Insull Is Arrested at Istanbul by Turkish Authorities

TO BE TURNED OVER TO U. S. IMMEDIATELY

BULLETIN ISTANBUL, Turkey, April 2. — The Turkish government officially informed Robert Skinsler, U. S. ambassador, today that it would extradite Samuel Insull to the United States.

ISTANBUL, Turkey, April 2. — The authorities will turn him over to the United States for extradition. Insull was arrested at the hotel where he has been under close police guard since he was taken off his steamer ship yesterday and held in court to be subject to extradition. Fighting for freedom, Insull contacted his local lawyers, but it was believed the purely executive process of surrendering him to the United States could be delayed much longer. From his hotel he was taken to the house of detention to be kept in custody until American authorities call him. It was believed Insull would be freed on an early boat bound either directly for the United States or a port where he could be transferred to a New York boat.

EASTER SUNDAY SERVICES DRAW LARGE NUMBERS

Sunday's services drew large attendances at the various churches in the city celebrated the Easter season in weather that provided the most favorable Sunday in several years. The union cantata program at the First Methodist church drew a capacity crowd. The service began at 7 a. m. at the First Christian church where Dr. David F. Tyndall, Christian church pastor, preached a sermon. A large congregation was present for the service. A nass-choir sang for it. The service, annually conducted by the Cisco Commandery in union and with impressive ritual, was held in a church building this year instead of at sunrise in the athletic field because of the fear of inclement weather.

Rail Robbery Trial Nears Jury Today

PORT WORTH, April 2.—The fifth day of the trial of the $100,000 mail robbery trial was today with completion of defense government arguments. The defense indicated it hoped for at least nothing more severe for C. Stevens, alleged leader, than conviction on the conspiracy to stage a robbery. Stevens testified he had been in an original plot but had withdrawn a month before the robbery, February 21, 1933. Hope for an instructed verdict of guilty for Claude Hill and M. B. Ward also was held out by defense attorneys.

Forms for New Oil Reports Are Rushed

AUSTIN, April 2 — Forms and orders requiring sworn well production and refinery reports were rushed toward completion here today as the state railroad commission prepared to arm itself with the final provisions of new oil statistics. Commissioners hoped to have the forms ready for publication by tomorrow morning. The law makes violation of commission orders a punishable by penitentiary imprisonment.

First Cooking School Lecture Given Today

Hundreds of Cisco women, and even a few interested men, gathered today to witness the first demonstrations in food preparation and serving, as conducted by Mrs. Martha McDonald, noted home economist food lecturer of Dallas, in her "Happy Kitchen" Cooking school, sponsored by the Cisco Daily News and the Community Natural Gas company.

The exhibition is being held at 617 D avenue, in a building directly across the street from the Piggly Wiggly Grocery, with comfortable seating accommodations, and an elevated platform on which the kitchen has been installed, easily in the view of all. In her delightful kitchen, equipped with gas ranges, heaters, cooking tables, and Electrolux, Mrs. McDonald demonstrated and explained the advantages of the closed-top range, and the desirability of using proper utensils — fitted covers, flat-bottomed utensils, water-less cookers with cleverly inset triplicate pans, steamers, etc. An entire meal may be cooked in a waterless cooker, she said, vegetables and meat in separate compartments.

Simple Things "It's still the simple things that count most in the kitchen," said Mrs. McDonald. "And the main problem is to find new ways to make old dishes better." Moving from tables to range, to refrigerator, beating, stirring, and mixing while she explained each step in the preparation of a dish, Mrs. McDonald stressed economy in the kitchen — economy of ingredients and time used in preparation. "Ability to manage her kitchen economically both for food and time spent preparing it, is one of the main tests of the good housewife," she said.

"It is possible to serve just as nutritious and just as tasty meals on a small amount weekly as it is on your share of a millionaire's income," the kitchen expert declares. "And just as great a variety is possible in menus in one budget as in the other." "The careful shopper always reads the labels on the packages. Half of the job of cooking is done with the market basket, and for that reason, I shall devote a great deal of my time to marketing tips — local tips that will fit the needs of Cisco housewives."

The flour used in demonstrations is Gladiolus, distributed locally by J. M. Radford Grocery Co., K. C. baking powder, McHenry's Tabasco sauce, and Mrs. Tucker's shortening, are other standard products demonstrated. All the dairy products are being furnished by the Cisco Dairy association, and the

Congress Adjourns to Honor Dead Member

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2. — The death of Rep. Edward W. Poirer, North Carolina democrat, early Sunday today brought adjournment of legislative business in the house and senate as tribute was paid to the veteran legislator, oldest member of the house in point of service. Legislation was sidetracked in order that funeral services for the dean of the house might be held, Poirer, chairman of the powerful rules committee, died of a complication of diseases. He had been ill for several years but his condition did not become serious until a few days ago. He was 71.

