Girls Place At Regional

Four members of the Robert Lee High School girls track team went to Levelland last weekend when they took part in the regional track and field tournament. They failed to qualify anyone for state competition, but made a good showing.

Leigh Ann Rynnion was third in high jump with 5' 2".

Martha Bickley came in fourth in shot put with 33' 11".

Lupe Munoz was sixth in the 3200 meter run with a time of 13:35.11.

Tracie Fulkerson was eighth in the 100 meter dash with a 13.11.

"These four young ladies are to be highly complimented for their hard work and success this year," said Coach Clyde Dukes. He also had compliments for other track team members who didn't make it to region. Included in this group were Debbie Cummins, Sara De La Pena, Amy Percifull, Diann Gilchrest, Carath Metcalf, Melanie Epperson and Carol Longoria. "They all did an excellent job all year long and are to be complimented," the coach said.

and Sightreading Contest.

The Steer Band earned high ratings, with a Division II (excellent) in Concert Performance and a Division I (superior) in sightreading. The band was commended for its good behavior and nice appearance.

Band Director Mary Grace Ray said she and the band members were well pleased with the ratings. There was only one band, Roscoe, which achieved two Division I ratings out of the eight Class A bands competing. Other bands received ratings from Division II down to V.

1 Dead, 1 Hurt In 2 Accidents

Two accidents only a half mile apart during the past week have taken the life of one man and seriously injured another.

The first mishap was a headon collision about 9:30 p.m. Saturday, April 24, 4.2 miles south of Robert Lee on Highway 208. The collision was between a vehicle being driven north by Bertha Blanco of Robert Lee and another car being driven south by Henry Gabhart. Ted Jackson was a passenger in the Gabhart car. Ms. Blanco and Gabhart were not injured but Jackson is still in the intensive care unit of Shannon Hospital.

Mark William Storey, 30 was killed about 6:30 a.m. 4.7 miles south of Robert Lee on Highway 208. Investigators said Storey evidently went to sleep, hit a bridge railing and went into the creek bottom. He was declared dead at the scene by Justice of the Peace Cova M. Sparks.

Both accidents were investigated by Highway Patrolman Roy Blair and officials of the Coke County Sheriff's Department.

Walker Going To State Meet

Frankie Walker won second place in the regional tennis tournament held last weekend in Levelland. The second place win makes her eligible to compete in the state tournament which will be held in Austin May 7 and 8.

This is the third year in a row that Walker has qualified for the regional playoffs.

She won her first three matches 6-1, 6-0, then 7-5, 3-6, 6-3, and 6-1, 6-3. She lost in the finals 6-7, 3-6.

Saturday is election day in Texas, and Coke Countians, along with other citizens of the state, will elect a group of party nominees who will be candidates in the November General Election.

The campaign for state offices has been a rather lackluster affair, with a noticeable lack of enthusiasm on the part of voters.

However, there has been no shortage of interest in three Coke County elections.

County-wide, the big interest is in the three-way race for county judge. The incumbent, D.W. "Dub" Sims, is asking for a second term in the office, and there are two other candidates would like to take over Sims' job next January. Aubrey Denman, Bronte rancher and retired merchant, got into the race early and has waged an active campaign. The third candidate is W.W.

SANCO ASSOCIATIONS TO MEET TONIGHT

The Sanco Community-Cemetery-Tabernacle Associations will meet tonight, Friday, April 30, at 7:30 in the little white church with the steeple.

A plan for merging the three associations has been completed and will be submitted for vote.

Seven Steers Qualify For Region

Seven members of the Steer track team qualified for competition at the regional level when they took either first or second place in events at the district meet held Friday, April 23, in Rankin. The regional contest will

(Bud) Thetford, former county judge who wants his old job back.

All three candidates have waged active campaigns and a big turnout is predicted because of wide voter interest.

On the east side of the county, more than minor interest is being shown in the two commissioner races. Each contest has three candidates and the campaigning has been heavy the past few weeks.

In Precinct 2, present Commissioner Bobby Vaughn is seeking re-election. He is being challenged by Billy Joe Luckett, Bronte city water superintendent, and by I.B. (Ike) Pate who operates a marina and store at Oak Creek Lake.

