Baptist Church Honors Seniors With Banquet

Stratford High School Seniors and their sponsors, and the Baptist High School students were honored by the members of the Womens Missionary Union in the Fellowship Hall of the Baptist Church Tuesday evening at seven o'clock.

The guests entered Candy Land under a sign "Welcome To Candy Land," which was attached to an awning of red crepe paper streamers, decorated with yellow balloons and supported by peppermint stick posts.

Inside Candy Land, under the canopy of white clouds made of parachutes, decorated with clusters of colored balloons, they passed the candy tree, which "grew" on a grassy plot, and continued on to find their places at the tables, by locating their pictures on place markers, which were "girls and boys" made of gum drops, muffin cups, pipe cleaners and a lollypop head with a picture of the individual whose place it marked, facing the edge of the table.

The tables were covered with white cloths, with three red ribbon streamers running down the center, the full length of the tables. Centerpieces were sugar-plum trees surrounded by grass. On each table, there were "peppermint stick" candles, and centering the head table was a gingerbread house, surrounded by green grass. At each place at the tables was a red folder marked on front with a peppermint cane, and containing the program and a copy of "The Sugar-Plum Tree," by Eugene Field, on the inside pages.

The menu, consisting of hot dogs, potato salad, fritos, pickles, olives, punch, ice cream and cookies, was printed with red on white cardboard and placed on the wall between windows which were also decorated with red crepe paper streamers. After finding their places at the tables, they were served as they filed by the "concession stand," decorated with red streamers, peppermint stick posts and candy.

Rev. M. E. Upchurch was toastmaster. The invocation was given by Leon Guthrie with Mrs. Leon Guthrie giving the welcome. The response was given by Hoy Harrison. "The Lollypop Tree," a pantomime, was presented by Becky, Alice and Charlotte Guthrie. Miss Nellie Johnson, accompanied by Miss Daria Jean Galloway, sang, "The Big Rock Candy Mountain." Rev. Bill Burton, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Gruver, gave the address, which was followed with the benediction by H. T. Galloway.

Utilities Form Atomic Energy Foundation

Formation of the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation by Southwestern Public Service Company and ten other electric light and power companies operating in Texas, was announced Wednesday by J. E. Cunningham, president of Southwestern Public Service Company. Incorporation papers have been filed with the Secretary of State.

The purpose of the non-profit Foundation is to engage in research in the atomic energy field as applied to the generation of electric power. The program will not include an atomic energy power generating plant at this time. It will be directed toward the fundamental methods involved rather than toward the early use of atomic energy in steam-electric power plants of the participating companies.

"The eleven utilities which formed the Foundation will jointly carry on their research and development work in the nuclear field in a program designed to assure for Texas the benefits which develop from this new source of energy," J. E. Cunningham said.

"The various companies, acting as a group, can be more effective in this research since many projects in nuclear research require expenditures which might be burdensome on a single company.

"The program of the Foundation is long range, since the natural gas now used by utilities in the Southwest is a particularly good fuel and will be competitive with nuclear energy for many years. The appraisal of problems of this nature will have a high priority in the program of the Foundation.

"The Foundation does not plan to request government funds to support its nuclear research program. It hopes, however, to work closely with the Atomic Energy Commission in any program it undertakes.

"Atomic energy power plants now differ from present day power plants only in the substitution of this new energy as a heat source for the boilers which make steam to spin the turbo-generators. Development of this source of fuel will require much research before it can be economically feasible in Texas where electric power generating plants now utilize natural gas as boiler fuel. In the meantime, the research program will provide the necessary experience in utilizing this source of heat in the power plants."

J. E. Cunningham is a member of the Board of Directors of the Foundation. W. A. Parish, president of the Houston Lighting & Power Company, is president of the Foundation. All of the companies supporting the Foundation are represented on the Board.

In addition to Southwestern Public Service Company, other companies supporting the Foundation are: Central Power and Light Company, Community Public Service Company, Dallas Power & Light Company, El Paso Electric Company, Gulf States Utilities Company, Houston Lighting & Power Company, Southwestern Gas and Electric Company, Texas Electric Service Company, Texas Power & Light Company, and West Texas Utilities Company.

