ALLRED POWER GREATEST IN LOWER HOUSE

AUSTIN, Feb. 6. (U.P.)—A review tonight of early events of the legislature's four-month session indicated administration forces were in control of the house, but were weak in the senate.

The administration's greatest danger in the house lies in the sales tax movement, and over-enthusiastic sales tax advocates unwittingly played into the administration's anti-sales tax idea by bally-hoo for a sales tax.

Experienced members already had planted a sales tax bill in a committee, and were letting it rest there until the legislature had piled up enough appropriations to make the sales tax appear the only way to pay them.

Nearly eight tons of commercial fertilizer was contracted for by a meeting of about ten farmers at the Chamber of Commerce meeting Saturday in charge of W. B. Starr. The pool will close next Saturday when Mr. Starr will again meet farmers in Cisco, meanwhile orders may be left with the Chamber of Commerce where prices will be given and other information relative to shipping. Shipment will be made between February 25 and March 1, Mr. Starr said.

"Babies First"—Mother Love at Flood Tide

An added hour or two of painful waiting before seeking rest for themselves means nothing to these flood-hounded Memphis mothers when the comfort of their babies is at stake. Haggard and weary, the women wait in line at a relief station so that the babies may be bathed and dressed in fresh clothing. It is the drab anti-climax of a long battle with the overflowing Mississippi. But these mothers, homeless and weary, refuse to acknowledge defeat.

What's News Today

Locally, a good sign of the proper awakening of the best impulses of any community, is when churches become active and aggressive in building their structures for advancing their work among its citizens. Two activities here are significant.

The beginning campaign to enlist Cisco people in Sunday School and church attendance by the pastors association, is an outstanding piece of constructive work. The campaign started last week when data concerning enrollment and attendance, together with per cents of gains as based on that of the preceding Sunday, was given publicly with the announcement that such publicity would be forthcoming each week. The campaign is looking to the coming Easter, March 28, when an outstanding attendance is desired as a sort of culmination of efforts of all churches.

The push this past week for the completion of the Presbyterian encampment project so that it might employ the idle, WPA labor in this section, is a decided feather in the cap of this denomination all over the district, and is an especially bright and wavy one for the Presbyterians in Cisco. They are being led by an unusually enthusiastic pastor in the person of Rev. M. H. Applewhite, who is tireless in working for his community, in more ways than one.

Cisco churches are rising to their opportunities and the desire of their citizens for aggressive leadership. It is not enough that ministers preach profound sermons on Sundays. There is a work of leading their sheep which should last from week's end to week's end and being educated and well-trained men, their leadership should extend to directing efforts for community building.

The most advanced and daring step taken by President Roosevelt, who has cast precedents aside in his work of making over the United States government and its policies, is that of proposing six new members of the Supreme Court, which has always consisted of nine justices. In his proposal the group could never exceed fifteen.

There are six members who have reached, some having long since passed, the age of retirement, 70 years. Reading between the lines, these men are tenacious of their power and do not care to retire and relax that authority. The president evidently considers them a menace to a proper and liberal interpretation of the implied meaning of the American Constitution. He cannot remove them so he proposes in this daring move to go around them and gain his ends by pulling their fangs. Six new members chosen from among those who believe as he does would nullify their power and render them helpless in blocking emergency legislation needed to build his new economic structure for the modernizing of the government of the United States as he believes it should be done.

Governor Murphy refuses to give the national guard authority to arrest the sit-down strikers in the General Motors plant, replying to the sheriff's wife for authority, by telling him he was to do nothing that would endanger the success of negotiations now being strenuously carried on between

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON - President Roosevelt's ambitious program for government reorganization is likely to go the way of all previous such programs unless he begins to apply plenty of heat at an early date.

That is to say, there is growing danger that there will be no reorganization of all. Hardly anyone on Capitol Hill admits being completely satisfied with the president's plan, and past experience has been that when every member could find some particular item objectionable, any proposed plan would be torn to pieces until nothing could be accomplished.

