'Savior Of Madrid' Gives Up Civil Power

MADRID FREED IN MILITARY CONTROL ZONE

MADRID, April 24 (U.P.)—General Jose Miaja, 'savior of Madrid,' gave up all civil authority today, and the Supreme Defense Council formed when the world thought Madrid was about to fall passed out of existence.
The man who was sworn to remain at his post until he dies, or the loyalist cause is victorious, handed over his authority at noon.
The city no longer was under military rule at a time when loyalists expressed confidence that the capital is free of danger from a nationalist attack.
General Miaja retained control of west Madrid, proclaimed a military zone, and retained his military authority as Commander-in-Chief for the country all around Madrid.

R. N. Cluck

R. N. CLUCK TO HEAD EASTLAND TEACHER MEET

R. N. Cluck, superintendent of Cisco schools, was elected to head the Eastland county teachers association at Saturday's session of that organization. Superintendent H. D. Thomson, Carbon, vice-president; Mrs. W. D. R. Owen, Eastland, secretary; and Superintendent Guy T. Smith, Colony, treasurer.
Rev. M. H. Applewhite gave the invocation, the Lobo band gave a concert, with Dr. Tom Taylor, president of Howard-Payne college, as the principal speaker. H. T. Robinson, deputy state superintendent for this district, was on the program. This was the last meeting for this school year, the next gathering to be this autumn after schools begin.

Purchases Poison Instead of Candy

LAGRANGE, Ind. (U.P.)—A physician stopped in a grocery store to get something to 'nibble on.' He picked a cellophane package of rat poison from the rack instead of candy.
The clerk chased him down the street, yelling 'poison!' The doctor, not having opened the package, seized the breathless clerk told him to cough hard and shouted for an antidote.

Man Is Near Death After 46-Day Fast

STOOPING OAK, Tenn., April 24 (U.P.)—Jackson Whitlow, near death after a 46-day-fast, prayed today for "orders from the Lord" that would permit him to eat.
The 46-year-old hollow-eyed farmer was too weak to leave his bed in his cabin in the Cumberland Mountains, but he refused to believe that "God will command me to die." Dr. J. B. Smith said the mountaineer would die soon unless the fast were broken. His weight has dropped from 136 pounds to 103.

First Baptists Have Added 17 to Church

Seventeen members have been added to the church rolls at the Baptist revival now in progress. Rev. Ralph Grant will speak today at the morning hour on "Home of the Redeemed"; at the evening service the topic will be "Prepare to Meet Thy God."

NATIONS OFFER GOODS TO PAY OLD WAR DEBTS

WASHINGTON, April 24 (U.P.)—Senator J. Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, said today he understood the state department has received offers by foreign nations for next payment of war debts in goods.
Other nations, Lewis said, are seeking re-adjustment of debts with a view to resuming payment.
Lewis expected to confer with President Roosevelt within the next few days, and would propose that the offer of goods be accepted and the commodities distributed for relief purposes.
"I propose," said Lewis, "presuming that the President that our government consider seriously the proposition which, I understand, are in the possession of the state department and the President from our foreign debtor nations."

Cisco Places In Shorthand, Track

Ellen Prange, Cisco's contestant in shorthand at the regional meet at Abilene Saturday won sixth place; Roy Callerman places fourth in the half-mile track race. Brownwood high takes 1st, 2nd, and 3rd, in shorthand with Brownwood and San Angelo leading in track.
Brownwood won the first three honors in shorthand; Abilene, Eldorado and Cisco trailing in the order named. First five honors enter the state contest at Austin.
At a late hour Saturday, Brownwood was leading in track with San Angelo a close second, according to Miss Ina Mae Reik and Coach W. E. Cooper.

Coronation Ceremony Sold Out Completely

LONDON, April 24 (U.P.)—Publishers of the book "Coronation Ceremony" to which the Duke of Windsor strenuously objects, announced today that the fourth edition already was out of print and that no additional copies would be printed.
The publishers added that it has not been decided whether a fifth edition would be printed, but indicated if it were, the offending chapter might be deleted. The Duke threatened to sue, charging the book libeled him.

Jaycees to Attend Dan Horn Pie Feed

The Jaycees softball league is whetting its appetite for the pie supper at Dan Horn Tuesday evening following the soft ball game to be played there that afternoon. The ladies expect to reap a rich harvest for their demonstration club after their young men take the long end of the ball score, said Edward Lee and Carlton Holder in discussing the proposed good-will trip.

