Some of the main items were to consider the 1990 budget, and to set tax rates. This was accomplished in early afternoon, with the commissioners adopting a budget which was amended and revised, including an additional $1,750 for the Agency on Aging to add to a secretary's staff; increasing the ambulance service budget from $116,000 to $118,-000; adding $15,000 to Precinct Three Commissioner Joe Kindle for road surfacing materials and adding back in a three percent raise for fulltime EMT's at the Bailey, County Ambulance Service which had been removed from the original budget.

Several additional cuts were made in the ambulance service, including the part-time medics, or volunteers, whose budget last year was $18,600. This was cut to $6,000 for 1990.

Benefits for office workers were cut from $16,113.95 last year to $13,793 for 1990.

Fuel for the ambulance was cut from $4,250 to $4,000 and linen service was cut from $250 to $150 per year and the paramedic budget was cut from $36,600 to $24,600. Also, workers' comp for para/medics was cut from $3,200 to $1,000 for the year.

Telephone went from $1,650 Saturday will be the time the per year to $1,800 and out of county travel/training was inommission went from $3,000 to $4,000.

Significantly, the director's salary was reduced from $21,600 to $18,000 per year.

Starla Ellis, who has been with the Bailey County EMS for the past five or more years, also visited with commissioners, and told them "someone needs to be in charge." She said decisions needed to be made and there was no one in charge to make them.

Bailey County Judge Jim Watson said he could be called at any hour to solve problems -- and Mrs. Ellis asked, "At 4 in the morning when the gas pumps won't work?" He said "Yes," so he will be in charge until September 25 when the new director is expected to take over.

Employed as director of the ambulance service was Joyce Harp of Big Spring. However, Judge Watson told commissioners if they accepted her application they would have to employ her husband as an EMT as they came as a "package deal."

The commissioners agreed and the couple was employed.

Mrs. Harp is currently employed in an office for the City of Big Spring, and her husband, Jerry, who is the son of Ed and Lucille Harp, told The Journal he is manager of the bakery at Furr Food in Big Spring.

Mrs. Harp said she became a paramedic two years ago, but has not worked for an ambulance service for two years. She said she formerly was employed by the Monahans Ambulance Service, and received her paramedic training at Midland and Odessa. She is to take over the ambulance service as director on Monday, September 25. Judge Watson also told commissioners that he had been told by the county attorney, Linda Elder, that the county could not lease an ambulance to the Muleshoe Area Hospital District. After reviewing departmental reports and paying county bills, the commissioners made a budget amendment to FY 1989 budget, then called Glen Williams into the commissioners court to discuss sheriff deputies who had served in past years in southern Bailey County. MAC Group Asking For City Clean-up

From ail indications, the MAC Buck Christmas drawing will be "the biggest ever" and record amounts of MAC Bucks will be awarded several lucky winners in the Saturday, December 23 drawing at the Bailey County Civic Center.

Meeting Tuesday night, the MAC committee heard financial reports, and found they would probably be giving more than $1,000 to the first place winner in the Christmas drawing.

But, before the Christmas drawing, a special Thanksgiving drawing will be held on Saturday, November 18, at 2 p.m. in front of Higginbotham-Bartlett.

At that time, turkeys will be drawn for. This year, the turkeys will be limited to one per family. and more than 30 turkeys are expected to be given away at the drawing.

Several reports were given on MAC's Bailey County South Plains Fair booth, with Bill Bruce reporting a very good turn-out of participants for the dart throw and Pop-A-Shot basketball game.

Nearly $300 was deposited, and somewhere around $15 in expenses is expected.

Bob Donaldson said MAC should encourage more individual merchants to have booths at the fair for better participation. It was decided that more 'kid-type' prizes need to be included in the dart throw before it is held again.

A lengthy discussion was held on selling tickets for the pickup which will be given away by MAC and the Jennyslippers in the December 23 drawing.

Harvey Bass, chairman of MAC, said 650 tickets need to be sold by November 1, to pay off the pickup.

