He was a deacon in the Baptist church and was secretary of the Masonic organizations here until his retirement in 1930. He was a Mason for 63 years, a charter member of the Cisco lodges, and an active church worker from young manhood.

When Cisco was destroyed by the cyclone of 1893 Mr. Patterson, who was in the mercantile business, threw open his entire stock to victims of the storm and headed the relief body that set about rebuilding the town.

Born in Tennessee
Mr. Patterson was born in Ruthersford county, Tenn. Jan. 31, 1850, and married Miss Sarah C. Ripley, Sept. 1, 1870. To this union were born 11 children, two of whom died in infancy.

35 PER CENT OF RELIEF IS EMPLOYMENT

A step-up in the Eastland county relief employment was seen as the probable result of a meeting in Eastland Saturday morning of representatives of towns and organizations over the county.

The meeting was called by County Administrator Driscoll for consideration of new work and construction projects in compliance with the new requirement calling for at least 35 per cent of the county's entire relief budget to consist of lateral roads or other constructive work projects.

Among the heads of city governments, and civic organizations, school men, and newspaper men were 40 county relief clients who were perhaps interested most vitally of all in the future of the county's relief funds.

Mayor J. T. Berry of Cisco announced that Cisco was ready and willing to cooperate to help the county submit as many projects as possible next week. He was followed by other Cisco speakers who said that their organizations were ready to submit definite projects.

“HAVE SPORT BUT SAVE DUCKS” HUNTERS’ SLOGAN THIS YEAR

“HAVE SPORT BUT SAVE DUCKS” HUNTERS’ SLOGAN THIS YEAR

Due to the scarcity of the game birds this year, hunting will be allowed on only three days of each week, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The other four days are just the same as midsummer, so far as duck shooters are concerned.

At present Eastland County has 1,504 employable men and 161 employable women. Of this number, 245 are employed in the relief setup, leaving 1,320 to be put to work if we can find enough projects.

Emphasizing this need for a reduced kill this year and at the same time recognizing the hunter's delight in the sport of wildfowling, the biological survey proposes a slogan, "Have Sport But Save Ducks." The bureau suggests that during the present crisis sportsmen might well be satisfied with a few less days of shooting than formerly and with bags that are not always the limit even when limit bags might be taken, and it urges hunters to take special precautions to retrieve all crippled birds and to cooperate with wardens in the prevention of poaching.

The council also adopted the same system of handling passes which has been used in the past, according to Supt. R. N. Cluck.

TEAM TO WORK AS A MACHINE FOR VICTORY

Even black-clad Loboes will fight together as single war machine when they take the field against the Mighty Green Wave of Buckaroos in the homecoming game on the Breckenridge field tomorrow afternoon.

There will be no stars, says Coach Dexter Shelley. The boys will have only one idea, to battle together till they win.

Tickets On Sale
Reserved seats on sale at Dean's drug store will be moved to Breckenridge at 10 a. m. tomorrow, according to Supt. Cluck. Supt. Cluck said that 290 more tickets were brought to Cisco last night.

Reports from Breckenridge say that 2,000 reserved seats have been sold and that more are in demand.

Underdogs
The Loboes will enter the game Friday as the underdogs but will be determined to put up a stubborn fight that will bring them victory. They are not overconfident, but know what they will have to do, and are ready to do it.

They will be facing a weight disadvantage of four pounds to the man, according to the two starting lineups announced by the coaches this morning. The Buckaroo team averages a pound heavier in the line and ten pounds heavier in the backfield than the Loboes.

The Loboes will present about the same starting lineup tomorrow that they have been using, with the exception that Theron Graves, out with injuries, will be back in the game. He will start the game at end, very likely, replacing Burniam and playing beside his twin brother, Thomas.

The game is scheduled for 2:30. The Cisco chamber of commerce today suggested that fans going to Breckenridge take the old Leary road.

Emphasizing this need for a reduced kill this year and at the same time recognizing the hunter's delight in the sport of wildfowling, the biological survey proposes a slogan, "Have Sport But Save Ducks." The bureau suggests that during the present crisis sportsmen might well be satisfied with a few less days of shooting than formerly and with bags that are not always the limit even when limit bags might be taken, and it urges hunters to take special precautions to retrieve all crippled birds and to cooperate with wardens in the prevention of poaching.

The reward for restraint now will be better seed stock for the breeding grounds that are being salvaged in the national program of wildlife restoration and consequently an improved and lasting sport in the future.

TEXAS RELIEF LOAD DECLINE IS ANNOUNCED

AUSTIN, Oct. 25.—The Texas relief load, expected to reach a new high during the month of October, actually has fallen short of the September mark by nearly 2,000.

The October figure, announced by H. L. Davis, field supervisor, is 203,224. In September, there were 205,128 cases.

The decline was attributed to seasonal employment, many clients having found work in the cotton fields, and to a searching study of the relief rolls.

The load has fallen off particularly in northwest Texas where the cotton was not so hard hit by drought and where many clients have found jobs in the fields. In some counties, the case load has been out almost fifty per cent.

"This is only temporary employment, however, and in most cases, these people will have to be admitted again to the rolls."

Other reductions were brought about by close investigation of the relief rolls in accordance with instructions of the board of control to purge the rolls of all cases found not clearly entitled to relief.

Resolved That Elijah was a greater character than was Elisha was the subject debated Thursday night by the Demonstration Library club of Randolph college.

Elton Dennis and Powell Sharp brought a unanimous victory for Elisha when they won the decision of the judges, Cuthrell Lapsy, Ivan Little, and Joe Bob Winston. Charles A. Elmore and Forrest Bailey defended Elijah in a commendable manner, both presenting strong and forceful arguments for their character. Dr. David P. Tyndall, club critic, presided over the meeting as the president, Forrest Bailey, was participating in the debate.

The minutes were read and roll called by the secretary-treasurer, Francis E. Barnes, following the opening prayer by Richie Lee Davis.

Let's find out why Turkish tobacco is so important to a good cigarette

Native tobacco grower telling American tourists how Turkish tobacco is cured.

On the sunny slopes of Smyrna . . . in the fertile fields of Macedonia . . . along the shores of the Black Sea . . . grows a kind of tobacco that is different from any other tobacco in the world.

THESE Turkish tobaccos are the only tobaccos of foreign cultivation that are used to any great extent in making American cigarettes.

Turkish tobaccos are famous for their spicy aroma, and a blend of the right kinds of Turkish tobacco with our own home-grown tobaccos is better than any one kind used alone.

In Chesterfield we balance mild, ripe tobaccos grown in this country with just the right amounts of the right kinds of Turkish.

It is by blending and cross-blending these different tobaccos that we make Chesterfield the cigarette that's milder, the cigarette that tastes better.

Engineering Student is 7,000th To Enter University of Texas This Year

AUSTIN, Oct. 25 — History has been made at the University of Texas by J. C. Caraway, Jr., 20-year-old engineering student from Decatur. He has acquired the distinction of being the seven-thousandth student to enroll in that institution, the enrollment to the highest standing in the history of the school, and, for that matter, in the history of higher education in Texas or the southwest.

Caraway enrolled on the final day on which he could register for credit, October 15, but did not complete the actual machinery of registration by paying his fees until October 16, moreover, his birthday, which was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Caraway of Decatur, and is a freshman student. He was enrolled in the University last year, but, due to the fact that he works part time as a means of earning part of his school expenses, was unable to carry the full University load, and is still classified as a freshman student. He earned all of the money to pay his entrance fees this fall.

A total of 7,002 students have enrolled in the University, but with the enrollment of two registrants brings the total enrollment to the 7,000 mark exactly according to the university registrar's office. Last year, at the close of registration, only 6,020 students had signed up. This year's total makes the university's enrollment larger than that of any other university or college in Texas or the southwest.

An interesting comparison has been made with the total enrollment 31 years ago, when the university first opened. In the fall of 1893, the total registration was 231 students, or 4,779 less than in 1934.

ITALY'S WOODEN OVERCOATS

And now come Italian manufacturers proposing that Italy's Facists wear wooden overcoats and cellulose blouses this winter. The new substitutes for cotton have just been introduced on the domestic market.

A large Italian firm which claims to have invented the process for utilizing wood and cellulose for clothing, has been trying out its materials in Germany for the past year, where it is asserted they have been well received. Now, however, Germans have devised similar processes with consequent falling off of export and Italians are turning for the first time to their own markets. The manufacturers predict that their products will eventually reduce Italy's imports of cotton and wool by at least 50 per cent. American and other cotton exporters agree that ultimately their markets will be menaced.

And thus it is shown that there is no standing still. The business man must be on his toes all the time. About the time that America thinks she has the market cornered on some product, along comes a substitute and, lo! it is gone.