3 COMM'RS TO BE CHOSEN IN VOTE TUESDAY

Cisco voters tomorrow will elect three commissioners to a two-year term to fill as many vacancies on the city government body occurring with expiration of the terms of Commissioners J. R. Burnett, H. C. Henderson and W. R. (Bob) Winston. The three are candidates for re-election. Opposing them are W. J. Donovan, L. F. Mendenhall and W. F. Moore.

The latter three candidates, unsuccessful in their efforts to force the city commission to print their names upon the ballot after the commission claimed they filed too late, have conducted a strenuous "write-in" campaign. The polls will open at 8 a. m. in the city hall and will close at 7 p. m. The box will probably be located in the mayor's office at the front of the building.

Utah Prepares For Earthquake Relief

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 2.—Creation of Salt Lake disaster relief organization is Salt Lake officials' answer to the challenge of a series of earthquakes which shook northern Utah recently. The organization, which consists of several units, including the Salt Lake Visiting Nurse association, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts and CWA workers specially trained in first aid, will, according to John M. Knight, commissioner of public safety, be ready to answer any emergency call. The body will work in co-operation with a similar organization of the American Legion. The organization will be under the direct supervision of city officials.

Thomas Dee, first aid instructor for the police department, is acting director and announced that plans for immediate action have been completed. Northern Utah, in which are located Salt Lake City and Ogden, both large centers of population, lies in what geologists call an earthquake belt. Several faults of which follows the face of the Wasatch range, is the largest, are a constant threat of earth movement.

The recent shocks—there were more than a hundred in four days—did little damage, spending their violence in the sparsely settled region of Hanzel Valley. Geologists who visited the scene found several cracks in the earth running several miles long and more than a foot wide. One face of the largest was nearly 18 inches lower than the other, showing, the geologists said, that the quake was equal in intensity to the one which created havoc in the Long Beach area of southern California little more than a year ago.

Wounded Girl Is Sought After Raid

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 2.—Federal agents and police today sought a badly wounded girl in their hunt for a gang of desperadoes which was flushed from cover yesterday when federal agents came to their apartment. St. Paul police at first announced that John Dillinger, notorious outlaw, was among the gangsters. This was later denied by federal agents. The girl was believed to have been shot by City Detective Henry Cummings.

STATE RECORD SHATTERED AT COUNTY MEET

By FRANK LANGSTON One state record was shattered and others came near to toppling in the determined attack upon them by the class B tracksters of the county at the annual Interscholastic league meet held at Eastland Saturday. Charlie Livingston, Scranton, led the assault in the sprints by winning the 100, the 220, and the 440 yard dashes. His time of 52.6 bettered the state class B mark by two tenths of a second and was one second faster than that of Garrison, who won the class A event.

Scranton had little difficulty in winning the class B meet, while Cisco took first in the class A division, closely followed by Eastland. The class A title was still in doubt as the last event, the mile relay, was called. Cisco took an early lead in the relay, but dropped the baton at the halfway mark, and finished second. Had Eastland won the relay instead of Gorman the class A championship would have gone to the Mavericks.

Luke Trammel Is Captured Again

COLEMAN, April 2.—Luke Trammel, 24, under penitentiary terms totalling 160 years and regarded as one of Texas' worst criminals, was behind jail bars today. Trammel, who escaped from the King county jail last Tuesday night after slugging the jailer with an iron bar, was captured by Sheriff Frank Mills and other officers 25 miles southwest of here. When cornered, the bandit offered no resistance. He begged officers not to shoot him. Trammel was convicted in Sweetwater last October for the murder of John Lamkin, Nolan county deputy sheriff, and was sentenced to 50 years imprisonment. He also had been sentenced for robbery here, at Abilene, Sweetwater and elsewhere in Texas.

Ancient Caves Are Hunted by Italian

ROME, April 2.—Professor Durio Reilini of the Rome university has completed an interesting trip throughout the Gargano, the mountainous peninsula projecting east from the north coast of Apulia. On the slopes of this promontory, both along the coastline as well as in the neighboring inland territories of Vico and Ischitella, he discovered and explored about one hundred caverns. In these, he reports, abundant evidence of prehistoric life in Apulia ranging from the introduction of agriculture to the Stone Age, was found. The importance of this discovery, according to several archaeologists, is increased by the fact that Apulia was colonized and civilized since earliest historical times by the Greeks. Positive evidence of the relations between the prehistoric inhabitants of the region with those on the opposite Adriatic shore are very scarce. The Gargano, in fact, originally belonged geographically to the Dalmatian coast and was separated from the rest of Italy by a stretch of sea as late as the Tertiary period. Its highest point is Mount Clavo, 3,465 feet above sea level.

