Russia gaining on arms advantage, report shows

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Russian-led Warsaw Pact, which already outnumbers and outguns U.S. and allied conventional forces in central Europe, is narrowing NATO's advantage in tactical nuclear weapons.

HOME EDITION

That is the concensus expressed in recent U.S. intelligence reports on Soviet development and deployment of tactical nuclear weapons in western Russia, East Germany, Czechoslovakia and Poland.

Such weapons include a variety of less-than-intercontinental-range mis-fighter-bombers. They could seriously affect, and possibly decide, a battle for Europe if a war escalated beyond conventional high-explosive arms.

Tactical nuclear weapons are not covered in the U.S.-Soviet negotiations to limit strategic nuclear missiles and bombers, which the superpowers could hurl against each other's home territory.

According to U.S. intelligence reports, the Russians appear ready to deploy more and newer short-range ballistic missiles. They also are said to be deploying new fighter-bombers with improved air-to-ground nuclear "payloads."

Intelligence has credited NATO for some time with a 2-to-1 numerical edge in tactical nuclear warheads in

The new Soviet-theater weapons are described as having better range and accuracy than the older missiles they are replacing. Some are said to be designed to carry either nuclear, chemical, high-explosive or cluster munitions, giving Soviet commanders options in their possible use.

"NATO retains an overall advantage in the number and quality of tactical nuclear weapons," said one analysis. But the Warsaw Pact has been narrowing the gap in recent years and is now "beginning to see the fruition" of extensive development programs, a report said.

The most publicly discussed of the new Soviet weapons is the mobile SS20, which has a range of about 3,000 miles and which U.S. intelligence estimates could hit Western Europe from inside Russia.

The United States has no comparable intermediate range land-based weapon and a senior Defense official suggested last week that "we ought to open up an option for a longer-range ballistic missile in Europe" to counter the SS20.

The U.S. ground-launched missile in Europe with the longest reach is the 450-mile Pershing. The senior defense official, who asked not to be identified, said one other possibility is a new, groundlaunched U.S. cruise missile.

A new short-range Soviet missile designated the SS21 is of particular concern. With a range of some 30 miles, this system with its multiple launchers is rated a potential threat to NATO's air defense radar stations and missile batteries.

The SS21 is said to be capable of good cross-country movement on a vehicle from which it would be fired.

There have been reports in the past of Soviet tests of new conventional warheads that could blast a circular pattern of more than 40 craters. Such tactical warheads could devastate airfields, storage depots, and troop and tank assembly areas behind the NATO front, experts say.

Another new Soviet weapon said to be in early flight tests is the KY13, with a range of more than 300 miles.

Sunday arrest signals second round of charges against T. Cullen Davis

By MIKE COCHRAN

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Two years to the day after he was charged with murdering his stepdaughter, millionaire T. Cullen Davis was accused of masterminding a murderfor-hire plot involving a "hit list" of six names, including his estranged wife, his brother and two judges.

Davis was arrested Sunday morning and charged with solicitation of capital murder for allegedly trying to hire a "hit man" to kill District Judge Joe Eidson, who is presiding over the oilman's bitter divorce. He was also charged with carrying a prohibited weapon — a pistol with a silencer.

District Attorney Tim Curry said he would recommend that the 44-yearold Davis be held without bond in the Tarrant County Jail. A hearing was tentatively set for 10 a.m. Tuesday before retired Judge Arthur Tipps of Wichita Falls.

Speaking through his attorneys late Sunday night, Davis called the charges "some kindfof frame or Davis is a partner in KenDavis Industries, a conglomerate that includes Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Supply.

Curry produced an affidavit signed by McCrory, saying that McCrory had several meetings with Davis over the past four days in preparation for the alleged contract killing. Curry added, "We expect to fully corroborate McCrory's statement.'

McCrory was wired for sound by federal and local authorities during the meetings, officials said. Law enforcement sources told The Associated Press that at the Sunday morning meeting, McCrory showed Davis a snapshot of Eidson's "body" stuffed in a car trunk and the judge's driver's license. Eidson, said the sources who asked not to be identified, agreed to pose for the photo. After he saw the photo, the sources said, Davis produced a manila envelope containing $25,000 in $100 bills.

"It's a frame-up," said Davis' niece, Kay. "David McCrory is an opportunist. If Cullen wanted to hire somebody to kill Judge Eidson, he wouldn't go to someone like ... McCrory. He just doesn't trust that "Eidson was no threat to Cullen at all. None whatsoever. Cullen had nothing to lose in that marriage."

Eidson was given 24-hour police protection beginning last Friday after the FBI told Curry about the alleged plot, Curry said.

McCrory's statement said he obtained a .22-caliber pistol and a silencer at Davis' request. He said he gave Davis the pistol and silencer, which was furnished by police, Sunday

The sources said the pistol was not linked to the alleged plot against Eid-son but indicated police do not know why Davis wanted the weapon.

Curry said investigators found the pistol in the trunk of Davis' Cadillac when they stopped him.

"Cullen offered no resistance," the prosecutor said. "He made no statement. ... There is additional evidence, but I can't comment on it right

Davis, the star defendant in the state's longest and costliest murder trial last year, was acquitted of the Aug. 2, 1976, shooting death of his 12-year-old stepdaughter, Andrea Wilborn, at the $6 million Davis mansion here. That same night, Davis' estranged wife, Priscilla, 37, was wounded. Her live-in lover, Stan Farr, 30, was killed. Gus Gavrel Jr., 23, a chance visitor to the mansion, was left partially paralyzed from a bullet in his ousted from the KenDavis empire in a powerplay by Cullen Davis and Ken Davis Jr. in August 1973.

Mrs. Davis was the state's chief witness at the capital murder trial. Miss Bass and Gavrel also testified. All three identified Davis as the dreaded "man in black" who did the

But without bars and walls...

By NADINE JOSEPH

SALINAS, Calif. (AP) - Murderers, rapists and robbers have melted, belted, gnawed and kicked their way out of the new $4.5 million Monterey County jail - and the same situation, actual or potential, faces scores of jails across the country.

The jail, and dozens like it nationwide, was built according to new federal guidelines which dictate that steel bars and fortress walls no longer a prison

In exchange for two-million badly needed federal dollars, Monterey County built its jail to meet Law Enforcement Assistance Administration guidelines calling for "advanced, humane prison architecture.'

Like Nogales, Ariz.; Allegheny County, Pa.; Hattiesburg, Miss.; Young County, Texas; King County, Ill.; Sarasota, Fla.; and elsewhere, Monterey installed plastic and glass windows instead of steel bars, vision panels instead of metal plates and hinged doors instead of the traditional sliding steel type.

The new materials have been nothing but trouble.

Since its completion seven months ago, there have been 10 escapes, mostly by inmates who melted the jail's plastic windows, and a riot, that convinced corrections experts the jail was "fragile," "vulnerable," "inse-cure" and "unfortunate."

But LEAA chief of facilities Warren Rawles blames the troubles on local agencies. He contends they do not provide proper training or enough staff to make an open institution

"They can't lay the entire blame on the materials. Unsupervised men in cages will get out," says Rawles.

Rawles says the LEAA and its architectural consultants, the Champaign, Ill.-based National Clearinghouse For Criminal Justice Planning and Architecture, never recommended specific materials or products.

"We demanded that the cells have access to daylight, and the Clearinghouse recommended glass or plastic windows," says Rawles.

"The only problem we're aware of in most of the jails is in glazing material on the windows. There are more expensive types of glass that are extremely secure," he says.

But Mac Grey, director of the University of Louisville's National Crime Prevention Institute, takes issue with the LEAA's contention that some glass is safe for use in jails. "All glass is designed to break," he says. "There is no such thing as unbreakable glass."

Clearinghouse director James Taylor says inmates are not supposed to have the time to break the glazing, under the programs and supervision outlined. But he also says several dozen jails across the country report glass and structural Grey's own community has had serious problems at its jail. Six Louisville, Ky., inmates used a toothbrush to pry off a metal plate and then melted plastic windows to escape from their maximum security cells in the Jefferson County jail. The Jefferson County jail, though not federally financed, was built according to the new federal guidelines and its de-fects include smashable glass, faulty electric locking systems on cell doors and two-way mirfore installed the wrong way

Now, with the speed of light, remove yourself to the timberland or forests of East Texas. Sunrises and sunsets there can be just as aesthet-

But the setting makes such a difference.

Some West Texans who have 'grown used" to the plains say they feel strangely uncomfortable in a closed-in setting, such as a land li-berally enhanced by trees.

They feel so much out of place that they get tinges of claustrophobia and long for those wide-open spaces.

And the East Texan traveling in the west may feel lost in a sea (or desert) of a seeming bleakness that is a beauty to another.

It's all in the frame of mind. But the sunrises and the sunsets are splendorous and grand wherever the script is cast.

Big Spring man killed

Residents of district await vote

WASHINGTON (AP) - Residents of the nation's capital may find out this week whether Congress, which agreed 18 years ago to let them vote for president, is willing to let them choose representatives and senators.

A Senate vote is scheduled for Tuesday on a proposed constitutional amendment, already approved by the House, to give voting representation in both houses of Congress to the 705,000 people in the District of Co-

Also on the Senate's agenda for the week is a bill providing federal aid to highways. The House is in recess until after Labor Day.

Both supporters and opponents of the D.C. voting representation measure said the outcome was too close to call. It needs a two-thirds majority of the full Senate, which is 67 votes, regardless of whether all senators are present.

If the measure is approved by the Senate, it will require approval of the legislatures of three-fourths of the states within seven years to become part of the Constitution.

Residents of the district were disenfranchised when it became the seat of government in 1800. A constitutional amendment approved by Congress in 1960 and ratified the next year gave them the right to vote for president and vice president.

Since 1971, they have had a non-voting delegate in the House.

Backers of the measure say it is unfair to deny voting representation to a district with more people than seven states; which pays more taxes than 11 of them and lost more of its men in Vietnam than 10 states.

Opponents say Washington is a city, not a state, and cities should not be entitled to two senators. They say these senators would represent exclusively urban interests and would be swayed by the district's dependence on the federal government.

Over the weekend, both Majority Leader Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., and Minority Leader Howard H. Baker, R-Tenn., said they would support the voting rights bill. Byrd on Saturday called for ending

"this last vestige of discrimination."