When we got off the train we went to Hotel Dallas. We left our baggage and ate breakfast. Then we split up in groups and went to see The Dallas Morning News plant. We saw the reporters rooms and how the Dallas News is published. We went from there to the fair grounds. KENTON — The Kenton Easter Pageant in its sixth consecutive year, will be the climax this year of three separate services observing memorable events in the life of Christ from the Garden of Gethesemane and crucifixion to the resurrection and His appearance to the disciples before the ascension.

The services are held in the natural setting of the hill and canyon country three miles east of Kenton which bears a striking resemblance to the Holy Land.

Members of the cast are ranchers, housewives, ministers, teachers and students residing in an area covering more than a hundred miles along the Cimarron River and surrounding territory, who with a true spirit of devotion endeavor to present the story of the living Christ. A mixed choir with organ accompaniment in addition to background music adds to the solemnity of the services. The costumes are colorful and authentic. More than a hundred people are involved in the presentations this year.

Crowds have increased each year since the first service was presented in 1952. Last year a crowd of 2600 people by actual count was present for the Good Friday service, and an estimated 2800 people attended the Easter service. Ample parking space faces the amphitheater and the pageants may be seen and heard from parked cars.

The Good Friday service, beginning at 6:30 p. m. (CST) April 19, takes up the Biblical story as Christ enters the Garden of Gethesemane, and carries through the betrayal, the trial, mockery and finally the crucifixion. The service ends at sunset.

Saturday's vespers, with the Rev. Therman Harris of Guymon in charge, also begin at 6:30 p. m. (CST). A youth choir assembled from various towns of the five-states area under direction of Douglas Cornwall of Clayton, will be heard in hymns and chorals emphasizing the last days of Christ on earth. Theme of the service is "The Cross of Christ."

The Easter Sunday service begins at 5:30 a. m. (CST) April 21 with a scene depicting the uneven tenor of the way of most people "who knew not that an event had taken place" that would change the course of history. The pageant proper opens as the two Marys and Salome wend their way to the sepulchre bringing spices which they had prepared. Succeeding scenes portray His appearance to Mary and the great commission to the eleven disciples. Then the close at sunrise, "And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you

Paul Groom and Mrs. Fred Tucker of Boise City. Dr. Jack Sogdill and Prof. Milton Bradley of the speech and music departments of Panhandle A. and M. College also contributed appreciably to those phases. Frank Vail does the narrations and is in charge of the electric and sound equipment. THERE'S AN ELECTRIC HEATING METHOD FOR EVERY HOME NEED!

Electric Heating is CLEAN, MODERN, AND SAFE!

Now, instantaneous, comfortable heating — of course, it's electric! Whether you are building your new home, remodeling or adding a room to your present home, you can use electric heating. The advantages you have with your electric work-saving appliances are also yours with electric heating. Electric heating is the cleanest form of heating known. Now is the time to solve your heating problems for next winter and years to come. For information, without obligation, see your Public Service Company manager.

- YOUR PRESENT HOME
- THAT ROOM YOU'RE ADDING ON
- YOUR NEW HOME

- CEILING HEATING UNIT WITH CIRCULATING FAN
Ceiling heating units are ideal for bath-rooms, hallways or kitchens. They can be used as the main heat source or as auxiliary heating. A flip of the switch gives you heat where you want it and, if desired, a controlling thermostat can be added for automatic operation.
- RADIANT-CONVECTION WALL HEATERS
This type of electric heating you've seen many times either in portable heaters or in wall-mounted units. Such electric heating units are inexpensive, can be thermostatically controlled and are easily installed. One answer to the problem of heating a room added on.
- RADIANT GLASS, METAL or CERAMIC PANELS
Nearest thing to the warmth of the sun's natural heat rays is electric radiant heat. Heating coils are embedded in a heat conducting material which, through radiation, warms your family, floors, furniture. These units, mounted on wall, near floor, come in various sizes, up to 60 inches long.
- HEAT LAMPS
Heat lamps are used where quick spot heating is desired — over work benches, in garages, working on the family car, etc. A heat lamp can be inserted in place of a regular lighting bulb, or it can be installed permanently in bathroom ceilings, etc.
- BASEBOARD HEATING
Electric baseboard heating is completely inconspicuous since it can be painted to match or contrast with wall colors. In practically all homes the heating requirement is met by installation along outside walls only. Furniture can be placed anywhere without interfering with your heating.
- EMBEDDED CEILING CABLES OR PANELS
As in all electric heating your furnace is miles away (at the electric power plant). You turn on a switch and get completely clean electric heat. Continuous coils are run back and forth across entire ceiling area and then covered with plaster or texture paint material. Heating system is completely out of sight.
- THE AMAZING NEW HEAT PUMP
Here's the amazing "heat pump" which uses the principle employed in your electric refrigerator to "pump" heat to you in winter and cool air in the summer. It's a combination central unit which costs approximately the same as the central heating and cooling units in conventional use. No matter the outside weather, the "heat pump" adjusts immediately to give you the weather you want inside your home.

