

Minor Details Still Slowing 84 Widening

By J. P. H.

U. S. 84-70 (better known in circles around Muleshoe as "Killer 84") should come off the drawing boards and into reality soon - right after Jan. 1, if all continues well.

This became obvious this week after a check of possible sources, by two Journal staffers had been checked out Tuesday.

The Journal had inquired of Highway Commissioner Hal Woodward, Coleman. He answered (in part) "... this has been a section of highway that we have long wanted to build, and I appreciated the fact that the editorial pinpointed the trouble with getting local government to secure the needed right-of-way. However, this has practically been accomplished, and I know everyone will be proud of the new facility when it is completed.

"There will be no problem about getting this approved by the Bureau of Public roads, as this is a routine project, and I expect that this has already been done. We are only waiting removal of utilities, getting a little more right-of-way, and then advertising for bids which should be good news to everyone."

The steps mentioned by Woodward are nearly complete. See ROAD 84, P. 3, Sec. B

Monthly Saturday Night Shows to Resume

Top Acts Are Booked For Saturday Jamboree

Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce will resume its Saturday night, once-a-month "Family Jamboree" programs this Saturday night, Olyn Burrows, general chairman of the event, announced at mid-week.

He said Buddy Peeler, program chairman, and others on the Jamboree committee, had lined up a "fine variety of talent" for this first show of its kind this autumn. The events were held last year and were highly successful. However, the shows were suspended during the summer months.

Jay Spain is publicity chairman.

Some of those who are due to appear on the program include "The Brass Ringers", a combo composed of Hal Anderson, Tom Jones, Pat Malone, Don Huff, Lindell Wilson and Delton Bass. This group of young musicians is appearing on today's district Parent - Teacher convention here.

Then Jane Branscum will sing a medley of show tunes, and a girls' trio from Sudan will have a spot on the program.

A special feature of the Saturday night program will include high school twirlers Val Moore and Diane Bryant.

Another feature will include an instrumental combo led by Tommy Gunstream, the Muleskinner.

Others included on the Saturday night Jamboree will be the Home Town Singers, featuring Bobby and Orvdie Burris, Jack and Jean Kemp and Wanda Kemp, a gospel singing group who will sing 4 songs.

These are merely some of the acts booked for the family show Saturday; a number of other entertainers will be presented also.

Irvin St. Clair will serve as master of ceremonies.

As a further attraction, $100 to $200 worth of gifts will be presented as door prizes.

Admission fees are $1 for adults and 50 cents for students, and may be procured at the door.

Plans are to continue the Jamborees throughout the winter months.

The events were held last year on a trial basis, but soon proved so popular that they were scheduled on a regular basis.

Loose Wheel, Loose Cow Plague Patrol

Highway Patrolmen get called out for the darndest reasons. Ask Fred Jack, highway patrolman here who has the job all by himself and has had ever since veteran James Freeman was transferred to Amarillo. Fred has been carrying the load single-handed.

Last week he had two crashes to investigate, and both resulted in personal injury.

But his job also had its lighter sides: He was called out 1. When a driver hit a cow that didn't seem to give a darn about where she was walking (the cow that is), and

2. To investigate a wheel roll-off that occurred when a truck shed one of its wheels and sent it spinning down the road. The wheel banged into the side of a moving automobile and resulted in a considerable dent.

No tickets were given by Jack in either of the two latter cases. "Just figured both were unavoidable," the patrolman chuckled.

It was a quiet weekend for the City, too. They got a drunk and a DWI, and the county sheriff's officer had three youths in jail after they had allegedly stolen an automobile in Muleshoe. They were arrested in Hereford a short time later and were returned to the Muleshoe jail.

John Q. Public Likes Western Items Made Here, Factory Spins

Western Lamps are going great guns in the west, which is all very much to the liking of Westerner J. W. Ragland, and because Ragland likes the response to western lamps, Muleshoe, too, is happy.

Because Ragland and his crew make these lamps (and a number of other western items) right here in Muleshoe in a sprawling sheetiron building at the city's eastern edge where once spuds were sorted and sacked.