Baker said Sunday he expects the bill to pass. Byrd had made the same prediction, unless, he added, absenteeism was high on the day of the

Nader, inflation too much for junior high, DAR says

By SUSAN STOLER

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - Slavery, inflation, oil drilling, farmworker leader Cesar Chavez and Ralph Nader are too controversial for junior high textbooks, the Daughters of the American Revolution contend.

Mrs. R.C. Bearden Jr. of the DAR's Texas chapter filed written objections in connection with her appearance today at the annual State Textbook Committee hearings.

Lee High annuals to be distributed

The 1978 "Rebelee," the Robert E. Lee High School yearbook, is to be distributed from 2 to 6 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday at the Journalism Room loading dock facing the east parking lot at the high school, said Paul C. Foraker, "Rebelee" adviser.

The yearbooks will not be distributed again until 3 p.m. Aug. 29, the first day of classes for Midland public school students. Distribution will be held at 3 p.m. Aug. 30 and 31 and Sept.

Foraker said students should bring yearbook receipts to speed up the handling. He said only students who paid for their yearbooks last winter should come by to pick them up.

Budget item on city agenda

The Midland City Council will consider a 55-item agenda in its regular session at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday in Council Chamber at City Hall.

Topics to be discussed include a proposed amendment to prohibit the use of glass containers at city recreational facilities, a public hearing on the proposed 1978-79 city budget and proposed use of Revenue Sharing Funds, and a request for a rate increase by Pioneer Natural Gas Co.

The council also is to consider a resolution awarding the contract for 26 heavy-duty police sedans, 26 two-way radios, 26 sirens and 26 visibars equipped with spotlights and alleycat lights.

Also to be considered by the council is a report on storm-drainage prob-lems areas and recommended improvements.

The council is to consider a resolution authorizing the sale of Airport revenue bonds.

Palestinian strongholds attacked by Israel

By LARRY THORSON

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) - Israeli planes attacked two Palestinian centers in Lebanon at dawn today in retaliation for a Palestinian grenade and submachine-gun attack on an Israeli airline bus in London less than 24 hours before.

The Palestine Liberation Organization said three guerrillas were killed and 14 were wounded in the Israeli attack on the Burj el Barajneh refugee camp on the south side of Beirut. The communique said the village school in Damour, 11 miles south of the Lebanese capital, also was attacked, but there were no casualties

In the London bus attack, an Israeli airline stewardess and one of the Palestinian attackers were killed. and two other stewardesses and seven British bystanders were wounded. One of the injured stewardesses was in critical condition.

The Israeli air force struck back at daybreak.

"As a response to the terrorist attack on the El Al bus in London, Israeli aircraft attacked two terrorist bases in Lebanon this morning," an Israeli army spokesman said.

I'ts not worth it

Reason dictates that an appropriate balance must be struck between the need for clean air and the economic costs associated with attainment of clean air standards.

The Carter administration shortly will face a litmus test of its ability to strike just such a balance between these competing interests.

Douglas M. Costle, administrator of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, is to issue new air pollution standards for new and-or modified coal-fired electric power plants by Sept. 12. Costle and his agency reportedly favor standards so tough that they would force installation of expensive gas "scrubbers" for power plants using low-sulfur Western coal. The U.S. Department of Energy, in turn, favors more moderate standards that, according to department projections, could save utilities and their customers up to $24 billion between 1983 and 1990.

The department's less stringent standards also would facilitate conversion of power plants from natural gas or oil to coal-fired, a worthwhile objective of President Carter's national energy program. This in turn would reduce the nation's reliance on imported oil, another critically important energy objective.

Finally, by restraining electric power and power-generating costs, the Department of Energy's air quality standards would serve the administration's anti-inflation campaign.

These are powerful arguments when compared with what appears to be the marginal improvement in air quality which would be attained through the EPA's purist directives.

Bringing the discussion right down to home base, the forced installation of expensive "scrubbers" on new and proposed lignite-burning power plants in East Texas is a major reason why Texas Electric Service Co. and associated firms find it necessary to seek rate adjustments in order to pay for these unreasonable government standards in converting from natural gas to lighte in the generating of electric

The point is this: If it costs tens of billions of dollars, plus an upward crank or two in the inflation spiral and curtailed economic development just to effect a 5 percent improvement in air quality, as one study suggests, is it worth it?

disregard for the welfare of the person being deceived. It is not a comfortable feeling to think that people who occupy positions of power are capable of such malice or callousness toward innnocent people who have done them no harm. We can accept this when we see it in foreign governments, like the Soviet Union, but it is hard to swallow when you are talking about the government of the good old U.S.A.

Yet, in human affairs, anything is possible and in trying to understand our times, we should consider all pos-Have you ever stopped to think, for example, why we went to war with Japan? Pearl Harbor, of course. But Pearl Harbor, as strange as it may sound, was only the superficial rea-

Why do you suppose Japan attacked Pearl Harbor in the first place? Obviously Japan did not believe that she could conquer and occupy the United States. By 1941, she had been fighting in China for 10 years and still had not subdued that country.

No, historical research has shown that Japan was forced to fight and hoped that by knocking out most of the U.S. Fleet, she could gain the time to consolidate her position in Asia and then negotiate a peace.

Japan-had gone to war with China in 1931. Japan clearly intended to dominate Asia which at that time was dominated by England, France and Holland. Our government attempted to intervene. From the beginning of the Japanese-Chinese war, we began to apply diplomatic pressure. In April 1939, we shifted the U.S. Fleet to the Pacific. In July 1939, we informed Japan we would not renew a trade treaty and would continue to trade only on a day to day basis.

In September 1940, we provided China with $55 million worth of aid and ordered all Americans out of Asia except for the Phillippines. That same year, we threatened Japan with an oil embargo, imposed a scrap iron and steel embargo on her, moved Marines to Midway Island, passed the Selective Service Act, and began to build a two-ocean Navy.

In July 1941, President Roosevelt halted all trade with Japan, seized all Japanese assets in the United States, and nationalized the Phillippino forces. In August 1941, Roosevelt delivered what amounted to an ultimatum to Japan.

After all of this, it was not until three months later, on November 7, that the Japanese made the decision to attack Pearl Harbor. As you can see, the U.S. government was clearly pushing Japan into war in an effort to protect French, British and Dutch interests in the Far East. Yet during all of these preparations for war, the administration was telling the American people the opposite.

WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Army Engineers shine own light

By JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON - For years, the Army Engineers have been building waterways, dams and other pet votegetting projects dear to the hearts of congressmen. But now the eager beaver Engineers have dipped into the federal pork barrel for about $10 million to promote themselves.

This amount was slyly set aside for the construction of 11 visitor centers throughout the country so that the Corps could butter up the taxpaying public. The authorization and money for the tourist centers were concealed from key congressional committees by some bureaucratic legerdemain. 'It was sneaky," said a congressional aide. "The congressmen here like to know about these things.' Previously, the Corps had operated information centers in various projects on a modest scale. The project engineer's office usually offered basic information and material to visitors. But Lt. Gen. J. W. Morris, who became chief engineer of the Corps two years ago, came up with a more grandiose propaganda scheme.

He instructed division heads to set up a tub-thumping operation to tie the basically civilian pork barrel projects to the Army and the national defense." Morris' subordinates quickly responded with blueprints for the 11 new information center buildings. They were approved by their bosses in Washington, but still the world in our own image - and required congressional approval. that it would not necessarily be a The Engineer Corps wangled this by submitting the appropriations request in the guise of operation and maintenance expenses, which congressional aides complain was a "sneaky play." One-line, unexplained items, intended for the centers, were blanketed in with general project expenditures

Three of the centers have already been built, yet have never been specifically funded by Congress. Corps officials are vague about identifying precisely which pocket the money came from.

One of the most red-faced and irate members of Congress over the legislative dupery is Rep. Tom Bevill, chairman of a House Public Works subcommittee which oversees the Engineers. The Alabama Democrat had never heard of the expensive selfaggrandizement program until we inquired at his office.

He then demanded and got from the Corps a sheepish admission that the centers were being built. One of Bevill's assistants said the Congressman was incensed because 'he likes to know about these things.'

A spokesman for the Corps, contacted by our reporter Peter Grant, blustered that simple oversight was to blame for keeping the congressional committees in the dark. "In retrospect, maybe we should have told them," he awkwardly conceded. 'Sometimes you're smarter after these things than before."

WELFARE PARADISE - The once-happy South Sea islands of the Pacific are fast becoming Paradise Lost. H-bomb tests contaminated such atolls as Bikini and The Marquesas. Tahiti has become a jet tourist stop. Now placid American Samoa, where Robert Louis Stevenson spent his last peaceful years, is in danger of being smothered in a security blanket of foreign aid from the United States.

The small American protectorate holds a total population of about 30,600 natives. We are presently pouring in $30 million a year in assistance funds. This totals out to an estimated $1,000 annually compared to the $300 average income of the inhabitants of nearby independent Western Samoa. U.S. aid provides 60 percent of Samoa's gross income. Some of the specific programs financed by Washington show that the protectorate is in danger of becoming welfare state, with the Samoans becoming addicted to unrequested government services. For instance, with the compliments of elderly Samoans receive free lunches regardless of need. An observer back from a recent trip to the islands reported that high local officials, including judges, stand in line to receive the lunch handouts.

The elderly also are able to be flown at government expense from island to island for health care and other free social services. Compounding the problem is the fact that natives from independent Samoa are increasingly coming to American Samoa to get a share of the largesse.

The Interior Department's Office of Territorial Affairs is aware of the interlopers, but a spokesman said little can be done about it because the illegal recipients look the same as the American Samoans.

The pattern in Micronesia, where the people recently voted to place themselves under U.S. aegis, is depressingly similar. A veteran U.S. administrator there comments: 'We've smothered them, and it will take them a long time to come out from under this blanket."

Meanwhile, a number of inhabitants of the overprotective U.S. regime are becoming increasingly resentful because their people are growing too dependent on the paternalistic aid from outside and the gradual erosion of what was once a strong and independent people.

