Careful Living For Hot Weather

Keeping cool and standing the heat during the hot summer months is in a large measure dependent upon the individual, health authorities agree. Over indulgence in food or exercise may cause much suffering.

The clothes we wear and the food we eat play an important role in keeping us comfortable during the hot season," said Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. Summer clothing should be light in weight and color and of a porous texture. White colthes reflect the rays of the sun and therefore are cooler. Frequent change of clothing, particularly of that next to the skin, is especially conductive to comfort.

"The summer diet should consist of light, nutricious and easily digested foods. Fresh fruits and vegetables are particularly desirable as hot weather foods because of their the next Texas House of Representations. Meat and heavy pastries should be eaten sparingly. A balanced diet may be maintained without these foods. Do not eat when you are tired.
"Exercise should be taken in hot weather but good judgment must be used in the amount that is taken. Swimming is fine exercise and is more refreshing than other forms of exercise. If sun baths are to be indulged in, care should be taken to accustom the skin by exposing the body for short periods in the beginning.

Claire is trying to decide whether to marry MICK BAUM, to whom she owes money. She also hopes to find a valuable and mysterious jewel owned by her uncle and believed to be hidden in the house.

Her car is wrecked by a log across the road, PAT MAGAN, an old friend, and BOB STEELE, young engineer, arrive on the scene and take Claire to the mountain house where EB SPRATT and his sister, SUSIE, an old friend, and BOB STEELE, young engineer, arrive on the scene and take Claire to the mountain house where EB SPRATT and his sister, SUSIE, are the caretakers and DAN DALLAS is the hired man.

A strange series of events begins. The watchdog is shot. Claire sees a curious arrow carved on the wall of a bedroom and follows it to the cupola. There the lamp in her hand is shattered by a noiseless bullet. Ed Spratt disappears. Bob starts for the village and is found seriously injured.

lage and is found seriously injured.

HANNAH, Claire's housekeeper, arrives. Pat, trying to solve the mysteries, wanders into a deserted mine shaft where he is attacked hy an unseen opponent and falls.

Claire goes again to investigate the root cellar. She hears a noise and, with a crowbar, digs into the wall. The opening leads to a passageway in which a man is lying. Suddenly the lamp is shot trom her hand.

Dan arrives and they discover that the man in the passageway
is Pat.
