Miss Vida Elliott, missionary on furlough from India, will speak at the Christian Church in Stratford Sunday at 11:00 A. M.

THE ELK — STRATFORD SCHOOL NEWS

First Grade

Miss Staten's Room

Visitors this past week were Mrs. Lloyd Franklin, Mrs. Henry McIntosh, Mrs. Joe Stubblefield, Mrs. Allen Boren, Mrs. Bessie Wiginton, Mrs. Fred Poole, and Mrs. Frank Ross.

June Huggins and Carolyn Harvey each brought a potted plant for us to enjoy for awhile. The other students keep us supplied with cut flowers.

We are learning to read the names of the colors; red, blue and yellow.

The champion Clean Plate Club member this week is June Huggins. Runners-up are Hank McIntosh and Boyd Spurlock.

Mrs. Gates' Room

Last week we learned to read a little. The words we used are Dick, Jane, See, Look, Oh, and Funny. We are really very proud of it all. The 4th week we will learn these words; Baby, Spot, Come, Run, Puff, and Jump. We hope everyone learns the words well.

We are really having a good time and most all have forgotten mama from 8:30 A. M. to 2:30 P. M., but we do have a couple that keep wondering if she'll just come up for a little bit. If you have time, do come, we are glad to have parents visit. We hope they will go around and help us when they are here and see what we are doing.

We changed our room around and have divided the class in groups but we will divide several times this week. We will all be working toward the same goal and in the same book but we will probably all be in different parts of the book.

We do hope you will come to visit us and see what we are learning.

Second Grade

Mrs. Peterson's Room

Last Friday we sang "Happy Birthday" to Roy Finch and Billie Louise Robbins. They celebrated birthdays Saturday and Sunday respectively. A birthday, or the loss of a baby tooth, is of major momentary importance to all First and Second graders. And why not? Both are definite indications of growing, which is our main concern in life.

This week, many of us are going to the Tri-State Fair, at Amarillo. Some in the day time; some evenings. We hope that our attendance record will not be too badly affected. For we are trying to qualify for those certificates at the end of school.

Several members of our class were at the Baptist Church social honoring the teachers and their families last Friday evening. It was a lot of fun seeing our teachers pictured as others see them.

Mrs. Peterson wishes to thank all the nice people for the party.

Third Grade

Miss Ballinger's

Our Arithmetic workbooks came last week. We have finished working some of the pages.

Ann Pronger was absent last Wednesday to attend the fair in Guymon. She entered a calf and it won third place.

Fourth Grade

Miss Riley's Room

The class has been making Safety posters and Health posters this week.

Shela Donelson was chosen by the class for the Quiz Down program in Amarillo.

We have received arithmetic, geography and English workbooks. The class has started working in them this week.

Several students who made 100 in spelling this week were: Cleo Aduddell, Donna Boner, Shela Ann Donelson, Jimmie Gore, James Johnson, Wanda Preston, Dean Roper, John Steel and Andra Faye Harris.

Mrs. Duggins' Room

The Fourth grade enjoyed seeing the flower show Friday afternoon in Mrs. Warden's Fifth grade room.

We have received our new workbooks and are starting in them this week.

We had several students making 100 in Spelling for the week. They are Grovone DeBord, Vicki Gillis, Sue Hudson, Sheila Ingram, Laurina Riggs, and Julia Willey.

Our quizdown students selected by the class are Sheila Ingram and Gary Garoutte. They will represent the class in Amarillo on a radio and television program, October 18.

Fifth Grade

Mrs. Warden's Room

Joe Ray Brown, Gary Mathews, Norveta Bammes, Ginger Brooks, Natacha Morris and Kaye Webb made 100 in Spelling. We need more names in this list.

Our Flower Show was held Friday afternoon. Various Committees are to be complimented on their work which made the show a success. Cecelia Cleavinger, Susan Sloan, Norveta Bammes, Natacha Morris, Kaye Spurlock, Jonna Knight, Ginger Brooks and Dennis Phelps was the lone male contributor. Thanks, Dennis. Our thanks to the mothers and to Mrs. Cummings for their help. Jonna Knight's readings "Lady at the Roder" and "Little Bo Peep's Sermon" were enjoyed very much.

