200 HOMELESS; CROP DAMAGES MANY MILLIONS

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 10 (UP)—The toll of three tornadoes that struck Oklahoma last night was counted today at 2 dead, 24 injured and 200 homeless. Flood waters rolled over a section of the area adding to the misery of farm families. The Canadian river surged from its banks along a 150-mile area near Union City, 25 miles southwest of here, where a tornado struck ten hours earlier. The North Canadian river also was out of its banks, inundating a 40-mile section between Canton and Woodward. The tornadoes struck in three places, wrecking 52 farms and town homes, destroying one church, one school house and ruining crops on 40 farms. Weather observers predicted rain today that will keep farmers out of their fields where a $50,000,000 wheat crop is ready for harvest. Oklahoma, Kansas and Texas three of the states in what was once the "dust bowl" counted millions of dollars worth of damage to property and crops.

MICKEY RETURNS HOME

Mickey Cochrane, weak and wan, lies on a stretcher before being taken aboard a special railroad car in which he was transferred from New York to Detroit and Henry Ford hospital, where the Tiger manager and catcher is convalescing after winning his battle for life. Cochrane's skull was fractured in three places when he was "beated" by Bump Hadley of the Yankees, May 25.

SENATE VOTES UNANIMOUS ON BOOKMAKINGS

AUSTIN, June 10 (UP)—The Texas senate today passed finally and sent to the house a bill to outlaw bookmaking on horse races, dog races, automobile races, motorcycle races, football games, baseball games or any athletic contests. The vote was unanimous. The bill provides prison sentences of one to five years and a fine of $100 to $1000 for accepting or placing a bet for another person. Three offenses in one year makes a person guilty of engaging in the "business" of bookmaking and subject to the same penalty. A second bill outlawing future trading on stock and grain market was introduced by Representative Leland Johnson of Waxahachie. A maximum two-year sentence would be imposed on any person "who contracts to sell for future delivery of cotton, grain, stocks or other commodities, who has not title to such commodity at the time the contract is entered into."

Bike Trailer for Vacation Days

Many a boy who has struggled to balance a basket on his handlebars will envy Robert Bellamy, Akron, O., youngster, above, who designed and built this streamlined bicycle trailer, with a little aid from his dad. The trailer has a rear bumper, a black and chromium design and skips along on balloon tires. Bob constructed it to hold plenty of camping equipment.

STONY BROOK, N. Y., June 10 (UP)—With a ransom note and a blood-stained hatchet as clues federal agents and police blocked all roads from Long Island today in the search for the kidnapers of Mrs. Alice McDonnell Parsons, heiress and kin to several wealthy families. Investigators worked on the theory that the kidnapers who took Mrs. Parsons from her 11-acre estate in this exclusive section, before noon yesterday still were on the island. An eight-state alarm was given, however.

The ransom note, printed with pencil on ruled paper was found last night tucked into the upholstery of Mrs. Parsons' car. It read: "Bill Parsons: I have your wife. Bring $25,000 to the Jamaica Bus terminal within 24 hours. My man will meet you and call you by name. Do not bring any cops. If you do, Alice will never speak to you again." The blood-stained hatchet was found in the basement of the home in which Mrs. Parsons lived with her husband, William Parsons, heir to a paper fortune. Although the stains might have been made by Parsons killing squabs which he raised on his estate, the hatchet was given to chemists for analysis. A policeman in the case said Parsons was preparing to follow instructions in the ransom note and pay $25,000 tonight.

BANK NIGHT RULING BY COURT MAY STOP TRADES DAY EVENTS

The ruling of the supreme court against "bank nights" caused a flurry in Cisco as well as in other parts of the state where such drawings were being conducted. Merchants' trade drawings are also effect in the ruling, according to local interpretation of the Chamber of Commerce secretary. K. N. Greer, manager of the Palace and Texas theatres, said this morning he would hold his bank night as usual tonight, as it was his understanding that theatres had 45 days in which to close out their schedules and procedure. He said he would be guided further by developments in the matter. The Texas court of criminal appeals, highest tribunal in the state on criminal affairs, ruled Wednesday that bank nights were lotteries and hence banned by law. J. E. Spencer, secretary of the

HITCHHIKERS CHARGED WITH HOLDUP CRIME

This is expected to be a hard fought game and some pretty batting is scheduled if luck does not run too good for the pitching staff.

Freeze Announces Revival Subjects

Rev. W. W. Freeze, who is doing the preaching for the Church of Christ revival, announces that his subject for tonight is "Repent or Perish," and subject for tomorrow night will be "Can a Good Man Be Saved Outside of the Church?" In his sermon last night, subject of which was "Salvation by Grace" Rev. Freeze said: "A man cannot be saved except by grace through faith, but that faith must not be a dead faith which will not obey, but a perfect faith which does obey. We accept the grace of God by doing the things which He has said. Abraham's faith was a faith that led him to offer Isaac in obedience to God, and that faith was reckoned unto him for righteousness. So today when we obey God, our faith is made perfect and is reckoned to us unto righteousness."

'WPA Poker' is Played Like This

BRAINERD, Minn. (UP)—The boys at the Lions Club here have a new kind of poker game they believe will soon become popular. They call it WPA poker and here's how they play it: Each player buys $4 worth of chips. They play if a man goes broke, he's allowed to play and bet just the same, until he wins a pot. Then he has chips and is back in the game. They keep this up until a prearranged time is reached. Then they quit and pay off. No player, by this method, can lose more than $4—no matter how tough his luck.

NURSE ADMITS KIDNAP STORY MADE BY SELF

CHICAGO, June 10 (UP)—A pretty lovelick nurse bothered police today with a fantastic story of a plot to kidnap John Rockefeller, grandchild of the late John D. Rockefeller, but admitted later that she "made it all up." "Yes, I made it all up. It's all untrue," said Miss Margaret Montgomery, 27, a nurse. "I did it to try to get him to come back to me." Miss Montgomery earlier had told of being kidnaped by two men and released with a message which was intended to bring Prentice to a rendezvous where police believe he would have been held for ransom. Prentice became suspicious and notified police. He said he met Miss Montgomery while a patient at Presbyterian hospital two years ago. He described her as "a very good friend."

CLEVELAND, June 10 (UP)—Governor Frank Murphy of Michigan and Governor Martin Dacey of Ohio today worked to prevent further violence in the steel strike following a riot in Youngstown in which three men were injured, many suffered from teargas and 15 were arrested. The Youngstown disturbance spurred efforts by leaders of the Steel Workers Organizing Committee to have other unions threaten a general strike in the city, unless Sheriff Ralph Elser "backs down" in his attitude toward the steel strikers. Elser and his men dispersed with teargas 400 to 500 strikers and sympathizers in a fight at a Republic Steel Corporation plant today after a food truck had been run into the plant.

U. S. TO SPEND $30,000,000 FOR HUGE AIR MAP

By FRED O. BAILEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, June 10. (AP)—Uncle Sam is having his picture taken—the largest photograph in the world.

When it is finished, some years hence, it will cover an area of more than 3,000,000 square miles. The photograph was begun in 1934 and already is nearly one-third finished.

It is the most gigantic photographic effort in the world's history, this aerial picture of the United States. It likewise will be the most expensive photograph in all history, costing, when completed about $30,000,000.

The aerial survey is being made by three government services—the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, the Soil Conservation Service and the Forest Service. The approximately 2,500,000 "shots" will be assembled into a composite map.

