Elliott has gone to Olney on business. Mrs. D. J. Armstrong, Mrs. W. W. Wallace, Mrs. H. L. Edwards, and Mrs. L. E. Edwards moved to Ranger Thursday afternoon. A. J. Cisco Boy Wins Prize
At a banquet given by the Athenaeum Literary society in Austin Wednesday night, an after dinner speaking contest was held, in which Marlon Olson was the winner of a ten dollar gold piece.

MORE CLOTHES FOR NEEDY ARE ASKED BY DYER
Another appeal to aid the needy of the city with clothing was sent out today by H. L. Dyer, president of the United Charities and Welfare association, following a house-to-house canvass yesterday.

"We did not get nearly as much clothing as we will need," Dyer said. "We want to ask the people more to bring clothing to the Welfare headquarters or to call us so that we can come and get it. The telephone number is 24."

He pointed out that many persons have already given garments to individuals and feel that they have so little left that it is not worthwhile to give it, through the Welfare association.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 — The Guffey coal control act was attacked in District of Columbia supreme court today as a "gigantic conspiracy in restraint of trade."

West Ward Repairs Will Begin Tomorrow

WORKERS ARE CHECKED OUT FOR PROJECT

The West Ward school today had been put in readiness for workmen to begin repairs tomorrow under a $15,000 WPA project.

The National Reemployment Service office at Eastland was checking out 60 men to begin the project. The number was to include laborers, truckmen, carpenters, carpenters' helpers, and a plumber. Only those on relief rolls will be used.

R. S. Glenn will supervise the project, representing the government agency, while J. H. Latson will have charge of the work. R. L. Wilson will be timekeeper.

Pupils Moved
The West Ward pupils this morning reported to other buildings, where they resumed their work.

Superintendent R. N. Cluck announced that the six rooms of the first and second grades had been moved to the high school, the third grade to the grammar school, and the fourth and low fifth grades to the East Ward.

He said that it would be necessary to have the fourth and fifth grade classes in the same building so that they could do departmental work and send them to the East Ward because they were the oldest group and therefore would be in less danger in crossing the railroad tracks.

The two lowest grades, he said, were brought to the high school in an effort to keep them in as central location as possible.

Workers Getting Jobs To Leave Relief

EASTLAND, Oct. 29 — After workers on Works Progress Administration projects, first of which are starting this week, receive their initial checks, their direct relief cases are closed, Mrs. Jewell Reeves, case worker in charge, announced Tuesday.

All workers on WPA projects must be eligible for direct relief, officials point out.

Two of his co-defendants are Frank A. Vogel, former highway chief and Oscar A. Erickson, publisher of The Leader, Langer's political weekly.

SHIP FLAMES ARE CHECKED RADIO TELLS

NEW YORK, Oct. 29 — The fire on the steamer "Exarch" is under Jacobson's control, Capt. B. A. Jacobson advised the officers of the American Export Line today.

The liner, with nine passengers and a crew of about 45, is crippled and a fire 675 miles east of Nantucket Lightship she advised the coast guard by radio.

The fire broke out on the shelter deck and apparently burned the cable leading from the bridge steering apparatus to the rudder steering. Capt. Jacobson reported he was steering from the poop deck in the stern.

Vets To Meet

The local post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will hold their regular meeting tomorrow at the Chamber of Commerce. Post commander W. H. Hayes announced. He described the meeting as very important.

STOCK SHOW PLANS SHAPED BY OFFICIALS

Final plans were being shaped by officials today for the annual Eastland County Livestock Show, to be held in Cisco Friday and Saturday of this week.

The show, which was postponed last week end, will be held at the Wilkerson Lumber yard location where last spring's exhibit was held.

Prizes have been announced in the various classes, according to J. M. Bird, Chamber of Commerce vocational agriculturist. Local merchants and business men have cooperated to make the show possible.

There is every indication that we will have both the biggest and the best show this year that has ever been held in Cisco, Bird said.

