

Chattel Mortgage is No More, Now it's 'Financing Statement'

The old-fashioned chattel mortgage, that "instrument" that popped up at the courthouse every time Joe Blow bought a new television, automobile, or a set of diamond ear screws -- well, it's old-fashioned.

Not that the chattel mortgage doesn't continue to exist. It does, and very much so, but it has a new name. It's just as binding as the old chattel mortgage, and if the buyer moves the new (but well mortgaged) washing machine across the county line, he's still subject to arrest for removing mortgaged property--if, that is, the seller can prove that Joe Blow removed the mortgage-covered washing machine with the express purpose of defrauding the seller.

But the new name for the chattel mortgage, as of July 1, is "financing statement," and it seems to mean that the schedule for repayment is now on file with the county clerk.

"May make it easier in some respects," opines Hazel Gilbreath, county clerk. "Then again it may make it more difficult. Anyway, it's quite different from the old chattel mortgage system, and the fees are different, too."

Most county clerks, however, have been grumbling into their filing cabinets, claiming the new system will increase the work which took Joe or Lizzie Blow off the hook so far as that particular installment loan was concerned.

Last year, for instance, the office here filed 2621 chattel mortgages, Mrs. Gilbreath reports. And there probably will be that many again this year from all indications. That's from Jan. 1 to Jan. 1.

The fee for filing these mortgages in the past has been 75 cents and filing was a simple, one-entry sort of record. Now the same instruments will be filed as "financing statements," and the original will be held onto by the seller. There is no data on the statement as to the amount owed and other facts which formerly could be found on the chattel instruments.

The fee, if the forms used are those prescribed by law, is $1, but if the form is not in proper one, then the fee doubles. It will cost another buck to get a release, again assuming that the proper form is used. If not, then that's just too bad; the fee for getting the mortgage out of the hot little filing vaults in the courthouse will be $2.

In fact, there is a whole sheet of fees to be charged, all dealing with the matter of chattel mortgages -- er, pardon, we mean "financing statements."

mean "financing statements."

DEDICATED TO THE PROGRESS AND DEVELOPMENT OF BAILEY COUNTY AND THE GREAT MULESHOE COUNTRY

VOL. 44 -- NO. 27 8 PAGES Published Every Thursday At Muleshoe, Bailey County, Texas -- 79347 THURSDAY, JULY 7, 1966

We're Due To Grow!

West Texas--including Muleshoe--will grow during the next 20 to 50 years, but Muleshoe won't make a big city.

These are the predictions of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research experts. In fact, it will be 2020 before Muleshoe reaches a town of 8000, and it'll have 5800 by 1990. Of course, the figures are based on the 1960 census which show that Muleshoe had only 3871 persons living here. Two years ago the count had climbed to just under the 5000 mark.

Another factor which the Austin bureau fails to take into consideration is water; in fact, the bureau assumes that there will be adequate water available throughout West Texas and blithely ignores any possibility of a water shortage anywhere in the region. The figures, however, do take into consideration the predictions of the Texas Water Development Board, which shows greatest water possibilities in Central and coastal Texas. Which may account for why the greatest growth for Texas, the bureau prognosticates, will be center and coastal Texas. The organization looks steadily into its crystal ball and comes up with the prediction that Fort Worth Pallas-Waco-Austin-San Antonio areas and the coast of Texas are due for great water resources and thus great growth. On the other hand, areas like Odessa and Midland are least likely to see heavy growth, although all regions will grow.

The bureau shows a rapid increase for Plainview, climbing from 18,735 in 1960 to 43,200 in 1990 and up to 62,000 by 2020. Dimmitt, which had a population of 2935 in 1960 will grow to 5000 by 1990 and up to 6800 by 2020.

Lubbock is due to expand greatly during the coming years. Its official count was 128,691 in 1960 and the bureau in Austin became clarivoyant to predict 242,900 by 1990 and 415,400 by 2020. Abilene will jump from 90,368 in 1960 to 153,300 in 1990 and 234,900 in 2020. That town, however, already is claiming 110,000 at present.

Levelland had 10,153 in 1960 will climb to 19,600 in 1990 and to 26,000 by 2020. The bureau says Slaton, which had 6568 in 1960 will have 14,500 by 1990 and 21,100 by 2020. Sweetwater had 13,914 in 1960 and will grow to 23,300 by 1990 and to 28,500 by 2020.