RUSSIA'S JUNK BUSINESS

Russia has the sustain-Herself complex. She also has many "five-year plans." She is collecting scrap iron but she is not buying from the United States nor any other nation. She is simply going out and gathering it up from the bottom of the seas.

At the bottom of the Black, White, Baltic and Caspian seas which wash the shores of the Soviet Union, are countless ships, old, new, large and small which have met their fate by various means. Some by wrecks from the elements, others by mishaps, and still others by wreckage in time of war—submarines, etc.

The Soviet diver has displayed great bravery and efficiency in raising these old wrecks. Russia has displayed great inventive genius in making devices which are able to bring this scrap metal to the surface, and often great quantities of foreign gold and silver are recovered to be used in exchange for foreign goods.

Russia has worked quietly at her "junk business," but she has made it pay. She has not worried about Japan's entry into foreign markets to buy scrap iron to be used in her fight in Manchuria, China and the Far East. Japan must take her already overburdened people for funds with which to buy metal for guns, but Russia mines it, so to speak, from her surrounding seas.

Just another way of developing her own resources—While Japan runs about the world hunting scrap iron, she even buys from Cisco—Russia, simply spits in her hands, so to speak, and digs it up in her back yard.

WHAT KIND OF SPORTSMAN ARE YOU?

Duck season opens Friday, October 26. What kind of sportsman will you be?

Will you be in mid-season form, having already shot more than your share of ducks before the season opens?

Will you trek about over the state, shooting where the birds are most plentiful without taking the trouble to procure a hunting license, but keeping a weather eye out for the approach of a game warden?

Will you shoot and kill just for the fun of killing, without taking into consideration how many ducks your family and close friends can use?

Will you, when you have shot your limit of birds, have the courage to quit without taking "just one more shot—for luck?"

Will you remember the game laws this year, which forbid duck hunting on any days except Friday, Saturday and Sunday, or will you say they were made by a bunch of cranks and don't believe them anyway?

Will you cooperate with the United States Bureau of Biological Survey in its slogan, "Have Sport, but save the ducks?"

Will you give your neighbor the same chance to shoot that you ask for yourself? Many sportsmen build duck blinds at Lake Cisco each year and naturally are put to a good deal of trouble and expense to do so. Will you give them an opportunity to use those blinds without interference from you, or will you appropriate the blinds or keep the ducks frightened away from them?

Will you needlessly frighten ducks away from Lake Cisco, forgetting that enough of such persons as you, can keep the flocks away permanently and ending the use of the Lake as a hunting ground?

Will you pick up the bird the man across the lake shoots, as it floats to your side forgetting that the same rule applies here as on the proverbial golf course rule:

"Don't pick up lost balls till they stop rolling?"

Will you, above all else, be sportsman enough to take every precaution to safeguard human life?

RENO, Nev., Oct. 23 — An unusual potato with seven good-sized spuds radiating from a center potato and all being firmly connected was exhibited here. The odd potato formed a circle of 15 inches in diameter.

UNDER THE DOME AT AUSTIN

By GORDON K. SHEARER
United Press Staff Correspondent
AUSTIN, Oct. 25 — Texas legislators have become greatly perturbed over reported use of the house and senate roster on a letterhead of proponents of a centennial-year publication. Several members received communications to the effect that unless they objected, their names would be included in an endorsement of the enterprise.

So much stir was caused that the house of representatives ordered an investigation.

SHEARER

W. E. Lea, Orange, advocating a bridge over the Neches river for a short route between Port Arthur and Orange, said that the proposed crossing would be 20 feet higher than the Brooklyn bridge. It would have a vertical clearance of 155 feet. The Brooklyn bridge is 135 feet above mean low tide. A bridge now being built over the Mississippi near New Orleans will be 153 feet above mean tide and 135 feet above average high water. The 155 foot clearance of the proposed Neches bridge, Lea said, would permit every naval vessel to pass up the river under it, with the exception of the Patoka, which has a high mooring mast for dirigibles.

South Texans who think that Dallas is being given an undue share of the proposed celebration of Texas' Centennial say that only three of the six territorial flags that have flown over Texas, have been planted farther north than Austin, Dallas, they say, never was under the French, Spanish or Mexican rule. It had not been settled then.

California's Native Sons are to have a counterpart in Texas. The coming Texas centennial was the inspiration. A charter application has been made for the Sons of the Republic of Texas. Daughters apparently are more patriotic. They have had an organization for a long time.

Two of Texas' new congressmen met in the state capitol recently — Sen. Nat. Patton and Maury Maverick. Patton will represent the new East Texas district in congress. Maverick will be first congressman from a district composed of Bexar county alone. The way the two went into a huddle after introduction indicated they have plans in mind.

Senate proposals to establish a capitol lunch room brought a reminder that a capitol lunch counter was expelled a few years ago on complaint that it had become unsanitary.

Bills for relief from tax penalties that have been offered in the special session of the legislature offer relief only from the penalties and interest that apply when taxes become delinquent. No bill, so far, strikes at the court costs which a delinquent tax payer faces, if suit is brought to collect taxes.

The court costs are from $40 to $50 depending upon whether service is direct or by citation. An effort was made to limit the time in which a suit may be filed for delinquent taxes but it was rejected. The proposal was to bar tax claims after six years.

About Our Friends

By STEP A. LONG

J. W. J. (Skipper) Thomas wants the Cisco Coach to be magnanimous toward Breckenridge and let them have every advantage possible in the Lobo-Breckenridge game Friday.

He suggests that we allow two of our good football fans, Ed Caffrey and Rex Carrothers, talk to Shotwell's boys just before the game that afternoon so as to put plenty of pep and life into the Breckenridge team. Thomas says Ed and Rex are specially good at these pep talks.

Of course you must know the story in order to appreciate this. It appears that just before a recent game between Wichita Falls and Abilene, Coach Jeffries, of the former place, who was one time coach at Cisco, asked his good friends Caffrey and Carrothers, to make a pep talk to his boys before encountering the Abilene Eagles. Ed and Rex did so, and as the result was 34 to 0 in favor of Abilene, Skipper thinks that if Ed and Rex could make a talk to the Buckaroos just before the game we might have a chance.

Ed Huestis wants to know where the old time football pep has gone. In former years, when you met a man on the street a few days before a game he would immediately say to you, "Well, I'm fixed up alright. I have a good seat on the 40 yard line for the game! And it was said in the same tone that he might have announced that he had his taxes, insurance and other things settled for the year.

The pep rally is scheduled for Thursday night at Chesley Field. It's still the greatest thing in the lives of the high school boys and girls.

The team is full of fight. They have a chance, and a good one, to win. Let every old time fan get to that rally, forget himself and make a talk that will please those kids—Cry if you can—but put old time enthusiasm into it—The dearest thing to the heart of those boys would be to turn Breckenridge's home-coming into a song of victory for Cisco.

Of course we like Breckenridge but—This is sport. And what sportsman does not delight in victory—We're enemies while the game is on, even though we are the best of friends after it's over. Let's put all we have into this rally.

Louise Trammell with a pretty wool dress this morning... Does she want us to turn on more gas?

Herman Reimer with a new sweater... Dr. Oldham also with a nice sweater... but it's to show off his fine form... he admits it. Johnny Cox taking long, hurried steps this morning, but he still wears his pipe and smile.

K. H. Pittard viewing all his friends with suspicion... he knows any bag of ducks will have to be proven.

Little Charley Hale... Doc, we mean... wearing his hat away... it's the Breckenridge game... he says he's not going.

Nick Miller still wisecracking... but his customers like it.

W. J. Leach worried because he's "Easy" he admits it.

Henry Drumwright takes an unfair advantage of his customers, he wears the good looking ties and shirts, and the customer thinks he will look like Henry.

Dick Lauderdale is not allowed about any of the new signs... at least, until they are out of reach of his foot.

Tommy Starks actually wants it to rain.

Mitt Williams thinks the owner of the chairs should sit in them, the company should bring their chairs if they want to sit.

Did You Ever Stop To Think

By Edson R. Waite

It is said that all centuries have favored the rich, but only the last half century has begun to smile upon the working man.

In every material respect the working man today has privileges which his grandfather's imagination hardly could have conceived. Free education, more clothes and better ones, more travel, and even if he can't travel, he and his family can acquire from the movies a good idea of the wonders of the world. Everything that happens is reported in his newspaper, and even if they could have afforded to buy it, many grandfathers would have been unable to read it. Now electric lights instead of an oil lamp, automobiles, better homes and comforts.