He pointed to the fact that there are more outside entries and inquiries than ever before, while the quality of the stock to be shown this year appears to be definitely improved over that of previous shows.

In past years the show has been held in the spring, but because of the fact that marketing will be better, that feed will be cheaper, and that the animals will be in better condition, it was decided to hold the exhibit in the fall this year.

Some work of preparing the show grounds was done last week before inclement weather forced postponement of the exhibit. The work will be continued so that the grounds will be in good condition by the time the animals begin arriving here.

Shearer Says He Is Shielding Someone

Mussolini Celebrates

Thirteen years ago yesterday a growing band of black-shirted followers of a man named Benito Mussolini—a name which was on the lips of everyone in Europe as the man who perhaps held the key to the future of Italy—marched upon Rome and seized control of the nation's government.

The Fascists of Italy are under the command of a man who has visions of another great Roman Empire, and who sees himself as its Caesar. He is the man who mounts the base of the statue of Augustus, or upon the long, black barrel of a mighty Italian cannon to urge his men on to fight for the place which they believe rightfully belongs to them.

Thirteen years ago Benito Mussolini had visions of heading the government of Italy. Yesterday he had visions of heading the government of a great empire, regardless of the price his country had to pay in munitions debts and the lives of its young men.

When Benito Mussolini seized the power of government, he shovled aside a king, Victor Emanuel, beloved by his people. He became premier of Italy. He became most of the other ministers of Italy. He became Italy. But he shovled aside a king, and in doing so he took on the responsibilities which even a king does not have to bear.