A whopping boom is predicted for Waco which had 90,808 in 1960. By 1990 that town will have climbed to 247,700 and to 496,000 by 2020. The small town of Graham which tallied 8505 in 1960, also is due for a substantial growth--to 15,300

 Top Talent ***

These three won the first-prize money for their singing at the annual 4th. of July talent contest here Monday night. At top, Benny McCain proudly displays his $75 check, his folk song winning the top honor in the juvenile division. Sherri Smith and John Black who sang as "The Sundowners," copped first in the adult division. Additional pictures inside. (Journal Photo.)

 First Instrument Filed ***

The very first instrument filed under the new chattel mortgage setup was brought to the courthouse by Ronda Spies, secretary of Plainview Production Credit Association here. The mortgage, now called "financing statement" was accepted by County Clerk, Hazel Gilbreath. (Journal Photo)

Pioneers Pick New Officers

Bailey County Pioneer Association elected Mrs. Major Wood as president at their annual meeting Monday in Fellowship Hall of First Methodist Church. Other officials elected were: Howard Carlyle, vice president, and Mrs. Pat Bobo, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Bobo registered the 52 guests and members who were in attendance.

There were 7 persons in attendance at the celebration this year who were present at the first July 4th celebration in Bailey County held on the old Hurley store porch with 117 present in 1908. These were: Miss Dottie Wilterding and her niece, Mrs. Mildred Head, Vernice and Frank Snyder and their sister, Mrs. Wood; Mrs. Leota Wilterding and Russell Bearden.

Russell Bearden's sister, Miss Leota, was the first school teacher in the county and Mrs. Wood was the first baby born in Bailey County. Mrs. E. H. Burman was also among the first ones coming to the county, but she arrived a little. See Pioneers, P. 6

July 4th Show Draws Hundreds

 Everybody Took Part ***

Muleshoe marked July 4th with a celebration which has now become legion--a picnic supper, a talent contest and a giant fireworks celebration, all at Benny Douglas Stadium.

And, as in past years, the event was a complete success with hundreds turning out for the big triple-barreled show. The fireworks extravaganza was the biggest ever staged with Earl Ladd, fire chief, and the volunteer firemen in charge of the display. Gil Lamb served as master of ceremonies for the talent contest.

A beard judging contest also was a part of the evening's entertainment when the prettiest, ugliest, and longest beards were picked from an assortment of facial foliage.

Don Gover got the plaque for the longest, Richard Puckett for the prettiest, and Mike Langford, Dimmitt, for the ugliest. And the talent show's top money went to an 11-year-old-boy from Friona who was definitely "where the action was" to win the juvenile division, and a boy-girl song team won the adult division.

Top for the juveniles was Benny McCain, and the boy-girl team who swept the top money in the adult division was composed of Sherri Smith and John Black.

Linda Langford, Dimmitt, who played her own piano accompaniment, won second in the adult division with a folk song, and it was her brother, incidentally, who won one of the beard prizes.

The Millionaires', four rock and roll musicians from Morton, took third prize in the adult division, and Sam and the Gringos finished fourth in the same division. The group includes Bruce Purdy, James Campbell, Cary Purdy, Aurelio (Sam) Cuevas and Charles Ball.

Suzan Aucutt, Belinda Jentzen and Jean Osborne, all from Clovis, finished second in the juvenile division with a dance act, and "The Bovina Sweethearts" got third money in the juvenile division. The two are Margaret Venable and Sharon Pierson.

Then the Day Sisters, also from Friona, captured fourth place money. The sisters are Tena, Myra Sue and Diana Day, a song trio.

Sometimes when cream is served with coffee at a party, there's cream leftover in the refrigerator. You may want to whip it, sweeten it to taste and flavor it with a dash of salt and a little vanilla, and freeze it to have on hand to serve with a dessert. At serving time, offer the cream frozen or let it defrost.

Large capers are particularly delicious. You can usually find them in jars in a supermarket or other food shop that stocks Spanish-type foods.

Broader Usage Of Cotton Sought

Research, service and other activities aimed at improving production and increasing utilization of High Plains cotton are top priority items in a $231,750 budget adopted Thursday by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. for the 1966-67 fiscal year.

The budget, reduced 11 percent from the current figure of $261,500, represents an economy move and belt-tightening on behalf of the PCG.

It was recommended by the finance committee and accepted by the cotton producer's organization's board of directors at a meeting held Thursday night in the Johnson House.