The Elk

Trampoline

(By Carolyn Folsom)

Stratford High School now has a new addition in athletic facilities. It is a new trampoline. It is made by Fenner-Hamilton, and is the new jumbo size. Mr. Standefer said he thought that it was a very good investment, because it would help create interest for the students that did not participate in any other kind of sport, and would also help the athletes. The money for this trampoline came from the candy machine fund. The money students put into the candy machine has paid for many things for their enjoyment, such as: tumbling mats, juke-box for cafeteria, pop corn machine, and coffee urn. The trampoline has a steel frame, and springs, and a nylon bed. It is one of the best ones on sale today. Mr.

Its Great To Be Crazy

Standefer felt that we should have a jumbo size one for safety, and he also thought it best to have the extra large mats covering the springs and frame. In quoting Mr. Hugh Stewart, he said, "Mr. Standefer, this is the best investment that's been made since the popcorn machine." All the students are thrilled to death, and anxiously await their turn on the new trampoline.

Library News

(By Carolyn Folsom)

The Juniors and Seniors have had a special reading list for the year, concerning what books were the ones we must give reports on. Since our library is limited, and the sophomores also have to read from our reading this last six weeks. We must recheck a book only once. That means that a book may be kept out for two weeks then turned back to the library. We have appreciated the cooperation of the students this year concerning the care of books, it is much better than previous years.

Hamilton, a steel; Mary Sue Taylor, a vegetable. None of these students guessed the correct definition which is, a rare silicate of the cerium metals.

First Grade News

(By Darla Galloway)

We really have grown up this week. We have already gone to High School, and did we enjoy seeing all of it? Another day we're going on another trip and see the rest of the building.

The invitations to all pre-school children who begin school next year are written and mailed. We have invited 23 to come visit with us for the day.

We are happy that Eddie Williams and his family were not seriously injured in their wreck Wednesday.

This is our last six weeks of school, and you may know we are very busy completing our Reading, Health, Science, Arithmetic, and Puzzle Pages.

None of us made the trip to Dallas as we are just little folks. Some of our older brothers and sisters went, and when we get to be big folks we'll go, too.

Bad weather doesn't keep us away from school, we only had one absent, and that one was sick.

We were so sorry to hear of the accident which Mr. Reeves had. We hope that he will soon be out of the hospital, and feel fine. Mrs. Corley — teacher.

Easter Holidays

(By Darla Galloway)

This week end is Easter Holidays. What are you planning to do this Easter season?

What ever you do, try at all times to remember the original purpose of the Holiday. It was not necessarily meant for us to buy new "outfits" so that we can all dress up and go to church because it is Easter Sunday morning. It was not meant for us to throw a big party, because that definitely misrepresents the purpose.

Jesus Christ was crucified on Calvary for each and every one of us. Not for just the people belonging to some church, but you and me. Should we not show our appreciation to him? All he asks us to do is believe in him and we shall have everlasting life. Is this so hard to do?

He not only was crucified but he arose to be our living savior. One who carries our burden if only we will go to him. Won't you think about this, this Easter Season? No one can decide this for you, you must decide for yourself.