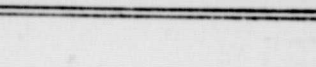

Nobody will deny that the world is moving steadily toward the greatest happiness for a greater number. The last fifty years have seen an immense diffusion of knowledge. It has endowed the majority with that faculty of concentration which

17 Dead In North Pacific Coast Storm

SEATTLE, Oct. 25 — One of the worst storms ever to strike the North Pacific coast Monday swept over western Washington and Oregon. Subsiding winds which blew a hurricane force for many hours at least 17 dead or missing. Wrecked and damaged ships, collapsed and telephone poles, shattered windows and toppled chimneys told the violence of the storm.

Clerks Eye Paper Bags Suspicious

EL PASO, Oct. 25—Shoppers carry paper bags are watched closely by store employees here these days.

Youthful shoplifters have been reaping a bumper harvest by slipping into stores, carrying inflated sacks and paper bags. They are their chance, stuff merchandise in the bag and walk out unobserved.

MUCH FORESTS OF NORTHWEST ARE DAMAGED

MISSOULA, Mont., Oct. 25—Fire swept through the Northwest's rich forests this summer to exact one of the heaviest tolls in years. Uncle Sam's foresters rubbed their eyes here and there at the 1934 fire damage in the Northwest.

They found that fire ravaged 30 million acres of virgin and timber lands this year as in previous years.

Region One Hard Hit

In Region One, which includes Montana, Northern Idaho, Eastern Washington and South Dakota, 2,748 acres of forest were blackened this summer. No official estimate of the monetary loss has been made, but conservative estimates range from $500,000 and $1,000,000.

Last year, fire losses were confined to 8,837 acres in this area. There was a total of 1,251 fires which burned more than 10 acres.

Nearly Equalled 1910

Regional Forester Major Evan W. Wagoner characterized the 1934 season as the worst fire outbreaks on record, ranking near the 1910 outbreak, which sent an ominous pall over the hills of Northern Idaho to the shores of the Great Lakes.

He attributed dry weather and man's carelessness, as chief causes for the increase, although lightning was listed as the greatest single cause, setting 829 blazes. Lightning losses would have been tremendously greater if it weren't for the efforts of CCC boys.

ALLRED ASKS TO EQUALIZE TAX BURDEN

FORT WORTH, Oct. 25—Fulfilling a campaign pledge to talk frankly with the people about the problems of government, Governor James V. Allred delivered a second address in explanation of proposed constitutional amendments relative to taxation. Allred addressed the County Judges association.

"With a $12,000,000 treasury deficit this state is facing a financial crisis," Allred said. "The present legislative special session is being held to appropriate many millions more. Add to this the ever mounting relief burdens and surely every citizen must realize that something must be done to equalize oppressive tax burdens."

Property Overtaxed

"Real estate and other tangible property simply cannot bear any further increase of the tax load," declared Allred. "Not only that, but the existing tax burden on tangible property and real estate must be materially reduced."

"While real estate and tangible property represent only half of the wealth of the state it bears 97 per cent of the tax burden. This is decidedly unfair," Allred said.

"This grave injustice in our tax system can be righted on November 6th if the oppressed taxpayers will vote for the constitutional amendment that appears first on the ballot. Amendment No. 1 authorizes a classification of property for tax purposes and will enable the legislature to add untold millions to the tax rolls that now escape taxation."

Amendment 2 provided that Amendment number 1 should not be confused with amendment number 3 on the ballot. Amendment number 3 seeks to place a per capita limit upon state revenues and expenditures. If this amendment had been in force the past two years it would have reduced state revenues approximately $40,000,000. That would have been ruinous to our schools and vital governmental agencies. Every friend of the public schools and of efficient state government is against amendment number 3.

FORT WORTH, Oct. 25—Fulfilling a campaign pledge to talk frankly with the people about the problems of government, Governor James V. Allred delivered a second address in explanation of proposed constitutional amendments relative to taxation. Allred addressed the County Judges association.

"With a $12,000,000 treasury deficit this state is facing a financial crisis," Allred said. "The present legislative special session is being held to appropriate many millions more. Add to this the ever mounting relief burdens and surely every citizen must realize that something must be done to equalize oppressive tax burdens."

CONDON SAYS 'JOHN' IS SAME AS HAUPTMANN

FLEMINGTON, Oct. 25—Dr. John F. Condon has become convinced Bruno R. Hauptmann is the mysterious "John" to whom he passed the $20,000 ransom in the Lindbergh kidnaping, the United Press was informed by a reliable source.

The decision came at the conclusion of a surprise visit of Dr. Condon to the cell of Hauptmann.

For more than an hour Condon spoke to Hauptmann along the lines on which he conversed with the ransom negotiator in New York cemetery. When he left he was convinced Hauptmann and "John" were one and the same person.

Texan Gets Cattle Brand From Farley

MIDLAND, Oct. 25—Postmaster General James A. Farley couldn't approve the cattle-brand postage stamps requested by Marion F. Peters, gas company manager here, but he did stamp a personal cattle brand on a sheet of paper for Peters' approval.

Peters is an autograph collector of a unique sort—he collects autographed cattle brands from world-famous persons.

Farley's letter to Peters said: "Cattle raising is indeed one of America's basic industries and recognition thereof in a proper manner would be most appropriate. Our stamp program for this year has taxed the capacity of the Bureau of Printing and Engraving and we are unable at this time to give serious consideration to additional issues."

"I note that you ask that I sketch a symbol used as a brand in your your cattle industry and return it to you on a separate sheet of paper. This is rather a new experience for me but I tried my hand at it and the result of this effort is herewith as you requested."

"Your letter and enclosures were very interesting and I thank you for writing me on this subject."

Tech Band to Make Los Angeles Trip

LUBBOCK, October 25—Texas Tech's Matador band will accompany the football team to Los Angeles when they play the Loyola University Lions Oct. 26, a trip of 1296 miles.

"We are taking a crack band of 50 pieces," stated Prof. Deway O. Wiley, director, "and plan to make an impressive showing for Texas Tech and West Texas in California. The boys will wear their new uniforms, which are in keeping with the school colors, and will present several drills in Gilmore stadium for the fans."

The uniforms consist of black jackets with scarlet sleeves and trimmings, and black trousers with scarlet stripes down the sides.

Prof. Wiley stated that the trip would be made in buses and would take about 32 hours. They plan to leave here the 24th and go by way of El Paso, Tucson, Arizona, San Bernardino, California, to Los Angeles. As Gilmore stadium is in the very center of Hollywood we hope to visit some of the production studios and to spend some of our time sight-seeing in California," he said.

The trip was made possible by sales of tags by members of the band to students and Lubbock citizens and to the support of the Matador club, an organization of Lubbock business men.

EASTLAND, Oct. 25—Eight hundred ninety-nine goats were delivered Tuesday to shipping pens of relief offices over the county for future consumption by relief clients.

The goats will be delivered one a week to a family on the rolls. Delivery will be disbursing orders. H. E. Driscoll, county administrator, stated.

"In all events the goats will be slaughtered and pelts returned to the relief office as evidence that the goat has been slaughtered," Driscoll explained.

"The goats should be slaughtered by relief clients, but in event they can not slaughter, they are to be at the relief client's expense as no funds are available for this," he explained.

Hampner received 200 of the goats, Cisco 190 Eastland 149, Rising Star 155, and German 150.

HOOKS AND SLIDES

DETROIT—These Tiger outfielders called the laugh of the American League?

In Detroit, on all playing, where they had the daddy of 'em all, Tyrus Raymond Cobb, Crawford, the graceful Dave Jones, McInyre, Yeach, Hellman, Fatty Fothergill, Red Wingo, Manush, and some more.

Mickey Cochrane's flycatchers are Golden Goose Goslin, Gerrid Holmes Walker, Pete Fox, Joyner White, and Frank Doljack. Dytomite ball and all, the average of the five is only .279.

Baseball men tell you that Goslin is the lone real major leaguer among them. Hitting .321 at the moment, Goslin is trying to shake another slump as these lines are being written. A money player, pennants follow the Jersey Jarrer. Put a nickel on a baseball, and he'll sweat it over the wall and far away. The Goose is a smart retriever, too. He is the only one of the lot who knows how to play hitters, and is knowing better than he has in five campaigns. He's death to a runner trying to score from second on a hit to left field, having clipped eight attempting this stunt to date.

Walker Believes He's Playing Tag

WALKER, 306, and Fox and White, at 281 each, are bracketed, although the first named would stand out if he could be harnessed to baseball intelligence.

Walker plays tag on the diamond, and everlastingly is it. A fine and suspension failed to check his being caught off base. Gerald's aggressiveness is not properly applied. A splendid chap in store clothes, he has a wicked temper in a baseball uniform. The Mississippi Rebel actually has stood arguing with customers in the bleachers while fly balls sailed over his head.