INSIDE REPORT:

Carter yet misjudges tax temperment of Capitol Hill

By ROWLAND EVANS AND ROBERT NOVAK

WASHINGTON - President Carter's tortuous tax course has been guided by a mixture of innocence and ideology, a fact confirmed the morning of Aug. 11 when a high-ranking Treasury official told a colleague that . the bill passed by the House the previous night was really not so bad.

That not-so-bad bill had been quixotically opposed by the president in another demonstration of impotence. Innocently, Mr. Carter and principal aides have consistently misjudged the tax temper of Capitol Hill. Ideologically, he has insisted on using the Internal Revenue code as a device for the redistribution of wealth.

The White House decision to fight an unwinnable battle with precious little at stake was the capstone of the Jimmy Carter tax follies. At any time up to a few weeks ago, he could have compromised to get a better bill from his standpoint than the one he unsuccessfully pursued on the House floor

The resulting damage so far has been localized: further decline of presidential influence on Capitol Hill and unintended revival of the conservative coalition in the House. If Mr. Carter persists in the same course all the way to a veto, still threatened by the White House, the political consequences would be fundamental Caught in the middle has been Treasury Secretary W. Michael Blumenthal, operating under stresses felt by few predecessors in his famous office. While he has shared the president's innocence about what can be passed in Congress, he has waged a losing battle against ideological rigidity in the White House.

Blumenthal was tardy, but well ahead of the still uncomprehending White House, in appreciating the congressional groundswell for capital gains tax relief. His recommendation that the White House come to terms with the capital gains proposal sponsored by Republican Rep. William Steiger of Wisconsin only confirmed the wrong-headed contempt of senior Carter aides that Blumenthal lacks true grit in charging the barricades.

An obvious compromise was at hand. In return for his amendment, Steiger was willing to deliver Republican support for a few Carter tax reforms which otherwise were stillborn. Blumenthal, interested in lowered capital gains rates to induce capital formation, was ready to bargain. "If Mike had been given the power to negotiate," a senior congressman told us, "we would have had a bill weeks ago." But his secretary of the Treasury was denied authority to commit his administra-The reason is the White House mindset: opposition to any tax proposal providing more relief for rich than poor. But that would be true of any conceivable incentive for capital information. While domestic policy aide Stuart Eizenstat is widely blamed for inspiring this Catch-22, the real instigator is Jimmy Carter.

That became clear June 22 when three senior Democrats on the House Ways and Means Committee - chairman Al Ullman of Oregon, Dan Rostenkowski of Illinois and Joe Waggoner of Louisiana - visited Mr. Carter at the White House. In response to their plea for compromise, the president would not budge. That was the point of no-return for Ullman, to go his own way. After Ways and Means brushed aside administration proposals and proved its own tax cut, Waggoner implored Blumentahl to accept it as the best possible bill. Even some liberal Ways and Means members secretly recommended against a floor fight. But the president insisted on more tax relief for the poor and less for the rich. In innocence shared between the Treasury and the White House, it was thought the administration might carry its substitute Aug. 10. It never had a chance. A dozen Democrats who backed it did so only because they were sure it would lose, delaying their votes until the issue was no longer in doubt. Most of the eight Republicans supporting the substitute would have switched if necessary.

The result was passage by the sword of what might have been done in peace, reviving a bipartisan conservative coalition whose appearance diminishes hope for liberal programs.

The prestige of Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill has been diminished; the solidarity of Republicans and their collaboration with key Democrats, including Ullman, has been enhanced.

While the official administration position decries the House bill, Treasury technicians confide they would instantly accept it in preference to what the Senate will produce under the machinations of Finance chairman Russell B. Long. Yet, presidential aides insist that if the House bill cannot be changed to conform to Mr. Carter's notions about redistributing income, a veto is possible.

Hardly anybody believes that. Having first lost his chance at a compromise containing some reform and having then provoked a purposeless and politically damaging fight in the House, it is unthinkable that the president would commit the ultimate folly of vetoing an election-year tax cut. But the unthinkable is commonplace in the Carter tax policy.

NEW YORK (AP) - The stock market edged lower in moderate trading today as traders continued to watch the fate of the dollar and interest rate trends. The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was off just .87 of a point at 895.96 as of noon. Declining issues outnumbered gainers by a margin of nearly 7-to-5 on the New York Stock Exchange. Volume on the Big Board came to 12.17 million shares, down from 13.80 million shares by mid-day in the previous session. The NYSE composite index of more than 1,500 common stocks slipped .10 to 58.96. The dollar improved somewhat on foreign currency markets early today in the wake of actions late Friday by the Federal Reserve Board to encourage higher interest rates. President Carter separately promised a series of steps over the next few weeks to deal with the dollar.

Some analysts said the market appeared to be waiting for clear signals on the currency markets, after the dollar's steep slide and late rebound last week.

Goodyear, off ¼ to 181/8, topped the NYSE most active list at mid-day. Trading included a block of 150,000 shares at 1814.

Texaco rose 1/8 to 26 in heavy trading. The company twice last week announced finds of natural gas at its exploratory well, about 100 miles off the coast of New Jersey. Among other actively traded issues

Ramada Inn fell ¼ to 9 and Continental Oil slipped ¼ to 29. On the American Stock Exchange, the market value index gained .07 to

Four Odessans hurt in three-car wreck

ODESSA - Four Odessans were treated and released from an Odessa hospital Sunday night following a crash involving three vehicles in the 9900 block of West FM 2020 in Ector County, said a spokesman for the Department of Public Safety. A hospital spokesman said Clarence Roberts, 50, was listed in good condition with a lacerated arm; James William Bryce, 22, was in fair condition with a lacerated leg; Willis Winters Jr., 29, who had been a passenger in Bryce's auto, also was in fair condition with a lacerated arm: and Brian Shoumace, 26, another passenger in Bryce's car, was in good condition with a lacerated forehead. Another Odessan, Forrest Dale Commander Jr., Qdriver of one of the cars, reportedly was uninjured, said a spokesman.

Search for missing woman again in hands of chemists

ODESSA - Area lawmen have turned once more to Department of Public Safety chemists in Midland to determine the whereabouts of a 19-year-old Odessa woman who has been missing more than a month.

Two bloodstained objects discovered Friday in the vicinity of Gardendale by Ector and Midland county lawmen were being re-tested today by DPS chemists in Midland to determine if the blood is human, said authorities. Ector County Sheriff Elton Faught said the reason for re-testing both a bloodstained rock and a similarly stained plank is because a man told authorities he had slaughtered a goat three weeks ago in the same area where the stone was found Friday.

Faught reportedly was told earlier by DPS chemists that the rock had human blood on it and that the hair strands found on the plank were similar to those of Miss Catherine "Fifi" Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Murphy Jr. of Odes-shrewdly dropped the jack. When East got in with the king of clubs he returned the nine of diamonds.

If South played low, West would overtake with the ten of diamonds. If South put up the king, West would have an even easier time. Down two.

"Nice unblock," West remarked gratefully. If East had played low at the first trick he would have returned the jack of diamonds later. Then South would play low, and the defenders would get only one diamond trick instead of five.

POLITE PLAYER

Since East was a polite player he didn't point out that South had played the hand like a gaffed goldfish. Declarer should play a low diamond from both hands at the first trick. When the club finesse loses, later, East will be out of diamonds, and South will be safe.

The correct play works only when the diamonds break 6-2, but it costs nothing to provide for this possibility.

DR. NEIL SOLOMON Hypertension drive working

Dear Dr. Solomon: In recent years we've been bombarded with advice about checking our blood pressure. and avoiding food that raises our cholesterol and so forth. Has all this publicity done any good? Or is it just a well-meant effort that is producing a lot of talk about nothing else?-

Dear George: It does seem to be getting results. Just to give one example: Since the national campaign about hypertension was launched back in 1972, the percentage of hypertensives who are aware of the fact that they have high blood pressure problem has risen from 50 percent to 70 percent. Visits to the doctor relating to high blood pressure have gone up 50 percent. And deaths from stroke have gone down more than 20 percent.

These encouraging figures are from Dr. Robert I. Levy, head of the National Heart, Lung and Blood In-Getting people to stick to their treatment for high blood pressure remains difficult, Dr. Levy says. But there has been some progress. In 1971, only 17 percent of hypertensives were under proper control, whereas 28 percent are now.

Cardiovascular disease, which includes hypertension, is still the No. 1 killer in the United States, but there has been a fairly noticeable decline during the past 10 years-and particularly since 1972. Besides the greater awareness of hypertension, factors accounting for this include less cigarette smoking, cholesterollowering dietary habits and better medical care for people who are victims of stroke or heart attacks.

Let's hope that we can keep the figures for heart and blood vessel disease going down during the next 10

Dear Dr. Solomon: For almost two months I've had a pain on the right side of my face right around the hinge of the jawbone. A friend of mine said she thought that I may have thrown my jaw out of the right balance with a cigarette holder I've been using. Is this possible?-Cynthia F.

Dear Cynthia: Yes, it is. I've noticed a recent report about unconscious clenching of a cigarette holder between the teeth leading to chronic pain in and around the joint which hinges the jawbone to the rest of the skull. If you have this habit, see if you can break it. (How about giving up smoking altogether?) And if that pain doesn't clear up right away, do check your doctor or dentist. That kind of trouble often comes from the bite be-

Two Houston defendants receive death sentences

HOUSTON (AP) - ing lot. Two Houston men are headed for death row in the state prison after juries sentenced them to die for their convictions in separate murder

It took just 90 minutes Friday for the jury in District Judge Fred Hooey's court to decide the sentence for former convict Rudy Esquivel, 42, to death. The same jury had convicted him earlier on a charge of murdering a Houston narcotics officer.

The other man, Clarence Jordan; 21, was sentenced to death after he was convicted of killing Joe L. Williams during an Oct. 14 grocery store robbery.

Esquivel was found guilty Thursday of killing 28-year-old Tim Hearn June 8 and wounding Hearn's partner in a southeast Houston park-

In returning its verdict, the jury rejected Esquivel's claim that the shooting was in self-defense. He said it erupted after Hearn tried to plant heroin in his pocket because Esquivel had refused to become a police informant.

Esquivel's prison record dates back to 1953, when he received a 99year sentence for parti- knife during jury seleccipating in the gang-rape tion.