Now many "view - type" lamps are being neatly boxed and sent on their merry ways by parcel post, freight or air express every day. Ten persons are at work in Ragland's factory turning out the unique western items, and throughout a number of states, salesmen are offering the items to retail firms which, in turn, are finding that John Q. Public likes the Muleshoe-made novelties. Repeat business is good.

"Seems the western states are our biggest outlet for our western products," Ragland mused, and then quickly added: "but then our patterns are western, so it's only natural that western folk should admire our products."

The correct name of the factory is "Foto-Vues, Inc." and the entire process is manufactured right here in Muleshoe except for the brass lamp sockets. But all the intricate wood-

Industry Leaders Here To Attend Conference

Muleshoe, highly industry-conscious these days, will send a big delegation to San Angelo tomorrow to attend the 13th annual industrial development conference. Leading the delegation will be Harmon Elliott, president of the Muleshoe Area Industrial Foundation, (MAIF), the organization which is working tooth and toenail to bring industry to Muleshoe. And in the meantime, the members and officers of MAIF are digesting facts given them in rapid-fire manner Wednesday at a luncheon by James L. Bradley, head of the Economic Research Development division of Texas A&M University who was in Muleshoe all day yesterday for a series of conferences with the MAIF leaders.

Bradley made a number of recommendations, and those will be put into action as soon as possible, Elliott said. The organization here had ready for Bradley, copies of the Community Profile, a one-sheet summary which has been on the MAIF drawing board for several weeks. The organization took the wraps off the profile only this past week.

Meanime, Elliott said, copies of the profile will be available at chamber headquarters for any individual who may wish to mail to interested industry prospects.

Copies of "Community Profile" have been mailed to all members of MAIF and will be sent to every firm interested in a thumbnail sketch of Muleshoe's industrial prospects, showing what it has to offer the factory looking for a site.

