BARROW AND BONNIE SHOT TO DEATH

School Honor Night Program Will Be Held This Evening

CERTIFICATES OF MERIT TO BE AWARDED

Members of the Cisco public school system who made a general average of 90 or more in their grades for the entire nine-month term are now being concluded, and students who have been neither tardy nor absent during the same period will receive certificates of merit from the hands of the various principals in exercises at the school auditorium.

This particular program of the commencement season was instituted three years ago by Supt. R. N. ... as a means of giving public recognition to students who had distinguished themselves. Heretofore only two or three who ranked highest in class were thus rewarded. The certificate system has met with popular approval and is said to have encouraged considerable improvement in general student attendance and application.

Principal H. Brandon, of the night school, said this morning he would award honor certificates to about 25 students in his school and certificates of perfect attendance to 15 or 20 more. The list had not been checked completely at the time.

Large numbers of ward school graduates will get certificates from the hands of Principal O. L. Stamford of the grammar school, Principal Daniel Goss of the west ward, and Principal T. C. Williams of east ward.

Grammar School Exercises Entertainment features will be scheduled into the awards by the school.

Tomorrow evening the grammar school seventh graders will receive certificates of graduation. The exercises will be held at the high school auditorium where the Rev. Frank Turner, first Methodist church here, will speak.

Senior graduates will be June Whitt, valedictorian, and Octavia ... salutatorian, Principal Stamford announced.

Senior Play The play, a three-act farce, does justice to the opportunity for serious situations that a fashionable school for girls at Boston.

Those who will take part as characters are Carl Siddall, J. H. Latson, Claude Blackburn, Melvin Lawson, Stan St. John, Tenella Nance, Laura ... Dell Frances Miller, Glenna ... and Faye Henderson.

Other members of the class assisting in the production are Clifford ... Forbes, Wallace, Irene ... Dalton Cook, Delmar ... L. A. Harrison, Ben Groce, and ... Witten.

Prelim Arguments in Gas Rate Case Heard

AUSTIN, May 23.—Preliminary arguments in the suit of the Lone Star Gas Co. to put in effect reduced natural gas charges were heard by Dist. Judge Charles Wheeler today.

Judge Wheeler holds that the suit is properly in his court, he said today. He will set it for trial about June 1 on the merits of a state railroad commission order calling for an increase in the rate of 40 cents a 1,000 cubic feet.

GOOD WINE MONTH PARIS, May 23.—Last February was the best February for French wine in five years. During that month the tax on consumption was 100,000 bottles, as compared with 1,000,000 bottles February, 1933. Because February is a short month, it is expected that March tax figures will reveal an even more striking record.

WEATHER West Texas—Partly cloudy, probably thundershowers in north and central portions tonight and Thursday. East Texas—Partly cloudy, probably thundershowers in northwest tonight and Thursday.

Lightship and Liner in Crash Off Coast

Inbound from Southampton with 230 passengers aboard, the giant liner Olympic (below), sister ship of the ill-fated Titanic, rammed and sank the Nantucket Lightship (top) in a dense fog 55 miles off Nantucket Island. The lightship, one of the most important lights of the transatlantic service, had a crew of 16 men.

KANSAS TAKES ACCUSED NAVAL OFFICER KILLER

BULLETIN GREENBURG, Kan., May 23.—The body of Comander S. J. Trowbridge was found lying in a ditch 14 miles northwest of here today. The skull had been crushed.

MARIETTA, Okla., May 23.—Two Kansas officers left Marietta today with Leo Hudgins young former Mississippi convict who had told officers he killed Comdr S. J. Trowbridge, U. S. navy, with a hammer near Greensburg, Kan.

The party intended to go to Greensburg to look for the body. Hudgins had waived extradition and agreed to point out the body, which he said he left in a ditch about 15 miles northwest of Greensburg at sundown last Saturday.

He said he was picked up by the commander last Saturday and that the two quarrelled about speed of the car and hitting of bumps in the road. After drinking from a bottle, the 27-year-old man said he finally hit Trowbridge on the head.

Repairs Made to Business Buildings

The roof of the Bettis building, owned by Mrs. Grace Bettis Boland and occupied by the Perry Bros. store, is being repaired.

At the same time the Jensen building occupied by the Jensen Jewelry store, is being waterproofed.

CITY COMM'N VOTES $25 TO NAT'L GUARD

The city commission, in regular session last night, readily voted an appropriation of $25 per month to pay incidental expenses, in the event a national guard company is stationed here. Appearing in behalf of the application were L. A. Harrison, acting secretary of the chamber of commerce, J. M. Bird, member of the U. S. army reserve corps, and Haywood Cabaness, adjutant of the American Legion post here.

Mayor Berry also read a letter from Dr. J. Stuart Pearce, major in the reserve officers corps who was asked to sound Cisco opinion on the matter and brought it before the Rotary club last week, when the club unanimously endorsed it.