The material collected by Professor Reilini is varied and considered invaluable in proving that the Dalmatian coast and inhabitants were once closely related to Italy. A young British painter, Stanley A. Burchett, who was formerly in the Grenadier Guards, started the new fingernail fashion by accident. While painting a garden scene recently, he stopped his work to satisfy a little girl who wanted "a teeny picture for herself." Burchett quickly painted it on her fingernail. The child's mother was so attracted by the result that she commissioned the painter to decorate her nails. Since then the innovation has spread among stage and society leaders. One well known woman appeared at a fashionable race meeting with her host's horse and jockey, complete even to racing colors painted on her nails.

YOUNGEST FRAT PLEDGE KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 2.—The youngest pledge to the Sigma Chi fraternity is Edward Setzler, Jr., four months old. About 200 members of the fraternity met at the home of Edward Setzler, former president of the organization, and made the infant a pledge.

WOMAN WITH SUSPECT; PAIR ESCAPE TRAP

WICHITA FALLS, April 2.—A man believed to be Clyde Barrow was sighted at Alvord, near Decatur on the Fort Worth to Wichita Falls highway today. Accompanying was a red-haired woman, whom officers believed was Bonnie Parker. The man and woman were riding in a four-door black Ford V-8 sedan toward Wichita Falls. Officers set a trap for them at Sunset, but the couple evidently turned off on a side road. It was thought they might have headed toward Montague. All highways in this area were being guarded by patrolmen.

INTENSIVE MANHUNT BEING STAGED

DALLAS, April 2.—An intensive manhunt for Clyde Barrow and his cigar-smoking companion, Bonnie today following the coldblooded slaying of two state highway patrolmen at Grapevine yesterday. The officers, F. B. Wheeler, 26, of Fort Worth, and H. D. Murphy, 24, of Alto, Texas, were killed with buckshot fired from shotguns by occupants of an automobile, who then fled toward the east. The officers approached the machine, parked 100 yards of the main highway, to question the occupants.

Other officers who gathered in this region to search for the killers concluded that a man and woman, both clad in brown riding habits, were the occupants of a large black sedan which sped away from the scene of the shooting. An all-night search of highways leading to Dallas and Fort Worth and known haunts of the notorious couple failed to reveal their whereabouts.

REWARDS OFFERED FOR CAPTURE

AUSTIN, April 2.—Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson today offered a state reward of $300 for capture "dead or alive" of Clyde Barrow, Raymond Hamilton or other persons who killed Highway Patrolmen Wheeler and Murphy. The state motor police commission also offered a $1,000 reward for the arrest of the slayers.

FINGERPRINTS FOUND TO BE BARROW'S

PORT WORTH, April 2.—Murder charges were filed here today against Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker in the slaying of two highway patrolmen at Grapevine, Texas, yesterday. FORT WORTH, April 2.—Fingerprints on a bottle discarded by bandits who yesterday killed two patrolmen near Grapevine were identified today as those of Clyde Barrow, notorious fugitive. With this information, the detectives said charges of murder would be filed here today against Barrow.

Wounded Stockman's Condition Serious

AMARILLO, April 2.—W. S. (Bill) Cline, Omaha, Neb., stockman wounded during a downtown hotel gun battle in which Gerald Knapp, Luyer and feeder of Dixon, Ill., was killed, was reported still in a serious condition here today. Cline was exonerated late Saturday of any blame in connection with Knapp's death. The grand jury "no-bill" him on evidence he shot in self-defense. The shooting followed a quarrel over a cattle deal.

Seascapes Painted Upon Fingernails

LONDON, April 2.—Shades of Conrad, Maselield, and the men who went down to the sea in ships! Now the sea will come up to the men on nails—on women's fingernails! The latest craze in feminine adornment in London started with the painting of miniature seascapes on fingernails. It has since spread to landscapes and miniatures of all descriptions. A young British painter, Stanley A. Burchett, who was formerly in the Grenadier Guards, started the new fingernail fashion by accident. While painting a garden scene recently, he stopped his work to satisfy a little girl who wanted "a teeny picture for herself."

