Davis Motor To Unveil '57 Chevrolets

Davis Motor Co. will be host to the people of the territory Friday for the unveiling of the new models of the 1957 Chevrolet.

Fuel injection and a new triple-turbine automatic transmission will make their debut on the 1957 Chevrolets.

The Chevrolet Motor Division announced today that fuel injection will be introduced on the Corvette engine, a lively new V8 of 283-horsepower that is to be available as an option throughout the line of Chevrolet passenger cars. Also unveiled for the first time is the new transmission, known as the Turboglide.

The 1957 Chevrolets go on display at dealer showrooms Friday, October 19. In addition to the trail-blazing ramjet fuel injection and the new transmission, the latest models present a multitude of other styling and performance features that promise greater owner satisfaction than ever before.

Fuel injection, a long-time objective of American automotive engineers in their quest for ideal flexibility in performance, replaces the customary carburetor. Because of quicker power response and faster warm-up, it is expected to gain almost universal adoption within a few years. Chevrolet pioneers the device in its field and will be one of the few makes to offer the advance on engines this year.

The Turboglide transmission is a Chevrolet exclusive. It carries the principle of torque conversion, first introduced in Chevrolet's Powerglide in 1950, to a new peak in efficiency. The triple-turbine, with infinitely variable ratio characteristics, produces an uninterrupted driving force at all speeds. There is no feeling of "shift."

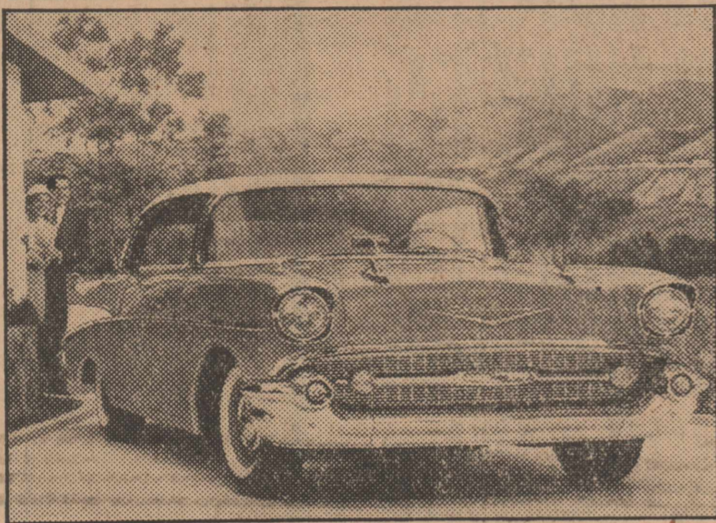

Turboglide incorporates an unusual hill retarder, one of many new safe-driving improvements on the latest Chevrolets. The retarder aids braking on steep down grades. With larger glass area, surer traction, stronger frames and a re-design of steering wheel and instrument panel to reduce possible injuries on abrupt stops, the cars set new standards in safety.

In eye-appeal the 1957 Chevrolets differ strikingly from 1956 models. While two and one-half inches have been added to overall lengths, the horizontal sweep of new styling motif gives the impression that the car is even longer than its 200 inches. All bodies are lower, with a reduction of an inch and a half in height of the cowl and substantially increased windshield areas.

Common to the design of all passenger cars is a rugged front end that combines a massive guard and bumper ensemble with an aluminum grille screen and inset parking lamps. Lance-shaped windshields on the hood add a touch of modernity. However, most of the duplication in the appearance between the series ends here. Chevrolet again offers exclusive exteriors and interiors in each of its series.

On the seven bodies in the Bel Air series, for instance, a lean chromium spear extends rearward from the headlamp, spreading gracefully downward to the bumper and also branching upward as a rear quarter molding. The area encompassed by the diverging lines of the spear may be two-toned to conform with the body color or fit-

Chevrolet Unveils New Styling

Highlights of 1957 Chevrolet exterior design include front and rear bumper assemblies blending into the body, twin lance windshields on the hood and flared rear fenders. A silver anodized aluminum grille screen and harmonizing color of roof and lower body further distinguish this sport sedan in the "Two-Ten" series.

CROP Canvass New Idea For Hallowe'en

Once it was that on Hallowe'en, witches rode and woe o'er-took the garden gate, the cabbage stump thumped against the porch and door, tic-tac-toe's cracked on the window pane, and the unwatched store front became a frightful thing of soap.

Now things are different, throughout the country, thousands of young people are building up instead of tearing down. Instead of defacing property, or asking for food or candy for themselves, they are seeking to send American surplus foods to others by sharing in "Trick or Treat" programs for CROP, sponsored by Church World Service.

Rev. Charles R. Gates, ministerial director, invites young people of the community to join in "Trick or Treat" for CROP.

