

Little League Baseball Started Here Tuesday

Rotan Little League Baseball started on its official schedule on Tuesday, with the first game being called at 7:30 at the VFW field in Rotan. When the balance of the suits for the players are received there will be 60 boys suited out in the League, 15 on each team, and approximately 30 boys on the farm team who will have the caps and equipment only.

The franchise for the Rotan Little League was received last week and puts the League in competition with all the many others in the Nation. The boys, age 9 to 12, play regulation hard ball with the exception of base lengths and distance from pitcher's rubber to home plate being shortened and special weight and size equipment to conform with the smaller size of the boys playing.

There will be no charge at the gate for any games and no commercialization of the teams. The sponsors of the teams donate the uniforms but have no votes in the League business or any other control. They merely feel that Little League baseball is worth much to the community, and show their support by donating the uniforms with "no strings attached."

One team, The Rebels, managed by E Patton, assisted by Bill Day, is uniformed and equipped by miscellaneous donations of smaller amounts.

The Vets team, uniformed by the VFW, managed by Erbie Rogers, assisted by Luther Yanez.

The Prune Peddlers, uniformed by D. J. Smith Co. is managed by O. S. Kiker, assisted by Rex Rollins.

The Little Pigs, uniformed by Piggly Wiggly, is managed by Doyle Lawlis, assisted by Dalton Arrington.

Officials of the Rotan Little League would like to thank all those making donations, enabling formation of the League.

Special League business was settled at a meeting called by the president, Victor Hill, April 29, at the home of Juston Morrow. Each manager was given until May 15 to record his official roster.

Present were all managers and assistants, the president, treasurer, Jessie Morrow, secretary, John Denton, Sam Baugh, Mrs. John Denton and Juston Morrow.

The constitution and by-laws were read and approved, as was a financial report by the treasurer.

A motion was made to buy 12 more uniforms and 36 caps, the caps to be used for the boys on the farm team.

The rule covering a certain number of boys of certain age was waived. Ground rules adopted for the field included the following:

The runner cannot score on balls passed by the catcher; three strikes constitute an out whether or not catcher catches the ball on the third strike. According to Little League rules, each game will be of six innings length.

As soon as the official rosters are recorded by the managers, each team will be posted. The schedule for the year follows:

May 5, Vets vs. Little Pigs.
May 7, Prune Peddlers vs. Rebels.
May 12, Little Pigs vs. Rebels.
May 14, Prune Peddlers vs. Vets.

The playing field shall be used by each team as follows:
Monday, the Prune Peddlers.
Tuesday, the Little Pigs.
Wednesday, the Rebels.

Friday, the Vets.

Mrs. L. B. Green received a letter recently from her children, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Prater, Martinez, Cal. saying they read the Rotan Advance every week and enjoyed every word, even the advertisements.

Brother of Clint Overby 41 Years with WTU Co.

The April issue of "Electric Times," house organ of the West Texas Utilities Co., carried a picture and story of Dee Overby of San Angelo, who spent 41 years in the employ of the WTU Co. Mr. Overby is a brother of Clint Overby of Rotan. The Times said:

Dee Overby, who spent 41 years in the San Angelo water department, has been taking life easy since his retirement in 1911. He was serving as superintendent when the properties were purchased by WTU in 1924, and was retained in that capacity until 1928. During the last 15 years of service he worked as water-connect man in charge of new customer connections.

Overby was born in Coleman county in 1878, and moved with his family to Fisher County in 1888. During his early life he worked on ranches, breaking horses and herding cattle, and made several drives to Canyon City and Amarillo. In later years he engaged in the farming and ranching industry.

Since his retirement, Mr. and Mrs. Overby have made frequent trips to Bandera, where they usually spend several weeks on a ranch operated by Mrs. Overby's brother.

Until the prolonged dry spell hit the San Angelo area, he spent part of his time gardening and raising chickens.

First National Bank Has Fine Statement

The statement of the First National Bank of Rotan as reported on call from the Comptroller of the Currency as of April 20, shows a healthy condition of the community as well as the strong, conservative operation of this bank, and it is a statement the officers and stockholders of this institution may well be proud of, when it is considered that the drought and small crop of 1952 has affected all business.