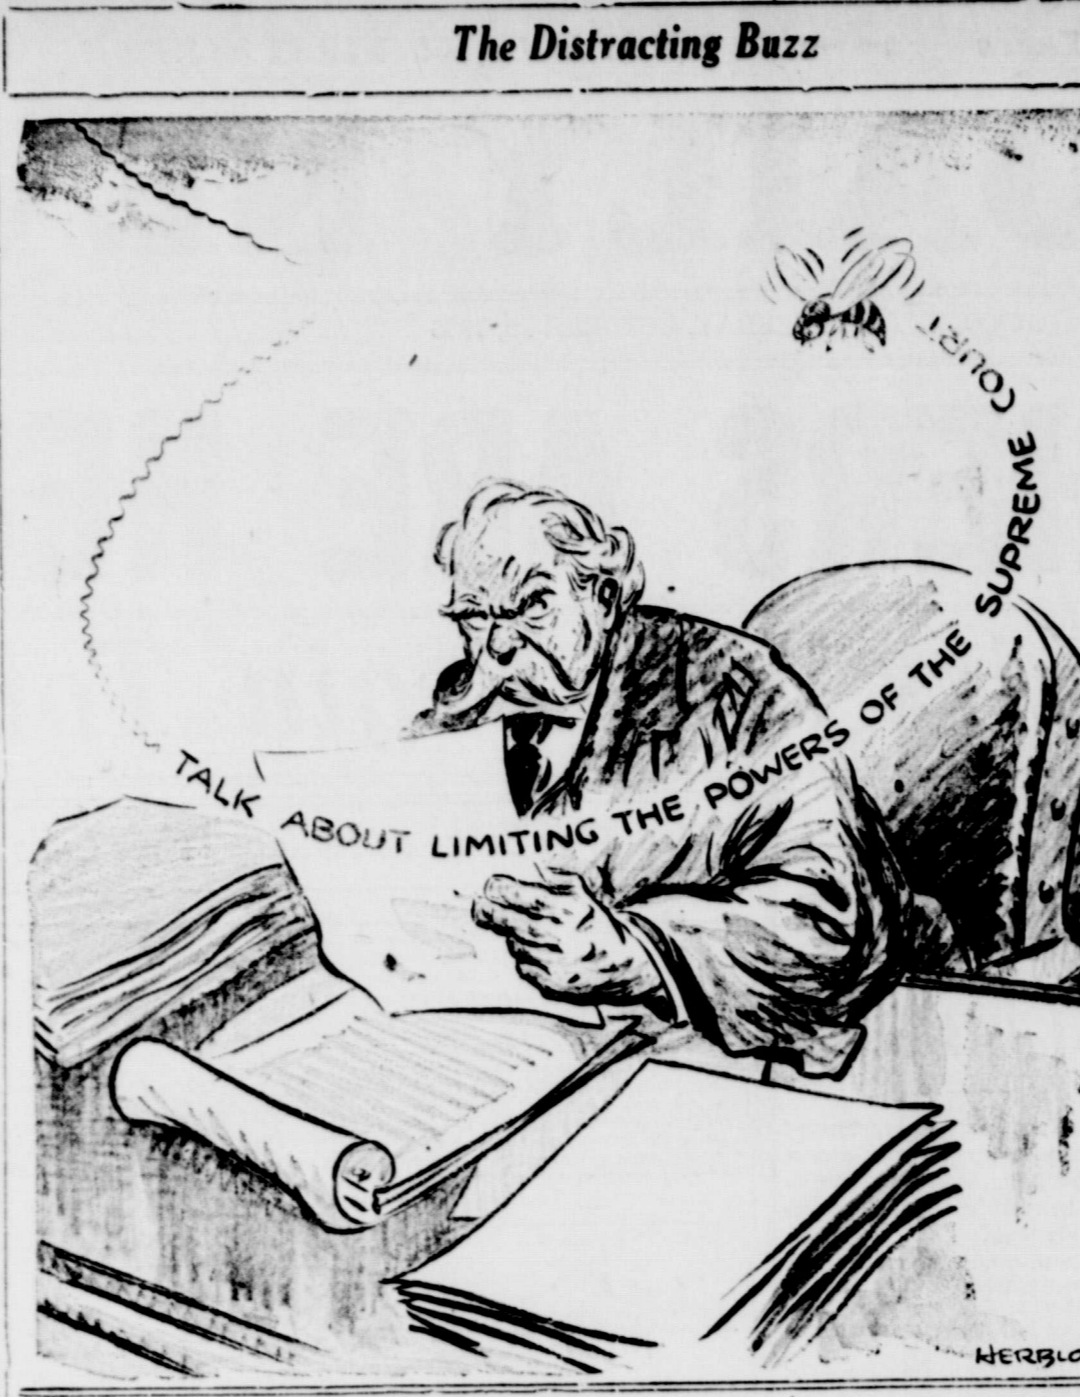

Welcome, Teachers

Welcome, teachers. Welcome to the city where the Oil Belt Teachers Association was formed. It was in Cisco five years ago that the idea was first conceived of uniting the teachers of schools throughout the Oil Belt into one organization with a common aim...

As the educators of this area meet today, the people of Cisco are conscious of the debt which the city, the state, the nation, and civilization itself owe to the teachers of the past and the present. They are conscious that the trend of education has been ever upward, that it has been striving for an ideal that can never be attained but which may be closely approached.

Behind the Scenes in Washington

WASHINGTON—The old question whether it's a good idea to dump, destroy, or suppress "surpluses" of food which millions of people are on the edge of starvation is again an issue in New Deal councils. There has been some compromise in Roosevelt's previous firm determination to abolish the Federal Surplus Relief Corporation, which has bought tens of thousands of tons of foodstuffs in the last two years for distribution to families on relief.

The Distracting Buzz

Where ignorance, intolerance, greed, and war seek to destroy, education seeks to build. Building is the essence of education, and the true educator is a builder in the highest sense of the word.

The teacher's lot, now as always, has been a hard one. He has suffered much and gained little. He has never been paid much in coin or goods for his services, but has been paid many times over in his own satisfaction and the esteem of his neighbors.