Walker is of good speed, but is the type who swipes third base with his club three runs behind. He is a good thrower to the wrong base. He has had hands, is a poor judge of a fly, and weak on ground balls. Otherwise he's all right.

White, like Goslin, bats left-handed, and is a fine base runner, but cannot be compared with Cobb, as some are doing in Henry Ford's burg. White's only resemblance to Cobb in any respect is that both hail from Georgia.

White has a fair kind of an arm, and, next to Goslin, is the best flycatcher on the Detroit payroll. But he lacks stamina, and falls off after going well for three or four days.

Laugh, Yes, but on the League

WHEN balls are hit to Fox in right field, opposing players keep on running. The representative from Evansville, Ind., is the weakest thrower of the group, a streaky hitter, and horrible on off days, when he can't judge a fly ball.

Frank Doljack, hitting a measy .267, appears to have a minor league complex. Doljack has the weight and shoulder and wrist power of a great hitter, but seems to choke up in the big show.

But a glimpse at the club standings will show you that Detroit is getting on fairly well with Goslin and his mediocre playmates.

For the life of me, I can't see why they should be called the laugh of the league.

The laugh isn't on them. It's on the league.

"Keep On Gold Standard at All Costs" Is Mussolini's Economic Battle Cry

By THOMAS B. MORGAN
United Press Staff Correspondent
ROME, Oct. 25—"Keep on gold at all costs" is the Duce's economic battle cry. Deflation is the foundation-stone of Italian economic policy.

Wages, prices, rents, unemployment are all dependent on this policy which the Duce has made his own.

Though there has been some increase in the note circulation of late this amount is not important: it being one of the essential points of the government's policy to keep the paper issue of the country as low as possible.

Rents were reduced throughout Italy last May 12 per cent. This was intended to counter-balance the reductions in pay. Rents now are lower in Italy than many other European countries, though not when the lira is compared in terms of depreciated monies like the dollar, or the pound sterling.

The trade balance of Italy continues, of course, to be unfavorable, due in large part to her remaining on the gold standard.

In the first six months of 1933, imports dropped more than exports, but during the second half of 1933, imports steadily increasing and exports fell off.

The last figures for unemployment (June) show 830,856 men and women out of work as compared with 641,257 at the end of May of this year and compared with 883,621

for the month of June, 1933. The decrease in unemployment at this time of the year is seasonal, and chiefly depends on the absorption of men for temporary agricultural work.

TIRE BUYERS!

Goodrich gives you MORE than a "printed" guarantee

A "PRINTED" GUARANTEE ALONE MAY PROTECT YOUR TIRE INVESTMENT—BUT HOW ABOUT YOUR LIFE?

Here's a tire guarantee that gives a new meaning to motoring safety... a guarantee that protects not only your pocketbook, but your life as well!

Goodrich, of course, guarantees the new Safety Silvertown passenger car tire, with the Life-Saver Golden Ply, for a full 12 months (business use, 6 mos.) against accidental damage due to cuts, bruises, blow-outs, rim cuts, faulty brakes, wheels out of alignment, and ordinary wear and tear as specified in the written Certificate of Warranty given with the purchase of every Goodrich passenger car tire. But, more, Goodrich builds the Life-Saver Golden Ply into every Silvertown.

This amazing invention makes you 3 times safer from blow-outs at high speeds. Racing daredevils proved this. On the world's fastest track they gave it everything they had. Not one blow-out! Similar tires without the Life-Saver Golden Ply failed at one-third the distance the Golden Ply Silvertowns were run. And what's more, the Golden Ply Silvertowns kept right on eating up the miles!

No other tire manufacturer can duplicate this in full. Other tires may duplicate the Goodrich warranty. But only the new Goodrich Silvertown can guarantee you the exclusive blow-out protection of the Life-Saver Golden Ply.

—And A Guarantee That Really Means Something!

When you're buying tires, remember this: "paper" guarantees may protect your investment but they won't save your life when your tire blows out going 40, 50 or 60 miles an hour! Play safe. Get the new Goodrich Silvertown... the only passenger car tire in the world that guarantees you Golden Ply blow-out protection, plus a full 12 months' guarantee (business use, 6 mos.) Come in today.

PRESS TO BE INFORMED OF CODE WORKS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25—Chairman Clay Williams of the new regulatory board announced Saturday in the future publicity would be "accomplishments" rather than "intra-office discussion of code problems."

With Gen. Hugh Johnson at the head of the recovery administration public was informed of every move for three weeks without the public being informed of any of the proceedings.

While it was indicated that the board would promote code enforcement coordinated efforts of code auditors, federal trade administration, the justice department and NRA might result in abandonment of the blue eagle as a symbol of compliance.

Close observers believe the following consideration had a part in the decision:

1. The administration's desire to reassure business that it still intends business to govern itself.
2. Some believe any direct change in policy might be disastrous to candidates in the November election.
3. Preparation of a separation of legal properties for the permanent government indicated a setup to succeed the recovery act next January.
4. Future policies may effect other emergency plans.

Man in Wrong Car Shot Through Neck

FORT WORTH, Oct. 25 — P. G. Craig mistakenly drove off in the wrong car Saturday and as a result is suffering from a bullet wound through the fleshy part of his neck.

Craig, a railway mail clerk, came hurriedly out of a lumber company office and climbed into Deputy Sheriff H. W. Rhodes' car similar make which had been parked behind his own.

Rhodes came out much more hurriedly when he saw someone driving off with his car. He jumped into the other man's car, which still had the keys in it, and gave pursuit. The deputy sheriff said that when Craig did not halt at his command, he "cut loose" with his pistol. Evidently each man thought the other was trying to rob him.

Witt Asks State To Support Centennial

AUSTIN, Oct. 22 — Co-operation of the state government in assuring success for the Texas Centennial in 1936, to be held in San Antonio, Houston, Goliad, Brenham, Nacogdoches, Huntsville, Gonzales, Galveston, Dallas and other cities, is being urged by Lieut. Gov. Edgar E. Witt of Waco.

"The sum the state is to contribute toward the Centennial should be decided upon definitely and a tax levied which would raise it," said Witt. "This tax ought to be put on those industries, which would reap the most benefit financially from the centennial."

"It should not be a permanent tax but should be effective only until the money had been raised," Lieut. Gov. Witt mentioned amendments of all kinds, public utilities and oil companies as possible objects of this special taxation.

PROJECTS ARE DISCUSSED AT COMM'N MEET

With a full attendance at its meeting at the city hall last night, the city commission considered proposed projects for aiding employment of Cisco's relief workers, waiting for the call from the relief office.

The commission appropriated $50 to the public library to fund a "Texas" as shell and a marker to commemorate the Texas Centennial in 1936 after Mrs. William Reagan, Mrs. Charles Brown, and Mrs. Hubert Seale had appeared in behalf of the library. Texas books will occupy the shelf.

C. W. Collins asked the commission for money to defray expenses of repairs to some of his band instruments. In this connection, the commission acted on the resignation of the former band committee and appointed W. J. Leach, Dick Lauderdale and Mrs. Homer Slicker as the band committee for the year.

Joe Clements, street superintendent, reported the request of the Garden club and U. D. C. on certain proposed beautification plans along with those of the Federated clubs. These plans have to do with the city park improvements and the creating of arches on highway 23 and at the entrance to the zoo. The city commission has these under advisement and will act after gathering more information.

A proposed project to gravel 34 blocks of city streets was considered favorably but definite action will be taken later.

The price of hunting permits was placed at $1, same as last year.

Other routine matters were discussed and proper committees appointed to gather necessary information before action shall be taken.

Nebraska Planning Refuge For Game

VALENTINE, Neb., Oct. 25—The federal government, working in collaboration with the state of Nebraska, plans to establish a $500,000 refuge for migratory wild fowl in the west sandhills lake country south of here.

Plans for the proposed preserve were formulated here after a meeting of the Nebraska game, forestation and park commission with representatives of the U. S. biological survey. Reception of steps toward actual acquisition of the land on which the preserve is to be located await approval of plans drafted here by Washington officials.

The preserve would be created by linking existing sandhills and lakes in the wild section of western Nebraska with the Snake river. Flow from the river would raise the level of the lakes and maintain it at a constant height, making a perfect haven for wild life of all kinds.

Both state and private land will be utilized for the preserve, under plans approved at the meeting of the state and federal representatives here. Funds furnished by the Nebraska game and fish commission would be used to augment federal advances for the project.

Says Future Upturn In Business Fast

GREENSBORO, N. C., Oct. 25—Business conditions are improving, and indications are that the upturn will continue at an even swifter pace during the fall and winter months, President L. Richardson of the Vick Chemical company declared in an interview here today.