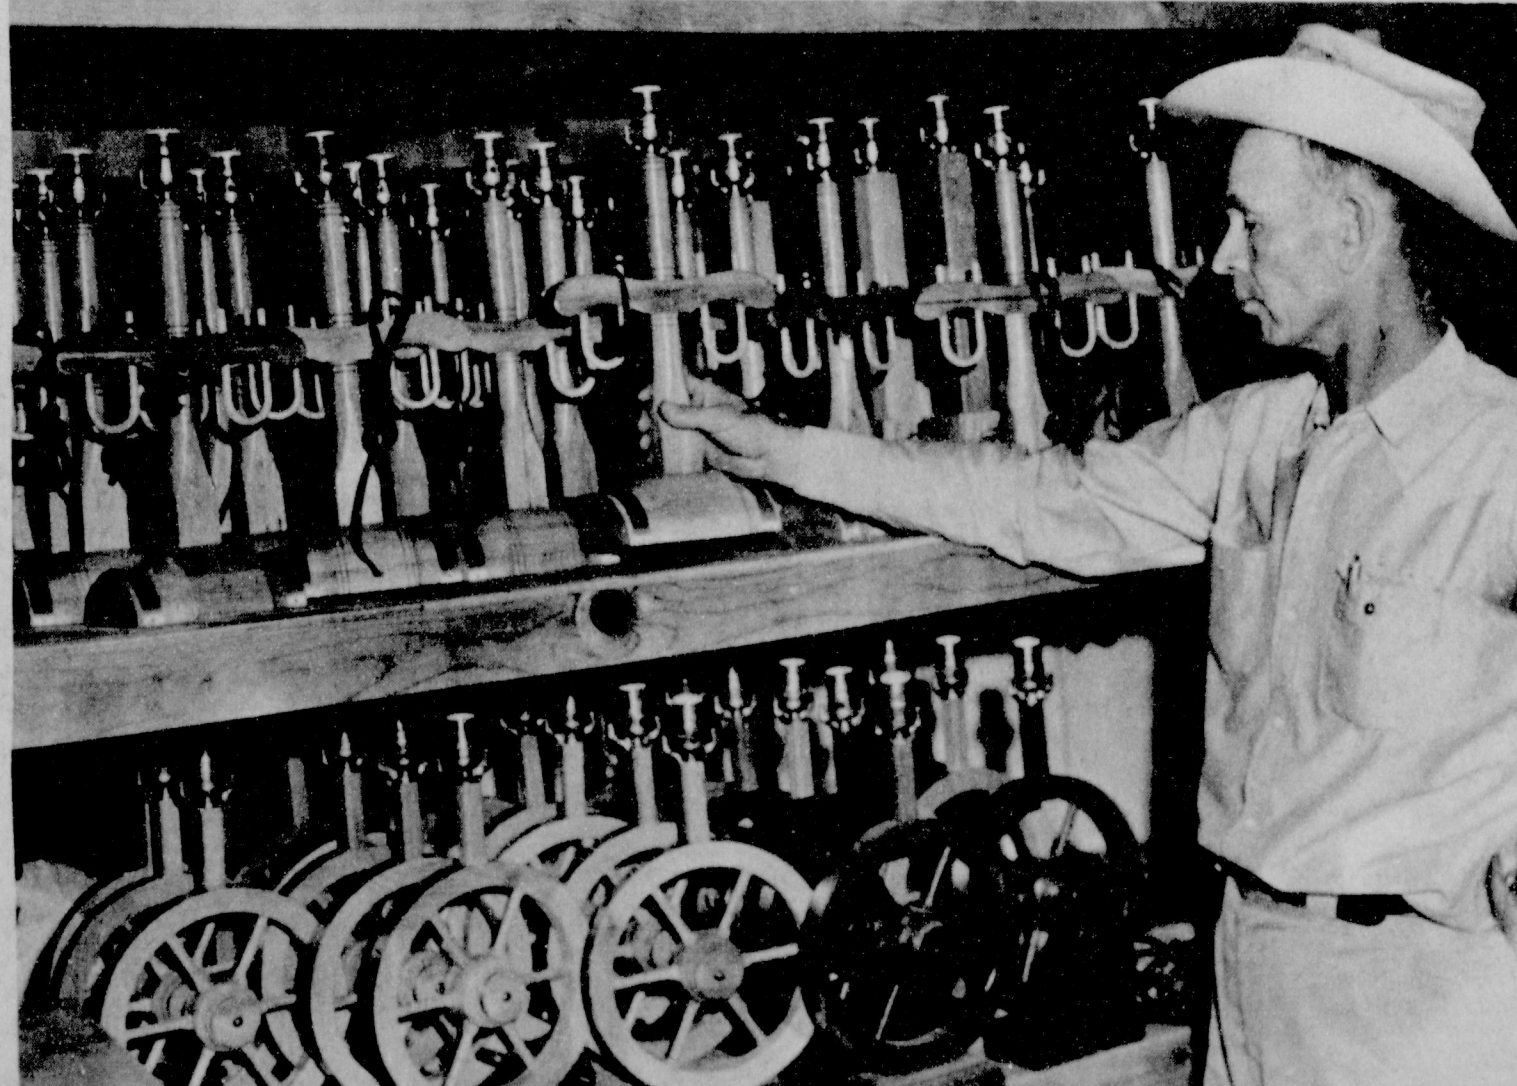

Elliott also said that the sites and buildings committee of MAIF is completing filling out new forms asked by the Santa Fe railroad. These forms will be filled out and returned to Santa Fe for use in its efforts to lure factories to Muleshoe. Ralph Douglass, Muleshoe Independent engineer, has been

Study Club Makes Court House Tour

The DeAlgodon Study Club members were shown through the county jail last Wednesday at the Bailey County Court House, Judge Glen Williams conducted the tour. He had prepared a paper on the requirements by law for a county jail. They were discussed following the tour.

Judge Williams talked to the presented with "Barrea Land."

The watercolors will remain at the Center through Oct. 23.

The complete exhibition will be hung at Lubbock Methodist Hospital during November and December, under auspices of the Hospital Auxiliary.

club about juvenile delinquents, in his discussion he told the ages of delinquent boys and girls, the procedures the county judge used to find these children homes in Girlstown, Boys Ranch and Children's Homes, etc. He discussed the broken homes, financial status, delinquent parents and other things that were the causes of these boys and girls being brought to him to be placed in foster homes. Judge Williams then closed with the statistics of how Bailey County had a few more cases of delinquents than neighboring counties due to the fact that we had more year round work, therefore bringing more transient people to Bailey county. He stated he had as many as 60 cases per year and as few as 12 cases for one year's time. Judge Williams stressed three things in helping to combat delinquents in our own families; know how your child does in school, who his friends are; teach him to respect the law, teachers, parents, people in general; and to always know where your teen-ager is during the day as especially at night.

