Cheese, Fish, Eggs Form Backbone of Your Lenten Meals

HARD-PRESSED for Lenten menu ideas? You have three good protein foods from which to choose. and the combinations for preparing all three are endless.

In addition to being appetizing, the recipes in today's column are so economical, you'll want to keep them on hand for year around use. They'll lift your menus from the dull habits they have a tendency to get into, and will give the family that "something different" which they like from time to time.

There are many different ways to prepare spaghetti, and most of them

*Spaghetti with Cheese Balls

(Serves 4) 1 clove garlic, finely chopped 2 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper ½ cup chopped celery

1/4 cup finely chopped onion ½ teaspoon salt 1/4 teaspoon oregano, if desired

1/8 teaspoon pepper 1/4 cup butter or substitute. melted 21/4 cups tomato puree

LYNN SAYS: Keep Kitchen Running Smoothly With these Tips

Keep your flour sifter in the flour canister or in a paper bag which is tied at the top so that it will not gather grease and dust. If your food chopper has been used, take apart, wash immediately and dry carefully so that food does not harden on it, and so it will not rust. If used infrequently, rub contact parts with unsalted fat and keep in a paper sack. Wipe off fat

Start with chunks of lobster. add a sauce with high seasonings to give it that "deviled" flavor and place in individual baking dishes with a topping of mashed egg yolk. Since everything is pre-cooked, you'll need only to heat this dish through in the oven before serving time.

egg white fine and add to sauce. Fill ramekins, shells or baking dish with mixture Mash egg yolk and use as garnish for the top. Bake in a moderate (375°F.) oven for 15 minutes.

Baked Fish-Cheese Dressing (Serves 4-6)

2 pounds fish fillets or steaks ½ cup shortening ½ cup chopped onion 1 cup chopped celery

3 cups hot mashed potatoes 1 teaspoon salt 34 teaspoon poultry seasoning

6 ounces sharp or nippy cheese, diced Grated cheese Dash of pepper

Salt fish on both sides and place in greased baking pan. Pour a small amount of milk around the fish, but not enough to cover. Bake for 10 minutes in a hot (425°F.) oven or until fish is tender. Mix all remaining ingredients except grated cheese and spread on top of fish. Sprinkle Soak bread crumbs in evaporated | with the grated cheese and return to the oven for about 10 minutes.

Baked Eggs Savory (Serves 6)

¼ cup oil or shortening 34 pound fresh mushrooms cleaned, coarsely sliced ¼ cup flour

11/4 teaspoons salt 1/8 teaspoon paprika 2 cups milk

1/3 cup pimiento cheese spread 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper 6 hard-cooked eggs, sliced crosswise

1 cup small bread cubes 2 tablespoons salad oil 4 drops onion juice

Heat oil or shortening in saucepan, add mushrooms, cover and saute for 5 minutes. Push mushrooms to side; add flour, salt and paprika. Stir thoroughly, brown slightly, then add milk slowly. Stir constantly until thick. Fold in cheese and green pepper. Arrange eggs in shallow, greased, 6-cup size casserole. Cover with sauce. Toss bread cubes in salad oil and add onion juice. . . . Tomato Rarebit (Serves 6) ½ cup minced celery ¼ cup minced green pepper 14 cup minced onion 2 tablespoons fat or oil 2 tablespoons flour 1 teaspoon salt 1 No. 2 can tomatoes (21% cups)

2 eggs Saute celery, green pepper and nion in fat or salad oil until celery is tender. Blend in flour and salt. Add tomatoes. Cook until slightly thickened, stirring constantly. Add cheese, stirring until melted. Beat eggs and add gradually to tomato mixture. Cook on low heat for 2 to 3 minutes. Serve on toast.

1 cup grated American cheese

To sprinkle sugar or cakes, rolls or sweet breads and cookies, use a salt shaker with large holes, and thus avoid messing the pan.

Egg beaters should not be allowed to stand in water, and the cogs should not be put in water to immerse them, or they will not keep in good operating condition.

Tin will rust very easily after it's been in contact with water. For this reason, dry carefully immediately after washing, and if desired place in a warm oven so that it will dry thoroughly.

WATER SPOTS on furniture are those which are white or gray. They may be removed by fubbing with a cloth dipped in water to which a few drops of ammonia have been added. Rub dry with a clean cloth, then polish. Oil of camphor or oil of peppermint are sometimes used for removing water spots on furniture. Rub the spot lightly with this, then dry and apply furniture polish. Finger-marked or sticky furniture will need to be cleaned, a small spot at a time, with a soft cloth dipped in a lather made of mild soapsuds and lukewarm water. Rinse with cloth dipped in clear water, dry and polish.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK Fruit Candy Bars

(Makes 12) 1/2 cup pitted dates, prunes or figs 1/2 cup raisins 1/2 cup nuts

1/2 cup drained, crushed 1 cup shredded coconut

Put dates, raisins and nuts through the food grinder. Combine this fruit mixture with pineapple and 1/4 cup of the coconut. Mix well and mold into a rectangular bar, 2 by 6 inches. Dip a knife in cold water and slice into 12 bars, 1/2-inch thick and 2 inches long. Roll in remaining coconut, then chill and store in refrigerator.