AAA Covers Most Territory
The AAA has photographed, or has contracted for photographing this summer, a little more than 500,000 square miles. The Soil Conservation Service is nearing completion of aerial mapping of 500,000 square miles, and the Forest Service has photographs of 30,000 square miles.

The project is so large that it probably will take 50 or more aviation companies, many of them flying several ships, four or five more years to complete the photograph. A large staff of government workers is assembling the pictures and charting maps.

When completed it will picture every town, crossroads, farm home, stream and tree in the United States. Every hill and every valley will be located and their height or depth charted. Even the type of soil will be recorded.

The pictures are taken from a uniform height—14,000 feet—by a special camera. They will "overlap" at least 50 per cent—for ease in fitting them together—so that every point will appear in at least two pictures.

Pictures Cost $6.35 Each
Each picture covers an area of approximately four square miles. The "net" area, allowing for duplications, is about 1 1/2 miles. The government pays an average of $4.25 per square mile for pictures, so that each costs about $6.35.

This, however, is only the initial cost. Field crews take the photographs, survey the ground, establish locations of points shown and record notes. They note types of soil, draftsman and other laboratory experts complete and assemble the maps in Washington.

The photographs and maps are used for different purposes by each of the three agencies conducting the survey.

The AAA uses them for checking farmer compliance with its crop program. The size of each farm and of each plot of ground on it are accurately computed and noted. Each photograph is a farm on a miniature scale.

More detailed information is required by the Soil Conservation Service. Drainage slopes and types of soil are recorded for aid in plotting terraces, contour plowing dams and other soil erosion control work. Laboratory and field work cost far more than the original photograph.

The forest service mapping is the least expensive. It includes national parks and forests, mountain areas inaccessible to ground survey crews, and other public domain. Photographs are used to establish boundary lines, plan forest fire prevention and control and to record types of forests.

Several other agencies have done aerial photographing on a smaller scale. The Indian Service has photographed Indian reservations and the Tennessee Valley Authority photographed the TVA watershed from the air.

Officials said the completed aerial map would supply valuable information for planning flood control work. The only blocked out places in this gigantic picture will be of forts, military reservations and other defense areas which the War Department insisted be omitted.

ITALY COLLECTS MILLIONS FROM STATE SWEEPS

By ALDO FORTE
United Press Staff Correspondent
ROME, June 10. (AP)—Gambling in all its multiple forms is actively sponsored and promoted by the Italian government.

In addition to a weekly lottery based on winning combinations of numbers, two major lotteries attract the attention of Italians once a year: the automobile race of Tripoli and the horse race of Merano. Both lotteries are similar to the Irish sweepstakes. Spinwheels of fate produce a determined number of tickets corresponding to automobiles in the first race and horses in the second. Prizes amount to various million lire in both events.

The weekly lottery is called "Regio Lotto." It is entirely in the hands of the state. Every Saturday 90 numbers—from 1 to 30—are drawn in eight major cities of the peninsula. The first five numbers taken from the urn are the winners. A winning number entitles the possessor of the ticket to 52 times the amount played. But there are combinations. Two winning numbers pay 250 times the stake. Three winning numbers 4250 and a "quaterna," or four winning numbers, 60,000 times the stake.

Use "Dream Book"
About 5,000,000 Italians, poor and rich, save pennies during the week and play the "Lotto." Poor people pawn wedding rings and furniture to play. They all possess the dream book "Libro dei sogni" for their guidance in choosing the numbers. The dream book is like a dictionary with numbers corresponding to persons and things and lottery fans believe in it implicitly. When a person dreams of something he looks it up in the dream book and bets on the corresponding number. The Pope's number is 58 blood corresponds to 17 and fear to 90.

Official figures issued by the Ministry of Finance revealed that during 1936 alone the state made a net profit of about $23,000,000 on the "Lotto."

Card games are particularly popular in small Italian villages. Games played are strange and unknown in other countries. A pack of Italian cards consists of only 40 cards; there are no eights, nines and tens. There are no numbers on the cards and the designs are strange middle-age figures.

State Poker Unknown
Five cities, largely frequented by foreign tourists, possess roulette tables. They are Venice, Abbazia, Taormina, San Remo and Campione on the Swiss frontier famous for its "sky-limit" stakes. Residents of towns where there are gambling casinos are not allowed to play.

Dice are not popular in Italy.

Cisco Boys Receive Honors at College

STEPHENVILLE, June 10. —A. J. Spangler, director of the department of agriculture at John Tarleton college, announced today that certificates of merit for agricultural achievements have been awarded from Texas Area IV headquarters to two Cisco boys.
 Lavon Dill received a certificate for parliamentary procedure, and Yowell Sherrill was presented an award for pruning stone fruits.
 Since June last, almost 2000 certificates of merit have been issued from Area IV headquarters at John Tarleton College to Future Farmers of America in the area, according to Director Spangler, who is supervisor of Area IV.
 "The certificates of merit are degree requirements in F. F. A.," Spangler explains. "In order to be a Future Farmer, a boy must earn one certificate, and before he can be a Lone Star Farmer, he has to earn two more.
 The degrees are awarded for excellence in 43 types of projects through which F. F. A. trains boys for agricultural leadership. Of 1980 certificates issued from Tarleton College since June 1, 1936, 24 have gone to Cisco.

 seconded by a Sweetwater man both of which towns have splendid bands. It was said in deference to Cisco Lions that never had they seen a club bring its band to a convention unless it wanted something and the fact that Cisco brought its band without wanting anything entitled the club to unusual honors which they were glad to confer by making its band the official one for District 2-E.
 Attorney General McCraw said he had traveled about the country and heard many bands but this group was one of the finest he had seen in Texas anywhere.

Miss Wilda Drago Recital Postponed

The recital for pupils of Miss Wilda Drago which was announced for Friday night will be postponed until next week on account of a mixup in dates. Announcement of exact date will be made Sunday.

Red Front Overrides Nance Last Night

Everyone had a great time last night at the soft ball game when the Red Front Drug Store took Nance Motor Co. for a score of 15-9. As far as baseball goes it was not the best game in the world, but as far as interest and fun goes, it filled the bill. Nance was a little shaky at first and presented Red Front with 4 runs in the first inning. Webber, Nance pitcher, held Red Front to twelve hits, while Riley and Boyett gave Nance only 9 hits.
 The Nance team looked mighty flashy on the field with their blue and white jerseys with the Ford emblem on the back and their blue caps with the white N on the front.

Coates, Red Front pitcher, got three hits out of 4 times up and scored 4 runs. The Nance team made 13 errors to the Red Front's eight errors.
 Boyett, Red Front pitcher, got a bad cut on the head when he slid into home head first and had to be taken from the game.

About Our Friends—

 refreshen an individuality. If a man can remould his character in a lifetime he has done an exceedingly fine piece of fast work and should be tickled to death over the job.
 . . . . .
 A person habitually wrong cannot get habitually right over night. He has to grow to new ideals, he cannot jump to them. He has to work tenaciously and perhaps burdensomely toward his objective, and keep on working day after day, week after week, month after month, year after year, and probably decade after decade.
 And that is why so many folks who go into these movements for reconstructing their lives, and put up the tuition fee become discouraged when they see no results and quit, and pack the lessons away to gather dust.
 There are many systems for changing w ong thinking to right thinking. Some are better than others. All of them have their good points. Almost any system that encourages a man to think constructively is better than no system at all. But anyone who takes up anything of that sort with the idea that he is going to jump into achievement right now is kidding himself. It simply can't be done. Such achievements takes time, but it is well worth the time, if anybody should ask you.

