Dist. Court Ruling Defeats Power Interests

CASE TO GO TO U. S. SUPREME COURT IN FALL

WASHINGTON, June 5.—(U.P.)—The district supreme court ruled today that new deal allotments to finance municipal power projects under the work relief program are constitutional. The one-judge decision was made personally by Chief Justice Alfred Wheat. It came after a month-long trial of four utility companies attacking the re-employment activity as outside the law. The decision was an out and out defeat for power interests seeking to stop public works administrator Harold Ickes from using federal funds to finance publicly owned electricity plants, transmission and distribution systems, with loans and grant. The utility attorneys said they would appeal Chief Justice Wheat's decision to the district court of appeals. From that tribunal regardless of its ruling the case will go to the U. S. Supreme court next fall for final settlement on constitutionality of $200,000,000 program.

WAR ON JAPAN DECLARED FOR NORTH CHINA

KANTONG, China, June 5.—(U.P.)—Mobilization of troops in Kwantung and Kwangsi provinces to resist Japanese incursion in north China was ordered today by the Cantonese (South China) government. The troops were under orders to march northward. The Cantonese war lord demanded war, but no formal declaration of war was made. The decision to mobilize was made during a meeting of the political council which decided it encouraged the resistance of the northern Nanking government to Japanese expansion. The move of the Cantonese political and military leaders was believed by observers of oriental affairs as intended to force the hands of General Chiang Kikal-Shek, Northern war lord, and compel him to resist the Japanese, which would result in his inevitable defeat and overthrow.

Fearsome Garb Of Night Riders

This awesome garb of south-eastern Ohio night riders in the days of Klan power is nearly identical with the costume of the Black Legion, under fire in the probe of Michigan outrages. Dr. William J. Shepard of Bellaire, O., is reported to have admitted he organized the riders, but indignantly denies he is a high officer or has any connection with the Legion.

Candidates File To District Offices

Filing of candidates for district offices, deadline of which was Monday, were announced Thursday from the office of County Democratic Executive Chairman Earl Conner, Jr., of Eastland. For the 11th Court of Civil Appeals, Chief Justice Leslie had filed for reelection and Clyde Grissom, associate justice asked for his first elective term. Grissom was appointed by Governor Allred after Judge J. E. Hickman was named to the supreme court commission of appeals. The other justice, O. C. Funderburk, does not have to run this year. The 24th senatorial district race had the following candidates: Wilbourne B. Colie, the incumbent, Eastland; Y. L. Thompson, Haskell, and Victor Gilbert, Cisco. For electoral representative (Calahan and Eastland counties) "Tip" Ross, Gorman; Cecil Lotter, the incumbent, Eastland; E. M. Curry, Pioneer. Thomas L. Blanton of Abilene has filed for reelection to the 17th Congressional District. He is opposed by Fred O. Jaye, De Leon, and County Judge Clyde L. Garrett. Deadline for filing of applications for places on the ballot by precinct and county candidates is June 13.

Cisco County State Taxes Limit Near

The tax collector-assessor office has issued a reminder that the time limit for payment of the second half of 1935 county and state taxes is June 30. After that penalty and interest will be attached. This is also the time limit for the city of Cisco according to the city secretary's office.

PREMIERE BLUM MAKES PROMISE ON LABOR WEEK

PARIS, France, June 5.—(U.P.)—Premiere Leon Blum, fighting an epidemic of strikes and the emergency of extremists of right and left wing factions into open activities, promised today he would keep parliament in session until measures for a 40 hour working week, paid vacations and collective labor contracts were enacted. Blum made his promise in a radio speech just after he took formal office as head of the country's first socialist government. News that 254 new strikes were declared in the last 24 hours greeted him as he appealed to the country for unity. Ready for any development, Blum called his cabinet into session and made sure that police and storm guards were ready, if needed, for action against the striking men who brought him and his left wing government into being. Even as Blum talked, Paris department store workers joined the strike. They locked the doors, keeping girl clerks inside, and pushed customers out through the doors.

