Spacious Firmament on High" the recessional.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of antique ivory silk satin. The moulded empire bodice was fashioned with a high bateau neckline and long tightly fitted sleeves edged in a ruffle of Belgium princesses applied lace. Tiny covered buttons fastened the back of the gown accented by tiny hand rolled cording at the empire waistline. The slim princesses paneled skirt swept to a wide cathedral length train.

Her veil of Belgium princesses applied lace and imported ivory silk illusion softly framed her face and extended beyond her train. She carried Stephanotis and valley lilies atop a prayerbook given her by her parents.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Pamela Lenau. Bridesmaids were Louise Knolle of Sandia, sister of the groom; Sylvia Pool, Vicki Pharr of Lubbock and Mrs. Jerry Foust of Big Spring. Miss Lauren Hall served as junior bridesmaid.

The attendants wore identical gowns of pomegranite red alaskine. The princesses gowns were fashioned with wide oval neckline and sculptured butterfly sleeves accented by small shaped bows. The slim A-line tunic skirts were chapel length. Garlands of holly detailed their headdresses. Their bouquets were colonial bouquets of holly accented with garnet stones.

Serving as flower girls were little Misses Kimberly and Jamie Small. They wore identical azalea pink velvet dresses with the A-line tunic styles of the bridesmaids. Their baskets were of holly with pomegranite red and azalea pink ribbons.

Matthew Phelps was ring bearer.

Joseph Thomas Knolle of Corpus Christi served his cousin as best man. Groomsmen were Paul Charles Lenau, Edward E. Smiley, Jr., of Dallas; Benjamin Franklin Harrison, III, of Corpus Christi; and A. W. Knolle of Sandia. Acolyte was Perry Hall.

Ushers were Don Julian Lenau, Dan Charles Durst and Roland Joel Story, Jr., both of Houston, and Stanley Black and Mike O'Conner of El Paso.

A reception was held in honor of the newlyweds following the ceremony at the church. The bride's table was draped with floor length satin folds and satin swags garlanded with smilax. The serving table was centered with a tiered arrangement of white butterfly roses, white fuji mums, and white pom-poms. Silver candlesticks flanked the arrangement holding lighted dinner tapers. Silver punch and coffee services were used.

The bride's table was flanked by round serving tables centered with identical three-tiered cakes. The tables were draped in floor length cloths of organza and eyelet. Smilax garlands were clipped to the tables' edge by white satin and accented with sparkling tiny lights.

The bride's tiered cake was decorated with white with her chosen color pomegranite highlighting the revolving server. The groom's cake was decorated in the traditional manner with garlands of tiny colored fruit on the chocolate cake.

Trellises decked with palm branches and garlands formed a lovely background for the table setting and complemented the entire reception.

Assisting in the houseparty were Mrs. Julian Lenau at the guest book, Mrs. Henry P. Knolle of Corpus Christi; Mrs. Storm Whaley of Little Rock, Ark.; Miss Myrtle Lenau of Hobart, Okla.; Mrs. Bernard Phelps and Mrs. Larry Hall, Misses Ann and Rebecca Phelps, Marilyn Pool and Mary Sanders.

The bride attended Elgin Academy, Elgin, Ill., and graduated from Muleshoe High School. She is a senior student at Southern Methodist University where she is social chairman of Pi Beta Phi social sorority, chairman of SMU Fine Arts Committee, member of Directorate, and editor of "Le Sourire", the university newspaper. She also has attended the University of Colorado, Boulder, and University of Mexico, Mexico, D. F., during summer sessions.

The groom is a graduate of Mathis High School and a senior student at Southern Methodist University, from which both will graduate this spring. He is president of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

The couple will reside in Dallas at the University Apartments following a wedding trip to San Francisco, Calif., and Las Vegas, Nevada.

Pre-Nuptial Courtesies

The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Knolle, of Sandia, were hosts Sunday evening for the rehearsal dinner which was held at the Lubbock Country Club. The bridal party and out-of-town guests attended.