ADVISERS to Roosevelt are suggesting to him that only prompt application of the full power of his personal prestige can assure any reorganization action.

James Roosevelt, the president's son and new secretary-assistant, is understood to have taken the reorganization project under his wing—rather than Undersecretary of Interior Charlie West, usually the No. 1 White House liaison man with Capitol Hill. James is inexperienced.

Among members whom Roosevelt usually can count on to support progressive legislation, there is an especial concurrence of objection to the proposal to bring the independent regulatory commissions under departmental roofs.

What the president had most in mind when that proposal was formulated, his advisers whisper, was the necessity of getting the Federal Trade and Interstate Commerce commissions under executive control to the point where they could be "cleaned out."

PRIVATELY, Roosevelt regards these two commissions as badly staffed, incompetent and getting worse. But each is tied close to Congress by many big patronage jobs, occupants of which are now serving as a secret lobby to sabotage the reorganization program as it would apply to FTC and ICC.

Also painful to the administration is Senate Majority Leader Joe Robinson's outcry against the plan to raise cabinet salaries from $15,000 to $20,000, and to pay other top officials as high as $15,000. Joe and other members fear hardy approval should receive more than a member of Congress, who gets $10,000.

But private corporations keep right on buying up the government's best men for salaries much higher.

Chances are the president will soon start pushing for action on reorganization.

NOT one of them would dare peep, but attaches and officials of the Russian embassy are commonly suspected of harboring some disconcerting fears. Consider what happened to Mr. Vladimir Roman, who was correspondent here for the Russian government's big newspaper Izvestia. Roman was notified of his promotion to be correspondent at London and directed to go to London by way of Moscow.

Roman was delighted. So was his beautiful blond wife Galena, who used to tell people her name meant "chicken" in Italian. So was their 12-year-old son Billy. Roman reported to Moscow and was arrested in connection with the alleged plotting of Trotsky, Reder and others. The circumstances were such as to make it likely that no one at the Russian embassy will be able to view very happily any future "promotion."

the disputing parties. And so the plants remain in charge of strikers regardless of court action to the contrary.

As a truce appears imminent between warring Chinese factions, Japan becomes alarmed and hints it may be necessary for her to suppress communistic insurrections in the northwest of China, where Japan has secured a kind of motherly foothold. It is no part of the plans of Japan to have quiet and order restored in the great Chinese Empire. Such a thing would thwart her purpose to obtain a protectorate over that unwieldy country, which would ultimately become a sort of ownership or government, giving Japanese energy room to expand and work out its destination as the big world power of its dream. Japan intends to dominate Asia and the Pacific and nothing short of that dream will satisfy the little brown men.

Tony Johnson Gets Theft Trial Monday

EASTLAND, Feb. 6—A conviction of Tony Johnson on a charge of car theft for which he will go to trial Monday in 91st district court, would result in infliction of a penalty under the habitual criminal act, said District Attorney Earl Connor, Jr. today.

The official stated Johnson has previously been assessed two-year terms in Wise and Stephens counties upon convictions for car theft. Johnson was indicted by a district court grand jury Dec. 11, 1936, for the January 21 theft that year of an automobile owned by Miss Beulah Stark, Okemah woman, who was a teacher in the Triumph school, Eastland county. Deputy Sheriff Tug Underwood stated Johnson was brought here from Pecos. Maximum penalty under the habitual criminal act is 99 years.

HOTEL ADLON-CLARIDGE
New York
5th January, 1937

My Dear Bishop:
I have only just learned that you are to make one of the party which Carlton Rock-savage is assembling on his yacht for a little holiday among the islands. It is, of course, many years since we met but I shall look forward so much to renewing my acquaintance with you.

You will, I am sure, recall those wonderfully interesting conversations which we held when we were together for a little time during the war. We established then a wonderful and, I feel, never to be forgotten friendship. I have an idea that some very strange and unusual things are likely to take place upon Rock-savage's yacht once we put out to sea and, however strange these occurrences may be, I feel sure that you will bear in mind what very good friends we are. I value your friendship more than I can possibly express and I am sure that you will be glad when we meet together for a little time during the war. We established then a wonderful and, I feel, never to be forgotten friendship.