A short business session was held. A report was given on the Animal Clinic held at the Three Way school, Sept. 22 with Dr. Jerry Gleason participating in the Clinic. A rummage sale will be held in the early part of November. The next meeting will be Oct. 15 at Morton for the Federation Workshop. Five members and one guest were present for the meeting with Judge Williams. Attending were Mrs. Carter Williams, Mrs. Wayland Altman, Mrs. Mickey Sowder, Mrs. Frank Stegall, Mrs. Ruel Kirby and Magann Lamb.

Connally's Aim: Re-Writing Laws

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN--Shape of Gov. John Connally's major legislative goals is beginning to emerge. He gives high priority to his proposal for a constitutional convention to rewrite the state's basic laws.

Modernization of local governments is essential to state progress and effective management of local affairs. "Functional government by federal guidelines" is the likely alternative to a "renaissance of local responsibility," Connally warned.

Governor outlined a tough, seven-point traffic safety program including driver education for all youngsters, severe penalties for violation of driving laws and a minimum licensing age of 16.

"Without question," he acknowledged, "the 60th Legislature is looking at a raise in our state taxes, but it is impossible to tell exactly how large or how small."

He also ticked off these subjects from his lists of legislative "essentials":

Revision of the penal code and code of criminal procedure additional sources of revenue for growing cities; substantial salary raises for state employees; continuation of progress in education, tourist and industrial development, community services for the mentally ill and park system development and improvement.

In discussing streamlining of local government with county officials, the governor declared:

"We cannot progress on a preconceived notion that modernization is politically impossible."

SCHOOL STRETCHOUT URGED--Texas children ought to start to school younger and stay in school longer. So concluded the State Board of Education in its 16-point legislative program.

Board proposes schooling for five-year-olds, state supported school for all grades, a study of feasibility of a 10-month school year and seven-hour day, and higher salaries for teachers.

COURT SPEAKS----Texas Court of Criminal Appeals has ordered a new trial for Jack Ruby, who faced a death sentence for the murder of Lee Harvey Oswald, the man the Warren Commission said assassinated President John F. Kennedy on November 22, 1963.

Court said Ruby must be tried elsewhere than Dallas, scene of the crime, and concluded that testimony of a police week. Federal, state and private resources are being used to battle the worm.

MOTION FILED--Attorneys General for Texas and New Mexico have filed a motion with the U.S. Supreme Court for permission to file a complaint against Colorado for insufficient releases of Rio Grande water.

Motion was filed by Attorneys General Carr of Texas and Boston Witt of New Mexico for alleged violations of Rio Grande compact providing for releases of water to the two states to the South. Proposed complaint says Colorado has withheld 939,900-acre-feet of water, as of December 31, 1965.

Attorney General asked the Supreme Court to require Colorado to deliver the agreed upon amounts of water at the Colorado-New Mexico state line, and to eliminate Colorado's accrued debt under the Compact.

SHORT SNORTS

Texas Railroad Commission has scheduled a hearing for December 6 so oil and gas operators can show why a state-wide ban to open salt-water disposal pits shouldn't be ordered.

Parks and Wildlife Commission has granted two extra weeks for quail hunting in Aransas, Bee, Cameron, Dimmit, Frio, Hidalgo, Jim Wells, Live Oak, Starr, Webb, Willacy and Zavala Counties.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White announced that the lower Rio Grande Valley has been free of Mediterranean fruit fly infestation for 60 days with Texas Education Agency to initiate and supervise "half-way" houses to help restore mental retardates to society.

Carr also held that children with only a language skill deficiency do not legally qualify as "exceptional children" so no special classroom may be set up for them.

AG OPINIONS--Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has held that a county may provide ambulance service for its citizens under the authority given counties to spend public money on public health services.

