

C Of C Float Wins 3rd Place In Guymon Parade

Stratford's Chamber of Commerce float won third place in the wagon division of the Pioneer Day parade in Guymon May 2. H. L. Harbour, F. L. Yates, and Delbert Cummings rode in the wagon on which was mounted the bell of the First Methodist Church of Stratford. A sign proclaimed the bell as belonging to the oldest church north of the Canadian river. Bert Slay, Earl Bond, Joe Brown, J. L. Adams, and H. F. McIntosh assisted the trio in getting their float ready for the parade in Guymon. A team and wagon belonging to J. C. O'Brien was used.

Weekly News Letter

By W. J. (Bill) Craig
AUSTIN. — After five weeks of debate, the Gilmer-Aikin school bills have passed the House. Senate Bills 116, the minimum foundation bill, and 117, setting up a minimum school foundation fund from which to pay schools extra state aid on a basis of need, were passed this week. The bills will now be sent to the Senate for final ratification of the amendments added by the House.

An amendment was added to Senate Bill 117 which would give priority to the 15-million-dollar a year allocation for rural road building ahead of allocations for the Gilmer-Aikin school program. This means that the money for road construction would come from the clearance fund first in the event that there was ever a shortage. After a stormy session in the House, the amendment was passed with a vote of 86 to 52.

Governor Jester has signed the basic science bill, completing action on that piece of legislation. As I told you last week, the final bill, after weathering a filibuster in the Senate, included an amendment for the chiropractor-licensing act.

Both houses of the legislature completed action on a proposed constitutional amendment Monday whereby legislative sessions would be called on even-numbered years to consider appropriations. This would not interfere with the present sessions meeting in the odd-numbered years. This amendment would also raise the lawmakers annual salary to $3,600. Texans will go to the polls next September 24 to vote on this measure.

A secret ballot bill passed the House Monday night, and was sent to the Senate for further action. This bill requires that all ballots be numbered in both the upper right hand and left hand corners. The voter would keep the perforated stub from the right hand corner for at least 60 days for a check in case there would be an election contest.

Voters will also vote next September on a proposed constitutional amendment abolishing the poll tax as a requisite to vote. This proposal passed the House Tuesday, and it has been previously passed by the Senate, but must go back for approval of a minor amendment added by the House. This proposal also requires the legislature to set up a voter registration system.

A bill requiring all professors and students in state-supported schools to sign an oath disclaiming subversive activities passed the House Monday. If a student refused to sign an oath, he would be expelled from school. This bill would become effective immediately after the Senate passed it and the Governor signed it.

Fire Fighters Ask Public For Cooperation

Stratford residents now enjoy the lowest fire insurance rate for which insurance is sold in the state. This has been made possible through prevention and control of fires in the city limits. Damage caused by the last three fires in the city limits was confined to $35.00. The fire department asks citizens to help them maintain this record through discouraging the burning of trash in the open, the parking of cars near fire plugs which might cause needless delay, and in cooperating by keeping their premises clear of rubbish that so easily collects.

HOME MOVIES—A FAMILY HOBBY

(By Mrs. Lorel Haile)

A movie camera for a graduation gift was the beginning of our family hobby. At the time, I only wanted a kodak, my knowledge of homies was nil. I had no idea how it even took pictures!

With a little help and the instruction book, I began. The first pictures were of a family picnic on black and white film. It is the most amusing picture I have, even though I ruined the last one-half of the film by not loading the camera properly. I was very anxious to get the film developed. That took about 10 days and then I had to take it to the Camera Shop because of not having a projector. The first time I saw the pictures, I was "sold" on a movie camera and have been ever since.

Today I am more interested than ever in home movies because of their possibilities as a family hobby. From the fun in taking pictures to the thrill in showing them every member of the family can participate.

Because of the many phases of photography, home movies make a gratifying family hobby. Although, not too technical for amateurs, it invites many avenues for concentrated study.

dow ends. Both sills have plants in little pots; one is a blue bird holder which was given me by my favorite sister-in-law. Another plant is in a vase shaped like a woman's head; she reminds me of the fact that I too, can look restful and dignified when my work is done. Another plant holder was given me one Christmas as a gift from my little boy; it is red and looks like a cup and saucer. Two vases hanging on each side of the sill were given me about 15 years ago by a very dear friend; we are still friends so they make me think of her and my mind starts on a chain of thoughts which make tedious jobs pass faster.

