Court Probe of Louisiana Vote Reveals Discrepancies

OPponents OF HUEY P. LONG CHARGE FRAUD

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 2—An open court investigation of the last Nov. 8 general election in Louisiana, in which opponents of United States Senator Huey P. Long charged that his henchmen resorted to fraud to win, today revealed wide discrepancies in vote tabulation.

FATE OF LONG POLITICAL EMPIRE AT STAKE

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 2—The future of Huey P. Long's political empire was at stake today as a district judge, unmoved by a frenzied situation induced by declaration and revocation of martial law, began an open court investigation into the election last fall in which Long's henchmen were alleged to have resorted to fraud.

REPEAL ISSUE IN KENTUCKY REAL PROBLEM

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 2—Kentucky, once famous for its brands of liquor, is caught in an anomalous position on the prohibition issue, while adjoining states act to vote on repeal.

The legislature will not meet in regular session until next year. Beer was legalized under a term in the state statutes which automatically made them conform with the modified federal prohibition law and was taxed, for a time, under an old revenue law.

The courts, however, ruled the old law invalid. The state now is unable to collect revenue on manufacture and sale of beer.

RETAIL GROUPS STILL WORKING ON NRA CODES

Grocers of Eastland and Stephens counties will meet at Eastland at 8 o'clock Friday evening to form an Oil Belt Retail Grocers association. It was decided at a meeting last night.

Last night's grocers meeting at Eastland followed an address by Clyde O. Eastus, federal district attorney at Fort Worth, on the president's national recovery program.

A spirit of willingness to cooperate marked the meeting. Practically the only difficulty seen in the way to uniformity was voiced by proprietors of small suburban stores who claimed that their principal hours of trade were after the proposed closing time.

Willing to Cooperate

Clyde O. Eastus, in his address before the meetings, had pointed out the aims of the recovery program. He began by showing how the administration has met the situation facing it since President Roosevelt took office and has continued to cope with conditions.

SURVEY WILL BE MADE TO SEE RESULTS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—More than 1,000,000 white collar and industrial workers were brought under the administration's blanket re-employment program today with 14,000 banks, members of the American Bankers association joining the recovery drive.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—Aroused by evidence of "chiseling" on the voluntary re-employment agreements, officials of the national recovery administration today determined to make a strict check-up of violations and evasions.

Administrator Hugh Johnson prepared for a survey to disclose not only actual violations of signed agreements but also roundabout methods by which some employers are seeking to display the Blue Eagle and obtain benefits of the agreement without making any real contribution to re-employment and wage increases.

Reports from regional offices showed hundreds of thousands of signatures to the agreement. What the N. R. A. officials are more anxious to know, however, is the number of men actually re-employed and the amount of money added to the nation's payrolls.

More than a quarter of a million additional employees were brought under the re-employment agreement today when Johnson authorized modifications for five large industries, radio, electrical manufacturers, rayon weaving, bedding, and rayon and synthetic yarn.

Ernest Tutt, district manager of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce at Houston, advised that 19,641 Texas employers had signed the N. R. A. pledge, affecting 99,894 employees.

The association's statement is based on studies conducted by its agents. These studies showed that approximately 250,000 automobiles were stolen in the United States in 1932, and that about 225,000, or 90 per cent, were recovered.

"The success of these efforts to stamp out organized rings of car thieves," he went on, "is evident from the fact that the percentage of stolen cars recovered jumped from 71 per cent in 1920 to around 90 per cent in 1932. Additional evidence is found in reports from 70 cities which showed a decline of 15.7 per cent in the number of car thefts last year as compared with 1931."

"The wave of theft of car parts and 'joy riding' in stolen cars is blamed on youthful offenders by the reports, but the majority of those arrested for these crimes," the A. A. A. points out, "are youths of 17 or 18."

The men were charged with receiving and concealing stolen property. They also were named in conspiracy charges. Names of four others against whom charges were filed were withheld pending arrests.

Dr. John W. Tyndall, president of Randolph college, will bring a two-weeks meeting at the First Christian church here Monday evening. Services will be at 8 o'clock each evening.

Dr. David Tyndall, of Savannah, Georgia, one of the leading Christian preachers of the south, and a brother of Dr. John Tyndall, will preach at the Sunday morning service. It has been announced.