Spilled perfumes or medicines cause stains because they remove the varnish or shellac from the furniture, since they contain alcohol. Wipe off spilled alcohol immediately, and rub spot quickly with fingers or an oiled cloth.

Neglected alcohol stains should be treated as follows: mix lemon oil and rottenstone to a creamy paste. Apply mixture to the stain rubbing in small circles. Wipe immediately with cloth moistened with lemon oil. Place a new coat of varnish over the entire surface. When hot dishes have been set down on unprotected surfaces of wood they leave a white stain. Dampen a cloth with oil of camphor or peppermint. Rub spot well and let dry, then use furniture

Motor Fatalities Under age 65, motor vehicle accidents outrank by far the other causes of accidental death for females. Among girls at 15 to 19, motor vehicle accidents account for practically two thirds of the mortality from all accidents, and at ages 20 to 44 the proportion is more than half. Jesus and the Law

Lesson for April 20, 1952

THE ELKS' CLUB has a constitution and by-laws, but if you are not an Elk you can pass by the clubhouse a dozen times a week and never so much as wonder what the by-laws are. No Elk will think the worse of you for it, either. The laws of the Elks are for Elks, not the general public. The Christian church also has a set of laws posted somewhere in every church building, or at least written in a book you will find in every church: namely the Ten Commandments. People who do not belong to the church sometimes give these laws no more thought than they would give to the Elks' constitution or to the ritual of the Signa Phi Nuthin' fraternity. But that is a mistake. The Ten Commandments are a kind of constitution of mankind, not a set of rules for a private club.

No Ladder to Heaven

HOWEVER, even inside the church, Christians often have mistaken notions about the law of God, particularly the basic laws embodied in the Ten Commandments. Two of these wrong ideas are almost exactly opposite each other, with the truth in the middle. One mistaken idea is that the law is a kind of ladder to Heaven. That is to say: God is supposed to run a sort of book-keeping department, with a Recording Angel (or perhaps millions of them, one looking over every man's shoulder), jotting down everything a person does from birth to death. Every time he acts in accordance with the Commandments down goes a plus mark. Every time he breaks one, down goes a minus mark. At the time of his death the account is balanced. If there are more pluses than minuses, then the man is admitted to heaven; if the minus side puts the man "in the red" with God, then off he is hustled to Hell. In other words, on this theory (which is very popular though false), you write your own ticket to Heaven, you climb there on a ladder of your own good Jesus did not hold to this notion, indeed taught quite the consaid. For one thing, plus-marks do not cancel out minus marks, and for another thing, seen mous Richard Hooker said, "the best things we do have somewhat in them to be pardoned." Jesus, the New Testament, and the church after them, teach with one voice that we are saved by faith,-it is God that saves us, not we ourselves.

with the eyes of God, as the fa-

Love Is No Excuse for Sin

THE mistake at the opposite end of the line is to fancy that if we love God we can do as we please. In other words, the idea is that love is a substitute for obedience. If we just love God fervently enough, then his laws do not apply to us. Now this mistake is just as bad as the first one. What would we say to a man who is a careless driver, and when arrested for hit-and-run driving tells the Judge, "Your honor, I love everybody, I have nothing against anybody, I love my country, and you ought not to bother me with traffic laws!" What could we say about a man who claimed he loved his wife very much but never paid any attention to the common rules of politeness when in her presence? What would a grocer say to a man who owed him fifty dollars if the customer claimed to be such a good friend the grecer ought not to send him a bill?

No: Jesus did not teach that God's children have any right to disregard their Father's will.

Living in Obedience

ON the contrary, a Christian will be all the more eager to do what God commands, not because he fears punishment, not because he thinks he can earn his way into God's love, but because obedience is the way God has given us by which we can sincerely show our love to him and to our fellowmen.

As Cardinal Newman put it: "Justification (the theologians' word for a person's being on right terms with God) is received by faith; consists in God's inward presence, and lives in obedience." To put it another way: Doing what God desires is not the cause of being saved; it is the result of being saved. When we have done all we can, indeed all we have been commanded, Jesus said, we are still 'unprofitable servarts;" we have nothing to boast of, at our best, for our best comes from God.

Heating the Great Outdoors An interesting innovation to protect crops, fruit trees and plants against sudden cold snaps is the new "Frostguard," a generator of infra-red rays. This unique device will undoubtedly save many crops from unseasonable conditions. It consists of a kerosene-burning combustion chamber made of nickelchromium cast iron which, when ignited, casts protective rays over a

Devotional Gems

(By N. D. Carter) There are many in the world that are afraid and cannot find where they should turn. Different people are afraid of different things. There are many kinds of fear. When there is no peace, there is fear. This fear is an unsettled and misunderstanding mind that has a burden that can not be explained nor put away. This particular kid of fear is the most common among men. There are many that have this fear but refuse to recognize it and will not admit it to anyone, and often even to themselves, when they do recognize it. All people who are not Christians have this fear for they have no peace with God. - We know this from past experience and from a study of God's word.

There are, even though it should not be, Christians that have this fear that is caused from unrest. This should not be for God has promised peace to all that will come to him. He will not break a promise, so it is the person that has failed. It may be because he has not accepted some of the basic Bible truths, or more because he does not have a knowledge of all that the Lord has done or will do for him. It can be caused only by a lack of understanding. Paul told Timothy, (II. Tim. 1:7), "For God hath not given us a spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound
