ALLRED WANTS ITEMS ASKED

AUSTIN, Feb. 9 (U.R)- Governor Allred sent a special message to the legislature today warning that he will not approve increased appropriations until revenue is provided to pay the costs.

He recommended tax legislation an emergency, urging especially natural resources and franchise taxes. Without submission as emergency it would take four-fifth vote to get a tax bill before senate before March 12.

Allred called attention to fact that the State Board of Control has made recommendations for increase in various departments. I am informed that a number o bills for salary increases are not pending, and I remind you that it my initial message I stated that did not join in these recommenda tions, other than for additional facilities for our insane and eleemosynary institutions," in his message he urged necessity for passing tax bills to raise revenue to: 1. Complete financing of resent old age assistance program

He reminded the legislature that

"2. Finance old age for two years at a sum of one million dollars each year. "3. Finance other features of the aid to the blind, dependent children "4. Make income equal outgo

Ranger Rancher is Killed Saturday

Funeral services for James Ben-ton Ames, 42, who was shot and instantly killed in Ranger Saturday were conducted from the Forst Methodist church of Ranger Monday afternoon at 2:30, with burial in the Ames cemeter, on the Ames farm near Ranger, Killingsworth, Cox, had charge of the burial. Moody Carr, brother of Ames' divorced wife, surrendered to officers after the shooting and turned over to them a .44 calibre pistol, from which one shot had been fired, acording to Justice of the Peace J. N. McFatter, who held an inquest in Ranger Sunday and rendered a verdict of death from gunshot wounds. Carr was released under $2,000 bond. which was set by Judge McFatter.

Death Instantaneous

Chief of Police Jim Ingram said that he believed death was instananeous and that Ames died before he fell to the floor, while Judge McFatter, who visited the scene, said that Ames was shot while in the kitchen, that he walked through a dining room and bedroom, reached the door leading out of the bedroom and then fell back into the bedroom. He still held his cane, ustaining a broken leg onths ago, in his right hand.

Judge McFatter stated Monday hat the bullet with which Ames was passed completely through his body, pierced the heart and struck a door facing and fell to the floor, where it was picked up later. The bullet, the justice of the peace tated, was flecked with paint where t had struck the door facing and there was a small dent, "as though one had struck the board with a where the bullet hit. hammer" Flecks of paint were also found on the floor near the bullet, the jus-Only Eye Witness Since Carr. Ames and a young laughter of Ames, were the only ones in the house at the time of the shooting, and since the child was asleep, the exact details of the shooting had not been learned. Judge McFatter stated, and since waived examining trial statement was taken from him by Earl Conner, criminal district attorney, who was in Ranger investigating the case.

Surviving relatives include two brothers. Frank A. Ames of Ranger and John Ames of Odessa; two sisters, Mrs. Ada Gordon of Albu-querque, N. M., and Mrs. Ida Hinman of Ranger, and two children J. B., Jr., and Betty Sue.

Native of County The decedent was born in East-land county May 2, 1895, and had lived in the county all his life. At time he was on the Ranger police force and had been a deputy sheriff. PARIS REBUILDS GREAT AIRPORT AT LE BOURGET

By WAVERLEY LEWIS ROOT United Press Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Feb. 9(U.P.) Begun less than a year ago, the new air station of Le Bourget, airport of Paris opening of the Paris Exposition in May, when Le Bourget will rank with the world's greatest airfields in equipment as it is already one of the greatest in renown and in amount of traffic handled.

The big field, with a few hangars and a modest restaurant onto which Lindbergh dropped 10 years ago, is now flanked by a massive structure containing all the coneniences of a great railway termiius, in the form of two long wing sprouting on either side from th center. Before this structure the grass surface has given way to the planes start their take-off run and where they pull up after land

Brook Thrust Underground

The Moree, an inconvenient crook which runs along one side of he field and used to worry transtlantic fliers who needed a long run to get their heavily loaded clanes into the air, is being ruth essly thrust underground, making the distance available for gatherng speed before taking off more than 2,000 yards. It is requiring 1.-000,000 cubic meters of earth to level off the field over the newly ubterranean Moree.

Later the cement arrival and starting point will be extended in-On Seaman Street to long cement tracks facing in all directions for taking off into various directions of the wind, and the field, already extended to the north will be extended likewise to the south. It will take on then shape of a great figure eight, with the station on oneside of the center oriented in a north-south direction.

"I often lunch in the Senate restant at the Capitol. Nearly every Sen and Representative there smokes, the number I see take out a pad of Luckies is quite surprising. Per surprising is not the word. Because and on, ever since 1917, I myself used Luckies for this sound reason: I really are a light smoke-kind w throat. It's simply common sense these Senators and Representati whose voices must meet the contin strain of public speaking, should need a cigarette that is considerate their throats . . . a light smoke."

Alice Roose ret Long

In a recent independent survey, an overwhelming majority of lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc., who said they smoked cigarettes, expressed their personal preference for a light smoke.

Mrs. Longworth's statement verifies the wisdom of this preference and so do leading artists of radio, stage, screen and opera, whose voices are their fortunes, and who choose Luckies, a light smoke.