As Cisco welcomes the members of the Oil Belt Teachers Association today it welcomes them not as individuals but as members of that noble assemblage that includes Moses, Socrates, Plato, Aristotle, Pestalozzi, Rousseau, Froebel, Russell, Dewey, and the greatest teacher of them all.

Texas Topics

By RAYMOND BROOKS

AUSTIN, Oct. 29 — Legislators from Texas port cities have failed to agree on supporting a resolution asking authorities to close the ports until the longshoremen's strike can be adjusted. Friends of labor in the legislature wanted to take this step as a means of avoiding possible violence in some of the ports, and while it only would have been advisory or a re commendation, felt the suggestion was helpful.

Rep. Roy Hofheim of Houston has drawn a resolution asking the legislature to send one or two members to Washington to try to thresh out an understanding of the special security act as it may apply in Texas under limitations of the old-age pension amendment. Senator Allan Shivers believes that the state amendment, limiting Texas payments to $15 per month, and the fact the federal law provides for reimbursement of half the cost only, rather than matching state expenditures, will limit the Texas aged to a total of $15 per month from both sources.

Rep. Otis Dunagan of Big Sandy, who has a majority of the house members signed with him on a drivers' license bill, has received encouragement from Gov. Allred that the measure will be sent up fairly early in the present session of the legislature. Dunagan offered to see that the bill will not stand in the way of enabling legislation under the recent constitutional amendments requiring action at this session. He believes the measure will go through as the state's answer to any org of fatal automobile accidents within the past few weeks.

BEGIN HERE TODAY JEAN DUNN, secretary to DONALD MONTAGUE, lawyer, delays her answer when BOBBY WAGNER, automobile salesman, asks her to marry him.

where's the harm in kissing your future husband, anyhow?' 'Yes, but—but they don't know about that part of it.'

WHEN SANDY asked her to marry him, Jean looked at him for a long time without replying. Then she said slowly, 'Sandy—I'm an awful coward.'

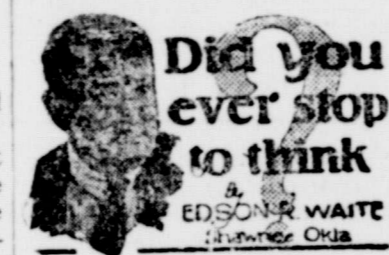

'I won't,' she said gaily. 'Okay. The rest of it's all right, then. Only—' he flipped his cigarette away and unexpectedly laid one hand on her knee.

There was another long pause. Jean tried to stand off and get a look at her feeling for Sandy against this new background of Maplehurst rather than the old one of Dover; she tried to remember that it was Bobby she was supposed to be in love with, and not Sandy; but none of it was much use.

'But you're going to be here long enough to meet my people, aren't you?' 'Oh, sure, if you say so.'

WHEN he released her, at last, she suddenly remembered that they were sitting in a public place in broad daylight; and she detached herself from his embrace as nervously as a frightened high school girl.

'Sandy!' she cried, looking at her anxiously. 'The whole town is apt to see us!' 'What of it?' asked Sandy, grinning broadly.

Advertising is a public utility. It is the art of making known. It is mighty in the public service. It conquers time. It banishes distance. It speeds production and prosperity, creates national distribution, makes life richer and better and it pays for itself by reducing the cost of making, distributing and selling goods.

Loboes Seeking to Wipe Out Maverick Win

WORK AGAINST MORAN ELEVEN HERE MONDAY

The Cisco Loboes will be tearing smapping at the Eastland Monday in an effort to wipe out the defeat which they suffered at the hands of the Eastlanders last season.

For the first time in the history of the two schools, Eastland won a grid contest in 1934 when the Loboes were looking for a win when the Mavs attempt to wipe out the Loboes.

Yesterday the Loboes worked out at the Moran Class B team.

The Loboes made a creditable showing against the Breckenridge team and will be back to take advantage of the confidence that they and the fans gained from the contest.