TABASCO SAUCE IS PRODUCT OF WAR PROVERTY

In 1852 a man by the name of Gleason, who has been with General Scott during the capture of Mexico City in 1847 and who had remained in Mexico after the close of the Mexican war with the United States, came to New Orleans and while there gave to E. McIlhenny the seeds of some peppers, which he said had an especially fine flavor, and grew in the State of Tabasco, Mexico. These pepper seeds were planted by Mr. McIlhenny at the family plantation, Avery Island, near New Iberia, and the quality of the peppers was so good that he continued to grow them year by year in the kitchen garden for table use, as both he and his father-in-law, Judge Avery, were fond of highly seasoned food.

During the war between the North and South, and after the occupation of Louisiana by the federal troops, the Avery and McIlhenny families were banished from their home state and sent by General Banks to Austin, Texas, but returned to their plantation, home at Avery Island at the close of the war. Like all Southerners these two families were financially ruined by the war, and being without funds with which to buy the things that help to make food tasty Mr. McIlhenny began experimenting with making condiments from the herbs and peppers found growing about his old home. Among other plants that had survived the lack of cultivation during his absence were some pepper bushes like those that grew from the seed Gleason had given him. With the pulp of these peppers, as a base, he made a hot aromatic sauce for table use, and gave some of it to his friends, who liked it so much that Mr. McIlhenny continued making it. Among those who tried the sauce and liked it was General Hazard, who was federal administrator for southwest Louisiana. General Hazard induced Mr. McIlhenny to make a sufficient amount of the sauce so he could take some North on his next trip. This was done and General Hazard gave some of the sauce to his brother, E. C. Hazard, who was head of the largest wholesale grocery house in New York. E. C. Hazard was so impressed with the value of the sauce as a food seasoner that he got in touch with McIlhenny and introduced him to pack the sauce for market, and give him the agency for its distribution in the United States. Mr. McIlhenny consented to do this, and in 1868, TABASCO SAUCE put up in New Iberia, Louisiana, was offered the public.

Since that time, TABASCO through its high value as a piquant seasoning has become world wide in its distribution. In 1872 an agency was established in London for marketing TABASCO in Europe, and this sauce on each bottle of which are the words TABASCO NEW IBERIA LOUISIANA, can now be found in every civilized county in the world. An instance showing the wide distribution of Tabasco is given in Lord Kitchener's report to the British government after his conquest of Khartoum. This report states "TABASCO" was found further in the desert than any other civilized food product. Tabasco is a pure pepper sauce made without cooking, but by fermentation in oaken casks and it requires the heat of two summers to properly ferment it, and give it its mellow delightful flavor. Tabasco is especially valuable for seasoning eggs. As the English say, "It makes a good egg better and a bad egg good." Tabasco has the greatest value when used in the kitchen. A few drops in your gravies gives the meat an exceptionally fine flavor. It also adds a wonderful flavor to mashed potatoes, or when used in connection with butter on baked potatoes. When cooking eggs in any form Tabasco should always be used in order to bring out the highest flavor of the egg. A little Tabasco in soups, when cooking adds greatly to their palatableness. On the table a few drops in your breakfast eggs and milk changes the flavor to such an extent, that the food is much more palatable. This sauce has the widest distribution of any food products in the world.

Texans Puzzled by Mysterious Spring

BALMORHEA, April 2 — For three years government experts have been testing the mountains and adjacent territory around Balmorhea in an effort to locate the source of a mysterious spring that flows 32,000,000 gallons of water a day and creates a fertile valley of 15,000 acres here.

The government experts, if they can find the source, hope to increase the flow.

Water from the spring runs into a 640-acre lake at Balmorhea after passing through probably the finest swimming pool in the southwest.

During the winter months the spring, together with surface drainage from the mountains, fills the huge lake to a depth of 40 feet. In the summer the water is released for farm lands. Cotton and alfalfa are the principal crops.

Another mystery attraction at Balmorhea is Phantom Lake, formed by a flow of water from the face of a mountain bluff. The water gushes out on private ranch property.

There is a legend at Balmorhea that three brothers discovered this flow of water from the cliff and one of them determined to investigate.

According to the legend, he dived into the stream and swam under a ledge from behind which the water gushed, then came up on the other side to find himself in a large and beautiful cavern.

Most Balmorheans doubt the story and, so far as is known, no present resident has tried to swim back under the ledge to verify it.

RECIPROCAL TARIFF PLAN ON THE WAY

House democrats deserted the president when it came to standing up and taking the count on the veto message which added almost a third of a billion dollars to the taxes of the people. Then they rallied to the presidential standard and pushed the administration tariff bill over stubborn as well as the very aggressive opposition of the minority—meaning the republican members. A roll call vote on passage was demanded by the republicans and granted—resulting in approval by 273 to 111. It was strictly along party lines. Three farm-labor members from the Northwest voted with the democrats. Only two republicans broke away from the wigwam of the elephant and voted for the F. D. tariff plan. Now quick action in the senate by both democratic and republican leaders is predicted.