A three-way situation also exists in Precinct 4 where the incumbent Jerry Parker has two opponents. Parker is being challenged in his bid for re-election by James A. Tidwell, former Bronte mayor and employee of Union Texas Petroleum. The other candidate in Precinct 4 is Willie Carper, Tennyson ranchman and heavy equipment operator.

Other candidates for county offices who have no opponents are: district and county clerk, Ettie Hubbard, and county treasurer, Jerry Thomason.

Incumbent justices of the peace running unopposed are: Precinct 1, Opal I. Jacoby; Pre-

AKP Celebrates Founder's Day

This year's Founder's Day program was held in conjunction with Alpha Kappa Pi's last business meeting of the year. Fourteen members of the sorority were called to order in the home of Mary Bessent on April 21 at 6:30 p.m. President Beth Prather welcomed two members from the AON Chapter, Ara Burns and Cindy Bessent. Committee reports were given and the business for the past year was brought to an end.

"Circle the World with Yellow Roses" was the theme for the 51st year of Beta Sigma Phi. The theme was carried out by AKPi with a centerpiece of yellow roses encircling a globe which was placed on the member's table along with their place cards and individual programs.

To begin the Founder's Day program, Mistress of Ceremonies, Dwala Casey called on Jeanette Jacobs to lead the opening ritual and Dianne Simpson to say grace.

After a hamburger supper prepared by the hostess, Mary Bessent, the program continued. Nell Hines read the Founder's Day Message sent from the Beta Sigma Phi International Office and Gay Sawyer led the members in the 51st Founder's Day Pledge. The outgoing president, Beth Prather, presided over the installation of officers for the new year 1982-83. These officers included:

Dwala Casey, president; Dianne Simpson, vice president; Evelyn Flanagan, secretary; and Phelan Wrinkle, treasurer.

Next on the program was the presentation of the following awards by Beth Prather:

Program of the Year, Dwala Casey; Girl of the Year, Beth Prather; Perfect Attendance, Beverly Bell (5 years), Nell Hines (8 years), Mary Bessent (8 years), Jeanette Jacobs (5 years),

Dorene Mashburn (8 years), Beth Prather (4 years), Jo Runnion (9 years), Dianne Simpson (3 years), Phelan Wrinkle (2 years), and Gay Sawyer (1 year).

Charms were presented to each committee chairman for their work through the year: Mary Bessent (program), Gay Sawyer (service), Betty Mathews and Jo Runnion (telephone), Dorene, McCabe (social) Phelan Wrinkle (scrapbook), and Beverly Bell (secret sister). Jeanette Jacobs drew for the member's pin raffle and the winner, Dianne Simpson, was revealed by Beth Prather.

The final events of the celebration were: review of the year, presented by Mary Bessent, Dwala Casey, Beth Prather, and Dianne Simpson; secret sister gifts were delivered and revealed by Beverly Bell; and the evening was brought to a close by Evelyn Flanagan leading the members in the closing ritual.

Entry fees for the two-man teams are $70.00. Nice prizes are always awarded for this tourney, and a big crowd expected.

Next scheduled action at the course will be another ABC contest on Sunday, May 2, at 1 p.m.

Founder's Day Celebration Set By AON 50 YEARS AGO

Alpha Omicron Nu held their final April meeting in the home of Ara Burns on May 22. Gay Sawyer was welcomed to the meeting from Alpha Kappa Pi. Final plans were made for the Founder's Day celebration for the chapter members, their spouses, fiance's and friends. The date set is May 1, at 6:30 p.m. at Zentner's Steak House in San Angelo.

Members were reminded of the chapter's plans to host the May birthday party for the nursing home in Robert Lee at 6:45 p.m. May 13. Immediately following, AON members will retire to the home of Sheri Millican for the first scheduled meeting in May. Gaye Williams is to give the program.

Party Honors Ted Haleys

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Haley were honored on Friday evening, April 23, with a retirement party at the Recreation Hall in the county park. The event marked Mr. Haley's retirement after 42 years of service with Sun Oil Company. A group of friends presented the couple with a pair of rods and reels to be used in their leisure time.