Bankers assail FBI program on robbery

- Bankers are charging that an FBI plan to reduce enforcement efforts against bank robberies will encourage the already growing numbers of daylight robbers.

Representatives of financial institutions testified on last week at a Senate Judiciary Committee hearing on proposed cuts in the FBI's budget to combat violent bank crimes.

An official of the General Accounting Office said a study by that congressional watchdog agency indicates, however, that local police can handle most bank robberies without federal assistance.

The hearing was called by Sen. Charles McC. Mathias Jr., R-Md., who recently pushed through an amendment to trim the budget of the FBI's bank robbery detail by only 10 percent instead of the 22 percent the administration wants.

The Justice Department says the fight against organized crime, white collar crime and public corruption dethan the assistance the FBI gives in catching bank robbers.

congressmen on Asia trip

HANOI, Vietnam (AP) - Eight U.S. congressmen, the largest such group to visit this Communist capital since the late 1950s, flew into Hanoi today and were welcomed by Vietnam-ese officials who said the mission "will open up a new stage in relations between our two countries.' Rep. G.V. Montgomery, D-Miss., the leader of the delegation, said the trip could help smooth out U.S.-Vietnamese relations.

"We cannot make policy or negotiate but we come with open minds and we will take back what we learn to the president and the Congress," Montgomery told Phan Hien, Vietnam's vice foreign minister.

Hien said the Communist government's premier, Pham Van Dong, considered the trip "very important" and would meet with the congressmen in Hanoi.

The delegation flew from Manila, the Philippines, and landed at Hanoi's Noi Bai Airport, which is guarded by camouflaged anti-aircraft

The delegation will also visit Ho Chi Minh City, formerly Saigon, and Vientiane, the official Laotian capital. The congressmen will be the first official U.S. group to visit the former South Vietnamese capital since it fell to Communist forces in April 1975. Montgomery said he believes the Vietnamese are willing to normalize relations with the United States.

"All indications from the Vietnamese are go, he said in an interview Sunday night.

Montgomery, who favors trade and other ties with the former wartime opponent, brought seven other congressmen on the trip, six of them Democrats. He said he selected them because they have been opposed to normalization of relations, and their conversion might carry weight in Congress.

Montgomery said he hoped to get new information on Americans missing in action in the Vietnam War and to learn something about Vietnam's relations with China, Cambodia and the Soviet Union.

DEAR ABBY

Information for spotting VD available

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Most people my age help you get ahead.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Get into the financial side of any outside civic duties you have to perform and know what you (22) know what VD is, but they don't think it can happen to them. Well, you don't have to be a "run-around" to get

I was a virgin until I was 21. Then I fell in love and went all the way with my boyfriend. Soon after, he told me he just found out that he had gonorrhea, so I went to a clinic and found out that I had it too!

I had treatments and was cured. We fought about this for some time because I knew I hadn't been with anyone else, and he swore he hadn't

After we broke up, I fell in love with another guy and we had sex. Soon after, he told me that he had VD, so I went to the clinic again, and sure enough, I had it too! - (Syphilis.)

Now that this has happened a second time, I have decided that sex before marriage is not for me.

- Abby, please let your readers know how easy it is to get VD. Both these guys looked so clean. I never thought it could happen to me.-LEARNED

MY LESSON DEAR LEARNED: Anyone who is sexually active should know how to prevent VD and how to spot the symptoms. Your county department of public health can provide you with free information, examinations and treatment if necessary. (They are listed in your telephone book.) Planned Parenthood offices also provide free information on how to prevent (and cure) VD. Or ask any physician.

You can get VD from intimate body contact-heavy petting and intercourse. You can't get it from a toilet seat or a doorknob.

Both gonorrhea and syphilis CAN be completely cured if treated promptly by a doctor. If untreated, they can cause blindness, sterility, paralysis, heart disease and even death. If you are under 18 and can't level with your parents, treatment is available in most states without parental knowledge or consent. For information concerning VD, phone this toll-free number from anywhere in the United States: 800-523-1885. You'll be connected to "Operation Venus," located in Philadelphia.

DEAR ABBY: I love ya, but you've been harping on the evils of smoking often enough. Knock it off, will you?—DRAG QUEEN

DEAR QUEEN: I know that I have been harping on the evils of smoking often. But not often ENOUGH.

DEAR ABBY: I will be married soon and everything is all set. There's only one problem. Since my parents are hosting the rehearsal dinner, they thought it would be appropriate to serve champagne. But my financee's family belongs to a church that doesn't believe in drinking alcoholic beverages.

What is proper in a case like this? We'll go along with whatever you say.—ANXIOUSLY WAITING

DEAR WAITING: When entertaining, if some guests drink alcoholic beverages and others do not (for any reason), serve a selection of beverages and let your guests take their choice.

having company, urges Keith Stupell, director of a specialty store here featuring table fashions.

"Every day is an important occasion when the family gets together for dinner," he says. "What's nicer than having an attractive table? It should be a joy to sit down to, inviting to the eye and to the soul."

Although life is simpler today than it once was and servants are no longer around to take care of such niceties as snowy white tablecloths, it is still possible to have elegance, he points

"Many people are turning to place such'as bamboo," Stupell says. "Not only are they easy to care for, but the beauty of the table can be seen." Like the jewelry and accessories that give an outfit individuality, the

"The coupette for the opening course; the centerpiece, possibly candlesticks or a floral arrangement or ornament; napkin rings and colorful napkins; individual salt and pepper shakers; individual cigarette cups and ashtrays; place-card holders, all take a table and turn it into a drama.

"When a man wants to romance a woman," he adds, "he will take her to a romantic restaurant with ammance has gone out of our life.'

A recent survey indicates that people's taste changes every seven years, he says, and just because you like a certain color now doesn't mean you'll like it throughout your life.

If you've had china for three years or so, consider creating a new look by reaccessorizing it or adding a new color or design to combine with your present service, Stupell suggests.

What Teacher Mary Lou Wise learned:

'Losing weight at Pat Walker's is fun' So begins a letter from the vivacious Ms. Wise, who teaches second-grade pupils. She continues:

'Before going to Pat Walker's, I just ate without thinking. My eating habits have changed, thanks to the program. I know now how to eat the foods I enjoy without having ever to look again at the 65% inches and 37½ pounds I have lost."

Now that she weighs 113 pounds, it has been self-rewarding to shop for a size 9 instead of a 16, she adds.

'The Pat Walker girl'

Teaching school is demanding work, but Ms. Wise says she finds the days she visits Pat Walker's are her "relaxing" days. That's because "the treatments are refreshing and revitalizing" and "the counselors are a source of encouragement every week."

"My friends are amazed at my [weight] loss," she concludes. "They call me the Pat Walker girl. I kinda' like that."

Shaping up

If her friends call her the Pat Walker girl, we'd like to repay the compliment by calling her "the wise Ms. Wise," for she has defined very precisely what we consider some of the chief benefits of our program.

At every Pat Walker's salon, each patron is on an individualized plan that begins with a confidential figure analysis. The atmosphere is quiet, deliberately low-keyed and relaxing. A professional counselor helps you learn sensible eating habits—and supervises your program on the SYMMETRICON.

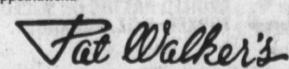

A Pat Walker exclusive

SYMMETRICON, found only at Pat Walker's, is the passive exercise equipment that safely and gently firms and tones body tissue, simultaneously improving your circulation and helping to correct your posture. Treatments are given in complete privacy, of course, and you can wear your regular street clothes. You reduce safely—but effectively—as your measurements go down just where they need to do so.

CALL TODAY Why wait another day to find out more about this exciting program that has benefited millions throughout the world over the past 26 years? WE INVITE YOU TO HAVE A FREE FIGURE ANALYSIS AND TREATMENT. There's no charge, no obligation. Just call or come by to reserve time for your courtesy appointment.

Midland line, Exxon in spotlight of oil scene

LOS ANGELES (AP) - Efforts to move Alaskan oil to the eastern half of the United States by land have moved forward with the announcement of an agreement that backers say will also reduce air pollution in southern California.

"This is the first time business and government have come together to match economic expansion and environmental benefits," Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr. said Friday. "This proves environmental quality and economic expansion can go hand in hand."

The agreement signed by Standard Oil of Ohio (Sohio) and the Southern California Edison Co. calls for Sohio to spend about $78 million for pollution control equipment at an Edison generating plant in Long Beach. Sohio would also spend $3 million to $5 million to reduce pollution from 13 Southern California dry cleaning

The $525 million terminal is part of a massive project to feed Alaskan crude oil to the Midwest through about 1,000 miles of pipeline stretching from Long Beach to Midland, Texas. Alaskan oil now can move east only through the Panama Canal, a long and expensive route.

The project must still be approved by the state Air Resources Board, the South Coast Air Quality Management District and voters in Long Beach, where a referendum opposing the project is on the November ballot. A favorable ruling from the Internal Revenue Service is also needed.

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Energy Department says Exxon Co., the nation's largest oil company, may have violated federal pricing regulations in three separate instances totaling more than $40 million.

Company officials in Houston denied the allegation and said they will Exxon senior vice president C.R. Sitter said the department was trying to change the application of its rules retroactively, applying a May 1977, regulation to sales made earlier. The department also contended that Exxon charged $1.5 million too much for regular gasoline from September through December 1974, after reducing the octane of the gasoline. The third department allegation said Exxon improperly sought to recover more than $10.7 million from February 1974 through August 1976 on export sales of benzene and toluene. Exxon denied both those allegations

When it is hot, living without natural gas for heating and cooking is much easier for the impoverished residents of this gasless city about 130 miles southwest of San Antonio.

butane, propane or wood stoves for heating and cooking.

Most could not afford butane or expensive electric heaters and relied on stoves fueled by gnarled mesquite wood. Many, especially children, were accidentally burned. The lack of heat and hot water also caused some respiratory illnesses and infections.

"Last year, we were taken by surprise," said City Manager Raul Flores. "That won't happen this

The city has about 400 to 500 cords of wood already cut and stacked, said Jose Angel Gutierrez, Zavala County judge. He hopes to obtain federal funds to pay unemployed workers to

A $200,000 federal grant will be used to help poorly educated residents learn to use low cost, solar-assisted water heaters and to insulate the homes of low-income residents. Officials also plan to overhaul government surplus wood stoves and make sure they are safe.