King George's Coronation to Shatter Precedents Queen Mary to Have Place of Honor in Procession

By DAN ROGERS
United Press Staff Correspondent
LONDON, April 24 (U.P.)—Queen Mary will occupy the place of honor in the Coronation procession to Westminster Abbey, May 12, immediately in front of the King and Queen.
The arrangement is without precedent, but this coronation will be unique in several respects. For one, the procession will be the most splendid and impressive of any of Britain's royal "shows" to date. For another, it will be the first time that a female heir to the throne will see her parents crowned. Another shattering of precedent will be elimination of the Abbey sermon following the crowning, to shorten the ceremony and lessen the fatigue of their majesties.
The procession will be 3,400 yards

IT'S BEDTIME FOR THE QUINTUPLETS

Now bedtime draws near, for it's after 6 p. m. at the Dionne nursery. The children gather quietly for a last bedtime story told by Nurse Noel. Emilie, at left, is the only one whose attention has strayed. Yvonne, Annette, Cecile and Marie are all intent on the old French fairy-tale that is being unfolded by the nurse in their native tongue.

Tom Field's Brother Be Buried in Mexico

A later telegram to J. T. Fields regarding the death of his brother Paul Fields, who died at Esalito Mexico, where he was employed by the Medera Lumber company for the past 32 years, stated that the body could not be shipped to Cisco as was formerly projected, but would be buried there.
The deceased was 69 years of age.

Principal O. L. Stamey, president of the Traffic Safety Council, announces a meeting of his group at the chapel period Monday at the high school. Members of the local council will be present and a speaker will be introduced at the meeting.

VISITING AND ROUND-UP DAY FOR CISCO SCHOOLS ANNOUNCED

The community program scheduled for May 1 has been moved up until Monday, May 3, it was announced by Supt. Cluck but the schools visiting and round-up day for May 7 will be a big day in school circles, it was announced. Wm. McCraw, attorney general of Texas will be the principal speaker for the afternoon program.
The morning will be spent in visiting in all the schools. At noon the basket lunches from all schools will be brought to the football park and spread for a general basket picnic. The Lobo band will play a concert and there will be other features announced later, said Supt. Cluck. Mr. McCraw is known as one of the finest orators in Texas and his talk will be a big attraction for the program. A loud speaker system will be installed.
The entire student body of more than 1,500 pupils have never been brought together in one group," said Mr. Cluck, "and I am anxious to see them at the park for the lunch hour," he continued.
Neighboring schools have been invited for the afternoon program.

PRISONER GETS THRU WINDOW CLOSED 19 YEARS

FORT WORTH, April 24 (U.P.)—Jailers at the Tarrant county criminal court's building knew today that a window, closed for 19 years, could not be opened, but Alfred Lamb convict serving a 99-year sentence, was missing.
Lamb, serving a robbery sentence, was placed in jail Friday night when officers brought him from Huntsville enroute to Hutchinson county for trial on a burglary charge. During the night he picked the lock on a window that had not been opened since the building was constructed in 1918.
The convict then lowered himself from the fifth floor with a rope made from blankets.

IMPROVED ORCHIDS SOUGHT

BERKELEY, Calif. (U.P.)—Orchids soon may be increased in beauty—and possibly in price. Orchid enthusiasts of California have decided to form a state orchid association, open to all growers, for the purpose of improving on nature's idea of what an orchid should be.

Scout Troop Guests At Baptist Revival

The entire boy scouts troop No. 49, consisting of 24 members, were special visitors at the First Baptist revival services Friday night. John A. Smith is scoutmaster. Howard Robinson and Davis Fields are assistant scoutmasters. These boys have all passed the tender foot test, said Mr. Smith.
Troop members are as follows: Roy Lee Brock, Garland, Lasater, Wayne Robinson, Clyde Chesley, J. T. Simpson, Charles Eady, Billy Cary, Jimmie Skiles, Earl Suggs, Earnest Thurman, Lavon Huddleston, Weldon Parker, Clifford Thomas, Wilson Meglasson, J. R. Reynolds, R. W. Richardson, J. V. Allen, J. J. Robinson, James Bryant, Billie Swindle, Silas Clay, Bob Farmer, Hershel Suggs, Leonard Maginnis.