A large crowd enjoyed a fish and chicken supper catered by Southern Seas of San Angelo. One hundred-twenty-three guests registered during the evening. Friends from Colorado City, Abilene, Snyder, Dallas and Hobbs, N.M., many of them retired Sun Oil Company employees, attended.

Hosts for the party were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Brasuel and Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Eubanks.

The couple plan to remain in Robert Lee and enjoy their retirement.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris of Burkburnett spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wallace. Mrs. Harris, the former Lura Lowrance, is Mr. Wallace's niece.

That Robert Lee has some real local talent was demonstrated Sunday afternoon when the following American Legion Program was broadcast over Station KGKL in San Angelo. On Hawaiian guitars, Jones Trio; Orchestra, Mrs. Cortez Russell, Woodrow Gardner, and Roy Knight; Quartette, Gilbert Wallace, Emory Davis, Charles Daniel, and Mrs. Wayne Clift; Duet, Mrs. Wayne Clift and Mrs. J.C. Mr. Cecil Jackson (Texas Slim) visited his sister, Mrs. Sam Walker, of Silver the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wallace were pleased with the addition of a fine healthy baby girl to their family this week.

4-H HELPS WITH CAREER DECISIONS

Helping youth with career decisions--that's what the 4-H career exploration program sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, is all about. Career exploration involves a three-step process in which parents can participate along with the child, notes an Extension 4-H and youth specialist. The first step is an awareness of jobs and work. In step two, youth finds out more about salary, working hours, lifestyles and training required of jobs their community offers and jobs of interest to them. The final phase involves developing career interests, in which youth are encouraged to participate in hobbies that will help build skills, to look for part-time jobs and to observe people on the job and possibly work alongside them.

FAT FOR NUTRIENTS, NOT OBESITY

Fat is not all bad. It contains certain components which are important to human nutrition. says a food and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Linoleic acid comes from fat and is essential for certain body functions. Meat, dairy and fish products contain some linoleic acid, but vegetable oils are the best sources. A tablespoon of polyunsaturated vegetable oil in salads, margarine or other foods in a normal diet will satisfy an adult's daily requirement for this essential acid.

ROACH'S

Robert Lee Women Enjoy Picturesque Caribbean Cruise

The group on our recent Caribbean Cruise included Christine Roach, Pauline Vaughan, Olene Sims, Irene Newell and Selva Cowart, all of Robert Lee, and Dixie Faucher of Dallas. The seven day cruise was to Samana (Dominican Republic), San Juan (Puerto Rico), and St. Thomas (U.S. Virgin Islands). Departure was from San Antonio by jet transportation to Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., and after a night's rest there, we were transported to Miami where the TSS Carnivale of the Carnivale Cruise Lines (known as the Fun Ship) was boarded. There is nothing like a Fun Ship Cruise!

Aboard from early morning until late at night, the ship was alive with activity, which started with early morning exercises and jogging, dance classes, ping-pong, golf driving, shuffleboard and skeet shooting. There were games and contests such as men's night gown competition and grandmothers bragging party. There were bingo games, a talent show, masquerade competition, and even horse races. We could be busy every minute, if we chose, or do nothing but relax on the lido (sun deck) or lounge in the enclosed promenade deck. There were swimming, sauna and massage, shopping boutiques, a library, movies, beauty shop, stage shows, dancing, and a casino. Excellent food was served daily at three formal meals and four buffets.

Our first port of call was Samana, Dominican Republic, where we saw the beautiful country side of this unspoiled Caribbean port. The inhabitants of Samana are descendants of U.S. black slaves and freedmen, which through an American underground in the 1820's, were transported to this area. Our first stop on the tour was at the Cayaco Hotel for a typical folk show, and we then proceeded to the Gulf of Arrows where Christopher Columbus was attacked by Indians for the first time. A stop was made in the town of Samana for a short visit to a local native store where amber, straw hats and other souvenirs were purchased.

Our second port of call was San Juan, Puerto Rico, where we saw the old and the new sections of the city. San Juan is a large city with a population of one million people. In the new section there were many luxurious hotels and condominiums, and in the old walled city a visit was made to the ElMorro Fortress which dates back to the 16th century. We made a tour of the Church of San Jose, which is the second oldest church in the Americas. It was most enjoyable to shop in some of the finer jewelry stores. We were told that the economy in San Juan is very bad at this time.