Suggests Label Showing Taxes

NEW YORK—Labels on merchandise to show what part of the purchase price represents taxes has been suggested by Representative Fred A. Hartley, Jr. of New Jersey. This, he believes, will arouse public consciousness to the fact that the tax bill today is the largest bill paid by the American people. "Strange as it may seem," he said at a meeting here, "the great masses of our people show a marked difference toward the cost of government or how the bills are paid." The tax bill, he said, exceeds the amount spent for food or rent, is double the expenditure for clothing and six times as much as the light and power bill. When the costs of local and state governments are added "it becomes evident that you are paying nearly 25 cents of every dollar you earn for the cost of government," he added. The personal income tax, Mr. Hartley pointed out, provides less than one-third of the government's revenue and covers only 7 per cent of government spending.

protect the hundreds of rats that scurry from tunnel to tunnel and regard them as their friends.
 The rodents have saved many miners from injury and possible death because of their uncanny sense to detect a cavern.
 Due to the sandy nature of the mine formations, caverns are common. The rats are able to determine the slipping earth long before miners are aware of the movement. Wasting no time, the rodents run for safety, thus giving the miners the cue that a cavern is imminent.

Tax Collector Pays $900 for Stamps

WICHITA FALLS, (U.P.)—Wichita county taxpayers like to ask questions, especially of Tax Collector Jim Robinson. They are prone to forget to inclose stamped envelopes and thus collector Robinson's office shells out $900 years for stamps.
 "It isn't right, that we are forced to spend the money that belongs to taxpayers in such an outrageous fashion," Robinson said. "But what can a fellow do."
 Jim isn't complaining about tax collections, far from it. "Payments for 1936 are coming in just dandy," he said. The fault is Robinson muses, that the failure of persons writing his office to enclose stamped envelopes has cut heavily into his yearly budget.
 For instance, Jim explained, a prospective taxpayer will send him a note to find out how much his taxes will be. The questioner neglects to send also a self-addressed and stamped envelope. After he determines the amount of the tax, Jim must use a stamp to notify the person. The taxpayer remits but again sends no stamped envelope. Result—another stamp for the receipt. And the same thing happens dozens of other times.
 One thing Jim is glad of—he doesn't have to lick the $900 worth of stamps.

Fire Bell Replaced After Being Found

CENTER, (U.P.)—Center's old bronze fire bell, installed here 33 years ago, was found last week in the flower bed of a residence. It was restored to its place in front of the city hall.
 The old bell had been missing since 1915 when it was replaced by the present alarm system.
 Old settlers recalled that it was used to give the alarm during Center's most tragic fire in 1911 when six persons was burned to death in a department store fire.

Social Security is Subject of Talks

Social Security was the subject of discussion in numerous interviews in Cisco, Wednesday, June 9, by Charles Von Rosenberg, representative from the Social Security Board at Austin. Mr. Von Rosenberg spent Wednesday in Cisco helping people who were in any way confused over the program. He particularly discussed the old-age benefits program.

The old-age benefits program applies to establishments with only one employee the same as to large firms, Von Rosenberg said.

Benefits are based on wages received, and beginning next July each employer will be required to make a simple report to the Bureau of Internal Revenue on every person who has worked regularly, part-time, or temporarily, since January 1. The report will show name, address, account number wages paid, date of payment and period of service covered. From the employees' reports on wages paid, the employees' Social Security accounts, and their monthly benefits when they reach age 65 and retire will be paid on the basis of the wages credited.

In view of these informational returns, the first of which will be made in July (and quarterly thereafter), it will be seen that employers should now be keeping records. Von Rosenberg said, showing for each person who has worked since the beginning of 1937, the name, address, account number, wages paid, date of payment, and period of service covered. Employers who have kept such records will find it easy to make up the simple information return but the employer who is not keeping records may find difficulty in making up his reports.

The Social Security Board office in the Old Federal Building at Austin, Von Rosenberg said, is prepared to answer questions regarding the program.

J. B. ELY IS GROWING AN ODD TOMATO

A tomato vine planted by J. B. Ely, Cisco florist, was the first in Cisco to yield fruit. The seed was planted last February 1, and the first bloom appeared on May 1. Every one of the 17 blooms in the first cluster set fruit.

Mr. Ely has been a successful florist and horticulturist in Cisco for more than 15 years, and he has had much experience with plants.

Mr. Ely says, "I have this year more nearly attained a cultural perfection for tomatoes than ever before."

Mechanical Map was Made by An Artist

MINNEAPOLIS (U.P.)—The inventive genius of Harley G. Webster, Minneapolis artist and cartoonist, may prove the salvation of the harassed motorist who cracks an elbow every time he opens his "neatly folded" road map.

Webster has worked out a device which is designed to automatically move a trip map as the motorist drives along.

No larger than the average folding camera, the device, which is electrically operated from the car battery, is placed next to the rear vision mirror where it can be seen by the motorist and passengers. A miniature motor moves the map in proportion to the average rate of driving speed of the car.

A miniature lamp throws light on the moving map to enable the motorist to see it clearly both night and day. Webster said the trip road map used will cover routes from 100 to 700 miles and may be easily changed.

20-Year-Old Fire Burns Lumber Yard

ENTERPRISE, Ore. (U.P.)—A fire that started 20 years ago is still engaging the attention of Enterprise firemen.

The flame, smouldering beneath a long mound of sawdust and chips broke forth recently to menace the East Oregon Lumber Company.

Firemen, as in the past, played streams of water on it until it was quenched, but they know from long experience that it will lie dormant a few months or years and then break out again.

Gorman Man Grows Irish Potato Crop

GORMAN, June 10 — Gorman's number one farmer at the present writing is J. E. Smith, who resides about one mile out on the De Leon highway—and proof to this statement may be had in person by a personal tour of his 20-acre Irish potato field.

Smith has been on this farm since 1933, and when he first settled there, it was given up to be one of the worst run-down and least productive farms in this section of the state—but judging from the results actually seen, it is believed it will now produce more cash per acre than any farm in this section.

This spring Mr. Smith devoted 20 acres of his farm to Irish potatoes, believing that they would pay him to do so. He started digging them last week, and is making from 115 to 125 bushels of potatoes per acre, with a price of two cents per pound for No. 1 potatoes and one cent per pound for the No. 2 tubers.

He is employing some twenty-five people to help dig, gather grade and pack the potatoes. And he is finding a ready market for them through trucks from the north and west, who have "just happened" to learn of his harvesting.

He has used both commercial and farmyard fertilizer in enriching the soil for his crop, which was planted in the middle of February and his efforts to make the crop pay have been handsomely rewarded.

Smith plans now, as soon as the crop is harvested, to plant melons, black-eyed peas and cantaloupes on his potato land, thereby again producing a money-making crop.

Farmers who doubt that the soil in this section will produce paying truck crops have only to make a trip to the Smith farm to see for themselves just what can be done when the proper effort is put forth.

June Grand Jury Charged by Judge

Judge George L. Davenport in his charge to members of the grand jury for the June term of 91st district court, organized Monday morning, emphasized diligence in investigating traffic violations.

Traffic violations given special emphasis in the charge to the jurors were drunken driving and reckless driving. Great care in investigating charges of burglary, arson and perjury was also urged by the jurist.