As explained by Mr. Cabaness and Mr. Bird, the company, which would consist of 65 men and three would be officers changed from Wichita Falls which has two. The government would pay all expenses, including rent on a building, pay of the men, salaries of the officers, and provide all equipment, except for petty items which the $25 per month is expected to cover. It was estimated it would mean an expenditure of between $4,000 and $5,000 in Cisco, as well as provide a patriotic influence of considerable value to the community.

Two Weeks Trip The 65 men and their officers would be sent to the state national guard encampment two weeks each summer on full pay. The company would meet once a week for drill.

The commission voted unanimously to appropriate the sum in the event the company is secured.

The military authority in charge is anxious to locate the unit at once and have it federally approved and properly trained in time to participate in the state encampment this summer, Mr. Bird said.

It was announced that Maj. Hardwick, of Stamford, of the 142nd Infantry, Texas National Guard, who will make recommendations for the location of the company, will be here at 5 p. m. today to confer with citizens at the chamber of commerce.

The commission also passed to final reading an ordinance fixing the price of fishing permits in Lake Cisco at $1.50 per season and 25 cents per day, and establishing regulations as to methods of fishing and to prevent pollution of the lake.

The ordinance is being published in today's issue of the Daily News.

At the conclusion of the meeting the commission recessed until 8 o'clock next Monday evening.

No action regarding the proposed new gas system for Cisco was taken.

MAJOR TO BE HERE AT 5 O'CLOCK

Maj. E. V. Hardwick, Stamford, of the 142nd Infantry of the Texas National Guard, will be in Cisco at 5 p. m. today, to meet with chamber of commerce officials and others interested in securing a national guard company for Cisco.

Mr. Hardwick is making a tour to the three cities being considered as headquarters for a company to be transferred from Wichita Falls, Breckenridge and Eastland are the other two towns.

L. A. Harrison, acting secretary of the chamber of commerce, urged every business man who can appear and every other interested citizen to be at the chamber of commerce at the hour to meet Maj. Hardwick.

The city commission last night voted to appropriate $25 monthly to the company for incidental expenses the government will not bear, provided it is located here.

Arguments on Relief Board Seat Renewed

AUSTIN, May 23.—Arguments upon which Dist. Judge J. D. Moore recently held Robert Holliday legally a member of the state relief commission were renewed before the state supreme court today. The decision between Holliday and Col. Julius Dorenfield, Amarillo, will depend on the court's answer to two questions submitted by the third court of civil appeals. The supreme court was asked to rule if House Speaker Coke Stevenson, who appointed both, had the power to replace Holliday. If he has that power, the court is asked to say whether he exercised it properly.

One Business Team Beats Another 33-15

One team of business men for whom Herman Reimer pitched, last night defeated another "chose up" team at the lighted baseball diamond, 33 to 15.

Nick Miller, pitcher for the defeated team, was adjudged the best pitcher on the lot. "The batters were able to hit every ball," declared one of the spectators.

Career Ended

Clyde Barrow, notorious Texas killer, whose career of crime and that of his desperado-sweetheart, Bonnie Parker, were ended in a hail of machine gun and shot gun slugs from the guns of Louisiana and Texas officers near Gibsland, Louisiana, 50 or 60 miles east of Shreveport, this morning.

NIRA OIL CODE IS UPHELD BY APPEALS COURT

NEW ORLEANS, May 23.—The fifth U. S. circuit court of appeals yesterday held constitutional the regulation of oil production under the national industrial recovery act in dissolving injunctions against enforcement of certain portions of the NRA in east Texas oil fields.

The injunctions were granted in the east Texas federal court by Judge Randolph Bryant.

The attack on the recovery act was made by the Amazon Petroleum corporation and other east Texas oil companies, which brought action against Archie D. Ryan, department of interior agent, and the district attorney and marshal of the eastern Texas district.

The companies sought to restrain the federal agents from going on their property to secure production information and from instituting civil action or criminal prosecution against them for violation of the federal regulations. They were granted an injunction in the lower court, which was dissolved by the action of the circuit court today.

The section of the code under attack provides that all companies must file each month a sworn statement of allowable production fixed by the state agency, daily production and place of storage and a declaration if more petroleum is produced or shipped than allowed under the state quota.

"The provision of the NIRA under discussion is not unconstitutional," the circuit court opinion said, "because it operates and was intended to operate so as to make more effective valid state action with reference to oil production."

Temporary Effect Nor is it unconstitutional because its effect is temporarily to restrict the volume of interstate and foreign commerce in oil.

"No doubt, in general, there should be free trade among the states, but that is not to say that 'laissez faire' must have full scope. The power to regulate interstate commerce is given to congress in identical terms with the power to regulate foreign commerce.

"A producer of oil does not operate under any right or license derived from the federal government and is not subject to such rigorous treatment (search of property) as if he did. But he is a citizen within the protection of that government and owes it a citizen's duty to assist in the enforcement of its laws.

"The object of the reports and inspection of books is to ascertain the existence and the disposition of excess oil in order that its interstate and foreign transportation may be stopped. The government has a right to know about this.