In another opinion, Carr said that the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation may join forces contractually with Texas Education Agency to initiate and supervise "half-way" houses to help restore mental retardates to society.

Carr also held that children with only a language skill deficiency do not legally qualify as "exceptional children" so no special classroom may be set up for them.

EPIDEMIC CONTAINED--Texas' screwworm epidemic still is present in the Southwestern and South Central part of the state. However, Dr. S.B. Walker, director of the Texas Animal Health Commission, says the end may be in sight.

Texas' worst infestation since the screwworm eradication program began reached it height two weeks ago. Number of cases leveled off last State Bar of Texas has received a $5,000 grant from Houston Endowment, Inc. to help it revise the Texas penal code for submission to the 61st Legislature on 1969.

H. Kenneth Jackson, formerly director of the Field Services Division of the Texas State Library, has been named assistant state librarian under Dr. Dorman J. Winfrey, who also announced that Mrs. Marie Schultz will move up to Jackson's old post.

X-rays to Cost Those Who are Able to Pay Fees

The higher cost of living has hit home for the West Texas Tuberculosis Association, which operates the widely-used mobile x-ray unit. Dr. John H. Selby, president of the WTAA, has announced that the Executive committee of the Association's Board of Directors met in Lubbock and voted to urge those receiving x-rays at the unit to make voluntary contributions to help defray rising costs as well as upkeep and depreciation. The actual cost of each x-ray, he said, amounts to about one dollar. The unit has been operating at a loss for several months, and the Committee decided to urge voluntary contributions in order to continue the service -- still to be given free to any who need it and cannot contribute to the cost. The Committee, meeting at the WTAA offices at 916 Avenue H., also considered the problem of late requests from public schools for tuberculin skin testing supplies. The committee agreed that requests will be accepted any time during the school year. They will be filled 60 days after receipt. The WTAA now has all supplies booked up to the Thanksgiving holiday period and can fill no orders until after November 28. The Board of Directors meeting for the Association was set for November 5 in Lubbock.

Youths Invited To Attend Open DeMolay Session
Formation of a DeMolay chapter here will be discussed at a boys-and-parents meeting in DeShazo cafeteria tomorrow night, Harold White, police chief, has announced. The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m. and will be open to all boys 14 through 20 of good character. Parents are asked to accompany the youths. White said that the DeMolay program can offer a boy many activities. DeMolay not only offers a boy fun and an outlet for his interests, but it also provides something deeper that affects his inner self — something that is hard to describe. But it is something that once grasped will remain with a boy for the rest of his life; and by possessing it, he will be a better man, citizen, and leader in the future. White further said that it is a worldwide brotherhood of which nearly three million young men have become members. Wyoming football captains this season are Rick Eloff, senior quarterback from Denver, and Tom Frazier, senior defensive end from Fort Huron, Mich. Coach Lloyd Eaton is in his fifth season as Wyoming football coach.

Newspaperboy Day-Oct. 15th

We join the leaders of the nation today - those leaders of industry, education, religion, and the arts;

We congratulate the Journals six carriers - our newspaperboys - and all of our past newspaperboys - on this National Newspaperboy Day;

We commend to our community and all of our readers everywhere, our own newspaperboys.

Let us give our boys a special thanks, particularly as their home delivery routes with both of your hometown Thursday and Sunday, Muleshoe and Bailey County Journals, bring them "right to your front door" - and -- with the Journals really "hot off the press".

Since so many boys are newspaper boys at some stage of their lives, it is not surprising that a great volume of testimony has been accumulated from our national leaders. Let us take a look at some of these comments:

Says Dr. Howard C. Seymour, Superintendent of Schools of Rochester, New York.

"I speak for thousands of ex-newspaperboys throughout the nation who learned much from delivering newspapers that is "not in a book." I am hopeful that such experience will be recognized by schoolmen as worthy of consideration for school credits. I pray that there will always be a place for newspaperboys in our economy!

"Truly, newspaper route experience is education."

Or, read what J. Edgar Hoover, Chief of the FBI, has to say about newspaperboys and law enforcement:

"Spot checks in individual communities, clearly indicated that juvenile delinquency among newspaperboys is almost non-existent. The newspaperboy hasn't time to get into trouble. He finds it fun to hold a job, earn money and learn to meet people. He may not be aware of it, but he is developing individualism and learning to accept responsibility."