L. A. White was sworn in as door bailiff. Sworn in as riding bailiff were Hugh Carleton, of Eastland; John Barnes of Ranger; Arthur Bryant of Gorman; E. O. Gustafson of Cisco; Sexton Hulen of Rising Star and R. Miles of Desdemona.

Members of the grand jury are: L. C. Cash, Pioneer; H. O. Satter-white, Eastland; I. C. Underwood Gorman; W. R. Ussery, Carbon; Tom Butler, Jr., Rising Star; O. A. Kounitz, Desdemona; Clarence May Ranger; Frank Walker, Cisco; Nick Higginbotham, Rising Star; Elzo Bech, Carbon; Fred Gertz, Olden and E. C. Satterwhite, Eastland.

One member of the jury, Ben is a former district judge. He was the predecessor of B. W. Patterson Judge of 88th district court.

Voters Asked To Doctor Constitution

AUSTIN, June 10 — Texas voters have been asked again to doctor the state's constitution.

Several amendments will be submitted to popular vote on August 23, 1937. At the next general election, voters will decide if they want to keep an anti-dueling clause in the state oath of office.

This ancient oath, a survival of Texas revolutionary days, has been sworn by state officials since the beginning of statehood. Affairs of honor were not entirely stamped out for many years after that time.

A return to the much-condemned system of paying officials by fee instead of salary is one change under consideration. Reinstatement of the fee system, abolished two years ago, is proposed.

County judges complained that officials were not so active since fees began to be placed in the county treasury as they were when fees could be retained by the officer.

The state found it a heavy burden to supplement the local salaries for the state services performed by local officers. Gov. James V. Allred estimated that the cost increase was as high as 70 per cent. Strangely enough, it was not the officials who asked for return to the fee system. Mostly, they indicated, they prefer the more certain return of regular salaries.

Other proposed amendments will permit the state to co-operate with the federal social security board in aiding needy adult blind and underprivileged children.

UNDER THE DOME AT AUSTIN

By GORDON K. SHEARER United Press Staff Correspondent AUSTIN, June 10 (AP)—Foes of rice repeal have been criticized bitterly for dilatory tactics. But critics have overlooked the fact that both in the regular session and at this session the bill was saved from sudden set-back if not death by one of the men counted a supporter of repeal.

Sen. Franklin Spears, San Antonio, refused to give the bill a coup de grace at the regular session when his vote alone was needed to lay it on the table indefinitely. Again in this session he could have cast the deciding vote against the bill in the Senate committee on criminal jurisprudence. He did not do so but, instead, voted a delay in the committee hearing until two still-delayed members of the committee could arrive.

The Public Safety Department should be able to pick 35 crack patrolmen for the new places provided by the last session of the state legislature. More than 2,000 applicants for the places have sent their names to Col. H. H. Carmichael, director of the department. Many more applications are expected before June 10, the date set for the deadline for them. Applications postmarked later than midnight, June 10, will not be considered.

The expected 2,500 applications will be weeded out and the most likely recruits will be sent to a training school to be conducted at Camp Mabury, near Austin, the latter part of July.

Placing odorants in gas supplies to prevent undetected accumulations and possible explosions like that of the New London School is not so simple a matter as it might seem. Hearings conducted here this week brought up many points of difficulty.

The big gas supply and pipe line companies have to determine the most feasible places for "stenciling" the gas. In some parts of the system the odorant will be placed in the main pipe lines. At others it will be inserted at the "city gate." The city gate is the place where the gas supply is turned over at or near a community to its local distributing system. Considerable equipment will have to be installed. Lone Star Gas Co. officials estimated that it will require about 10 carloads of material a year for the places they serve. Their difficulty arises principally because of the communities served get gas from pipe lines with gathering pipe lines feeding into the main pipe line on both sides of the community. United Public Service Co. uses four types of stenciling, smallest being a little 50 cent device installed where the gas supply is delivered to an individual farm family.

Gas men attending the hearing appeared worried that the regulations might prove too onerous. Some wondered if a clause requiring odorant in gas in storage would include gas reserves stored underground. State Sen. Clint C. Small, present at the hearing assured them. Even the Texas legislature would not do a thing that foolish, he said.

Rep. J. E. Winfree of Houston set a predicate for later attack on validity of repeal of the state parliamentary law by having a point of order spread on the House Journal. His contention was that in making an unfavorable report on a repeal bill by himself and Rep. Conde Hoskins of Gonzales, the House State Affairs Committee had lost the right to report favorably on the repeal bill by Rep. Bryan Bradbury of Abilene. Both bills called for repeal and had identical captions. The difference was that the Conde-Hoskins bill put off repeal until August 1, 1939. The Bradbury bill called for immediate action.

Speaker Robert Calvert overruled the point of order. By placing it in the journal, Winfree made it possible to raise the point in a court suit.

Col. Ernest O. Thompson will be absent from the Texas Railroad Commission's next oil prororation hearing. It will be one of the few sessions he has missed since he became a member of the commission. This time he will be in Paris, France, as delegate to a world petroleum conference. The law requires hearings to be held prior to the twentieth of each month. He cannot possibly return by that time.

Dr. J. W. Calhoun, acting president of the University of Texas has had his scholarly achievements overshadowed by his businesslike handling of university affairs. He advocated the university's building campaign 10 years ago, helped pilot it to assistance at Washington and handled the numerous contracts and negotiations. His scholastic record is connected chiefly with mathematics, which he enjoys. He finds pleasure in its exactitude, has lectured on the "Beauties of Mathematics," and, with the late President H. Y. Benedict and Louis C. Karpinski, was joint author of two works, "Unified Mathematics," and "The Teaching of Plane Geometry."

The huge glass will be placed as soon as the process of cooling and polishing is finished. Oil has aided the University's rapid growth. The institution's oil and gas properties are estimated conservatively to be worth $250,000. Oil men have estimated their potential at double that figure. The oil lies in a vast domain given to the university in its earliest days as a state grant.

The first well on university-owned land produced oil in 1923. There are now 500 producing oil and gas wells furnishing an income of $75,000 monthly. All of this money is not immediately useable by the university. It is deposited in a permanent fund and only the current interest from the $72,000,000 fund may be spent.

The fund originated in 1872 when the university sold surface rights on 42,400,000 acres. Mineral rights were retained.

More than 40,000 members and their families, representing the 1,900 Elks lodges in the United States and insular possessions, are expected for the week-long gathering which opens July 11.

Final arrangements for the big national reunion were completed at a conference here attended by David Shultz, grand exalted ruler of the Elks and former governor of Florida. He predicted the convention will be one of the largest and most colorful in the history of the organization.

Principal features of the convention include a gigantic parade, the national Elks golf tournament for $2,000 John J. Doyle perpetual trophy; a trap and skeet shoot, and national contests for drum and bugle corps, glee clubs, bands and drill teams.

July 16 has been set aside for a pilgrimage to the Will Rogers Shrine of the Sun on Cheyenne Mountain, near Colorado Springs. The shrine was erected by Spencer Fenrose, Colorado capitalist, in memory of Rogers, an Elk of New York Lodge No. 1.

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS TO HAVE MODERN REOPEN

AUSTIN, June 10 (AP)—The University of Texas will reopen next fall as a modern institution hardly recognizable as the outgrowth of a small state college that not many years ago hired cowboys to herd cattle on its campus.