As an evidence that the Vick company is backing this opinion, Mr. Richardson pointed out that Vick's advertising appropriation for this season is larger than ever before, over $2,500,000.

As a result of far-sighted planning by the company's management, Vick policies during the depression those many other concerns. "Since have been diametrically opposed to 1929, Vick's has tripled its advertising while some companies were drastically curtailing theirs, or eliminating it entirely. It has introduced three new products and continued the aggressive merchandising that has always characterized its sales."

"Vick's has doubled its staff of employees since 1929," stated Mr. Richardson, "and throughout the depression has maintained salaries at the high 1929 levels."

MUSCLE SHOALS

Actual commercial production of phosphate fertilizer is expected to begin Nov. 1 at the large fertilizer plant of the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Work on the plant has been in progress for six months. Approximately $1,250,000 has been spent on the existing machinery of nitrate plant No. 2 at Muscle Shoals to convert it to the present designated task of making phosphoric acid, which in turn is impregnated in prepared phosphate rock to make the phosphate fertilizer. About 3375,000 tons of phosphate fertilizer is expected to be produced yearly.

This tonnage is to be a 48 per cent impregnation rather than a 16 per cent, or less, of the ordinary commercial impregnation. Thus, in actual fertilizer value, it probably will approach 1,000,000 tons of present commercial types.

This phase of the work of the TVA has not been dramatized like its power program. Except for a few experimental batches of nitrate made more than a decade ago, this will be the first actual employment of the immense manufacturing facilities for which Wilson dam was first planned.

Local Orchestra To Play For Occasion

The Cisco Gas corporation will hold its formal opening at the new headquarters on D. avenue Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

A local orchestra will furnish music for the occasion and all who attend will be given favors by the company, according to H. G. Bailey, in charge. Ciscoans have been invited to inspect the new headquarters and equipment. The office will be open until 9:30, it was announced.

"The primary purpose of this company," Mr. Bailey said, "is to furnish gas to Cisco people at a reasonable rate and to give the best service possible."

"We want to cooperate with the merchants of Cisco, who have given us almost 100 per cent cooperation since the very beginning of the company. We want to take this opportunity to say that we appreciate such cooperation."

"We do not intend to push the sale of merchandise, or in any other way interfere with the business of Cisco merchants."

Meters set. More than half the number of meters ordered by Ciscoans have already been set, Mr. Bailey said, and the new gas company is making direct connections as rapidly as possible. He intimated early this week that most of this work would be finished in two weeks but that perhaps a month would be necessary for completion of all of it.

All the equipment of the company is new, Mr. Bailey said, and of high quality. "The chief engineer of the Texas railroad commission recently inspected the plant and equipment and pronounced it one of the best, if not the best, equipped gas system in the state."

Actual work on the gas lines was started in the early part of July with the opening of ditches over the town. "Since then we have made good progress," Mr. Bailey said.

Two Gate Stations

At present the corporation is a subsidiary of the Hickok Oil corporation. Gas is furnished at the gate by the Hickok Producing and Developing corporation, also a subsidiary of the Hickok Oil Corporation. There are two gate stations.

Graham Dogs And Cats Are Condemned As Rabies

GRAHAM, Oct. 25 — Thirty dogs and cats had paid the supreme penalty for being possible carriers of rabies as city police obeyed Mayor Gallagher's order to "destroy dogs in town."

The order was given after 72 persons had been bitten during a rabies outbreak here. All of the victims reported daily injections of serum to Graham from Dallas. Several are being kept under observation for indications of hydrophobia.

GENERAL WELLS BEGINS ON PETS

Jugo-Slavian Quintain

Quintain has left the track in a smooth condition that assures fast time for most.

AUSTIN, Oct. 25 — Jugo-Slavians stabled at the Downs reported successful contenders at many tracks during the summer.

Using the attractions in jockeys played by the young Paul Keester, riding the Chicago tracks and and are a formidable contender for this week's riding supremacy. Keester is the taller contract to C. E. Davison who world's only shipped a string of 16 thoroughbreds to the Waggoner course.

Keester is one of the few Kentucky boys, who has proved a star in the saddle. Contrary to general opinion, the Kentucky produces very few star jockeys although it is rich in turf strings and has produced myriads of outstanding horses.

SAVE SEED IS ADVICE GIVEN TO CORN BELT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 — Because corn does not do well if planted long distances from the locality where the seed is grown, farmers in certain sections of the corn belt are faced with unusual problems in locating seed supplies for next spring.

Dr. M. T. Jenkins, who is in charge of corn investigations in the U. S. Department of Agriculture has toured the corn-growing states where the drought was most severe and offers the following suggestions to insure adequate supplies of locally adapted seed:

The first recommendation is that farmers in Kansas, Missouri, and southern Iowa—where some of the 1933 corn is still stored under seal—take advantage of the plan recently announced by the agricultural adjustment administration whereby options may be obtained to sell the corn at $1 a bushel on or before May 1, 1935. This corn will be used for seed. The danger is that most of the corn under seal in these states will be used for feed this winter unless farmers cooperate with the AAA in saving seed supplies. Already this old corn is moving out of storage at a rapid rate.

Shortage in Dakotas
Another area where there is sure to be a shortage of good seed for next spring includes North Dakota, northern and western South Dakota and the northern half of the corn-growing area of Minnesota. There is practically no sealed corn in this area and the crop this year is very poor.

Stored corn in southeastern South Dakota can safely be shipped west for 100 miles without serious loss in yields and this seems the logical source of supply for farmers in this part of South Dakota. In the Red river valley the crop this year is very poor. All corn in this area that is fit for seed should be conserved.

The southern half of the corn-growing area in Minnesota still has some stored corn. This is the best source of supply for counties to the north.

North Dakota — except for the eastern counties which can get some seed from the Red River Valley — will be dependent mainly on corn carried over from last year. There is no other locality from which it can import seed that will make a crop of grain. Seed from the south will mature fodder but no grain.

Texas Affected

The third area where there will be some shortage of seed next spring includes Arkansas, Oklahoma, and Texas. Arkansas can safely buy seed from Tennessee and Mississippi. Oklahoma and Texas, however, will have to utilize every bushel of corn grown in creek bottoms and other favorably situated spots. In Texas some corn is grown also on irrigated land, and this will help to supply seed.

Even in areas where the crop this year is poor and there is no outside source of locally adapted seed farmers can expect reasonably good corn from rubbins of a good strain if the kernels are well developed. This is true because such corn has all of the hereditary characters necessary to produce good ears under favorable environmental conditions. This fact is often overlooked in selecting seed corn.

The importance of saving locally adapted varieties may be illustrated in the case of Kansas and Missouri says Dr. Jenkins. If the stored corn in these states is used for feed and the farmers buy seed from Iowa they are certain to take a loss of from 5 to 10 bushels an acre in the yield next year.

Jugo-Slavians Play Quaint Instrument

AUSTIN, Oct. 25 — Seven students of Jugo-Slavonic descent at St. Edward's university have started a campaign to make Texas Tamburitzas-conscious.

Using the simple instrument, first played by their Croatian ancestors, they have formed an organization and are appearing before schools on week-end tours.

The tamburitzas are one of the world's old instruments. It consisted originally of two strings on a flat sounding board, twanged with a finger nail, a sharp stick or a bit of pointed stone.

The instrument has developed into a four string one but two of the strings are D strings and two G strings, instead of the DGAE strings of modern instruments. Some tamburitzas have six strings, three D's and three G's.

BRAZOS PROJECT GETS SENATE OKEH
Loboes Set For Homecoming Clash With Bucks at Breck

SPRIT HIGH AS TIME FOR GAME SHORT

Green black-clad Loboes will meet together as single war machine when they take the field against the Mighty Green Wave of Breckenridge field tomorrow noon.

They will be no stars, says Coach Dr. Shelley. The boys will have one idea, to battle together till the end.

The spirit on the team is great," Dr. Shelley said. "The boys know they are going to have to win and they are ready to get out there to give them the works."

Tickets On Sale Reserved seats on sale at the drug store will be moved to Breckenridge at 10 a. m. tomorrow, according to Supt. Supt. Cluck said that 230 tickets were brought to the school last night.

Reports from Breckenridge say that 2,000 reserved seats have been sold and that more are in demand.

The telephone this morning was asked how the school is taking the game, he said that it is taking the game the same way.

They're in there raising the roof," he said, "and shouting to themselves about the din of the pep rally. That was really raising the roof."

The Loboes will enter the game as the underdogs but will be determined to put up a stubborn fight that will bring them victory, they are not overconfident, but they will have to do it.

They will be facing a weight disadvantage of four pounds to the Loboes, according to the two starting backs announced by the coaches this morning. The Buckaroo team weighs a pound heavier in the line than the Loboes.