Cooperating churches will aid the young people in organizing and planning their canvass of the city.

Homecoming Chili Supper Friday Night

A homecoming chili and pie supper, sponsored by the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, will be served in the American Legion Hall Friday from 5:00 to 7:30 p. m. before the football game, according to an advertisement of the Sorority. Children to 12 years will be served for 30c, and everyone older than 12 will be served for 60c.

ted with an optional panel of rolled aluminum. Two-Ten models, eight in number, have a single downswept lance molding from front to rear. One-Fifty side moldings on four body models extend downward from the sash and then horizontally across the rear fenders.

To power its 1957 line, Chevrolet will build one six and four new V8s ranging in output from 140-horsepower for the six to a sensational one-horsepower per cubic inch of displacement for the "Corvette V8." The Corvette engine develops 283-horsepower with the ramjet fuel injection system.

Seniors Take Over City Saturday

Stratford Seniors will start their annual Hallowe'en activities Saturday morning with a Hobo Day from 8:00 to 11:45 a. m. Cars will be washed. Seniors will act as city police, assessing fines of a few cents for traffic violations.

Saturday's hobo day opens Senior activity in preparation for their annual Hallowe'en carnival to be held Saturday, October 27, when a plate lunch will be served in the school cafeteria from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. A stunt program in the school auditorium, in which every grade in the school will take part, will open the evening's entertainment.

Last Rites For Bobby Bachman Wednesday

Funeral services for Robert (Bobby) Bachman, 25-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bachman were conducted in the First Methodist Church Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Edmund J. Bauer of Texhoma. Bachman was killed Sunday morning when the car in which he was riding failed to make a square corner of the highway near the Texas-New Mexico line.

Interment was made in the Stratford cemetery where Rev. Bauer officiated at the graveside service.

Robert Gene Bachman was born near Stratford, Texas on April 9, 1931, the fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bachman. He was baptized September 27, 1931 at St. John Lutheran Church in Meade, Kansas. He received his education in the public grade school and high school in Stratford. On April 6, 1947, he was confirmed and became a communicant member of St. Paul Lutheran Church in Texhoma, Oklahoma.

Robert entered the army of the United States on April 9, 1951, on his 20th birthday. After receiving his basic training in this country, he was sent overseas in April of 1952. He served for 31 days in Korea, where he took part in three major battles within a period of 19 days. While engaged in holding action on a peak named Old Baldy, Robert was severely wounded in the legs and back by a mortar shell explosion, a wound which caused him misery and pain until the gracious Lord called him out of this veil of tears. He received the Korea Service Medal, the United Nations Service Medal, a bronze star and the Purple Heart. He was honorably discharged from the army at the William Beaumont Hospital at Fort Bliss, Texas, on January 10, 1953. Robert never married, and continued to live at home with his parents until his fatal automobile accident near the New Mexico-Texas border on October 14, 1956. He is survived by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bachman of Stratford; three brothers, Melvin of Kerrick; Alvin, stationed at Travis Air Force Base in California; Richard, of Lovington, New Mexico; four sisters, Mrs. Vida Gaylord of Stratford, Mrs. Ida Gaylord of Colorado

First Four Proposed Amendments Analyzed

Four of the proposed Texas constitutional amendments to be voted on in November are separately analyzed. It is not the purpose of these analyses to indicate how anyone should vote, but to present facts which will be helpful in determining whether these amendments are desirable. Others will be analyzed in later issues.

H. J. R. No. 31 — Authorizing the Legislature to grant aid or compensation to persons who have paid fines or served prison sentences for offenses of which they were not guilty.

The text of the proposed amendment is very simple and self-explanatory: "The Legislature may grant aid and compensation to any person who has heretofore paid a fine or served a sentence in prison, under the laws of this State for an offense for which he or she is not guilty, under such regulations and limitations as the Legislature may deem expedient."

Many states have statutes providing for compensation of persons who have been wrongfully convicted of crime. The arguments for such provisions are appealing to the average citizen's sense of justice.

House Joint Resolution No. 31 would simply authorize such a statute in Texas; the legislature would decide when such aid or compensation might be granted, how the amount would be determined, and who would be responsible for administration. The amendment is written broadly enough that a special law or appropriation could be adopted for an individual case.

H. J. R. No. 23 — proposes to rewrite Section 9 of Article VIII of the Constitution of Texas so as to give the Commissioners' Court of a county authority to vary the tax rates each year for the four constitutional purposes without having to get taxpayer's approval at a special election.