The dining tables were decorated with silver candelabra entwined with white snapdragons and white roses and garlands of smilax, with the fireplace fire adding a festive note to the room's appointments.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Lenau entertained the bridal party and out-of-town guests following the rehearsal Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pool and Sylvia served a luncheon for out-of-town guests Sunday.

A bridal luncheon was given Wednesday, December 22, by Mrs. Kenneth Pharr and Vicki Pharr at the Lubbock Country Club. Guests were Mrs. Julian Lenau; Mrs. Bill Wright, Ruth Robertson, Nan Luther, all of Lubbock; Mrs. Lee Pool, Sylvia Pool, Pam Lenau and the bride and her mother.

The bride was also honored in Dallas recently with a bridal luncheon given by Susan Schimmel at the Dallas Country Club and a shower by Mrs. Marshall Gish of Dallas, as well as several courtesies in Muleshoe.

State Officers Face Medicare Problems

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association
 JUSTIN — Working out federal medicare insurance benefits in Texas may take awhile. According to state officials, the Texas plan for those 231,000 persons on old age assistance rolls will require "some" to develop. This because complexities in the act require their study.
Problem arises out of Title 18. It provides a 43-month voluntary medical insurance program for the elgram.

 Both proclamations followed a serious outbreak of pink bollworm this year in the two-state area.
Suits Viewed — Texas officials are viewing with interest a $30,000,000 damage suit filed in Oklahoma. It is for alleged price-fixing. Sued by the State of Oklahoma are 10 firms that have been selling the state asphaltic oil for highway construction.
 Accountants for the Texas Highway Department now are checking records in Austin pertaining to the $1,700,000 worth of asphalt oil purchased annually by the State of Texas.

It is charged that the State of Oklahoma has been overcharged $10,000,000 on asphaltic road oil purchases as a result of price fixing by the ten firms over a five-year period.
 Says Texas' attorney general, Waggoner Carr, "We're interested in this suit. If we find anything here, we will take appropriate action."
 So far there has been no indication of price-fixing here.

In commenting on the number of terms a governor may serve, Connally stated that he does not favor any limitation because the office is "weak enough" already. One of the "few strengths" a governor has, said Connally, is that he just may be around for another term.
Heart-Fund Ride — Eddie Snell, a cowboy who is riding horseback from California to Washington, D. C. on behalf of the Heart Fund, was presented with an Honorary Texan Citation at the State Capitol by Governor Connally.

AG RULES — State Aeronautics Commission has authority to spend appropriated funds for hardsurfacing and lighting landing strips at Falcon State Park ($30,000) and Lake Whitney State Park ($30,000) and for facilities in cooperation with local and federal governments ($200,000), Atty. Gen Waggoner Carr said.
 In two other opinions, Carr: — Told District Atty. James A. Morris of Orange Independent School Districts that incorporated cities and counties may contract to assess and collect taxes for the districts or cities.
 — Advised State Board of Barber Examiners it cannot require applicants for barber schools to appear before the Board for "educational fitness" check.

Farmers Cooperate — Transcos farmers are cooperating all on two cotton-pest control programs in the area, according to Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.
 In an effort to control the pink bollworm, White issued a proclamation to plow under cotton stalks in El Paso and Hudon Counties.
 White said he has assurance of cooperation in the pro-

Banks Approved — State Banking Board approved charters for new Frontier State Bank of Eagle Pass, Southwest State Bank of Brownwood and Friendswood State Bank (Galveston County).
 Board rejected applications of proposed First State Bank of Keller and First State Bank of Covington.
Retail Sales Up — November retail sales in Texas brought the year's total figures up six per cent above the first 11 months of last year, says the UT Bureau of Business Research. November sales were down two per cent from October. But there was 14 per cent gain over November of 1964.
Appointments — Governor Connally has appointed Grady O. Trimble Jr., Jasper attorney, to be district attorney of the First District, comprising Jasper, Newton, Sabine and San Augustine Counties. He succeeds Floyd Addington, resigned.
 M. K. Berry of Vernon now is a member of the Midwestern University Board of Regents. Governor Connally named him to succeed State Sen. Jack Hightower of Vernon, who resigned. Term expires February 25, 1968.
 Connally announced, too, that soon after January 1 he will name a 15-member public school study committee.
 Staffing of a "Texas liaison office" to coordinate state-wide interest in Washington will be completed shortly, the governor stated.