Hope For Dry Field

The Loboes were hampered in their passing game, to which they resorted against their rivals, will be hoping for a dry field and plenty of sunshine to combine with their aerials and ground plays against the Eastlanders.

Eastland also has taken to the air frequently this season. Key do the passing and any one of several including some of the five "Tay" boys—doing the grabbing. Key, opened the season by tossing long passes against Mineral Wells which were not intercepted simply because Mineral Wells had no pass catcher, has greatly improved and puts the ball to the spot where Eastland had been waiting for it.

The open game used by the two schools will appeal to the fans, as the color that the long rivalry between them stands for. Last season the Mavs beat Cisco and it was a successful season. This season they have beaten Ranger and are willing to admit that it is above their expectations if they take the measure of both the Mavs and the Loboes.

Frank Martz, well-known P.A. fan

Martz is a Prince Albert roll-smoker of many years standing. He rolls 2 cigarettes in 12 seconds. Martz gets a lot of credit for his speed.

Rollin' your own is a pleasure to Prince Albert because P.A. is so easy. And, to an old roll-smoker like me, the fact I get around 70 cigarettes out of a big economy tin of P.A. is a very important item too."

Show you that what Mr. Martz says about Prince Albert is true, we will give you this money-back offer:

Buy yourself 30 well cigarettes from the Prince Albert. If you don't find them the tastiest roll-your-own cigarettes ever smoked, return the tin with the rest of the tobacco in it, and we will refund purchase price, plus postage.

FRECKLES and HIS FRIENDS.

PIGSKIN POINTERS COACH ROOSE HOW TO PLAY END

THE ideal end must be rugged enough to smash interference, and agile enough to dart through a mass of blockers. In addition, he must have speed to get him down the field on the outside of the runner under punts, and get into the open to receive passes.

On pass plays, he must be able to disguise the play by assuming his ordinary stance of braced legs, coiled, with the knees well bent, and with the tail low. He must fake at boxing the tackle, and then duck and get away from the halfback covering him.

In receiving a pass, the end must spread his fingers without tensing them or the wrist. The ball should be caught like a baseball—with the hands, only.

On defense, the end concentrates on the man with the ball.

BIG DAM CHATTER

Learned W. Cope, who spins "Sport Squabs" for the Breckenridge American, does not like Chesley field. In fact, from what he has to say about the game, one would be inclined to think that perhaps he has formed a strong dislike for the field.

In his sports column, the writer has the following to say:

Well, boys, here's mud in your eyes. And if you see around anywhere near the sidelines at the game Friday afternoon, you probably 'd get some of the stuff in your snout. If the Cisco field was built right, a game on a muddy field wouldn't be so bad, but the way it is, the water stands on the place in spots all the time. We believe the field at Abilene is about the best in these parts as far as drainage is concerned. It is rounded up in the middle and there is not a chance of water standing on it. It may get muddy, but it can't get sloppy, like the Cisco field. It was a mess, and so were the boys after running several plays. You could hardly tell the players from each other. As far as numbers were concerned, that was out. The only way to recognize the boys was in knowing how they each ran, walked, or slid.

There's something in what the Breck writer said. Of course none of us, even Dr. Cline at Dallas, have much control over the elements, but it is a shame to have to play a game on a field in the shape that Chesley field was in last week—or to have to sit in such a press box.

Cope, willing to concede Cisco better than Brownwood, was somewhat disgruntled by the wet field—which hampered the Loboes' open game but did appear to bother the Buck's line plays. He pops off in the following manner:

Cisco should receive more credit for scoring on the Bucks than Brownwood. Cisco did it first, and theirs was a touch-down strictly on the up and up. Nothing tricky about it. They just picked up the ball and toted it over the Buckaroo goal line. The Brownwood score was one of those accidents, and there are those who see something fishy about the fumble the Buckaroo back is given credit for back of his goal line. On a dry field, we still believe the Loboes would have been one of the softest touches the Bucks have on their schedule. We are certain the boys wouldn't have scored, but you never tell. The boys have fumbled a dry ball too.

