Scientists, Cancer and Religion

There was an unusual feature in connection with the opening of the institute for the study of cancer in the University of Minnesota. The scientific men in charge, when dedicating their institute to its great purpose, asked all the churches in Minnesota to offer up this prayer:

"O God, who declarest thy shrighty power in showing mercy and pity to all who call won thee, and who revealest to men in each new discovery a part of thy truth; enable with thy grace, we pray thee, the dullness of our blinded sight, and grant a new vision to all who serve thee in the search for the cause of cancer and it cure. Lighten their darkness, O Lord, we beseen thee, and mercifully direct them into paths of knowledge and truth; grant them the realization that through thee all things are possible; pour upon them the abundance of thy inspiration; and finally lead them to the attainment of victory, that the scourge of down and out though we may drive about here and one can but be bring a little cradle or bed ... everycancer may be ended, and that we, being freed from this a hard bargain with him when he made a little better burden of fear, may live coatinually in the love and service is up and well . . BEGIN HERE TODAY

MARCIA CANFIELD, daughter of wealthy PHILIP CANFIELD, meets BRICE MeDOUGALL, artist, shortly after the mysterious disappearance of FRANK KENDRICK, to whom Marcia had been engaged. When shortages are found in Kendrick's business accounts, Marcia is more shocked than heartbroken. She realizes she was never in love with him.

MeDougall is attentive until DOROTHY OSBORN, who dislikes Marcia, leads him to believe Marcia is engaged to another man.

There is a hank holdup and police commandeer the Canfield car to follow the bandits. The car is wrecked and both Marcia and her father are injured. McDougall, driving with Dorothy arrives on the scene and takes Marcia and her father to the hospital.

Their injuries are slight, Although Marcia's arm is in a sling, she takes part in an amateur play a short time afterward. A New York producer attends the performance and offers Dorothy a part in his new production.

Marcia gives a party for Dorothy, Bruce goes with JOAN and MIKE BRADFORD. He and MIKE BRADFORD.