Mrs. Elliott's Room

(By News Committee) We have just finished our unit of work on "Our Community as a part of The Changing World about Us." For project achievement and outcomes; exhibit, and general work habits some very outstanding specimens may be seen in our room. Each of us has become acquainted with a list of trees grown in this locality through the study of plant characteristics.

We dramatized two stories this week, both of them very characteristic of every day living. We divided into groups and the listening group composed the audience for the group participating in action. The Characters in Joe and Josie were: Josie, heroine of the situation, Sharon Mullican; Joe, Josie's twin brother, Gary Dettle; Mother, Sharon Oquin; Father and town barber, Henry Purnell; Members of the Ball Team, Carol Smith, Ida Nell Hemphill, Shirley Sanders, Shirley Robins, Nanfreda Bammes, and Gary Dettle; Play Reader and Manager, Elaine Spurlock.

The characters in Greased Lightning were: The Treasured Pig, Billy Steinberger; Zeek, the pig's owner, Dennis Walker; Zeek's father, Harry Oquin; Zeek's horse, John Sears; The Contest Manager, Glendon Lowe; The Contestants, Linda Brewster, Robbie Jo Burkham, Dennis Walker; Reader, Barbara Ann Lavake; and Play Manager, Linda Brewster.

Shirley Dee Sanders and Elaine Spurlock were selected to represent our room in Quizdown. Several children have brought potted plants which the class appreciates very much. We also appreciate the children who keep the chalk boards and runs clean. The most active pupils in this phase of the work are Carol Jean Smith, Ida Nell Hemphill and Shirley Ann Robins.

Sixth Grade

The class also voted on class dues, which will be used as the class chooses to use them.

We have chosen Mrs. H. Bennett, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Dorch and Mrs. Arthur Judd as home room mothers for this school year.

We are proud of our new American Flag. Also a few new story books.

We want to thank you 22 parents for representing our class in P. T. A. Please come back and bring someone with you. We would like very much to win the prize.

Linda Rhea Taylor was absent from school Wednesday.

We are proud of our football boys. They played at Texline, Thursday. The boys from the sixth grade going were: Jimmie Muir, Jimmie Smith, Raymond Keener and Edward O'Quin. They will play Stinnett Tuesday of this week here.

Seventh Grade

Miss Patterson's Room

Russell Brooks, Joedele Reesing, Cagle Kendrick, Dwayne Plunk, Kenneth Knight, and James Spurlock went to Texline Thursday to play football.

Linda Riffe and Sue Flores have been absent due to illness.

Patricia Newman was chosen from the Seventh Grade to be a cheer leader with Nellie Johnson of the Eighth Grade and Darla Taylor of the Sixth grade. There are 33 members in the Pep Squad now and they are doing well in learning yell.

Christian Church Revival Opens October 5

Rev. Fred Ross, Graham, Texas pastor-evangelist, will conduct a revival meeting at the First Christian Church in Stratford which will open October 5.

Rev. John Reaves local pastor, states the revival will extend through October 11.

Rep. Wohlford Is Lions Club Speaker

Representative Sam Wohlford was the principal speaker at the meeting of the Stratford Lions Club in the Palace Cafe Monday night. Wohlford advocates organization of an underground water conservation district.

Duard Lamb and Harold Oquin showed pictures of livestock in an identification game which was won by Walter Pendleton.

Representative Wohlford presents these facts for the thinking public.

"Would you, Mr. Farmer, as a property owner, like to protect your agricultural production, your income and your real estate values? One of the primary possibilities for causing these losses is Texas' water supply. Present Texas water use is 34 times that of 1890 and almost 2.5 times that of 1940, while current population is only 3.2 times that of 1890 and 1.2 times that of 1940.

The need for water conservation, which has been defined as the wise use of water for maximum benefit to mankind, was recognized by the 51st Texas Legislature and a bill known as the Underground Water Conservation District Law was passed. This law provides for the creation and organization of water conservation districts. It applies only to underground water. Surface waters, rivers, creeks, run-off and the like, are not affected in any way.

One district, embracing 6,315,000 acres and including all or parts of Potter, Deaf Smith, Randall, Parmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Terry, Lynn, and Garza counties, has already been established.

The district is managed by a Board of Directors of five members. The district is divided into five precincts, and one director is elected from each precinct by the voters in that precinct.