The boy Rylee of the Cisco team is a pretty good boy. A hard runner, a fine blocker, and a terrific tackler. He gets the boys low, too. He doesn't pretend to neck the fellows.

Two of Southwest Conference Games This Weekend Have Bearing on Title

FORT WORTH, Oct. 29 — Conference play gets under way in earnest in the Southwest Saturday. Three games are scheduled, two of which have an important bearing on the conference race.

At Waco, Maylor and T. C. U. two of the three undefeated teams, will tangle in the presence of a rivalry that is one of the best in the conference. The game will be the 42nd between the two schools. The Bears will have the advantage of the home field and a homecoming crowd to cheer them on, but the Christians are convinced they can take them nevertheless. It will be a battle worth seeing, certainly.

Mustang and Longhorn will crash in Dallas. Texas will be out to take S. M. U., so that the ring of defeats for the two of them and Rice may be completed. If this happens, everything will be more or less back at scratch, for whoever wins at Waco is likely to drop a game to one of these three before the season is over.

Arkansas and A. & M. meet in Little Rock, with the Razorbacks now the favorite to take the contest. Since both elevens have lost both their previous conference starts, the game has little bearing on the flag race.

Rice journeys to Washington, D. C., to meet George Washington in a game that is expected to be an easy one, except for the travel.

BEARS DRILL FOR THEIR REAL TESTS

WACO, Oct. 29 — Realizing that their real tests lie ahead of them, the Baylor university Bears settled down to heavy training Monday afternoon to make ready for the invasion of Coach Dutch Meyer's undefeated Texas Christian Frogs next Saturday afternoon. The tussle, matched between two of the three undefeated teams of the Southwest conference, is Homecoming for Baylor and a capacity crowd is expected to throng Carroll field.

Back on their home field Monday after a stormy session in Aggieland last weekend, which game the Bears copped 14-6, Coach Morley Jennings's Bruins took up their training duties with a smile after having run their string of victories to six for the current session. Two of these wins were at the expense of other Southwest conference elevens.

Golf Chat

By WILLIAM PHILPOTT (Professional, Cisco Country Club)

Serious accidents on the golf course are very rare, chiefly because the average player realizes how easy it is for an uncontrolled shot to cause considerable harm.

Most accidents have been caused by non-players who were ignorant of the distance a golf ball will travel and how much force it carries.

Recent tests show that a well hit ball travels 176 feet per second; to dodge a ball at that speed is like trying to dodge a bullet. During the same tests a golf ball was driven through a telephone directory of 50 pages. Imagine the effect on the human body if hit by a ball like that.

Here are a few "don'ts" that will protect the non-player and relieve the strain on those running the golf course: Don't allow young children to go near the playing area of a golf course. Don't go on the course to watch players if you are unacquainted with the game. Don't stand close to any player making a shot. It is better to be safe than sorry.

Canada Urged To Tap Gold Deposits

MONTREAL, Oct. 29—Canada, with its almost limitless undeveloped gold and other mineral deposits, is in a strategic position to lead the world out of the depression, Robert Hunter, Santa Barbara, Cal., economist and sociologist believes.

yet undreamed of—provided that no unforeseen government obstacles are imposed. The problem, he said, was to get these resources, especially gold, out of the ground, and the Canadian government should offer every inducement to foreign capital to come into the country. "If you can get $100,000,000 a year of outside money to be spent in this country for exploration purposes, and another $100,000,000 to be used in development of the deposits discovered, you would solve the unemployment problem in this coun-

Rare Stamp's Price Is Set at $50,000

LONDON, Oct. 29 — A square-inch scrap of paper will be offered for sale here Oct. 30 at a price of not less than $50,000.