Among leading businessmen Marion N. Kershner, Executive Vice-President of the National Management Association writes: "It is no accident that many of our nation's top corporate officers and managers started their careers as newspaperboys. As young people it gave them their first taste of the management problems they would face in their adult years. The process of developing into a good manager is slow, and an early start is a great advantage."

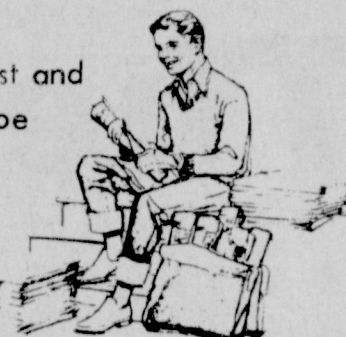

NEWSPAPER ROUTE FILLS YOUTH NEEDS

Community acceptance and indeed promotion of the value of newspaper route is largely because it fills a real need in society.

Fulfilling these needs for youth becomes particularly significant in this age of an urban society where all the homely farm chores available to earlier generations of young men have been wiped out. There are few responsible jobs left open for youth to develop dependability; there are no ashes to sift and even lawn mowing and snow shoveling are now done by machine.

The newspaper route offers a wide range of responsibility from the simple repetitive duties of delivery through collections to the creation of new business through developing public relations and sales skills. Educators observe that even on the lower scales a newspaper route provides a pattern of success to a boy who may be developing a failure complex in formal school book learning; on the upper scales it provides motivations for study in the discovery of the practical applications of knowledge gained through reading and route earnings opens financial possibilities for a fuller life experience and higher education.

Congratulations - to our newspaperboys, past and present, here in Muleshoe and all over our USA.

Dear Editor:

Dear Editor:
As one of your former editors, I still keep up with the good old Journal. The enclosed from Paul Crume, in the Dallas News, may amuse you if you missed it.

All good wishes to all,
As ever,
Peter Chandor
5845 E. University Blvd.
Dallas, Texas 75206

"Many years ago an oldtimer named Jess Mitchell moved into Muleshoe as owner of the Muleshoe Journal. The story goes that he was warned that Muleshoe had no future. It then had 300 or 400 people.

"Muleshoe," he declared, "has an unassailable future as a wide spot in the road."

Muleshoe now, of course, is not only wide on the road; it's thick.

But his point stands. Our hope in realizing the American dream may be utilizing the wide spots in the road."

If A Child...

Rarely is someone's writing found worthy of framing in offices for all to see and think about.

This honored treatment is being given in a number of California schools to some thoughts by Dorothy Law Nolte.

We believe her eloquent message to both parent and educator deserves consideration in Texas, as well.

Here is her message:

"If a child lives with criticism, he learns to condemn..."

"If a child lives with hostility, he learns to fight..."

"If a child lives with fear, he learns to be apprehensive..."

"If a child lives with ridicule, he learns to be shy..."

"If a child lives with jealousy, he learns what envy is..."

"If a child lives with shame, he learns to feel guilty..."

"If a child lives with encouragement, he learns to be confident..."

"If a child lives with tolerance, he learns to be patient..."

"If a child lives with praise, he learns to be appreciative..."

"If a child lives with approval, he learns to like himself..."

"If a child lives with recognition, he learns to have a goal..."

"If a child lives with sharing, he learns about generosity..."

"If a child lives with honesty and fairness, he learns what truth and justice are..."

"If a child lives with security, he learns to have faith in himself and in those about him..."

"If a child lives with friendliness, he learns that the world is a nice place in which to live..."

"If you live with serenity, your child will live with peace of mind."

The truth of these observations, while obvious, are not so easily practiced. They deserve to be placed in a prominent position where they can be read and re-read.

Cotton Estimate Is Cut 150,000 Bales in Texas

The Department of Agriculture today estimated the Texas cotton crop at 3,525,000 bales, down 150,000 bales from the Sept. 1 estimate.