Efforts To Halt Horse Race From Lampasas to Dallas, Claim Cruelty

AUSTIN, June 5.—(U.P.)—Threats to halt the 184 miles endurance horse race from Lampasas to Dallas finishing at Centennial Exposition were made here today. On the ground that it is cruelty to animals highway officials appealed to Governor James Allred, and Attorney General William McCraw to ascertain if state motor police cannot be stationed along the route and halt the riders. Under terms of the contest, the same rider on the same horse must finish. The race will be run along state highways. John Wood, member of the state highway commission, first telephoned and then visited the governor's office in an attempt to stop the race. "It should not be permitted, (1) because it is not right to race horses that distance in this kind of weather; an (2) because turning loose a lot of horses racing on the highways is an interference and danger to regular vehicle traffic. If the governor will give authority for the state motor patrol to enforce the order, we will issue that order against the right," Woods said.

DRINKING BOUT TAKES TOLL OF SIX MEN TODAY

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., June 5.—(U.P.)—A drinking bout in which the participants drank wood alcohol claimed the lives of six men today. All died within a twelve hour period. An investigation disclosed poisonous wood alcohol in their systems after the deaths had first been attributed to other causes. Authorities said the men gathered in an old Jamestown building, probably Tuesday night to do some drinking. The party apparently extended into Wednesday morning, police said, judging from the more than a score of empty bottles bearing wood alcohol and bay rum labels which they found in the building.

Police Search For Missing Daughter

WASHINGTON, June 5.—(U.P.)—Police and department of justice agents were asked today to search for Ednee Stephens, 15, daughter of Winston Stephens, personnel director of the re-settlement administrator, who has been missing two days. The girl has not been reported since she left the home Wednesday morning to go to school, her father said today.

One group of men is working on the caliche bed and another is getting out rock northwest of the city. This material is being prepared so that there will be no delay when it is needed later. Work with teams will begin about Tuesday, said Highway Engineer A. D. Schmidt in discussing the matter today. Work on the entire project may require near a whole year's time, he continued.

About Our Friends

Stockard, sanitary inspector of the city, will be seeing you about nuisances... don't get insulted because he is only trying to get you ready for company... Lions visitors who are to be guests soon... In our busy rush may overlook some trash in back alleys or even in the yard and then be embarrassed we suddenly notice this as one of the guests visit our part of the city... We want to get ready for the company and Stockard is giving us the once over... of our places are just as clean as the neighbors but then we want to be... just like we advertise our clean city...

Speaking of the Lions convention which seems to be in every one's mind just now... The Eastland program has this to say in the program, "That Reminds Me": "Cisco will be host in the near future to the District 2-E Lions convention. June 16 is the day for the starting of the event. Cisco as usual who knows how to entertain conventions will be at her best from advance information. Cisco Lions, assisted by the Rotarians, the Chamber of Commerce and all other civic organizations will make those visiting Lions wish that they lived in Cisco. Cisco has plenty to offer in the way of recreation and otherwise. Maybe Eastland will have a chance some day to strut her stuff. In the meantime we'll all join the neighbors on the west side of our domain in seeing that the city of forty-three towns won't say anything else but "Eastland county is simply IT."

Eugene Lankford carrying attractive looking gold headed cane... In the busy rush of modern business, men have lost a lot of dignity by discarding the carrying of canes... some day perhaps men will discard the carrying of canes and vanities... lose a lot of femininity and perhaps attractiveness... and then some writer will be wondering why there are many unmarried women... all men are losing a lot of the respect for marriage and its accompanying burdens and responsibilities... men usually marry because they can't help themselves... the girl is just so attractive... she feels that life without her will be an empty existence and she insists... Rather have an empty existence than to be alone.