Bints and Party On Pleasant Trip

A card from Arch Bint states a pleasant trip. Mr. Bint and Mrs. Bint and daughter, Estelle, accompanied by Sybil Holder arrived in Port Arthur Wednesday, visited in Lake Charles, La., Friday and were to spend Saturday in Galveston. The party will return home via San Antonio.

FORD HEADS WILL CONFER WITH WORKERS

West coast strike—disturbances quieted Saturday under two truces—one ending in a riot in a California canning factory, the other terminating a sitdown strike in the Ford Motor Company assembly plant at Richmond, California.
The Ford strike ended when officials of the company agreed to confer with United Automobile Workers. Six hundred sitdown strikers vacated the plant.
More than 50 men were wounded in a riot at a food cannery at Stockton, California, before a truce was reached.
The recently validated National Labor Relations Board was a factor in two other controversies.
At Hershey, Pennsylvania, the Committee for Industrial Organization refused to accept results of balloting by employees of the Hershey Chocolate Company rejecting the United Chocolate Workers Union, a CIO affiliate as exclusive collective bargaining agent.
NLRB officials in Detroit prepared to hold an election next week at the Packard Motor Company where 15,000 workers will vote whether they desire to be represented by the UAW union.
The CIO, meanwhile, tightened its organization for a finished fight with the American Federation of Labor—CIO officials indicated the possibility of calling a general convention.
The Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks debated a proposal for a strike of 25,000 workers on eight eastern railroads.

Roosevelt to Be Visitor at A & M

COLLEGE STATION, April 24 (U.P.)—President Roosevelt will visit Texas A & M College here following his fishing trip in the Gulf, his son Elliott, advised today. Elliott Roosevelt is a member of the Board of Directors.
The president will arrive here May 10 or 11. He will review the Cadet Corps and is expected to address the student body.

STATE SESSION TO END MAY 15 IS PROBABLE

AUSTIN, April 24 (U.P.)—May 15th seemed today to be the most probable date for the end of the regular session of the 45th Texas legislature.
Adjournment at that time will keep the members in Austin only a few days at $5 a day, after the specified 120 days at $10 has expired.
Continuation of the session until May 15th will give the members three full weeks to make appropriations, levy taxes to meet them and settle other pressing problems.
Whether there will be a vote on race appeal still remained doubtful. Governor Allred has threatened a special session if race repeal is not voted upon.
Appropriation bills were to have the right-of-way in the senate next week. All have been completed by the Senate Finance Committee.
A final drive was to be made to pass a stricter drivers' license law. The bill has passed the house and waits senate action.
Taxes apparently were side-tracked until the appropriations are determined.
A constitutional amendment for a sales tax has twice been placed on the table subject to call.

The Nature Lover's April

A prose poem on April by a popular writer on nature subjects is one of the bits of beauty we glean for thoughts today. The lovely sunshine, beautiful flowers, green trees and April showers make for a setting as grand as could be imagined.

"Fleecy clouds—sudden showers—nesting birds—blooming flowers, all these are—April. March promised spring, and something of its fragrance and rejuvenation was apparent then, but April is its essence.

"Early mornings in April are wonderful. The woods and fields are alive with forms of color; the air rings with music, and if a quick shower comes it leaves a myriad of glittering gems behind, bedecking every bush and every blade of grass. The lilt of yellow-throated warblers drifts from the live oaks, the sweetly plaintive call of passing pairs, seeming to be bits of the azure of the sky. The blazing nonpariel arrives from the South American tropics, almost startling us by its returning glory and seeming more than ever to have been splashed with blue, red, and green paint on its way!

"A chorus of frogs sounds out from roadside pools—rising, falling in a piping cadence as if the silver pipes of Pan were being fluted by unseen players. The deep bass of the bullfrogs rises from the flags by the river and passing perch and bream break the surface in lazy swirls to seize unwary insects.

"Gauzy-winged creatures of the fields dart about in humming ecstasy, regardless of the fact that many of them live but a single day. Graceful bodies, glowing color, shimmering bodies—they come, appear, and then are gone, but all are part of April and of spring.

"Immortal April has rolled around again and life is abundant, happy, and so very much alive. So to its singing birds, its bursting flowers, its swaying marshes and sun-splashed hillsides, we raise a toast... Hail, April!"

"The Lord's Acre"

The Lord's Acre Plan, a method of financing country churches being sponsored by the Farmers Federation of Ash...

