MARKETS PREDICTS HIGHER OIL PRICES

ATTENDS R. R. COMMISSION MEET IN AUSTIN

AUSTIN, Feb. 20 (AP)—Higher prices for oil were predicted by U. S. Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes in a surprise appearance today at the monthly oil prorator hearing of the Texas Railroad commission.

He heard the estimate of the bureau of mines in his department that the market demand for Texas oil will be 1,256,000 barrels daily or 33,200, more than in February. "I am glad to let you see the man some said tried to ruin the oil industry," said Ickes. "If the oil industry is ruined I'd like to be ruined. I think oil is on the way up."

The entrance of the federal government is not what we were represented as having. We will be happy to continue to cooperate that you may secure the maximum production at the highest possible price.

An investigation of the increase in the price of gasoline and crude oil was begun meanwhile by the Railroad Commission.

Commissioners Ernest Thompson called on every company operating in Texas which has raised oil and gas prices since January 1, to submit an affidavit explaining what Thompson called a "lack of Coordination."

Five major oil companies and officers of the West Texas land owners and oil producers association were notified to be in Austin Tuesday for a legislative investigation for alleged price discrimination against West Texas oil field.

Companies notified to have representatives present were Humble, Texas, Magrath, Gulf and Shell.

LIEUT. GOV. WOODUL VISITS CISCO AS GUEST OF ST. JOHN'S

"I had rather be attorney general than to be governor of the state," said Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul Saturday when he was a guest of his friend, Will St. John, at the Laguna. The 47-year-old South Texan was on his way to attend the Oil Men's banquet at Breckenridge Saturday night where he made a talk concerning his pet project, a five year advertising campaign for the state of Texas.

Mr. Woodul, who speaks interestingly of people and events now in the public eye, both in Texas and in the nation, says that the extra gasoline used by the tourists who would be brought here in response to such a campaign of publicity would more than take care of the expense necessary for an amendment to the constitution of Texas to place such a plan as Mr. Woodul desires. At least $1,000,000 to properly present such publicity should be used each of five years in farming, ranching, sheep and

What's News Today

And now they say John L. Lewis, head of the Committee for Industrial Organization, is to employ the full force of his power to unionize the entire oil industry for the union. Offices are to be opened in Houston, Texas, about April 5. Houston, Beaumont and Port Arthur, world's largest refining and oil shipping points are to be the focal points of beginning, and 1937 is to be truly a year of labor upheaval, it would appear.

The battle of the president's judicial reform goes on in the United States senate as foes drive their attack and friends look on as quiet observers. The master in any encounter is the one who does not get angry and lose his balance. The cool individual always has the advantage and it would seem that Roosevelt is adopting the policy of letting his foes expand their strength and then he puts in his telling blows of logic and sound argument that the nation has not yet refused to heed.

Plans have been almost completed for the ring of naval and land guards to be posted about Spanish borders to insure outsiders do not enter and prolong the war now raging so fiercely around Madrid. If outsiders are prevented from entering it is probable the opposing forces will be asking why they are fighting each other within a short time. For the past several months it has served for a battleground between rivals in world-wide political thoughts while the cause of the civil war in Spain has been practically forgotten. Portugal has about decided to enter the pact of the 26 nations who have agreed to the blockade.

The railroads of the nation are nearing an agreement with their employes on the question of pensions in which case many suits will be dropped and peace will be made between the railroads and their one million employes. Thus it seems one labor question will be settled for a time at least.

General Chiang Kai-Shek and his American-educated wife are breaking precedent of the ancient nation by going on the air in an appeal to the nation for unified action in behalf of the new life program for the regeneration of China. The general addressed the nation in their language while his wife spoke in the English language learned in her American university. These people have been Christianized and are striving to get their followers to adopt modern ideas and customs, realizing that to do so is China's only hope for survival among the nations of the earth. China, the oldest nation in civilization—old when ancient Egypt was born—has shut itself in and refused to modernize as customs changed until it found itself a thousand years behind in everything that makes civilization today. Now it must advance or be swallowed up by others.