The starting lineup tomorrow that will be used, with the exception that Theron Graves, out on injuries, will be back in the game. He will start the game at left half, replacing Burnam who is playing beside his twin brother, Burnam.

Breckenridge is planning a great fight with the game as the chief attraction. Thousands of fans will be expected to come to the homecoming and the football classic, coming from every part of the nation.

The game is scheduled for 2:30 p. m. at the Cisco chamber of commerce. It is suggested that fans going to Breckenridge take the old Leary road.

DR. LEE AGAIN NAMED LOBO DOCTOR Dr. W. P. Lee was appointed as athletic football physician at a recent meeting of the athletic council and school board. Dr. Lee has served in this capacity for a number of years in this capacity.

The council also adopted the same system of handling passes which it has used in the past, according to Dr. R. N. Cluck.

BANKERS TO AID PRESIDENT FOR RECOVERY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 - The American Bankers Association pledged its cooperation with President Roosevelt's recovery efforts today in a significant gesture of response to the president's reassuring address calling for "a shoulder-to-shoulder cooperation."

Recommendations of the resolution committee calling for continued cooperation and urging an early balancing of the budget were adopted unanimously in the concluding session.

The stand of the 4,000 delegates toward the way for a cooperative recovery along the lines suggested by the president.

"The time is ripe for an alliance of all forces," he said.

The band and pep squad will lead the rally, and all the business men of the town have been urged by pep leaders and Supt. R. N. Cluck to attend. It will last only about 20 minutes, Supt. Cluck said, but it should be a great rally.

"The school is literally running over with pep," Supt. Cluck said this afternoon. "The business men don't have enough of it yet, but if they come to the meeting, they will have."

"The students held a rally at the chapel period this morning and have been talking football all week."

MIDGETS WIN FROM STAR IN LAST QUARTER

Opening with a strong running attack in the last five minutes of play, the Cisco Grammar School Midgets won a 14 to 7 victory over the Rising Star Wildkittens on the Grammar school field here Tuesday afternoon.

The first Midget score came when Holder circled left on a reverse for 15 yards and a touchdown. Preston plunged for the extra point to tie the score.

Coming back in a late effort to win, the Wildkittens flung one pass after another, and Holder snatched a final heave out of the air and dashed 45 yards down the sideline for the second Cisco touchdown. Boone scored the extra point just before the game ended.

Rising Star scored in the first few minutes when Allen went through the line after the Midgets had fumbled. Fumbles and intercepted passes proved costly for the Midgets most of the afternoon.

In the Midget line Stewart, Phillips and Quails were outstanding.

Fertilizer Plant Begins Work Nov. 1

MUSCLE SHOALS Ala., Oct. 25 - Actual commercial production of phosphate fertilizer is expected to begin Nov. 1 at the large fertilizer plant of the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Work on the plant has been in progress for six months. Approximately $1,250,000 has been spent on the existing machinery of nitrate plant No. 2 at Muscle Shoals to convert it to the present designated task of making phosphoric acid, which in turn is impregnated in prepared phosphate rock to make the phosphate fertilizer. About 3375,000 tons of phosphate fertilizer is expected to be produced yearly.

This tonnage is to be a 48 per cent impregnation rather than a 16 per cent, or less, of the ordinary commercial impregnation. Thus, in actual fertilizer value, it probably will approach 1,000,000 tons of present commercial types.

This phase of the work of the TVA has not been dramatized like its power program. Except for a few experimental batches of nitrate made more than a decade ago, this will be the first actual employment of the immense manufacturing facilities for which Wilson dam was first planned.

Nearly Equalled 1910 Regional Forester Major Evan W. Kelley characterized the 1934 season as one of the worst fire outbreaks on record, ranking near the 1910 holocaust, which sent an ominous pall from the hills of Northern Idaho to the shores of the Great Lakes.

He attributed dry weather and man's carelessness, as chief causes for the increase, although lightning was listed as the greatest single fire cause—setting 829 blazes. Kelley said losses would have been "tremendously greater if it weren't for the efforts of OOO boys."

LEGION ASKS PAYMENT OF VETS' BONUS

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 25—The American Legion today voted to request the 74th congress to pay the soldiers bonus.

Action came at the 16th national convention on a resolution presented by the legislative committee. Debate was comparatively short on the resolution which may cause the government to distribute almost $3,000,000,000 to world war veterans to stimulate American business.

The Legion also demanded elimination of all interest accrued and a refund of interest already paid and previous payment on adjusted service certificates not due until 1945.

Mrs. Irby said the text books are passed except as guides, and that the modern library attempts to help the child develop a love for books and to develop the ability to find what he wants in them.

ORDER SIGNED TO SHUT DOWN TEXAS WELLS

AUSTIN, Oct. 25 - A statewide order for shut-down of oil and gas fields, carried the signatures of Texas railroad commissioners today as a crisis in the crude oil price structure was awaited.

Blanks were left in the shutdown order for dates. They can be inserted quickly if major oil companies cut prices for crude oil. Chairman Lon Smith said.

OKLAHOMA PRODUCERS CUT PRICES TULSA, Oct. 25 - Small purchasers of crude oil in the midcontinent area cut prices for dollar prices today while the federal government moved to stamp out hot oil running.

The Stanolind Crude Oil Purchasing company, largest buyer in the midcontinent area, kept its price at the old $1.08 per barrel, but there were reports in brokers' offices that Stanolind would join in the cut. Officials refused to comment.

The Kanotex Refining company followed the example of Atlas Pipe Line company today, cutting its top to 62 cents, a reduction of 46 cents. State oil producers in Oklahoma City reported that the Globe Refining company followed the cut, but the company's home offices said at noon it had not cut yet.

ALLRED ASKS TO EQUALIZE TAX BURDEN

FORT WORTH, Oct. 25 - Fulfilling a campaign pledge to talk frankly with the people about the problems of government, governor-designate James V. Allred delivered a second address in explanation of proposed constitutional amendments relative to taxation. Allred addressed the County Judges association here.

"With a $12,000,000 treasury deficit this state is facing a financial crisis," Allred said. "The present legislative special session is being urged to appropriate many million more. Add to this the ever mounting relief burdens and surely every citizen must realize that something must be done to equalize oppressive tax burdens."

Property Overtaxed "Real estate and other tangible property simply cannot bear any further increase of the tax load," declared Allred. "Not only that, but the existing tax burden on tangible property and real estate must be materially reduced."

"While real estate and tangible property represent only half of the wealth of the state, it bears the other half such as stocks, bonds, money, notes, mortgages and other intangible wealth bears only 3 per cent of the tax burden. This is decidedly unfair," Allred said.

"This grave injustice in our tax system can be righted on November 6th if the oppressed taxpayers will vote for the constitutional amendment that appears first on the ballot. Amendment No. 1 authorizes a classification of property for tax purposes and will enable the legislature to add untold millions to the tax rolls that now escape taxation."

Amendment 3 Received "Amendment number 1 should not be passed with amendment number 3 on the ballot," Amendment number 3 seeks to place a per capita limit upon state revenues and expenditures. If this amendment had been in force the past two years it would have reduced state revenues approximately $40,000,000. That would have been ruinous to our schools and vital governmental agencies. Every friend of the public school and of efficient state government is against amendment number 3.

"I urge that the people be not deceived about these proposed amendments," Allred said. "Amendment number 1 should be adopted and amendment number 3 should be defeated. The moneyed interests and designing politicians are trying to confuse the people either with the slogan 'cut them all,' or with the absurd statement that amendment number 1 might in some manner affect the $3,000 homestead exemption."

"In order that real estate may be relieved of the crushing tax burden it now bears, I urge the people of Texas to vote for amendment number 1. In order that our schools may be kept open and the vital functions of government may be efficiently carried on, I urge the defeat of amendment number 3."

WELLSVILLE O., Oct. 25 - Precautions were taken today to protect Police Chief John Fultz who captured Adam Richetti and sent federal agents to find Pretty Boy Floyd, against gangland reprisals today.

Fultz received a threatening note, signed "the gang." It said: "You got Floyd and Richetti and we'll get the one who turned them up."

Police revealed that an automobile bearing four men called at the chief's home three times during the night.

FRIENDS RAISE MONEY FOR FLOYD FUNERAL

ATKINS, Okla., Oct. 25 - Preparations were being made in this little town of 200 people for the burial Sunday of Charles "Pretty Boy" Floyd, a home town boy who became one of the most vicious criminals in the nation.

Friends of Floyd's family at Salinasaw, seven miles north of here, raised $127.50 by "passing the hat" to defray expenses of having the body brought here and saving it from burial in a potters field.