The Lord's Acre Plan is putting the people in the church, young and old, creatively to work, developing a working church spirit. It is making it clearer through actual demonstration that only a working church can be fully receptive to the great teachings of the Bible and exercise a strong Christian influence on the individual, home, and community.

The Dogwood; Bride of Springtime

You have seen the silky mist of a waterfall against precipices of mossy rocks. You have seen ocean spray dashed from a sandy beach high against the blue of a summer sky.

Like sea foam, dogwood blossoms are tossed lightly into the air, then remain there as by a miracle. And like fresh snow the blossoms catch the sunlight in their chalice and reflect it throughout the forest as though some giant chandelier were lighted with a million candles.

The dogwood bursts into bloom when the world is surfeited with winter's gloom and longs for gaiety, youth, and laughter. The flowers face upward, their loveliness held to the sky. And as a perfect foil for such an array, the redbud tree nearby adds the bright beauty of her queenly tresses.

I like to think of a dogwood tree in full bloom as a bride attired in purest white veil and coronet, awaiting her bridegroom at the woodland altar. With hymns bubbling from the throats of birds and the majestic organ tones of the wind in the pines, Nature provides nuptial music for one of her most beloved.

CAST OF CHARACTERS: JOAN BARRETT, heroine, secretary to John Hendry. JOHN HENDRY, mining investment head. BOB ANDREWS, Hendry's industrial partner and Joan's lover. SYBIL HENDRY, socialite, John Hendry's niece and Joan's rival in love. PHILIP HENDRY, Sybil's brother. DOROTHY STARKE, Joan's girlhood friend. CHARLES SUTTON, California mining promoter.

Yesterday: Joan looks back on her haunted past and prays that Bob will never learn her secret.

CHAPTER IV THE tiny Green Hills bungalow of John Ware Hendry bore little testimony to the fact that its owner was one of the country's most outstanding specialists in mining securities. It was a simple six-room, white frame Cape Cod cottage, with green blinds and a green roof, and innumerable tiny windows to gather in the sunshine. A green lattice-work across the front of the house promised, even in this early spring afternoon, that rambler roses were only temporarily dormant. It was the sort of a house to welcome a happy young bride.

Thirty years before it had done just that. John Hendry, a young man then, with an overwhelming abundance of happiness and hope and ambition, had brought his Nancy there, straight from their simple wedding ceremony at the church. It was John Hendry's first home.

He had grown up in a prospector's tent on the desert as a young man; he had sought his fortune in mining camps, from the bleak wastes of the Klondike to the burning jungles of Mexico. So the little white house in the new community of Green Hills was the culmination of a life's longing.

In the spring, Nancy planned the lattice work, and John himself nailed the strips of wood together and painted them green. Then, after they had planted the young rose bushes in the warm earth, watered them and tucked in the roots, Nancy had whispered: "I wonder which will grow the fastest, John—the roses, or our little John, as soon as he gets here."

Year after year, the roses grew and budded and blossomed, but before the end of that very first year, little John and Nancy had gone together, and big John was left alone in the white cottage.

HE never thought of leaving it. As his fortune grew, his friends wondered why he continued his solitary existence in the house where death had robbed him of so much. His younger brother came to Green Hills and built the most elaborate home in the entire community, but John, who had made the money which paid for his brother's fine house, stayed on in the little white cottage and puttered among the rose bushes.

There was Abraham Lincoln Jones, a lovable old colored man who was cook and housekeeper and gardener and handy-man, all rolled into one, and within the tiny house contentment reigned.

On this sunny day it even seemed to reflect contentment as Sybil Hendry drew her smart green roadster up to the curb. She looked at it only to assure herself that it harbored no guests at the moment. Her uncle had planned a quiet Sunday dinner, with just Philip and her and Bob Andrews. But shortly before the dinner hour, Sybil had pleaded a sudden illness. She knew Joan

Sybil's lip curled imperceptibly. "Some people might think that he could have done much better."

Barrett had stayed overnight at the Inn; Bob would bring her to dinner, of course, and Sybil could not force herself to see them together.

She got out of the car and walked toward the house. Bob's car was not in the driveway alongside the porch. Evidently they had left shortly after dinner. Through the wide front windows she saw her uncle sitting in front of the fireplace, reading.

THE front door, as usual, was unlatched, and she entered without ringing.

"Hello, Uncle John." He looked up from his book and smiled a greeting. "Hello, Sybil, my dear. Feeling better?"

"Much better, thank you." She slipped out of the luxurious mink coat that had been his Christmas gift and sat down opposite him.