Another plant is in a "little pig" pot which has graciously been loaned by my oldest daughter. Last, but by no means least is a small pictured motto given to me from my Grandmother when I was about 16. This hangs on the side of the cabinet next to my window, and I have read it so many times it is engraved in my memory. It goes like this: "This world that we're a livin' in is mighty hard to beat; you git a thorn with every rose—but ain't the roses sweet?"

Home Improvement

(By Mrs. Charles Wisdom)

This is National Home Demonstration Week. Since Sherman County is proud of the accomplishments of its home improvement demonstrators, we'd like you to know about their work, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wisdom have added two rooms to their home; kitchen and bed room. In the kitchen they added all new varnished cabinets, booth and breakfast bar. The bathroom was moved to an outside wall. A hall was placed in the center of the house. A walnut china cabinet was built in the dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Cummings, since moving back to the theater apartment, remodeled a bed room for their little girl, Cynthia. A closet and dressing table were built into the room. The dressing table doubles for a place to store toys. The dressing table doors, closet doors, and head and foot boards of the bed were padded and covered with green leatherette. It indeed, is a handsome room for a little girl.

Mrs. Wayne Harding has remodeled their kitchen and breakfast room completely. They had new built-in cabinets made, a new electric stove and double sink added, plus a new back door. In the children's room, Mrs. Harding removed the half beds which made their room crowded. Army bunk beds were bought and Painted red. A hassock by each bed provides a place for sitting and also doubles for extra storage space. Lamps were placed for each bed to improve the lighting situation. A small high-boy is used to store children's toys. A new picture window in the breakfast room adds light and a cheery place for eating.

These are examples of home improvements which club women have made this past year in their homes.

THIS IS AMERICA

This is freedom—many religions, many races, living in harmony together. For freedom is more than a way of life. It is a state of spirit—and our richest asset.

Under freedom of religion, Americans attend more churches than any other nation. Under freedom of speech, we have more newspapers, more radio stations than any country in the world. Under freedom of opportunity, our children attend more schools, have more chances to succeed in life.

We are only 7% of the world's people, living on 6% of the world's land. Yet we in America have the highest standard of living the world has ever known.

Under freedom of enterprise—you may call it Democracy, or Capitalism—we make just about one-third of the world's goods, mostly for our own use. We drive three-fourths of the world's autos, use about half the world's electricity. Our homes are unrivaled for comfort and labor-saving devices. We eat more meat, buy more clothes, see more shows, own more insurance. We even save more money.

Yes, freedom pays—in the coin of tolerance and understanding, and in the coin of progress and prosperity.

Jesus And Critics
 Lesson for May 8, 1949

DURING JESUS' last week, his enemies were firing at point-blank range. They were dead set to kill him; but they did not want to do that if they could ruin him some other way. What they tried to do was to make him out either a rascal or a fool, or both. Mark's story shows how Jesus took it.

The first question they asked Dr. Foreman sounded perfectly fair. "Where did you get your authority?" As we saw last week, Jesus had assumed simply tremendous authority. Wasn't it fair to ask him where he got it?

The trouble was that the men who asked the questions didn't want to know. They only wanted to heckle Jesus.

The world is full of just such license-hunting snoopers as these. They do not like it when a man succeeds. They particularly do not like it when a man succeeds without their help.

"Who is this fellow anyway? Where did he get his start? What family does he have, where is his diploma?" Jesus never answered this question, because he knew why they asked it. (Mark 11:27-33.)

TAXES
IN JESUS' TIME you could not vote either for more taxes, or less. You paid what the Roman soldier at your door said to pay, and you were thankful not to be poked in the ribs with his sword while you were fishing up the money. But no one dared to complain. The Romans had some deep dank dungeons for people who complained about high taxes. So the next question Jesus' enemies asked him was about taxes, or tribute, which means the same thing. They thought they had Jesus on a spot where whatever he said would put him in the wrong. Suppose he said, "Yes, pay taxes by all means." Then they would snarl: "Boot-licker of the Romans! Traitor to your country!" But if Jesus said, "No, don't pay taxes," then they would howl: "Treason! Police! Arrest this man who defies the Emperor!" Jesus' answer was a masterpiece, because he not only did not dodge the hot question, he did not leave the questioners a leg to stand on. (Mark 12:17).

Hairsplitters by Trade
THE CRITICS of Jesus were hairsplitters by trade. Yet none of them had ever been able to answer another tricky question with which they now expected to flou. Jesus.

"Which is the greatest commandment of all?" The question had been going the rounds for generations. The greatest minds in Jewery had wrestled with it. But it was a foolish question after all.