According to a report by Norma Bruce, she has encouraged the Jennyslippers to sell more tickets -- saying they are lagging behind MAC in sales.

Each MAC member will have the opportunity, if they wish, to display the pickup in front of their individual business before it is given away. Bill Bruce, Harvey Bass or Kay Mardis can be contacted to make arrangements to have the pickup for one or more days.

MAC members present voted unanimously for Sudduth-Field to conduct the annual MAC audic.

team ladies will have lunch and swim at Carol Delaney's.

On Wednesday, all Team Men will attend the Lions Club, then visit downtown Muleshoe and the Nursing Home.

Out of town trips are scheduled for Thursday, when the group will visit Wayland Baptist University; visit the Heritage Center in Lubbock and have lunch there; visit Reese Air Force Base and shop at a mall in Lubbock.

On Friday, some men will attend the Kiwanis Club meet and at 7 a.m. others will leave for a Cowboy breakfast at Palo Duro Canyon. They will conclude by visiting the museum at Canyon.

Some members may attend the It's Ladies Week As Top Winners In Football Contest

It was 'ladies' Week' for the annual Muleshoe Merchants Football Contest, with all three top winners being female.

The three winners each missed seven games, in what must have been a harder contest, and the tiebreakers had to be used to determine placings.

In first place was Margrethe Taylor, who was only 20 points off on the doubletiebreaker scores; in second place was Kay -Graves, whose husband, John, was second place winner last week. Her tiebreaker scores were 30 points off.

In third was Ruth Malone, who was 38 points away on the tiebreakers.

Each of the three weekly winners will receive a check. Also in the envelope will be a notification for them to pick up their additional prizes at The Journal offices.

This year, The Journals have added a new incentive to enter the weekly contest. The first place winner receives $3,000 int MAC Buck tickets; second place gets $2,000 in MAC Buck tickets and the third place winner gets $1,000 in MAC Buck tickets.

With the big Christmas drawing coming up on December 23. this should be incentive enough for many people to be prepared to enter a lot of tickets and have big chances to win some of the major prizes to be given away by the Muleshoe Activities Committee (MAC).

In an interesting match-up in the East, Syrcause hosts Army. The 9-2 Orange men were 23-10 winners over L.S.U. in the Hall of Fame Bowl while the 9-2 Cadets almost sprung a major upset in the Sun Bowl. However, Alabama survived the Black Knights 29-28. In the Carrier Dome, Syracuse will be difficult to beat. North Carolina State added an exclamation point to its 7-3-1 regular season record with a 28-23 win over Iowa in the Peach Bowl. The Wolfpack plays its third game of the season Saturday, the first on the road, at Wake Forest, N.C. State beat Maryland in its opener 10-6. In last year's encounter, the Wolfpack beat the Deacons 14-6, and State is favored again.

Following a 4-6-1 season they're anxious to forget, the Buckeyes of Ohio State open their season at home against powerful Oklahoma State. The Cowboys led all Division 1-A teams in scoring in 1988 with a total of 522 points - or about 48 points a game. Oklahoma State finished third behind Nebraska and Oklahoma in the Big Eight Conference, but along with their fine 9-2 record, the Cowboys pounded the Wyoming Cowboys in the Holiday Bowl 62-14. The Buckeyes will need a big 1989 turnaround to win this one.

Heart Association Food Festival

The American Association wants you to "trim the fat and cut cholesterol for life" during the fourth annual Food Festival, September 10-16. The program will be held in over 6000 sites throughout Texas including schools, businesses and grocery stores.

Food Festival is a week-long event aimed at increasing nutrition awareness. The typical American diet--high in cholesterol, salt and saturated fats--contributes to the risk of cardiovascular disease, which is the number one killer in Texas and America.

"Eating is an emphasis in today's society." said John Roppolo, chairman of this year's Food Festival. "By helping people learn to select the right kinds of foods, we can help them to adopt a heart-healthy lifestyle. This is what Food Festival is all about."