I then examined the ship's officers. Dr. Ackland, Mr. Rock-savage's personal physician, who messes with the officers, and all members of the crew. I am satisfied none of them could have had any connection with the crime and take it you will not require detailed reasons for my conclusions.

UNDER THE DOME AT AUSTIN

By GORDON K. SHEARER
United Press Staff Correspondent
AUSTIN, Feb. 6 (UP)—Heavy rains prevented most of the Texas legislators who visited Houston last weekend from viewing San Jacinto battlefield and the state's centennial memorial there, except from the windows of the San Jacinto Inn.

The drives that will circle about the memorial tower, its reflecting pool and the battle grounds have not been constructed. Many of the old roads are blocked at places because of construction. The detours were impossible for general traffic. Only a few days work could be done in January on the memorial, which is expected to be completed early next year.

A tour of the battleground was braved by a few legislators. Eldred McKinnon, supervisor of the construction, conducted the party. State Board of Control Chairman Claude T. Lee and Rep. Albert P. Petch of Fredericksburg were among those who went.

As the legislators circled about the grounds in an automobile driven by McKinnon, who was busy dodging mud holes, they subjected him to a rapid fire of questions. Fatly McKinnon indicated where Gen. Sam Houston's horse was shot during the battle, where the Mexican cannon had been posted, where the Mexicans were driven into a marshy pond, bogged down and killed when they did not surrender.

"If the Mexicans had been better informed about the terrain, they might have escaped over that way," McKinnon explained pointing with a precarious single hand grip on the automobile.

"I do not see why they didn't escape right down this road," said Petch.

Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio was butt of the best gag of the trip. Spears has led a long fight for increased taxes on sulphur. He has berated the sulphur interests in many a legislative speech and is looked upon as an arch-foe of the sulphur companies.

The legislators, after breakfast at the Houston Club, were taken to the turning basin on the ship channel. Motor launches were waiting to take them from there to San Jacinto battlefield. Spears was in a group assigned to one of the best boats. He was enjoying the trip down the channel immensely.

"This certainly is a fine boat. I wonder where it is," he confided to a fellow senator.

Keeping a straight face the other senator replied, "Oh, this belongs to the Texas Gulf Sulphur Co. Roy Miller generally uses it."

Seeing that Spears was much disturbed, his companion walked away and tipped off others there were frequent comments about what a nice boat the sulphur company had and how kind it was to loan it to the legislators for the trip.

Not until they had landed at San Jacinto Inn did Spears learn he had made the trip on a port commission boat.

Coincidentally with the visit of the state legislators, a meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee was held at Houston. There were two significant happenings at the meeting beside the formal business which was election of Ira Butler of Fort Worth as vice chairman of the committee.

Earle Mayfield Jr., of Tyler suggested to the committee members that they keep in mind the effective work of state democratic chairman Myron Blacklock of Marshall. If there should be a vacancy in the national committee membership from Texas, Mayfield said, there is none better fitted for the place than Blacklock.

Blacklock blushed, thanked Mayfield for the complimentary expressions and said he knew of no reason to expect a vacancy. He thought Vice President John Nance Garner was doing very well with the dual positions. Some believe, however, that Garner would relinquish gladly the membership on the national committee. Blacklock and Roy Miller, are mentioned as likely successors to the committee place. Should the vice president give it up.

The other significant happenings at the meeting was the appearance of Louis Heder of Bandera with the proxy of C. S. Slatten, committee member from San Antonio. Slatten will become associate justice of the Fourth Court of Civil Appeals when Justice R. L. Bobbit takes his new post as chairman of the state highway commission on Feb. 15. Slatten then will become ineligible to represent the 26th District on the committee. The district includes Bexar, Bandera, Kendall and Kerr counties.