Which is the most important brick in a wall? What position of a volley-ball team is the most important? What is the most important link in a chain? An answer to these questions would seem about as easy as answering that one about the greatest commandment. Jesus knew they were trying to show him up as a bungler, as a very poor amateurish hairsplitter indeed. But instead, he did what no one expected him to do: he answered their question, and answered it so well that it is one of the cornerstones of our religion today.

How to Take Criticism
THE READER should consult Mark for the whole story. It bristles with practical thoughts, one of the most practical being how to take criticism. All of us can take it from our friends and families; we know they mean it for our own good. But criticism that is unfair, from people who want only to show us up for fools or to get us into hot water—that is hard to take. Jesus should be our example.

He did not let other people's criticisms interfere with his work. He never avoided criticism. He did not "twist the lion's tail," he did not deliberately provoke criticism. But he would not claim exemption from what every one has to stand, being looked over and rated by the people who knew him.

He never broke his heart over what people said of him. He did not go around crying to himself.

Household Hints

Warm your clothespins in the oven a few minutes before you are ready to hang out your washing on a chilly day; this treatment helps keep fingers warm.

A coat of good floor varnish applied over painted floors will give the paint a durable luster.

Inlaid linoleum should be waxed, not varnished.

Rayon sharkskin garments iron easier if put in the refrigerator for a few hours before ironing.

It isn't necessary to remove the purple stamping from meat before cooking—stamping is made with vegetable coloring and is perfectly harmless.

Keep an extra muslin cloth handy when ironing to slip over board before ironing garments which are not fast color; this will protect ironing board cover from stain.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS Truman Signs Bill for Extension Of European Aid Another 15 Months; U. S. Launches Bond Sale Drive

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.

Men Who Found Kathy Remembered by Mail

The men who dug for little Kathy Fiscus, 3-year old who died in a California well shaft, were being remembered all over the nation.

AID BILL: Has Truman Okay

A bill to give 5.58 billion dollars to the European recovery program over the next 15 months—was signed by President Truman.

MR. TRUMAN, as is a quaint capital custom in such matters, signed the bill with several pens—eight, in fact. Even Mr. Truman, himself, was moved to observe jestingly that "this will probably look like a forgery, but it really isn't."

MR. TRUMAN, ever a meticulous man, carefully wiped the points of the pens, handed one each to seven witnesses to the signing, and kept one for Sen. Arthur Vandenberg, who was unable to attend.

CHURCHMEN: UN Asks Facts

The United Nations wasn't heeding protests of Hungary and Bulgaria against its consideration of the trials of Cardinal Mindszenty and Protestant churchmen. Instead, the UN invited the two Soviet satellite countries to tell their stories of the imprisonment of the Cardinal and other clergymen.

THE RUSSIAN delegation indicated the two nations would disregard the invitation, since both Hungary and Bulgaria have contended the trials were internal matters and no business of the UN.

Russia's Jacob A. Malik indicated the two Russian satellites would reject such an invitation and accused Bolivia of violating the UN charter by seeking to invite religious organizations.

To the casual observer, the entire matter was even less than a tempest in a tea pot. Whatever the UN might find as a result of reshaping the convictions of the churchmen—what could UN do about it? The force of UN in world peace retention efforts has been so meager as to cause critics to begin comparing it already with the old League of Nations which died of impotency.

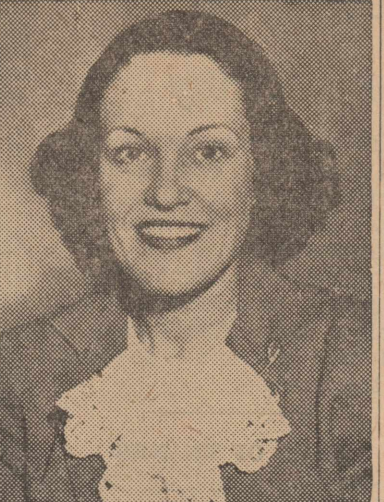

Table with 4 columns: Amount, Percent, Percent, Percent. Rows show various percentages for different categories.

COMPARATIVE BENEFITS... Under present provision of the social security law it is assumed the worker has 10 years of coverage.

ACCIDENTS: Fewer Noted Hope was indicated that the appalling toll of death and injury on U.S. streets and highways might be lessened.

Rural Housing Off According to Senator Fear (D., Del.) some of the nation's worst housing conditions still exist in rural areas—a conclusion familiar already to many Americans.