About 25 miles east of San Juan is the Rain Forest where, high in the mountains, 240 different trees native to the area, (only six of which grow in the continental United States), can be found. Over 100 billion gallons of rain fall on the forest each year and it would have been great if we could have brought a wee bit of it home with us.

We attended the nightclub show at the Condado Holiday Inn, which is one of the most beautiful hotels on the island. The show was a Las Vegas type and very enjoyable.

In our next port of call, St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands, our group left the ship on tour buses and were driven up winding mountain roads, where breath taking views were before us. The islands of St. John and Tortola could be seen from the other side of the island. A visit was made to Coral World where we viewed underwater sea life while walking two stories beneath the water level. A visit was also made to the famous Bluebeard's Castle.

St. Thomas's only port is Charlotte Amalie which was crowded with many cruise ships. Duty free shopping was available and many shops along the waterfront and the narrow Main Street were filled with tourists with bulging shopping bags. The wares range from fine jewelry, perfumes, china and crystal, to T-shirts with humorous wordings.

We sailed from St. Thomas at sundown for the home port of Miami. With all the numerous activities aboard the TSS Carnivale, the two days sailing into Miami passed quickly. On the first day coming back, the Carnivale sailed off the Dominican Republic most of the day, and most of the second day we could see Cuba.

On our return cruise the highlights aboard ship were the Captain's Gala Farewell dinner, and the Gala Midnight Buffet.

We docked in Miami just after sunrise, which some of our party were up to see, and after disembarking at 10:30 a.m., we were transferred to Ft. Lauderdale International Airport. After quite a wait, we were flown to San Antonio where we spent the night before returning to Robert Lee.

PROFITS THROUGH WISER MARKETING

Major challenges and opportunities for improving profits in the cattle industry still lie in the area of marketing, as they have during the past decade, contends a Texas A&M University economist. Successful cattlemen use forward contracting and futures markets and are aware of their costs. They know then they can lock in a profit and are willing to do so rather than "be forever gambling on striking it big." Electronic marketing provides cattlemen flexibility and the opportunity to reduce handling and transportation costs. Cattlemen can also organize into county or multi-county associations to sell their calves.

EXTENSION EXTRAS

By Mary Anne Lackey

Many Texans have strong tendencies toward masochism! Obviously, they enjoy pain! If not, why do Texans enjoy, even crave, eating hot peppers?

The jalapeno pepper, first grown in Jalapa, Mexico, adds flavor and color to the American diet. The pleasing flavor along with the heat causes this pepper to be popular as a spice and condiment.

As you gulp down the third quart of water trying to cool your liver after first tasting a jalapeno, you may wonder will you live and what is burning you so profusely. You will probably live. The heat effect is due to a fat soluble, flavorless, odorless, colorless chemical compound named capsaicin. There is no such thing as smelling the strong pepper flavor or aroma. If your nose burns, then the aroma or steam contained capsaicin.

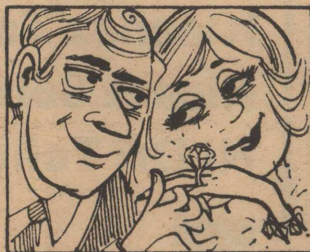

Factors such as variety, geographic location, growing and processing conditions, stage of maturity and location within the pepper fruit influence capsaicin content. Observations by pepper workers indicate any kind of stress (moisture, nutrition, temperature, etc.) on the plant will cause jalapenos to be hotter.

For information and recipes on canning jalapeno peppers, contact the Extension Office.

Mrs. Waldrop said 86 persons have made a personal appearance and voted in her office. In addition, she has mailed out 31 ballots. If they are all returned, the total absentee count for the county will be 117.

Reports from Washington

A Nuclear Weapons Freeze?

The current public debate on a nuclear arms freeze is spreading across the country and prompting a wide range of emotions on the subject. In fact, a recent nationwide poll said three of every four Americans favor some form of freeze on the nuclear arms issue.

The current debate is between those who think freedom can be protected without a credible nuclear deterrent on our part, and those who believe that such a deterrent is necessary unless and until the Soviet Union poses no nuclear threat.

I believe there are several principles at the heart of any proposal for nuclear arms freeze.