Sen. Charles McNary of Oregon, minority leader, frankly conceded the measure would pass the senate virtually as approved by the house. As drafted and enacted by the house it is one of the important legislative acts of the New Deal administration. It would empower the president to negotiate without congressional approval trade agreements with foreign nations for the export of American surpluses. It carries authority for the executive to lower or raise existing tariff rates 50 per cent in making the pacts. It limits to three years the authority for negotiating trade agreements. Another important provision is that "nothing in this act shall be construed to give any authority to cancel or reduce, in any manner, any of the indebtedness of any foreign country to the United States."

Government crop control of American staples must come about or else foreign markets must be found for the surpluses. "An America Self-Contained" would result in crop control some day with tariff walls as high as the sky for the protection of the farmers of America and its manufacturers and wage workers.

"HITLERISM HAS INVADDED AMERICA."

Editor Raymond Moley of the magazine today has invaded the field of sensationalism. In the early days of the New Deal administration Editor Moley was prominent in the brain trust. He was very much in the picture and in the press for months and months. Then Vincent Astor launched the magazine Today. Today has taken a new departure. Editor Moley has broadcast the news: "Existence of a fully organized, nationwide organization in the United States to establish the principles of German Hitlerism in this country and to replace democratic principles of popular government, will be disclosed in an elaborately documented series of articles, the first installment of which was published Friday. One Samuel Duff McCoy, 'newspaper man whose sensational expose for the New York World in 1923 brought about reform of the Florida prison camp system,' is the author of the first of the 'elaborately documented series of articles.' There are tons of bunk unloaded on the American public. Included in the list of the bunkers and sensational writers of political fiction will be found the name of the Gary school master who is responsible for the Kerensky tale of the coming of Soviet Russia revolution under American skies. Americans are not fools. They are not children. They are very patient, they are very self-sacrificing and they know the difference between a government of the people made by the people and a government of serfs made by the Stalins and Mussolinis and Hitlers of the foreign world. This republic will remain a nation of free people. They will continue to do their own thinking, their own voting, their own selecting of their public servants and their own experimenting in the wide field of economic research. In the not remote past the old order was overturned at the ballot box. Patriotic men and women of America planted their ballots where they would do the most good 'for all of the people and a few of the people.' If 'Hitlerism has invaded America,' then Hitlerism or communism will be stamped out by the many millions of Americans (native and adopted) who believe that the many should rule wisely and that the few should bow to the wisdom of the majority as expressed at the ballot box.

COTTON CONTROL BILL ENACTED

A showdown came at last on the Bankhead bill when the senate approved the application of a 75 per cent tax on the value of all cotton in excess of 10,000,000 bales that may be ginned from this year's crop. Many amendments were taken on the bill. Many critics of the measure declared these amendments would prevent enforcement but Bankhead, the Alabama senator and co-author, predicted the senate conference committee would straighten these out. It was a close vote—46 for to 39 against. Only one senator from a state that produces any considerable amount of cotton opposed final passage. He was Josiah W. Bailey of North Carolina—one of the great textile manufacturing states of the sisterhood. A blind senator, Thomas Pryor Gore of Oklahoma, was paired against the bill. Forty years ago Thomas Pryor Gore was a voting citizen of Corsicana, Texas. He was one of the foremost orators of the populist party. He insisted that all money should be sent from the government printing press. He demanded that the people should strangle "the money wolf of Wall street." Then he moved to Oklahoma and became a democrat.

Texas is the greatest of all the cotton producing states. Its senators voted for the amendment bill. Now cotton control will be given the acid test for the first time in the history of the republic. "That other Bailey," meaning Josiah W. of North Carolina, and Thomas Pryor Gore of Oklahoma, in the beginning of his career a most radical of all the populists, are in the lookout chairs.