"The inspection of properties and tanks and pipe lines does not seem to be expressly authorized by any regulation, but if a trespass, there is no showing of irreparable damage ... and no occasion for any injunction."

DIPLOMAS ARE GIVEN TO 41 AT RANDOLPH

Forty-one members of the senior class and two graduates of the preparatory department received diplomas in commencement exercises last night at Randolph college formally closed its 1933-34 term.

Judge Charles E. Combes, of Stamford, a former resident of Cisco, and noted as a west Texas leader and orator, spoke to the class. In an address that held the close attention of a crowded auditorium for three-quarters of an hour, Judge Combes told the class that a disciplined and well-rounded life is essential to success. He reviewed the contributions of past civilizations and of sublime personalities to the civilization of today. Before one may lead, he said, one must discipline oneself.

Honor Students The diplomas and honors were handed the students by Dr. David F. Tyndall, president of the school. Dean E. B. Isaacs presented the class, the largest in the history of the school.

Francis Bruce was valedictorian and Ruby Fay Hoek, of Lorraine, Texas, was salutatorian. Honors of the dramatic department were awarded Bevington Reed, Carbon.

Miss Hoek is a niece of Misses Althea and Fannie Stevens, Cisco. Mr. Bruce is the son of W. F. Bruce, professor of English at the college. These received scholarships in S. M. U. at Dallas.

The class, preceded by the faculty of the school, marched into the auditorium to the notes of the professional played by Mrs. Lee Clark and Mrs. E. B. Isaacs. The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. E. J. James. A piano duet by Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Isaacs followed after which Judge Combes' address took place. The class was presented by Dean Isaacs, diplomas awarded and honors conferred. The Rev. Frank L. Turner pronounced the benediction.

I. N. Hart Drops Dead At Farm Near Cisco

I. N. Hart, 74, Cisco, Eastland county pioneer farmer, dropped dead at his farm on the Breckenridge highway several miles northeast of Cisco between 1 and 1:30 this afternoon, it was reported here.

Mr. Hart had visited the Cisco Daily News this morning, on his way to the farm. He was the father of John Hart, former Eastland county sheriff, and several other sons and daughters.

PLANS CENTENNIAL COLUMBIA, Mo., May 23.—A committee of veteran faculty members and civic leaders has been chosen by Dr. Walter Williams, president of the University of Missouri, to make preparations for the school's centennial celebration. The university was the first state institution of its kind west of the Mississippi river and now is approaching its 100th anniversary.

Message Upon Water Policy Is Promised

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 23.—President Roosevelt will lay out a broad policy on water use, covering rivers and harbors, flood control, soil erosion and reforestation, in a special message to congress, he said today.

The message will be one of three scheduled to be transmitted between now and adjournment. The other two will be on war debts and a suggestion for reduction of the tax on coconut oil.

Jury Finds Sweetly Of Dillinger Guilty

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 23.—Evelyn Frechette, part Indian sweetheart of John Dillinger, was found guilty today by a jury in federal court on charges of harboring the outlaw.

Ambush in Louisiana Ends Bloody Careers

GIBSLAND, La., May 23.—Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker, who lived by violence, died by violence today. The notorious southwest desperado and his attractive companion were shot down from ambush by six officers.

Barrow and Bonnie were riding in a gray coupe when the officers, hiding behind a slight rise at the edge of the highway, opened fire. Barrow fell sideways against the automobile door which he had opened at the first volley of bullets. He had no chance to raise a machine gun that lay between his knees.

Bonnie slumped forward over a machine gun in her lap. Barrow and Bonnie were alone in the automobile.

It was learned that Barrow, posing as a chairmaker, had been living in this vicinity for a week, occupying a vacant house about one mile from the death scene.

He visited Gibsland last night, authorities learned. Highways Blocked This morning all highways leading from the town were blocked by officers.

Sheriff Henderson Jordan of Arcadia, accompanied by five other officers, hid in the weeds by the side of the highway on the slight rise early today.

They sighted the Barrow automobile approaching when it was about 500 yards away. They opened fire with machine guns and shotguns as the automobile came into range.

The desperados apparently were caught unaware. So badly riddled and damaged by gunfire was the automobile that it had to be moved by a wrecker.

Dr. J. L. Wade, coroner at Arcadia, viewed the bodies at the scene of the slaying. He said he would conduct an inquest at Arcadia.

Officers in the party included Sheriff Jordan, his deputy, and four officers from Texas, two from Houston and two from Dallas. Gibsland is about 80 miles east of Shreveport.

Bodies Taken to Arcadia From the scene of the slaying, several miles south of here, the bodies were taken to Arcadia. They were left slumped in the seat of the car which was towed into Arcadia by a wrecker. Undertaking parlor attendants said there were 50 or 60 machine gun bullet wounds in each body. They said embalming would not be completed until early tomorrow, due to the torn and mangled condition of the bodies.

Barrow was shot seven times in the chest. His right shoulder and right ear were horribly mangled. It was found that he bore a shotgun wound in the right leg, apparently suffered in a previous brush with authorities. The big toe on the left foot of the outlaw was missing.

