Kirk McWilliams Writes Home Occasionally

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McWilliams received a letter from their son, Kirk, this week. It was mailed from Japan. They had not heard from their son since he visited here in July while on a furlough from the Air Force.

In his letter, Kirk gave the following account of his experiences:

22 September 51.
Dear Mother, Daddy:

I guess I had better let you folks know where I am as I'm not where I was the last time you heard from me. As it stands right now I'm in Japan. That's a little bit of news I guess. I'll start from the day I left home and bring you up to date.

As you know I left home the 12th of July at 7:00 in the morning and I arrived at Santa Fe at 4:00 in the afternoon of the same day. That night I saw the Santa Fe Traildays Rodeo. I arrived at El Vado at 3:00 the next morning. The 6th of August I received orders to report to Camp Stoneman the 11th of August. On the way to Stoneman I stopped at Oakland, California for 2 days. I didn't do much there except go to a few shows and sleep. The 18th of August I received orders to ship to Japan on the USS Bayfield. It took us 15 days to make the trip across the ocean. On this trip we lost a full day at one whack, but we gained back 6 or 7 hours. I don't remember which. I arrived at Yokohama the 3rd of September but I did not get off the boat until the 4th. I got off at about 2:00 in the afternoon and boarded an electric train. I got off the train about 5 hours later at a base about 17 miles out of Tokyo. It was called Fugie I think. I wasn't there long enough to find out. I stayed there long enough to eat chow and then I boarded a bus bound for Tokyo. When I got to Tokyo I boarded another train bound for Furumaki about 300 miles above Tokyo. I had a pullman but it was made for Japs because it was about 2 inches too short for me. If I hadn't been real tired I never would have got to sleep. As it was I was pretty sore the next morning. I got off the train at about 3:00 the 5th of September. I got on another bus for Furumaki headed for Misawa AFB. It took me about 1 hour and a half to get to Misawa. There I was assigned to the 613th Sqn. From there I was sent to the 511th Group. From the 511th Group I was assigned to the 613th AC/W Sqn. That's where I'm at right now. I'm a CQ runner right now and I'm taking advantage of my spare time to write. Typewriters don't effect my writer's cramp like a pencil does.

By the way send Boyd my address so in case he's in Japan any time soon he might look me up. Tell him my phone number is (Misawa AFB, 613th AC/W Sqn. 2470.)

Say Daddy, I'd like for you to see the saws these Japanese carpenters use. I'll leave a space here and draw you a picture of it.

You'd be surprised at how fast they can saw through a 4x4. I watched one do it one day. I was really surprised at the rate of speed that he did it in. Their scaffold is something else you ought to see. They make it out of poles tied together with grass rope. They build their ladders right into the scaffold. Their tool boxes consists of a sack carried on their back. They carry every tool they need in this sack. It's quite a picture to watch one trotting down the street with that sack on his back.

Something else I noticed first off was that they always lead a horse wherever they go. I have not seen a pair of bridle reins since I've been over here. Even out in the fields they lead their horses. I noticed too that their draft horses aren't as heavy as U. S. horses.

Well I guess I had better sign off, as I get off in 25 minutes, I hope.

Yours,
Kirk.

Scrap Drive Set For October 15 To November 15

Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan asks the Nation's farmers to cooperate in an iron and steel "Scrap Harvest" October 15 to November 15 to help obtain raw materials needed in the production of essential equipment in the mobilization program.

Pointing out the importance of the farm scrap drive the Secretary said: "Our first great need is to obtain enough of the raw materials we must have to keep our defense program going forward in good order, but farmers have a very direct interest in seeing that our mills and foundries have enough scrap iron and steel. By taking steps that will add to the supply of the raw materials which are essential to steel production, farmers will be helping to guarantee more adequate manufacture of the farm machinery and equipment they need."

"Farmers have given generous support to scrap drives before. Production authorities have informed us that steel mills and foundries continue to operate with a dangerously short supply of scrap. They also point out that farms are a good source of the higher grade, heavier types of scrap the mills and foundries need in defense production. I am confident that farmers will meet this vital defense need. We are asking the Agricultural Mobilization Committees to give them every possible assistance in doing so."

The period from October 15 to November 15 coming at the end of harvest season has been selected as a time most convenient for farmers to collect scrap and sell it to dealers or to assembly points.