You Can't Blame Him for Wanting to Take a Boat Trip

President Roosevelt and the Senate

By HUGH NUGENT FITZGERALD Well—the expected has happened—expected by the readers of history as well as all men and women familiar with veto messages with a nation-wide election on the way. By a three-vote margin the senate enacted over President Roosevelt's veto the independent offices appropriation bill with veterans and federal pay provisions higher than the New Deal administration had wanted. Place this in the record. The vote of 63 to 27 ended what its critics called "the rout of the administration." First the house voted 310 to 72 against the veto. Then the senate followed in its wake. A two-thirds majority was required to pass the measure over the veto. The 27 nays were all democrats. This means that approximately $90,000,000 to $100,000,000 will be returned to World War and Spanish-American war veterans annually "without review of their cases to determine if their disabilities were of service origin." It also means that government employees who had their salaries cut 15 per cent by the economy act will get back 5 per cent of $26,000,000 from February 1 to July 1, and another 5 per cent for the next fiscal year, or about $125,000,000. Thirty-three republicans and 29 democrats voted to smash the veto. Sen. Shipstead, the lone farmer-labor representative from Minnesota, joined the majority. Ninety senators were recorded on the vote. The other six were pairs. Many western democratic senators deserted the president. William Gibbs McAdoo was one of their cheer leaders. Hiram Johnson of California was another. Speaking of and for Texas and Texas, Sen. Morris Sheppard and Tom Connally voted to sustain the veto and went down in defeat with their flags flying. In other words, history repeated itself. Many republican presidents were given the up-percut blow in by gone years, speaking of veto messages in the interest for war veterans or to increase the wage of the vast army of employees on the payroll of Uncle Sam. These things happen in a nationwide election year. Now it will be for the people to make answer by their verdict in the coming month of November. A NEW STAMP WHISTLER'S PORTRAIT Postmaster Gen. James A. Farley has approved the selection of Whistler's portrait of "My Mother" for the Mothers' day postage stamp. The new stamp will be about the same size as a special delivery stamp will contain identification wording and in the lower left corner a small vase of carnations. Among his other accomplishments the postmaster general has an artistic mind as well as the artistic touch. He never renegeed but once. He refused to wear a 10-gallon hat. WHAT WILL WE USE FOR MONEY? Another problem was passed on to the New Deal administration when the senate and the house knocked out the veto of the president. Now administration leaders have a problem to solve—where to get another $28,000,000, the cost of the overthrow of the first major veto of the chief magistrate. By a three-vote margin the senate approved on the statute books the $830,000,000 independent office appropriation bill. In it were the increased payments for veterans and government employees which had been the bone of contention. Republican senators, 35 in all, must shoulder their share of the responsibility. They backed the bill to a finish and they voted to override the veto. Now "what will we use for money?" is the query of the lawmakers of the nation who hold the purse strings and who must tap new sources of revenue before recess of the congress. Cash on the barrel head for the veterans and the employees of the government calls for quick action on the part of those who make the appropriations for the support of the government. All this means additional taxes. All this means that the president will ask congress to provide additional revenue "or the budget will not be balanced in 1935."

AUSTIN, March 31 — A single news item in Texas papers this week offered its own eloquent commentary on law enforcement. Here were its two paragraphs: 'Mr. X resigned his public office, whereupon indictment against him for conversion of public money was dismissed. "Blank negro" was given two years in the penitentiary, for pilfering.'

bill and other new oil legislation; and from steps taken under it. Sen. Pollard recognized that more stringent enforcement will result if the acts themselves are being subjected to court review to determine their validity...

Dean C. S. Potts of S. M. U. school of law, former University of Texas law professor, has pointed to archaic county government conditions in Texas by advocating total repeal of the system of 254 sheriffs and over 1,000 deputy sheriffs, as a move toward the more efficient enforcement of law...

Mrs. John Haley of Midland, announcing for the seat held by Frank Stubbeman, is the second woman candidate for the legislature this year.

SHARK-OIL BAROMETERS HAMILTON, Bermuda, April 2 — One of the many quaint customs which persist among the inhabitants of Bermuda is the use of "shark-oil barometers." A glass bottle filled with shark-oil is corked and hung on an outside wall or porch. In good weather the shark-oil is clear as water; on the approach of storms the oil turns a white, milky color.

HUGE COFFEE CROP LANDED NEW ORLEANS, April 2 — The largest cargo of Brazilian coffee in a decade—more than 6,000 tons, in 161,898 sacks and valued at approximately $1,500,000—was discharged recently at New Orleans docks. The largest cargo to reach this port was 112,844 bays in 1923.

WHERE HISTORY INSPIRES THE PRESENT The nature of my research work, which is being sadly neglected at present, has caused me to be in London several weeks. London, which offers many places of historical interest and appears to be medieval in many aspects, also has the modern features to characterize of American cities. There one can enjoy the advantage of modern civilization, and at the same time see the objects of historical tradition so dear to the English heart.