This is the value put upon a one-cent magenta British Guiana stamp of 1850 by its owner, Mrs. Pascal Costa Esch, wife of the late M. Esch, who during his life-time possessed one of the most valuable stamp collections in the world. The stamp is roughly composed of ordinary printer's type and is the only one of its kind known to be in existence at present. It was printed in a newspaper office in Georgetown, Demerara, as a makeshift until the next steamer from London could bring fresh supplies.

In 1876, 14-year-old schoolboy found this stamp hidden away in an attic amongst a bundle of old forgotten letters. Liking its color, he decided to add it to his collection. Later he sold it to a stamp collector for six shillings ($1.50).

Some years afterward this collector sold his entire collection for $625 to Thomas Ridpath, of Liverpool. From that day on the lone British Guiana stamp soared in value. A Count Philippe von Ferrari, once renowned collector, bought it for $775 in 1922 when the Ferrari collection was disposed of.

The sale on Oct. 30 will see Hermer, Rooke & Co. of Arundel street, London, offering the tiny magenta scrap for $50,000.

ATLANTA GIRL BECOMES GOLF MARVEL AT 15

By HYMAN J. ARONSTAM United Press Staff Correspondent ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 29—A fair-haired, bright-eyed youngster played hockey from school long enough to step out on the links of the East Lake Country club and romp through the Georgia Women's Golf Tournament to win for the second time.

She is 15-year-old Dorothy Kirby, of Atlanta, who by virtue of her amazing 74 in the final round, has earned a place in the ranks of the greatest women shotmakers. Displaying the temperament and skill of a great champion, young Dorothy swept through her older and more experienced opposition with mechanical precision.

Starting with an 86 in the qualifying round to even medal honors (the Atlanta schoolgirl speeded up her tempo a beat on each succeeding day until she turned in her record-shattering card in the final round.

Meets Severe Test In the finals she was matched against Mrs. Guy Butler, holder of the Atlanta women's crown and runner-up in the state tourney last year. Previously, they had met in a local tournament, and Miss Kirby won, but only after the match had gone to the 19th hole. Mrs. Butler was given only an outside chance in their return bout. Miss Kirby had been playing a consistently brilliant game, vanquishing her rivals by lopsided scores, but experts were expecting her to crack under the pressure.

However, shortly after they teed off, little Dorothy dispelled any doubts anybody turning out to witness the match might have had. Mrs. Butler played valiantly, but at the turn she was hopelessly outdistanced. Miss Kirby ended the rout at the 11th hole, eight up on Mrs. Butler, and then played out the bye holes.

The young schoolgirl was out in 36, even men's par, shooting two birdies and going one over par figures on two holes. Rounding the turn, she stayed abreast of par through the 16th but dropped a stroke apiece on the last two holes for a card of 74.

Mark Set For Course Thus, young Dorothy set a new mark for the No. 3 course, and equalled the card turned in by Miss Joyce Wethered over the No. 1 course in an exhibition match this summer. Miss Kirby's game was well-balanced in all its departments. She was getting great length on her drives, approaching with deadly marksmanship, and had her putting touch down to a fine degree. In her record round, she didn't have a single three-putt hole.

This marked the second time Miss Kirby has won the Georgia title. She scored her first triumph two years ago, when she had hardly entered her teens. Instead of defending her crown last year Miss Kirby entered the Southern tourney at Louisville, and went to the semi-final round.

She has been a pupil of Howard Beckett, Atlanta pro, since she was 11, and he has been largely responsible for bringing her to the stage she reached in the final round against Mrs. Butler. Even Beckett was amazed by her performance.