Pritchard Reviews FBI Work

Ed Pritchard, Dalhart rancher, formerly with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, was the principal speaker at the ladies night meeting of the Stratford Lions Club in the Palace Cafe Monday night.

He briefly sketched the intent and purpose of the organization, and told of its work during World War II. The first assignment of the FBI at the outbreak of hostilities was to round up all alien Japanese. Those who proved themselves to be good citizens were granted their liberties. The next task was the locating of all German espionage agents. This task was almost completed when eight agents were landed on the coast by submarines. They were placed under arrest before they reached their destinations.

He stated that he believed the FBI check of communists in the United States was about completed and that in case of open hostilities the FBI would be able to place them under arrest within a short time.

Prolonged Maize Harvest In Progress

A prolonged maize harvest which is expected to last for another three weeks took on life this week, some yields of as high as 50 bushels to the acre being reported.

Harvest has been completed in a few fields of early maturing grain although operations have been started in only a small percentage of the fields over the entire territory.

Maize in fields that were planted thin has produced sucker heads which will retard combining for at least another week. Maize that was planted thick is gradually maturing.

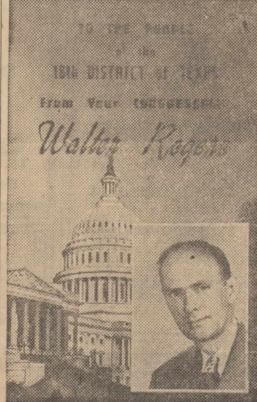

Grain in sandy land still looks green and no combining is expected in these sections for at least two weeks.

Fields of hegari are expected to be ready for harvest in about two weeks.

Custom combines and trucks are available to care for present operations although help may be scarce when the remainder of slowly maturing fields are ready to cut.

Mitchells Return From Japan

Tax Exempt Expense Accounts

The Senate on September 27, by 77 ayes and 11 nays, adopted an amendment to the Tax Bill repealing tax exemptions for the President, Vice-President, Speaker of the House, and Members of Congress in so far as the tax exempt expense accounts of these officials are concerned; the amendment to be effective as of January 3, 1953. You will remember that I introduced this piece of legislation shortly after I was sworn in. The difference between the Senate amendment and the bill that I introduced is that the effective date of my bill would be much earlier than January 3, 1953. Under the Constitution it would be impossible to make any change in the expense account of the President during the term for which he is elected. It is my opinion that when this matter comes before the House of Representatives, the Senate amendment will be adopted. It has been my contention all along that elected officials are in no different category than any other individual in any event, and certainly not concerning tax matters. I do not feel that a blanket tax exempt expense account should be available to anyone, regardless of position, as it could very easily lead to a situation where a great number of people both in public and private life could employ that method as a tax loophole, and the result would be abuses that would be unfair and discriminatory. Fairness and equality in the carrying of the tax burden is an absolute must under the Democratic form of government. There are many loopholes that are being employed at the present time but these are being fast discovered and closed. The sooner all of these are closed the sooner we as individual citizens may expect some lightening of the heavy tax burden that we are carrying.

Drew Pearson Vs. Sen. McCarthy

The great battle of charges and counter charges continues on the Washington front, and one phase of it has shifted from Capitol Hill to the courthouse, where Drew Pearson is suing Senator McCarthy of Wisconsin, and nine other defendants. The case grew out of an altercation at the swank Sulgrave Club here in Washington. Whether or not the Sulgrave Club is swank is hearsay with me, as I have never had the occasion to visit it. I have talked to several of those who were present at the dinner the evening of the difficulty between Drew Pearson and Senator McCarthy and I have heard several stories, all just about alike, except a little difference in detail. The case is now in the pre-trial stage, that is the testimony of the interested parties is being taken. A move was made by the defendants to prevent the proceedings or the testimony so taken to be published. I was rather surprised at this move on the part of Senator McCarthy and the Times-Herald as it certainly would have been at least a limited infringement upon the freedom of the press. The Judge, however, refused to allow the proceedings to be secretive. The testimony growing out of this proceeding is affording the residents of this section of the country some juicy reading material. From the local newspaper accounts it would seem that the entire proceeding is going along on the theory of "everytime you call me a bad name, I'll call you a worse one." It seems that name calling and accusation throwing are becoming fine arts. This would probably develop into a new field for public relations firms. One bit of testimony that caused some furor in the Pearson vs. McCarthy case was that brought out by Pearson's attorney Roberts to the effect that Senator McCarthy's income

Miss Schafer Receives Baking Contest Award

Delma Dee Schafer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schafer of Texhoma, was presented with a Mixmaster beater at the Rural Youth Day program at the Tri-State Fair Association for top honors in the 4-H Better Baking contest.