RAM BRANDON PRINCIPAL AT BAY CITY HIGH

Ram Brandon, six years principal of the Cisco high school, has been named the principal of the Bay City schools, it was announced today. In response to an unexpected telegram from the superintendent of Bay City schools, Mr. Brandon looked at the situation over and accepted the place, refusing the offer of the principalship of another city which he had been considering for several days. When contacted this morning, Mr. Brandon said that Bay City was a town of about 6,000 population at the time, schools about the size of Cisco's and with a slightly better salary schedule than in this town of the state. Oil activity in the town is increasing the population rapidly, Mr. Brandon stated. Mr. Brandon is traveling out of town during the summer months to move to his new home in Bay City, September 1, he said. Mr. Brandon will visit relatives in East Texas for about a month before joining her husband at Lubbock. She orders the Daily News to be sent her each day.

ALLRED WILL TURN JEWELLED KEY TO GATES

DALLAS, June 5.—(U.P.)—Dallas and all Texas awaited with eager anticipation the word from Secretary of Commerce Daniel Roper that will open the portal tomorrow on the $25,000,000 Texas Centennial Exposition. Governor James Allred will turn the jeweled key opening the central gates. Secretary Roper, personal representative of President Roosevelt, at noon will give the word to snap the last barrier—a ribbon. Roper's statements will be relayed around the world by telegraph and approximately two and a half minutes later the ribbon will be cut automatically. Dallas put on her final holiday dress today. Flags decorated the streets. Even lamp posts bore the insignia "1836-1936" in recognition of the 100th anniversary of Texas independence. Downtown sections already saw near record crowds, and officials were unable to estimate what the first day attendance would be. Two million advance tickets were sold early this week.

Rev. Applewhite Will Preach Sunday

Rev. M. H. Applewhite, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will preach at both morning and evening services Sunday, it was announced today. Sermon subject for the morning service will be "Life Building." "Anything that is to be lasting must be built on a firm foundation. This is applicable to life as well as to material edifices. The plans are drawn and approved, the specifications have been submitted—what of the building?" Consider this in connection with the building of a Christian Life, quotes Rev. Applewhite. At the evening worship, "The Joy of Christ in Man" will be the sermon subject. "So many think, or seem to think the religion of the Lord Jesus Christ produces melancholia. The Lord came to bring not only peace to the soul, but also joy to the heart and life." Do you have the joy that goes with salvation? We invite you to consider this with us Sunday evening, continued Rev. Applewhite.

This will be the first time in history that the lawmaking body of one state has held a quorum session in a sister state, Governor Leche said. Accompanied by approximately 2,000 Louisiana citizens, the lawmakers will arrive in Dallas aboard a special train early on the morning of June 6 and elaborate plans have been made for their entertainment. The Tulane University band from New Orleans will accompany the delegation, which will be accorded a prominent place in the opening day parade. Governor Leche announced he would have the speaker call the roll and if there are any pressing matters pending at the time, proper legislative action will be taken.

Out Rules Supreme Court

Supreme court said, in destroying the NRA, which regulated wages of women and children, it was an illegal invasion of states' rights.

Now, in the New York wage case, it says a state is powerless to regulate wages of women and children. There is a maximum that a female minor of certain age may make only one legal contract, that to sell her virtue.

Now, supreme court says that when a half-starved 10-year-old girl marches into the gate of a textile mill, she creates some super-sacred contract—which it has held she is incapable of making—that outweighs the power of both federal and state governments to protect the welfare of that child.

In other words, the right of contract, held by only one party to the bargain, is more powerful than the state or the federal government. In the Guffy coal case, supreme court said, the law was bad because it invaded states' rights, even though the coal states by briefs said they could not control the human abuses involved, and that it was noninvasion of their rights.

The United States now has a court which tells congress it will strike down any legislation attempting to curb its power to hold statutes good or bad. Its usual majority, a group of aged lawyers repeat the shibboleth of "sacredness of contract," apparently without regarding the contract between the peoples of states forming the union, erecting a federal government for the best interests, the protection, welfare, as well as property rights, of all the people.

The new deal has been termed a social revolution, a peaceful revolution. With the growing, visible degradation of people, ground by poverty created by forms of law and court decision, it is a wonder there have not been far more drastic changes under the perfectly legal and wholly peaceful means available whenever enough people decide to make them.

Such changes would vest somewhere specific power to defend the public welfare, and precisely limit the power of conflicting organisms, executive or judicial, federal or state.