Get Rid of Malaria!

Banish Chills and Fever! To conquer Malaria, you must do two things. (1) Destroy the infection in the blood. (2) Build up the blood to overcome the effects and to fortify against further attack.

There is one medicine that does these two things and that is Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic! The tasteless quinine in Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic destroys the malarial infection in the blood while the iron builds up the blood. Thousands of people have conquered Malaria with the aid of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. In addition to being a noted remedy for Malaria, it is also an excellent tonic of general use.

Modern Medicine Uses Indian Cures

CHICAGO, Aug. 2—Modern medicine owes many remarkable cures to recent inventions and discoveries, but still turns for many cures to drugs and herbs discovered by Indians long before Columbus was born.

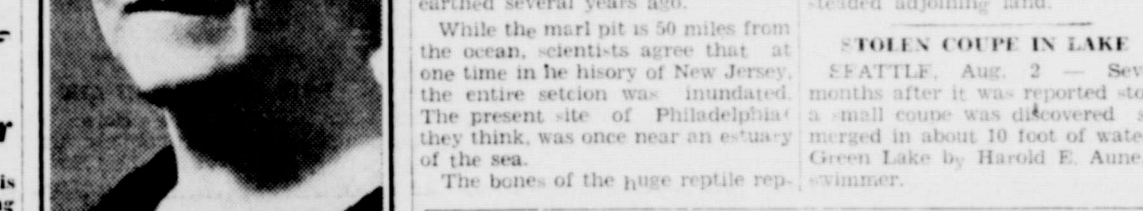

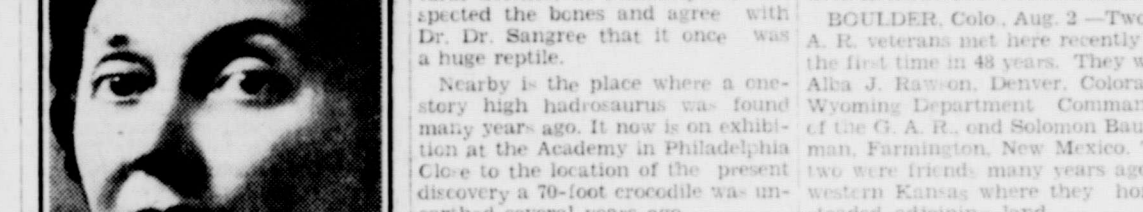

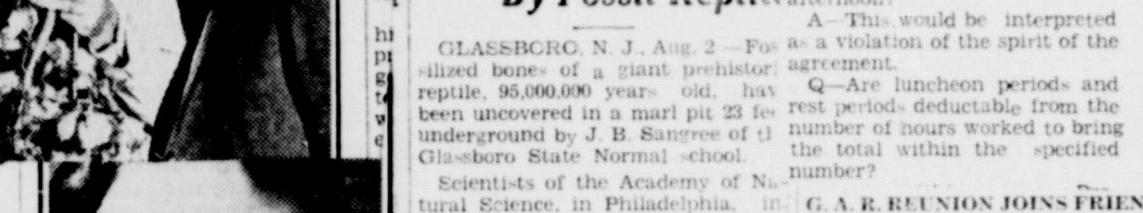

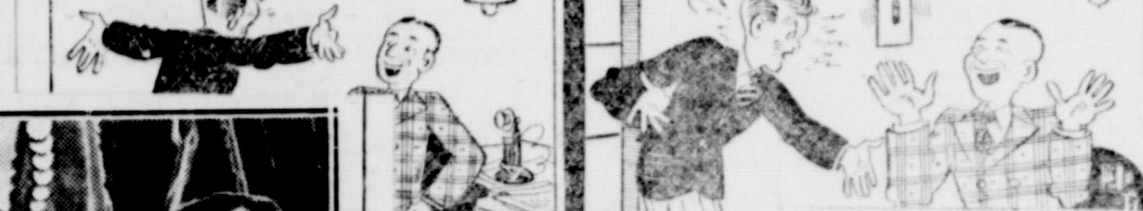

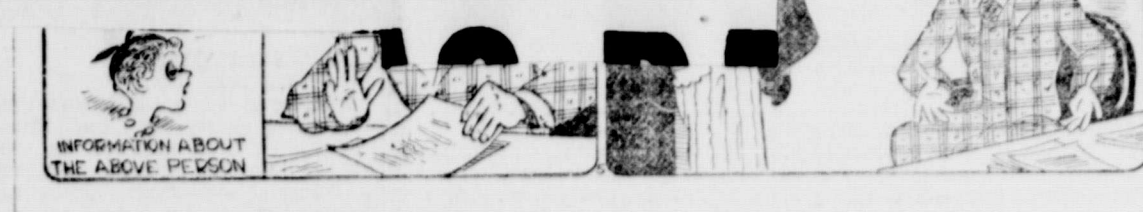

Not only were the drugs discovered by Indians, but they were used to cure the same diseases that physicians prescribe them for today.

These facts are brought out in a striking manner in the display of "American Indian medicine" in the hall of science, world's fair. Show cases are filled with such drugs as capicum, peruvian bark, cascara, coca, mandrake, snake root, and black cherries. All were used by Indian medicine men.

AND ROUNDUP—FIFTIETH CONTINUOUS YEAR.

CISCO, TEXAS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 3, 1933.

The engagement of Governor John G. Pollard of Virginia and Miss Violet Elizabeth McDougall, his executive secretary, has been announced by Miss McDougall's mother, Mrs. Ellen McDougall, a resident of Winnipeg, Canada.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 — Next to Madame Secretary of Labor Perkins, Nellie Taylor Ross is the most important woman in President Roosevelt's administration.

Mrs. Ross is director of the United States mint and so has charge of mountains of dimes and the hills of dollars which the nation's money factories grind out each year.

She has a commodious office in the treasury building with an excellent view of the white house grounds. There she directs the business of manufacturing hard cash in Philadelphia, San Francisco and Denver.

Wifehood and motherhood is the most satisfying and the highest career of a woman.

Mrs. Ross is the mother of four children, two of whom are deceased. She was a devoted wife to William Bradford Ross, an attorney who became governor of Wyoming in 1923.