Political Announcement The Cisco Daily News and American Roundup are authorized to announce the following as candidates for the political offices with which their names are associated, subject to the action of the democratic 1934 primaries:

For County Comm'r, Pre. No. 4: ARCH BINT, BIRT BRITAIN, L. H. QUALLS, J. J. HONEA

For County School Superintendent: C. S. ELDRIDGE

GRAND SHADOWS IN SPAIN "As you may know, I spent the Christmas holidays in Spain. As my travels in that country took me only through the southern part of that degraded nation, I saw the most backward and least progressive section of Spain, with its congenial people and its excellent food, is an intensely interesting place. The many beautiful cathedrals, casting their shadows over districts stricken with poverty, are the show places of the Spanish nation. The magnificent cathedral in Seville, the mosque in Cordoba, and the Alhambra in Granada were of particular interest to me. Their standards are far below those in America, but from all indications the central and northern part of Spain is much more progressive."

A GLIMPSE OF THE EAST "While on the Mediterranean coast I went across to Morocco, and a visit to Letuan, one of the native Arab tribes, was easily the outstanding event of the trip. There one can get a glimpse of eastern civilization, and although they have been influenced by the Spanish—and as a matter of fact have left their stamp on Spanish civilization—they have retained many of their strange, mysterious manners and customs. Just a taste of the East immediately convinces one that their civilization is radically different from that of the Western world. I shall never forget two days in Letuan, but hope to see the real East before this adventure comes to an end."

GERMAN PEOPLE ARE CONGENIAL After a term in Oxford, during which time I travelled over parts of England with the track team, I decided to pass a few weeks in Germany before returning to London to resume work. And so, here I am in Freiburg, Germany, a university town situated at the foothills of the mountains of the Black Forest. The scenery of the surrounding country is very beautiful with the mountain tops covered with snow and ice. A visit to Feldberg last Sunday afforded me an opportunity to see some skiing and a country covered with snow, but as it was snowing heavily all day it was impossible for a Texan to enjoy such an interesting spectacle.

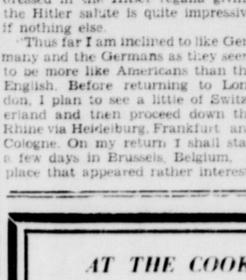

"I have found the Germans to be a very congenial people. They welcome foreign visitors, and the Hitler regime has put no obstacles in the path of tourists. Any analysis by me of the Hitler movement would be indeed premature and perhaps fallacious. It is certainly the recognized order of day in this country and if the people do not approve of it, their denunciation is done in private rather than in public. It seems to be a 'young man's' movement, and the groups of German boys and men crossed in the Hitler regalia giving the Hitler salute is quite impressive if nothing else."

"Thus far I am inclined to like Germany and the Germans as they seem to be more like Americans than the English. Before returning to London, I plan to see a little of Switzerland and then proceed down the Rhine via Heilbrunn, Frankfurt and Cologne. On my return, I shall stay a few days in Brussels, Belgium, a place that appeared rather interesting when we passed through it on the train."

"I have written enough if not too much. How is Cisco, and what are the prospects for a football team next year?"

The letter concluded with a request for news, which I shall endeavor to give him via an early mail, and best wishes for his friends in Cisco.

WOMAN'S WEAKNESS Miss Minnie Howard of Route 1, Quinlan, Texas, says: "Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is one of the world's greatest medicines. It cannot be beat! It relieved me of all the trouble I had. I have recommended it to my friends and they all find it O. K. as recommended."

San Francisco after nine years as a United Press Staff correspondent in the Orient.

It had been asked me aboard the steamer en route from Yokohama; it was asked me in Los Angeles, in Hollywood, in Las Vegas, in Salt Lake, in Cheyenne, in Denver, in Kansas City, in Chicago—in New York.

It was asked aboard trains, in motor buses, in clubs, streets, subways and even in airplanes.

It is apparent a great many Americans think a Russo-Japanese war is imminent. Many of them believe it will come this spring.

Why? The Answer
Apparently because most Americans think Russians and Japanese would fight about the things over which Americans would fight.

Americans know Japan is sole sponsor of the independent state of Manchoukuo, which was Manchuria, which was a part of China.

They know Manchoukuo controls the Chinese Eastern Railway—has renamed it the North Manchurian railway. They know Russia claims ownership of the line—that Japan has admitted, tacitly at least, that Russian claims have a standing in international law even if they might not stand in any international code of morals.

Vital Link
They know Russia has gone to war about the railway before; they know it is a vital link in Russian communications; many of them believe it is essential to any foreign policy in Moscow which envisages Russia as playing her traditional role of one of the dominant powers in the Orient.

The Chinese Eastern Railway commonly is cited as a primary cause for war—Japan control; the railway because she controls Manchoukuo. Russia will fight to get it back.

That is sound reasoning as far as it goes. But it does not go far enough.