Cisco Writer Gets the Breaks And Sees Chevrolet Preview at Dallas

By TRUETT LAROQUE
Am I getting the breaks! Yesterday morning at exactly 4:30 a. m. I was aroused from peaceful slumber in preparation for a trip to Dallas, (with expenses paid) to attend the presentation of the new 1936 Chevrolet passenger car and commercial unit show given by the Chevrolet Motor company for the dealers and salesmen included in the Dallas zone. Those attending from here were A. D. Anderson, Jack Anderson, C. O. Pass, John Smith, John Holter, Boad Parish, Henry Purvis and this writer.
We arrived in Dallas at 8:30 and went to the Uptown theater building, at which place the business meeting was held. A musical program was given while the guests were being seated. More than 1,200 dealers and salesmen attended this showing. Incidentally this writer encountered a little difficulty in getting in some playful Chevrolet official with whom I was acquainted had given instructions to have me thrown out the minute I arrived and the instructions were carried out. After the joke was carried almost too far however, this writer was admitted in a cordial manner.
After the musical program, featured talks were made by several officials of the Chevrolet Motor company pictures were shown at intervals, carrying out the talks effectively. These talks went on for about one hour, after which time the curtain on the stage was raised and there it one of the most beautiful automobiles I have ever seen. The Chevrolet Master Sport sedan. An official of the Chevrolet Motor company then explained the new features in detail of the Master Chevrolet for 1936. Shortly afterwards the curtain was lowered and again raised to reveal the new Chevrolet Standard for 1936. This model in my estimation, has more features and more changes than has been made on any car in its price range, in so short time. Again the curtain was lowered and raised showing the commercial units for 1936. It was a nice sturdy looking truck but I can't know a great deal about trucks so I won't go in detail to explain the features.
At 12 o'clock we adjourned to go to the Crystal ballroom in the Baker hotel for dinner as guests of the Chevrolet Motor company. I like to talk of this feature because at that time I was starved. Anyway we had barbecued chicken and all the nice things that go with it. Cake and ice cream for dessert made you hungry didn't it? Made me hungry too. During the dinner we were entertained by an orchestra that really offered some novelty numbers that pleased. Incidentally we were also entertained by the famous Bell Cantor Quartet and those boys are good.
After dinner we went back to the Uptown theater and a short business session was held in regards to the numerous programs rapped out by the Chevrolet Motor company. I was interested in the feature also, inasmuch as advertising programs were discussed, which after all is my bread and butter.
Then the presentation of all passenger cars and commercial units. It took more than one floor of the building across the street to show all of these units. The building was decorated beautifully and carried out the display in a manner which dazzled us. More than 20 cars and trucks were shown for Chevrolet for 1936. Now I have seen them. Andy says you will have to wait till Saturday Nov. 2. Am I getting the breaks!

parties to the dispute, Italy and Ethiopia.
The news from the war zone continued exciting. There was so minor skirmishing in the south. The Italians in the north were in striking distance of Makale, the next objective and apparently they took it with little resistance. The Ethiopian stand, if any, will be south of Makale where the Italians will be farther from their base and more at a disadvantage.

Helping Mothers to Cut Down On Family's Colds

Unique Formula for Nose and Throat Helps to Prevent Colds—And to Throw Off Head Colds at the Start.
SOON CLEARS "STUFFY HEAD"
Mothers are so often worried about their families' colds that they find special comfort in this unique aid for preventing colds—Vicks Vapo-nol.
Especially designed for nose and upper throat, where most colds start, Vapo-nol stimulates the functions provided by Nature—in the nose—to prevent colds, and to throw off head colds in the early stages.
Used in time—at the first sniffle, sneeze or nasal irritation—just a few drops up each nostril—Vapo-nol helps to avoid many colds.
Where irritation has led to a clogged-up nose (a stuffy head cold or nasal catarrh) Vapo-nol reduces through the nasal passages—reduces swollen membranes—clears clogging mucus—brings comforting relief.
A Practical Guide for Mothers
Each year, more and more families are being helped to fewer colds, shorter colds and milder colds by following Vicks Plan for Better Control of Colds. Vicks Plan has been clinically tested by practicing physicians, and further proved in everyday home use throughout the country. Full details of the Plan come in each package of Vicks Vapo-nol.