Those measures are temporary however. The city has applied for $650,000 in federal funds to drill wildcat gas wells in surrounding Zavala County, already dotted with numerous producing wells.

Officials hope those wells will supply enough gas for decades and help the city become energy self-sufficient.

The $650,000 Department of Housing and Urban Development grant would be used to acquire gas leases outside the city and finance the drill-

Crystal City would add $318,000 after making a gas strike to pay for a pipeline. That money would be raised through a bond issue backed by the city's newly producing gas wells.

Even if the city's wildcatting adventure is successful, it would still be late 1979 before any gas is available, Flores said That is why temporary measures are being taken for this

Arab spenders look toward United States

By ED BLANCHE Associated Press Writer

LONDON (AP) - Arabs who descended on Britain in 1973 to invest and spend their oil money are now looking with increased interest toward the United States and Western

Their numbers in Britain and on the Continent are estimated at a million and at least a dozen Arabic newspapers have gone into publication to

The British Tourist Authority says at least 400,000 Arabs came to London last year and spent an average of $2,740 each, displacing Americans as the biggest spenders.

Economic experts here have conservatively estimated that the Arabs have pumped at least $1.33 billion into Britain's anemic economy since

The Arabs mainly invested their new riches in prestige real estate and industry. Thousands headed for Europe on vacations when Lebanon, the Arabs' traditional playground, became a war zone in 1975.

Paris and Geneva, Switzerland, also have become happy hunting grounds for the high-rolling oil sheiks and their retinues. Now, Arabs say, West Germany appears to be heading for a petrodollar boom.

London has been the focal point of the Arab invasion. At least $950 million has been sunk in British companies by Arabs who also bought up prestige property - castles, royal omes and country estates.

But Arab enthusiasm for Britain may be waning

"I'm afraid the boom days in Britain are over," said Abdul Ghani al-Dalli, economic adviser to the Arab and International Bank for Investment, "Arab investment will continue in Britain on a smaller scale because changes in the British economy have not been as favorable from our point of view as they were a few years

'America is now experiencing the kind of conditions Britain did, depressed prices and a depreciated currency.

As the dollar declines in value on the world market, the prices of U.S. goods go down in terms of strong currencies, such as the West German mark or Swiss franc. An Associated Press survey showed the same kind of Arab investment that Britain experienced has happened in other European countries, but on a less grandiose scale. It is difficult to measure the true scale of the Arabs' financial stake in British commerce because they generally keep their shareholdings below 5 percent, the level at which they must publicly declare themselves.

Shortage on horizon

TULSA, OKAL.-Europe faces a natural-gas shortage that will begin to take shape in the mid-1980s and be in full swing by the end of that decade, the Oil & Gas Journal says.

According to one industry study, firm commitments for European supplies will peak at 24.2 billion cubic feet a day in the mid-1980s, then decline to 19.4 billion cubic feet a day by European utilities realize they face a long-term problem. That's why last-month they rushed to smap up Algerian liquefied natural gas originally earmarked for U.S. markets. Algeria sold the LNG when doubts grew over whether the U.S. government would allow more import facilities to be built on the East Coast.

In a recent issue, the Journal cites European Economic Community forecasts that imports to European countries will increase to 30 percent of total supplies by 1990 from 12 percent at present.

By comparison with the U.S.,

European nations are newcomers to the natural-gas market. Italy and France developed gas industries on a small scale in the 1950s

H. E. Chiles, chairman of the board of Western, announced the appointment. Godfrey will report directly to the board chairman.

The Western Co. of North America, which has district offices at Midland, has served the petroleum industry since 1939 with technical services required in the discovery and production of oil and gas. These services include fracturing, acidizing and ce-

Western also performs offshore contract drilling operations. Four semi-submersible drilling vessels now are operated by the firm in the Gulf of Alaska, the Mediterranean Sea, the Arabian Gulf and off western

Godfrey joins Western after having served seven years as executive vice president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the world's largest regional chamber. He also served as president of the organization in 1969-

Besides being chief operating officer of WTCC, Godfrey had primary responsibility for its work in national and state affairs and in mineral resources development. Under Godfrey's direction, WTCC won five national awards for programs, including three Freedom Foundation Awards for economic education programs in 1976, and the top award in the nation for best association program from the American Society of Association Executives.

Godfrey has been active as a businessman, rancher, civic leader, educator and in church affairs. He has received numerous honors for each. He is a native of Spur and resided there before moving to Abilene in 1971. Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey will reside in Fort Worth.

A son, David Godfrey, resides in Midland, and a daughter, Mrs. Jan Pierpont, lives in Abilene.

Swearingen takes issue with wilderness policy

BOISE, IDAHO-Federal policies which could designate up to 90 million acres of land as wilderness areas, thereby foreclosing them to any kind of mineral exploration and development, are "totally irrational," the chairman of Standard Oil Co. of Indi-

"At precisely the moment we should be exploring for and developing new supplies, the government is busy hanging up 'No Treaspassing' signs on vast tracts of federal land potentially rich in petroleum" John E. Swearingen said in a presentation to the National Association of County Agricultural Agents.

The language of the Wilderness Act, which provides the Forest Service with its operating directive, implies that "man is an intruder in nature-in fact, perhaps even an intruder on the planet itself," he pointed out.

"But much of the land under consideration is neither pristine nor primeval," Swearingen explained, "nor does it offer much in the way of natural beauty. And in fact, in many cases, such lands actually stand to be improved by the activities of man."

He told the county agents that the government is considering withdrawing millions of acres of prospective oil and gas lands in the Overthrust Belt, which runs through Utah, Wyoming, Montana, and southeastern Idaho. Several important discoveries have made this area "a petroleum province of great potential," he de-

"None of us, be we oilmen, miners, ranchers or farmers, wants to plunder or despoin the planet," he contin-ued. "All we ask is a sensible balance between preservation and use, a balance which acknowledges that man's activities are dnot necessarily sinful and predatory, but are in fact useful and necessary.

Swearingen observed that this lack of balance is especially evident in the activities of newer regulatory bodies in Washington, most of them formed

As an example, he cited the En-vironmental Protection Agency's refusal to allow farmers in four Midwest states to use more powerful pesticides to stop an infestation of grasshoppers. As a result, "in four of our most important agricultural states, farmers are suffering and food supplies will be reduced. But thanks in large part to the EPA, the grasshoppers are very well-fed and

This inability to understand the need for balance is especially crucial today in the economic area. Swearingen noted.

"Washington seems unable to realize that demand must be balanced with supply, production balanced by profits, or investment balanced by an adequate return on that invest-

Because of oil price controls, he reported, "the government is willing to allow domestic producers an average price of only about $9 per barrel,' ewhile foreign oil landed on the Gulf Coast costs about $14 per barrel.

"It makes no economic sense to encourage the importation of foreign oil and discourage domestic production-just as it makes no sense to encourage the importation of foreign beef," he remarked.

The solution to this problem is "very simple and sensible," he said. "Next May, price controls on oil will no longer be mandatory. The President could then announce that he is

New wells have been reported in Sterling and Martin counties.

HNG Oil Co. of Midland No. 2-16 McEntire was potentialed in the Credo, East (upper Cisco) area of Sterling County, 12 miles northwest of Sterling City.

It finaled for a calculated, absolute open flow potential of 2,480,000 cubic feet of dry gas per day, through perforations from 7,212 to 7,465 feet after 8,000 gallons of acid.

Hole is bottomed at 7,800 feet and 4.5-inch pipe was landed on bottom. The plugged back depth is 7,764 feet and ground elevation is 2,451 feet.

The well is 4,798 feet northeast of other production in the field and 660 feet from north and east lines of section 16, block 23, H&TC survey.

MARTIN WELL Mitchell Energy Corp. of Houston No. 1-26 University has been completed in the Hutex (Dean) area of Martin County, 27 miles north of Midland.

The well potentialed on the pump for six barrels of 41.4-gravity oil, plus one barrel of water, through perforations from 9,535 to 9,587 feet. Gas-oil ratio is 1.833-1.

Total depth is 10,000 feet and the plugged back depth is 9,660 feet.

The well is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 26, block 7, University Lands survey and one location north of other production.

going to phase them out over a two-year period—and that would be all we require." As a result of this decontrol, the Standard chairman explained, prices would rise naturally to world levels, exploration and development of new supplies would be en-couraged, and the U.S. would move strongly in the direction of curing its balance of payments problem. To help solve these national problems, Swearingen called for restoration of a "sensible balance between the activities of the public and private sectors, between business and government, between the pricing and the political systems.

"If we restore that natural bal-ance," he said, "we will restore our national economy to full and vigorous health. And in the process, we will restore our great country to the balance of power and prestige it once commanded throughout the world.

DOE chief says bill failure would hit dollar

WASHINGTON (AP) — Energy Secretary James R. Schlesinger said on Sunday that unless Congress approves the natural gas pricing bill or a tax on domestic crude oil, the effect on the already sagging dollar would be "devastating."

without a national energy program -*keyed to President Carter's longstalled energy legislation - he might have to resign. "We must have an energy program in this country," he said. "I am totally dedicated to achieving that. If it becomes clear that we are unable to

And Schlesinger indicated that have such a program, then my useful-ness may have been ended." Schlesinger was interviewed on the CBS television program "Face the Nation.' In apparent anticipation of a close floor votes in the House and Senate on the measure that would deregulate the price of domestic natural gas by 1985, Schlesinger said the bill's failure would be a serious setback for the country.

Without approval of the natural gas bill or Carter's long-dormant crude oil tax proposal, he said, the president will be unable to fulfill his pledge at the Bonn economic summit meeting for a substantial reduction in U.S. oil

"If we fail to get either of these major bills, I think that we can confess that we do not have the discipline in this country to face up to our energy problems," he said. "The impact on the dollar, which is already in weakened condition, will be devastat-

Passage of the natural gas bill, he said, would save the United States about 500,000 barrels of oil a day in increased gas usage, and would mean an immediate savings of $2.5 billion on foreign exchange. Also, he said, "it is a very important symbol, interna-tionally, of America's ability to face up to its energy problems.'