A Mile High on Mount Locke

Conceivably, Centennial year will bring tourists who still think of Texas as a wild frontier, with bands of frolicsome cowboys shooting up dove villages. There probably are some people who still have that mental picture of Texas.

If so, they will get a first surprise when they visit cities such as Houston, Dallas and Fort Worth. But then, suppose they go on west, feeling at last they're finding the last stronghold of the familiar southwest of fiction. If they should drive up a fine highway toward the top of Mount Locke, in the Davis Mountains, looking back on quiet ranch houses and miles of cedar-fringed hills, they will meet still another surprise. They will see a crew of workmen busy in a new round domed structure. If they inquire, they will find that the second largest reflector telescope in the world is being installed there, the work of fitting the

Behind the Scenes in Washington

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Conflicting and fragmentary reports of developments in the labor field have tended to blur the important fact that John L. Lewis and his Committee for Industrial Organization are marching rapidly along in their campaign for mass organization of workers into industrial unions.

Some labor leaders predict a summer of organization as big as that which attended creation of NRA.

Meanwhile, President William Green and the craft union hierarchy of the A. F. of L., at bitter war with the C. I. O., have sustained a succession of defeats.

The most sensational move came in recent private conferences, when representatives of the Lewis group told pro-Green executives of the steel workers' union that if they continued to stall, following the union convention's stand for an industrial union organization drive, the C. I. O. would go ahead, anyway, with its proposed $500,000 steel organization campaign.

That simply meant a threat to sweep the union right out from under its old line executives, which would be by far the toughest move in the Lewis-Green battle thus far.

The steel union (Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel & Tin Workers) held its convention at Canonsburg, Pa. Delegates proved to be almost unanimous for industrial unionism.

Faced with a vague offer of organization aid from Green and a definite offer from Lewis, they voted for an organization campaign along industrial lines, to be launched by a joint committee of such contributing international unions as would agree to waive all claims of jurisdiction in the steel industry and accept the jurisdiction of the Amalgamated.

Since craft unions which make claims for organized steel workers were believed unwilling to give such waivers, the drive seemed left open for a joint drive by the Amalgamated and the nine unions of the C. I. O.

When the steel union's executive board, led by President Mike Tighe and Secretary "Shorty" Leonard, indicated a disposition to dally, Lewis sent Director John Brophy of C. I. O. and Vice President Phil Murray of the mine workers to force a meeting and deliver the ultimatum.

Another C. I. O. drive will be made to organize automobile workers. This probably will proceed faster than the steel drive when it gets started, which means that the first big test of a new industrial union's strength is likely to come in the Michigan area.

The automobile industry, as is true of steel, is well organized only on the fringes.

The most important feature of the United Automobile Workers' meeting at South Bend, Ind., was a complete repudiation of the representatives and desires of Green.

Almost unanimous hostility was exhibited toward Francis J. Dillon, imposed last year by Green as the union's president. The union voted for industrial unionism and for a vigorous fight at the next A. F. of L. convention to prevent craft unions from raising its ranks.

If they inquire, they will learn that Dr. William de Sitter, director of the oldest astronomical observatory, that of Leyden, came to Texas to advise the trustees of the McDonald observatory in the selection of a site, the type of equipment, and Texas' share in the future study of the starry firmament.

So that, the achievement of the University of Texas in building the McDonald observatory, under a bequest by the public-spirited Paris, Texas, banker, will help spoil a tradition and shatter the outsiders' ideas of an untamed frontier.

GIRL STUDENTS LOSE TO BOYS

BUCCYRUS, O.—A popular belief that girls are more studious than boys was blasted here on scholastic examinations offered by the state board of education. Only three girls out of 32 taking the examinations were in the upper brackets. Ten boys out of 19 in the test won high grades.

Erwin Ripps Clears $15.15 on Two Pigs

SAN ANTONIO, June 4—Erwin Ripps, 4-H club boy from the Buena Vista community in Bexar county, recently sold two pigs for $31.25 which made him a clear profit of $15.15 according to a report of H. F. Schlemmer, assistant county agent.