First, it must be clearly understood the major issue confronting the world today is not the possession of nuclear arms by the United States, but the defense and preservation of freedom. If freedom cannot be defended through any other means but the possession of a nuclear deterrent by the United States, then having such a deterrent is a political and moral imperative on our part.

In fact, any freeze proposal that would place the United States in a position whereby our deterrent capability would not be credible is in itself a direct, destructive threat to peace.

Secondly, any nuclear freeze must be truly verifiable. The verification procedure has to be one that can actually do the job of verifying a freeze on arms reduction. Anything less simply is not enough.

The third thing any freeze policy should protect inherently is our right to build a B-1 or the MX or the Trident submarine. Any proposals that conflict with this element of readiness are unacceptable.

Additionally, any freeze that does not either directly or indirectly confront the problems of the imbalance of conventional forces now in favor of the Soviet Union is worthless.

Finally, any freeze proposal based on the false idea that the United States is currently engaged in something termed an "arms race" is worthless. It just does not deal with reality.

The Soviet Union has for 10 years or more been outbuilding, outspending us in the strategic nuclear field. We certainly cannot stop our own development or cut back while the opponent continues to move ahead.

For a generation or more American possession of nuclear weapons has been the only thing standing between us and those bent on world domination. Possessing this technology certainly has not made us the enemy of mankind.

No one wants to see the potential of nuclear war reduced more than I do. It is possible that reductions and proper verifications over a period of time could at least address one of the dangers we face. But to say that our possession of nuclear arms in itself is a threat is uninformed — if not dangerous.

Possession of nuclear weapons by the United States at this time in history is the only means of preventing a nuclear war. If we are to proceed with nuclear arms reductions, it must be very carefully considered.

Making certain that the Soviet Union realizes we have a credible nuclear and conventional deterrent to its warmaking machine is the only method to avoid war and maintain peace. Any freeze proposal which adopts that principal is one that I can accept.

We must not allow emotion or lack of information to force us into making dreadful mistakes!

"Shampoo" comes from the Hindu word shampoo, meaning "to press." A good shampoo involves pressing the fingers against the scalp so the original meaning still applies.

FRIENDS:

It is with mixed emotions that I have submitted my resignation as District and County Clerk of Coke County, effective April 30th. I will miss the pleasant association with the county officials, attorneys and those with whom I have worked and been associated with during my tenure in office. Most of all I will miss seeing and assisting the people of Coke County with their business in this office.

However, having worked in this office for 29 years and 4 months I think it is time that I retire and share with others the privilege of serving the people of Coke County in this capacity.

It has been a rewarding experience and I want to thank you, the people of Coke County, for the support and encouragement you have given me, and for allowing me to hold this honorable position for so many years. I will treasure your friendship always.

Sincerely,

Winnie Waldrop

Republican to Have Primary For County

The Republican Party is planning to hold a primary election for the entire county Saturday at the Robert Lee School. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m.

Mrs. Keith (Yvonne) Lloyd of Robert Lee will serve as election judge.

Mrs. Lloyd said Wednesday morning that ballots for the election had not arrived, but she expected them to be here by Saturday, in time for the election.

Dr. Weathers Now Practicing In San Angelo

Angelo Clinic Association will have a new physician in its group this week. Dr. J. Don Weathers has accepted a position with the association and will have his office across from the Shannon Hospital, where he will join Dr. Jerry Schultz and Dr. Sam Gainer in the practice of family medicine. Dr. Weathers moved to San Angelo from Mannford, Okla., where he has been in practice for the past three years.

A native of Robert Lee, Dr. Weathers states that he is glad to be back home with all the fine people that he learned to love in the San Angelo area. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Salvato, live in San Angelo, and a few years ago owned and operated the Salvato Drug store (now Lakeview Drug), where Dr. Weathers worked and met many of the people in north San Angelo.

Dr. Weathers attended high school at Robert Lee and then attended college at McMurry in Abilene, where he graduated with honors (Magna cum Laude). He attended graduate school at the University of Oklahoma, where he obtained his Ph.D. for research involving diabetes and low blood sugar. After obtaining his Ph.D., Dr. Weathers spent a year at the University of Oklahoma as project director of research involving the purification and biological testing of catfish insulin, and he then worked in the cardiovascular department at Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation, where he studied the mechanism by which cholesterol and triglycerides (fats in the blood) are produced to cause disease of the arteries and heart.