Lady Sheriff

Mrs. Barkley Graham, weighing only 95 pounds, has become the first woman sheriff of McCracken county, Kentucky, birthplace of Vice-President Alben W. Barkley.

FARM SURPLUS: May Hasten Subsidy

The administration's farm experts weren't being too subtle in a movement to hasten payment of direct subsidies to farmers.

MEANWHILE, the agriculture secretary said consumer prices on pork and milk probably would fall if the administration was allowed to make direct subsidy payments to producers.

OASIS COST: In Billions

American taxpayers in covered employment would have to dig into their pockets to the tune of 3.75 billion dollars by 1955 to finance old age and survivors insurance under the proposals advanced by President Truman and his administration.

CONGRESSIONAL critics of the farm program declare its cost will run into billions of dollars and that it will benefit neither the farmer nor the taxpayer, because, in the end, the farmer and the taxpayer will be paying additional taxes to finance the program.

CANCER: Progress Seen

THE ANNOUNCEMENT was made with the customary caution and restraint of the men who work with test tubes—"reasonably sure" was how they described the test.

REPORT of the university findings was made by Professor Charles B. Juggins, who 10 years ago originated a new treatment for prostatic cancer which has kept more than 25 per cent of the victims alive and well for more than eight years.

DISCUSSING the new test, he said that tests on almost 300 individuals—equally divided into cancer patients, apparently healthy persons, and patients with non-cancerous diseases—proved positive for all cancer cases, negative for all normal persons and negative for all others tested, except those with lung tuberculosis and massive acute infections.

AS MUCH as tuberculosis and inflammatory processes can be readily diagnosed, it was explained, the test was not expected to confound cancer with other conditions.

KIWI: Rare Chick Nature lovers in New Zealand rejoiced. A sturdy male kiwi chick was hatched at the Hawke's Bay game farm, bringing to six the only known existing family of this nocturnal, flightless bird which was thought to be extinct until a few years ago.

FLATTERING FROCK EXPERTLY designed afternoon frock to flatter the slightly neavier figure. The side closing is finished in soft scallops, sleeves can be brief or wrist length.

Hopie Spring Eternal

SPRINGS eternal in the baseball player's breast until around June. Then it begins to wither and fade. But hope springs with greater alacrity in April than it has in some years. At least it was springing in more places.

GRANTLAND RICE baseball as a fan. "Braves, Dodgers or Cardinals?" he said. "Listen, the entire population of Pittsburgh has picked the Pirates to win. I agree with them. Pittsburgh is much stronger than it was a year ago."

DIFFERENCE of 10 games, Bob Chesnes will be even better. Kiner is due to hit better. You can also make a note that Pittsburgh will withdraw every team in the National League as it did a year ago. I mean the Giants, Dodgers, Braves and Cubs.

AND I'm not being comical or funny when I pick Billy Meyer's bunch on top. I don't believe everybody in Pittsburgh can be wrong."

IN THE course of the next hour or so, wandering here and there, we ran into seven experts who had been in Florida. Here are their selections: two for the Dodgers, two for the Braves, two for the Cardinals and one for Pittsburgh.

THE GIANTS? Since this crop of selectors had come up from Florida, they knew nothing about the New Yorkers. But Horace Stoneham and Leo Durocher are being quoted to the general effect that Giant pitching will be quite sufficient, coupled with the power that Giant bats have carried. This means that at least five teams have the "hope eternal" torch blazing these April days.

AND YOU can be certain that the Cubs, Phillies and Reds will supply more trouble than usual, especially if the Reds can shove Ewell Blackwell into the picture. Even without the human pine tree, the Reds are an improved collection of ballplayers. With Blackwell and Vander Meer working, the Reds are a menace.

HERE in April we had five National League ball clubs who believed they could win the flag, and three others who believed they had a chance to move up and win their share of games.

AT THIS spot, the Dodgers, Braves, Cardinals and Pirates are closer than two Scotchmen. The Giants must show they belong with this group.

THE NATIONAL league mix-up this season can be one of the closest races among more teams than any scramble either league has known so far. It could be that way if you study the eight teams that will soon get down to serious work.

THE TROUBLE with 'IFS' The main trouble with "IFS" is that they seldom work out any too well. Bob Feller is a big IF in Cleveland, but Feller is getting along. Even Boudreau is worried over his ability to keep his curve or his fast ball burning. Lemon and Bearden have yet to prove they are 20-game winners over a period of time.