Failure to enact the gas bill, Schlesinger said, would cause oil imports to rise substantially next year, at a cost of more than $50 billion

On the other major legislative proposal, the crude oil tax, Schlesinger said the measure is "not dead - just sleeping," and that he expects it will be revived by Congress after the November elections.

But he added he could not say exactly when Congress will act on the crude oil tax, or what form it finally

Raiders rip 49ers, 31-14

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - O.J. Simpson says his knee is strong. But what about the San Francisco 49ers who looked so weak against the Oak-'Communications is the key,''

Simpson said after making his playing debut with the 49ers, whose offense sputtered badly Sunday in a 31-14 preseason loss to the Raiders. 'Right now, we haven't played long enough with each other to get the feel of things," he said. "We're going to start communicating better and playing together."

The 49ers are 0-3 and have just one more exhibition test, against Denver, before opening the National Football League season Sept. 3 at Cleveland.

Sunday's game was the first for Simpson since injuring his left knee midway through the 1977 season, his last with the Buffalo Bills, and he said, "I felt great, I really did. I wanted to stay in the game longer."

The $733,000-per-season star left early in the second period after carrying six times for 12 yards, losing the ball once on a fumble and dropping a perfect pass from Jim Plunkett, who had a luckless and frustrating 0-for-11 passing day.

Three touchdown passes by Ken Stabler gave Oakland an early 21-0 lead, it was 31-0 after three periods and the talent gap between the two teams appeared bigger than the 49ers' offensive communications gap. San Francisco got two late touchdowns as young Steve DeBerg scored on a quarterback sneak and passed 21

Blair captures MTC net title

Monica Blair defeated Janice Craig, 1-6, 6-3, 6-1, Sunday to win the Midland Tennis Club's Women's Singles Championship Sunday. Blair will serve as the club's champion for the coming year.

Charlene Bynum won the consolation title with a 7-5, 6-0 win over Olivia Hipps while Claudette Odiorne won the "B" championship with a victory over Susan Nunez in the finals. Consolation honors went to Melynda Blair with a hard fought 3-6, 6-3, 6-0 win over Valerie Hicks.

yards to Freddie Solomon.

In preseason games Saturday, the Philadelphia Eagles whipped the Atlanta Falcons 24-7; the Denver Broncos beat the Buffalo Bills 23-13; the New York Giants upset the Pittsburgh Steelers 13-6; the Cincinnati Bengals defeated the Chicago Bears 27-3; the Tampa Bay Buccaneers whipped the New Orleans Saints 14-3; the Green Bay Packers downed the St. Louis Cardinals 23-17; the Houston Oilers topped the Dallas Cowboys 27-13, and the New York Jets beat the San Diego Chargers 23-10.

In Sunday's only other game, the New England Patriots whipped the Kansas City Chiefs 24-7. Tonight, Detroit plays at Cleveland.

"We wanted to open things up, pass more than last week, and we did it," said Stabler, whose touchdown passes went to rookie running back Arthur Whittington and receivers Cliff Branch and Ray Chester.

"We played a lot better. Things are coming together," said John Matuszak, appraising the defensive improvement since the Raiders' 21-7 loss to New England eight days earlier.

As for Simpson, Matuszak said, 'He looked like the same O.J. to me, going 100 percent out there, twisting and turning.

San Francisco Coach Pete McCulley said, "We were embarrassed that we didn't play any better than that." But headded, "I think the result of the game was more reflective of the Oakland Raiders' strength.

It was, indeed, an impressive performance by the Raiders, who are 2-1 in exhibition games as they aim for the regular season and the January goal of the Super Bowl.

"They're going to be in there knocking," Simpson said of the Raiders' championship chances.

One-yard scoring dives by quarterback Steve Grogan and fullbacks Don Calhoun and Mosi Tatupu propelled New England past Kansas City. But the Patriots, still reeling from the paralyzing injury to wide receiver Darryl Stingley, received another jolt when star tight end, Russ Francis, suffered a sprained right ankle and had to be taken from the field on a stretcher.

While Simpson, the highest-paid player in the NFL, was making his limited debut for the 49ers Sunday, Earl Campbell was giving Houston the first return on its million-dollar contract - and it was the key to a winning effort Saturday against Dallas' Super Bowl champs.

Campbell, the No.1 choice in this year's college draft, steamrollered the Cowboys for 151 yards, 55 on a TD gallop. Ronnie Coleman also scored on runs of 18 and 2 yards for the "Earl is a complete football player," Houston Coach Bum Phillips said after Campbell also had thrown some key blocks in the game. "When you have him in the game, it's like having Tony Dorsett. The defenses have to watch for him and it opens things up for other guys." Both Dorsett of the Cowboys and Campbell are Heisman Trophy winners.

Tampa Bay got touchdown bursts from Jimmy DuBose and Ricky Bell en route to its third victory without a defeat in the exhibition season.

"We were not awe-inspiring in victory," said Coach John McKay of the Buccaneers. "Maybe we're at the stage we can play poorly and win." It's a lot better than last season when the Bucs, for the most part, played poorly and lost.

Cincinnati's Lenvil Elliott rushed for 112 yards, 79 on a touchdown jaunt, in the Bengals' victory over the winless Bears, still playing without star runner Walter Payton. The Jets got TD passes from Richard Todd and Matt Robinson, more than enough to counter a San Diego TD on an 81-yard punt return by Joe Washington.

Mike Walton ran for a TD from the one and completed 12 of 19 passes for 144 yards in the first half, helping Philadelphia beat Atlanta. Steve Bartkowski of the Falcons completed only 18 of 39 passes and had two intercepted, one by Greg Marshall, who ran it 23 yards for another score. Coach Leeman Bennett said Bartkowski was in danger of losing his s position as Atlanta's No.1 quarter-

Denver downed the Bills on short TD runs by Rob Lytle and Larry Canada. The Giants surprised Pittsburgh with Jerry Golsteyn hitting Johnny Perkins on a 78-yard touchdown pass on the second play of the game, and Nate Simpson's late eightyard TD run lifted the Packers past

Tyler Rose is doomsday on Cowboys' defense

By STEVE O'BRIEN R-T Sports Writer

A year ago Tony Dorsett went a long way towards dispelling the socalled "Heisman jinx" with a sensational rookie year with the Dallas

Saturday night Dorsett watched from the sidelines as another young man took a big step toward burying that myth once and for all.

Earl Campbell, the most recent winner of the award symbolic of the nation's outstanding college football player, ran over, around and through the Dallas defense for 151 yards on only 14 carries, including a 55-yard scoring jaunt through the heart of the Doomsday Defense.

Campbell had been anything less than impressive in his first two outings with the Houston Oflers and that created a certain amount of skepticism. But the Tyler Rose hushed all of those doubting Thomases with his performance Saturday.

IT WOULD HAVE been one thing for Campbell to rack up those impressive kind of stats against NFL squads of the likes of Tampa Bay or Seattle, but this was Dallas and the Doomsday Defense — a defense many have rated with top every assembled in the history of the game. Earl Campbell proved he was no fluke.

"Just write anything good and that's what I have to say about him," was Houston Coach O.A. "Bum" Phillips' remark on Campbell after the Oilers had hammered the defending Super Bowl champs 27-13. "Tonight I think everyone thought Earl was just about perfect . . . except Dallas."

Campbell did indeed appear nearperfect Saturday night. He put on impressive display of the strength and quickness that has made coaches drool ever since his high school days. And, not only was he superb when he was carrying the ball, he also made his presence felt when it was one of his backfield mates doing the traveling. It was his devastating block that cleared the way for Ronnie Coleman's 18 yard scamper to paydirt in the first half which gave Houston a 7-3 lead, a lead they never relinquished.

IN FACT, Campbell was so good Saturday night that Dallas safety Cliff Harris was inclined to rank him among the "top five or 10" running backs he had ever faced in his nine years in the NFL.

The top five or 10? Come on Cliff. surely you jest. Lest we forget, this was only Earl's third game as a professional football player and one game does not a season make. Cliff, you've been All-Pro several times and you've faced a lot of running backs in you're career - are you sure that's a valid assesment of the rookie from University of Texas?

"I hadn't given him enough credit before," Harris insisted after the game. "He's a good running back, one of the best I have ever faced. He's a nice guy too.

Harris was a little surprised at the Houston rookies strength. "He runs straight up and those kind of guys are usually pretty easy to tackle. But not

DALLAS LINEBACKER Thomas Henderson also had praise for Campbell. "Big Earl was good tonight. His legs were like hot irons, whenever anyone tried to tackle him it was just like this," Henderson said, making a hands-off motion indicating Big Earl was indeed too hot to handle.

Almost to a man the Cowboys were impressed with what they saw of Campbell, although there wasn't much doubt that they wished he hadn't picked Saturday night to show his wares.

"He's a Heisman Trophy winner and I think that speaks for itself," was the comment from a guy who should know, Dorsett. "Barring injuries I believe he can become one of the most exciting players in this game. He should do a lot of good things for the Houston program.'

Linebacker D.D. Lewis said Campbell's 55-yard scoring dash broke the Cowboys' backs. "It just didn't seem like we did much after Campbell's run. We were kinda listless after that

PERHAPS THE jury is still out on Earl Campbell. He still has a way to go to prove he can become an established NFL player. Even with his performance against the Cowboys, he may not yet have become a starter for Oilers with Ronnie Coleman (whose superb 91-yard performance was overshadowed by Campell's act), Rob Carpenter (the AFC rookie-of-theyear last year) and Anthony Davis in the Houston stable.

Campbell may or may not reach the levels of greatness which have been predicted for him, that's all purely speculation at this point. But, Phillips was able to say with some assurance after the game, "I think Earl Campbell will make the cut Monday.