His eyes were severely lacerated by bits of glass from a pair of dark glasses he wore.

Deaths Expected By Relatives

FORT WORTH, May 23.—The death of her sister, Bonnie Parker, and Clyde Barrow was no surprise to Mrs. Billie Mace, she sobbed here today in her jail cell.

"I have been expecting it," she said when the news was given her. She gasped, lunged her head and then broke into sobs. In a few minutes she gamely dried away her tears.

BONNIE'S MOTHER FAINTS AT NEWS

DALLAS, May 23.—The elderly mother of Bonnie Parker fainted today when told of her daughter's death. Relatives of the woman as well as those of her companion, Clyde Barrow, had expected the two desperados to meet death at the hands of officers.

BLAZED MURDEROUS TRAIL IN BRIEF CAREERS

Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker, his cigar-smoking sweetheart, blazed a murderous trail of crime across the Southwest during their brief criminal careers.

In their frequent forays of bank robbery, petty kidnappings and brushes with officers, 12 men were slain, according to police records. Like most criminals Barrow had an obscure beginning.

His criminal career began in 1923 in Dallas and San Antonio where he confessed operation of a small automobile theft ring. He was sentenced to prison and upon his escape began his trail of banditry across the southwest.

He eluded the law by outpacing pursuing officers, never lingering at the scenes of his crimes. In his flights, killings were frequent.

The murders of a dozen men, have been attributed to him, but his spectacular career forced him to share the blame in crimes he probably did not commit.

Although still a young man—only 24—he ranked as one of the nation's foremost desperados and "boasts" a

GREATEST IN THE KINGDOM: Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.—Matthew 18: 4.

INTOXICATING CHILDREN

A liquor candy ring, selling candy filled with bootleg whiskey to children, is said to have been uncovered in the north and east. Bon bons, their centers full of a potent beverage which was found to contain 20 per cent alcohol, were said to have been peddled from street carts to school boys and girls who returned to their classes after eating the stuff in a state of semi-stupor.

There are all sorts of unthinkable persons in the world, but none of them is more depraved than a rascal who would debauch young innocence for filthy gain in such a manner. Not many adults of strong will can deal safely with liquor, but to impose it upon children of such tender years that they have no conception either of its consequences or how properly to deal with it, is a crime for which no amount of expiation can atone. They ought to make an example of this case, if the reports are true, and hang the miserable rascals.

A "CUSSING" ISSUE.

The word "damn" promises to become an issue in the next municipal election in Fort Worth. A delegation of women, appearing before the council, was offended by one councilman's use of an expletive, and demanded his resignation. The author of the resolution passed by the women's organization of which the delegation was representative, declared that a brother councilman should also resign, because of an alleged habit of mumbling a "damn" or two when certain things didn't suit him. It is reported, however, that the councilmen will maintain their right to a certain choice in expletives and continue to "damn" what they don't like, and the Women's Good Government League, if it achieves its object, will be forced to a political campaign against the cuss word.

One suspicion is that it isn't the word as such as what the delegation failed to get that offended its sensibilities. A "damn" or two between friends doesn't matter; but between dislikes it's fair-sized package sometimes. If the councilmen under fire hesitate to risk their political necks to the possibilities of the expletive, we suggest they dispatch a peace offering in the shape of a favorable attitude toward the petition over which the naughty word was uttered. But as a matter of fact, they've little to fear. Asking the voters to expel an official because of the use of the word in a harassed or angered moment is like asking a Kentucky mountaineer to expel a neighbor for moonshining. If each person in Fort Worth who had never uttered the expletive or had never felt like uttering it should vote against the councilmen, they would be re-elected by an almost unanimous vote.

AMERICAN LAWYERS ACCEPT CHALLENGE

President Roosevelt and Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes, appearing before the American Law Institute last week threw challenges to American lawyers. The American Bar association has accepted the challenge by declaring war on organized crime and promising its attack "would be no flash in the pan."

Earl W. Evans, president of the association, has named committees of lawyers and laymen for a three year campaign for the extermination of the crime problem. Said he: "There cannot be the slightest doubt of the lawyer's responsibility to improve the administration of justice. We know the staggering cost of crime and we know that we are not adequately meeting the situation in regard to it at the present time." State and local bar associations in all American commonwealths were directed to unite their efforts "so that they would be more successful than scattered and sporadic attempts to solve the problem in the past."

There will be a nation-wide election this year. Down here in Texas attention should be given by the voters to the intellectual capacity, the moral integrity and the minor qualifications of those who offer for places in senate and house of the 44th legislature. Talk is cheap. Lawmakers should be elected all along the line who will accept the challenges of President Roosevelt and Chief Justice Hughes—men who will revise or remodel the criminal statutes of the commonwealth. The place to strike is at the ballot box. There will be a primary in July and a runoff in August. Laymen as well as the lawyers should plan war on crime in Texas.