CONDON SAYS 'JOHN' IS SAME AS HAUPTMANN

FLEMINGTON, Oct. 25 - Dr. John F. Condon has become convinced Bruno R. Hauptmann is the mysterious "John" to whom he passed the $20,000 ransom in the Lindbergh kidnaping, the United Press was informed by a reliable source.

The decision came at the conclusion of a surprise visit of Dr. Condon to the cell of Hauptmann.

For more than an hour Condon spoke to Hauptmann along the lines on which he conversed with the ransom negotiator in New York cemetery. When he left he was convinced Hauptmann and "John" were one and the same person.

CAT ATTACHED GIRL

ASHINGTON, Oct. 25 - Even-small daughter of W. Langston, East Kingston, was walking complacently down the street, when a cat, without warning, attached her and bit her foot through her shoe. A man coming to the aid of the child could not beat the cat off. He trampled it to death.

ROBBED AT BALL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 - Evening wraps valued at $257 were stolen from the check room of the Raleigh Hotel here while their owners attended a dance sponsored by a group of beauty parlor operators. The loot included a seal coat and several velvet jackets.

BILL IS SENT TO GOVERNOR FOR APPROVAL

AUSTIN, Oct. 25 - The Texas legislature today perfected a bill for a $30,000,000 appropriation in the Brazos river project and sent it to the governor for approval.

Final action was taken today when the senate concurred to the bill by vote of 19 to 6. It diverts state taxes in 10 Brazos river counties, at the rate of $300,000 a year for 20 years to repay the federal government for prospective loans with which to construct 13 dams on the river.

Maximum appropriation is $30,000,000. Governor Ferguson believes "it will mean no less than an expenditure by the federal government of $50,000,000 and will add potential values to the agricultural areas adjacent to the river in the sum of $100,000,000."

The senate also forwarded another major subject in the legislature by passing jointly the Hornsby bill, setting up a permanent system of deduction for ad valorem taxes paid early and a permanent system of penalties for later payment.

The bill directs that if the taxpayer pays in October, his taxes shall be assessed at only 97 per cent which amounts to a three per cent reduction.

Would Create New Oil and Gas Comm'n

AUSTIN, Oct. 25 - Rep. Jesse James of Throckmole today circulated a petition to the governor to submit to the legislature a resolution calling for a new commission to have charge of oil and gas production in Texas.

The bill is drafted for presentation when and if the governor calls for it. It creates a natural resources commission of three members.

OPEN SEASON ON DUCKS TO BEGIN FRIDAY

Duck season opens Friday morning. Due to the scarcity of the game birds this year, hunting will be allowed on only three days of each week, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The other four days are just the same as midsummer, so far as duck shooters are concerned.

Fifteen permits had been issued from the office of the city secretary this morning, and officials said they expected about 50 to be sold. These permits give the city's okeh for hunting on city waters. They are sold at $1 each.

It will be necessary for each hunter to purchase a federal duck stamp, however, before doing any shooting. These may be obtained for $1 at the post office, and will be attached to the permit, or the state license.

The state license is not required of hunters shooting in their own country, but for those wishing to hunt elsewhere it will be necessary.

Hunger Strike Is Declared on Hunger

AUSTIN, Oct. 25 - A hunger strike against hunger was started at the Texas capitol today.

E. J. Webb and a small group of unemployed came to the capitol this morning. They were without food at home and proposed to stay until fed.

"If we are going to starve, we are going to do it in public, they said. Webb took a petition to the governors office, asking that the hunger strikers be allowed to "peacefully starve to death in the corridors of the state building," where we will at least have a roof overhead and warmth for our bodies."

WEATHER

ITALY'S WOODEN OVERCOATS

And now come Italian manufacturers proposing that Italy's Facists wear wooden overcoats and cellulose blouses this winter. The new substitutes for cotton have just been introduced on the domestic market.

A large Italian firm which claims to have invented the process for utilizing wood and cellulose for clothing, has been trying out its materials in Germany for the past year, where it is asserted they have been well received. Now, however, Germans have devised similar processes with consequent falling off of export and Italians are turning for the first time to their own markets. The manufacturers predict that their products will eventually reduce Italy's imports of cotton and wool by at least 50 per cent. American and other cotton exporters agree that ultimately their markets will be menaced.

And thus it is shown that there is no standing still. The business man must be on his toes all the time. About the time that America thinks she has the market cornered on some product, along comes a substitute and, lo! it is gone.

RUSSIA'S JUNK BUSINESS

Russia has the sustain-Herself complex. She also has many "five-year plans." She is collecting scrap iron but she is not buying from the United States nor any other nation. She is simply going out and gathering it up from the bottom of the seas.

At the bottom of the Black, White, Baltic and Caspian seas which wash the shores of the Soviet Union, are countless ships, old, new, large and small which have met their fate by various means. Some by wrecks from the elements, others by mishaps, and still others by wreckage in time of war—submarines, etc.

The Soviet diver has displayed great bravery and efficiency in raising these old wrecks. Russia has displayed great inventive genius in making devices which are able to bring this scrap metal to the surface, and often great quantities of foreign gold and silver are recovered to be used in exchange for foreign goods.

Russia has worked quietly at her "junk business," but she has made it pay. She has not worried about Japan's entry into foreign markets to buy scrap iron to be used in her fight in Manchuria, China and the Far East. Japan must tax her already overburdened people for funds with which to buy metal for guns, but Russia mines it, so to speak, from her surrounding seas.

Just another way of developing her own resources—While Japan runs about the world hunting scrap iron, she even buys from Cisco—Russia, simply spits in her hands, so to speak, and digs it up in her back yard.

WHAT KIND OF SPORTSMAN ARE YOU?

Duck season opens Friday, October 26. What kind of sportsman will you be?

Will you be in mid-season form, having already shot more than your share of ducks before the season opens?

Will you trek about over the state, shooting where the birds are most plentiful without taking the trouble to procure a hunting license, but keeping a weather eye out for the approach of a game warden?

Will you shoot and kill just for the fun of killing, without taking into consideration how many ducks your family and close friends can use?

Will you, when you have shot your limit of birds, have the courage to quit without taking "just one more shot—for luck?"

Will you remember the game laws this year, which forbid duck hunting on any days except Friday, Saturday and Sunday, or will you say they were made by a bunch of cranks and don't believe them anyway?

Will you cooperate with the United States Bureau of Biological Survey in its slogan, "Have Sport, but save the ducks?"

Will you give your neighbor the same chance to shoot that you ask for yourself? Many sportsmen build duck blinds at Lake Cisco each year and naturally are put to a good deal of trouble and expense to do so. Will you give them an opportunity to use those blinds without interference from you, or will you appropriate the blinds or keep the ducks frightened away from them?

Will you needlessly frighten ducks away from Lake Cisco, forgetting that enough of such persons as you, can keep the flocks away permanently and ending the use of the Lake as a hunting ground?

Will you pick up the bird the man across the lake shoots, as it floats to your side forgetting that the same rule applies here as on the proverbial golf course rule:

"Don't pick up lost balls till they stop rolling?"

Will you, above all else, be sportsman enough to take every precaution to safeguard human life?

Post Card From California

UNDER THE DOME AT AUSTIN

By GORDON K. SHEARER
 United Press Staff Correspondent

AUSTIN, Oct. 25.—Texas legislators have become greatly perturbed over reported use of the house and senate roster on a letterhead of proponents of a centennial-year publication. Several members received communications to the effect that unless they objected, their names would be included in an endorsement of the enterprise.

So much stir was caused that the house of representatives ordered an investigation.

W. E. Lea, Orange, advocating a bridge over the Neches river for a short route between Port Arthur and Orange, said that the proposed crossing would be 20 feet higher than the Brooklyn bridge. It would have a vertical clearance of 135 feet. The Brooklyn bridge is 135 feet above mean low tide. A bridge now being built over the Mississippi near New Orleans will be 153 feet above mean tide and 135 feet above average high water. The 155 foot clearance of the proposed Neches bridge, Lea said, would permit every naval vessel to pass up the river under it, with the exception of the Patoka, which has a high mooring mast for dirigibles.

South Texans who think that Dallas is being given an undue share of the proposed celebration of Texas Centennial say that only three of the six territorial flags that have flown over Texas, have been planted farther north than Austin, Dallas, they say, never was under the French, Spanish or Mexican rule. It has not been settled then.

California's Native Sons are to have a counterpart in Texas. The coming Texas centennial has the inspiration. A charter application has been made for the Sons of the Republic of Texas. Daughters apparently are more patriotic. They have had an organization for a long time.

Two of Texas' new congressmen met in the state capitol recently—Sen. Nat. Patton and Maury Maverick. Patton will represent the new East Texas district in congress. Maverick will be first congressman from a district composed of Bexar county alone. The way the two went into a huddle after introduction indicated they have plans in mind.