Easter Sunday morning there will be a Sunrise Breakfast for different age groups in the town. You will receive a great blessing if you attend one of these. Believe me, it is definitely worth getting up an hour earlier to attend one of these breakfasts!

Wheat Grazing Will Not Be Extended

"The Department of Agriculture has refused to change the expiration date for grazing Soil Bank Crops from April 15 to May 15 in storm ridden area," according to a telegram Tuesday from Congressman Walter Rogers. "Numerous requests to the Department of Agriculture based upon the argument that this same area has undergone this year of drouth and a recent blizzard failed to alter the department's position."

"They advised again this morning, that they will not extend the grazing period to May 15," Rogers said.

Late Wheat Yield Is Doubtful

Some dryland wheat fields along with the vast majority of irrigated wheat, have prospects of producing profitable wheat yields.

Wheat which germinated after March rains has an uncertain future. Should hot dry weather begin early it is doubtful that this late wheat can produce yields worth combining.

Weeds could also be a major problem. There are approximately 100,000 acres of spring oats and barley in the northern Panhandle that is considered to be in good condition at this time.

Weekly Report From Austin

(April 8-15 by D. M. Bishop)

With time running out, both the House and the Senate have gone into a stepped-up session.

Still holding top position on the House calendar are the segregation bills. While there is opposition to the segregation legislation, every important segregation bill has so far passed. Concerning the segregation legislation, Representative Sam Wohlford said, "The Legislature is merely following the mandate of the people of Texas as expressed in the primary last July." All other important legislation is being held back pending passage of the segregation bills.

Even if segregation is capturing the headlines, the main question of the year is still the teacher's pay raise bills. To express the views of the Panhandle teachers a delegation of teachers from Dalhart visited Representative Wohlford last Wednesday. Under discussion by the teachers and Representative Wohlford were H.B. 8 and H.B. 462. As stated in the newsletter of April 4, these are conflicting bills relating to the teacher's pay raise. H.B. 8 is sponsored by the Texas State Teachers Association and proposes a basic raise of $399 and a graduated raise depending on teaching experience. H.B. 462 proposes to give a flat raise of $606 to all teachers regardless of experience. H.B. 462 further provides that counselors and supervisors be paid from local and not State funds. Representative Wohlford feels that H.B. 8 has all of the earmarks as being a duplicate of what happened in the 53rd session when the Legislature passed a teacher's pay raise bill without providing the funds for the raise. If the appropriation bill passes as amended by the Senate, there will be $27.9 million left in the General Revenue Fund. H.B. 8 calls for $67 million. Consequently, as things stand now, a tax bill will have to be passed to finance H.B. 8 (if passed).

Representative Parish, sponsor of H.B. 462, states that H.B. 462 would be largely self-financing since the money normally spent by the State on Counselors and Supervisors would be channeled to help pay for the proposed raise.

A further consideration must be given to the Panhandle teachers in the matter of the pay raise. Most teachers in the Panhandle are being paid above the Gilmer-Aikin minimum salary. Consequently, there is a possibility that most teachers in the Panhandle would benefit more in dollars and cents from the flat raise proposed in H.B. 462. The Dalhart teachers visiting Representative Wohlford have taken the two bills under consideration for further study.

As the legislative process is accelerated, the corresponding pressure on the Representatives is increased. Except for the local and uncontented bills, there are few bills that if passed would not hurt someone. In fact, opposition stems from those who are hurt by the passage of such bills. However, that there is opposition and that it can be freely expressed is the essence of a democratic government. Democratic government also holds each Representative responsible to his constituents. The Representative is in continual conflict on how to vote on each bill. His conscience and his integrity are his only guides and he must vote as they dictate.

THREE C'S IN CREDIT

The three C's of credit are a guide for family use of the charge account, says Eula Newman, extension home management specialist. The first one is character, meaning, will you pay as you agreed to pay? The second C is for capacity and suggests the question, "can you pay as you agreed?" The third C is for capital and pertains to the security you have to offer to prove that you are a good risk. Remember that credit cannot take the place of income. It can only alter the time of payment.

the river that

More petroleum moves over
Santa Fe than over any other railroad in the country

The 2,384,000,000 gallons of petroleum that Santa Fe moves every year is the river that flows on wheels.