"Too much party?" he asked mildly. Sybil shrugged. "The lobster salad, I guess. It never does me any good." She lit a cigaret and leaned back, looking into the flames.

"We missed you at dinner. And Phil didn't show up either."

"I think he went to town early this morning." She knew her younger brother had not been at home all night, but instinctively she shielded him.

"He went to town early all right," her uncle said quietly. "He was in jail before noon."

Sybil started. "Uncle John! What happened? Why didn't he call me?"

Hendry reached for his pipe on the low table beside him; mechanically he began to fill it.

"I dare say he was in no condition to call anybody. The police captain phoned me."

"But what happened to Philip? What did he do?"

their seats immediately. It is expected that Queen Mary will sit in a special chair on the right of the royal box, on the south side of the high altar. Next to her will be Princess Elizabeth, dressed like a grownup in a miniature peerless robe with a short train and tiny coronet, and Princess Margaret Rose.

The king's brothers, the Duke of Gloucester and the Duke of Kent, probably will sit in special chairs placed in front of the peers, in the south transept. It is the Duke of Gloucester who will do homage to the king for the princes of the blood.

Peers remove Coronets The senior peer in each rank does homage for the rest, the ceremony taking place at the end of the Coronation of the King, and before the Queen is crowned. For the homage, the peers, except the Archbishop of Canterbury as head of the Lords Spiritual, remove their coronets and kneel in their places.

The military will have a large part in the Coronation processions, more than 32,500 soldiers sailors and air force men participating including representatives of the Indian army and navy.

Composite guards of honor representing the army, navy and air force will be mounted at Buckingham Palace and at the west (main) door of Westminster Abbey. Officers and men will line the coronation route or more than six miles, and other thousands, representing all organizations, will march in the procession.

LAND PROBLEM CALLED KEY TO FUTURE OF U. S.

By HENRY WOOD
 United Press Staff Correspondent
 SAN FRANCISCO, April 24 (U.P.)—

Misuse of the agricultural lands of the United States has jeopardized
 the dream of a great, prosperous and stable American democracy, according to Dr. Lewis C. Gray, executive secretary of President Roosevelt's Committee on Farm Tenancy.

Dr. Gray is also director of the Division of Land Utilization of the Resettlement Administration, a member of the government's Great Plains Committee and various other governmental organizations for the bringing about land reform and conservation of resources.

A large part of the nation's land resources are gone, Dr. Lewis declared, and much of the remainder is in a state of deterioration.

The greatest danger to the United States as a whole, Dr. Gray foresees, is the creation of an immense landless, homeless and wandering class that would start the
 decay of American institutions
 from within.

dering class that would start the
 decay of American institutions
 from within.
Cites World History
 "The decay of the nations," he declared, "has begun with the revolts of landless populations.
 This was the case of ancient Rome
 just as it is with modern Russia, and it was for that reason that Karl Marx chose as a basis for his Socialist theories the possession of land."

"Our land problems of today
 have been faced by other nations and peoples for centuries past and are the same as have caused the disappearance of many nations
 from the earth."

"In our present highly industrialized life, we have lost sight of the agricultural needs of the country until floods, droughts, dust storms, tenants' unions, and farmers' strikes have called our attention to them, while at the same time they have started the roaming about the country of a vast number of homeless, landless people who may eventually constitute the nucleus of a revolting element against American institutions. Revolution always begins easiest with dissatisfied agricultural classes."

Low Income Group Grows

Dr. Lewis declared that one-fourth of the population of the United States depends upon agriculture, yet the condition of a vast number of these people is pitiful in the extreme degree. He said that there now are 1,000,000 farmers who have an income of less than $400 a year and nearly twice that number who are little better off.

There are 1,000,000 farmers that do not stay on their farms for more than a year, he said, for the reason that they have either misused the land to such an extent that it can no longer be worked profitably or that they were never suited for agricultural pursuits.

Dr. Lewis asserted there are two things necessary to save what should ordinarily be the most stable and soundest class in American life. First is to create a vast class of small landed farm prop-ertors who can profitably work their land on a permanent basis and, second, to create in the American mind the consciousness that land ownership offers not only a means of making a living but involves a responsibility toward the nation.

Warn of Speculation

Steps, he declared, must be taken to prevent all misuse and deterioration of land, speculation and everything else which is not only exhausting the nation's land resources but breaking up the possibility of a permanent, prosperous class of farmers and land owners.