 House speaker Ben Barnes has named an interim committee to study laws relating to agriculture, and to recommend needed improvements of benefit to farmers, ranchers and the entire state. Selected were: W. Lynch of Dallas, chairman; Doph Briscoe of Uvalde; and State Reps. Milton J. Schiller of Cameron; Wayne Connally of Floresville; and Delwin Jones of Lubbock.

Connally To Tour — Gov. John Connally says that regardless of whether he has an opponent in the Democratic primary he plans to travel over Texas next year discussing problems and laying out a "broad and imaginative" program for the future.
 His proposals will "encompass almost all areas of state government." They will include a development program, advances in education, tuberculosis control and mental retardation work. Also "expansive and ambitious programs" for "woefully inadequate" state parks and recreation.

In a companion program, 18 Texas school districts have applied for $4,533,945 with which to stimulate educational innovation.
Funds Outstripped — Texas applications for Neighborhood Youth Corps funds exceed the money available.
 Director Walter Richter of the State Office of Economic Opportunity says there are 45 state and Washington-approved applications that can't be made effective until more money is received.
 A total of 141 NYC programs now are in operation with federal grants aggregating $14,390,374. NYC grants provide part-time jobs for students and drop-outs.

Money is to help school districts make library resources, textbooks and other printed and published matter available to pupils and students in public and private schools.

Attorney General Rules — Overlapping bills in the Legislature will balk Texas National Guard Army Board plans to dispose of unneeded armories "encumbered by debt" at Ranger, Carrizo Springs and Santa Anna, according to interpretation of an opinion by Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr.

Another seven or eight armories are expected to become surplus after the Guard Reserve merger — without authority to dispose of them.

In other opinions Carr held: — Wife of Kendall County sheriff cannot be employed to prepare meals for prisoners in county jail.

— Hale County justice of peace, precinct 1, place 2, does not come into existence until precinct contains a city of 8,000.

— Board of Mental Health and Mental Retardation can sell surplus land at Abilene State School.

— State Comptroller has authority to set up special accounts for gifts and bequests to Water Rights Commission.

Poverty Programs — Gov. John Connally announced approval of Community Action Program grants in Kingsville ($38,234); Comal and Blanco Counties ($18,649); and Atascosa, Karnes and Wilson Counties ($16,200).

A $223,710 Neighborhood Youth Corps grant to train 210 youngsters in Fallsriver also received the governor's authorization.

Cuero Project Report OK — Sen. John G. Tower's Austin office advises that a proposed Bureau of Reclamation Feasibility Report on the $117,300,000 multipurpose Cuero Project in the Guadalupe River Basin of DeWitt and Gonzales Counties has been approved.

Report is being transferred to the State of Texas and to interested federal agencies for review before it goes to the President and Congress.

Annual yield of water from the proposed reservoir will be 229,000-acre-feet for state 1 development, and 242,000 acre-feet from two-stage ultimate development.

Exploration Encouraged — Texas now is encouraging oil exploration in the Gulf of Mexico on both state and federal leases by adopting a special offshore allowable yardstick giving offshore wells bonus production allowables.

New Texas schedule, effective Jan. 1, matches the special offshore allowable Louisiana has been granting, at least in general.

This was a double Christmas bonus for companies operating offshore, since the Texas Railroad Commission announced its decision as it increased regular state-wide production for January to 32.6 per cent of capability, a rise of 69,587 barrels in calendar day allowables.

Bonus production allowables will apply not only to state-owned lands beyond that point to the Continental Shelf.

State Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler, who administers the offshore leases owned by the Texas Permanent School Fund, called the announcement "a Christmas gift for the Texas schools."

Hospital Programs — State Board of Health has allocated, tentatively, to various health facilities in Texas, more than $16,600,000 in federal Hill-Burton hospital construction, modernization and equipment grants.