The pigs cost Erwin $8.60. He fed them $7.50 worth of feed. The cost per pound of gain was approximately 45 cents. One of the pigs, a Duroc-Jersey, gained approximately 240 pounds per day during the entire feeding period.

The pigs were sold on the market at $7.75 per hundred pounds on a day when the market supply was high and prices low. The assistant county agent said, "The 4-H club boy's demonstration, however, showed that proper handling of livestock brings a profit in spite of low prices."

The GLAMOROUS ADVENTURE

by Jean Seiwright © 1936 NEA Service, Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
GAIL EVERETT, winner of a prize for costume design offered by a large silk manufacturing company, comes to New York to find work. She is hired—due to a stroke of luck—by MADAME LIZETTE, proprietor of an exclusive shop. Madame proves impractical and difficult to work for.

DEREK HARGREAVES, young artist, is interested in Gail, and offers her friendly advice. Presently Gail sees DICK MORTON, whose sister, ROSEMARY, was her roommate at school.

MEMPHIS, long a wandering, returns to find his old home in the hands of the Traverses. Mark suspects the deal is crooked. He does not know the whereabouts of his niece, Gail, rightful owner of the property.

REX HALL, Madame Lizette's son, is representing the Traverses' interest. Gail spends the week-end at the Searles' home. Dick asks her to marry him and again she refuses. As the days pass Gail finds herself thinking more and more about Derek. He asks her to go to a reception at the home of the wealthy MRS. MORTON.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XV
"So you thought I'd forgotten you?" Derek said, handing Gail into the waiting cab.

"Well, that would be easy, wouldn't it?" she countered lightly.
"Think so?" Blue eyes held hers while he caught her hand in his.
Gail flashed him a swift glance. Derek really meant it! "Maybe I missed you a little bit too," she said. "Didn't you promise to show the little country girl around the big town?"
"And so I will. Tonight I'm going to introduce you to Mrs. Morton and a lot of worthwhile people."

"But if this is an invitation affair, Derek, it's no place for me! I'd never be a piker!"
"Of course not, Honey. I've a special invitation for you."
He drew out a folded sheet and read: "I didn't send you a formal invitation because I had planned to ask you to come to dinner before this. Then it occurred to me that there might be people you'd like to meet at the reception, and it would be a pity for you to miss them when you're anxious to do more portraits. Won't you bring that girl who was with you at Ivan's the other evening? I'd like to know her. Tell her she needn't be afraid of me!"

"I suppose it's not very nice of me to talk like that about your employer," Mrs. Morton said, smiling rather sardonically, "but I have my reasons. Come, tell me all about yourself."
"Madame Lizette! An insufferable creature, even if everyone does rave about her style!" Mrs. Morton had not forgotten the day she had stopped at Madame Lizette's to buy a new evening wrap. She had been wearing an old tweed suit and after one look at the rather dowdy costume, Madame Lizette had shown her to the door.

"I suppose it's not very nice of me to talk like that about your employer," Mrs. Morton said, smiling rather sardonically, "but I have my reasons. Come, tell me all about yourself."
"I suppose it's not very nice of me to talk like that about your employer," Mrs. Morton said, smiling rather sardonically, "but I have my reasons. Come, tell me all about yourself."

QUICKLY she won Gail's confidence. Then she turned to Derek. "What I wanted to see you about particularly before the crowd comes is a portrait of my son's small daughter. I'd like you to paint a portrait of the child, but she's quick as lightning and it will be a hard commission."
Mrs. Morton finished her talk, having arranged that Derek should drive with her to her son's country place up on the Hudson the following week. With another kindly word to Gail she turned away to meet the guests who were now rapidly filling the rooms.

"You've made a hit with her," Derek told Gail.
Gail smiled as they passed from one group to another. Would she ever remember who was who among all the people to whom Derek was introducing her?
"Oh, excuse me a minute. I forgot to ask Raf Gregory, the art critic, why he gave old Hazlett such a knock. He ought to know better."
"All right, Derek." Seating herself on a wide window bench which was banked with flowers, Gail added, "I'll wait here."