Some of the members want Mrs. W. B. Edmondson of San Antonio to succeed Slatten as member of the executive committee. Others believe that faction rivalries are so strong in Bexar county that party harmony will be fostered by selecting a member from one of the other counties.

Heder made a rood impression among the committee members, perhaps he was given the proxy so the members might look him over before the time comes to fill a vacancy.

Unofficial entries for the next governor's race are increasing in number. There is also more talk of a third term movement to re-elect Governor James V. Allred. Men-

WHAT PRIVILEGES THESE SENATORS HAVE!

Competition for congressional jobs probably would increase if senatorial prerogatives regularly including kissing glamorous Jean Harlow. Technique for this duty is illustrated by the gentleman from North Carolina, Senator Robert Reynolds, to welcome Miss Harlow to Washington. As he leads with his chin (left), Miss Harlow's veil interferes with his best efforts. By unanimous vote this is swept aside. Oh, success at last! Miss Harlow gets soundly kissed and without the handicap of a censor's stop-watch.

TEXAS CITRUS CROP LARGEST IN HISTORY

DALLAS, (UP)—Breaking into the long-established supremacy of California and Florida in the growing of citrus products, Texas this year produced its greatest citrus crop in history.

Three times as large as the 1935-36 production, the Texas citrus crop has totaled 8,000,000 boxes, 10 per cent of the Nation's output. Nearly tripling the value of last year's production, $3,000,000, the worth of the crop rose to $8,000,000. Texas citrus growers in the fertile Lower Rio Grande Valley have stressed production of grapefruit, Texas "yellow gold," and now produce nearly one out of every four grapefruit grown in the country.

NOW FOR QUINS' ROCKING CHAIR RACE!

(Copyright, 1937, NEA Service, Inc.)

What? That cameraman again! Wide-eyed, her tiny mouth expressing feigned amazement, Marie appears to be saying just that. Well, anyhow she's ready for action. Arms buried in the elbows in nurse's mittens, her legs crossed theatrically, Marie strikes a stunning pose. Meanwhile, her three sisters register different interest. Cecile, for instance, standing behind the chairs, takes this as just another picture. Yvonne looks up from her nursery rhymes but seems a bit impatient. Only Emilie shows more than casual interest. But after all it's an old game for the quins, this photo business. "Really, we've had our pictures taken hundreds of times."

(Copyright, 1937, NEA Service, Inc.)

Tying a ribbon may be simple enough for you, but Yvonne finds it a real job in which to sink one's teeth. At least that's the impression of this striking picture as Yvonne, her eyes squinting, maneuvers her tiny fingers to adjust the ribbon on dolly's bonnet. "Really, incidentally, is the perfect picture of impassivity."

(Copyright, 1937, NEA Service, Inc.)

"Let me see." Annette appears to be counting, "how many times does this make my picture's been taken today." Well, I'm just going to sit right here in this chair for the rest of them." And so it goes with Annette. Utterly indifferent, she goes about her own affairs, letting the shots fall where they may.

Modern Mothers Postpone the Need for Facial Changes By Using Electric Servants

Look in Thy Kitchen and Tell Your Husband Now Is the Time To Buy Electric Appliances!

Modernize that Kitchen, else "Thou dost beguile the world, unless some Mother."

Electric service is the greatest blessing yet bestowed on human beings. While its merciful qualities have lifted burdens from both man and beast, its matchless gift to humanity lies in the relief from domestic servitude brought to women.

Today no woman need be assigned a place among skillets and pans, as was true of yore when kitchen and nursery formed the boundaries of her domain.

If she wishes to save her face, preserve her figure, retain the youthfulness that contributed to the happiness of her home as a bride... then she will insist on a Modern Electric Home.