It will have a 27 story administration building, a $17,500 a year president, a $15,000 a year football coach and 7500 students.

The $1,633,000 administration building was completed a few months ago, marking the end of a $9,000,000 campus building program for which oil royalties were pledged.

The Texas legislature boosted the salary of the University president more than 100 per cent, indicative of a desire to attract a "big name" educator to fill the chair left vacant by the sudden death of alumnus-President, Harry Yandell Benedict.

As a result, the regents found themselves with authority to offer a president $17,500 a year, in addition to a residence and utility service. He will be the highest paid state official. His pay will exceed the $15,000 a year the university's athletic council is reported to have promised Dana X. Bible as football coach and athletic director.

The new president will head an institution which already has exceeded by far anything dreamed of by the Texas pioneers who listed among other causes for their declaration of independence the failure of Mexico to provide for public education.

The original 40-acre campus has been expanded to 200 acres, providing sites for 22 buildings. A medical branch is maintained at Galveston; a mining school at El Paso; Far from the hub-bub of campus life, on the high, bleak peak of Mount Locke and in the clear atmosphere of the Davis Mountains the university has another $1,000,000 project—the W. J. McDonald Observatory.

The astronomical laboratory in which one of the world's largest reflectors will be placed is nearly complete. The huge glass will be placed as soon as the process of cooling and polishing is finished.

Identifies Ex-Dean in Shotgun Attack

Despite the elaborate alibi that Thomas Elder, ex-dean of the Mount Hermon School for Boys, presented for the night of the alleged attack, S. Allen Norton (above), formerly cashier of the Greenfield, Mass., institution, identified Elder as the man who threatened him with a shotgun. Elliott Spear, headmaster of the school, was killed by a shotgun volley in an unsolved mystery.

OIL DRILLING OPERATIONS FOR COUNTY

EASTLAND, June 10—Hoffman & Page company last week spudded No. 1 Mrs. M. E. Holcomb, two miles northeast of Eastland, which today was drilling at 100 feet in search of small gas production at 1,500 feet.

In the John House survey, the test in 205 feet from the east line and 403 feet north of the south line of the 65-acre Holcomb tract. The operation marks the first for many years in that vicinity, it was reported. Last well completed in the immediate vicinity of the No. 1 Holcomb was a gasser.

For consideration understood to be approximately $20,000, R. W. Russell purchased from Murry & McDavid of Abilene their property about five miles southeast of Eastland.

The property included 100 acres on which eight wells on pump make about 38 barrels daily. On the 60-acre J. W. Clark lease are three wells making 10 barrels daily and on the 40-acre of the T. F. Murrell land are four wells making about 18 barrels daily. The land is in section 29, H. & T. C. survey, Block 2. The wells in the deal were drilled about three years ago by Contractor Wiley Harbin.

The deep test being drilled to a proposed depth of 5,500 feet by Gallagher-Lawson et al, one half mile south of Desdemona, was skidded nine feet east after losing the bit at 110 feet in the first location. The test is about 100 feet over in Comanche county.

States Oil Corporation No. 9 G. T. Parrack, nine miles north of Eastland, SE 1-4 section 7, H. & TC RR company survey block 4, was drilling below 800 feet on its way to the contract depth of 2,000 feet. L. L. Welborn et al No. 1 W. U. Fox, deepened recently after operation initially as a gasser from a higher level, was to be plugged.

Location of the well, which found water at total depth of 1,700 feet, is about six miles southeast of Eastland and southwest of Ranger, lot 49, leagues 3 & 4, McLennan county school land. A small showing of oil was encountered in sand, 1,420 to 1,428.

The Cisco townsite test, J. A. Bearman et al No. 1 Poe, was reported re cementing 6 5-8 inch pipe at 3,530 feet. Unfavorable reaction was reported from the Hickok Producing & Development company's No. 1 T. J. Amis, two miles west of Eastland, after shooting with 80 quarts from 3,310 to 3,350 for possible oil production. The well continued

Farmer Still Wears 1908 'Sunday Suit'

BEEDEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—A single suit and a few pair of overalls compose W. H. Curry's "lifetime" wardrobe.
The Jackson county farmer wears the "Sunday" suit only on special occasions like his 69th birthday recently. The suit is "just as good as the day I bought it," Curry said.
Changes in style do not bother Curry. Upon the few gala occasions in his life, he puts on the suit—purchased in 1908—and is "dressed up for the best."
Birthdays and funerals are the main events which Curry thinks warrant his wearing the suit.

He never gave out a contract—never bought a thing, mind you—until he had studied all the bids made him, and compared all the points. I used to collect and file them for him, so he could get the facts when he needed them. So I know.

I know now, all right. That's the way I run my home. Only I don't have to collect and file my bids. I get them regularly in my newspaper. And do I study the advertisements carefully before I buy? You're telling me!

Britain Will Build Fastest Warship

CLYDEBANK, Scotland (U.P.)—Work has begun on Great Britain's $30,000,000 battleship, destined to be the fastest in the world.

The frames which will intersect the lower sections of the vessel were electrically welded, and preparations made on a berth for the keel. It will be numbered No. 554 and will be constructed in the shadow of the Queen Mary's sister ship, No. 552.

Although weighing 35,000 tons, it will be bigger than any ship of similar weight, as electric welding will displace rivets in all sections, thus reducing weight. It will be the fastest battleship in the world and will provide employment for 6,000 men for six years. A special power station is being erected for welding.

Lucas Tells Body Of Proposed Act

Fifteen persons last Thursday morning at Eastland, heard H. G. Lucas, Brownwood, president of the Texas Agricultural Assn., explain the proposed 1937 Agricultural Adjustment act which his organization aided in framing.

The discussion was in 56th district court room. Lucas asserted the act aims to secure and maintain parity prices on agricultural crops, to maintain a normal supply through the even-normal granery plan in the interest of the consuming public and to conserve the soil by adjusting production.

Co-operating farmers, the speaker said, will receive under the proposed act price adjustment payments and soil building payments and will also be eligible for loans. The payments will be regulated by the supply and the market price. Other points in the bill enumerated by Lucas include: (1) Parity prices for farmers insuring parity purchasing power. (2) Soil building and soil conserving practices are required. (3) Diversion is required when the supply exceeds normal demand. (4) Marketing quotas for all farmers so in effect when the supply exceeds normal by 15 per cent. (5) Loans are available to cooperating farmers when the quotas go into effect and when needed. (6) Adequate supplies are assured consumers at all times through adjusted production and the even-normal granery plan at stable prices. (7) Contracts are made with farmers. The first one for a three-year plan. (8) Import tariff automatically reduced when prices go above parity. (9) The bases will be adjusted in accordance with tillable acreage, topography, type of soil and production facilities and (10) Benefit payments will be materially increased so that the farmers will attain parity.

A committee representing the association, represented by its president at the meeting, recently returned from Washington and described the proposed program as the greatest legislation ever suggested for Texas farmers.

Poisoning Effective For Grasshoppers

Modern methods of controlling grasshoppers are economical and very effective if used properly. County Agent Cook is urging those whose crops are suffering from grasshopper infestation to apply control measures early in the infestation as the expense of control at this stage is much less than if used later.

Poison bran mash for grasshopper control is made as follows: Coarse wheat bran, 25 lbs.; Paris green or white arsenic, 1 lb.; high grade amyl acetate (avoid cheap grades of banana oil or bronzing liquids), 1 ounce; caneer sorghum molasses (avoid corn syrup), 2 qts.; water sufficient to make a moist mash as explained below.