The Constitution now limits the county property tax as follows: not more than 25c ad valorem tax for county purposes; not more than 15c for roads and bridges; not more than 15c to pay jurors and not more than 25c for the erection of public buildings, streets, sewers, waterworks and their permanent improvements. The Commissioners' Court may re-allocate these taxes by changing the rates so long as the total tax for these purposes does not exceed 80c on the $100 valuation in any one year. Before the Court can make such changes, the proposition must be approved by a majority of the qualified property tax paying voters of the county voting in an election on that question. After voter approval such re-allocation and changes remain in force for a period of six years unless there is a new vote on the question.

House Joint Resolution No. 23 would eliminate the requirement of a vote by the property tax paying voters before adjustment of these county rates and allow the Commissioners Court to levy whatever tax rate may be needed for the general fund, permanent improvement fund, road and bridge fund and jury fund so long as the total of these tax levies did not exceed 80c on the $100 valuation. The rates set in any year must not impair any outstanding bonds or other obligations of the county.

Changes could be made from year to year but once the court had levied the annual tax rate, it would remain in force and effect during that taxable year.

The proposed amendment continues the provision allowing the Legislature to authorize an additional tax up to 15c for further maintenance of public roads, subject to a vote of the qualified property tax paying voters of a county. It continues the Legislature's authority to pass local laws for maintenance of public roads and highways without the local notice required for local or special laws.

Those who favor this amendment argue that it is business-like; that its flexibility in allowing the County Commissioners to adjust the tax rates for these constitutional purposes from year to year is needed for better and more economical administration of the county's affairs. Opponents say that sep-

The Elks will meet Texline at 7:30 p. m. Friday in their third conference game of the season. Growing confidence of the team has been developed in four straight wins over: Texhoma, Sunray, Spearman, and Claude.

Fast, light weight men compose the Elk squad this year and their ability is being developed every passing week of the season.

They will meet Texline Friday night putting out a special effort to hold their claim on the title of the district championship.

Hoy Harrison was elected last week as the player of the week. Wayne Cummings was selected this week by his team mates as the player of the week.

Death Claims Miss Jeffcoat

Mr. and Mrs. George Jeffcoat and Mrs. Jeffcoat's mother, Mrs. H. M. Williams, attended funeral services in Sayre, Oklahoma Tuesday for Mr. Jeffcoat's sister, Miss Winnie Jeffcoat. Miss Jeffcoat, age 54, passed away Saturday at 9:00 p. m. in a Clinton, Oklahoma hospital. Funeral services were conducted in the First Methodist Church in Sayre, and burial was in the Sayre cemetery.

Farm Bureau Passes New Resolution

The following resolution was passed by the Sherman County Farm Bureau during a meeting held Tuesday:

"Whereas, there are certain persons or firms attempting to misinterpret the conservation acreage practice under the Soil Bank program as set up by the United States Department of Agriculture to their own financial advantage by misleading the non-resident and resident land owners of the Panhandle area in violation of the regulations so made and provided; and

Whereas, the Sherman County Farm Bureau is violently opposed to such persons or firms making use of the caretaking or management practices and violating a landlord-tenant relationship; and

Whereas, the Sherman County Farm Bureau Directors, acting as an executive body, duly assembled, goes on record as opposing any such malicious unscrupulous plans which would thwart the intended purpose of a program designed to give the land owner that benefit necessary to the well being of all Americans;

Now Therefore, be it resolved that the Directors of the Sherman County Farm Bureau go on record as requesting those chairmen of the County ASC Committee to realize that the tenant as well as the landlord should have equal protection from such malicious plans and follies as have been developed by such persons or firms for their own financial gain."

Our custodians have done a very fine job of keeping the school building clean. The whole school joins me in expressing our appreciation for the wonderful work they have done. Since school has started it was discovered that the typing room was too small for the bookkeeping class. The custodians did a nice job of redecorating the old tax office for the bookkeeping class. Stratford Schools are indeed fortunate to have such fine custodians.

FIRE PREVENTION (By Jean Spurlock)

The best time to put a fire out is before it starts! What careless things do you do that might start a fire? I am sure, if each one was to examine his or her actions for one week, they would find one time at least (probably more) that they could have caused a fire by some careless act. Fire causes well over $250,000,000 of property damages a year. Fires kill some 10,000 or more persons and injures thousands more every year.

Matches are the cause of many fires. We must learn to strike matches away from us, keep them out of children's reach, be sure they are out when throwing away in the trash, and store them away from heat.

Lights are another great cause of fires. Candles should be in candle holders that will not overturn. Candles should be kept out of drafts and away from inflammable materials. In using kerosene or oil lamps, be sure the wicks are trimmed and fit snugly. Never use paper lighters. By all means, do not have the lamp down in reach of a child.