The history of the Chinese Eastern Railway is a long, long story. It goes back to the last century. It was, and is, only one part of Russia's dream of an ice free port in the Pacific—of control of the tremendous trade of Cathay and the Orient.

The Chinese Eastern was built in the day of Russian penetration into Northern Asia after the Boxer uprising of 1900 when the Czar was carrying forward a scheme which envisaged complete control of Manchuria and Korea.

Part of 1905 Pattern
It was part of a pattern which led to the Russo-Japanese war of 1905 which ended in a Japanese victory, in Japanese control of Korea, in Japan becoming the dominant power in Manchuria.

Russia sustained a set back from which, so far as her Oriental policy is concerned, she never has recovered.

It is a remembrance of this war

Today's Pattern

Club Affairs—
The ideal frock for the Club or general wear. Its lines are attractive and particularly flattering for the mature figure. Notice the surprise plastron that ends in a tie at the back of the neck-line. Easy to make.

SOME of those pretty little speeches you'll hear at the club will be in praise of this delightful costume. Designed in nine sizes—26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52—the number may be made up in crepe, tulle or spring prints. Size 44 requires 5 1/2 yards of 39 inch material plus 1-2 yard of 35 inch contrast for the plastron.

To secure a PATTERN and simple sewing chart of this model, tear out this sketch and mail it to JULIA BOYD, 103 PARK AVENUE, NEW YORK, N. Y., together with 15 CENTS IN COIN. Be sure to enclose, on a separate sheet of paper, YOUR NAME, FULL ADDRESS, YOUR SIZE, THE NUMBER OF THIS PATTERN (No. 136), and mention the NAME OF THIS NEWSPAPER.

possibly, which, so far as her Oriental policy is concerned, she never has recovered.

It is a remembrance of this war possibly, which caused Moscow to offer to sell the Chinese Eastern to Manchoukuo last spring.

That is point many American observers are overlooking. Russia did offer to sell the railway to Manchoukuo, conversations were started, broke down because of disagreement about the price, now are resumed.

Manchoukuo May Buy Road
The indications today are that the conference has a fair chance of eventual success, that Manchoukuo will buy the Chinese Eastern from Russia, that Japan will aid and virtually will guarantee the payments, that the quarrel will be settled by negotiation not by a recourse to arms.

Neither Japan nor Russia wants to fight.

Japan does not want to fight because she feels the world now regards her with suspicion because of her championship of Manchoukuo which admittedly was wrested from Chinese domination in juridical if not in moral violation of the Nine Powers Treaty.

Japs Do Not Like Role
The Japanese do not like the role of an "international bad boy." And not liking it, they are determined not to play it.

Their whole policy, now, is to demonstrate to the world they are a sane, moral, decent and responsible people; that they intend to fulfill meticulously their international agreements when those agreements are not interpreted as in violation of their fundamental policy that Japan is the dominant power in Asia and responsible for Asiatic peace.

A war with Russia, even if largely defensive, obviously would not fit into this Japanese picture.

Fun for Drudgery
It is Mrs. McDonald's theory that the drudgery of the kitchen can be replaced by fun; that there is as much artistry in the preparation of appetizing dishes as in other creative professions.

She will give menu hints, recipes, serving ideas that make one interested and anxious to try them out in one's own kitchen. And best of all, she will show the housewives how to achieve a kitchen in which there is no culinary failure.

The school will continue for two days, opening each afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Cisco Lumber and Supply company is furnishing lumber for the stage and background, and arranged a display of wall paper.

Cooking tables were contributed by the Home Furniture company, aprons which Mrs. McDonald wears during her cooking demonstrations are supplied by the J. C. Roney company.

Joe. H. Garner's partition store and the Cisco Sewing Works are other local business houses who are cooperating in presentation of this school.

To each woman registering at school this afternoon, the Daily News is presenting a week's subscription to the daily paper.

FAIR PLAY AND FREEDOM OF BALLOT

A circular claims petitions asking that our names be printed on the ballot were filed between 7 and 8 o'clock p. m., March 13th. Under oath in District Court, City Secretary Cate swore the petitions were filed with him between 1 and 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The printers swore under oath that the ballot could be printed and delivered in two hours. The City Commission in refusing to grant our request claimed that the ballot had to be ready by March 14th. The ballots could have been ready with our names on them.

One man appointed judge of the election refused to serve. The City Commission refused to grant our request for a division of judges and clerks and refused us any representation whatever. The law allows us two supervisors and we will have them there.

We solicit your support and influence because we know you believe in fair play, in an economical administration and know you will insist on your right to express your will through the ballot.