According to Roppolo, American Heart Association volunteers sponsor nutrition awareness activities throughout Food Festival week. Activities include cooking demonstrations, grocery cart checks, public forums and label-reading tours.

"By implementing the program in schools, businesses, and especially grocery stores, where the majority of food decisions are Heart made, we are educating all types of people about the importance of leading a nutritious lifestyle," Roppolo said.

> Participating grocery store chains include Affiliated Food Stores, Brookshire Bros., Brookshire Foods, Furr's, Gerland's, Handy Andy, HEB, Kroger, M-System, Market Basket, Minimax, Minyard's, Randall's, Rice, Safeway, Skaggs, Sun Harvest, Tom Thumb and United Supermarkets.

For more information about Food Festival, contact the local American Heart Association.

Running stocker calves on wheat pasture?

Now, more than ever, IVOMEC can build your profits.

At this year's beef prices, every pound you put on your calves is worth good money. And with IVOMEC* (ivermectin) you can put on plenty of extra pounds.

Whenever you have cattle on pasture, you're bound to have parasites. And if your calves have been sold and resold before shipping, you can't know what parasites they've picked up. And parasites steal weight.

But one shot of IVOMEC kills 31 different kinds of parasites-more than twice as many as TRAMISOL* and WARBEX* combined.

IVOMEC kills mature and immature worms, so you don't have to use it again in a couple of weeks. And IVOMEC gets external parasites, too. It does it all with just one simple shot under the skin. No wrestling. No Mess. No stress.

Don't just think of what it eliminates, but what it creates.

So go with your best shot. Get IVOMEC.

Minorities Get Percent Of Business

In the federal fiscal year that ends September 30, Texas highway department contractors will have funneled nearly $90 million in roadway work to minority-owned businesses.

The highway department appears headed toward its goal of awarding minority subcontractors at least 10 percent of the work on federally assisted projects in fiscal year 1989. Of a projected $896 million in contracts involving federal aid, an estimated $89.6 million will have been committed to minority-owned firms.

These businesses, owned by one or more women or minority members, are classified under federal law as disadvantaged business enterprise (DBE) firms. The highway department's goal for DBE participation in fiscal year 1990 is 10 percent. The long-term objective is to help these businesses achieve the financial stability and experience to succeed as contractors rather than subcontractors.

Lions Club District Meet Set For School

Monday night, all members of the Board of Trustees for the Muleshoe Independent School District were present for a regular meeting.

After formal opening of the meeting, the first item on the agenda, the Substitute Teacher List, was tabled for executive session, after a board member questioned one of the proposed substitute teachers.

A lengthy discussion was held on the Career Ladder Appraisals before the board approved a list bered that prior to 1945, when he first became a county commissioner, a man served as deputy sheriff in the southern part of the county while Razz Renfro was sheriff. He also said that shortly after he became a commissioner in 1945 another man served briefly in the southern part of the county but, "rubbed the people the wrong way."

He then mentioned Garland Freeman, formerly of Maple, who worked southern Bailey County as a deputy before moving to Muleshoe, followed by Joe Hodge, who also subsequently moved to Muleshoe. He also named another man who served as a deputy sheriff for awhile before and said another man from Stegall was a constable a number of years ago.

Judge Williams said he was not trying to influence the commissioners court in any manner, but had been asked by Judge Watson to explain past experiences with officers in southern Bailey County.

The commissioners then discussed whether or not a constable could perform law enforcement duties in southern Bailey County.

Judge Watson read from a book that a constable "When he becomes elected is a law enforcement officer."

A revision was made in sheriff of 11 appraisers, the appraisal calendar and advance notice of five working days that the teacher will be appraised.

Lion President Carroll Precure attended the meeting to ask for use of school facilities to host a Lions District 2T2 meeting.

He said at least 160 Lions Club members were expected for the Sunday meeting.