The current call gives total deposits off $176,187.20 from the January statement, but loans were also reduced by $91,521.50. Cash balances were up $29,444.47 from the January statement, and individual, partnership and corporation deposits held firm at $2,538,184.54 for the April call.

Deposits would be expected to be some lower at this time of year, even without a short crop and drought, and a reduction in loans seems to indicate the country is on a sound financial basis and is in process of making a come-back from the disappointment of the drought.

A Revival Without Preaching a Success

A revival without preaching—at least in the ordinary sense of the word—was recently conducted by Dr. Edwin McNeely of the Southwestern Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth faculty, at the Allpattah Baptist Church in Miami, Fla.

Dr. McNeely, who believes that "people can sing their way into God's Kingdom," is professor of voice at the Ft. Worth Seminary.

During the week of congregational, soloist, and small groups' singing, God's teaching in song there were 75 decisions of conversion and spiritual growths. Dr. John H. Halde- man, pastor of the large Miami church reports, "The revival was one of the greatest demonstrations of using an entire congregation for a revival that I have ever seen. Record crowds attended the services."

Robert K. Edmonds V-P McCann-Erickson

Appointment of Robert K. Edmonds as vice president of McCann-Erickson, Inc., has been announced by Marion Harper, Jr., president of the agency.

In his new post, Edmonds has been assigned to the Detroit office of the agency as account supervisor on the Chrysler Division account.

Harper said that Edmonds' appointment to the agency's Chrysler Division staff is a move designed to strengthen the group in preparation for an increased competition ahead in the automobile business.

Edmonds brings to McCann-Erickson, Inc., automotive advertising experience gained with major agencies.

He was formerly with Young & Rubicam, Inc. as vice president and account supervisor in the Chicago office. Previously he was with MacManus, John and Adams, Inc. and Campbell-Ewald Co. in Detroit, where he served in creative and contact capacities as a writer and account executive.

Edmonds, who is a graduate of the school of engineering of Michigan State College, was born in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

State medicine will never be able to care for the mentally ill, and certainly not the research needed to combat this increasing menace to American health. Funds sought in the Texas Mental Health Fund campaign will be used for research, education and teacher training in mental health methods.

The family income depends on how well they use their land and labor for producing the things consumers want. Constant planning is needed, says Texas A&M specialists, to make the farm business profitable.

Mental illness is costing American taxpayers more than one billion dollars annually in taxes. This amount of money is entirely inadequate to cope with the alarming increase in mental patients.

Now is the Time to Start Combatting the Fly

Early spring is the best time for a community to start a fly control program, declares Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. That is before the fly population has a chance to multiply. It is estimated that one pair of flies, under favorable conditions, could have countless ancestors before winter.

Every time you kill a fly early in the season, and destroy breeding places, you stop whole colonies of flies before they start. The most effective way of preventing swarms of flies is to destroy or make inaccessible to flies the organic material which attract flies by their odors, and which are essential to them as food and breeding places.

Individual householders should make it their responsibility to clean up their own back yards. Garbage cans should have a tight fitting lid and they should be leak-proof. Inadequate facilities for storage of garbage and refuse usually result in widespread fly breeding. Uncovered or partially covered garbage containers produce odors that attract a large number of flies. Good window screens will do a lot to keep flies out of buildings, thereby protecting food from contamination by fly-borne disease organisms.

There is no substitute for good sanitation in fly control. Every spot in town must be cleaned of garbage and trash. If a few dirty places are left, swarms of flies will breed. A neglected stable on the edge of town will furnish a plague of flies for the entire neighborhood.

After garbage and trash have been removed, insecticides will help to reduce the fly population in local spots. It is a temporary protection, however, and should be regarded only as a supplemental or emergency means of control. Insecticide spraying will be effective only if sanitary conditions are maintained throughout the summer.

Soil Conservation Week Is May 3 to 9

Soil Conservation District Week is May 3 to May 9, and Soil Stewardship Sunday is May 10. All this week district supervisors have and will sponsor extensive plans to bring the conservation program into better focus in their areas. Plans include special radio programs, special editions of newspapers, window displays on conservation in towns and cities, special film and special tours.