Senate proposals to establish a capitol lunch room brought a reminder that a capitol lunch counter was expelled a few years ago on complaint that it had become unsanitary.

Bills for relief from tax penalties that have been offered in the special session of the legislature offer relief only from the penalties and interest that apply when taxes become delinquent. No bill, so far, strikes at the court costs which a delinquent taxpayer faces, if suit is brought to collect taxes.

The court costs are from $40 to $50 depending upon whether service is direct or by citation. An effort was made to limit the time in which a suit may be filed for delinquent taxes but it was rejected. The proposal was to bar tax claims after six years.

Behind the Scenes in Washington

By RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON — Toot-toot! Here comes the Band of Hope! All the genuine New Dealers and the "young liberals"—which includes most of the brain trusters—would be parading down Pennsylvania avenue, perhaps even burning red fire, if they followed their strongest instincts.

This jubilation is perhaps the most significant present fact in national affairs. It rises from a general belief that the administration is headed bravely toward the left, that we're to have more New Deal rather than less, and that Roosevelt is at last definitely committed to a path toward Senator Norris, Justice Brandeis and Rexford G. Tugwell, rather than a middle course sometimes veering toward Herbert Hoover, the du Ponts, and Senator Byrd.

There's a new spirit among the boys which says this is the only place they have even a slight chance of fighting effectively to social-economic justice and that they ought to stick until holed out.

Among the signs pointing to the left, they cite:

Closer secret contact between Roosevelt and Justice Brandeis. Roosevelt's Green Bay speech and endorsement of La Follette.

The administration's new sympathetic attitude toward labor and the National Labor Relations Board's hard-boiled support of Section 7-A.

Resignation of Budget Director Lew Donzlas, who found himself no longer an effective conservative bulwark here.

Roosevelt's two-hour talk with Upton Sinclair after the latter's victory in California.

Boldness in admitting and facing this winter's tremendous relief problem.

Progress of the social security program.

THE conservatives will be pretty sore, but there won't be any satisfying the Socialists, who insist Roosevelt merely seeks to preserve the capitalist system on a workable basis.

Old Oscar Ameringer, the country's foremost Socialist editor, caught the other spear on his side friend Leon Henderson, director of NRA's division of Research and Planning.

Oscar is one of those fellows who thinks the Blue Eagle is just another buzzard and Henderson sought at length to convince him otherwise.

"So you see," Henderson concluded, "we've already achieved quite a lot."

"Yah," Ameringer retorted, "you remind me of a doctor I used to know and the way he would try to cure a case of appendicitis."

"Simple by simple!"

I HAVEN'T checked carefully the present relative positions and complicated calisthenics of the right the other spear on his side, nevertheless suggest you keep your eye on Sam Rayburn of Texas.

Rayburn is the logical administration candidate and if the White House hasn't already started pulling wires for him, it is fairly sure to do so this fall.

Behind the scenes for Rayburn will be Vice President Jack Garner, one of the most accomplished backstage manipulators of our time, who knows the House better than any other man.

About Our Friends

By STEP A. LONG

J. W. J. (Skipper) Thomas wants the Cisco Coach to be magnanimous toward Breckenridge and let them have every advantage possible in the Lobo-Breckenridge game Friday. He suggests that we allow two of our good football fans, Ed Carfrey and Rex Carrothers, talk to Shotwell's boys just before the game that afternoon so as to put plenty of pep and life into the Breckenridge team. Thomas says Ed and Rex are specially good at these pep talks.

Of course you must know the story in order to appreciate this. It appears that just before a recent game between Wichita Falls and Abilene, Coach Jeffries, of the former place, who was one time coach at Cisco, asked his good friends Carfrey and Carrothers to make a pep talk to his boys before encountering the Abilene Eagles. Ed and Rex did so, and as the result was 34 to 0 in favor of Abilene, Skipper thinks that if Ed and Rex could make a talk to the Buckaroos just before the game we might have a chance.

Ed Huestis wants to know where the old time football pep has gone. In former years, when you met a man on the street a few days before a game he would immediately say to you! Well, I'm fixed up alright. I have a good seat on the 40 yard line for the game! And it was said in the same tone that he might have announced that he had his taxes, insurance and other things settled for the year.

The pep rally is scheduled for Thursday night at Chesley Field. It's still the greatest thing in the lives of the high school boys and girls.

The team is full of fight. They have a chance, and a good one, to win. Let every old time fan get to that rally, forget himself and make a talk that will please those kids—Cry if you can—but put old time enthusiasm into it—the dearest thing to the heart of those boys would be to turn Breckenridge's home-coming into a song of victory for Cisco.

Of course we like Breckenridge—but—this is sport. And what sportsman does not delight in victory—We're enemies while the game is on, even though we are the best of friends after it's over. Let's put all we have into this rally.

Louise Trammel with a pretty wool dress this morning. Does she want us to turn on more gas?

Herman Reimer with a new sweater. Dr. Oldham also with a nice sweater, but it's to show off his fine form. He admits it Johnny Cox taking long, hurried steps this morning, but he still wears his pipe and smile.

K. H. Pittard viewing all his friends with suspicion, he knows any bag of ducks will have to be proven.

Little Charley Hale, Doc, we mean, wearing his hat awry. It's the Breckenridge game. He says he's not going.

Nick Miller still wisecracking... but his customers like it.

W. J. Leach worried because he's "Easy" he admits it.

Henry Drumwright takes an unfair advantage of his customers, he wears the good looking ties and shirts, and the customer thinks he will look like Henry.

Dick Lauderdale is not allowed about any of the new signs... at least, until they are out of reach of his foot.

Tommy Starks actually wants it to rain.

Mitt Williams thinks the owner of the chairs should sit in them—the company should bring their chairs if they want to sit.

Did You Ever Stop To Think

By Edson R. Waite
 Shawnee, Oklahoma

It is said that all centuries have favored the rich, but only the last half century has begun to smile upon the working man.

In every material respect the working man today has privileges which his grandfather's imagination hardly could have conceived. Free education, more clothes and better shoes, more travel, and even if he can't travel, he and his family can acquire from the movies a good idea of the wonders of the world. Everything that happens is reported in his newspaper, and even if they could have afforded to buy it, many grandfathers would have been unable to read it. Now electric lights, instead of an oil lamp, automobiles, better homes and comforts.

Nobody will deny that the world is moving steadily toward the greatest happiness for a greater number. The last fifty years have seen an immense diffusion of knowledge. It has endowed the majority with that faculty of concentration which brings on a growth of character on which knowledge must feed and which develops into wisdom.

Yes, we live better and with less work, but we still have a long way to go to become better men than our grandfathers were.

"Keep On Gold Standard at All Costs" Is Mussolini's Economic Battle Cry

By THOMAS B. MORGAN United Press Staff Correspondent ROME, Oct. 25 — "Keep on gold at all costs" is the Duce's economic battle cry.

Wages, prices, rents, unemployment are all dependent on this policy which the Duce has made his own.

Though there has been some increase in the note circulation of late this amount is not important; it being one of the essential points of the government's policy to keep the paper issue of the country as low as possible.

Rents were reduced throughout Italy last May 12 per cent. This was intended to counterbalance the reductions in pay. Rents now are lower in Italy than many other European countries, though not when the lira is compared in terms of depreciated monies like the dollar, or the pound sterling.

The trade balance of Italy continues, of course, to be unfavorable, due in large part to her remaining on the gold standard.

In the first six months of 1933, imports dropped more than exports, but during the second half of 1933 imports steadily increasing and exports fell off.

The last figures for unemployment (June) show 830,856 men and women out of work as compared with 941,257 at the end of May of this year and compared with 883,621

for the month of June, 1933. The decrease in unemployment at this time of the year is seasonal, and chiefly depends on the absorption of men for temporary agricultural work.

On Wednesday night the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barron was the scene of a delightful party which was given as a surprise for Mrs. Barron on her birthday. Hostesses were Mrs. Hugh Abel and Mrs. Gifford Acrea who were assisted in making it a surprise by Mr. Barron who took Mrs. Barron and son, Billy Jack to Gorman for 7 o'clock dinner and returned to find the home filled with guests playing "42" and other games.

In the center of the lace-covered dining table was a cake with one candle and much merriment was caused when Mrs. Barron tried to cut it and it was found to be cotton. A real cake with candles was then brought in and she blew out all candles with one puff indicating good luck. Many useful and pretty gifts were then opened and inspected after which the hostesses served a lovely refreshment plate to Messrs. and Mesdames: Lewis, J. E. Heeter, Sam Roberts, C. A. Skipping, A.