Final allotment is subject to federal agency approval. Projects and amounts include:

El Paso Public Health Center, $766,500; Wilbarger County Hospital District, Vernon, $1,000,000; Fayette Memorial Hospital, LaGrange, $450,000; Mason Memorial Hospital, $37,200; Hi-Plains Hospital, Hale Center, $175,000;

Texas 20 — More than 30 million people are expected to live in Texas by 2020 and about 2-3 of them will be living in 15 of the more urbanized counties.

According to a Texas Water Development Board report, seven of the 15 will have a population exceeding a million. Eight counties will have populations ranging from 400,000 to 1,000,000.

This study, directly related to the State Water Plan, is due public presentation in the late spring of 1966. It will be the basis for water requirement projections to 2020.

Counties in the "over-a-million" category will include Harris, Dallas, Tarrant, Bexar, Travis, Neuces and El Paso in that order.

Dominant other counties will be Jefferson, McLennan, Galveston, Brazoria, Smith, Lubbock, Hidalgo and Gregg.

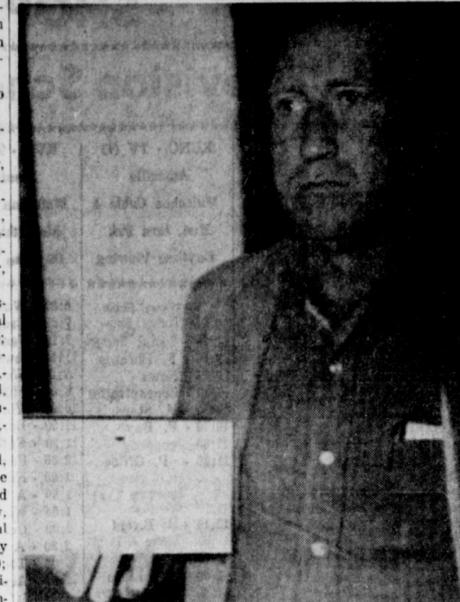

These 15 counties are expected to comprise 2-3 of the population. In 1960, the 15 contained half of the total state population.

State Water Plan will project water requirements for the expected population growth in each river and coastal basin.

Sleeper Act Introduced — New discoveries in science and technology valuable to business, industrial and commercial interests will be made available to the state through a federal program. This new act could serve as a boon to the state's economy.

Gov. John Connally named the Coordinating Board of Higher Education as the state agency and appointed Joe W. Tyson Jr. as state director.

Tyson said his office will work actively to make potential users aware of the wealth of data available. Agency will not keep such data itself, but will direct seeker to the places where data may be found.

35-Year Olds — Texas draft boards soon may take married men up to 35 years old who have no children in order to fill armed forces quotas. This will be done for the first time since World War II.

Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state selective service director, made the announcement to Texas college and university registrars. He urged the education officials to let Selective Service know as soon as draft-age young men drop out of school or lighten their work load — as "the nation can provide useful occupations for the perennial students who show no progress."

Actually, raising the age bracket from 26 to 35 would produce many more eligible men, according to Schwartz's calculations. He estimated there are less than 3,000 in the outside age range due to the number who qualify for deferments because of dependent children or other reasons.

Selective Service, Schwartz emphasized, wants to leave "serious, dedicated students in school" to complete their work, and feels reporting drop-outs or those whose study load drops below fulltime will help make this possible.

Mammoth Job Tackled — State and Federal livestock inspectors are going to inspect all the sheep in Texas, estimated at 6,000,000 head. This to remove the double-dipping requirements placed by other states on the sheep from Texas.

Dipping rules were imposed when two outbreaks of sheep scab were discovered in Texas earlier in the years. Dr. S. B. Waiker, executive director of the Texas Animal Health Commission, said the two agencies should complete the mammoth task by April 1.