Donald A. Johnson, executive vice president, pointed out that the reduction in budgeted items does not reflect a shortage of funds for the PCG program in 1966-67.

"Rather," he noted, "it is a matter of tightening the belt a little this year to assure that the PCG program can be continued at a high level in the years immediately ahead when it looks like both production and PCG income will be reduced."

Johnson explained that funds for the coming year will be derived from dues paid on the 1965 crop and that these are comparable to dues received in previous years. "But the 1966 crop dues, from which the 1966-67 expenses will have to be paid, are almost certain to be down something like 20 percent due to the reduction in planted acreage this year."

Budget items directly concerned with cotton growing and cotton utilization came in for $70,750, more than 30 percent of the total. They include production research with emphasis on cost reduction and quality improvement, $36,250; utilization research in the form of fiber analysis and spinning test, $13,000; textile consultant service to mills, $7,000; survey and reports on area cotton qualities, $4,000; non-textile market development, $1,000; and advertising of area cotton in national and international trade publications, $9,500.

Johnson said he wanted to make clear that the remainder of the budget is also in the interest of upgrading the conditions under which High Plains cotton is grown and marketed.

He referred to such items as travel, legislative services, normal office expenses, area activities, local and area advertising, direct mail to the PCG membership, and the boll weevil control program, all of which are necessary to a well-rounded program of research, service and promotion.

PCG finance committee chairman, M. A. (rip) Elms, Littlefield, said that a great deal of work and study went into making budget reductions in areas and in such a manner as to insure the continued effectiveness of the overall PCG program. "And while it is true that you can only get what you pay for, we feel we have done a good job on the budget and there will be no serious disruption of the organization's work."

Directors also were told that care was exercised in making research budget estimates to support only those projects which could not or would not be carried out without PCG funds.

Financial support was granted the established research institutions for either new or continuing studies of conservation and utilization of rainfall and irrigation water; control of cotton diseases; genetic, cultural and chemical modification of the cotton plant for adaptation to High Plains conditions; soil fertility; development and evaluation of varieties and -- or breeding stocks adapted to the High Plains with emphasis on fiber quality, earliness, disease and insect resistance; a soil moisture survey for the area; planting design and climatic influences on cotton fiber development; chemical control of early season, full season and annual weeds in cotton; and fatty acids as natural inhibitors of fusarial and verticillial wilts in cotton.

Fiber-utilization research includes fiber and spinning tests on area cotton to keep growers informed as to which High Plains cottons are more likely to prove marketable and to advise mills of the spinning performance of available cottons.

Textile mill funds are to be used in continuing the current program of giving free textile consultant service to textile mills.

Tower Praises Vietnam Heroes

This is, of course, my first report to Texans during July, and I believe this is a good time for all of us to recall that these are weeks when Americans traditionally reaffirm their patriotism and do honor to the patriots of the past.
 Earlier we observed Memorial Day and Flag Day. And last Monday was Independence Day. We Texans joined all Americans on those three important days in flying our U. S. flags, recalling the sacrifices of our veterans, supporting our current fighting men, and rededicating ourselves to the pursuit of national strength and liberty.

Those special days vividly call to our minds the full dimension of the burden and the glory of America's continuing quest to make our world safe for all nations which aspire to self-determination.
 But, if we review only the past, we miss the significance of those days. We must, on those days, measure our present individual and national performance against the highest standards of Americanism.

The American fighting man who died at Lexington in 1775 and the American who dies defending American interests in Vietnam this week gave their lives for the same ideal of freedom.

Each of these servicemen loved life; but each loved his country more.

Now, as so often in the past, we are depending upon men who deeply believe in the necessity of upholding our national integrity and honor. It is the lot of these few to sacrifice all for us.

Our servicemen over the years have not shrunk from this sacrifice. But, those patriots we honored on Memorial Day never lived to know whether their devotion was justified. It is up to you and to me to see that their valor is indeed justified.

And what manner of men are these who serve us today in the tradition of past American heroes? The Dallas Morning News recently pointed out a few of the incredible deeds of valor being performed in Vietnam.

--The pilot who sees his wingman shot down... and lands his own plane right on the battlefield to pick up his friend and take off in a hail of fire.

--The company commander who saves his men from being completely overrun and annihilated by calling in artillery and air strikes on his own position.

--Men with just-completed combat tours who pick up their weapons and return to battle when their buddies need their help.

--Eighteen marines who hold a hill for five hours until they have only twelve rounds of ammunition left as help arrives.