In a MISD board meeting on August 31, Sunday use of school facilities was limited to the hours of 12 noon to 6 p.m.

However, a concession was made for the Lions Club to use the cafeteria 8:30 a.m.-10:45 a.m. and again in the afternoon on Sunday, October 22.

A short financial report was given and current bills approved for payment.

Assistant Superintendent for Business Dr. Tom Alvis said current tax collections are at 95.75 percent, higher than last year.

In the board president's report, Howard Watson read thank you notes from the Marion Howard family, the DeShazo staff and Elizabeth Watson.

The superintendent, Dr. Lawrence Ward reported on SPAST meetings for this year, as well as an invitation to participate in the dedication of the new high school at Shallowater on Saturday, September 23, at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Elizabeth Watson, Assistant Superintendent for Instruction reported a very successful in-service and said everyone was excited about the new year.

Enrollment as of last Friday was 1,6331/2 students in the four MISD schools.

Following a break, the board went into executive session for personnel considerations.

Alvis Talks Taxes To Rotarians

Cow Pattie Bingo proved to be a good fund-raising project for the Muleshoe Rotary Club President Terry Hutto said, Tuesday at noon.

After paying Bobbie Harrison, the winner, $550, and paying about $50 for printing the tickets, the Rotary Club cleared $1,300. They also expect to clear some $300 from the Rotary Club Booth at the fair.

President Hutto called on both Max King and Nick Bamert to report on the activities of the Southwest Conference. Max reported a win by Texas Tech, and Nick reported a loss by A&M.

The president noted that the next four programs will be by Barry Cowart, Vic Coker, Jim Crawford and Ray Day.

Scott Campbell was winner of the Polio Plus drawing.

Speaker for the program was Dr. Tom Alvis, Assistant Superintendent for Business for the Muleshoe Independent School District.

The first thing Dr. Alvis told the Rotarians that he was "Mule-Roaded" into being the speaker.

He talked about state mandated salary and pay raises and ed visiting Farwell Rotarians, additional personnel mandated Walter Hughes and Johnny Act-implementing the required 22.1 ratio for classrooms one class at a time in the local schools.

Dr. Alvis explained that some renovations, especially in the science labs in Watson Junior High School will be necessary in order for the school to keep its accreditation.

In addition to the science labs, there will be a new computer lab and a new media center, at an estimated cost of $650,000. He explained that the MISD has a 'pay as you go" policy, but expect to pay for the WJHS additions in two years.

He explained how the tax is being raised to $1.01 for each $100 valuation in order to meet the state-mandated increases and said it will affect the various households approximately $4 per month for an average household. School district expenses are predicted to be $6,699,159 for the coming year, and income is only expected to be $6,170,545, which includes the new tax increase, leaving a deficit of $528,614. This will force the school to go into their reserves, he added.

Texas Wheat Growers Planting Early

Wheat growers across West Texas should avoid early planting to reduce the threat of devastating wheat streak mosaic virus in this season's crop, warns a plant pathologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Several counties on the South Plains and in the Texas Panhandle were hit hard by the virus in 1989, said Dr. Harold Kaufman, the Extension specialist. Potential losses from the virus were overshadowed in many counties by drought and freeze injury losses, he said.

The disease is spread by wind-borne wheat curi mite which is most active in warm weather. Symptoms of the mosaic vary with wheat cultivars, time of infection and environmental conditions, the Extension Service specialist said. Infected plants are stunted, with yellowand green-streaked leaves.

teer wheat, avoiding Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) land, planting later and planting resistant varieties, Kaufman said.

Mites survive the summer on volunteer wheat and various grasses, many of which are used as cover on CRP acreage. Volunteer wheat, the most important host, should be plowed two weeks before planting, Kaufman advised.