McCARL HANDS DOWN IMPORTANT RULING

Henry Ford must affirm that his company is complying with the NRA to gain automobile contract awards. Compt. Gen. McCarr made the ruling when he authorized rejection of a bid by a Ford agency in Maryland for two trucks on the grounds the firm had qualified its offer in violation of the president's executive order of last March. Hence the award for the trucks went to the Chevrolet Motor company of Detroit, one of Henry Ford's leading competitors—and the high bidder. These are the figures: the Ford agency bid $488,26; the Chevrolet, $551.35.

McCarr is the master. He is something of a Caesar himself. He was appointed away back in the days when the republicans held the reins of federal government. He cannot be removed until his term expires—"except for cause." This is a history-making year. In the last analysis it will be for the court of last resort to do the "cracking down"—one way or the other.

THE NEW BEAT

Blasting the Ickes Control Bill "All Along the Line"

By HUGH NUGENT FITZGERALD. There is to be a last fight on the part of those who believe in home rule and state sovereignty to defeat the Thomas-Disney oil control bills and the plan to make Secy. Harold Ickes the czar of the oil industry in and out of Texas. J. Edward Jones is the chairman of the national petroleum council. This organization is composed of independent oil producers and refiners and marketers. Pres. Jones in a statement issued in New York declared that the petroleum bills being passed by congress are designed to make "legal dictatorial powers of Secy. Ickes' stubborn and ruthless practices hitherto never supported by law." Speaking for the organization which he heads as well as the provisions of the pending proposals, Pres. Jones said: "It will enable Mr. Ickes to follow his policy of shutting in American oil wells to points far below market demand, thereby providing for a deficiency in American supplies to be captured by those who import cheap foreign oils. Through the Editor's Spectacles

By GEORGE. Cisco's prime exhibit in motorcar antiquity has been reduced by fifty per cent. Some things, wine, for instance, improve with age, but the ownership of half of the aforementioned exhibit, having been bitten by the bacilli of modernity and streamlining, has decided cars do not fall in the same classification as wine.

exhibit has survived as long as it has. More than a year ago this column was carrying broad hints aimed in its general direction. There were exhibits being used to drum up insurance trade by frightening prospects within an inch of their lives. The facility with which it could shed wheels at 20 miles per hour, throw a rod or two and otherwise misbehave like a devilish horse at strategic moments, all without in the least impairing the state of its health, was amazing.

Now it is this particular 50 per cent of the exhibit that is gone. It has thrown its last wheel in the noble cause of insurance; it has bucked its last buck for the love and affection of an owner who knew every sentimental spot upon its rusty old hide; it has performed its last duty in behalf of future widows and orphans. For S. H. Nance, et al, have got their hands upon the relic and what it becomes when the shot gets through with it won't be old Betsy, Amaranda or what-you-might-have-called-it, at all. Sentiment has been cast to the winds. Affection has turned its back. Years of faithfulness are no matter. For another has taken its place. In my mind's eye I can see Old Betsy, disconsolately sitting in one of those sheds down there, holding out her bent and broken old fingers in a plea for the affection she has lost, something like tears welling in the cracked old lenses as she regards this calloused indifference to long long years of fidelity.

She might have wept vociferously yesterday afternoon had she seen her whilom master driving off in the rival that has usurped her place, carrying L. C. Moore with him to fish. Going fishing was her cherished avocation. The hour did not matter. Six p. m. or leaden dawn, it made no difference. She was always ready. She carried the poles, the bait, the ruddles for the boat and whatever else it took to make a fishing trip, down to the lake and sat upon the bank for hours while her master sounded his favorite crapple roosts. Then she chugged happily up the stony bank, ambled over the lake trails to the pavement and granted blissfully homeward, fish or none. Every time that she threw a wheel, or took a playful turn into a ditch, or did any of her various tricks to help her master sell insurance, he would reward her by taking her fishing.

One would think a bond of affection as generous as that of David and Jonathan or others of the classic

BEGIN HERE TODAY. DONNA GABRIEL and MADELINE SIBBELL will call themselves "The Gabriel Sisters" as circus performers. When Donna is injured by a snake, Madeline arranges for her to be taken to GRANDFATHER SIBBELL's farm to rest. Madeline keeps it up, even when BILL SIBBELL, Madeline's cousin, asks her to marry him. Madeline marries CON DAVID, animal trainer with the circus, and takes part in the animal act.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXIV

WHILE Madeline was trying to summon the courage to pass Trafford and, if possible, to ignore him, Con appeared in the corridor. The former boss canvasser stepped toward the animal trainer. Madeline saw her husband's slender body stiffen and his dark eyes flash fire. "What are you doing here?" he demanded.

"I'm waiting to see Madeline. What did you suppose?" "Then beat it! She's my wife now and she hasn't any time for you."

"Is that so?" Trafford lurched forward until he towered over the smaller man. "Is that so? Well, she had time for me down town today. Didn't she tell you she saw me? Didn't she tell you I was coming out here this afternoon? You bet she didn't! Well, I'm sticking around until I see her."