The Oct. 1 estimate was pegged at 3,525,000 bales compared with 3,675,000 bales on Sept. 1. The 1965 crop was 4,665,000 bales, or 1,140,000 bales higher than this year's latest estimate.

New Mexico's cotton crop was estimated at 200,000 bales as of Oct. 1, up slightly from the 197,000 bales predicted on Sept. 1 and compared with 233,000 bales in 1965.

Other states: Oklahoma 260,000 bales on Sept. 1 compared with 290,000 on Sept. 1 and 369,000 total in 1965; Louisiana 440,000 bales Oct. 1 and 435,000 on Sept. 1 and 562,000 last year; Arkansas 1,040,000 bales Oct. 1, unchanged from Sept. 1 and compared with 1,441,000 bales in 1965.

working for MAIF in preparing the metes and bounds of property fronting the Santa Fe. This information will be supplied Santa Fe for further use.

The conference Friday in San Angelo will deal with many factors of industry, but Elliott said the MAIF group from Muleshoe will be "particularly interested in how to form a team to present our town's prospects to a prospect on a moment's notice."

He said this phase of the program will be discussed at length with a team from Denton representing just such a demonstration. Denton has been highly successful in this method, Elliott said.

He said the team system is simple: "When a prospective factory representative comes to town and asks anyone for information about Muleshoe, the team goes into action, immediately, giving the prospect a quick, but thorough, picture of our potentialities. It's very effective, if it's done right. Denton does the job right, and we want to learn how it's done." Those going to the San Angelo, session, in addition to Elliott, will be W. M. Pool, chairman of the buildings and sites committee; Frank Ellis, labor committee chief, Irvin St. Clair, head of the city and county government division; Jeff Peeler, chairman of the utility committee for MAIF; Robert Hooten, transportation head; Bob Janca, manager of the chamber of commerce; Jim Cox, W. B. Gunstream, Bill Jim St. Clair, all directors; Wilbur LeVeque, a director and also secretary - treasurer; James Glaze, Joe King and Max King.

Factory..

en bases--yokes, wagon wheels, corral fences -- and these patterns and many more -- are carved out right here in Ragland's factory.

Except for the man who does the woodwork, there were no professionals on the staff when Ragland moved his factory to Muleshoe. All other employees have learned their crafts here, and all are doing a fine job too.

Actually Foto Vues, Inc is not new; it had been operated near Weatherford for some 20 years when Ragland bought the business and moved it to Muleshoe, lock stock and barrel (water barrel that is, because some of the lamp designs are just that, water barrels.)

"I liked the idea and I like the unusual translucent shades with the natural-color scenes," Ragland explained, "that's why I became so interested in Foto Vues that I bought the business, photo shades patent and all."

The same process, incidentally, is used in making lighted pictures, the light shining through the colored photos giving a measure of realism not found in the average picture. A display of the different lamps and one of the lighted murals is on display downtown in Cobb's windows.

By training, Ragland is a farmer. In fact, he still operates a farm 12 miles south and three miles east of Muleshoe.

But now that the factory is getting off to a good start (it's actually been in full operation only six weeks) Ragland is finding manufacturing a more and more fascinating business. And he believes he has definitely found items that John Q. Public will like -- and buy -- at a profit to Ragland.

Billy Young Receives Medal

Technical Sergeant Billy M. Young, son of Mrs. Arnie Y. Evans of Rt. 1, Coward, S. C., has been awarded the U. S. Air Force Commendation Medal at Westover AFB, Mass.

Sergeant Young received the medal for meritorious service as a computer operator at Ramey AFB, P. R. He was cited for his outstanding professional skill, knowledge and leadership.

Mrs. Hugh Yeates.

At 1 O'clock lunch will be served in the cafeteria with luncheon music provided by the Brass Ringers - Hal Anderson, Tom Jones, Pat Malone, Don Huff, Lindell Wilson and Delton Bass.

At 1:40, members of the Fine Arts Department will present a skit, "The Curious Savage," under direction of Kerry Moore.

At 2 p.m., a general workshop will be held in the auditorium on mental health. Moderators will be Tom Lloyd, district 14 mental health chairman from Wayland Baptist College, Plainview, and Mrs. Marvin Armstrong, state mental health chairman. Local hostesses will be Mrs. Neal Dillman. A panel of six Plainview High School students will discuss alcoholism.