Dr. Weathers attended medical school at the University of Oklahoma and has practiced family medicine in a rural area near Tulsa for the past four years. He comes from a very busy practice, where he provided continuous emergency and routine care. Dr. Weathers says he especially enjoys dealing with people in a family medicine type setting.

Dr. Weathers will soon be joined in San Angelo by his wife Mary, who enjoys working as a nurse, and his fourteen year old daughter, Lori.

Dr. Weathers is a grandson of the late Mrs. Daisy McCutchen.

BACK TO THE TOP

Going back to the top of the ballot, Sen. Lloyd Bentsen is opposed by Joe Sullivan, an San Antonio teacher and preacher. Charles Stenholm is running unopposed for United States representative. Coke County will be in his 17th District next year.

Considerable interest has been shown in the race for governor. Apparently the top runners in the six man race are Mark White, Bob Armstrong and Buddy Temple. Bill Hobby is opposed by Troy Skates for lieutenant governor.

Four candidates are running for attorney general: Jack Ogg, John Hannah, Jim Mattox and Max Sherman. Bob Bullock has little opposition in his bid for re-election as comptroller of public accounts.

State Treasurer Warren G. Harding has had some problems, but appears to be leading John R. Cutright, Lane Denton and Ann Richard.

A fairly hot race is expected for commissioner of general land office. Sen. Pete Snelson of Midland is the favorite in this area, but he has three opponents in Dan Kubiak, George Fore and Garry Mauro. Reagan Brown, commissioner of agriculture, is opposed by Jim Hightower, James. E. (Jim) Nugent should have little difficulty defeating Ralph Pacheco for railroad commissioner.

STATE SENATOR

Voters of this area will elect a new state senator this year to take the place of Pete Snelson. Bill Sims, well known ranchman and agriculture leader from Paint Rock, is opposed by W.B. "Bill" Rubey.

Coke County will be in a new state representative district next year. They will have a choice between the incumbent Dick Burnett and Ray O. Hernandez to serve as their representative.

Curly Hays and Jewell Harris are on the ballot for members of the State Board of Education.

Voters will have a maze of candidates to choose from for various judicial positions which will be open this year. Places on the ballot include supreme court justices, and justices for various courts of appeal. Voters have been urged to exercise care in voting for these positions simply because of name familiarity.

Voters also will vote for county and precinct chairmen for the Democratic party.

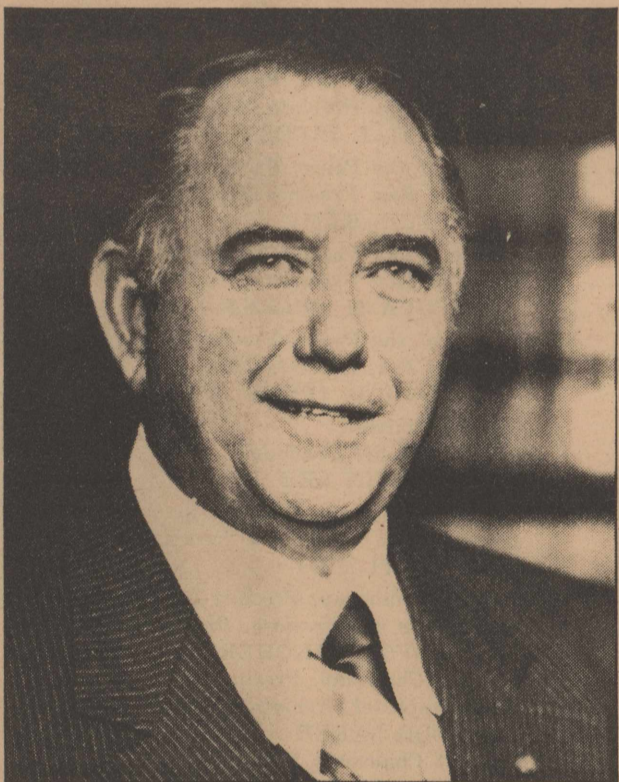

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. and party officials urged everyone to get out and vote.