Tomorrow's Star Signals

Plan to make the most of the day and the coming week. General conditions look better. Salesmen and advertisers should be about town this evening. The indications are for pleasant social relations in the evening. People born in the sign Capricorn (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) are suited to the sign Cancer (June 22-July 23). They also may be suitable partners among those in the sign Taurus (April 21-May and Virgo (Aug. 24-Sept. 23).

TOMORROW'S BIRTHDAYS. You will have the opportunity to give better service to your employer the latter part of October. Take advantage of your opportunities so that you then may improve yourself. Difficulties will be through your parents, or professors during the first part of March. An adverse day for you is June 4. A favorable day is June 30.

Behind the Scenes in Washington

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
WASHINGTON — "Thank God," State Department men were telling each other when the recent Japanese jitters were worst, "we've got Joe Grew over there, or we might be having a war."

What they meant was that the sort of dumb, preventable incident which sometimes leads to conflict wouldn't happen as long as Joseph C. Grew was ambassador to Tokio. That's the one big world capital Roosevelt and Farley didn't dare staff with politics or campaign contributions in mind.

Since Ambassador Hugh Gibson went out of style at European conferences and Ambassador Sumner Welles didn't do so well in Cuba, Grew has been the prize apple in our diplomatic barrel. He is a famous tiger hunter and a deaf man who learned how to read lips. He raised a family of athletes and, while he was ambassador to Turkey, one of his daughters surprised everybody by swimming the length of the Bosphorus.

Aristocratic son of a Boston banking family, Grew was graduated from Groton and Harvard and went big-game hunting through the Orient and East Indies. He came down with fever in India and the care a consul gave him then interested him in the consular service. Over family objections, he became a consular clerk at Cairo in 1904. Friends in Washington used their influence to get him promoted and Theodore Roosevelt consented when he heard how Grew had crawled into a black cave to kill a tiger which lived there. So Grew became a "career man." He is more than six feet

HOOKS AND SLIDES

NEW YORK—Well, the Yankees practically are certain to launch their initial western trip in first place, and the boys have quit worrying about what is going to happen to George Herman Ruth.

It was a waste of time for Ruth to have his eyes examined the other day. He should have consulted a leg pepper-upper, for it is when his underpinning commences to rebel that the New York club bumps into trouble.

The ineffectiveness of Joe McCarthy's slingers last season largely was attributed to their eagerness to pitch in such fashion that the ball would not be hit in the direction of the heavy-footed Babe.

No Place in League in Which He Starred
THE loop in which the Babe spent his brilliant career did not give him a tumble.

Players Would Respect Ruth as Manager
WHAT kind of manager would Ruth make? Personally, I believe he'd be a corker. The Babe was a Good Time Charley in his younger days, but I don't share the fear of some owners who wonder what effect his background would have on the discipline of 25 temperamental athletes.

WEEK MARKED BY POLITICAL READJUSTMENT

By GORDON K. SHEARER
United Press Staff Correspondent
AUSTIN, May 23.—Readjustment of state political races marked last week. State School Superintendent L. A. Woods' only opponent withdrew.

Woods and Judge W. C. Morrow, presiding judge of the court of criminal appeals, whose term expires this year, are the only unopposed candidates.

They may still get opposition. Filing time does not expire until June 4. The early start given the political campaign, however, works against late candidates. Many sources of political strength already are pledged.

Withdrawal of A. M. Blackman, school superintendent at McGames, cleared the field for Woods. Blackman was a division head in the state department of education under a former superintendent. He had a large following.

Phil Sanders, Naacodoches, former chairman of the appropriation committee of the house, heretofore listed as likely to run for state treasurer, will seek no office, state, county or district. State Treasurer Charley Lockhart is still left with an opponent—Edward Rex Waller.

Late Entry Possibilities
The state railroad commissioner race seemed most likely to get a late entry. Last week several were being used to run. Among them were Walter Beck, former representative from Fort Worth; Walter Cline, Wichita Falls; and Joe Bailey Morris, Dallas, a popular young democrat. A candidate for governor, it also was said, was being importuned to switch to this race. He shows no intent to do so although it would mightily please at least one of the other candidates for governor.

Without additional entries, Commission Chairman Lon Smith has three opponents, John Pundt, Dallas; H. O. Johnson, Houston; and Jas. L. McNeese, Dallas.

The next legislature likely will transfer oil and gas duties of the railroad commission to a separate body. This prospect deters some from entering the race. Beck, however, is particularly interested in transportation problems.

General reports coming to Austin kept Attorney-General Allred in the lead in the race for governor though the Ferguson Forum claimed C. C. McDonald was out in front. Lieut. Gov. Edgar E. Witt's strength was demonstrated in a central Texas opening at Belton, which became the mecca Friday of many automobile caravans. Cars stickers said "Win With Witt." Allred will go into the same territory for a Temple address Monday. McDonald is heading toward the panhandle and west Texas on a speaking tour. He will work back through San Angelo, Brownwood and Fort Worth to a Saturday afternoon date in Taylor, former home of Dan Moody.