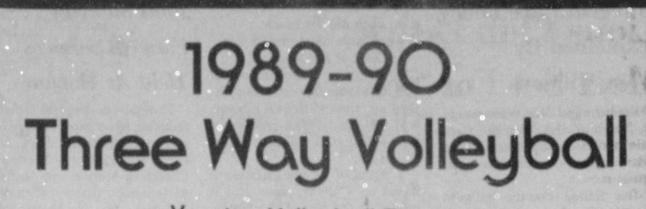

"Planting on the north or east side of CRP acres or volunteer wheat should be avoided, as winds from the southwest will blow the wheat curl mite into the planted wheat," he said. If such locations must be planted to wheat, they should be planted last, he said. Early planted wheat should be placed in safer areas, he said.

"The planting date is very important in controlling wheat Thunderbird, Tam-105 and Triumph 64. Resistance to the mite has been reported for Century. Thunderbird, Tam-107 and Tam-200. The most susceptible varieties are Mustang, Hawk and Centurk 78.

Risky early plantings, especially near sources of the mite, should be to tolerant varieties, the Extension specialist said. More susceptible varieties should be planted last and as far as possible from volunteer wheat or CRP acreage.

"Fall infection is common and most devastating," Kaufman said, "but symptoms rarely show until temperatures increase in the spring."

The wheat curl mite is the only vector of the virus. It thrives on the tender, young growth of wheat and many grasses. Other hosts include corn, barley, rye and oats.

"Mite numbers can increase rapidly in a short time, going from egg to adult in eight to 10 days," Kaufman said.

Distribution of the virus in a field is related to the dispersal of the mite. Margins of the field are the first areas affected.

"The mite is simply blown into fields by the wind," the plant pathologist said. "Since it is only active during warm weather, it is usually warm winds from the southwest that move it. Therefore, the virus usually moves across a field from southwest to northeast."

streak mosaic virus," Kaufman stressed. "Volunteer wheat and CRP grasses provide the vector and virus, but early planted wheat provides the bridge to the entire new crop."

This jeopardizes not only the wheat on that land, but also the crop of downwind neighbors and the entire area, he cautioned.

Planting should be delayed to allow mite populations to decrease. "Ideally, it should be delayed until the first frost," Kaufman said.

Later planting allows the mite and the virus less time to damage the crop. "It is widely known," Kaufman said, "that the earlier the infection occurs in the fall, the more severe the impact on yield.

"Just a week's difference in the planting date can have a significant effect on the severity of wheat streak mosaic infection."

Some wheat varieties have shown tolerance to the virus, he said. Among these are Tam-200,

Indigent Care Policy Explained By Glen Williams

According to Glen Williams, of the Aging and Health Care Services in Bailey County, the following information has been released:

The Bailey County Indigent Health Care Program was instituted September 1, 1985 and is administered under the supervision of the Commissioner's Court.

However, the Muleshoe Area Hospital District was created in June of 1989. At that time, the Hospital District, by law, assummed responsibility for serving that portion of the county that is within the District.

The portion of Bailey County that lies outside the Hospital District will continue to be served by the Commissioner's Court. And, the program is presently administered by Glen Williams from his office in the court house.

Persons desiring to make application for assistance may do so in the court house on any weekday, Monday through Friday, from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. The office is closed from 12 noon-1 p.m. each day for lunch.

Applicants must furnish:

and the values thereof. Basically, they are allowed to own a home, a $1,500 equity in an automobile plus a thousand dollars of other resources.

3. Proof of income. Income is based on a sliding scale and is related to the size of the family. There are two types of income, earned and unearned. There are some offsetting deductions that apply to earned income, but do not apply to unearned income.

Payment for hospital services and medical bills will be made on the basis of rates published by the State.

Applicants will be responsible for all hospital and medical charges above the published State rates.

MICROWAVE TIPS

Just about all foods cook better in a microwave if stirred occasionally. Stir from the outside of the dish to the center.

This is important because the outer edges of foods tend to cook faster in a microwave.

There are some preparations one docsn't stir. Is there anything to be done to help them cook evenly in a microwave?

Rotate the dish several times; it's something that can be if turned over, turn it over. That will help some.
