COUNTY TRIP

The candidacy of Judge Clyde L. Garrett for congressman from the seventeenth district was carried by approximately 150 Eastland county citizens composing a 35-car motorcade into three counties to Stephenville for a testimonial rally Friday night.

The speaking at Stephenville the second in two weeks for Judge Garrett-was held after a schedule taking the motorcade to Carbon, Gorman in Eastland county, and o Comanche and DeLeon in Com anche county. Dublin in Erath county was another stop.

Within ear-shot of Townsendite pponent F. O. Jaye, Judge Garrett old a DeLeon audience that recently he told him "to count on nis support." At Comanche, the county judge,

A HEAD-STRONG SON

Hard-headed is not so deplorable if the hard head is full of brains. The writer has been watching the career of a certain man's heady boy. The father could do nothing with that boy except so far as he could influence him by suggestion. The boy got his will from his father, and his father had sense enough to recognize in the boy the thing that had made him unmanageable when he was a boy. So instead of entering into conflict with his son, as his father had done with him, he paddled along with the young fellow as best he could.

One day the boy came home from high school with a note from the principal. Back of the note was this story: Some chap sitting behind the boy had reached over and snapped him on the ear with a rubber band. The boy had leaped to his feet and knocked the ear-snapper half way across the class room. The principal had demanded an the mule. apology which the boy refused to make. He could not return to school, the principal said in the note, until he was

You would have done the same thing, Dad, if you had been in my place," declared the boy. Yes, Dad guessed he would have; in fact in his heart Dad knew he would have.

and he grinned to himself as he advanced the idea. Have follows you ever inhaled the fragrance of a hide and skin works? There is money in that business, isn't there, Dad?" asked the boy. Yes there was money in it.

The boy went back to school, made his apology, got his books, and his father drove him out to see a friend who owned a large hide and skin establishment. The boy was lasting until July 19th, 1936.

To all the Sunday Schools in Barkenships, state Chalmans, sta taken all through it. He was shown the green odoriferous hides as they came in. He was shown men standing knee == deep, bare legged in vats scrubbing the hides, and so on and so forth. When the father emerged from the place he took a deep breath of fresh air and mentally thanked the I'll take the job," said the boy.

He was started at checking in smelly raw hides; then advanced to the vat-where he worked with his breeches

In course of time the boy came to his father and said, "Dad, I've learned how to handle all kinds of hides except alligator hides. I want to go the Everglades and work with the Seminole Indians and learn about alligator hides. So his father sent him to the Everglades where he spent

What has reminded us of that boy is that the other day we got an invitation to his wedding.

A SUGGESTION

At mealtime, try Camels yourself and see why smokers say

For Digestion's sake— smoke Camels"

BEST-DRESSED GOLFER. Johnny Farrell was voted the bestdressed golfer at the National Open Championship matches for a num. ber of years. He says: "A Camel puts me on the top of the world. Camels aid my digestion."

here, while the Mayflower kitchens give forth a stream of rare and tempting dishes. The famous maitre d'bôtel of the Mayflower - greeted as "Fred" -- says: "Of course, our cosmopolitan tele prefer Camels. They are a great favorite with our guests.

Beautifully gowned women ... diplomats and statesmen ... gather Science confirms the truth of the popular phrase "For Digestion's Sake

... Smoke Camels" Scientists have found that Camels promote well-being by stimulathealthfully. With their finer, costlier tobacing the flow of the digestive fluids ...alkaline digestive fluids...necessary for good digestion. Often fatigue, worry, excitement, nervousness-all interfere with this digestive flow. Camels restore and increase it, thus assisting digestion to proceed normally and cos, Camels give mildness a new meaning. They do not get on your nerves or rasp your throat. Make Camels your smoke-for their cheery "lift" . . . for digestion's sake. Camels set you right.