The eighth observance of Soil Stewardship Sunday, sponsored annually by the Farm & Ranch, will be held Sunday, May 10. On that day ministers throughout the Southland will deliver sermons on our duties as protectors and rebuilders of the soil. Last year 17,000 kits were requested for use in spreading the message of soil stewardship. The editors wish success to all those who observed this important occasion this year and sincerely hope that they will be joined in this work by many others.

It is true that we are stewards of the soil. Farmers and townspeople alike have come to realize the importance of preserving this precious heritage. None of us can be separated from the soil, because our very standard of living is determined by the way we conserve and improve it.

Through Soil Conservation Districts, which are assisted by the Soil Conservation Service and other agencies, nearly every farmer in the South who has a problem in soil saving may obtain assistance. Although thousands of worn-out acres already have been restored to usefulness, let us remember that there are 30,000,000 more acres of woods and weeds crying to be made useful. It is our duty and responsibility to carry on good stewardship. We must preserve the land; keep it rich and green for the welfare of all generations who follow.

Winter Breaking Up Wednesday

Winter began breaking up in this section Wednesday, and for a late spring this may be a record. Following the high winds and sand fust of last week, the temperature began to get progressively lower from Saturday. Sunday morning the low was 52 degrees, Monday morning it was 50, and Tuesday morning it had dropped to 44 degrees. Wednesday morning temperature had raised to 46 degrees.

However, early morning temperatures for the past month have been in the 60s and 70s, so the ground has been warmed enough for farm planting seeds to germinate, and crops that came up were growing fairly well. Even that hot weather plant—cotton—was said to be doing pretty well.

Of course, we will complain about hot weather when it gets here, as we always do, but these chilly morning a little heat from Old Sol would be welcome.

4-H Clubbers Entered Records in State Contest

Four 4-H Club boys, Doyle McSpadden and Walter Myers of Rotan, Bynum Miers of Hobbs, and Freddie Stuart of Roby; and three 4-H girls, Betty Sue Brown, Janie Kay Kemp and Aubrey Nell Dennis, all of Roby, have entered records in the State Leadership contest.

Since most of the group were district winners last year, attending the Leadership Training Laboratory at Bastrop, their records can only be entered in the state contest this year, County Agent Frank Crowder and Home Demonstration Agent Miss S. C. Kinsey, says.

The contest consists of a team of three boys and three girls from each county. The records of one of the boys will be entered for the Honor Award at the Dallas Fair this fall.

If the teams are winners on a statewide basis, they will be eligible to attend the Leadership Training School again this August.

Who Gets What of Customer's Dollar

Who gets the most out of each dollar that customers spend with American business?

The answer varies substantially from business to business, of course.
But it is commonplace today for typical enterprise, and especially the larger enterprises, to pay more money to government in taxes than to any other group or agency.

Last year's financial experience of a leading oil company is very much in point. Here is what happened:

Its employees received 14 3-4
cents out of each customer's dollar.
And they were well paid indeed—
the average was $5,810 per employee.

Profits came to 8 1-4 cents of customer's dollar. But only 3 1-2 cents was paid out to the shareholders. The remainder, 4 3-4 cents was plowed back into the business to help pay for expansion and the replacement of worn-out equipment.

Federal, state and local tax collectors got 18 1-2 cents out of every dollar customers spent for the products of this company. In short, government received more than five times as much as the owners of the business—and one-quarter more than the employees.

Many other companies report similar experience. Vote-seeking politicians often use attacks on business as their stock in trade. But it's the tax dollars of such businesses as this oil company that pay a very large part of the huge costs of government. And in the last analysis, the customers pay most of it.

Mrs. Charles Signor and daughtets, Nan Jane and Cindy of Abilene, visited her parents here Saturday.

Mrs. W. B. Jones and son of Bay-town, came Sunday to visit her mother, Mrs. S. B. Benson, and Mr.
and Mrs. Alvin Clark and Betty Jane this week.

What any wronged thee? Be bravely revenged—slight it, and the work is begun; forgive, and it is finished. He is below himself that is not above an injury.—Quarles.