These are the sort of men who fight for freedom today in American uniforms. They are not supermen. But they know freedom's enemies must sometimes be routed by force.
 These men do what their

Rogers Subcommittee Approves Colorado Project West Texas Area Included

WASHINGTON--Congressman Walter Rogers announced today the House Subcommittee on Irrigation and Reclamation, of which he is chairman, today voted approval of the Lower Colorado River Basin Project Act.

Included in the bill as recommended by the Subcommittee is an amendment to include West Texas -- that portion west of the 98th Meridian -- in any water resource planning activity affecting Lower Colorado River Basin States.

Congressman Rogers, from the outset of deliberations on the bill, had fought vigorously to see that West Texas was included in the provisions.

"This means that the Texas Panhandle and High Plains area will be considered as planning is undertaken by the Act to make further distribution of western and southwestern water resources," Congressman Rogers said.

The 98th Meridian covers the area west of a line approximately the eastern boundary of Clay County, the county east of Wichita County. The county seat of Wichita County is Wichita Falls.

"The entire 30-county 18th Congressional District area is covered by the planning provisions," Congressman Rogers said.

The action of the Subcommittee, by a vote of 13 to 5, forwarded the bill to the full House Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs. The full Committee, on which Congressman Rogers serves as second ranking majority member, is expected to begin deliberations shortly, Congressman Rogers said.

inflationary pressures.

In addition, the special Military Medical Care Subcommittee, on which I am privileged to serve, will soon approve added health care benefits for our servicemen, their dependents and retired military personnel.

Present, limited medical care programs for our military personnel--and particularly for dependents and retirees--have slipped behind the times. There is a vital need to update and improve such benefits.

These men and women and their families who have served or still serve our nation so well in time of conflict are entitled to the fullest possible consideration and support.

We would do well to remind ourselves that America was not always free, and that so long as mankind is imperfect there will be threats to our freedom requiring of us both strength and courage.

PRIVY COUNCIL

PERRY, Kan. (AP) - The city of Perry, enforcing a sanitation ordinance, insisted that one of its oldtimers discard his outdoor plumbing and adopt inside conveniences.

"I've been using an outhouse for over 70 years," he replied,
 "and I'm too old to change now."

The city conceded, and he connected his outdoor facility to the sewer instead.

New, Non-Surgical Face Lift Discovery Smooths Skin Fast

It's called 2nd Debut and it contains a German scientist's discovery called CEF 600 (CEF-1200 for the face over 40). This face-lift process is simple: It's based upon resupplying to the skin the natural ingredient through which the inner cells obtain and retain water-moisture.
 This ingredient is known to scientists as CEF, which means Cellular Expansion Factor. When spread over the skin's surface, CEF penetrates deeply into the outer skin layer to the cells below. As it penetrates, CEF carries with it molecules of pure water. It is then that the "lift" begins. It is then that facial lines on the surface start to plump up from beneath... to smooth out and become less visible on the surface. Get 2nd Debut regular or double potency at your drug or department store today.

'Precision' Pays In Cotton Growth Tests Reveal

Cotton planted at Texas A&M University with a precision planter on flat, pre-shaped beds is over a foot high now. Adjacent cotton, planted on regular beds with a conventional planter is only about 6 to 8 inches high.

According to Lambert Wilkes, agricultural engineer at A&M, the test is part of a project to determine how much better precision planting is than conventional planting.

Wilkes designed the bed shaper and precision planter. The planter has a furrow opener that slices into the soil and leaves a neat, clean seed trench. He says the bed shaper and planter last year boosted yields some 13 per cent.

This year, cotton planted by the conventional method 14 days to reach a complete stand. That planted on the flat beds had a complete stand in only 6 days.

Now, says Wilkes, there are three plants per row-foot in the precision planted cotton compared to one plant per row-foot in the conventionally planted cotton.

Wilkes says the flat beds catch more sun and have a higher temperature--accounting for the faster germination and stand. He says with the precision planter there is a minimum soil disturbance, resulting in a good soil-to-seed relationship.

This means healthier plants--less susceptible to seedling disease and other rigors. Also, the flat beds and precision planting conserve moisture.

Gunstream to go To WTCC Meeting In Abernathy

M. D. Gunstream, W.T.C.C. Director from Muleshoe, will attend an Action Forum for Directors of District II of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce on Thursday, July 7, 2:30 p.m. in the Graham Cafe Dining Room, Abernathy.