AN ORDINANCE

An Ordinance to Regulate Fishing and Prevent the Pollution of the Waters in the Lakes and Reservoirs Belonging to the City of Cisco, and Declaring an Emergency.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF CISCO:

That on and after the passage of this Act it shall be unlawful to take fish from the lakes or reservoirs owned by the City of Cisco or to fish in said lakes or reservoirs except as hereinafter provided.

All persons fishing in the lakes or reservoirs belonging to the City of Cisco must obtain a written permit from the Mayor of said city before entering upon the lands adjoining said lakes or reservoirs owned by the City of Cisco and before fishing in said lakes or reservoirs, and must present same for inspection to the watchman or caretaker of any of said lakes or reservoirs or to any authorized officer of the City of Cisco when called upon to do so.

An annual permit shall be obtained by the payment of the sum of One Dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per annum, or a daily permit upon the payment of the sum of twenty-five cents (.25c) for each permit. The annual permit shall be good for the current calendar year, and the daily permit shall be good for the period of one day. The annual or daily permit shall entitle the holder or the members of his or her immediate family or any out-of-town guests, when accompanied by the holder of the permit, to fish in said lakes or reservoirs, provided, however, that the holder of the permit shall be at all times responsible for the infraction on the part of the members of his or her family or on the part of the guests of the holder, of any of the rules and regulations herein or that may be hereafter prescribed.

It shall be unlawful to use any kind of bait except live bait or artificial lures and flies, to set nets, seines, snares, traps, or other devices for taking fish from the waters of the said City of Cisco, or to use dynamite, powder or drugs of any kind to kill fish in said waters.

It shall be unlawful to use or leave any meats or the body or any part of the body of any animal or fowl or any other putrefying substance in or near said lakes or reservoirs or on the watershed thereof.

It shall be unlawful for any person to take from said lakes or reservoirs in any one day more than fifteen (15) pounds of bass and/or crappie on his or her permit provided, however, that if any person should catch one fish weighing fifteen pounds or more, he or she will be allowed to keep said fish, but will return to the waters carefully and alive all other bass and crappie that may have been caught. And it shall be unlawful to keep any bass under eleven inches in length, or any crappie under seven inches in length, measurements being taken from point of nose to end of tail fin, and all fish caught under the length herein specified shall be carefully returned to the waters alive.

It shall be unlawful for any person to fish in any lake or reservoir belonging to the City of Cisco without first obtaining the permit herebefore provided for. These permits are not transferable and only one permit will be issued to each person at one time.

It shall be unlawful for any person to take fish from any lake or reservoir belonging to the City of Cisco for commercial purposes or to sell any fish so taken from said lakes or reservoirs.

Any person violating any provision of this ordinance shall be fined in any sum of not less than five Dollars ($5.00) and not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), and in addition thereto the City Commission may cancel said permit.

All previous ordinances or parts of ordinances conflicting with this ordinance are hereby expressly repealed.

In view of the fact that there are not adequate and uniform regulations providing for the regulation of the sanitary conditions in or on the lakes and reservoirs of the City of Cisco and controlling the fishing in said lakes or reservoirs, this act shall be placed on final reading and shall become effective from and after its passage and publication.

Passed on this the 22 day of May, 1934.

Approved on this the 22 day of May, 1934.

J. T. BERRY, Mayor.

Correct Attest:

J. B. CATE, City Secretary.

MEN WITH COLD STEEL WIN WARS, SAYS SPONSOR OF BIG ARMY BILL

By HARRY W. FRANTZ
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Machines can occupy territory but men must hold it, hence rifles and bayonets still are the decisive factors in military strength, according to Rep. Clark V. Thompson, Dem., Texas, author of a bill to enlarge the United States army. He is a former officer in the Marine corps, and now a major in the reserves.

Conceding the tactical utility of motorized "cavairy" aircraft, and other military machines, Rep. Thompson holds that mechanization does not reduce the need for human combatants.

"War is never won without holding territory, and you cannot hold territory with machines alone," he said in a United Press interview. "It is men with cold steel that win wars, and for every new military machine some device is invented to counteract its effect. Anti-aircraft guns are becoming highly effective, and for every combat plane there is another to shoot down. There are tank-traps to the tanks, and guns that can penetrate tank armor."

"I am not opposed to mechanization, but would oppose machines beyond the adequate strength for their management. In Chinese-Japanese clashes last year the Japanese had all the latest machinery and inventions, but they made their real advances by infantry on the march."

Minimum Point

The Thompson bill, already subject of extensive hearings before the house military committee, proposes that the commissioned strength of the active list of the regular army be fixed at an annual average of 146,633, and the enlisted personnel at 165,000 exclusive of Philippine Scouts. Present strength is approximately 118,000 enlisted, including the scouts, and 12,000 officers. Increase in the army was endorsed by General John J. Pershing, war time commander of the American Expeditionary Force, and by General Douglas MacArthur, chief of staff.