At present, Dr. Lewis said, only half of the nation's farmers enjoy anything like economic security

while many of the others have been reduced to the status either of tenants, laborers or even crop chasers.

Dr. Lewis advocated a system that will permit a vast amount of land to revert to the government which will be charged with its re-distribution in such a manner as to make it profitable to those who work as well as to insure conservation as part of the national resources for future generations.

WPA ART PROJECTS AID 40,000
 NEW YORK (U.P.)—The government has spent $46,000,000 in the WPA's four art projects in fields of

OVERJOYED to hear that our old friends Tom and John Dean are both better ... hardworking chaps
 ... always busy at something ...
 hope they feel better after a few days of rest ...

A WOMAN who had become completely tired out with the care of her home and the worry of her children and the pestering of her husband declared, "I really must have a change and rest."

I DON'T want to go home and see my mother," protested the wife. "I don't want to go anywhere and see anybody. I want to get away from seeing folks, that is what I want to do."

ILL TELL you what I really would like to do," went on the wife.
 "I'd like to go down to the Cliff Dwellers hotel — I have always wanted to stop at that hotel, I want to go down there and have a room by myself, and go to bed when I please, and get up when I please,
 and go out when I please, and come in when I please, and not be obliged to speak to anybody, or to eat with anybody. That would rest me more than anything in the world."

SAID the husband, "Good! Then you shall do just that."

SO HE reserved a room for his wife at the Cliff Dwellers hotel and she packed up and went down there. And her name appeared in the paper with the names of the new guests of the Cliff Dwellers.
 And some of her acquaintances saw her going in and out of the hotel, and discovered that she was registered there; then the tongues began to wag like the tail of a dog at the kitchen door.

MRS. Doofooni has left Mr. Doo-funni! and inquisitive friends began to call and call up. In a few days the poor tired wife who had been longing for rest and retirement was so bedeviled that she returned home in a state of near nervous prostration.

BUT WHAT else could that woman and her husband have expected? Of course she had a perfect right to go to that hotel and do just what she did; there wasn't a bit of harm in it. But folks are not used to seeing that sort of thing done. It isn't exactly according to Hoyle. So society oh'd and ah'd.

NOW IF Mrs. Doofooni had gone down to Sunnyside Sanatorium instead of to the Cliff Dwellers hotel to take her rest folks would have said, "Isn't that nice?" And that would have been that, for it is quite the approved thing for tired-out wives and tired-out husbands, too, to go to some duly accredited place and take the rest cure.

ONE IS apt to step onto the tanglefoot any time one crosses the grain of the accepted order of things.
 Society's doings are more or less standardized and that is because certain standards have been found to be best for us. Any departure from these standards is rightly viewed with suspicion. Fundamentally it isn't just the thing for a wife or husband to pack up and move to a downtown hotel. But there are circumstances, as in the case of Mrs. Doofooni, when such an act would be entirely legitimate.

HOWEVER, Mother Grundy is a sensitive soul—and she is sensible, too, thank God for that—so it is not well to run counter to her ideas of propriety. Folks who listen to the old girl will keep out of serious social mixups.

GIFT PARTY COMPLIMENTS MRS. BASSETT

Mrs. G. Pollard and Mrs. C. A. Carbury were joint hostesses at a gift party Friday afternoon to compliment Mrs. Louise Armstrong, who became the bride of Hershel Bassett of Abilene in a Saturday morning service.

Lovely gifts were given the honoree and a delectable refreshment plate of ice cream and cake was served. A color note of pink and white added charm to the affair.

Present were: Mesdames R. F. Deigener, H. V. Gardener, C. B. Hill, J. H. Spoon, Rasmussen, C. E. Mosser, Ed. Garwick, H. W. Swenson, D. D. Lewis, Joe Clements, Leebauer, Misses Minnie Bell Daniels, Arveta Robinson and Laura Rupe.

The invited guests included: Mesdames C. V. Horn, Mrs. Mildred Jones, Merle, Martin Smith, Eastland, Mrs. Tete Burleson, Childress and Miss Jamie Elms of Abilene; Mrs. Gregg Simpson, Mrs. J. T. Waddell, Mrs. B. D. Vandorfer, Mrs. C. J. Shuman, Mrs. Myrtle Anderson, Mrs. D. L. Ryan and Mrs. J. O. Johnson.