The advantages of such a district, according to Representative Sam Wohlford, are that if we set up a district voluntarily, we will have local representation on the Board of Directors. "Already," he stated, "Some folks in other parts of the state, not understanding our underground reservoirs, are claiming we are using their water. Eventually we will have controls, state or federal, if we do not set up our own district. This would probably result in needless trips to Austin, to see administrators unfamiliar with our problems for drilling permits and any other business connected with water conservation."

"What is the first step in organizing an Underground Water Conservation District?"

First, the existence of an underground water reservoir must be determined by the State Board of Water Engineers. The law says that an underground water reservoir is any subsurface reservoir whose boundaries can be determined and which is capable of producing from a well at the rate of at least 150,000 gallons a day. The Board can find out the limits of a reservoir and so designate it any time it wants to do so. But if the Board doesn't get around to a reservoir as fast as the people using the water would like, then they can petition the Board to designate the boundaries of their reservoir. That petition must be signed by 50 percent of the property-owning, resident, tax-paying voters in the area of the reservoir. Or, if there are more than 50 qualified voters, a petition signed by 50 property-owning, resident, tax-paying voters will be sufficient. Once the Board receives the petition it must hold a hearing, and, if the result is favorable, designate the reservoir.

Next, an election must be held to find out whether a majority of the property-owning, resident, tax-paying voters want to organize a district. If the reservoir is all within one county, then the County Commissioners Court calls an election to decide whether a district shall be organized. If the reservoir is in more than one county, then the State Board

Swenys Are Boys Ranch Picnic Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Meritt Sweny were host and hostess to a group of people from the Spurlock Community Sunday who visited Boys Ranch.

They all took their lunch and went to Boys Ranch to spend the day after attending church at the Spurlock Chapel.

The purpose of the trip was to take Hilde Kniessel, International Farm Youth Exchange Student, to the ranch. While at the ranch she met two small German boys that lived about two hundred miles from her home at Stuttgart, Germany. These boys were five and eight years of age.

The group toured the ranch, then met in the chapel where Cal Farley told the history of the ranch, which was very interesting. The tour consisted of the chapel, court house, dining hall, barn, warehouse, dormitory, lake and boot hill.

Those making the trip were: Mr. and Mrs. Meritt Sweny, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Hudson and three children, Jake Meyers, Mrs. Emma Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Spurlock, Jean, James and Elaine, Kay Spurlock, and Donna Fedric, all of Spurlock Community, Carol Sweny, Sunray, Miss Minnie Laura Jackson and Miss Lucile King, County Home Demonstration Agent, of Stratford.

US Highway 287 Association Seeks Convention City

Mel Hallam, National President of the U. S. 287 Highway Association, announces that the executive director of the organization, Tom Manning, has just completed a membership campaign in most of the towns along the route from Dubois, Wyoming to Memphis, Texas. Mr. Hallam said that the response was very favorable and that it appeared now that sufficient funds would be raised this year to finance the construction of four large highway signs to be placed at important intersections. In addition to the highway signs, the association plans to distribute at least a hundred-thousand strip maps, pointing out the advantages of traveling on U. S. 287.

Clyde W. Cox of Lamar, Colorado is Vice-President of the association. G. L. Taylor, Stratford, is Treasurer. W. H. Wright, Vernon, Texas, is Secretary of the association.

Tom Manning says that the officers of the association plan to hold their annual convention early next spring and that the towns along the route who would like to serve as the convention city should notify the national president as soon as possible. The officers will announce the convention city as soon as the selection has been made.

New Equipment
The History room has received 3 large Denoyer-Geppert maps. This is certainly a fine addition for the History department. The typing department has received three new typing tables. This puts the department in wonderful shape, as we have every thing that a school can need to make good students. Now all we need is full cooperation and application of the students time.

Freshman Ag. Club Being Organized
This year for the first time, a freshman Agriculture Club is being organized in the Stratford High School. The fourteen members of the class have just completed a course in parliamentary procedure, in which they did outstanding work.
The President of the new club is Bob Donelson, and the Vice-President is Butch Kirkwood. Other officers will be elected sometime this week.
One of the events that the Freshman Agriculture Club will enter in this year, will be the chapter conducting contest to be held the first part of December. In this contest, officers of the freshman clubs from the Panhandle area meet and conduct mock meetings, handling fictitious items of business. Other events the club will be interested in this year are, the F.F.A. Quiz team, and the Junior Farm Skill contests. These contests will be held at the same time of the above mentioned contest. The Stratford F.F.A. Chapter has won three banners in the Farm Skill department. An organizational meeting for the entire chapter will be held in the near future.

A Secret
Mrs. Belvin has been bragging how well she could keep a secret, she said she had kept her age a secret ever since she was 30. She just kept bragging and bragging so long we decided to see how well she did so we got to talking to her and she finally slipped and said she had kept her age a secret 19 years.

Band News
The band went to Amarillo Monday to the Tri-State Fair. We marched down Polk Street about 19 blocks and there were thousands of people watching the parade. We were very proud to go over and represent Stratford and we hope that you were proud of us. We worked out marching Saturday morning. It wasn't easy either. After the parade we went to the fair grounds and each member was given a dollar to buy their lunch. We remained there until five o'clock and came home.

Everyone had a wonderful time and we hope to make many more enjoyable trips like this year.
Freshman News
The Freshman class decided to have a class party which will be a dance sometime in the near future.
Monday the Band went to Amarillo and nearly all the Freshman class was gone. They said that they had a lot of fun.

Sophomore News
The Sophomore Class held a class meeting September 22, 1953. LaRayne Mitts was elected as our annual representative. Clara Mae Stone and John Wilson were elected for Student Council representatives.

No Name McGaughey
Made his arrival at noon, Sunday, 20, 1953. The students of S. H. S. in order to relieve the anxious parents do suggest following names: Sylvester Ulyses, Aloysiuse Aladando, Mortimer Oscar, Throckmorton Leroy, Clancy Patric, Percy Theodore, Dennis (the Menace), Horace Rudolph, Oglethorpe Cleveland, and Monty Wooley.
WANTED: Any donations either large or small, preferably large, for a worthy cause. The cause, a new car for Coach Duggins. We can see right now that this is to become a two car family. One for the misses husband and one for the missus husband's wife.

WANTED: One winning score for our football team. A great big score, please.
NOT WANTED: So many lessons in typing. Especially those that keep our noses to the grindstone — oops! typewriter.
BE IT KNOWN by all peoples: That from now on I am known as Susaphone Weller. Signed, one weary susaphone tooter.

Wine From The Grape Vine
(By Shirley Finch)
Well, well, what can we say this week? The same problem always confronts me every Monday and Tuesday morning.
There were a lot of Stratford kids at the Amarillo Fair yesterday. Some were: Cynthia Gamble and Jerry Ingram, Jean Cummings and Frankie Hamilton, Helen Finch and James Crawford, Barbara Cates and John Harrison, Jeanette McMathen and Elwood Gillis, Jo Wayne Harding and Johnny Summerour, and Beth Pemberton and Kenneth Wilson.
Jo Wayne tells me that she found kittens yesterday in the bottom of the divan in the living room. Deah deah. Five of them too.
Adabelle and Irene had dates Sunday night with Bob Clifton and J. B. Smith. From all reports they had quite a time.

Pat Taylor, what's this about you going into convulsions everytime the name "Dutch" is mentioned.
By the way Dorothy Bachman, what happened to Bobby Peek of Texhoma?
While we are on the subject Jimmy Ingham, who is this Lotty Combes of Boise City, Oklahoma?

Donald Stone and Homer Boren have been keeping Ealon Davis and Dorothy Bachman busy here lately. New romance maybe?

Keeps its value better than any other car!
Used car dealers report that Fords return more of their original cost than any other car — and there are 41 reasons why:
Take power. Ford's two high-compression engines are real leaders in their class. Ford's the only car in the low-price field to offer you the smooth power of a V-8 engine. And no other car in any field has so modern a Six.
Take build. Ford's one-piece Crestmark body gives you style-setting beauty with rugged "build" underneath. Where many other cars are bolted, Fords are welded hull-tight to keep out rust-causing weather and dirt.
Take ride. Ford's wonderful, new ride reduces front end road shock up to 80%. And Ford's new, more responsive spring and shock absorber action gives you the comfortable easy ride you want without gas-eating extra weight.
Take savings. Ford's economy-minded Automatic Power Pilot saves you money on every gallon of gas. It automatically adjusts carburetion, ignition and combustion to make every drop of gas ("regular" at that) work its heart out.

Miss Kniessel Honored At Supper

Approximately sixty people met at the Spurlock Chapel Thursday evening of last week for a Coffee Can supper honoring Miss Hilde Kniessel, International Farm Youth Exchange Student. Each person brought their coffee can filled with food and they cooked their supper together over an open bed of coals or in the portable fire place made from an oil drum. This was a very interesting experience for many who were there, especially Hilde. After supper the group assembled in the Chapel and Miss Lucile King, County Home Demonstration Agent, introduced Miss Hilde Kniessel. She talked and explained pictures that she had brought with her from Germany. Owen Hudson operated the projector while she talked. Everyone seemed to enjoy the evening very much. People were present from the Spurlock Community, Sunray, Dumas and Stratford.

(By Shirley Finch)
The Senior Class had a meeting last Tuesday and plans for the Halloween Carnival were discussed. We are looking forward to having a good one this year. This year we will have concessions just as they have had years before. Queens will probably be chosen in the near future and the coronation plans got under way. All the Seniors have promised to work hard and as usual we shall have the help of Juniors and Sophomores.

Most of the class took Monday off for a holiday in Amarillo. Everyone that went enjoyed the parade and fair. We think our band did especially well in the parade. Cynthia did a fine job of leading the band for Stratford.

Most of the Seniors enjoyed the Juniors hospitality at a Junior party held in the study hall Saturday night. It started out to be a Junior party only but later on in the evening the other classes were invited. We appreciate the invitation Juniors!

My Second Home In Germany

(By Mildred Bennet, International Farm Youth Exchange student)

The last two weeks of July I spent at my second home. On a rainy morning in July Mr. Baxmann came in his car to take me to his home in Hildesdorf, which is just south of Hannover. Mr. Baxmann's wife is not living so his daughter, Lore, who is 24 years old, has accepted the household duties. An aunt also helped in the home, and the son, Herman, was at home for only a ten day vacation from his Agriculture College in Celle.

I shall never forget my first two days there. On the first day, Lore and Herman and I drove one of the tractors around and around the huge yard. It was a small diesel tractor with a foot throttle and gears like a car. It came as a great surprise when Herman asked me if I would like to drive the tractor. The second day, I went to the field with Mr. Baxmann, Herman and the workmen to watch the beginning of the harvest. At first three men cut a starting place for the tractor and binder with their scythes. I learned to make a bundle that morning and to tie it with the straw, before we started with the tractor.

I rode on the tractor for the first two rounds and then Mr. Baxmann gave me the wheel. I learned very quickly the signals for stop and go. The language difference was about the only thing that made the work difficult at first. I also worked two other half-days, binding the oats, wheat and barley. The bundles were shocked to dry and later carried to the barn. In the winter after sugar beet harvest the grain is threshed.

Besides working in the field, I helped Lore in the kitchen. We baked many cakes and I learned to make delicious salads. We had a large coal stove and a small electric stove. One morning Lore and I started out on bicycles at 9:00 and did not return until 3:30. We rode in the hills and saw a huge park for animals and had dinner in a lovely little cafe. That was all quite a surprise to me because I had no idea where we were going. While here at the Baxmann's I also got to see the city of Hanover, and an operetta in an outdoor theater; I visited a dairy, a sugar factory, and a museum at different times.

Near the last day of the harvest, Lore and I carried dinner to the field with a horse and wagon. A lot of the soup was spilled before we got there, but enough remained for the 4 men to eat. We always have a soup before the main course at dinner.

I had several connections with the community. One was through the school and another through the church. I met the preacher and his family, and one Sunday afternoon my family and I and the preacher went to the church. While Hermann pumped, I played a few songs on the huge old organ. Mr. Baxmann's grandfather had given the organ to the church many years ago.

Also, one night I showed my slides of Texas at a meeting of the Land Youth. This was a group like our 4-H Club, except that the boys and girls met together. At this meeting the district agent was present and spoke to the group and also exhibited some practical work clothes for the girls and boys. Then all sang some lovely songs. These meetings were usually directed by Lore, my host sister, since she is the leader for this group of 30.

By the time the two weeks were over, I had learned much more German. (I find that my dictionary is the most used piece of literature I have.) I had also made friends of the two huge dogs, one a Doberman Pincher and the other a German Shepherd, before I left.

The good byes were very sad on the morning of the first of August when I went to Hannover to catch the train to Munich. I had been very well accepted into the family life at my second home.

The law imposes upon everyone the duty of ordinary care for himself.

Royal Pendleton, Manager Stratford, Texas

Summers, Gerri Heil, Corrine Eller, Helen Buckles, Zola Brannan and Viola Senna.

Leaving Stratford at 7:00 A. M. the first stop was Dumas for coffee. They arrived at the Borger Hotel at 9:06 A. M. for the Area Council Meeting of Beta Sigma Phi, where they registered at a quaint little Hawaiian hut in the main lobby and were presented with name cards and leis.

Then they were separated by members of the four chapters of Borger.

Going to the Palm Room with their respective escorts they enjoyed a lovely coffee and "gab fest" which lasted until 10:30. Then they assembled in the main lobby and from there boarded a chartered bus which took them to the Methodist Church. As they were expecting the group, pews were marked with yellow daisies tied with yellow and black ribbons.

At 12:00 noon the delegates were driven back to the hotel where they assembled in the Royal Hawaiian banquet room for a most delicious dinner of swiss steak.

After the welcome address by the welcoming chairman they enjoyed a lovely Hawaiian dance presented by three girls flown directly from Honolulu for the occasion.

Gifts were presented. Nu Beta of Stratford won a generous cash award for the most active membership of its size. Then the past President of Exemplar Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi in Borger introduced the special guest, Miss Amelia Anthony, founder of Girls Town. She made a most interesting talk, explaining why and how she got the idea for Girls Town, her struggle but determination to establish it, and of its success today.

She thanked the Beta Sigma Phi's for their full support.

At 2:25 the group went to the Legion Hall for a "buzz session" which was much fun and very informative.

At 4:00 o'clock delegates again retired to the Royal dining room for a lovely tea.

At 5:00 o'clock the council was adjourned.

Tired, but with a deep warm glow of a closer friendship with their neighboring chapters and a greater determination to give their best to the local sorority, and Girls Town, U.S.A., the group started home.

Fitting A Ready-Made Coat Or Suit

A trim, well-tailored suit or coat fits comfortably. The shoulders are smooth, armholes have no wrinkles either at the sides or bottom, and the sleeves hang straight from the shoulders with no ripples or wrinkles. According to Miss Lucile King, County Home Demonstration Agent, it is wise to check a ready-made coat or suit for these details and others before any altering is done.

When you try on a new garment, wear the type of clothing to be worn under the suit or coat, and be sure you have the garment on straight. Center front and back lines should be in correct position and shoulders smooth.

Remember, when you alter a ready-made coat or suit, you are limited by style, by the seam allowance, by the accuracy with which the garment was cut, and by your particular fitting problem. If the jacket fits rather snugly through the waist and hips, you may not be able to get perfect fit through the body. If the garment is too small anywhere, through the shoulders or across the bust, or if the sleeves are too short, it would be hard to alter it satisfactorily. Or, if some section, such as the sleeves or part of the skirt, has not been cut straight with the up and down of the fabric, it will never fit you as well as it should.

You may have more than one fitting problem in your suit or coat. Take care of just one at a time, but be sure that you've corrected all problems before you sew the garment together again.

Try on the garment, see that shoulder pads are in place if you plan to wear them in your dress or blouse. Look at the suit or coat from the front, back and sides to judge the fit. Decide what causes the wrinkles if there are any. Lengthwise wrinkles indicate too much width; crosswise wrinkles, not enough width; diagonal wrinkles usually indicate need of shoulder, sleeve or underarm alterations.

Have someone help you fit the garment on yourself, or if you have a dress form use that when pin fitting. Pin in darts, tucks, or deeper seams to see if that will remove the wrinkles. If figure is large on one side, alterations probably will be different for each side.

Rip by cutting with sharp-pointed scissors and pull out thread from each side. Rip only seams, darts, and hems affected by the alterations, as far as needed so the new stitching will be a continuous line where it joins the old. Open seams and hems that are crossed by the seams to be altered, but don't rip pockets or button-holes or collars. If possible avoid them.

If sleeves must come out, mark right and left sleeves, also mark with thread the notches on sleeve and jacket armholes so they can be matched when sleeves are sewed back into garment. Keep shoulder padding, interfacings, bindings for use again, and baste in alternations to try on before stitching. Press flat all ripped seams, hems, and darts before stitching accurately on basting line or on marked stitching line. Trim off surplus seam allowances after stitching and press all seams, hems and darts smooth to give tailored look. Put garment back together again, replacing pads, interfacings, facings, and linings that were removed.

Every 3 days a new diesel joins the Santa Fe fleet!

A 10-year record of "building new" on the Santa Fe

Christened with California champagne, Santa Fe's first multiple-unit diesel locomotive rolled out of Chicago on Tuesday, May 12, 1936.

It powered the first Super Chief.

39½ hours later it rolled into Los Angeles—and the new age in railroading was born.

There were 3600 "horses" in that one.

Five years later, the first multiple-unit freight diesel rolled on Santa Fe rails.

There were 5400 "horses" in that one.

Today, there is more than 2,100,000 diesel horsepower on the Santa Fe—1524 mighty diesel units.

From 1943 through 1952, a total of 1261 diesel units were placed in service. Better than one every 3 days for a 10-year record!

And still they come! 222 in 1953!

Every diesel added, every mile of heavier rail, makes America's New Railroad a little more completely new. Why, enough new rail has been laid on the Santa Fe in the last seven years alone to reach from Chicago to Los Angeles!

All new—but always the old pride that all this building new costs you, the taxpayer, not one tax penny.

of Water Engineers calls the election. In voting, each county votes separately from those living outside of cities, and voters in segregated irrigated areas (irrigated areas separated from other irrigated areas by at least 5 miles) vote separately from the others. The majority vote in each voting unit determines whether or not that particular unit is included in the district. Hansford County has already petitioned the Board to designate the limits of the reservoir. If we are in the same reservoir, we would not be required to petition the Board, but would then have an election.

If the issue passes, the voters then will elect a Board of Directors.

The district's work will be financed by a tax of not more than 50 cents on the $100.00 valuation for the support of the district. In the Lubbock district, 3 cents has been levied in the past, but 5 cents is being levied this year, in order to finance pumping of surface water back into the reservoir as recharge. Drainage alone has been disappointing for recharge purposes.

If a district is organized, it does not affect the ownership of the water under that piece of land.

According to Wohlford, a man holding a section of land unsuitable for irrigation, would not be compelled to enter the district, but usually would do so, in order to realize the benefits of increased real estate values, due to that land being in a water conservation district.

The district will not have the right to take the water from under one man's land and give it to another man. Nor will it have the right to limit the amount of water a man can draw from his well except under certain conditions, such as drawing salt water into the reserves.

Wells which are so built and equipped that they cannot produce more than 100,000 gallons a day do not need permits. In other words, small wells for domestic and stock-raising purposes are not regulated except that they must comply with the waste prevention rules.

If a water-user objects to the actions taken by a district, he can file a suit against the district in the proper court.

The district can not pro-rate water or otherwise force well-owners to cut down on production of water unless the water is being withdrawn at such a rate that salt water or some other harmful matter is coming into the reservoir. Otherwise the district can only recommend but cannot force any limitations on withdrawal of water.

Home Demonstration Club, Mrs. Everett Riggs, President of the Happy Hour Home Demonstration Club, Mrs. Claude Stradley, President of the Lone Star Home Demonstration Club, Texhoma, and Mrs. Harold Bennett, Chairman of the Sherman County Home Demonstration Council, have been asked to appear on the television program. All Home Demonstration Club women, adult leaders and their husbands are urged to attend this tour.

Producers Hope For October Moisture

Farmers are busy saving feed in row crop fields by whatever means they are able to save the row crop which will not produce grain, due to late and insufficient moisture.

Only irrigated fields where producers did not attempt to irrigate too large an acreage are likely to produce grain if frost is late enough to allow the grain to mature.

Wheat over the major portion of the county is up to a good stand as compared to last year when producers were having a time getting sufficient moisture to get a stand. Only in the southwest section of the county come reports that farmers do not have sufficient moisture to plant wheat.

Long range weather forecasts issued about a year ago promised normal rainfall for the plains area beginning to October. Should these forecasts prove to be correct the outlook for a wheat crop in the coming year will be much brighter than prospects were in the fall of '52.

For the first time in many years, 1953 will go down in history as a total crop failure in Sherman County in dry land farming.