Miss Rea was also awarded a Mixmaster. All other entrants were given a baking kit.

The baking queen, 4-H, F.F.A. and adult wheat kings were crowned by Rex Baxter, manager of the Tri-State Fair.

Rural youth who attended the program heard Dr. James P. Cornett, president of West Texas State College, say, "You are beginning a great career. Make each day a good day. Make each year a year that you can look back on with pleasure and pride."

The entertainment for the young people was completed by an acrobatic act and songs by Uncle Willie.

Tommy Green In Collision Wednesday

Tommy Green, 6-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Green, sustained lacerations of the forehead and scalp when he was struck by a truck Wednesday evening as he turned the corner on Main Street going east on Third Street while riding his bicycle. An unidentified truck driver was backing his truck from the curb when he heard the noise of a collision. He immediately stopped his truck and rushed the injured youth to the Stratford Clinic. The truck was stopped just in time to prevent the rear wheels from passing over Tommy's body.

His condition is not considered serious although he is sore from several bruises. It is feared he may have a bad scar on his forehead.

Harvest traffic took its toll Tuesday afternoon when the stream of trucks congested traffic on busy highways.

Mrs. H. M. Brown was involved in an accident when her car collided with a pickup driven by a newly married couple on U.S. Highway 54 near the Consumers station.

One unidentified harvest hand was painfully injured when the pickup in which he was riding was driven off the road on Highway 287 at the sight of the bridge about a mile south of Stratford. The driver left the highway and drove into the stream bed to avoid a collision with a truck passing a combine.

Circle Two Meets With Mrs. Buckles

A meeting of Circle Two of the Christian Church was held in the home of Mrs. D. L. Buckles Wednesday afternoon.

The meeting was opened with a short business session.

Mrs. Frank Sutton was the program leader for a study of the needs for new churches in building projects in the cities. Mrs. Archie Arnold discussed a report given by Mr. Newman on the needs of the city churches, the needs for building new churches, and also the question, "What are We As Christian People Going to do About Helping New Churches Be Built?" Mrs. Harmon Lowe told of a place called Pompey. This was the story of a small New York village. This village was a community without a church or preacher and their needs. The story told how a thriving church was built and remodeled for these people and the many blessings they received.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Frank Sutton. Scripture from St. Luke, told the story of a real neighbor. At the close of the devotional a collection was received.

Delicious refreshments were served to eleven members and two children.

Refreshments were served during the fellowship hour.

Western Nations Merged In Asiatic Treaty

The most puzzling aspect of the San Francisco meeting at which the Japanese peace treaty was ratified by 48 nations was the relative mildness with which the Soviet spokesman, Andrei Gromyko, made his protests. Mr. Gromyko is an able parliamentarian and on many an occasion in the past has shown a rare talent for throwing monkey wrenches into the wheels of progress. When he and his large delegation arrived at the conference it was almost universally expected that a first class display of fireworks would follow. But Mr. Gromyko's attitude was calm and academic, by comparison with past performances. He made his objections — all of which were based on the thesis that the treaty was designed by the West as a prelude to World War III — in the manner of a man who was just going through the motions. The other Iron Curtain delegates echoed the boss in the dullest possible fashion.

Various reasons are given to account for this. First of all, the meeting was extraordinarily well organized — even Mr. Acheson's bitterest critics have praised the job he did as chairman. He and his assistants didn't give the Russians an inch, and they were obviously ready to deal firmly and toughly with whatever might transpire. Second, the Russians knew that they had no chance at all to stop the ratification and so, perhaps, Mr. Gromyko appeared just for the sake of the record. A third speculation is potentially the most important, and only time can tell whether it is right or wrong. It is that the Russians have decided that there is no future in diplomatic negotiations, inasmuch as they are sure to be overwhelmingly outvoted at any international parley, that in the future they will ignore such negotiations, and that they will follow a policy of direct action whenever they feel it may be profitable. This, of course, could greatly increase the risk of global war — if the Russians want to take that terrible chance.

In any event, Japan is now back in the company of nations. Signing the treaty, naturally, didn't solve the Asiatic problem. The worst disappointment was Nehru's decision to keep India from participating. Nehru is certainly no pro-Communist. At the same time, he is not pro-West either. He has a strong distrust for all the great powers. And today he must face the reality of militant Red China on the Indian border.

Yet, in the face of all this, the fact remains that 48 nations, despite the many differences in points of view and national interests, signed the Japanese peace treaty — and signed it in exactly the form it was offered, without a single change. Those who follow the Communist line say this seeming unanimity was achieved by the U. S. blackjack. A far more logical view is that, to the contrary, it was the result of a growing feeling that the free nations must submerge their differences and act in concert — that it is a question of hanging together or hanging separately. Russia's clear intention ever since World War II has been to divide the West. But, instead, Russia's very actions and policies may prove to have been the biggest factor in consolidating it. When actual survival is the question, people stop their quibbling over the cut of one's hair and the fit of one's clothes. As the Oregon Daily Journal said in concluding an editorial on the San Francisco and other conferences, "The tide is turning." Shop the ads—Try Stratford first Alert citizens and law enforcement agencies throughout the nation have been requested by the FBI to assist in locating Robert George Thompson, one of the convicted Communist Party leaders who are now fugitives from justice. A description of Thompson is as follows:

ing Thompson is requested to immediately notify the nearest FBI office.

COUNTY OF SHERMAN)
TO THE RESIDENT, QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF SHERMAN COUNTY ROAD DISTRICT NO. 3, WHO OWN TAXABLE PROPERTY IN SAID DISTRICT AND WHO HAVE DULY RENDERED THE SAME FOR TAXATION:

TAKE NOTICE that an election will be held in Sherman County Road District No. 3 on the 27 day of October, 1951, on the proposition and at the place more particularly set forth in the election order passed by the Commissioners' Court on the 26th day of September, 1951, which is as follows:

"AN ORDER CALLING AN ELECTION ON THE PROPOSITION OF THE ISSUANCE OF $125,000.00 OF BONDS OF SHERMAN COUNTY ROAD DISTRICT NO. 3.

WHEREAS, there has been presented to this Court the petition of Ernest Cummings and 41 other persons, representing themselves to be resident, qualified electors of Sherman County Road District No. 3, who own taxable property in said district and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, praying that this Court order an election in Sherman County Road District No. 3, on the question of the issuance of $125,000.00 of Road Bonds, which said petition was heretofore filed in this Court; and

WHEREAS, heretofore on the 10th day of September, 1951, the Commissioners' Court passed an order fixing a time and place for a hearing on said petition, to-wit: September 26, 1951, and directed the County Clerk to issue a notice of such time and place of hearing to inform all persons concerned of their rights to appear at such hearing and to contend for or protest against the order of such election; and

WHEREAS, the County Clerk has heretofore duly executed said notice by posting true copies of said order in three public places within said Sherman County Road District No. 3, and another copy thereof at the Courthouse door of said County for ten days prior to the date fixed for the hearing, and said notice has also been published in a newspaper of general circulation in said Sherman County Road District No. 3, namely "The Stratford Star", one time on the 13th day of September, 1951, which was at least five days prior to the date fixed for said hearing; and

WHEREAS, this Court, having met at the time and place set for the hearing of said petition, proceeded to hear such petition and all matters in respect to the proposed bond election, to hear the contentions for and protest against the calling of such election, and it is found by the Court that the said petition is signed by a majority of the qualified electors who own taxable property in Sherman County Road District No. 3, and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, and that the notice required by law to be given of said hearing has been given; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the hearing held on said date and from the evidence submitted at said hearing, the Court has determined that the proposed improvements would be for the benefit of all taxable property situated in such Sherman County Road District No. 3, and that it is desirable and necessary to issue the bonds of said Sherman County Road District No. 3 in the amount of $125,000.00, to construct said improvements and that said election should be ordered; and

WHEREAS, the Commissioners' Court further finds that the amount of said proposed bond issue, together with all outstanding bonds heretofore issued on the faith and credit of Sherman County Road District No. 3 will not exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of said District; and

WHEREAS, said Sherman County Road District No. 3 has heretofore been legally created by order of the Commissioners' Court passed on September 2, 1949;

THEREFORE, BE IT ORDERED BY THE COMMISSIONERS' COURT OF SHERMAN COUNTY, TEXAS:

2. The metes and bounds of Sherman County Road District No. 3 are set forth in the order fixing the time and place of

"FOR THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS AND THE LEVYING OF THE TAX IN PAYMENT THEREOF"

And those opposed shall have written or printed on their ballots the words:

Devotional Gems

(By N. D. Carter)

We have a wonderful promise given to us in the book of Matthew, chapter 21, verse 22. Jesus told us that "All things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive." Not only is it a wonderful promise but also we were granted a glorious privilege. What Joy it is to go to the Lord in prayer and talk with Him of our needs, troubles, and of all things that confront us in life's journey. The Lord said that He would grant or give us all things that we ask of him if we believe that He is able to do what we ask. If the Lord said this, and He did, then He will keep his word for God cannot lie and cannot break a promise.

Always, however, there is one who will say that he asked of God and did not receive. He will then tell that the Bible is untrue because he didn't receive what he requested. The trouble with this man is that he has never stopped to think that it is himself that kept him from receiving. James 4:3 tells us that if we ask out of selfish lusts then we cannot receive because we have asked amiss. We must be right with God and ask needfully and/or after His glory. How can one expect God to hear when one rejects God in all other ways? If you will not accept God's ways then he will not answer when you call; and if you don't believe this then read the wisdom of Solomon in Proverbs 1:24-33. God gave us

Electric Cooking Is

...as MODERN women KNOW!

Wherever accuracy is required in business, industry, the home, electricity is used. Yes, whether it is synchronizing a nationwide radio hookup, dispatching trains or baking a cake, when you want accuracy and precision, you call on electricity.

When you push the buttons or turn the switches on your electric range, you know that exactly the amount of heat you desire will be on the setting used. You know the heat will be accurate because you know the heat has been measured — measured in the correct amount.

You know, too, that your electric range oven control holds the temperature at the cookbook figure in your recipe, assuring you of cookbook results every time.

Yes, electric cooking is accurate — as modern women know.

A clerk in a miscellaneous store was serving a caller. The manager was at a desk some distance away but he overheard the clerk say: "No, madam, we haven't had any for a long time."

"Oh, yes, we have," interrupted the manager; "I will send to the warehouse immediately and have some brought for you."

The lady went out laughing. The manager turned to the clerk: "Never refuse anything; always send out for it."

"Well, you see," replied the clerk, "she said to me, 'We haven't had any rain lately.'"

Not So Easy Now

A young fellow, a clerk in a store, troubled by the cost of living, went in to ask his testy old employer for a raise. The employer listened impatiently. Finally, he exclaimed: "Why, when I was your age I supported a family on what you're getting now."

"Yes," retorted the young man "but they didn't have cash registers in those days."

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Union Sunday School Lessons

Scripture: Genesis 11:27-12:18.
Devotional Reading: Hebrews 11:1-10.

Wanted: Pioneers!

Lesson for October 7, 1951

IT IS on record that a Virginian in the 18th century wrote to his family that he was moving "to the far west," meaning the neighborhood of what is now Bull Run, Va., not far from Washington, D. C. Well, the "far west" moved and moved, till it reached the Pacific. Beyond that ocean is the Orient, crowded past belief. Where now can the pioneer go? For pioneering is always in the blood of man. Not in every one's, to be sure; there always are contented stay-behinds; but also there always are the restless souls, not content with what has been or is. How shall pioneering instincts have their way when all frontiers are closed?

Un-Traveling Pioneers
THE traveling pioneer has about had his day; what we now need is the un-traveling pioneer.

Such explorers are of various sorts. One is the mental pioneer, moving to new frontiers of the mind. These can be found breaking out new trails in various directions.

In science there are the men whose minds produced X-rays and plastics, the men and women who did the brainwork that lay behind the splitting of the atom; in government the men on the judge's bench, in lawyer's offices or in professors' chairs, who have been and are still thinking out the undiscovered meanings of democracy; in education the men and women who have pioneered in new ways of teaching, such as Dr. Laubach, great scholar and missionary, who has led the way in teaching the "silent billion" to read and write; these are all pioneers of the mind. God send us more!

Moral Pioneers

WE need also pioneers of the moral life. "Time," says a line in a poem by J. R. Lowell which has made its way into most hymn-books, "makes ancient good uncouth." For instance: once upon a time, practically all Christian people supposed that slavery was not only a good thing, but that God had commanded it for all time. Whitfield, a famous evangelist, said that what America needed for its development was more slaves imported from Africa, and more home-brewing of liquor. Today this sounds so ridiculous that it is hard to believe that a Christian could have said it.

Time has made ancient good uncouth. But time alone will not do this. There must always be some moral pioneer, some one who will run the risk of being called "bad" by going out in front of popular opinion.

Between Whitfield's time and ours there have been moral pioneers, notably a Quaker named John Woolman on whose mind and heart God laid the message: Slavery is a wrong.

Pioneers of God

WE need also spiritual pioneers, persons who will move forward to new discoveries of God. For most persons, God is still an "undiscovered country"; and no man can discover God for another, though he may testify to his own discoveries. So in the realm of the spirit each must be his own pioneer; and some men and women, even from sickbeds, unable to walk as far as the door, have made great discoveries of God.

The man who is honored as a saint by three religions—Christianity, Judaism and Mohammedanism—Abraham, is sometimes known for the wrong thing. He may be thought of as a traveling pioneer because he moved several hundred miles during his lifetime. But he was not a pioneer in the "old American" meaning of that word, for the Canaan to which he went was no unsettled wilderness but a well-populated civilized country, and he never owned the land he lived on.

Abraham's pioneering was in the realm of the spirit. We know from Joshua 24:2 that even Abraham's father was an idolater; Abraham moved out from the pagan religion of his father and his people, to the discovery of the One True God. No more important journey was ever taken.

The traveling of Abraham's feet was of little importance by comparison. It was the traveling of Abraham's spirit that has most blessed us all.

Good or Bad?

"I had a mighty queer surprise this morning," remarked the stock broker. "I put on my last summer's thin suit on account of this extraordinary hot weather, and in one of the trousers pockets I found a big roll of bills which I had entirely forgotten."
"Were any of them receipted?" asked a pessimist.

Planted 'Em Himself

"And you say you guarantee these canaries?"
"Guarantee them? Why, ma'am, I raised them from canary seed!"

It's Wonderful the Way

Chewing-Gum Laxative Acts Chiefly to REMOVE WASTE — NOT GOOD FOOD
Here's the secret millions of folks have discovered about FEEN-A-MINT, the modern chewing-gum laxative. Yes, here is why FEEN-A-MINT's action is so wonderfully different!
Doctors say that many other laxatives start their "flushing" action too soon... right in the stomach where food is being digested. Large doses of such laxatives upset digestion, flush away nourishing food you need for health and energy. You feel weak, worn out.
But gentle FEEN-A-MINT, taken as recommended, works chiefly in the lower bowel where it removes only waste, not good food! You avoid that typical weak, tired, worn-out feeling. Use FEEN-A-MINT and feel your "peppy," energetic self! Get FEEN-A-MINT! No increase in price—still 25¢, 50¢ or only 10¢.

Minute Meditation

(By Ferguson C. Pollycutt)
Choose Your World

It matters little whether we live in a large city or a small town, as we choose the kind of world in which we live. This power of selection with which our Creator endowed us enables you and me to live in freedom. We are not ordained to any par-particular way of life. And, thanks to our great American Democracy, This God-given right is protected by human law. And yet, in spite of this Divine gift, we often spoil the life our Lord has given us through poor selection! Wherever we live, it is within our power to choose our friends, to select the places which appeal to us and to decide upon the things we wish to do. Every community is composed of countless small groups of individuals, each one carrying on a life of its own. Regardless of the pace in which you dwell, you move in a particular circle of interest.

You choose your world. I choose mine. Each individual chooses the kind of world in which he lives. And our selections are determined by the kind of world in which we wish to live. Our choices stem from our innermost desires. Our whole attitude towards life is conditioned by what we hold to be most important. Our sense of values is determined by that in which we place our utmost trust and faith. This may be in ourselves, our friends, our money, or perhaps our social position. But it may be in our Creator!

If God is the most important thing to our way of thinking, if He stands at the center of all our trust, we certainly do not need to worry about the choices we make, nor the kind of world in which we wish to live! Indeed, "The Kingdom of God is within you." But, it becomes so only through selection, through right choice!

So, choose your world! Why not choose His world today? (Editor's Note: If you wish Mr. Pollycutt to discuss a particular topic, just mail your request to the "Stratford Star" in care of Minute Meditation."