Methodist Women To Present Play

The Old Maid Convention is the title of a play to be presented by W. M. S. of the Twelfth Street Methodist church, Friday night, April 21 at 8:00 o'clock.

Presentations of the play is for the purpose of raising money for church activities. It has been used for years by the church women and has been well attended each time.

There are 23 characters, eight of them male, standing firmly by the noble cause for which their club was formed, namely, amelioration of the unhappy lot of the large class of unfortunate single women. Ways and means of retaining a husband are discussed. In conclusion, "The Old Maid" are ground up by professor Makeover, remolded, and are transformed into beautiful young ladies.

The public is extended a cordial invitation to attend the play and a small admission will be charged.

DEAN BROTHERS ILL.
T. J. Dean and brother, John Dean, are both confined to their home on West Seventh street with illness. T. J. Dean has not been in perfect health for the past few months as a result of a case of flu early in the season. John Dean underwent what was thought to be a light stroke Friday, but is considerably improved.

Twentieth Century Club Hears Reports

Reports from various committees constituted Friday afternoon program at a meeting of the Twentieth Century Club when they met in regular session in the club rooms with Mrs. E. P. Crawford as hostess.

Mrs. G. B. Kelly and Mrs. William Reagan, delegates to the District Federation in Brady gave interesting detailed reports of that meeting after which there was a report on tag day. Mrs. J. E. Spencer led a round-table discussion on "Duties of Citizenship" in which all members took part.

A motion was made and carried to send the original poem composed by Mrs. C. R. West to the "Federation News" for publication.

Present were: Mesdames J. R. Burnett, J. B. Cole, E. P. Crawford, J. E. Crawford, J. E. Curry, C. H. Fee, F. E. Hinson, C. C. Jones, G. B. Kelly, J. C. McAfee, J. E. Morland, P. Pruitt, William Reagan, P. P. Shepard, John Siefert, Homer Sinker, Alex Spers, J. E. Spencer and C. R. West.

Program Planned For Grandmothers

A program for grandmothers is to be given as an appreciative feature by the American Legion and Auxiliary at the high school auditorium May 6, when these patriotic organizations present their annual Mother's Day event.

Clearly these programs are beyond the legion but, but this year at the suggestion of Leytonnae E. N. Clark, according to Mrs. James Harvie, the program will be at the school auditorium and a special feature honoring grandmothers will be used. Songs of the first age will be sung by the group and an organ instead of a piano will also be featured.

All are invited to attend the program, young grandmothers, as well as old maids, said Mrs. Harvie.

The hour and details of the program will be announced later when these arrangements have been completed.

Mack Statham Host To Moran Guests

Mack Statham, teacher in Moran school, was dinner host Saturday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Statham, 608 West Eighth street.

Places were laid for Misses Ora Brown, Lola Baughman, Hester Smith, Pearl Donoway, Bob Taylor and H. R. Baughman of Moran.

LARGE NUMBER ATTEND SUPPER FRIDAY NIGHT

The basement of the First Methodist Church was filled Friday evening as church members and visitors gathered for the Bishop's Crusade Supper.

Blasphemy in abundance made a colorful background for tables from which the meal was served. Following supper, radio address by Bishop A. Frank Smith and James A. Moore were heard and enjoyed.

A "paragon" Methodist Marbles Co. under direction of Mrs. J. E. Crawford, was presented. Taking part were: Helen Clark, A. C. Donica, Dennis King, and James Johnson.

R. H. Nance gave an interesting talk using for his subject "Fellowship." Miss Lola Lash told a story entitled "The Legend of the Elbowtonnet." The pastor, Rev. Joe I. Patterson, explained the Bishop's Crusade. Several numbers were sung by the choir, accompanied by Hjalmar Berch, music instructor.

CKLES and His FRIENDS—By Blosser

Short Crops Factor

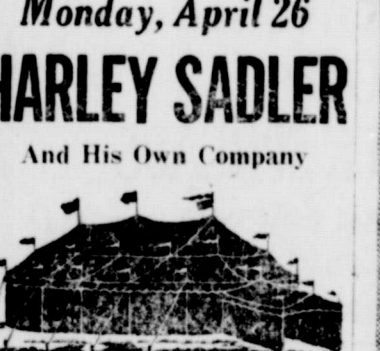

Both times the situation was helped immeasurably by short crops, the result of exceedingly poor crop conditions. These short crops allowed surplus supplies to dwindle to the danger point and prices began gradually to reflect the growing scarcity.