Short Snorts — House Speaker Ben Barnes has appointed Reps. John R. Harrison of Pasadena, J. E. Johnson of Houston, Chet Brooks of Pasadena, Lee Duggan Jr. of Houston and J. Charles Whitfield of Houston to study the possibility of putting more bridges or tunnels across the channel . . . Texas State Library has $1,438,499 in federal funds with which to pay 50 per cent of the cost of building, remodeling or repairing community libraries in the state, and 33 cities have applied for aid. . . Highway Commission set in motion planning and construction of last 10-block section of U. S. Interstate Highway 35 in Laredo — Major expansion of highway routes in Del Rio and vicinity also were ordered. . . Department of Agriculture is making emergency loans to eligible farmers in Harris, Mitchell, Pecos and Rockwall Counties due to weather losses and insect infestation.

No Spurs in Planes — WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — A framed plaque in the office of an aircraft company executive sets forth these rules published by the old Army Air Force about 1920:

1 — Don't take the machine into the air unless you are satisfied it will fly.

2 — Riding on the steps, wings or tail of the machine is prohibited.

3 — Aviators will not wear spurs while flying.

Appliance Costs Drop, But More 'Gadgets' Sought

COLLEGE STATION — The cost of major household appliances has been decreasing since 1960. But since many consumers are demanding new features, we are now paying more per appliance, says Mrs. Elsie P. Short, Extension home management specialist at Texas A&M University.

There are more consumers buying appliances now than ever before. A larger proportion of the population consists of young people who marry and begin their life as a separate family unit.

Increased wages and the reduction of excise taxes have added additional spending money to the family income. The influence of goals and expectations in daily living is another important factor for the increase in consumption of major appliances.

Older families sometimes replace outmoded equipment long before that equipment is worn out. During 1964, 50 to 65 percent of refrigerator, range, washer and black and white television sales were for replacement purposes.

As young people establish homes of their own, they include many kinds of convenience equipment that once were thought of as luxuries or were not even in existence a few years ago.

It is not surprising that the production and sales departments are optimistic, says Mrs. Short. A recent survey of engaged university girls in Maryland listed products they expected to have in their first home. The results show the following percentages, based on the proportion of the total group surveyed:

Kitchen range, 92 percent; clock radio, 80 percent; refrigerator, 78 percent; television set, 71 percent; clothes washer, 62 percent; clothes dryer, 45 percent; room air conditioner, 42 percent; freezer, 28 percent; dishwasher, 26 percent.

LOUISVILLE (AP) — During the annual collection for underprivileged children, the Buschel Fire Department went around from door-to-door in their community.

Part of the department's collection included three uncashed tickets from Churchill Downs race track. One ticket turned out to be a winner and $9.25 went into the fund.

Chris Furneaux of Walden, Colo. visited last week with his mother, Mrs. C. M. Furneaux. Mrs. Furneaux accompanied him to hobbs to visit in the Will Terry home.

Mrs. J. H. Vincent has been confined to a hospital in Littlefield.

Mrs. W. V. Terry has been confined to a hospital in Muleshoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith of Hereford visited this week in the home of their daughter and family, the Glyn Williams. Radney Nichols has been ill and confined to the hospital in Amherst.

Political Announcements
 The following candidates have authorized the Journals to announce their candidacies for the offices indicated, subject to the action of the Democratic Primaries May 7, 1966.
 County Treasurer
EDITH WILT