Nutrition and Heart Disease

"Today, with wonder drugs available for infectious diseases and with modern sanitation preventing such scourges as typhoid fever, many physicians and scientists consider nutrition the most important environmental factor in health." That statement is made in a manual, "Food for Your Heart," recently issued by the American Heart Association. Copies of the manual, which was prepared by the Department of Nutrition of the School of Public Health, Harvard University, are available to individuals only on prescription by physicians through local Heart Associations.

Heart disease is America's greatest killer. It is now believed, according to the manual, that diets low in calories and salt but high in protein as much as 3-4 to one pound of cooked meat daily—are valuable in its treatment. Among the meats prescribed for various diets are lamb chops, meat loaf, broiled pork chops, hamburger, roast pork, lean beef and veal, with poultry, fresh water fish, liver and eggs listed as alternates.

The manual points out that nutrition and food have a two-way relationship to normal heart function and to high blood pressure. First is the prevention or treatment of obesity resulting from the consumption of more food energy (calories) than the body needs. Second is treatment of hypertension and fluid in body tissues by reducing the intake of sodium. Diets which are generous in their meat content often aid materially in these treatments. It is obvious, of course, that no one should attempt self-medication, and should adopt only those weight reduction and dietary procedures which are recommended by his physician.

The science of nutrition has made tremendous strides in recent years. The result is that proper diet is in some cases more effective than drugs in combatting a lengthy list of physical ailments.

More and Better Doctors In The Making

In some circles there is a belief that medical education is lagging and is out of pace with the needs of the time, and that the only solution is a vastly extended system of government grants and subsidies.

The American Medical Association has published a "Factbook on Medical Education" which does a first-class job of refuting that idea.

As the booklet's title implies, it is full of factual data concerning the medical education system as it exists today. It deals with the experience during the 1951-52 school year as contrasted with prior periods. A summary of the facts is given in these words: "Medical education, during the academic year of 1951-52, recorded these accomplishments: The largest medical school freshman class in history. The largest medical school four-year enrollment in history. The largest graduating class, while on regular schedules, in history. The greatest increase in teaching facilities in history. The best financial support of medical schools in history." It also points out that medical education is more than keeping up with population changes—from July 1942 to July 1952, the population increased 16.4% while medical school enrollments jumped 22.8%.

In short, the nation is getting more doctors and extremely well-educated doctors. This is one more example of how our medical care problems are being attacked and gradually solved—without making the government banker and boss and thus opening the road to socialized medicine.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzsimmons and Judy of Dallas, attended to business here and visited Mr. and Mrs. Obed Hughes from Thursday until Sunday. Mr. Fitzsimmons has been transferred to Buffalo, N. Y. and will move as soon as school closes in Dallas. They formerly lived in Buffalo 12 years and are pleased to return.

Detergents May Give "Housewives Eczema"

There are detergents advertised on today's market for practically any cleaning job—from cutting stubborn grease on a mechanic's hands to discouraging fleas on the family pooch.

They work, too, in most instances but State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox has this word of warning:

"Make sure you follow the directions to the letter." Otherwise you could end up with a discomfiting case of "housewives eczema."

These so-called "soapless" products have found wide favor with housewives for washing clothes and dishes. No doubt a good bit of their popularity is due to high powered advertising, including the decorative boxes featuring happy ladies hanging the washing or putting up dishes which the product has cleaned all by itself.

Dr. Cox identifies the active ingredients of these products as chemical compounds which act to lower surface tension of water making it more penetrating and able to get through grease and dirt to break up and keep it from resettling.

Many brands contain special purpose ingredients, such as ammonium salt, which make the compound bactericidal.

A duck is supposed to sink like a rock in water containing some of these detergents, probably because the "wetter" water gets through the oil in the duck's feathers—which is the reason a duck is ordinarily water-proof and able to float.

It stands to reason, Dr. Cox points out, that if these compounds will cut through grease and film, and there is no doubt that some of them will—they will also penetrate the natural oils of the skin and cause irritation and discomfort if the condition is neglected.

The Health Officer's recommendation: Keep some hand lotion with in easy reach and apply it liberally after using detergents for household cleaning or laundry.