The biggest push to the price upturn came from war scares on both occasions. Today there is a growing fear of another war in Europe and in 1897, the mid-way point of the boom 40 years ago America and Spain were preparing for war and busily buying grains to feed their armies.

The forward surge of prices four decades ago carried the price of wheat to the $1.65 level. The present upsurge has carried old crop wheat above $1.40 a bushel and the crop to be harvested next summer to around $1.25 a bushel.

So strong is the present trend to higher wheat prices that men who spend their days buying and selling wheat in the pit of the Board of Trade freely predict $1.50 a bushel wheat before summer.

FOOTBALL TEAM DISPLAYS GOOD FIGHT SPIRIT

In a rough and rumping scrimmage Friday afternoon, the Whites won an 18-0 victory over the blacks in a division of the Lobo football squad for a climax to the spring training work.

The Whites staged a line thrust drive in the first quarter to put the ball on the Blacks' one-yard line. The Blacks pulled up a 7-man line to hold the team for three plays with the fourth one going over for a touch down.

The second touchdown resulted from a 20-yard pass. The third touchdown came when T. Stewart intercepted an attempted lateral. At times the Blacks had a staunch defense and held back the crushing offense of the Whites.

The best team won the game Friday without a possible doubt. The score at the half was 7-0. Latch and O. Harrison backing up the line for the Blacks stood out. M. Harrison stood out at his left wing post on the offense, snagging the passes thrown and was more evident on defense. Yancy, Alberdine and Yarbrough stood out for the Whites.

Cotton Harrison stood out in the line for the Whites. Laterals thrown from O. Harrison to Sherman took the ball to the Whites' 5 yard line in the second quarter. The Whites' after being stalled in the third period, came back and started picking up momentum performing with a crushing force in the final chapter. The Blacks were not equal to the occasion against the Whites' forward line in front of the hard charging backfield.

Sherman made yardage on off-tackles and O. Harrison made the line plunges. The Blacks opened up in the fourth quarter in a passing attack Alberdine did line plunges for the Whites.

As a unit this ball squad hopes to lift Cisco from comparative good iron obscurity to a prominent place as a winning team.

Line-up for the Blacks was: Doggett and Morrison, tackles; Pollard and Boyett, guards; Latch, center; Reames and Warren, half backs; Sherman, quarter; and O. Harrison, full.

Line-up for Whites: Yancy, Steyer, half backs; Yarbrough, quarter; Alberdine, full; Jones, Bacon, ends; Bailey and C. Harrison, tackles; Wall and Cone, guards; Stewart, center.

INTEREST COST TAKES 14 CENTS OF TAX DOLLAR

By SANDOR S. KLEIN
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, April 24 (AP)—At least 14 cents out of every dollar paid by federal taxpayers in the current fiscal year is being spent for interest on the highest national debt in history, treasury statistics showed today.

This compares with 17 cents last year and only 2 cents just prior to the United States' entry into the World War.

The 14 cents figure is based on the President's budget estimate that this fiscal year's government income will aggregate $3,828,150,719. However, there is a likelihood that this figure will be increased because of definite indications that revenue will not come up to expectations.

Debt Nears $5 Billion
Budget statisticians estimated that $835,000,000 would be spent this year to meet interest obligations on the national debt, now at $4,728,000,000 but which is expected to reach $5,000,000,000 by June 30 end of the fiscal year.

Despite the increase in the national debt, a relatively smaller portion of the taxpayer's dollar is being used to pay interest on the government's indebtedness. This is due to greatly increased federal revenue and lower interest rates growing out of refunding operations.

The average interest rate on the public debt, latest treasury figures show, is 2.573 per cent. In the fall of 1932 it was 3.332.

If budget estimates for the 1933 fiscal year were fulfilled, only 11 cents of each revenue dollar would be used for meeting the public debt interest, which is expected to total about $260,000,000.

1936 and 1932 Compared
The interest alone on the national debt this year is approximately 119 times greater than was the national income in 1932 when the new-born Republic found itself faced with the necessity of paying $3,201,628 interest out of $4,418,913 revenue, or 72 cents out of each dollar.

In the post Civil War period, 29 cents out of each dollar went to pay interest charges.

The largest amount of interest ever paid in any one year by the federal government was $1,055,923,690 in the fiscal year 1923 when receipts aggregated only $4,097,135,481. Interest amounted to 26 cents out of every dollar received.