Gunstream is one of 36 business and community leaders who will evaluate plans for the development of the Growth Potential of West Texas. These plans were developed by experts in many fields during a recent sessions which covered Agriculture, Ranching, Water Resources, Tourist and Industrial Development, Education, Petroleum and Chemicals and Public Affairs.

Gerald Sanders of Littlefield, District Vice-President, will preside.

West Texas Chamber of Commerce President John Ben Sheppard of Odessa will outline West Texas Growth Potentials.

A discussion of methods to attain these goals through local community action and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will be led by Dr. Joe T. Nelson of Weatherford, Vice-President of the organization.

'Good' Hunting For Doves Seen By Parks' Chief

Excellent prospects for both mourning dove and white-winged dove hunting this fall were reported by E. A. Walker, director for Wildlife Services of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Field surveys from the Rio Grande Valley indicate one of the highest white-wing breeding populations in the last eleven years with more than 800,000 nesting birds.

The mourning dove count was described as equally favorably with the Texas population up eight per cent and that of the Central Flyaway up nine per cent over last year.

And 1965 was generally good for Texas mourning dove hunters.

A factor in the promising reports from the Valley, said Walker, has been the rapid recovery of citrus groves damaged by a 1962 freeze.

He said the breeding population in that area has increased one-third over last year and nesting success should be assured as the nesting facilities in the citrus trees have substantially improved.

Walker said citrus acreage utilized by nesting white wings increased from 10,500 in 1965 to 18,700 in 1966.

Ordinarily the white wing season is held in early September. Likewise, the north zone for mourning dove hunting usually opens September 1.

And wink a reputation down." In one case, a man charged that his character had been besmirched--wordlessly--by two clumsy detectives. It seems they had followed him constantly for several days and nights, making no effort to hide what they were doing.

The detectives denied that this amounted to defamation. But the court agreed with the plaintiff, because the detectives had shadowed him so openly. The judge said their actions, proclaiming to one and all that this man needed watching, spoke more insultingly than words.

LEGAL NOTICE

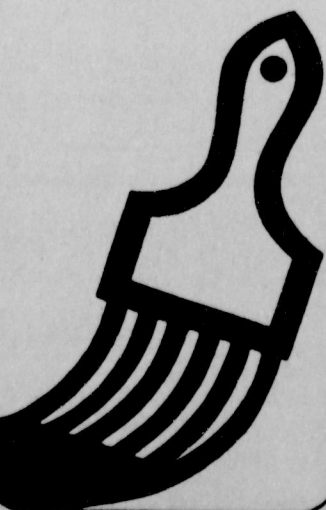

The Commissioners Court of Garza County, Texas, will receive sealed bids to lease 227 acres of Garza County School Land situated in League 172, Bailey County, Texas, up to 9:00 a.m. on Friday, July 15, 1966. This lease is to run for a period of five years from December 31, 1971, to be leased for agricultural purposes only. The Court reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Louder Than Words

Suppose you walk into a coffee shop, point to the doughnut tray, and hold up two fingers. And suppose, after being served, you decide that you aren't hungry after all--and refuse the doughnuts. Could the proprietor make you pay anyhow?

Theoretically, he could indeed. Even though you haven't uttered a word, you have entered into a binding legal contract.

As a rule, contracts are created by oral or written language. But the law recognizes that actions may speak louder than words. If the situation is right, just a nod of the head may mean anything from "I do" to "I bid $100 for that oriental rug."

You can not only enter into a contract but even commit an assault, merely by gesture. The law will weigh the surrounding circumstances to decide how much menace the gesture conveyed.

For example: It was held not an assault for a man to shake an angry finger at his hostess, since she was safely seated eight feet away. And it was held not an assault for a motorist to make a leering grimace at a pretty girl, walking at a considerable distance from his car.

But it was held an assault for a landlord to brandish a stick ominously over the head of his tenant. And it was held an assault for a man, known to be trigger-happy, to reach suddenly for his hip pocket.

Can defamation of character, too, be committed by acts instead of by words? It is possible, wrote Jonathan Swift, to "Convey a libel in a frown."

By the end of the summer, new air-conditioned sightseeing buses, each seating 45 persons, will be operating on the highways of Jordan. The plan is for guides to go along, who speak English, German, French, Italian and Spanish. The buses will operate to Petra, Jerash, Aqaba, Bethlehem, Jericho, Samaria and Mt. Nebo.