"I know of no military expert who does not contend that the lowest safe point for the American army is 165,000 men," Rep. Thompson said to the United Press. "That is the smallest number that could adequately man the defensive and offensive machinery of the army in event we were attacked. Our present entire combat force could be seated in one large stadium, as the Yankee baseball park in New York."

"There are 87,000 troops within the continental limits of the United States, including engineers, quartermaster corps, medical corps and other non-combatants. In a sudden national emergency we would have only 55,000 rifles available immediately for combat duty."

Less Than Greece

Rep. Thompson said that the present military strength of the United States, despite its great population, is less than that of small countries such as Greece and Belgium.

He furnished the following statistics of military strength for certain countries, according to best available estimates at the end of 1933:

United States of America	Active 135,052 (since reduced), trained reserve, 330,000; total, 358,000.
Argentina	Active, 34,798; trained reserve, 309,454; total, 344,252.
Belgium	Active 89,224; trained reserve, 495,000; total, 384,000.
Brazil	Active, 85,190; trained reserve, 171,188; total, 256,378.
British Empire	Active, 396,250; trained reserve, 694,946; total, 1,141,987.
Chile	Active, 22,103; trained reserve, 177,120; total, 200,548.
France	Active, 584,300; trained reserve, 6,328,000; air force, 39,913; total, 6,952,213.

criminal record doubtless unexcelled by any fugitive now at large, including the notorious Charles (Pretty) Boy Floyd.

Barrow was born in Ellis county, where he lived only a few years before he moved to Dallas with his family. His aged mother and father still live at Dallas.

Although he and the other members of his child gang in west Dallas had many previous brushes with law enforcing authorities, Barrow's name was officially entered upon police records in December of 1926, when he was formally charged with auto theft. He was 16 then.

During the next two years he was charged with chicken theft in Fort Worth, with burglary in Dallas, and with robbery in Dallas.

He served short term sentences in local jails on those charges.

Only Pen Term

It was at Waco in April of 1930 that he received the only penitentiary term of his career. He was assessed 14 years for burglary and theft.

However, in February of 1932, then-Governor Ross Sterling issued Barrow a general parole, although at that time he was wanted in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico on either charges. Judge Stanhope Henry, pardon board member and one of those who recommended the parole, said the parole would not have been issued had fingerprint records been available to the state board at that time. The parole was revoked in November of the same year.

Since then Barrow has been more than active, as is perhaps best illustrated by these official records of the bureau of identification of the Dallas police station:

March 23, 1932.—Wanted at Dallas for robbery with firearms, burglary.

April 4.—Wanted at Hillsboro for trained reserve, 330,000; total, 358,000.

Spain — Active, 203,033; trained reserve, 2,095,000; total, 2,298,033.

Sweden — Active, 33,500; trained reserve, 841,700; air force, 925; total, 876,125.

Jan. 7, 1933.—Wanted at Dallas for the murder of Tarrant county Deputy Sheriff Malcolm Davis.

June 11.—Wanted at Phoenix, Ariz., for the kidnaping of Sheriff Carrie and City Marshal Hardie.

June 20.—Wanted at Ruston, La., for the kidnaping of a man and woman.

Jan. 16, 1934.—Wanted at Crockett for assisting five convicts, including his companion, Raymond Hamilton, in escaping from the Eastham Prison Farm. Two guards were fatally shot during the break.

April 1.—Indicted at Fort Worth for the murders of State Highway Patrolmen E. B. Wheeler and H. D. Murphy, who were slain by a man and woman whom the officers sought to question near Grapevine. Bonnie Parker, Barrow's cigar-smoking companion, also was charged in the slayings.

Aside from the crimes with which Barrow officially was credited on Dallas police records, he was suspected of many bank robberies and other criminal operations throughout the southwest.

Barrow lost his brother and a companion in crime when the latter Buck Barrow, was fatally shot at Dexter, Ia., when the pair engaged in a pitched battle with officers.

McDaniel Residence Bought by Church

Purchase of the former E. R. McDaniel residence at Tenth street and Front street as the parsonage for the First Methodist church last week was announced. The residence, constructed during the boom period at a cost of approximately $8,000, will be occupied about June 1 by the pastor, the Rev. Frank L. Turner, and his family. It is undergoing extensive renovation and improvement.

The present parsonage, on a lot adjoining the church building at Eighth street and G avenue, will be razed.

Don't Gamble On Relief When CONSTIPATED

In spite of the fact that Feen-a-mint is the gentlest, mildest and most-to-be-laxative, it has real action—action that gently but thoroughly sweeps poisons from your system—cleanses the walls of the intestines and purges out putrid waste matter that is flooding the system with poisons. You can't get the laxative ingredients out of Feen-a-mint without chewing—and this chewing distributes the laxative uniformly, throughout the intestines and supplies them with saliva juice to dissolve dry waste matter. Feen-a-mint contains a laxative ingredient that the world's greatest physicians approve. Don't suffer "laxative dread." "Delay" is dangerous.