Heatign systems should be kept in good repair. Whether they are stoves, furnaces, or fireplaces, they could cause a fire. Open fires should never be left on at night or when no one is in the house. Many fires start in the kitchen. A person should never clean a stove or clean anywhere near a stove with gasoline or naphtha. Sometimes a pan of grease catches on fire. If this should happen to you, do not put water on it, use dirt, flour, salt, or cover it with a metal lid.

Smoking can be very dangerous. Be sure a cigarette or cigar is out before throwing it away. One should not smoke in a garage or when filling a car tank with gasoline.

Fires sometimes occur on the holidays of Christmas and the Fourth of July. Do you know why? It is because of carelessness. Cotton, wool, or candles are used on Christmas trees by some people. This could cause a fire that might burn down your home. Fireworks when improperly handled can cause very damaging fires.

If you ever happen to have the misfortune of being in a building which is on fire, keep your head! A panicky person can cause many deaths. So do your best to be calm and to find a way out.

EIGHTH GRADE NEWS (By Darla Galloway)

The eighth grade class wishes to thank all of our citizens who bought magazines from us. If any should fail to receive their magazines, they should call Mr. Stewart, the grade school principal.

SIX WEEKS TESTS (By Wilma Jean Sneed)

completed their first six weeks tests last Friday, October 12. I think every one lived through their tests even though some wondered whether or not they would make it.

Some may wonder, what is the purpose of six weeks tests? A six weeks test is given in order to find out what the students have learned and accomplished during the six weeks period. The tests are given to give the student a clearer vision and understanding of himself and his abilities. I am sure that when the present high school students go

Beta Sigma Phi Meets With Mrs. Wells
(By Bettye Lasley)

The Nu Beta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Thursday evening at 8:00 p. m. in the beautiful new home of Dorless Wells with Mava Gray as co-hostess. The meeting was opened with everyone standing for the opening ritual.

The president, Helen Buckles, conducted the business meeting with the first report of Dorless Wells being appointed by the executive board to fill the vacancy of secretary.

Standing committees gave the following reports: the Service Committee pointed out we needed to decide on a place for the swings so the city could install them; the Ways and Means Committee reported that the annual homecoming chili supper will be Friday, October 19, and gave the menu, which is chili, (with or without beans), pie and a drink; the Publicity Committee reported that they would take care of advertising for the supper.

A Hallowe'en sack party was planned to follow our next meeting as a social for the members only. Everyone is to bring a costume in a sack, and then grab for a sack and wear the costume it contains, during the party. We are also having a covered dish supper at Clara Mae's before the meeting.

Our guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Howard Plumb of Dalhart, who discussed at length our program topic, "How Civilized Are We?" After discussing at length the history of several different races of people and their civilization, she showed slides of Mexico, the Hawaiian Islands and the Caribbean Islands. During the showing of the slides, she reviewed for us wonderful tales of her travels through all of these islands, all about the people and their customs and how far they had progressed in civilization during the last 100 years.

Mrs. Plumb was accompanied to Stratford by Mrs. Eugene Gibney of Dalhart who is the mother of one of our members, Virginia Lamb.

A candlelight Ritual of Jewels Ceremony was held for the seven new members, the social sponsor, our director and an honorary member of the sorority with the president, Helen Buckles, directing the ceremony with officials Gerre Heil, Dorless Wells and Bonnie Mitchell assisting her.

Delicious refreshments of apple-nut cake with whipped cream were served to the sponsor, Doris Parker, the director, Lela Moon, Honorary member, Frances Standefer, and new members, Theresa Jackson, Aline Judd, Georgana Lavake, Charlene O'Quin, Wanda Riffe, Maxine Stinson, Clara Mae Wilson, and other members, Virginia Lamb, Gerre Heil, Bonnie Mitchell, Flo Hudson, Helen Buckles, Glennell Dettle and Bettye Lasley.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express to our kind neighbors and thoughtful friends our heartfelt thanks for their many expressions of sympathy during our recent bereavement. The food and beautiful floral offerings were especially appreciated.

Mrs. G. L. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Taylor and children, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor and children, Mrs. V. O. Gilbert.

MANY THANKS

I wish to thank all who remembered me with flowers, cards and personal visits during my stay at the hospital and since my return home. A special "thank you" to the blood donors.

Mrs. Dan Smith

AMONG THE SICK

Mrs. Dan Smith who underwent surgery Thursday of last week in Dumas Memorial Hospital returned home Saturday.

Carl Luther, Dalhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Luther of Stratford, was admitted to Coon Memorial Hospital Friday for treatment for stomach ulcers. He was released from the hospital Tuesday morning.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles R. Gates' daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charles W. Gates, who has been seriously ill in Lubbock, recovered sufficiently to return to her home Saturday, but word has been received that she was re-admitted to the hospital Tuesday. Mrs. Gates went to Lubbock Wednesday morning to be with her son and family.

Seniors On the Ball
Do you want to help us to get that ball to rolling? You can! We are having a Hobo Day Saturday morning from 9:00 to 11:45. Cars will be washed better than ever at Hardings and Ford garages. Seniors will be acting as city police, so if you happen not to make a hand signal or the like, a fine will probably be given you, but it is all in fun and the fines will be only a few cents.
The Best Hallowe'en Carnival Yet Will Be Held the 27th of October
It will begin with a delicious plate lunch in the cafeteria at 5:30 and end about 7:30. Tickets may be obtained from any senior for $1.25 for adults and 75c for children. Shortly after the stunts will start in the grade school auditorium. Every grade will have a short stunt and prizes will be awarded to the most original and best presented stunt. Then! Then! the big carnival! You name it and we will probably have it. Come on out and see the beautiful queens and princesses, and the handsome kings and princes. A program of many nations will be presented.

allocated or re-allocated to the respective institutions. House Joint Resolution No. 15 would require that such bonds all mature not later than September 1, 1968 and September 1, 1978 respectively. There is a further provision that the power to issue bonds or notes is limited to a period of twenty years from the effective date of the amendment which would be January 1, 1958. This is approximately the same as the present limitation which is thirty years from the date of adoption on August 23, 1947. Allocations to the institutions actually became effective January 1, 1948.

Institutions of higher learning which participate in these funds may not receive any other State funds for acquiring or constructing buildings or other permanent improvements, except in case of fire, flood, storm or earthquake. House Joint Resolution No. 15 would continue these restrictions against receipt of any General Revenue funds, but not against other State funds; any appropriation from the General Revenue Fund to meet the above emergencies would be restricted to replacement of uninsured loss.

This part of the amendment would be self-enacting, and would become effective on January 1, 1958.

House Joint Resolution No. 15 would also rewrite Section 18 of Article VII of the Constitution of Texas which now provides that A. & M. College may issue negotiable bonds or notes up to $5,000,000 and the University of Texas may issue negotiable bonds or notes up to $10,000,000 to be payable out of income from the Permanent University Fund, to mature serially or otherwise not more than twenty years from their respective dates and not later than twenty-five years after the date of adoption of this section of the Constitution on August 23, 1947.

The proposed amendment would bring under the provisions of this section of the Constitution A. & M. College at College Station, Arlington State College, Tarleton State College, Prairie View A. & M. College, Texas Agricultural Experiment Stations, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas Engineering Experiment Station at College Station, and the Texas Forest Service. However, no building or other permanent improvement could be acquired or constructed except at the first four named institutions without the prior approval of the Legislature or of such agency as may be authorized by the Legislature to grant such approval.

Similarly, there would be brought under the provisions of this section of the Constitution of the Main University at Austin, Texas Western College, the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston, the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School at Dallas, the University of Texas Dental Branch at Houston, M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute at Houston, the University of Texas Postgraduate School of Medicine, the University of Texas School of Public Health, the McDonald Observatory at Mt. Locke and the Marine Science Institute at Port Aransas; but no building or other permanent improvement could be acquired or constructed except at the Main University and Texas Western College without the prior approval of the Legislature or of such agency as may be authorized by the Legislature to grant such approval.

Bonds could be issued by A. & M. College System not to exceed a total amount of one-third of 20% of the value of the Permanent University Fund, exclusive of real estate at the time of any issuance. The University of Texas could issue negotiable notes or bonds not to exceed a total amount of two-thirds of 20% of the value of the Permanent University Fund, exclusive of real estate at the time of any issuance.

This part of the amendment would be self-enacting, and would become effective January 1, 1958.

The third change proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 15 is to add a new Section 11a to Article VII of the Constitution of Texas. It would permit investment of the Permanent University Fund in additional securities approved by the Board of Regents of the University of Texas, including common and preferred stocks of corporations.

Money received into the Permanent University Fund can now be invested "in bonds of the United States, the State of Texas, or counties of said State or in School Bonds of municipalities, or in bonds of any city of this State, or in bonds issued under and by virtue of the Federal Farm Loan Act." Only the interest accruing on such investments can be appropriated by the Legislature. House Joint Resolution No. 15, if adopted, would authorize the Board of Regents, in addition to the bonds mentioned above, to invest in first lien real estate mortgage securities guaranteed in any manner in whole by the United States Government or any agency thereof and in such corporation bonds, preferred stocks and common stocks as the Board may deem to be proper investments for the Permanent University Fund.

The proposed new Section 11a is similar to a constitutional amendment defeated in 1951 by a vote of 124,547 to 100,637. However, it provides additional safeguards as to the investments which may be made and the conditions under which they may be made; and it clarifies a point of considerable discussion in connection with the former proposal by stating that both interest and dividends accruing from these securities shall be subject to appropriation by the Legislature.

Not more than 50% of the Fund could be invested in corporate stocks and bonds and not more than 5% of the voting stock of any one corporation could be owned. Not more than 1% of the Permanent University Fund could be invested in securities issued by any one corporation. Investment in stocks would be restricted to that of companies incorporated within the United States which have paid dividends for ten consecutive years or longer immediately prior to the date of purchase. All stocks eligible for purchase, except bank and insurance stocks, would have to be listed upon an exchange registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or its successors. In making each and all investments provided for under the proposed Section 11a the Board of Regents would be required to "exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which men of ordinary prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income therefrom as well as the probable safety of their capital."

Interest and dividends from investments of the Permanent University Fund would be applicable first to bonds or notes issued for building purposes by the University of Texas and by A. & M. College under Section 18 of Article VII. Additional interest and dividends would be available for other operating purposes of the University.

This proposed amendment would also be self-enacting. It would become effective upon its adoption. The Legislature would be required to provide by law for full disclosure of all details concerning the investments in corporate stocks and bonds and other investments authorized by this amendment.

The amendments of the three different sections of the Constitution provided by this resolution would substantially re-align the sources of income from which the various state institutions of higher learning may carry out their building programs. They do not make any new sources of funds available except in two ways; first and mainly, the proposed new Section 11a would make new investments available to the Permanent University Fund which members of the Board of Regents and many University supporters feel would increase income without endangering the principal of the Fund. Second, the amendment of Section 17 might in some circumstances allow the Legislature to make direct appropriations for building purposes to those institutions under Section 17. The Constitution now says that except in certain emergencies, no such appropriations shall be made from any other State fund. The new proposal would require that no appropriation could be made from the General Revenue Fund.

S. J. R. No. 5 — If adopted, would amend Section 48a of Article III of the Constitution of Texas, which authorizes the Legislature to levy taxes for the establishment of a Retirement Fund for persons employed in public schools, colleges and universities supported wholly or partly by the State. Many of the changes being discussed would not be made by the amendment itself but by Senate Bill 290, which was passed at the last session of the Legislature to be effective if this amendment is adopted.

The amendment would substantially broaden the present constitutional authorization. It proposes an increase in the amount which will be paid by such employees, and matched by the State, from 5% of the employees income to 6%. It increases the maximum limit on the contribution from any one person from $180 per year to $504 per year and it extends the purpose of the fund to include disability and death benefits as well as retirement pay.

This section of the Constitution now requires that a person, in order to be eligible for a pension, must have taught twenty years in the State of Texas. The proposed amendment shortens this minimum service requirement to ten years and instead of using the term "taught" it requires "creditable service" for that many years. It eliminates the requirement that service must have been performed in (Continued on Page 7)

STRATFORD TOPPLES CLAUDE, 13-0

(By Bob Donelson)

The Elks defeated the Claude Mustangs last Friday night, 13-0. In the first quarter, Mike Neal carried the ball 36 yards to the Claude 13-yard line. The Elks drove to the 2-yard line, and from there, Russell Albert plunged the line for the touchdown. The extra point was no good. In the second quarter, "Punkin" McMinn sped 35 yards for another touchdown, and Neal ran the extra point. The third and fourth quarters were fought, for the most part, between the two 20-yard lines. The game ended with Stratford on top, 13-0. The Elks have now scored 99 points in their last four games, while holding their opposition scoreless.

The summary: First downs, Stratford 16, Claude 6; net yards rushing, Stratford 302, Claude 94; Passing, Stratford completed 1 of 2 for 7 yards; Claude completed 2 of 4 for 50 yards; Punting, Claude punted 4 times for an average of 27 yards; Penalties, Stratford, 7 for 45 yards, Claude, 4 for 20 yards. Friday night, October 19, at 7:30, Stratford will be host to the Texline Tornadoes.

WHY I AM THINKING OF BECOMING A TEACHER

(By Carolyn Folsom)

America is in somewhat of a deep crisis today. Communism could creep in so easy and it seems that the general thing seems to be lowering morals. Character building is very important, and should start with youth and continue on through life. In my opinion, teachers are very important in a child's life, and a lot depends upon them. Teaching is an occupation that does not just go on for a few hours a day, but goes on every hour of every day, in endeavoring to build character of our future little Americans. Patience? Yes! But it takes more than patience to answer questions after questions of youngsters that aren't even your own. It takes love. Not just a little love, but a love that will still hold out when parents come to you and little Johnny and Susan are crying, and you are tired and think you can not go on. But, being able to help mold the lives of boys and girls is a very important thing and shouldn't be taken lightly. A whole life could be spent trying to prepare oneself to be fit for this task, and yet still have faults like anyone else, so we must just take the time and training preparing ourselves that is allotted for this and do our best. There will be many trying hours but the happiness that is received will be worth far more than money could ever pay, in knowing that I might have helped even one person to be better prepared to face life and its problems.