Fifteen Rules for Fire Prevention

Fire Marshal O. Gustafson announced an unusually good fire record for Cisco during the past year or two and desires that every possible means be used to keep it so — make it even better if possible. Most fires originate in the homes as do most of the deaths resulting from blazes, therefore fifteen good rules are given for the prevention of fires in homes:

1. Keep children and fire safely apart. Children can be taught the dangers of fire. Keep matches out of the way of children.
2. Do not throw away cigars, cigarettes, and matches without first extinguishing them. A careless smoker is as bad as an electric storm to burn the buildings.
3. Do not allow accumulations of combustible waste materials in or near the house. Without them fires from carelessly discarded smoking materials would be less frequent.
4. Keep chimneys and stovepipes clean with all joints and connections tight. Provide separate metal cans for ashes and for rubbish. Never mix.
5. Place substantial fire-resistant guards in front of all woodwork close to sources of heat. The open flames of gas, kerosene, alcohol, and gasoline stoves should be particularly shielded.
6. Keep greasy and oily rags in tightly closed metal cans provided for that purpose.
7. Avoid the filling of lighted lamps. Avoid the use of kerosene to light or quicken fires. The application of heat to kerosene results in the generations of gases which are very explosive.
8. Do not use gasoline, naphtha, or benzene for cleaning. Use some of the safer solutions now obtainable and these, in any considerable quantity out of doors and during the day.
9. Keep all open flames away from gas leaks. Explosive mixture of gas and air are quickly formed in such places, and they only need a lighted match or taper to cause disastrous results.
10. Avoid hanging lace curtains and other draperies near gas-jets or other open flames. The draft from nearby windows may cause fires quick to spread and difficult to extinguish.
11. Avoid toy wax candles. Each year a number of deaths of children due to placing candles on Christmas trees produces a sad ending for an otherwise joyful season.
12. Never leave babies alone in the house—not even a minute where there is a lighted lamp or open fire.
13. This is an age of electricity—Let's learn to use it with safety. Permit only experienced persons to install or repair electrical fittings and appliances. There are definite rules for wiring, which if known and observed will prevent electrical fires. Keep a supply of fuses on hand. Do not use a penny for a fuse. When a fuse burns out replace it with a new one.
14. Turn the current off on an electrical pressing iron or other electrical appliance before leaving it.
15. Two good safety points: (A) Make it a point to know how to get out of every building you enter. (B) Never sit in a closed room or office. Always ventilate with fresh air. These two precautions may mean the saving of your life and of others in case of fire.

Let us figure your next job of wiring. Our job printing department is equipped to serve your needs—Phone 80

Blanton Defends 'Red Rider' Issue

Although retired from congress, Thomas L. Blanton, former congressman, is continuing his public fight against communism in Washington.

Appearing in a Washington newspaper this week is the story of a radio debate between Blanton and Henry I. Quinn, member of the Board of Education, on the widely discussed "red rider" to the 1936 District appropriation act, forbidding the teaching or advocacy of communism in the public schools.

"Special attention was called by Blanton to the recent remark of Archbishop Michael J. Curley of Boston, who spoke in Washington newspaper, "defended the rider as a patriotic measure enacted in response to the wishes of representative citizens. Quinn condemned it and the effect he said it had on the educational program in the schools.

"Blanton to the recent remark of Archbishop Michael J. Curley of Boston, who spoke in Washington on communism, to the effect that 90 per cent of the propaganda for repeal of the law is absolutely false and deceptive."

Blanton, who is now engaged in the practice of law in Washington, was the author of the "red rider" while a member of the house of representatives from the 17th Texas district.

EARTHWORM NURSERY SET UP
KAUKAUNA, Wis. (AP) — Hot-house fruits and vegetables frequently grace the tables of epicures but as far as is known, hot-house angleworms have never been fed to fish until this year, when members of the Kaukauna Conservation club established an earthworm nursery to feed the fish in their rearing pond during the winter.

HAWAII LAND OF TRIPLE 'A'
HONOLULU (AP) — The letter "a" probably gets heavier use in the Hawaiian language than in almost any other tongue. It is used, not only singly, but in two's and three's. Examples are "kaaa," a thread made of fiber; "laaana," devoted; and "maaa," sea breeze.