Seibert scored the Cubs' first run of the game in the first inning after leading off with a walk and then moving all the way to third on shortstop Steve Macko's single. Amarillo pitcher Joe Carroll tried to hold Macko on first, but his attempted pickoff was off the mark and Seibert scored for a 1-0 Cubs lead. Gary Krug opened the Cubs fifth with a single and Seibert's base on balls put runners at first and second. Macko then laid a bunt down the third base line which Gold Sox catcher Bill Castillo fielded. Castillo tried to make the play at third, but his hurried throw went into left field and Krug scored the Cubs' second run. Drury then followed with his RBI single. In the Amarillo fifth Tim Derryberry singled and scored on Dan Ilertsen's double to cut the margin to 3-1. The Gold Sox final run came in the sixth when Earl Batty lead off with a single, moved to third on Turner's wild pitch and scored on a Bobby Evans single. Jeff Albert earned his ninth win of the season in the first game with a little help from Amarillo shortstop Bill Halstrom. Halstrom's three errors in the game led to a pair of Cubs runs as Midland won 5-3. Drury led off the first inning with a double and one out later Gary Keatley was walked intentionally to set up a double play. But, Brian Rosinski was then walked quite unintentionally to season, a solo job, in that inning.

Eric Grandy led off the Midland fifth with his sixth home run of the season to put the Cubs back on top. After Keatley was dealt a base on balls and Rosinski singled, Gold Sox starter Gary Pickert was pulled in favor of reliever Greg Wilkes. The first batter he faced in relief was Krug, and the big first baseman delivered a single scoring Keatley and putting the Cubs out in front 4-2.

Sandra Post gains LPGA win

DETROIT (AP) — Ten years agom people told 19-year-old Sandra Post she would continue to win on the Ladies Professional Golf Association tour. She had just defeated Kathy Whitworth in an 18-hole playoff to capture the national LPGA cham-

Garvey, Sutton fight, but Dodgers roll, 5-4

By The Associated Press

There may be discord in the Los Angeles locker room, but on the field the Dodgers still are a well-oiled ma-

Pitching ace Don Sutton and star first baseman Steve Garvey were involved in a fight-wrestling match in the dressing room before the Dodgers' 5-4 victory over the New York Mets Sunday. The altercation was spurred by a newspaper article in which Sutton was quoted as saying: "All you hear about on our team is Steve Garvey, the All-American boy. But Reggie Smith was the real MVP. We all know it ... (Smith) has carried us the last two years. He is not a facade. He does not have the Madison Avenue image. The two fought for several minutes before being separated, and Sutton came out the worse, with a bruised and swollen face.

"It was just a difference of opinion on the article ... " said Garvey. "The article was completely unnecessary. We are dedicated to winning the pennant. We are supposed to be winning the pennant, not singling out individu-

Joe Ferguson's double was the key hit, scoring Ron Cey with the winning run. Ferguson lined a shot which New York left fielder Steve Henderson misjudged, the ball carrying over his head as Cey scored.

"I hit the ball good but I didn't know if it would drop until I got to first base," said Ferguson.

In the Dodgers' ninth inning, New York starter Craig Swan, who struck out 10, walked leadoff batter Smith and gave up a single to Garvey. Swan was relieved by Skip Lockwood, who surrendered a single to Cey, a sacrifice fly to Lee Lacy and Ferguson's

"Obviously, that (the fight) didn't faze Garvey or the club," said Dodgers Manager Tom Lasorda. "We went out and battled.

Drought ends for Lee Elder

Simmons followed with his big hit.

HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) - Lee Elder will never play better. He said so himself.

'The last two months I've played the best golf of my life — probably the best I'll ever play," the 44-year-old Elder said Sunday after an almost errorless round of four-under-par 67 had produced a one-stroke victory in the rich Westchester Classic and what Elder called "the most gratifying moment of my life. "I'll never forget this moment. I'll cherish it as long as I live," he said. He ranked this triumph, his second of the year, ahead of the emotionpacked victory at Pensacola, Fla. four years ago which enabled him to become the first black to play in the

"This is a little more significant to me personally," he said.

And there were reasons for it. "I have reached a goal I've been wanting for a long, long time," he

First, he said, the victory gave him entry into the World Series of Golf at Akron, Ohio this fall. He will be the first of his race to play in the World

"And it puts me in position where I have an opportunity to help represent the United States on the Ryder Cup team next year," he said. If he makes it - and he's almost certain to do so he also would be the first black to play in the biennial matches against Britain's best.

"That's something that has been on my mind for a long time," said Elder, who won the Westchester Classic with a 274 total, 10 shots under par on the hilly little 6,603-yard course.

The victory was worth $60,000 from the total purse of $300,000 and pushed Elder's season's earnings to $146,348, the best of his career. Mark Hayes, who was second, one shot back at 275, won $34,200.

"I lost my chances on 17 and 18," said Hayes, who finished his round of 66 about 11/2 hours ahead of Elder. He failed on an eight-foot birdie putt on the 17th hole and left a 15-footer short, dead in the heart of the hole, on the

But he got his score on the board early and put the pressure on Elder, who didn't make a bogey over the final round, missed only one green, the eighth, but made a birdie there, chipping in from 25 feet. "Good fortune smiled on me," he said.

Still he trailed by one shot until dropping an eight-foot birdie putt on the 13th and went to the 18th, a par 5, needing a birdie to win. His threewood second shot slipped off the putting surface to the rough and Elder chipped to about a foot for the tap-in that won it. Hubert Green, who missed 3-4 foot outts on the 15th and 16th, was third at 70-276, followed by Bill Kratzert, 67-277. Tied at 278 were Dave Stockton, who chipped in four times on the way to a 66, Gibby Gilbert, Bob Murphy, Alan Tapie and Dave Eichelberger. Tapie and Gilbert had closing 73s, Eichelberger a 71 and Murphy a 69.

A's absorb tough loss

By The Associated Press

The difference in two swings by Jerry Remy meant the difference between victory and defeat for the Boston Red Sox.

With two on and one out in the Boston fifth inning Sunday, Remy swung at - and apparently missed an 0-2 pitch by Oakland right-hander Matt Keough. But plate umpire Ed Merrill ruled Remy had tipped the ball, which rookie A's catcher Bruce Robinson trapped against the dirt behind home plate.

"It was tough for me to tell, but I think I foul-tipped it," said Remy. "I just turned around and saw the ball on the ground. The umpire didn't say anything, so I stayed there."

Keough said plenty, arguing vehemently that Remy had missed the ball and should have been called out.

Remy's next swing launched a Keough pitch over the righ8t field fence for a three-run homer that carried Boston to a 4-2 victory.

"The guy swings waist high and the pitch is low and outside, so it doesn't who had to be restrained by his catcher from going after the umpire.

"He tipped it off his bat," said Merrill. "If the ball had been caught, it would have been an out - it's that "This is really frustrating," said Keough, 7-11. "We had a chance to go into third place today."

Instead, the A's lost their eighth game in the last nine and remained fourth, seven games behind the American League West-leading Kansas City Royals.

But California lost strikeout artist Nolan Ryan, who suffered separated ribs on his left side and had to leave after pitching seven shutout innings. X-rays were scheduled today for the right-hander, who was invited to watch the rest of the game with former President Richard Nixon in the private box of team owner Gene

"He was worried about my injury," said Ryan. "He's an interesting man and a good baseball man."

John Wathan's fifth-inning homer tied the game for Kansas City, then pitcher Jon Matlack's error led to Royals' winning run. Matlack collided with atcher Jim Sundberg and muffed a popped-up bunt by Clint catch them.' Brewers 2, Tigers 1 Ben Oglivie's RBI double in the eighth gave Milwaukee its seventh victory in eight games.

LaCock wards off robbers

SECOND GAME Pittsburgh ab r b M KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) - One man was critically wounded during a struggle with Royals first baseman Pete LaCock, a former Midland Cubs player, after a robber allegedly pointed a gun at La-Cock's pregnant wife Saturday night and threatened to kill her, > police said. Police said LaCock, his wife and two other couples were walking to their car parked near several discos on Kansas City's south side when they were held up by three men.

One of the robbers shot one of LaCock's companions, Gary Gullickson, 32, of Wichita, Kan., in the armpit during the Police said LaCock Gullickson and Ronald Baldwin, another Wichita man, chased the three more than a block and caught Alex M. Clark,

Dibbs, Jimmy gain net wins

By The Associated Press

Eddie Dibbs and Jimmy Connors are taking different roads to the upcoming U.S. Open, but they were on the same path Sunday.

Dibbs, top seeded, overcame a stubborn bid by Jose Luis Clerc of Argentina, posting a 5-7, 6-4, 6-1 victory in the men's finals of the Canadian Open tennis tournament in Toronto.

The 25-year-old Miami resident broke Clerc four times in the final set en route to picking up 175 points in the Grand Prix standings, moving him into second place behind Connors and ahead of Sweden's Bjorn Borg. "The turning point in the match came in the second set with the score tied at four," said Dibbs, who will compete in the $200,000 U.S. Pro Tennis championship this week in Brookline, Mass., before moving on to the U.S. Open.

"I tried to get aggressive in that game and it paid off." The victory was worth $31,765 for Dibbs, the biggest payoff of his career. Defending champion Marina Marsikova of Czechoslovakia won the Canadian Open women's title Saturday night, outlasting Virginia Ruzici of Romania 7-5, 6-7, 6-2.

Connors' path on Sunday wasn't as rocky as Dibbs. He coasted to an easy 6-2, 6-3 victory over Tim Gullikson in the final of a $75,000 Grand Prix tournament in Stowe, Vt.

The top-seeded Connors treated the near-sellout crowd to picture perfect tennis with driving baseline shots, slashing cross court returns and a strong net game. He didn't lose his service in the match, which earned him a $12,750 check. Connors will now take a week off

Kim Warwick in the doubles final. In other tournaments this weekend, unseeded Rick Feigl of Austria captured the $50,000 International Open tennis tournament in Cleveland, defeating Van Winitsky 4-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Dick Stockton and Erik Van Dillen took the doubles title with a 6-1, 6-4 victory over Bruce Manson and Rick Fisher.

Players get last chance CLEVELAND (AP) - When the Detroit Lions meet the Cleveland

Browns tonight in a National Football League preseason game, the important thing is not who wins or loses but how certain players play the game.

The start of the regular season is only two weeks away, with each team having to cut 17 more players. Both teams, along with the rest of the clubs in the league, have to reach the 50-player limit Tuesday. Most are more must go to get down to 43, then two can be added before the regular season begins Sept. 3. "I could probably come close to telling you right now who those players will be, but it can change," said Cleveland Coach Sam Rutiglian80 There are a number of guys for critical. And there are some areas thing we'll do this year. I've been places where we falled because we didn't properly judge the personnel we had.