SENIOR NEWS

(By Carolyn Folsom)

The senior class had a meeting and decided on selling mums for $1.25 for our homecoming game in football this Friday. The senior class has been hunting frantically for white elephants to be used for our carnival, Carolyn Folsom is in charge of these. We have ordered many wonderful prizes for our bingo games, but if you would like to give a donation, get in contact with Russell Albert. The seniors voted unanimously to cooperate fully with the city Halloween night, and we will venture to say that no senior will be in on any tearing up of anything!

BAND NEWS

Texans Find Ike Stands For Same Things We Do

A fellow was in our town the other day selling men's suits. He was from St. Louis, and he said he was a manufacturer's representative. Grandpa would have called him a dry goods drummer, and Papa would have referred to him as a traveling salesman. This shows you how things change with time. But actually that fellow from St. Louis was doing just about what the earlier visitors did—trying to sell suits.

You might say that he stayed in the same place but the names went off and left him. Reminded me some of the political situation in Texas.

I was reading a letter in the daily newspaper last week, from a man who said he was going to vote for Eisenhower. "I am a Democrat," he wrote to the editor of the paper, "but I feel like the party has run off and left me."

Come to think of it, a lot of conservative-type Texas Democrats are in that shape today. They haven't changed their views much on such things as local control, government spending, bureaucratic red tape, and freedom of the individual; they still travel down the same road they did 20 or 30 years ago, even if they do it at 70 miles an hour instead of 25.

They grew up believing that a man could live down nearly anything except voting for a Republican. They always voted "er straight, until a good many of them jumped over the traces in '52 and went for Ike.

"I can't figure out what's happened," one of them told me. "Seems like Eisenhower talks like a Democrat and Stevenson talks like a college professor."

The other day this same fellow said: "I think I've got it figured out. Ike stands for the things us Texas Democrats have always stood for. Adlai is too thick with Walker Reuther and that crowd to suit me. I'm going for Ike again."

That's the way with most folks in our town. They decided to give Ike a try at it in '52, and they like the way he has gone about the job. There are some things they wished he'd done a little different, but by and large they think he has made us a fine President. At least all the hometown boys are back from Korea, and as far as we can tell the government is being run honestly.

Somebody asked that Missouri suit salesman how Mr. Truman was getting along, and he said he didn't know. "He isn't in the clothing business any more," he explained. "In fact, as far as I can tell, he is clear out of all kinds of business."

Yours Truly,

Here's what put the magic in the new kind of FORD!

It started with the "Inner Ford." When Ford planned this baby, they thought in terms of a car through-and-through new.

The wheels got smaller. This Ford is so new that even the wheels have changed. Now smaller and broader, they help you take off quickly.

The wheelbase got longer... so now you can choose between a Ford that's over 16 ft. long—or one over 17 ft. long!

The frame got wider. Side rails bow out to give a more stable, safer riding platform... a lower, sleeker silhouette.

The ride got smoother. With new suspension, new springing front and rear, the ride this new Ford gives is the smoothest ever.

The handling got easier. Poised and balanced like a panther, this car has swept-back front suspension that works its magic when you need it most.

The power got hotter. There's a wide range of Silver Anniversary V-8's to fit every horsepower need*... plus a new Mileage Maker Six.

What put the magic in the new kind of FORD?

The new Ford Fairlane 500 (118-inch wheelbase). Longer, lower, larger than many medium-priced cars, yet lower in price than most of them!

The roof got lower. And it's designed to let you make the easy entries and graceful exits you've always known.

The body got quieter. It's the strongest body built for a low-priced car. No car in Ford's field has such generous sound-proofing.

The room got bigger. There's head room to spare for a tycoon-type hat. There's real stretch-out leg room, too.

The lines got sweeter. They have the Touch of Tomorrow. Each graceful contour says, "Let's go!"

The style got smarter. With this new-look Ford you have a car that belongs anywhere! All Fairlane models look like hardtops.

The value got greater... the price is still Ford-low.

adds the requirement that person may not retire before attaining age fifty-five or completing thirty years of creditable service.

Despite its removal from the constitutional amendment, the word "taught" is defined in the present law and also in Senate Bill 290 to mean all regular services rendered by teachers and by auxiliary employees, contributors directly or indirectly to instruction offered by and in the public schools of this State.

present law. The practical result of adding them in Senate Joint Resolution No. 5 is to remove them from any constitutional requirements as to age and length of service.