Mix the bran and poison together thoroughly. Dilute the amyl acetate and molasses in about two gallons of water. Pour this liquid over the mixture of poison and bran until every particle is moist. Then make further additions of water and mix thoroughly until a mash is obtained that is quite moist, yet so it will fall apart after being tightly squeezed, and so may readily be sown broadcast.

This quantity of mash should be broadcast so as to cover about five acres. A good practice is to mix at night and sow early in the morning before nine o'clock, since the hoppers do not actively feed until the dew dries up. If it is desired to kill hoppers in grass land, sow over the entire acreage to be protected. Where they are migrating from fence rows or pastures into cultivated crops, sow the fence row on a fairly broad margin of the pasture, and also a broad margin of the cultivated crop with the mixture.

Amyl acetate is preferable in the formula but if it cannot be obtained, substitute six lemons for one ounce of the amyl acetate. This should be diluted with water as with the other substance, but one should use both juice and rinds, grinding the latter in a fine food chopper. Do not place the mash in piles. Do not use lead arsenate—use Paris green or white arsenic. Do not use cheap banana oil or bronzing liquids.

M. L. DENNIS OF MORAN DIES OF SHOT ACCIDENT

M. L. Dennis of Moran died at the Graham hospital Monday evening at 8 o'clock where he was brought from his home 5 miles north of Moran suffering from a gun shot in the temple, accidentally self-inflicted. Burial was announced for Wednesday, pending arrival of relatives from South Texas.

Mr. Dennis, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dennis, well known pioneers of that section was in his early thirties, married to Miss Evelyn Jones and with one little daughter who survive him.

Mr. Dennis was born at Altus Okla. August 26, 1909 and came to Moran at the age of 2.

Other survivors are brothers: Jack Dennis, city secretary, Moran; J. S. Dennis, wheat farmer near Rex; Robert Dennis, student, Texas Tech; three sisters: Mrs. H. H. Tidmore, Grande City; Mrs. Steve Drake, Brownwood; Mrs. N. E. Padgett, Waco.

Funeral will be held at the home of his father, John S. Dennis, Moran, at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. The accident occurred at his home about 3 p. m. when he attempted to lift his gun from the rack over the door. It is presumed that the hammer or trigger caught and the bullet striking the door pan was deflected into his temple. He was rushed here, believed one of the longest journalistic records in the Northwest.

Old Site of Dowell Now Over Oil Pool

ROTTAN, June 10 (AP)—If citizens hadn't decided to change the site of Dowell, pioneer village of Fisher county, Texas, in 1906, it now would be one of the towns famous for having a pool of oil under it.

Dowell was established 59 years ago a cow country village was moved two miles and the name changed to Rottan. Where old Dowell stood, cotton was planted.

Last month, Southern Oil Company of Dallas brought in a gusher on well, Joe Robinson No. 1, on the very spot that the town once occupied. High gravity oil was found and major companies rushed into the area to lease the lands for mineral development. First estimates on production at the new well gave it 2,000 barrels a day without treatment.

Royalties jumped to more than $150 an acre. The Fisher county clerk's office, accustomed to handling routine farm and ranch transactions, was swamped with business. Because of the fire hazard, operators have prohibited the public from the vicinity of the new producer.

Joe Robinson No. 1 came in as a surprise to operators. Drillers expected to go 3,700 feet into Fisher pay. Instead, the well blew in at 3,565 feet in producing sand that could not be classified immediately.

The new well will bring prosperity to a section harassed by drought and dust storms during recent years. Dowell, the town that might have become rich, is remembered now only by the Dowell school. The school district will benefit greatly from increased taxes, as have many schools in East Texas.

Negro Blames Barber For Long Sentence

LALLAS, June 10 (AP)—A gangling negro youth charged with theft served a 30-day sentence but blamed 25 days of it on his barber. The youth was a typical young Negro, stocky, with thick features and a head that was shaved to the scalp except for a thick bushy scalplock over his forehead.

"Eoy, don't you know any better than to come into this courtroom with a haircut like that," the court bailiff asked.

The negro's eyes grew big and he looked scared. Judge Winter King, county criminal judge, sentenced the negro to 30 days in jail. After the sentence was passed, the negro remarked, "Ah bet ef ah didn't had sech a bad haircut, de judge would have let me off with five days."

FORD "60" OWNERS REPORT 22-27 MILES PER GALLON

First built for England and France, two years ago, the 60-horsepower Ford V-8 is writing remarkable mileage records on American roads today. Private owners, fleet operators, and cab companies alike report averages of from 22 to 27 miles on a gallon of gasoline.

You can fill the tank of your Ford "60" and drive all day—300 to 400 miles—without stopping again for fuel. Besides costing less to run than any other Ford car ever built, it sells at the lowest Ford price in years. That's double economy!

The "60" delivers V-8 smoothness and quiet at speeds up to 70 miles an hour and its famous older brother, the "85," gives top performance and greater gasoline mileage this year than ever before.

Both engine sizes are built into the same roomy car, of the same advanced design, with the same modern features of comfort and dependability that make the 1937 Ford V-8 unquestionably THE QUALITY CAR IN THE LOW-PRICE FIELD.

FORD V-8 $529 at Dearborn Factory. PRICES BEGIN AT $529. Transportation charges, State and Federal taxes extra.

Smothered Armadilla Is A New Delicacy

COLLEGE STATION June 10 (UP)—Two field men of the Texas Co-operative Wildlife Service have discovered a new food delicacy—smothered armadillo.

Judge R. E. Minton of Lufkin, Tex., introduced the new dish to the field men during an inspection tour. "Pres," Negro cook, prepared the dish.

The following is the Negro's recipe for smothered armadillo:

First, catch the armadillo, then dress it. Parboil until tender, using water freely sprinkled with salt, pepper and seasoned with vinegar. Place a small amount of grease in a heavy skillet and sear well. Cover the armadillo with a sauce of tomato paste or catsup, mustard, vinegar, salt, pepper and a sweet bay leaf. Simmer the meat in the covered skillet, adding water occasionally to the sauce. The dish is ready for serving after the meat begins falling off the bone and the sauce becomes thick.

3 Oklahoma Tornadoes Take Heavy Toll

200 HOMELESS; CROP DAMAGES MANY MILLIONS

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 10 (UP)—The toll of three tornadoes that struck Oklahoma last night was counted today at 2 dead, 24 injured and 200 homeless. Flood waters rolled over a section of the area adding to the misery of farm families. The Canadian river surged from its banks along a 150-mile area near Union City, 25 miles southwest of here, where a tornado struck ten hours earlier. The North Canadian river also was out of its banks, inundating a 40-mile section between Canton and Woodward. The tornadoes struck in three places, wrecking 52 farms and town homes, destroying one church, one school house and ruining crops on 40 farms. Weather observers predicted rain today that will keep farmers out of their fields where a $50,000,000 wheat crop is ready for harvest. Oklahoma, Kansas and Texas three of the states in what was once the "dust bowl" counted millions of dollars worth of damage to property and crops.