"It's also important from the standpoint of establishing credibility with the team," Rutigliano said, "The players will be looking for us to make the right decisions as far as personnel goes. And you can't get caught up in a formula of how many you keep at a certain position. The important thing is to select the best 45." The Browns, 1-1, are coming off a 20-10 victory over the Buffalo Bills in which they showed great progress over an opening 21-7 loss to the New York Giants.

"Now we need to continue that progress," Rutigliano said.

Veteran quarterback Brian Sipe is expected to start for the Browns and play the first half, with rookies Mark Miller and Johnny Evans, battling veteran Terry Luck for the backup job, sharing the second-half duties.

Evans and veteran Greg Coleman. locked in a battle for the punting job, will each kick for a half.

Former Ohio State kicker Tom Skladany finally will make his first appearance in Cleveland Stadium, but it will be in a Detroit uniform. The rookie was a high draft choice of the Browns last year but failed to come to an agreement with them and sat out 1977. He eventually was traded to Detroit for a draft choice, which the Browns used to pick fleet kick re-turner Larry Collins. The Lions, 2-0, have been impressive in beating Buffalo 28-20 and Cincinnati 14-10. The Cincinnati game was particularly important from the standpoint of Detroit's new coach, Monte Clark.

"Two significant things happened at Cincinnati," he explained. "First, we won on the road and, second, we got another good, enthusiastic effort from our players.

"I've been with Super Bowl teamsand we never had any better team feeling than this team has."

Williams signals 'bumrap

NEW ORLEANS (AP) - Quarterback Doug Williams says the penalty slapped on Grambling University shows that the National Collegiate Athletic Association picks on little

"It was a bum rap," last year's collegiate passing leader said. "It's the old question of 'The rich get rich and the poor get poorer.' They're just trying to keep the poor down.

Playing for Grambling last year, Williams led the nation's collegiate passers. Now playing for Tampa Bay of the National Football League, he hit 6 of 11 passes and engineered a third-quarter touchdown drive in the Bucs' 14-3 victory over the New Orleans Saints Saturday night.

It was his first Superdome appearance since he threw for 304 yards and three touchdowns to lead Grambling to a 55-20 victory over Southern last November. He went on to become the first All-America quarterback from a predominantly black school and the first black player ever chosen as a quarterback in the first round of the

After the game, he was visibly angry over the one-year probation handed Grambling for maintaining a small-loan fund for its athletes. "I never got a penny," he said.

"But I didn't need it. "They came down on Grambling because it's small. The big universities never get caught.

"I know some players who went to the big schools and got cars, got whole wardrobes. I know that. They're friends of mine. It's just a matter of trying to keep the poor poor.

"I'll tell you this. It wasn't any $100 involved. It was $10 to wash clothes or buy a bus ticket home.

'I know Coach Eddie Robinson and I don't think he believed he was doing anything wrong. "I knew about the loan fund but I don't think anyone thought it was

The ban on television figures to hurt most, since Grambling expected to share the NCAA's allotment of games to Division I-A with only about three dozen other schools which elected to go into that division.

Grambling became a Division I school only last season. Williams said the move up from Division II may have been what brought Grambling to the NCAA's attention.

The school's vice president, Dr. Kermit McMurry, said the loans were "violations of a humanistic nature" and not an overt attempt to defy the

Robinson accepted the sanctions philosophically.

"I have nothing to be ashamed of," he said. "If Grambling is guilty, the NCAA must penalize us like everybody else. We are going to take the year, live with it at Grambling and do The probation forbids Grambling to what we can after that."

Dibbs, Jimmy gain net wins

By The Associated Press

Eddie Dibbs and Jimmy Connors are taking different roads to the upcoming U.S. Open, but they were on the same path Sunday.

Dibbs, top seeded, overcame a stubborn bid by Jose Luis Clerc of Argentina, posting a 5-7, 6-4, 6-1 victory in the men's finals of the Canadian Open tennis tournament in Toronto.

The 25-year-old Miami resident broke Clerc four times in the final set en route to picking up 175 points in the Grand Prix standings, moving him into second place behind Connors and ahead of Sweden's Bjorn Borg. "The turning point in the match came in the second set with the score tied at four," said Dibbs, who will compete in the $200,000 U.S. Pro Tennis championship this week in Brookline, Mass., before moving on to the U.S. Open.

"I tried to get aggressive in that game and it paid off." The victory was worth $31,765 for Dibbs, the biggest payoff of his ca-

Defending champion Marina Marsikova of Czechoslovakia won the Canadian Open women's title Saturday night, outlasting Virginia Ruzici of Romania 7-5, 6-7, 6-2.

Connors' path on Sunday wasn't as rocky as Dibbs. He coasted to an easy 6-2, 6-3 victory over Tim Gullikson in the final of a $75,000 Grand Prix tournament in Stowe, Vt.

The top-seeded Connors treated the near-sellout crowd to picture perfect tennis with driving baseline shots, slashing cross court returns and a strong net game. He didn't lose his service in the match, which earned him a $12,750 check. Connors will now take a week off before the U.S. Open, which will be played for the first time at Flushing, N.Y., instead of Forest Hills. Gullikson salvaged a share of the glory as he teamed with his brother, Tom, for a 3-6, 7-6, 6-3 victory over

Australian Mark Edmondson and

Kim Warwick in the doubles final. In other tournaments this weekend, unseeded Rick Feigl of Austria captured the $50,000 International Open tennis tournament in Cleveland, defeating Van Winitsky 4-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Dick Stockton and Erik Van Dillen took the doubles title with a 6-1, 6-4 victory over Bruce Manson and Rick Fisher.

Players get last chance CLEVELAND (AP) - When the Detroit Lions meet the Cleveland Browns tonight in a National Football League preseason game, the important thing is not who wins or loses but how certain players play the game.

The start of the regular season is only two weeks away, with each team having to cut 17 more players.

Both teams, along with the rest of the clubs in the league, have to reach the 50-player limit Tuesday. Most are now carrying 60. A week later, seven more must go to get down to 43, then two can be added before the regular season begins Sept. 3. "I could probably come close to telling you right now who those players will be, but it can change," said Cleveland Coach Sam Rutiglian80 There are a number of guys for whom each game and each practice is critical. And there are some areas where we obviously have some determinations to make.

"It's by far our most difficult job," he added. "But appraising the personnel and getting down to the final 45 players will be the most important thing we'll do this year. I've been places where we failed because we didn't properly judge the personnel we had.

"It's also important from the standpoint of establishing credibility with the team," Rutigliano said. "The players will be looking for us to make the right decisions as far as personnel goes. And you can't get caught up in a formula of how many you keep at a certain position. The important thing is to select the best 45."

The Browns, 1-1, are coming off a 20-10 victory over the Buffalo Bills in which they showed great progress over an opening 21-7 loss to the New York Giants.

"Now we need to continue that progress," Rutigliano said.

Veteran quarterback Brian Sipe is expected to start for the Browns and play the first half, with rookies Mark Miller and Johnny Evans, battling veteran Terry Luck for the backup job, sharing the second-half duties.

Evans and veteran Greg Coleman, locked in a battle for the punting job, will each kick for a half.

Former Ohio State kicker Tom Skladany finally will make his first appearance in Cleveland Stadium, but it will be in a Detroit uniform. The rookie was a high draft choice of the Browns last year but failed to come to an agreement with them and sat out 1977. He eventually was traded to Detroit for a draft choice, which the Browns used to pick fleet kick returner Larry Collins.

The Lions, 2-0, have been impressive in beating Buffalo 28-20 and Cincinnati 14-10. The Cincinnati game was particularly important from the standpoint of Detroit's new coach, Monte Clark.

"Two significant things happened at Cincinnati," he explained. "First, we won on the road and, second, we got another good, enthusiastic effort from our players. "I've been with Super Bowl teams and we never had any better team feeling than this team has." Greg Landry and Gary Danielson will do the quarterbacking for the

Williams signals 'bumrap

NEW ORLEANS (AP) - Quarterback Doug Williams says the penalty slapped on Grambling University shows that the National Collegiate Athletic Association picks on little

"It was a bum rap," last year's collegiate passing leader said. "It's the old question of 'The rich get rich and the poor get poorer.' They're just trying to keep the poor down.

Playing for Grambling last year, Williams led the nation's collegiate passers. Now playing for Tampa Bay of the National Football League, he hit 6 of 11 passes and engineered a third-quarter touchdown drive in the Bucs' 14-3 victory over the New Orleans Saints Saturday night.

It was his first Superdome appearance since he threw for 304 yards and three touchdowns to lead Grambling to a 55-20 victory over Southern last November. He went on to become the first All-America quarterback from a predominantly black school and the first black player ever chosen as a quarterback in the first round of the NFL draft. After the game, he was visibly angry over the one-year probation handed Grambling for maintaining a small-loan fund for its athletes. "I never got a penny," he said.

"But I didn't need it. "They came down on Grambling because it's small. The big universities never get caught.

"I know some players who went to the big schools and got cars, got whole wardrobes. I know that. They're friends of mine. It's just a matter of trying to keep the poor poor. 'I'll tell you this. It wasn't any $100 involved. It was $10 to wash clothes or buy a bus ticket home. "I know-Coach Eddie Robinson and I don't think he believed he was doing anything wrong "I knew about the loan fund but I don't think anyone thought it was iHegal. I don't think Coach Robinson thought it was wrong. "Coach is more than a coach. He's like a father. "If he loaned any money, he charged interest because he wanted to teach a lesson — teach that nothing comes free. The probation forbids Grambling to play in post-season games or to televise any regular-season games.

The ban on television figures to hurt most, since Grambling expected to share the NCAA's allotment of games to Division I-A with only about three dozen other schools which elected to go into that division.

Grambling became a Division I school only last season. Williams said the move up from Division II may have been what brought Grambling to the NCAA's attention.

The school's vice president, Dr. Kermit McMurry, said the loans were 'violations of a humanistic nature' and not an overt attempt to defy the

Robinson accepted the sanctions philosophically.

"I have nothing to be ashamed of," he said. "If Grambling is guilty, the NCAA must penalize us like everybody else. We are going to take the year, live with it at Grambling and do what we can after that."