Optimistic feminists frequently mentioned her as a vice-presidential possibility. When that did not come to pass, they urged that she be included in President Roosevelt's cabinet.

Mrs. Ross, however, has decided to be director in fact as well as in name. She has taken great interest in the process of turning copper into pennies and silver into dollars.

Dollar Value Drop Hurts Americans

BERLIN, Aug. 2 — Americans in Germany are beginning to feel some alarm at the depreciation of the dollar. They are starting to feel the pinch and to grumble slightly.

The hardest hit are the students. Ordinarily there are from 200 to 250 students here, most of them dependent on a fixed remittance which is usually very modest, even expressed in par dollars.

Several applications have been made to the U. S. Consulate for transportation home, but these can be traced chiefly to bank failures beginning in March. There has been no particular increase since the dollar started down.

On the other side of the ledger, U. S. trade has gained comparatively little in Germany on account of the depreciation, due chiefly to the government's high protective tariff and contingent policies.

Taking Your Dollar to Market

EVERY year your family, and every family of your acquaintance, spends about 70 per cent of its income just for living, exclusive of rent—so economic experts tell us. Think what this means—seven dollars out of every ten invested in food, clothing, household utilities and all the multitude of things that keep a family comfortable and happy.

That part of spending is readily understood. But do you realize that every manufacturer and retailer of these necessities is planning how he can get your dollar?

It's a big job to spend so much money wisely and well. It requires careful business methods to get the best possible returns from each dollar that leaves the family purse.

The clever woman goes for help to the advertisements in her daily paper. There she finds a directory of buying and selling. She learns about the offerings of merchants and manufacturers. She compares values, she weighs quality and price. She takes this opportunity of judging and selecting almost everything she needs to feed, clothe, amuse, instruct and generally bring up her family.

Do you read the advertisements? You will find them willing and able to serve you in the daily business of purchase.

President J. A. Bearman then assumed the chair and called upon Lion Moldave for a discussion on the N. R. A. and how it is expected to affect business locally during the next few weeks. This report led to further discussion among the members as to how the program was being carried out and each member who talked on the matter gave his views as to the effectiveness of the program at the moment.

Great interest was manifested by most all members present.