The Sandhills Philosopher
 sandhills philosopher-sh
 Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm sounds like he has his feathers ruffled.
 Dear editor:
 I'd had this big Sunday newspaper around for a while but hadn't opened it for the theory a man shouldn't put off till tomorrow what he can put off till the day after that, this principle might never have produced color television but it wouldn't have produced the atom bomb either, and during a lull in thing out here — you may wonder how I can tell between a lull and any other time, but I can do it — I opened it up and started reading.
 Over on an inside page there was one of these long articles looking into the future of life on this earth a hundred years from now.
 According to it, there are some 26 million square miles on earth worth using, excusing deserts, polar regions, mountain tops, and possibly Red China, although it wasn't mentioned, and man is going to have to figure out how to handle this usable land. He can't just keep on multiplying and letting cities expand and sprawl helterskelter over the entire area.
 The thing to do, the article said, is to divide the 26 million square miles into three equal parts: "a third for production of food, water and minerals; a third for natural preserves for wildlife and places of unusual beauty; and a third for people."
 The announcement by the angel to the shepherds on the hills of Judea was one of good news. We are always ready to hear good news. For many, good news comes seldom; for a few, it comes often.
 These "good tidings" that were announced were not for a select few, but were "to all people". A proclamation that affected the whole world. This was a birth announcement the world had awaited for 4000 years. The announcement was simply "unto you is born this day... a saviour, which is Christ the Lord."
 The good news was not that a babe had been born, but that a "saviour" had been born. He was the Saviour of mankind. Matthew's Gospel records the words of another angel, "and thou shalt call his name Jesus, for he shall save his people from their sins."
 The word "Jesus" means "saviour", or "deliverer". The title "Christ" is the office given by the Father to the Savior. Yes, a saviour was given to mankind over 1900 years ago.
 Another Christmas season is upon us. Many will ignorantly observe the birth of the "Saviour", the Lord Jesus Christ, not actually knowing Him as their Saviour. As each Christmas season comes and goes, the proclamation is made afresh to all the world, "a saviour has come."
 I wonder today, how many Christmases you have enjoyed? You alone, as an individual, only know the answer. But know this, that for each one observed, there has been a call of God to your heart to accept Christ Jesus as your Saviour. Have you done it; If not, resolve to do it this year, 1965.

THE FAMILY LAWYER
 Of Law and Love
 Alibi
 "Alibi" simply means "elsewhere." In popular usage, it also has come to mean an excuse of any kind. But not in the courtroom. There, an alibi is only one specific kind of an excuse: that the defendant was elsewhere when the crime was committed.
 Thus:
 "I didn't know the gun was loaded" is not an alibi.
 "I couldn't stop the car in time" is not an alibi.
 But "I wasn't there" is an alibi.
 Of course, absence alone is not a defense in every kind of crime. A man might mastermind a bank holdup, yet leave the deed itself to his henchmen. Or a man might commit arson with a delayed-action fuse, allowing him to be sunning himself at the beach when the fire starts.

 Clearly, absence from the scene of the crime, in such circumstances, is not a good defense.
 Nor is an alibi effective if it leaves open a reasonable possibility that the defendant — by hurrying — might still have committed the crime.
 For instance, a man who proved that he picked up his girl friend at 9 p.m. was held not to have established an alibi for a murder committed at 8:45 p.m. The court noted that the girl lived less than 15 minutes' driving time from the scene of the murder.
 But if the crime did require the defendant's actual presence at the scene, and if he can prove he wasn't there, then his alibi is airtight.

 Unfortunately, when it comes to proof, an alibi is the kind of defense that may be easily faked. Many a rascal has come to court with a made-to-order alibi, based on the convenient "recollection" of obliging friends.
 Nevertheless, while the law takes account of the danger of fraud, it also gives full weight to an alibi that is fairly established.
 "Alibi is not only a proper defense," commented one court, "but to an innocent man is always an essential defense, and indeed it may be his only defense."

In a special maneuver at the Palo Duro Canyon, commanded by Cadet Don Watson of Lazbuddie and trained by Regular Army Advisors, Capt. M. L. Trang, Canyon and SFC A. M. Choate, The "Night Hawks", formerly the WTSU Counter Insurgency, now the counter guerrilla training team went over 10 miles of rugged canyon terrain in seven hours in the maneuver.

The escape and evasion training in the exercise of 23 members of the Nighthawks are practiced with training in some of the roughest terrains in the Palo Duro and frequently employs a technique called repelling. The techniques calls for sliding down ropes of great lengths with the aid of "Swiss Seats" made of short lengths of ropes. The men are divided into small groups and are instructed to avoid cities, houses, animals and especially dogs for they give away positions. Escape and evasion trainings are used when troops are surrounded by enemy forces and must get back to friendly force units according to SFC Choate.

Usually the semi-monthly maneuvers consists of "platoon in the attack" on a particular object. Plans for the spring semester include possible co-ordinated exercises of ROTC Units from New Mexico and Texas Tech.