Texas Topics

By RAYMOND BROOKS

AUSTIN, June 5—Next Monday is the final day on which candidates may file applications for a place on the primary election ballot for state and district offices.

Thirteen days more are allowed the candidates for county and precinct offices to file. June, the last full month before the primary, is replete with dates of concern to candidates and those in charge of democratic party machinery. The political calendar for June includes:

- 1. Final date for filing for state and district offices.
- 8. State executive committee meets at Austin, prepares first-primary ballots of state and district candidates and selects September convention city.
- 13. Final date for filing for county and precinct offices.
- 15. County executive committee in each county prepares primary ballot.
- 25 July 1. First campaign expense statements must be filed.

The Texas cigarette tax law, just adopted as the basis of uniform state laws by a national conference of revenue officials of the states having tobacco taxes, is administered by three departments of the government.

Cigarette tax stamps are handled and sold by Treasury Charley Lockhart. All inspection and investigation of the tax payments and the check-up of untaxed sales and the evasions on the ground of interstate commerce, are handled by a division of Comptroller George H. Sheppard's office.

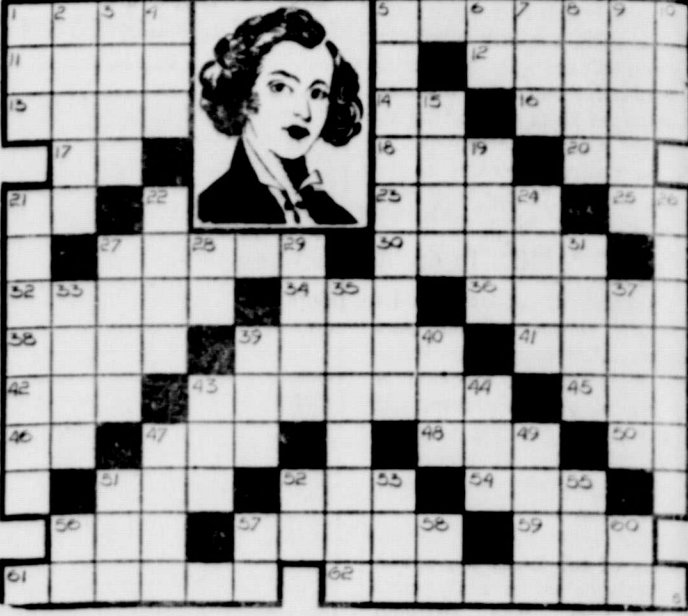

Legal action, including suits for recovery of tax money due the state, and handling of tax-evasion cases, is in the hands of Attorney General William McCraw.

Democrats paid tribute to the outstanding civic and public services of Mrs. Clara Driscoll Sevier when they unanimously elected her for a third term as national committeewoman from Texas. Her efforts by which the Alamo was saved as a Texas shrine, are well known. This Centennial year the democratic delegates, in session almost in sight of the Alamo looked back beyond the eight years of her term as national committeewoman and decreed that the Centennial year's honors should be in special recognition of that service by which Texas has regained and preserved the Alamo as one of its two most sacred possessions.

MAKES SPELLING RIGHT
 WHITE HALL, Ark. — (AP)—The most question of proper spelling of the name of the Cross county town has been settled. Citizens of a mass meeting voted 150 to 2 in favor of White Hall instead of Whitehall. They thereby legalized the mistake of an old time Methodist minister.

News From 4-H Clubs of the County

"Distance from 4-H club meeting places does not discourage Eastland county 4-H club boys from attending their club meetings," says Hugh P. Barnhart, assistant county agent, after learning that Almus Fannin member of the Scranton club walked 10 miles to attend the meeting after school was out and there were no school buses running. Roy Lee O'Brien of the same club walked 6 miles. W. H. Bohanan Jr., and his sister, members of the Carbon Boys and Girls 4-H Club walked eight miles to attend the Carbon 4-H club meeting.

CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTMENTS Relieve Pain

My message to you is that a straight spine is the fundamental necessity for health. This is so because the process of life depends upon free nerve transmission. The branch off from the spine and if a spinal bone is out of alignment there is pressure on a nerve, and a failure of nerve transmission. As a result ill-health and disease follow.

 LUBRICATION UNDER ACTUAL DRIVING CONDITIONS

... DRIVE IN---SEE IT WORK ...

- WE—Raise the body completely off the chassis with contact jacks, which jacks contact the frame at the center.
- WE—Pull the spring leaves back into their natural curl—we call it "Temporary Re-arching."
- WE—Put the proper lubricants where the ACTUAL WEAR takes place—the highest points of friction.
- WE—Do thorough lubrication, which means more than pumping grease through high pressure guns INTO OPEN CAVITIES.
- WE—Permit 100% lubrication, apply grease while the car is in motion and while the weight of the body is on the MOTORSWAY.
- WE—Locate that HIDDEN BODY SQUEAK; we detect impaired parts.
- WE—Spread spring leaves to actually put lubricants between the leaves—not just smear on the outside.
- WE—Free frozen shackles without the aid of a "Crow-Bar". The use of a "Crow-Bar" is DANGEROUS.
- WE—Examine and refill shock absorbers which can only be done with MOTOSWAY. (Optional, at slight additional cost.)
- WE—Lubricate "Knee-Action" cars. See it work. It's perfect while the parts are all in motion—"floating action."
- WE—Lubricate the "Enclosed-Springs." How else can you do it? Only with MOTO-SWAY.
- WE—CHANGE YOUR OIL IN THE CRANKCASE WITH MOTO-SWAY; all old oils and sediments come out thus keeping repair bills away.
- WE—Make old cars ride like new ones, keep new ones riding like NEW—We prove it.
- WE—Challenge any other means of lubrication; the old stationary method has become obsolete. The MOTO-SWAY method is the only CORRECT WAY TO LUBRICATE YOUR CAR.

We are Giving you this Guaranteed and Certified Moto-Sway greasing and lubricating service at NO EXTRA COST.

WE'RE EXPERTS ON MOTORING SAFETY

WE HAVE THE ONLY TIRE IN THE WORLD WITH GOLDEN PLY BLOW-OUT PROTECTION

FREE Blow-Out PROTECTION

As experts on motoring safety we want to state a few simple facts every motorist should know about the tires he rides on. Remember this, the next time you are driving along at 40, 50, 60 miles an hour. The heat generated inside your tires at these speeds is terrific—causing rubber and fabric to separate. A tiny blister forms—grows bigger and BIGGER until sooner or later, BANG! It's a blow-out.

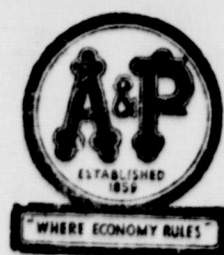

But an amazing new invention, the Life-Saver Golden Ply, resists this heat so that rubber and fabric do not separate—blisters do not form—thus this unseen cause of high speed blow-outs is checked before it even gets started.

The only tire in the world that has Golden Ply blow-out protection is the Goodrich Silvertown—yet it costs no more than other standard tires. When thousands are killed or injured every year in blow-out accidents don't you want this kind of protection?

Tacks No Terror to This Auto

Jerusalem is showing real ingenuity in meeting its newest traffic hazard. In the general strike which the Palestine Arabs are staging in their demand that Jewish immigration be halted, tacks have been scattered in all the principal streets of the ancient city, to halt traffic. Here is shown an auto equipped to overcome this obstacle. Brooms have been placed in front of the wheels to sweep up the tacks as the car moves along and the laughing crowd beside the machine seems to be confident that the innovation will work.

Changes Liberalize Soil Conservation

According to Dick Weekes, chairman of the County Soil Conservation Committee, there are two changes in the program that will affect Eastland county farmers to the extent that quite a few can comply now that couldn't do so otherwise. For example, a farmer has 50 acres in cultivation on his farm. He has a 20 acre cotton base. Under the new ruling, his cotton base can be eliminated temporarily and a 20 acre general soil depleting base established instead.