It's so large that it makes Santa Fe the No. 1 petroleum railroad in the country.

This flood tide of oil gives heat and power to farms, factories, military installations and homes all over the nation.

The tremendous demand for petroleum, in all its forms, poses special problems for Santa Fe. For it requires speed and service to keep that river flowing full force. Here are a few of the ways we get the job done:

We move empty tankers just as fast as full ones, so no vehicle will stand idle.

As new oil fields are opened up, we stand ready to serve them. And when new developments take place within the industry, we adapt ourselves to take care of them.

As an example, take liquefied petroleum gas. The demand for it has skyrocketed in the last 10 years, because with this "bottled gas" rural families can cook and heat with gas just like city people. And the railroads have made it possible for them to get it.

Santa Fe runs special LPG trains when the demand for this product requires it. In a year, these trains carry enough LPG to heat over 500,000 homes from November through April.

This is just a part of the story of the dependable transportation service Santa Fe is providing to essential industries that contribute so much to the welfare of our country.

Service Program Of American Cancer Society

One of the three major programs of the American Cancer Society is service to cancer patients. What is done for cancer patients varies from state to state and from county to county, but the objective remains the same, helping to relieve the suffering of cancer patients.

Many years ago the national board of the Society set up the policy that the Society could not afford to give direct financial assistance to cancer patients. The national board, made up of volunteers representing all parts of the country, felt that monies given to the Society could best be used in making the public aware of the dangers of cancer through education and through sponsoring a research program into the causes of cancer. At the same time that this policy was announced, it was decided that the Society would try to establish certain free services for cancer patients when these services were not already available within a community.

Here is Texas the American Cancer Society sponsors a variety of projects which ultimately assist cancer patients. Grants are made to County Medical Society tumor clinics across the state to aid in defraying the cost of administering them. The Society also supports many information centers, places where the public can go to get reliable information about the disease and some counsel on where to go for aid. The Society sponsors one social worker who works out of the Dallas County Tumor Clinic, and has made a grant to the Harris County Visiting Nurses Association to stimulate interest in working with cancer patients.

Probably the most direct program of service, however, is the dressings and loan closet program. Here dressings made by volunteers throughout the state are distributed free to any cancer patient requiring them, and loan items donated by people to the Society are loaned to cancer patients being cared for in their own homes. The loan and dressings closet to Stratford is the one in Amarillo. Stratford patients can get the use of a hospital bed, a wheel chair, or other small loan items, or can get all the dressings they need free of charge. For further information about this service contact some member of the Sherman County Unit of the American Cancer Society.

Everyone is urged to watch for the door to door canvass which has been set for Monday, April 29, for Stratford's cancer drive. The county goal is $550. Volunteers from the Prospectus Study Club, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority and the Home Demonstration Clubs will be calling at your door for your part in this great fight against one of the most cruel enemies, "Cancer." So today fight it with a check and a check-up.

Sunday School Secretary Is Guest Speaker

Andrew Q. Allen, Secretary of the Sunday School Department of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, was the guest speaker at the First Baptist Church Sunday night at 7:00 o'clock. Mr. Allen is a brother of Roy Allen of Stratford.

Since Mr. Allen has been with the Sunday School Department the enrollment of the 3,700 Baptist Churches in Texas, affiliated with the convention, has grown from 532,933 to 1,100,000 with an average attendance last year in excess of 500,000.

At the request of the Foreign Mission Board and the Japanese Baptist Convention Mr. Allen, along with Dr. W. L. Howse of the Sunday School Board, made a trip to the Orient in March 1956 in the interest of religious education. Conferences held in twelve different countries had a total attendance of 11,069. These meetings were held in Hawaii, Korea, Japan, Hong Kong, the Philippines, Singapore, Indonesia, Australia, Thailand, and Italy, with contacts being made also with the Missionaries in Lebanon and Switzerland. There were 294 churches and 39 mission stations represented in the conferences. Recent reports from many of these fields tell of the far-reaching steps being taken and reveal the wisdom of the investment in time and effort making this journey.

Mr. Allen related some interesting experiences about the trip.