Local women in charge of organizing include Mrs. Alan Haley and Mrs. Don Harmon, and also the chamber of commerce which did double duty with invitations and public relations work.

ed local representatives of utility offices told the Journal. County Judge Glen Williams said that the county's requirements for right-of-way, etc. have been fulfilled according to county records.

Doc Botkin, Pioneer Natural Gas manager, said "All mains have been ready; just one farm gas line is to be moved this week, weather permitting." Jeff Peeler, manager, and Fred Clements, of Southwestern Public Service, said that all electrical work has been completed for some time.

General Telephone's District Manager, Alan Waldrop, Littlefield, told the Journal that preliminary highway work could go ahead now as all major work of the phone company has been done. "Some facilities are still up as we were delayed by unusual weather (causing repairs rather than construction). All of the new facilities are to be set up at the rear of the high school auditorium.

ties (phone lines) have been buried. Work started Monday cutting customers to the buried service. We hope to have this done and "wreck out" existing aerial lines before the end of the month." None of this work will interfere with preliminary work of highway construction, he said. George Chapman, local representative here, said Tuesday that splicing in to the underground cable was well underway.

Now it's just advertising bids, deciding, with the state and federal approval, and getting Killer 84 stashed away. A new safe, widened highway west of Muleshoe will indeed make everyone proud, as Woodward said.

Paintings, drawings and sculpture of America's foremost cowboy artist, Charles M. Ruessell, are reproduced in a new book published by the University of Texas Press for the Amon Carter Museum of Western Art in Fort Worth. The book has a foreword by Mrs. Ruth Carter Johnson, a UT regent and daughter of the late Fort Worth publisher.

Farm to Feel Pinch Money

The farm will be the next institution to feel the "tight money" pinch, says bankers interviewed at the Federal Land Bank gathering in Los Angeles last week.

The Denver Post-Los Angeles Times quoted Banker W.E. York president of the Federal Land Bank of Berkeley which serves California and four other western states.

"We've been allocating our loans since June, and in September it really got serious," York said in an interview. "We're not able to get as much money as we need from the money markets and we're going to have to turn some people away."

The 12 farm banks around the nation are bidding for the tightest money the United States has known in a milestone year—its 50th anniversary.

Since 1916 the 12 banks have loaned about $12 billion to "farmers or persons who are about to engage in farming" at interest rates generally lower than prevailing rates. The current rate, for example, is frozen at 6 percent, a bargain in these times when the price of money has soared to the highest rates in 40 years.

Now, with money tight, the "about to be farmers" loan category is out, and so are loans for promotional purposes—that is, farmers who want a loan to invest in more land which won't be necessarily be seeded immediately.

Bank managers also aren't going to be taking back many mortgages from farmers who want to sell out, York said.

"This is going to have an effect on sales," he added. "It is going to be tough to sell a farm, because the owner will have to take back the mortgage himself. I think it will cause the sales prices to slide and have a chain effect on other matters too, like taxes."

Also, the banks, "won't have money" for farmers who wish to build new homes on their farms. The banks will continue to lend for repair of homes and for "essential equipment."

Judge Ponders Chamber Case

Zebbie Land, formerly doing business as Zebbie's Bar-B-Q, represented by John W. Warner, sued the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce here last week for $1200, $600 alleged debt and $600 attorney's fees.

Appearing before District Judge Pat Boone, Land, the plaintiff, attempted to prove that an oral contract existed between the Muleshoe C of C and Zebbie's inasmuch as Roy Davis, Chamber manager, stated to him that attendance at the 1965 chamber B-B-Q would be 3000 and that the check of $1457 accepted by him from the Muleshoe C of C was protested by Zebbie Land as an inadequate payment.

The Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce was represented by Pat Bobo and Sam Aldrich, and contended that the deal that was made with Zebbie's was for $1 per plate regardless of attendance and Zebbie accepted the chamber's check of $1457 as complete payment.

Judge Boone did not hand down a ruling but took the case under advisement and is expected to hand down a ruling later this week.