BANK NIGHT RULING BY COURT MAY STOP TRADES DAY EVENTS

The ruling of the supreme court against "bank nights" caused a flurry in Cisco as well as in other parts of the state where such drawings were being conducted. Merchants' trade drawings are also effect in the ruling, according to local interpretation of the Chamber of Commerce secretary. K. N. Greer, manager of the Palace and Texas theatres, said this morning he would hold his bank night as usual tonight, as it was his understanding that theatres had 45 days in which to close out their schedules and procedure. He said he would be guided further by developments in the matter. The Texas court of criminal appeals, highest tribunal in the state on criminal affairs, ruled Wednesday that bank nights were lotteries and hence banned by law. J. E. Spencer, secretary of the

HITCHHIKERS CHARGED WITH HOLDUP CRIME

GRANDBURY, June 10 (UP)—Two young hitchhikers were to be charged with robbery with firearms and automobile theft, the aftermath of the holdup of two travelers Wednesday. One suspect, 18, from Dublin Texas, was arrested by a posse late yesterday. The other, 21, from Oklahoma, was taken into custody at a Grandbury cafe this morning while farmers and Hood county officers searched for him in the Brazos river bottom. The car and $10 were taken from C. W. Roberson of Dublin, and Jack Oldham of Goodwell, Oklahoma. The auto was overturned during the attempted escape.

'WPA Poker' is Played Like This

BRainerd, Minn. (UP)—The boys at the Lions Club here have a new kind of poker game they believe will soon become popular. They call it WPA poker and here's how they play it: Each player buys $4 worth of chips. They play. If a man goes broke, he's allowed to play and bet just the same, until he wins a pot. Then he has chips and is back in the game. They keep this up until a prearranged time is reached. Then they quit and pay off. No player, by this method, can lose more than $4—no matter how tough his luck.

NURSE ADMITS KIDNAP STORY MADE BY SELF

CHICAGO, June 10 (UP)—A pretty lovesick nurse bothered police today with a fantastic story of a plot to kidnap John Rockefeller Prentice, grandson of the late John D. Rockefeller, but admitted later that she "made it all up." "Yes, I made it all up. It's all untrue," said Miss Margaret Montgomery, 27, a nurse. "I did it to try to get him to come back to me." Miss Montgomery earlier had told of being kidnaped by two men and released with a message which was intended to bring Prentice to a rendezvous where police believe he would have been held for ransom. Prentice became suspicious and notified police. He said he met Miss Montgomery while a patient at Presbyterian hospital two years ago. He described her as "a very good friend."

SENATE VOTES UNANIMOUS ON BOOKMAKINGS

AUSTIN, June 10 (UP)—The Texas senate today passed finally and sent to the house a bill to outlaw bookmaking on horse races, dog races, automobile races, motorcycle races, football games, baseball games or any athletic contests. The vote was unanimous. The bill provides prison sentences of one to five years and a fine of $100 to $1000 for accepting or placing a bet for another person. Three offenses in one year makes a person guilty of engaging in the "business" of bookmaking and subject to the same penalty. A second bill outlawing future trading on stock and grain market was introduced by Representative Leland Johnson of Waxahatchie. A maximum two-year sentence would be imposed on any person who contracts to sell for future delivery of cotton, grain, stocks or other commodities, who has not title to such commodity at the time the contract is entered into.

EPSON DOWNS FILES APPLICATION FOR MEET

HOUSTON, June 10 (UP)—George Mabse, auditor for the Texas Breeders and Racers Association said today he had filed application for a final meet at Epsom Downs horse-racing plant. Mabse said he requested that the Texas Racing Commission grant August 28 to September 25, inclusive, as dates for the meet which would be held before the state law banning parimutuel betting becomes effective. At Austin Governor Alford reiterated that he will veto appropriations for the Racing Commission effective September 1. Without money, he said, the Commission cannot supervise a race meet as required by law.

The entertainment feature for the closing day Wednesday, was a luncheon honoring past district governors sponsored by the Abilene club. President R. E. Grantham of the local club, together with Mr. and Mrs. Horace Conley, H. L. Dyer and R. C. Giles, report very interesting programs. The addresses of Lion R. N. Richardson of Hardin-Simmons university and International Director Bob Lyles of Austin, were outstanding, said Lion Grantham, who adds that it was a very enjoyable affair as a whole. In connection with the honoring of the Lobo band, the motion to make it the official band of the district, was made by a member of the Fort Worth club and was (CONTINUED ON PAGE THREE)

HUSBAND WILL PAY $25,000 RANSOM ASKED

STONY BROOK, N. Y., June 10 (UP)—With a ransom note and a blood-stained hatchet as clues federal agents and police blocked all roads from Long Island today in the search for the kidnapers of Mrs. Alice McDonnell Parsons, dress and kin to several wealthy families.

Investigators worked on the theory that the kidnapers who took Mrs. Parsons from her 11-acre estate in this exclusive section, before noon yesterday still were on the island. An eight-state alarm was given, however. The ransom note, printed with pencil on ruled paper was found last night tucked into the upholstery of Mrs. Parsons' car. It read: "Bill Parsons, I have your wife. Bring $25,000 to the Jamaica Bus terminal within 24 hours. My man will meet you and call you by name. Do not bring any cops. If you do, Alice will never speak to you again." The blood-stained hatchet was found in the basement of the home in which Mrs. Parsons lived with her husband, William Parsons, heir to a paper fortune. Although the stains might have been made by Parsons killing squabs which he raised on his estate, the hatchet was given to chemists for analysis. A policeman in the case said Parsons was preparing to follow instructions in the ransom note and pay $25,000 tonight.

The Crop that Did Not Fail

No one can tell just what incidents a child will remember, but something of the influence a remembered incident may have on a life is suggested by the following letter, written by Walter S. Smith, which we quote: To my father—On his 82nd birthday, May 11, 1937: You have probably forgotten the incident. It was so long ago—more than 40 years.

In the fields to the north of the old home you saw growing one of the finest crops of oats you had ever raised. The long days of hard work given to spring plowing, dragging, and seeding were over and now you looked over the level, ripening field with pride and satisfaction. The neighbors thought it would be good for 50 to 60 bushels an acre—and how proud you were of it!

Then one day a sudden storm came up which drove you to the house. The clouds were murky black—the kind that means wind with heavy rain. You were standing on the old side porch when the storm struck and I, a boy in my early teens, was standing by you.

You looked out over the field and watched as the heavy wind-driven rain pounded the best part of the ripening crop to the ground.

I remember what a tragedy it seemed to my youthful mind and I looked up to see how you were taking it. And there you stood with your thumbs tucked under your sweat-stained suspenders, and merely hummed the words of an ancient hymn of faith, "Rock of Ages."

Yes—you had an oat crop failure that year, but without realizing it you raised a far more valuable crop.

I can't tell you how many times in the years that have followed, when hopes have been blasted and disappointments have come, my mind has gone back to that oat crop failure, and in the memory of your courage I have found strength to carry on.

Yes—that stormy day so long ago you raised a crop that did not fail.

CHAPTER I "REALLY, Coral," Donna said, "you look almost pretty to-night. If you'd only do something about your hair. You should go downtown and let Pierre set it for you. A sculptured line is the thing." Donna ran her fingers complacently over the lacquered ridges of her golden coil.

Coral Crandall laughed, then sighed a little. "Yours looks lovely," she said. "If only Marge were here now, she thought, Marge who had been her roommate for three years, with whom she had laughed and talked and studied in pleasant intimacy. But Marge's mother was ill and Marge had not come back to Elton for her senior year. "There is a small college here at home where I can get my degree," she had written, "and I must be close to Mother now."