Money contributed by employees and matching money from the State in the Teacher Retirement Fund can now be invested in bonds of the United States, the State of Texas, or counties and cities of his State, or in bonds issued by an agency of the United States Government when payment of principal and interest is guaranteed by the United States.

Senate Bill 290, substantially rewriting law controlling the Teacher Retirement System, would become effective and operative immediately upon adoption of this proposed amendment.

This bill sets a minimum retirement benefit of $1200 per year for a teacher member who has completed twenty or more years for creditable service and retires after attaining sixty years of age.

A minimum of $900 per year is set for auxiliary members who have twenty or more years of creditable service and retire after attaining sixty years of age.

A guarantee of at least $600 per year would be made to auxiliary members who complete more than ten but less than twenty years of service and retire after attaining the age of sixty-five.

The bill provides that if its changed formula for retirement benefits should result in reducing annuities or benefit allowances approved prior to September 1, 1955, the benefits shall continue to be paid to recipients under the law in effect at that time.

Any member of the Retirement System who has been employed for one year or more as a teacher in any public school system, maintained in whole or in part at public expense in the United States or the Panama Canal Zone, would be allowed credit for such service under Senate Bill 290, after due application.

In the fiscal year which ended August 31, 1955 the State cost for teacher retirement was, in round numbers, $14,790,000, and in the first eleven months of the 1956 fiscal year it exceeded $16,000,000.

There has been a serious question raised as to the actual soundness of the Teacher Retirement System under Senate Bill 290.

The law was developed from a study made by a nationally known firm of consulting actuaries. However, the Actuary to the Teacher Retirement System, who is a member of a well known firm in this State and who acts as actuary for a number of county and municipal systems, resigned his position, saying that the proposed legislation was so unsound financially that he could no longer in good conscience continue as actuary to the system.

Since the actuaries are not in agreement it seems worthwhile to look to the type of reserve which is provided. The law does not require the State's contribution to be credited each year to an actuarial reserve for the individual member whose contribution is matched.

serve for payment of a benefit. Senate Bill 290 provides for the transfer of whatever amount is certified by the system's actuaries as needed, together with the member's own accumulated contributions, to provide the aggregate amount required for discharge of the benefit specified in the Act.

If experience should prove that the proposed constitutional amendment does not provide enough money on a reasonable actuarial basis to pay the benefits set out in Senate Bill 290, the State could possibly make up the difference, for some limited period of time, out of State moneys already accumulated in the fund plus the new State contributions each year to match current member contributions.

The State would then be on a sort of pay-as-you-go basis; its ability to say ahead of its commitments would depend upon many variable factors.

For example, an economic slowdown might force a reduction in the salaries and the number of members of the retirement system.

tem and thus automatically reduce the amount of the State contribution.

It apparently would be possible for the total of these yearly contributions by the State to carry the cost of retirement and other benefits for some time before it became apparent that the State Contribution Fund was approaching exhaustion. If that happened, however, either the law would have to be changed to reduce any benefits approved thereafter or the Constitution would have to be amended again to allow a substantial increase in State costs.

WORDS OF THOUGHTS

Priscilla Club

(By Club Reporter)

Dear Aunt Sally:
We missed you at Syble's house yesterday and we also missed Ruth and Mary. We know why Ruth was absent, her little boys have been having that stomach virus that has been going around, so she thought it better to stay home than expose the other little children to it.

But Mary, well she had better throw her hat in the door the next time. She had promised faithfully she would not only be at club but would spend the entire day with Syble. Tell her we had those delicious Italian meat balls with spaghetti she had ordered, and that Syble is so famous for making. And there was a birthday gift there for her too.

Nell came with her little girls. The baby is the best little thing you ever saw and so fat and sweet. The others enjoyed playing with Nancy and Carrie Lynn.

The mammas, while not looking after little girls, enjoyed visiting and just resting. We had Velma to thank for Mrs. King being there. She went to Stratford after her that morning. We do so enjoy Mrs. King and miss seeing her every club day.

This being October and there being less than fifty shopping days left before Christmas, we looked over our Christmas card catalogue and made a pretty big order. It made us miss Ruth Park all the more, we had only to say we needed some kind of card and she came up with it for us.

Our husbands came in for a really rough time since Syble served hot rolls and butter, pineapple salad and coffee along with huge servings of the spaghetti and meat balls. Nothing, simply nothing, looked good to us at supper cooking time. How I do hate to cook supper on club day. I do think we have the best men in the world, though. They never complain about the food especially on club day.

Ada Mae and Nancy will be our hostesses next time on October 23. That's getting close to Hallowe'en so you had better watch out, the goblins may be around. Until then, Bye.

Mary