And now we see young Ellen McAdoo asking for a divorce from the Filipino actor more than twice her own age, whom she says is not supporting her. All of which goes to show that when young girls refuse to follow the advice of

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCH
WASHINGTON.—If Roosevelt had confidently forecast a surprise break between Roosevelt and such administration leaders as Vice President Jack Garner, Speaker Majority Leader Joe Robinson, Senator Pat Harrison and other southern and northern conservative Democrats. High was correct in so far as he suggested the bulk of the southern Democrats as conservatives who look askance at Roosevelt's New Deal. But this assertion of that much truth was only one mistake he made. Southern Democrats such as Robinson knew High as one who helped write presidential campaign speeches and had had intimate conferences with Roosevelt since the election. They had every right to demand of Roosevelt whether or not he agreed with High. And the president found High's article published the very day before he secretly planned to send to Congress his historic proposal for supreme court reforms—a proposal whose success depended on hearty support from the same administration leaders who had been so high to snipe by High's article. So High at least temporarily was tossed into the dustbin. Whether or not High's predictions ever come true, it is possible to distinguish roughly between conservative Democrat senators who are willing to follow the president along whatever progressive pathways he may lead them into, and those who instinctively turn around and run the other way. There is a middle group which stands irresolutely at the crossroads and has been expressing itself noncommittally as to Roosevelt's supreme court plan. This middle group will decide the issue.

OUT OUR WAY

their parents who have had much observation and experience in life, regrets follow. Glamour is not love and she should have known that happiness could not result from such a union. CONFIDENTIAL CRIME FILE ON BOLTZHO BLANE

BEGIN HERE TODAY
Investigating the murder of BOLTZHO BLANE, Police Officer, aboard CARLTON ROCK-SAWA yacht, December 28, 1936. KETTERING, runs into a maze of conflicting clues.
He charts the possible motives of each of the ship's passengers: MISS HOLLY JOCELYN, none so far as known; COLLETT FORD, LYN, grade, motive against BLANE; ROCKSAW, strong motive of financial gain; MISHOFF, of BLANE, strong motive since Blane knew of his unsavory past.
LADY WELTER, strong motive of financial gain; JOCKEY, HAYBELL, strong motive of financial gain; ROCKSAW, strong motive, apparently, only the ship's crew and MISHOFFAN STOPPITT, Blane's secretary, are conclusively ruled out on sound alibis. Stodary was in the ship's lounge all during the period in which Blane obviously was murdered.
Kettering's records out his deductions. ROCKSAW appears with his physician, offering proof blank in the crime when the lounge was committed. The lounge steward corroborated this testimony.
NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXII
I THEN examined the contents of the wastepaper baskets, which had been removed from each of the parties' cabins on the morning following the crime, and three items of interest emerged from this examination.
In the refuse from Count Posodini's cabin I found 21 cigarettes, 25 of these are Chesterfields, but the other 6 are an English brand called Players, and four out of these six have obvious traces of lipstick on them.
In the refuse from Miss Rock-savage's cabin I found a twist of hair which had obviously been removed from a comb. Most of this was golden hair, which undoubtedly comes from the head of Miss Ferri Rock-savage, but mingled with it there are a few short, black curly hairs, which definitely suggest that a man had used that comb after her.
Among the refuse from the Bishop of Bude's cabin I found one match torn out of a booklet of matches, upon which is printed in block letters the words "Adlon-Claridge."
I then re-examined various members of the party.
DETECTIVE OFFICER NEAMES'S SHORTHAND NOTES OF DETECTIVE OFFICER KETTERING'S THIRD EXAMINATION OF THE HONORABLE MRS. JOCELYN.
K. Come in, Mrs. Jocelyn. Sit down, do.
P. J.: What, more questions, already?
K.: Yes. Sorry I've got to trouble you again, but let's make it as pleasant as we can. Have a cigarette?
P. J.: No thanks, I only smoke

Eastland Track Practice Begins

EASTLAND, Feb. 20 — With fifteen candidates, four of whom are returnees from last year's activities, prospects are bright for Eastland high school track, according to Coach Carl Miller.

Practice for the annual interscholastic league contests has been held each afternoon for a week. Senior track lettermen are Pete Garrison and Travis Cook. Cook won his letter last year in the 220 and javelin while Garrison participated in the 440 and mile relay events.

Tommy Samuels and Bob Daniels are junior track lettermen. This year Garrison is trying out for the 220-yard dash, javelin and pole vault. Charlie Van Geem, another of the prospects, is out for discus, 100 and 200-yard dashes, and the 220-yard low hurdles.

Other prospects included Buck Price, miler; Roy Taylor, fieldman; J. G. Ault, dash man; and Gene Gage, pole vault.

Another to begin practice next week is Billy Woods, who will try out in broad jumping, javelin, discus and hurdles.

The Mavericks have accepted an invitation to participate in a tournament at Rising Star, March 13.