So Marge had been succeeded by Donna Allen, lazy, wealthy and spoiled. Donna's father, Winslow Allen, a millionaire chemical manufacturer, had withdrawn her from a fashionable Chicago finishing school in disgust and sent her to Elton, his own university, hoping that the life there would implant in her an honest desire for knowledge and a healthier, more unselfish point of view. Coral had not cared who her roommate was, since Marge could not be with her, had willingly acquiesced to the sorority president's suggestion that Donna live with her.

Donna's voice interrupted her reverie. "I think I ought to give you some advice, Coral." "What on earth about?" Coral was startled. "If you weren't so wrapped up in love's young dream these days you'd know what about. You're being seen with Professor Armstrong, the new man in the chemistry department, altogether too often. People are talking."

CORAL laughed unbelievably. "You must be wrong, Donna. Why should they? Other girls go around with some of the younger men in the different departments."

"Not as often as you go with David Armstrong. You haven't had another date since you met him a month ago, and you've dated him three or four times a week."

"Suppose I have. What of it?" "There's this of it. It's easy to see that he has eyes for no one but you, and you're as silly about him. It's not just students but the faculty as well who're fixating. It's all right to date him casually, but you know they don't tolerate marriages or even engagements between teachers and students at Elton. Why, they won't even permit student marriages, the dump is so out of date."

Coral was disturbed. "That's absurd, Donna. David Armstrong doesn't care a thing for me, and I... Well, we're nothing but good friends." Donna's lips curled in mockery. "That line might go over better if he wasn't such a Greek god. You're crazy about each other, and if the two of you don't know it everyone else does. He's asked you to the faculty dance tonight, and the only other students there will be those who have jobs in one of the departments or in the library."

It was mad. It was crazy, Coral told herself. But her heart said "yes" over and over... and her lips said it, too.

CORAL sank down on the window seat, her mind whirling. Surely it couldn't be true. Donna was exaggerating. There was no harm in seeing David... being with him outside of the classroom. How could there be? She loved David. But what then? Did he love her? And if he did what was there? The college authorities would frown, her parents would be furious because of Hoyt. Hoyt, what of him? And then there was a knock on the door. "Caller for you, Coral," David was here, waiting. No time now to think of Hoyt, or anyone else. With a last look into the mirror she ran down the stairs to David, whom she loved.

As they drove the few blocks to the gymnasium in David's low-slung roadster they were both full of conflicting emotions and yet unsaid words for speech. As they went into the building David handed her a square white box. "Thought you might like these," he said.

She opened the box. Five camellias, satiny white and fragrant. "Oh, I do. Now let me rush to the cloak room and put them on. Wait for me." For the moment, she was gone, and David's heart was in his eyes as he watched her disappear. Five minutes later Coral and David met at the entrance of the gymnasium proper, which, decorated for the occasion, served as a ballroom. "Coral, you look so beautiful," said David, then, "Gosh, I'd forgotten. We'll have to go down the receiving line."

As they passed along the file of men and women, arm in arm, speaking to each in turn, a little chill entered Coral's mind. Had Donna been right? Was it her imagination, or were some of these people not quite cordial to her? Did they disapprove her presence there? For a fleeting instant she wished she had not come, then the kindly greeting of Professor Maxwell, David's superior in the chemistry department, put her at her ease again.

"Professor Maxwell is a grand person, isn't he?" Coral said as they began to dance. "He is that," said David, then his voice lowered and he spoke into her ear. "I started to tell you how beautiful you look, but our social obligations interfered. Now there aren't any words. That's the loveliest dress, you're the loveliest girl, here or any place."

refreshen an individuality. If a man can remould his character in a lifetime he has done an exceedingly fine piece of fast work and should be tickled to death over the job.

A person habitually wrong cannot get habitually right over night. He has to grow to new ideals, he cannot jump to them. He has to work tenaciously and perhaps burdensomely toward his objective, and keep on working day after day, week after week, month after month, year after year, and probably decade after decade.

And that is why so many folks who go into these movements for reconstructing their lives, and put up the tuition fee become discouraged when they see no results and quit, and pack the lessons away to gather dust.

changing one's thinking to right thinking. Some are better than others. All of them have their good points. Almost any system that encourages a man to think constructively is better than no system at all. But anyone who takes up anything of that sort with the idea that he is going to jump into achievement right now is kidding himself. It simply can't be done. Such achievements take time, but it is well worth the time, if anybody should ask you.

Cisco Boys Receive Honors at College

STEPHENVILLE, June 10. - A. J. Spangler, director of the department of agriculture at John Tarleton college, announced today that certificates of merit for agricultural achievements have been awarded from Texas Area IV headquarters to two Cisco boys.
Lavon Dill received a certificate for parliamentary procedure, and Yowell Sherrill was presented an award for pruning stone fruits.
Since June last, almost 2000 certificates of merit have been issued from Area IV headquarters at John Tarleton College to Future Farmers of America in the area, according to Director Spangler, who is supervisor of Area IV.
"The certificates of merit are degree requirements in F. F. A.," Spangler explains. "In order to be a Future Farmer, a boy must earn one certificate, and before he can be a Lone Star Farmer, he has to earn two more.
The degrees are awarded for excellence in 43 types of projects through which F. F. A. trains boys for agricultural leadership. Of 1980 certificates issued from Tarleton College since June 1, 1936, 24 have gone to Cisco.

Red Front Overrides Nance Last Night

Everyone had a great time last night at the soft ball game when the Red Front Drug Store took Nance Motor Co. for a score of 15-9. As far as baseball goes it was not the best game in the world, but as far as interest and fun goes, it filled the bill. Nance was a little shaky at first and presented Red Front with 4 runs in the first inning. Webber, Nance pitcher, hero Red Front to twelve hits, while Riley and Boyett gave Nance only 9 hits.
The Nance team looked mighty flashy on the field with their blue and white jerseys with the Ford Coats, c emblem on the back and their blue caps with the white N on the front.

Coates, Red Front pitcher, got three hits out of 4 times up and scored 4 runs. The Nance team made 13 errors to the Red Front's eight errors.
Bozett, Red Front pitcher, got a bad cut on the head when he slid into home head first and had to be taken from the game.

Social Security is Subject of Talks

Social Security was the subject of discussion in numerous interviews in Cisco, Wednesday, June 9, by Charles Von Rosenberg, representative from the Social Security Board at Austin. Mr. Von Rosenberg spent Wednesday in Cisco helping people who were in any way confused over the program. He particularly discussed the old-age benefits program.
The old-age benefits program applies to establishments with only one employee the same as to large firms, Von Rosenberg said.
Benefits are based on wages received, and beginning next July each employer will be required to make a simple report to the Bureau of Internal Revenue on every person who has worked regularly, part-time, or temporarily, since January 1. The report will show name, address, account number wages paid date of payment and period of service covered. From the employer's reports on wages paid, the employees' wages will be posted to their Social Security accounts, and their monthly benefits when they reach age 65 and retire will be paid on the basis of the wages credited.
In view of these informational returns, the first of which will be made in July (and quarterly thereafter), it will be seen that employers should now be keeping records, Von Rosenberg said, showing for each person who has worked since the beginning of 1937, the name address, account number, wages paid, date of payment, and period of service covered. Employers who have kept such records will find it easy to make up the simple information return but the employer who is not keeping records may find difficulty in making up his reports.

The Social Security Board office in the Old Federal Building at Austin, Von Rosenberg said, is prepared to answer questions regarding the program.