POLLING PLACES ARE LISTED

County Democratic Martin Lee said this week that six polling places will be open Saturday in the county for the Democratic Party Primary. Precinct chairmen will serve as election judges. Below is some information concerning the elections:

| Precinct 1: Rec Hall, Robert Lee | Patti Ivey |

WHY CONTROL BRUSH?

One of the main reasons for controlling or managing brush should be to grow more grass and other desirable forage. Hand-in-hand with brush control goes land management to encourage grass production. This means resting the land from grazing during the first growing season following treatment so that grasses can improve in vigor and produce seeds and seedlings can become established. Increasing the stocking rate immediately after controlling brush is the most destructive thing that can be done for range improvement, emphasizes a range specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Thomas Edison and his staff at Menlo Park invented something new every ten days.

Sims Heads Foster Parents

Coke County Judge D.W. Sims was elected chairman of the board of directors of the Rural Foster Parents Association of the Concho Valley area at a meeting Tuesday morning. Sims succeeds Buck James of Tennyson as head of the group.

The association works hand in hand with Child Protective Services to provide protection and care for children of the area who are abused and need help.

Judge Sims said the need for services in the child care area is tremendous and anybody who is interested is urged to join and become foster parents.

Judge Sims said James' resignation was a blow to the association "for he has done an outstanding job in helping a great many abused and needy children."

THANK YOU FOR YOUR MANY COURTESIES

I am extremely grateful that I am able to seek the office of County and District Clerk unopposed.

I have made an effort to contact each of you personally during my campaign. I appreciate very much your courtesy and words of encouragement when I visited with you in your homes.

Church Aids Catholic Mission

When Father George May, pastor of St. Anthony's Parish in Hoopeston, Ill., showed his parishioners a brief notice in Extension Magazine concerning a small mission in Robert Lee, Texas needing help, they responded in an extraordinary gesture of faith and love. A number of usable sanctuary items, including a president's chair and servers' benches, candle holders, vestments and a holy water font no longer used by the congregation were packed--and delivered to Our Lady of Guadalupe Mission in Robert Lee. These items will be used in the congregation's new church now under construction.

Delivered personally, that is, members of the parish drove a van all the way from Hoopeston to Robert Lee with their generous cargo.

Two days after Easter, Ernie Linares and Pedro Zarate--having begun their trip in the midst of a snowstorm--arrived in 90 degree weather in Texas to make the delivery to Father Mark Woodruff, priest-in-charge of the mission. The items were gratefully received and are already in use in the congregation's present church building.

Unique bonds unite the two parishes. A number of families in the Hoopeston parish are Mexican-American, having come to Illinois in the migrant stream flowing from Texas to the midwest. Both Linares and Zarate are natives of Texas who settled with their families in Illinois in the 1960's.

The Robert Lee mission is predominantly Mexican-American.

Parishioners in Robert Lee have expressed great appreciation to the Hoopeston parish for sharing, and they are amazed and highly pleased that fellow Catholics would willingly sacrifice so much time and energy to help them.

GOLF CLUB TO MEET

Tuesday, May 4, at 7:30 p.m. is the scheduled monthly meeting for the Mountain Creek Golf Club. Members are urged to attend these business meetings, conducted at the clubhouse near the course entrance.

Mrs. Roy Epperson spent several days in Dallas last week to be with her mother, Mrs. Docia Mae Feaster of Italy, who underwent major surgery there. Mrs. Feaster is slightly improved but will be hospitalized for some time yet.

Her son-in-law, Rev. Roy Epperson, who has been conducting a week-long revival meeting near Conroe, plans to spend some time this week with her to allow Mrs. Epperson to return to her teaching duties.

Critter Nips Petunias In City Park

City Councilman Wilson Bryan, groundskeeper for the city mini-park at 7th St. and Austin, reported that Robert Lee may have a creature to rival San Angelo's monster who wades the Concho River. This one, possibly from the Colorado River, munches away nightly on all the freshly planted petunias, right in the very heart of the city. He related "the diner doesn't care for marigolds."

In a more serious vein, the little park has brightened an eyesore lot for all downtown to enjoy and everyone who has had a part in it is appreciated.