JOE DiMaggio and the Yankee infield have yet to prove they are up to pennant-winning play. This of course, means DiMaggio's fabled heel. To have this heel in shape all season would be a big boon to baseball in general just as much as it would be to the Yankees. DiMaggio has been too brilliant a star to be missed without mourning.

NO ONE can say, this far in advance, that the Red Sox pitching staff will be any better than it was a year ago. Joe McCarthy's spring attitude makes you think everything is O. K., but Hughson, Harris and Ferriss still have to prove they are the pitchers they were in 1946.

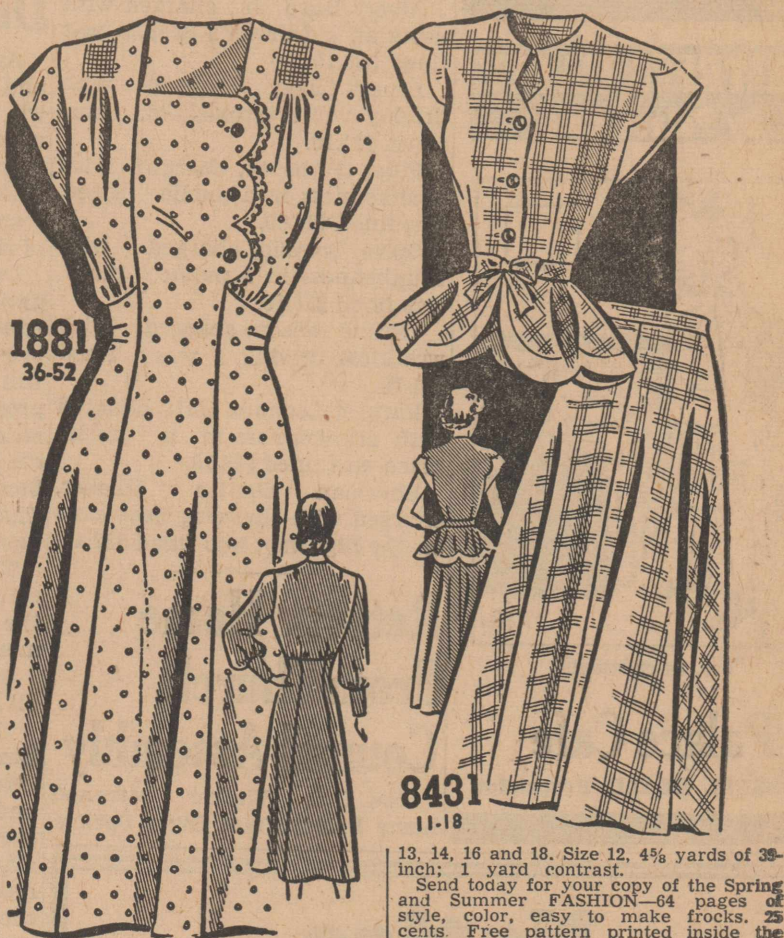

BILLY Meyer is more than worried over Pittsburgh's full and firm belief in a pennant year. In a race such as the National League has on hand this season, Meyer knows his team can play good baseball and finish fifth. He knows the number of good breaks any team needs to win in a race of this type.

BILLY Southworth knows he will need a better Warren Spahn than the left-hander was a year ago. So many rumors of dissension will not be inclined to help his club. Any outfit that would turn against Billy Southworth can't be pennant-minded.

ONCE asked Connie Mack how much of a part luck played in a pennant race. "Less than 3 per cent," he said, "over 150 games.

Truth Serum Being Used To Treat Mental Disorders

NEW YORK. — A new "truth serum" is being used to treat some cases of mental disorders. It is known as perritin. Three Boston physicians report it causes the patient to recall painful memories, intimate personal fancies and delusional ideas. Such information is needed, the physicians point out, for proper treatment.

Drs. Julius Levine, Max Rinkel and Milton Greenblatt, of the Boston Psychiatric Hospital, reported in the American Journal of Psychiatry that the drug had been administered to 75 patients.

The physicians said that when the effects of the drug wore off, the patients were less tense. They felt relaxed. Meanwhile, information about the patient had been learned.

.98 Inch Rain Favors Bumper Wheat Yield

Rains totaling .98 of an inch fell in Stratford and over the trade territory Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

A small amount of hail and an electric storm accompanied the moisture. Street light fuses in Stratford were burned out Tuesday night leaving most of the city in darkness.

Wheat in early planted fields is headed while later plantings are still in the boot.

Moisture in many localities is sufficient to produce an above average yield.
